The Ranger Cub Scout Pack 34 held an achievement awards meeting at the First Methodist Church Thursday night in which a 100 percent attendance was recorded of the 29 boys registered in the Pack.

A program was presented by Dens One and Two, which are the two oldest Dens in the Pack. Three new Dens have been established recently due to the large increase in enrollment recorded during the recent roundup campaign. Cubmaster Pat Collins announced that the enrollment in the Pack will soon reach 35 as ten new applications have been filed. The Pack has recorded almost 150 percent increase in registration since the fall roundup began. The new Den Mothers are Mrs. Capitola Woods, Mrs. Wayne Simpson and Mrs. Jasper Williamson. Den Mother of Den One is Mrs. Peggy Bennett and Den Two is Mrs. Valerie Anderson.

The Thursday night program consisted of the Pledge given by Den One, a pantomime by Den Two, an Indian dance by Den One, a skit on the human rocket by Den Two and the closing ceremonies by Den Two.

Achievement awards were presented to members of the Pack. Receiving Bobcat Badges were Jerry Reeves, James Dixon, Billy Woods, Charles Rott, Bobby Sipes, David Allsup, Richard Sledge and Phil Sanders.

Receiving Wolf Badges were Brian Caraway, Mike Tucker, Jackie Melton, Jimmy Angus, Pat Tucker, Allen Robinson, Billy Anderson, Steve Campbell and Oscar Hutchings.

Receiving Gold Arrow Points were Kenny Poyner, Ricky Hatfield, George Beighley, Richard Williams, Dennis Kennedy and Gary Bennett.

The next Pack meeting will be held the first Thursday in January.

As I See Ranger

By GENE TOWNSEND

The new slate of officers for the Ranger Little League have taken over and really put things into motion. Luther Kirkpatrick, vice president in charge of the grounds, has been promoting the re-fertilization and leveling of the park. In addition to several loads of fertilizer spread on the grass on the field, 18 loads of sand has been put down and leveled by a large group of workers. It looks like the field is going to be in tip top shape for the coming season.

We were more than a little disappointed in the cheerleaders and the student body at Ranger High School in their absence at the basketball games this week. The cheerleaders and a good group of the student body turned out for the opening game of the season, but Thursday night there were no cheerleaders present for the game, and only a small percentage of the student body. If they had attended the game at Comanche Tuesday night they would have probably felt a little ashamed of their failing to support the Bulldogs after seeing the large crowd of Comanche students that turned out for that game. The Bulldogs are all out there doing their best, and are playing good basketball. And I am sure that they would even play harder if the student body would show their appreciation by attending the games. School spirit is a wonderful tradition and can do many things for a school, but the lack of it is rather pathetic.

Judging Points For Decoration Contest Told

The cheerleaders did get to the game Friday night, but about the only way one would have known they were seeing them. Less than 25 percent of the student body showed up for the game. And when the cheerleaders tried to get some yells started none would yell.

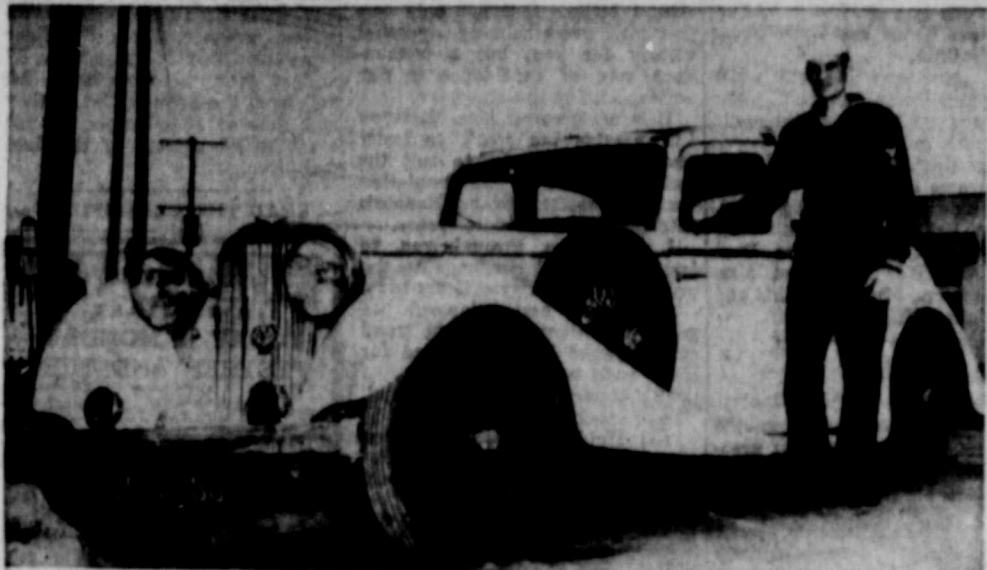

For a few dollars or a basket full of pesos, football fans can have a three-day vacation in Monterrey, Mexico and see the Ranger College Rangers play in the Mexican Orange Bowl on Dec. 10. The college is trying to get a bus load of fans to go to the game. The round trip bus fare will run $16.40 or figured in Mexican pesos it would run $99.00. If anyone is interested in making the three-day trip they should contact someone at the college this week.

Jerry Basham and Johnny Chestnut A. F. Enlistees

Two Ranger men decided on an Air Force enlistment recently and were enlisted for four years through the local Air Force Recruiter, S-Sgt. Thomas J. Mabry. Enlisting was Jerry D. Basham, 24, son of Mrs. Wilma L. Basham, 1815 Oddie St., and Johnny A. Chestnut, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Chestnut, 520 S. Austin.

Both men selected the Mechanical Field and were sent directly to San Antonio, for their basic training and will then be sent to Mechanical Schools for their technical training.

Both attended Ranger high school and Jerry graduated from Ranger high school in 1959. Both men enlisted under the Air Force Ready Plan and will take their basic training in the same flight.

Surplus Foods Dates Listed

Next date for distributing the USDA Surplus Foods, in Eastland, will be as follows:

Monday, Dec. 12 Eastland, Olden and Ranger.

Tuesday, Dec. 13 Pioneer, Rising Star, Okra, Carbon, Gorman and Deadwood.

Wednesday, Dec. 14 Cisco, Seranton and Nimrod.

Dogs Down Bucks on Way to Star Tourney

The Bulldogs with an impressive 61 to 21 win over Breckenridge Friday night will enter the Rising Star Tournament Monday night with a 2-2 record. They have wins over Breckenridge and Eastland and two losses to Comanche.

The B team didn't fare so well against Breckenridge Friday night as they went down 18 to 27.

Scoring for Ranger B were Johnny Comanche with seven, John Merritt with five, Arthur Mendoza with three, Richard Wilhelm with two and Johnny Hicks with one.

In the A team game Dean Richey took the scoring honors with 25 points, James Henry hit 14, Johnny Wells seven and Edward Mendez, David Lockwood and Bob Anderson each hit five.

The Bulldogs set a torid pace the first half hitting over 30 percent of their shots and getting 33 to nine lead. The second half they slowed down some as their shooting average dropped to 38 percent. In the game they hit 25 of 55 field goals, but had a poor average in free throws as they sank only 13 of 32.

Defensively the Bulldogs controlled both back boards with Lockwood, Richey and Henry pulling down a majority of the rebounds.

Pairings for the first round of the tournament will have Ranger against Early at 6:45 p.m. Monday, Carbon against Seranton at 6:45 p.m. Tuesday, May against Olden at 9:15 p.m. Tuesday and Cisco "B" against Rising Star at 9:15 p.m. Monday. Ranger's second game will be against Breckenridge at 6:45 p.m. Tuesday.

Chartered Bus May Make Trip To Monterrey

Ranger College officials announced today that there is a possibility of getting a chartered bus to make the trip. Several parties have indicated they plan to travel to Monterrey by car for the game. This prompted college officials to check into the possibility of chartering a bus.

If enough interest is shown in the project, a bus can be chartered for the trip. A round trip ticket for the trip would cost $16.40. The trip would consist of three days. The bus would leave Ranger on Friday, Dec. 9, and begin its return trip on Sunday, Dec. 11.

Anyone interested in making the trip should contact the college officials early this week. Reservations would have to be made by Thursday morning in order that the bus could be chartered.

Grass Production On County Range Is Far From Average

By SCS TECHNICIANS

Grass production on local range land has been very low this summer. Many poor condition pastures are getting dangerously low on cover at present time. Rainfall last spring was just not enough to give us a season in most places for good grass growth. As a consequence our light ineffective summer served only to occasionally green up the grass without yielding much total growth.

Most farmers rain gauges have caught over twenty inches of rain since last Jan. 1, but gauges vary much from farm to farm. It is generally taken as a rule of thumb that an inch of water in the ground properly used by grass should yield 500 pounds of grass. This year, however, with a few local exceptions, a major portion of our recorded rainfall was in such small showers that a large part of the rain was lost through surface evaporation before it could be utilized by grass roots. At best we have probably utilized only eight to 10 inches of water since last winter.

Recent forage yield estimates from clipping tests by Soil Conservation Service workers show the results of this limited moisture. Under good conditions the average forage produced only 2,500 to 3,000 lbs of forage this year. Production estimates in the fall of 1958 were over 5,000 lbs or about twice this year's production. In 1959 most clippings of better grasses showed 3,500 to 4,000 lbs per acre.

Many acres of poor condition range can now be found with less than 1,000 lbs of grass cover per acre on the surface. It is a proven fact that at least 2,000 lbs of cover is needed to effectively absorb a reasonable portion of our average rainfall. Without more care in the next few months these overgrazed ranges can only slip back into the same conditions they were in 1953 and 1954.

Rainfall in September and October did germinate Rescue grass seed and start Texas Winter grass to grow. If we can get some winter moisture these grasses along with our small grain can sure help to winter our livestock. Grass is the livestock farmer's real cash crop. Livestock are affected (Continued on page two)

The Joys of Hunting

(Editor's Note: This is a feature article by Leroy Yarborough of Olden, a member of the Ranger College Journalism Class. Leroy has been writing for some time and has had an article published by a leading game and fish magazine.)

The Joys of Hunting
 By Leroy Yarborough

With the annual hunting season under way, many people are going into the woods and hills to participate in the world's oldest sport. Many of our number are hunters, but a few of us are "hunters", and follow the sport in one form or another all year long every year. I am one of these, and it is difficult for me to understand why anyone would not gain some satisfaction from hunting in the great outdoors. To many, it seems horrid and cruel to kill wild, comparatively defenseless animals. These people might never grow accustomed to killing, but it is my sincere belief that any man, woman, or child of sufficient age can learn to love hunting as I know it.

First of all, hunting is not completely a game of killing. There are the walking through silent, shaded woods and the climbing of high, lonely hills; from which the country below spreads out for miles in an ever-changing pattern of green and brown and gray, with the great oval of Axlone above, sometimes blue, sometimes gray. Is there a person in the world who does not take pleasure in a gurgling stream of cold water or in a placid lake lying silent beneath the stars? Is there a person who does not like to look upon green foliage and high hills or mountains? All of these are a part of hunting.

I shall not deny that there is always some unpleasant experience which might come to a hunter. In winter there is the cold weather; in summer, the heat; and always, the tiredness that comes from miles of walking over rough terrain. Sometimes a hunter must know fear, which in the wild comes in many widely varied forms, but one must remember that nothing good comes easily. As for danger, danger offers thrills to those who like thrills of that sort. To some people, it means a way to prove themselves, but one may minimize the danger of hunting, for seldom will even the most dangerous animal retaliate by counter attack. The person of gentle nature, however, will never like this phase of hunting; for he will always enjoy nature's beauty more than fear or the thrill of danger.

As to the hunting itself, killing is only a climax, and killing does not always come about. I have tracked animals for miles, pitted my cunning against theirs; and when finally I have come upon them, I have let them have their lives. It was enough that I had won the game of wits and had looked upon a wild creature in its natural surroundings. More often than not, far more often, I have killed, not because I enjoy killing, but because that is the law of the wild. There is some pride in knowing that I have won the game and conquered an animal that may have lived a long life, killed many hundreds of times, and escaped many times from death.

To me, hunting is a revelation through God's fabulous world, lifting my mind against the will of wild animals much accustomed to the game of life and death, then winning or losing the game either by killing or letting them live. I have loved and shall always love the outdoors. I do not stand alone.

Governor Asks Ministers Help In Holiday Traffic Program

Governor Price Daniel has designated Sunday, Dec. 11, as "Safety Sunday" in Texas to mark the opening of the Christmas-New Year's holiday traffic safety campaign throughout the State.

In a special proclamation, the Governor urged each citizen to "join in this united religious campaign to awaken the conscience of every driver to the understanding that negligence at the wheel is a transgression of God's Own Command, 'Thou Shalt Not Kill'."

The Governor added: "I respectfully encourage the pastor of every church in Texas to remind each member of his personal and moral responsibility to drive carefully and obey the traffic laws as a means of protecting the sanctity of human life in our State."

The Governor said the official traffic safety campaign, in which participation has been assured from many statewide organizations of all kinds, would last throughout December, although special emphasis would again be focused on the holiday period itself. These exact dates will be announced by the Texas Department of Public Safety when its Statistical Service issues the official prediction on the number of traffic fatalities expected during the long Christmas-New Year's holiday period.

Governor Daniel said he believed, along with officials of the National Safety Council and an increasing number of church organizations and leaders, that "all our efforts to halt death and destruction on our streets and highways cannot be successful until every driver in Texas comes to realize that traffic safety is truly a matter of spiritual concern, and useless loss of life and infliction of human injury is a violation of each individual's moral responsibility for driving safely and in accordance with the laws."

Numerous organizations have already announced their support of the Governor's annual campaign to reduce the holiday highway slaughter. The overall planning was conducted through the Texas Traffic Safety Council, the State's official coordinating group, the Governor's Highway Safety Commission, the Texas Safety Association, Texas Department of Public Safety, and Texas Highway Department.

Statewide organizations which have already promised their support include the Outdoor Advertising Association of Texas, whose members are providing about 800 giant billboards, as they have for the past two years; the Texas Press Association and the Texas Daily Newspaper Association, whose member-newspapers annually devote hundreds of columns of news, editorial and feature space to the campaign; and the Texas Association of Broadcasters,

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

AN OPEN LETTER

Dear Lee:

I would like to congratulate you, my opponent, on your victory in the election for Commissioner for Place 1 on the City Commission. I believe that not only was this an overwhelming personal victory for you, but a tremendous vote of confidence in our present administration.

It is my greatest hope that you will provide the spark so badly needed, for so long, to halt the decline of business and population that has seemed to be Ranger's fate for the past several years.

I would like, through you, to issue a personal challenge to the present slate of city officers to:

- (1) Insure action instead of good intentions to halt the trend of businesses leaving Ranger for cities such as Stephenville.
- (2) Attract, rather than offend, "home seeking" industry.
- (3) Hold No closed door sessions of the Commission and make public its vote on all important issues.
- (4) Seek out an aggressive, full time city manager who will operate the city as an efficient business, protecting every tax dollar and not blinded by false economy.

I would also appreciate your advising the police and fire department employees that although their jobs were in jeopardy, this was certainly not the case and was so ridiculous in nature that I found it hard to believe any normal adult would entertain the thought.

I appreciate very much the confidence placed in me by the 84 other voters, and I am sure that they will join me in wishing you much success and in offering assistance to you at any time.

Very sincerely,
Carl L. Black

DEGS—

The Bulldogs free throw percentage was very low as they sank only three of 12 shots for a 25 percent average. From the floor they sank 13 of 35 shots for a 37 percent average. Comanche hit well from the bonus stripe as they sank nine of 16 attempts, but hit less than 30 percent of the field goal attempts.

Plans Are Made For Southwide Church Festival

Plans for a Southwide Church Drama Festival to be held at the First Baptist Church in Plainview on March 23-25, 1961, were being completed today.

The Festival marks the second of its kind to be held in the South Plains area, the first having been conducted in Plainview last February under the leadership of the Church Recreation Service of the Baptist Sunday School Board.

Cecil McGee, drama consultant of the Church Recreation Service, will direct the Festival, and will bring with him an outstanding faculty. Although the list of conference leaders is not complete, it has been announced that a faculty will include Mrs. Agnes Pylant, head of the Church Recreation Service, Nashville, Tenn.; John Lee Walton of Carson-Newman College, Jefferson City, Tenn. and Mrs. Sarah Miller, church drama authority of Houston, Conference subjects will include Creative Dramatics for Children, Fun Drama for Teeners, Play Direction, Lighting the Church Play, and Using Drama in the Unit Organizations.

The Festival will open Thursday night at 7 p.m. with two plays presented by church groups, followed by a reception. Friday morning and afternoon will be given over to conferences, and on Friday night two more plays will be given, to be followed by a fellowship featuring "Fun Drama." On Saturday morning will be the "Critique"—a period of constructive analysis of plays presented. All of the sessions will be at the First Baptist Church in Plainview.

Last year more than 700 persons attended the Festival. General co-chairmen for the event are Mrs. James Bottorff and Mrs. Irvoy Bishop of First Baptist, Plainview.

Another Message to American Industry Leaders about

The Opportunity Frontier OF TEXAS

IT'S 1965 FOR THIS MAN IN

The Opportunity Frontier OF TEXAS

Our planning engineers are "men who live in the future." They maintain a constant watch over growth patterns in the opportunity frontier of Texas—population, retail sales, personal income, vehicle registration, construction, so they can plan effectively and anticipate power needs five and more years from now.

For example, the 240,000 kilowatt steam electric generating unit at our newest plant site near Graham, Texas, was planned in 1955 for operation in December, 1960. It is the eighteenth power generating unit built during the past twelve years at strategically located plants throughout our strong power system. These new units have increased by ten times the company's net generating capability.

Our well planned power system assures magnificent ten-year service throughout the area served by the company. When your firm relocates in this area—or when you open a new plant, warehouse or branch office in the opportunity frontier—you will have a sure source of low-cost power.

Our Area Development Department will gladly supply plant site information to fit your specific needs.

TEXAS ELECTRIC SERVICE COMPANY

Head Office: Fort Worth, Texas • A Division of the Texas Utilities System

WE'RE INVITING THEM TO GROW WITH THIS PROGRESSIVE AREA

American business and industry are constantly looking to the future... selecting the location of plants, warehouses and branch offices to keep manufacturing, distribution and marketing operations efficient amid changing patterns of population and resources.

The dynamic growth and rich resources of The Opportunity Frontier of Texas, much of which is served by Texas Electric Service Company, offer many advantages for growth and expansion.

Business and industry executives—the men who decide on plant, warehouse and office sites—will see the message reproduced at left in Business Week, Fortune and The Wall Street Journal.

We are making this investment in area progress to promote the growth of the area we serve—to attract new customers, added tax revenues, and greater job opportunities which will benefit everyone.

... all come and go but the land remains. By owning, developing and improving his basic investment in land, man creates financial security. We recommend such an investment with time-proven security behind it. No other is sounder or more profitable, provided the title is good. If the title proves to be faulty so will be the investment. Always demand an abstract, another good investment, before investing your funds in real estate.

PROMISE A PRINCESS FOR CHRISTMAS

Well, it's that time of year again when the men of Ranger tackle the problem of selecting something for Christmas for the "Lady-of-the-House". Some men never seem to know what to choose. So they end up with some unimaginative item — a compromise between something she doesn't really want and something she doesn't really dislike. (Ever happen to you?)

In any case, here's good news for Christmas shoppers. A Christmas surprise she'll use and treasure all year long ... the new, streamlined Princess phone.

It's little, the ladies love it, and it lights. The dial glows more softly than a light on your Christmas tree, and when you lift the receiver, it shines brightly for easy dialing. It has a smart new oval shape, too.

So, why not "promise her" a Princess phone for Christmas? If you want to surprise her, we have a Christmas tree-shaped gift certificate to hang on the tree. It unfolds to show her the colors in which the Princess phone is available. White, pink, turquoise, blue and beige. After Christmas, we'll install the Princess phone in the color and place she likes best.

Like to order a Princess phone for your "Best Girl?" Just call the telephone business office.

GET NUMBERS NOW FOR HOLIDAY CALLS

I know a lot of folks in Ranger will be making Long Distance calls over the holidays, and so will thousands of others all over Texas.

To get everybody's call through as fast as possible, it's especially important you call by number.

If there are numbers you don't know, the Long Distance Operator will be glad to get them for you ahead of time so you'll have them when you call around Christmas or New Years. This number service is free now and every day of the year. We'll also send you a free Blue Book — to keep a record of your numbers.

HOLIDAY GREETINGS

I'd like to take this opportunity, on behalf of all of us at the telephone company, to extend our best wishes to you and all the members of your family for this holiday season. Have a "Merry Christmas" and a "Happy New Year."

Call by number. It's twice as fast.
