Move To Obtain Signers for Texas Centennial Help

Local movement is now under way to enlist members in the Texas Centennial club, an organization of a state-wide scope for the purpose of fostering the Texas Centennial in 1936 and preparation for the celebration of a century unparalleled progress in the Lone Star State.

A. Singer, chairman of the Castro County Centennial board, is in possession of literature this week setting forth the objectives of the Centennial club, also he received forms for the signing of members in the organization, or otherwise, in behalf of the Centennial other than to gain the endorsement of the movement.

Singer says it is his plan to have the list of names in the hands of local ministers, lodges, etc., in order to have more convenient for Castro County citizens to participate.

It has been made that signers should sign their names in ink, on a list of names to be placed in permanent record and be placed in the hands of the Texas Centennial club which will be preserved to be used by future generations.

Agreement that is entered into by the signers of the list is given to the Texas Centennial club of Castro County, Texas, in the event of which is to assist in any way in whatever way we can contribute to a creditable Texas Centennial observance in 1936, commencing at the heroic period of early Texas history and celebrating a century of unparalleled progress, to which we may be able to render our cooperation in whatever way we may be able to render it being understood that no obligation is hereby incurred. Think, talk, write... Texas Centennial in 1936.

Castro County board of the Centennial organization is T. A. Singer, Mayes Miller, Ray G. Cowley, Elwin Ramey and Clem Maples. Appointments were made by representative A. B. Tarwater and Clint C. Small.

The Million Centennial club movement in Castro county, many signers being obtained Tuesday afternoon, the day of the announcement of the local endorsement program.

TEXAS HISTORY IN THE MAKING

No. 7—Gonzales, the "Lexington" of Texas

In 1831 Mexican authorities at San Antonio gave colonists at Gonzales, Texas, a cannon for protection of the settlement against Indians. Four years later, when relations between Texans and Mexicans became strained, authorities demanded that the "loaned" cannon be returned. Their demand refused, 150 Mexican dragoons came to take it by force. The first battle of the Texas Revolution resulted on October 2, 1835, and the upper left picture shows the little monument erected by Gonzales school children in 1903 on the exact spot whereabouts are unknown, but below is an accurate reproduction. Beside it is the flag displayed by brave Texans at the battle—the first Texas flag. Upper right is the Texas Heroes Monument erected by the State in 1910 on spacious Gonzales Plaza. Lions Club Votes To Sponsor Texas State Centennial

The Dimmitt Lions Club met Tuesday at 12:00 p. m. at the Methodist church in regular weekly luncheon, with Boss Lion Ernest Harmon and Tail Twister Jess Gladman officiating in regular capacities. Twenty-one members, two visitors and one new member attended, and a lively gathering was much in evidence.

After a sumptuous repast served by the Methodist ladies, Boss Lion Harmon introduced the visitors who were Pat Dean, brother of Lion Chas. H. Dean, of Winfield, Kansas, Jack Gregory, who was elected to membership during the business session, and Jack McIntosh, former member of the club.

As prearranged Lion Pete Whitlow delivered an instructive discussion on the history of the grain business as regards local dealers, which was well received. In the business session which followed, Lion T. A. Singer read a letter from the executive committee of the Texas Million Centennial Club, an organization designed to foster creditable Texas centennial in 1936. Upon motion of Lion B. D. Woodlee the club voted to endorse the movement and a petition was passed to individual members of the club for signature endorsing the movement.

Boss Lion Harmon called attention of the club to a debate to be held Thursday, Nov. 15 at the High School auditorium between a team of the high school and one from the Lions Club, the subject to be "Is the Pumpkin More Appropriate for Halloween or Thanksgiving?" Boss Lion Harmon appointed Lions Carlos Reynolds and Bill Webb to represent the Lions club in this debate.

After reading the minutes of the last meeting an introduction of Jack Gregory into membership of the club, the group faced the flag and was adjourned with the singing of "America"

Pat Dean, of Winfield, Kansas, who with his family is visiting Texas points this week, was here Tuesday visiting with his brother, Attorney Chas. H. Dean.

Returns from over the state indicated Wednesday afternoon that all amendments were defeated by substantial majorities with the possible exception of the proposed amendment to tax University of Texas lands.

Unofficial election returns in Castro county which were incomplete Wednesday showed a very light vote cast in the county as compared to returns in the Democratic primary in July. An estimate of 500 votes were cast in the election, and, using as a basis of computation the approximate 1550 votes cast in the first primary, returns from nine boxes indicated a vote of 32 per cent in this county.

Voting the ticket "straight" as regards party divisions on the ballot appeared to be the general trend of county opinion. Out of the 269 votes first tabulated from nine boxes, including the four Dimmitt boxes, two Nazareth boxes, Jumbo, Arney and Easter, James V. Allred, Democratic nominee for Governor, received 264 votes for Governor, while his Republican opponent, D. E. Waggoner, received only four.

Considerable divergence of opinion apparently existed in the county over the eight constitutional amendments which were submitted to voters in this election. Early returns indicated that the maximum tax amendment was headed for certain defeat in the county, the tabulation showing 43 for and 132 against. The property classification amendment bid fair to carry until the two Nazareth boxes were heard from, but decisive sentiment in these two boxes against the amendment placed it in the doubtful column with a vote of 87 votes for and 117 against.

Other amendment returns from the nine boxes serving as an indicator of Castro county sentiment is given as follows: county reorganization, for 94, against 81; fee abolition, for 94, against 70; county consolidation, for 74, against 101; city charter, for 74, against 87; city official terms, for 75, against 79; university lands, for 117, against 66.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brown were called to Plainview Tuesday. Mr. Brown's father underwent an operation and is reported doing nicely at this time. O. Lambeth of Lamesa was looking after business in Dimmitt last week.

E. W. Thomas Says Federal Programs Agricultural Boon

A grand total of $773,017.00 is being poured into Castro county in the Agricultural Adjustment Administration program, according to E. W. Thomas, county agent, in an announcement Tuesday afternoon, the program proving a great boon to local agricultural industries which have suffered so severely from economic conditions of the past.

During the past 18 months, Mr. Thomas said, a total of $641,017.00 has passed through his office to Castro county agriculturalists, the amounts in the several phases of the program being given as follows: wheat payments, $295,700; cotton, $114,000; cattle, $65,000; corn-hog, $16,331.7; crop loans approximating $150,000.

In addition to these figures it is estimated that a sum of $132,000 will be received here between now and Christmas. This sum will be divided as follows: wheat, $100,000; corn-hog, $18,000; cotton, $410,000; sheep purchases, $4,000.

Dr. John Brown Talks On How to Prevent Diseases

AUSTIN, Nov. 6—Speaking of the precautions that should be taken in households during and at the close of an illness from any of the "catching" diseases, which are prevalent at all seasons, Dr. John W. Brown, State health officer, said recently: "Any plan for the prevention or control of this sort, depends upon the intelligent cooperation of individuals and communities with the medical profession and the health authorities for its success."

"Those who are in charge of persons suffering from influenza, pneumonia, tuberculosis, scarlet fever, measles infantile paralysis or any other of the diseases spread by discharges from the nose or throat, are the nose&...thor]as warned that these discharges are sources of great danger, and are urged to have the patient use paper handkerchiefs or soft cheesecloth, that can be disinfected or burned or otherwise safely disposed of."

"The sterilization of dishes and boiling after each use of them, and of utensils used in the sick room, by the patient's clothing, sheets, towels, and pillow cases, are equally necessary. Then at the close of the illness, a thorough cleaning of the room, bedding and personal belongings of the patient, scrubbing the floors and woodwork, and opening the place to the fresh air and sunlight, are urged as a final precautionary measure."

"Fortunately, the best disinfectants yet discovered are within reach of everybody. They are plenty of hot water and soap, fresh air and sunshine."

You are asked to meet at the district court room at 10:45 a. m. and march in a body to the church. Every ex-service man is urged to be present; and cordially invited.

Manifold Ways in Which the Banks Are Serving the Nation

Handling Millions of Transactions Daily for Individuals, Corporations and State and National Governments—The Structure Strengthened and Deserving of Public Faith

THE banks of the nation provide the machinery through which pass daily many millions of checks and drafts, aggregating hundreds of millions of dollars.

Each day banks throughout the country are making hundreds of thousands of new loans and they are renewing and extending old loans for the accommodation of a vast number of borrowers.

The banking structure as it is today has been greatly strengthened and the process of strengthening will soon be completed.

The temporary Federal deposit insurance plan under which deposits in banks up to $5,000 for each account are insured has been in effect for six months and has proven a potent factor in restoring confidence.

Hoarded money is returning to the banks and deposits are showing a vast increase. Banks everywhere are liquid, meaning that they have an unusually heavy proportion of their deposits in cash.

Bankers Deserve Confidence The country can have full confidence in the integrity and competence of the bankers of the country.

The number of good credit risks is increasing daily. Not for any time have borrowers been so buoyant with banks as they are today.

When You Relax

Let Your Eyes Rest Too!

Many social chats and evenings of pleasant association are ruined by improper lighting. Glare and gloom cause strain and prevent complete comfort and relaxation.

Restful light creates an atmosphere of conviviality and warmth and makes guests want to come again.

To be restful, lights must first be sufficient. It must be properly shaded and well diffused and all contrasts between deep shadows and bright glare must be eliminated.
