A good number of local golfers were pursuing the little white ball over at the Lakeside Country Club. And still many others were but for a Springtime drive around

Members of the Teen Town Mother's Club are to be coming the Western Jamboree a big success. We dropped by to get a couple of pictures and stayed until it was over. There were over 300 attended and the young peo ple seemed to have a real good time. The Teddy Bears were the attraction of the evening, receiving many requests for songs by surprised everyone by making his forst public appearance as a singer, and drew the applause of the

Tom Creighton of Weatherford, the local police in a civic duty.

Pat Collins was of a mind Sunday morning to call Wayne White and tell him that he had the fires too hot in his henhouse. Pat, one of the employees at the Times Publishing Co., has been buying eggs from White, who delivers them to the Times of-fice each Saturday morning. One or more of the other employees (names withheld due to popular request) swiped the eggs and boiled them, and then replaced them in their original place. Pat, unsuspecting, took the eggs home. Mrs. Collins dis-covered that the eggs had been boiled Sunday morning when fast. Thinking that Pat was playing a trick on her, she callone of the eggs at him. It seems eyes and he heard chickens chirp

We later discovered that the eggs were not only boiled, but hard boiled, having been boiled for several hours. The egg that Mrs. Collins hit Pat with wasn't even cracked. We suggested to to the Little League for prac-

Of course Pat came out of it little better than George Hazard. Several weeks ago someone hid George's eggs under a box and he stepped on the box when he was looking for them. George said at least Pat's were cooked and all he got out of his were uncooked scyambled eggs, shell
