

TEACHER OF THE MONTH

Mrs. Marjorie Theberge, librarian at Ranger College, is the first person the students think of when they need extra help on their class assignments. They are never disappointed, for she is extremely well qualified for this position and is always willing to give of her time and talent.

Mrs. Theberge is the daughter of Mrs. P. J. O'Donnell of Ranger and the late Mr. O'Donnell. She was graduated from Hamlin High School and the University of Texas, receiving the Bachelor of Arts degree. She held a Master of Library Science degree from Texas Woman's University. In 1955 Mrs. Theberge made a tour of libraries, archives and museums in London, Paris and Rome with lectures by the leading authorities in each city. She was sponsored by the American Sorbonne Institute, and credit of six graduate hours was granted by the Universite de Paris-la Sorbonne, through the French Minister of Education.

Mrs. Theberge has a variety of interests in addition to her love of books. Her greatest enjoyment comes from her three youngsters, Ricky, eleven, and Rita and Mike, ten-year-old twins. She is an active member of the Ranger Branch of the American Association of University Women and is presently serving as treasurer of the organization. She is the sponsor of the Ranger College chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, a national scholarship society. For a number of years Mrs. Theberge has collected classical records but recently has become interested in amateur photography.

Mrs. Theberge really does believe in her work. Books are said to be the tools of the scholar, and learning how to employ scientifically the great wealth of a college library certainly will have its beneficial results. Mrs. Theberge has many ideas for the steady improvement of the college library, but her deepest desire is that "many more people will make use of its facilities," she said. She would like especially to have the townspeople feel welcome to make full use of the library.

Floyd Bradshaw's Statement On Vaccination Law

Floyd Bradshaw, candidate for State Senator, District 22, has issued the following statement concerning the vaccination or inoculation Bill.

Senat Bill No. 63, Section One: No form of vaccination or inoculation shall be required for admission of a person to any public school or state-supported institution of higher learning when such person applying for admission submits to the admitting official, an affidavit signed by a doctor who is duly registered and licensed under the Medical Practice Act of Texas, stating that, in said doctor's opinion, the vaccination or inoculation required would be injurious to the health and well-being of the applicant.

This law passed the Senate of Texas by voice vote with only two dissenting votes. It passed the House of Representatives by a record vote of Yeas, 140, and Nays, 1. Signed by Governor Price Daniel on May 30, 1959.

"Apparently this law has been grossly misinterpreted. I hope that it was not intentional on the part of those enemies of the people who would like to have a medical dictatorship in Texas," Bradshaw said.

"This is the only law ever passed in the history of the State of Texas regarding vaccinations of any kind. School Boards have received their authority to vaccinate as a result of law suits and court decisions. The courts have held that where there appears to be a pending epidemic that the school boards have the authority to vaccinate for only smallpox and diphtheria.

"I am not opposed to vaccination with vaccines that have been proven harmless and effective. I am in favor of you having the right to have your family doctor determine whether your children should be vaccinated with a drug that may be fatal to your child.

"Our constitution provides that the Legislature shall make laws and that the courts shall interpret and judge their constitutionality. The Legislature should make a law that would let local people run their own affairs without interference." (Continued on Page Six)

Election Slated By Upper Leon Game Association

There will be a meeting of the members of the Upper Leon Game Preserve Association in the courthouse in Eastland at 7:30 Thursday night, according to Clifford Rust, secretary-treasurer of the organization.

Officers and one director are to be elected for the new year at the meeting it was said.

Harold Courtney is the outgoing president. Ben Mathews is the vice-president. Both men as well as Rust are from Eastland.

Directors include R. E. Donovan and Jack Stephenson, Cisco and Roy Brickman, Eastland.

One of the objectives of the game preserve association is the protection of game and other desirable wildlife but encourages the elimination of such predatory animals as wolves, coyotes, bobcats and fox.

Most of the farms and ranches in the game preserve lie north and north west of Eastland and Cisco.

Thirteen Scouts Promoted

Boy Scout Troop 15 had 13 boys to receive awards at a Candle Ceremony at a Court of Honor held in the First Baptist Church Tuesday night.

The following ceremony was carried out by the scouts.

The Flag was brought forward by scouts Jimmy Gryder and Jack Watson. Scout Bill Afterburn led the Pledge of Allegiance, followed by prayer by scout Tommy Brashier.

Aaron Howton, scoutmaster, presented the Candle Ceremony as scout Eddie Howton lighted three blue and two red candles representing the five points of the Scout Oath. The song "The Open Road" was sung by the scouts, led by Lee Russell, troop coach.

Deanne Dennis, scoutmaster, introduced Rev. Ralph Perkins, pastor of the First Baptist Church and troop Institute and Representative, who gave a talk on scouting.

Tenderfoot pins were presented by Russell to scouts Bill Afterburn, David Dunson, Jimmy Gryder, Tommy Brashier, Roy Leonard, Jack Watson, Andy Hamilton and Donald Dean Rose.

SUNDAY DEVOTIONAL

There is no man-made religion, and shall say all manner of evil against you FALSELY. FOR MY SAKE.

In the 9th verse of the Beatitudes, "Blessed are the peacemakers," not the "Trouble Makers," and Jesus spoke of the accusations being falsely spoken against a "saint," not an individual who has left Jesus out of his religion, soul heart, and mind.

These "man-made religions" usually have three very pronounced teachings as are related to, "The Divinity of Jesus Christ." Another great fallacy is that "Jesus was not the suffering Messiah." If people can escape their sins by failing to see that the horrors of the Cross were brought about by their own sins, Romans 6:23.

For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ.

There is another great fallacy being preached, "That after death there is an opportunity for the sinner, unrepentant, lost, unregenerated, estranged from God to have a second chance." Now the Bible does not in any place teach that there is a second chance for those who, in life refuse Jesus, to accept him after they die. In Luke the 16 chapter, Abraham tells "Dives" or the rich man, that there is a great gulf between the two places.

In Revelations Jesus speaking through His Holy Spirit in chapter 20:12-15 that "the books were opened; and another book was opened, which is the book of life; and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books according to their works."

It is not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire." Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth and the life, no man cometh to the father save by or through me."

In order to be safe, follow the "Jesus way, the Bible way, and nothing, take nothing away. Just let the Spirit of Jesus lead you. One thing that puzzles me is this, "Why people will live an eternal life here on earth and then want to go with him for an "eternity." If you cannot stand Jesus and his children here, then heaven would be a pretty miserable place.

Olden Science Teacher Wins Study Grant

Jerry Clay Cochran, Olden Junior High and High School science teacher, has been awarded a grant for study in a summer institute for high school science and mathematics teachers at North Texas State College.

He will be enrolled in the physics program, Dr. Robert C. Sherman, institute director, announced.

The institute will be conducted under grant of $47,200 from the National Science Foundation from June 6 to July 14.

Participants will select courses for six semester hours of credit in one of four fields: mathematics, physics, chemistry, and biology. The grant provides assistance for 50 persons with bachelor's degrees and some experience as science or mathematics teachers.

Each participant will receive a basic stipend of $75 a week, plus $15 a week for each dependent up to four dependents. Tuition, fees, and a limited travel allowance to the campus are also provided.

Objectives of the program are to improve the subject-matter competence of the teachers, to help them to encourage able students to consider science careers, to bring the teachers into personal contact with prominent scientists, and to help high school and college science and mathematics teachers understand and appreciate each other's teaching problems.

Census Starts Campaign: "Were You Counted?"

With the 1960 Census of Population and Housing virtually completed locally, District Supervisor Max V. Mossholder today announced the beginning of a "Were You Counted?" campaign to insure that no resident of the area has been overlooked.

Persons who believe they have been missed by the census takers are urged to notify the census district office by means of a "Were You Counted?" form. Area newspapers are printing these forms in their current editions as a public service. Prompt mailing of the "Were You Counted?" forms will speed up the compilation of preliminary population figures for the area.

Preliminary figures presenting the total population of incorporated places of 10,000 or more population, and for counties, will be issued as soon as the district supervisor is convinced that complete count has been made. Final, detailed population figures will be issued in Washington later this year after the returns have been tabulated on the Census Bureau's electronic computers.

The importance of a complete count was stressed by the district supervisor. He pointed out that the population figures compiled in the current census must stand as official until the next Federal Census.

"Federal aid funds are allotted to State and State funds, in turn, are allotted to counties and municipalities or a per capita basis. So a short count means a short allotment. Thus, it is imperative that we have a complete count. The help of every resident of the area is needed to reach this goal," he said.

Ranger Girl Needs Major Eye Surgery

Nancy Veale, a 6th grade daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Veale who live north of Ranger, is in the Baylor Hospital in Dallas and scheduled to undergo surgery Monday in an effort to save her eyesight.

Nancy has a tumor behind one eye and has lost the sight of this eye, and is hemorrhaging in the other eye.

Dr. D'Erreco is Nancy's doctor and after a series of examinations has recommended surgery Monday or Tuesday.

The operation that Nancy will have to have, in an effort to save her eyesight, is a very expensive operation, and a group of interested Ranger citizens have appealed through the Ranger Times for assistance for the operation.

A Nancy Veale Fund is to be set up at the Commercial State Bank, and anyone wishing to make a contribution to the fund may make a deposit at any of the windows at the bank, or send the contribution to the Ranger Times and they will make a deposit to the Nancy Veale Fund.

Nancy is in the sixth grade at Hodges Oak Park School, and her teachers say she is one of the top students in her grade. Nancy's father is a school bus driver here in Ranger.

Refusing A Gift

Dear Mrs. Post: A friend and I have been exchanging birthday presents for several years. This year I decided to discontinue the practice, so when her birthday arrived, I merely sent her a very nice birthday card and nothing else. On my birthday, which was a month later, I invited this friend and her husband in to dinner and imagine my surprise when she handed me a birthday present. I told her that as we had agreed not to exchange presents and as I didn't give her a present for her birthday, I would not accept it. My husband thought me extremely rude and said that I should have accepted it no matter what. I feel that as we had made an agreement not to exchange presents, I was quite right to refuse it. Will you please give me your opinion?

Answer: Having agreed not to exchange birthday presents, she was wrong to have brought you one, but even so, it was certainly not gracious of you to refuse it once she had brought it.

Salad As The Main Course

Dear Mrs. Post: When served an individual salad bowl (chef's salad, for example), as the main course at lunch, does one eat directly from the bowl or take small portions over on to one's plate?

Answer: As a rule, you mix the salad with the dressing in the bowl, and then take it little by little on your plate.

Greeting Fellow Employees

Dear Mrs. Post: I work in an office with several other girls and the following question has come up for discussion: Is it proper for an employee coming into the office to say good morning first to her fellow employees who are already seated at desks? I have always felt that it was rude for the one entering not to say something in the way of greeting to those already in the office, but there are some who disagree with me and think it is the place of those already in the office to greet the later arrivals first. Will you please tell us who is right?

Answer: The one coming in does most usually give general greeting to the room and those who catch her eye naturally return her "good morning."

Cocktails Before The Party

Dear Mrs. Post: I was invited to a party at a friend's house recently. The night of the party I asked several other friends who were also going to this same party, to come up to my apartment for a cocktail before going to the party. With it I served potato chips and some salted nuts. When we arrived at the party someone had mentioned this to the hostess who seemed to think I was wrong to do this and that I had interfered with her party. Will you please tell me if there was anything wrong in what I did?

Who Provides The Rice?

Answer: If your party was very brief there was certainly nothing wrong in what you did. If you detained your guests so that they arrived late at the other party, that would have been inexcusably rude to your hostess.

Dear Mrs. Post: I am going to be married soon and would like to know if it up to my family to provide the rice that is customarily thrown at the bride as she leaves the church.

Answer: The bride's family usually supplies the rice, but there is nothing in the world to prevent friends from bringing their own rice or confetti with them to throw at you.

Some Household Help Not Being Reported for S.S.

Some 100,000 housewives throughout the nation may be violating the social security laws by not making timely reports on the wages they pay their household help, according to a report furnished R. R. Tuley, Jr., Abilene district manager for the Social Security Administration.

Each employer who pays a household worker (including a baby-sitter) as much as $50 cash wages during a calendar quarter must file a return with the Internal Revenue Service, giving the name, social security account number, and amount of wages paid the employee. The law puts the sole responsibility for filing the returns and paying the tax on the employer, even though the employee may have asked that no tax be withheld from the wages.

If not detected by the Internal Revenue Service through its routine enforcement procedures, those employers not filing reports may later be called to account in a number of different ways. Such could happen when a worker applies at the social security office for retirement or disability benefits, or when a survivor of a household worker applies for payment after the worker's death. An employer found to be delinquent under those conditions would normally be liable for the entire tax for several years back, plus interest and penalties.

Any housewife who employs man, baby-sitter, etc., should ask the Abilene office of the Social Security Administration for the free booklet "Social Security for Your Household Employee", and when received should complete the post card form attached and mail it to the District Director of Internal Revenue. She will then be placed on the mailing list for the quarterly tax return forms. Returns for the first three months of 1960 are due by April 30. domestic help (cook, maid, yard-

Good Posture Can Be Aid to Healthy Lives

These days of comfortable living have caused a deterioration in good posture practices that could impair healthy lives in later years, Dr. Robert Verheul, posture chairman for this area, said today.

Mechanical developments in recent years such as TV, easy-to-handle automobiles and lawn mowers have lulled the public into "over-relaxing".

"Bad posture, whether it be while watching TV, driving an automobile or even sleeping, often forces the spine into an unnatural position and impairs the flow of nervous energy from the spinal column to all parts of the body."

The strain on the spine is usually not immediately apparent, but could ultimately produce a lowered resistance to disease.

In this area and in other areas in Texas citizens will be reminded during Correct Posture Week, May 1-7, to follow the rules of good posture so as to enjoy good health in later years: "Stand Tall, Sit Tall, Walk Tall."

THE BIBLE vs. JEHOVAH WITNESSES

"Whoever goeth onward and abideth not in the teaching of Christ hath not God . . . If any come unto you and bring not this teaching, receive not him into your house, nor give him greeting: For he that gives him greeting partakes in his evil work."—II John: 9-11.

Since JEHOVAH WITNESSES claim the right to—"Attack false principles of all religions and expose harmful theories and traditions of men to the truth of the Bible"—(Let God Be True, P. 221)—They cannot deny this same right to be exercised on their innumerable false doctrines.

Jehovah Witnesses Do Not speak as Christ spoke—Teach as He taught—Nor abide in His commandments. Their doctrines contradict the teachings of Christ's Apostles and other inspired men of the New and Old Testament. Therefore the above warning needs to be applied to them. Compare their theories with the Bible truths below:

Witnesses Teach: Jesus, the Christ, was not diety (God), but was only "God's mortal Son" and "nothing more than a perfect man". +P. 87, *P. 248, 250.

THE BIBLE TEACHES: "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God . . ."
"And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us (and we beheld his glory, glory as of the only begotten of the Father . . ." John 1:1,14.
"Behold, a virgin shall conceive and shall bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel, which is interpreted: God with us." Matt. 1:23.
"Looking for that blessed hope and glorious appearing of our great God, the Lord Jesus Christ." Titus 2:13.
CONCLUSION: Jesus of Nazareth, the Christ, was diety in fleshly form. The Bible is right.

Witnesses Teach: The primary purpose of Christ was NOT "to ransom and save humankind". *P. 251.

THE BIBLE TEACHES: "Faithful is the saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Jesus came into the world to save sinners." I Tim. 1:15.
"And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but for the sins of the whole world." I John 2:2.
"God sent his son . . . that the world through him might be saved." John 3:17.
CONCLUSION: Jesus and his apostles taught the son came to save humankind and all should accept that truth. The Witnesses say for you not to accept that truth. The Bible is right.

Witnesses Teach: They "are not trying to convert the whole world". +P. 219.

THE BIBLE TEACHES: "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel . . ." Ma: 16:13.
"Go teach all nations . . ." Matt. 28:19.
" . . . the gospel, which was preached in all creation under heaven . . ." Col. 1:23.
CONCLUSION: Christ said the gospel was for all, and need be preached throughout the world to all peoples: The Witnesses are not trying to do what Christ said. The Bible is right.

Witnesses Teach: "At Revel. 14:1-3, the Bible is conclusive in predicting that the final number of heavenly church will be 144,000." +P. 113.

THE BIBLE TEACHES: At Revel. 14:4 that these mentioned 144,000 are also virgin men. "These are they which are not defiled with women, for they are virgins." And Rev. 7:4-8 further signifies these 144,000 are of Israel, Jews.
CONCLUSION: Honest Bible interpretation demands if one part of a context must be taken as literal, then all must; therefore the Witnesses exclude from heaven all women, all girls, all husbands, all fathers: In other words if you were not a Jewish male virgin on earth, there is not heavenly hope. That which proves too much proves nothing.

Witnesses Teach: "King Jesus Christ was put to death in the flesh and resurrected an invisible spirit creature." + P. 122.

THE BIBLE TEACHES: "And they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed they beheld a spirit. And he said, why are ye troubled and wherefore do questionings arise in your heart? See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: Handle me, and see, for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye behold me having." Luke 24:37-39.
"Have ye here anything to eat? And they gave him a piece of broiled fish". Luke 24:41-42.
CONCLUSION: Jesus affirmed that he was raised bodily from the grave and appeared not in spirit form, and ate fish to prove it. Witnesses say Jesus following his resurrection was INVISIBLE spirit. Let God be found true, though all men be found liars. Christ spoke truth.

Witnesses Teach: "God will not destroy his wonderful handiwork of earth . . . but will destroy the nations." *P. 283.

THE BIBLE TEACHES: "The day of the Lord shall come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the EARTH ALSO and the works that are therein shall be burned up." II Peter 3:10.
"Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away." Matt. 24:35.
CONCLUSION: Christ and Peter both spoke of the destruction and complete consuming of His earthly handiwork as well as heavenly elements. Witnesses deny Christ's teaching. The Bible is right.

WHAT IS LAW

While getting ready to observe LAW DAY U. S. A. on May 1st, perhaps we should ask ourselves the question: "What is law?" The English language uses one word "law" to express two distinct ideas. In many foreign languages these two meanings are expressed by two different words. When we speak of the "rule of law", we are thinking of the whole body of law, under which we live together in a civilized society.

In Latin the word law in its broad concept is "jus", but for a specific statute it is "lex", from which our word "law" is derived. In French it is "droit" and "loi"; in Spanish, "derecho" and "ley". The French word for law is identical with the word for "right". This is not a coincidence. The whole purpose of the law is to define and enforce our rights. We are forbidden to speed on the highway so that others may enjoy their right to travel the same road in safety. Laws specifying how wills and deeds shall be made have been adopted for the benefit of the people.

Our rights have been established through the years as the law strives to keep itself responsive to the changing needs of the people it serves.
Second, fundamental rights such as the right to vote, to bear arms and to participate in government. And third, there are "basic rights" so basic that they belong to all men everywhere. Call them God-given rights, if you will—rights guaranteed under law and named in the Declaration of Independence—life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

Law guarantees us freedom, peace and progress, ideals which are, and always have been, dependent upon the adequacy of our legal system and the protection awarded the individual by our courts.

LAW DAY U. S. A. is the American way; it is America's answer to communism.
(This column, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

By BOYCE HOUSE

Fort Worth, when I moved there in 1951, had a population of around 150,000. As a reporter on the Star-Telegram, I was often assigned to the police station and there was a period of a year or so when I attended the luncheon of some service club five noon a week—so that I knew all the detectives, half the patrolmen and nearly all the members of the downtown Lions, Kiwanis and Rotary clubs. Now the city has grown to such an extent that I can walk two blocks and not see a single face I know.

Automobile traffic was not a third of what it is today. There were no parking meters. The traffic signals were connected with bells which rang when the signal changed.

This was during the depression and national prohibition. Millions chucked at Will Rogers' remarks in the daily paper. There was no air-conditioning; no TV and even radio was not yet so stabilized but one man operated a station without a license until fed-and officers walked in, in the middle of a program, and jerked the wires loose. People were talking about a successor to "the great engineer in the White House" and a Texan and two former Texans were coming in for consideration—Speaker of the House John N. Garner of Uvalde, Gov. "Alfalfa Bill" Murray of Oklahoma, who had lived in Parker County, and Melvin Taylor of Chicago, who began his banking career in Malone, in Hill County.

Travelers visiting Fort Worth for the first time inquired the way to the Seibold Cafe, famed for its huge steaks; and gourmets said the specialty at the Virginia Ham Kitchen was better than the ham served in Virginia.

A certain hooded organization had faded, like a specter, from the scene only a few years before, after having briefly exercised political power in Fort Worth and over the State. There was a rumor it was going to be revived so I was assigned by the city editor to report the meeting. The place of assembly was a hill-top overlooking the Fort Worth-Dallas pike, a quarter of a mile east of the car-barns. This hill was said to have been the meeting place during the heyday of the organization. Several hundred men were there, none in robes and masks, and a few speeches were made but the old-time ardor was absent and the ghost returned to its tomb.

One week-end the Missouri Pacific railroad ran an excursion to San Antonio. I went. The round-trip fare was $3. (Years ago, the Missouri Pacific gave up passenger service between Fort Worth and San Antonio.) Ten thousand was a good crowd for a T. C. U. football game. The Stock Show was held in the North Side Coliseum. Bowen Air Lines advertised that the fastest passenger planes in the world were in operation between Fort Worth and San Antonio.

Aman Carter already had become an international celebrity. William P. McLean was the State's most renowned trial lawyer. The Rev. Frank Norris was one of the best known ministers in the nation. The city's most spectacular capitalist of that era was busy in various enterprises. Rated many times over a millionaire at that time, he was to die 20 years later as a guest in a hospital to which, in his days of affluence, he had given $50,000.

W. T. (Tom) Waggoner, last of the old-time West Texas cattle kings, was living in Fort Worth. He was said to be the richest man west of the Mississippi because of the countless cattle and the oil wells on his vast ranch. At this time, he was building Arlington Downs, which came to represent an investment of $2,000,000. But, to stand deserted except for the memories of pounding hoofbeats and cheering throngs. After years of desolation, the big grandstand recently was torn down so the land can become part of a great industrial development.

Very little time has brought changes since 1951.

The reason that this has not been done is because of the powerful American Medical Association and the Texas Medical Association which maintain the strongest and best paid lobbyist in Austin. They will try to defeat anyone for the State Senate who does not pay tribute to their lobby or one who disagrees with the outrageous prices charged for their services. Every member of the Legislature can testify to the truth of this statement.

"Dr. G. W. Cleveland, Medical Doctor, Chairman of the Council of Medical Jurisprudence and Phillip K. Overton, attorney for the Texas Medical Association gave me a letter on April 22, 1959, stating "that any objections would be withdrawn" from Senate Bill No. 63. In fact, Overton, lobbyist for the Medics, lobbied the House of Representatives for its passage in the House where it got 140 votes.

"I asked the 33 newspapers of this district last August to print this law, S. B. 63. Now I am being forced to spend several hundred dollars to correct the twisted story that is being told. Many good men and women will not seek public office for being smeared by gossip-mongers as is being done to me. Some have no qualifications for office and resort to these tactics to ruin a good name.

"I am not a lawyer, and have no legal license to take retainer fees from those interested in legislation. The Senate is composed of thirty-one members, twenty-one of whom are lawyers. I am a school teacher and if you want an old country boy who has fought your battles and will fight for the truth, stick with me and I will never give you cause to regret your vote for me for a second term as your State Senator."
