Midnight Prowler Escapes Unidentified

Police Chief Bob Patterson today released the following statements taken from last week's Police Blotter.

Monday, Feb. 27, patrolman Bud Griffin picked up a De Leon man on a warrant issued by Judge Springer's Justice Court for assault and battery to do bodily harm. The man was released to the Eastland County Sheriff's office.

Wednesday, March 1, Patrolman J. W. Vinson arrested an Abilene man for driving while drunk. The man was held overnight and fined.

Thursday, March 2, Vinson arrested an Oklahoma City man for driving while drunk. The man was held overnight and fined.

Saturday, March 4, 9:45 p.m. Patrolman Griffin investigated an automobile accident on Highway 80 west, near Hamilton Fruit Stand. The automobile, driven by Fred Shaddock of Ranger, ran into a horse. There was extensive damage to the automobile and the horse was killed. Hiding in the car were Mr. and Mrs. Shaddock and young daughter. They were taken to the Ranger General Hospital for examination, and were released shortly thereafter with no injuries reported. The ownership of the horse has not been established.

Saturday, March 4, 11:45 p.m. The department was called to a Ranger residence to investigate a prowler report. The report stated that an unidentified man had entered a Ranger residence. The prowler was dressed in shorts and barefooted. Upon being discovered the prowler ran from the house. The department later picked up a Ranger man for questioning on the case.

Monday, March 7, Vinson picked up a Ranger man for driving while drunk. The man was held overnight and fined.

As I See Ranger

By GENE TOWNSEND

It looks like the "old ground hog" got a little mixed up on his business this year. On February 2 the old boy came out and saw his shadow and by all signs and predictions that should have been enough to send him scampering back to his den for another period of hibernation while the country would be involved in another six week period of bad weather. But the past week has indicated that the old boy may be oversleeping.

The sun has been beaming down, causing the fishermen to begin oiling their equipment and get their boats ready for an onslaught of their favorite fishing spot. The fruit trees are in full bloom and the early spring winds are beginning to blow.

This seems to be overshadowed though — with everyone feeling that maybe they shouldn't prepare too early for the spring season. Everyone feels that we are bound to have some more bad weather, and in fact it is very probable that we will — but the sunshine has been nice for a change.

Ranger is going to have an Easter Parade this year. The Band Boosters Club is putting one on March 31 at the High School Auditorium. Boys and girls of all ages will participate and will represent many businesses of the town. Watch this paper for more details on the "Easter Parade."

Here's a little article that might interest local scout masters — Minor McCrite, Scoutmaster at Kansas City took his troop of scouts out for an overnight camping trip and the boys cooked their own breakfast. One of them ate nine fried eggs, seven strips of bacon and a can of salines.

Why salines for breakfast? asked McCrite.

"Oh, just thought I ought to have some dessert," the boy replied.

The Lone Cedar Country Club Golf Course is looking real nice. The greens are looking good and the fairways are beginning to put out a little grass.

The club members recently held a work party at the course to clean up the fairways of loose rocks so that some fertilizer could be put down. There were sixteen workers that showed up with two pickups. Fourteen of the workers were from Ranger and Eastland had two workers out. There was a noted absence of workers from Glens and other towns that have membership in the club. The workers got two fairways cleaned real good.

The salvage company that has bought several buildings in Ranger has begun to tear down the buildings. They are working at the present time on a building on Austin Street. One of the buildings purchased by the company is on a corner lot on Main St. When this building comes down it will leave a noticeable vacancy. In a way it is bad that these buildings are going, but it will eliminate some unsightly structures. And the one on Main Street will be a constant reminder that Ranger is going to have to get on the ball and do something if it survives.

Richard Fletcher of Eastland, was appointed to serve as General Agent for the Eastland County Farm Bureau by the Board of Directors at a meeting field in the Commissioners Courtroom Monday, Feb. 27. Mrs. John Love will continue to serve as Special Agent.

Eastland Fracas Results In Assault to Murder Charges

Two Breckenridge men face four charges following a fracas which took place Friday night in Eastland. Hoy Parker and C. H. Parker were charged with "assault with intent to murder," "attempts to kidnap at gunpoint," "carrying pistols," and "disturbing the peace."

The complaining witness is H. C. Ables, who alleges that the pair pistol whipped him Friday night in front of the Truck Stop Cafe in Eastland.

The two Breckenridge men were charged with "assault with intent to murder" Friday and made bond Saturday afternoon. Ables lodged the three additional charges against the men Monday afternoon. The two are each under $5,000 bond on the assault charge.

Witnesses told officers that the younger Parker got into Ables' car in front of the Truck Stop Cafe. Ables said the man forced him to move over, using a gun. Then Ables said, he jumped the man and knocked the gun free. He charged the elder Parker then climbed in his car from the other side and pistol whipped him.

Ables was given emergency treatment at Eastland Memorial Hospital and then released. He said the Breckenridge men fled after police were called to the scene.

There has been trouble between the two families before. Several months ago Ables' son, Gailon Lee, was shot and seriously injured in Breckenridge. There is a civil suit pending in that case.

Political activity picked up in the city politics Saturday as three persons filed for the Mayor's race as the final day for filing neared its close.

Filing for the position of Mayor were Morris Newham, who is currently filling out a term as City Finance Commissioner; R. D. Jones, a retired Lone Star employee, and W. J. VanBibber, a Lone Star employee.

Shortly before pre-estimate today, Morris Newham announced that he would withdraw from the Mayor's race. Newham announced that he would issue an official statement later today on his withdrawal from the election.

One other position of the City Council will be contested as voters go to the polls Tuesday, April 4. The position of Street Commissioner is being sought by Joe Daskewich, present Street Commissioner, and W. M. Weber.

The other three Commissioner posts are uncontested. Filing for these positions are: for Police and Fire Commissioner, O. L. Cantrell, for re-election; Water and Sanitation Commissioner, James Ratliff, for re-election; and for Finance Commissioner, W. J. (Sonny) Sipes.

In the Ranger College Board of Regents race there is no opposition for the three filing candidates. Filing for the Regents were Dick Henderson, Roscoe Hopper and Dr. Douglas Mims. Dr. Mims and Hopper filed for re-election. Carl Page, whose term expires April 1, did not file for re-election.

Ranger Graduate Receives Grant To Study Frogs

A graduate of Ranger High school, now a doctor of philosophy at San Diego State College, Dr. David L. Jameson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Jameson of Ranger, has been granted $28,100 from the National Science Foundation to study San Diego Tree Frogs.

Dr. Jameson, 33, an associate professor, said there are more tree frogs in San Diego than there are people.

Jameson said that until now their primary use by man has been as the background croak in innumerable western and jungle pictures, where they have served as obligate to Hopalong Cassidy and Johnny Weissmuller.

He hopes they may unlock some of the secrets of evolution. "Evolution still is going on," he said. "I want to find out what mechanisms cause it."

Jameson, an associate professor of zoology, has been doing research with frogs since 1948 when he was an undergraduate at Southern Methodist University. He has yet to get a wart. He said frogs don't give warts; they just get them.

A native of Ranger, Jameson began collecting animals, including frogs, as a small boy.

Beattie Feathers Career at R. C. Very Short

Beattie Feathers, who had recently signed a two-year contract with Ranger College as Athletic Director and head football coach, asked for and secured a release from the contract Saturday to take a coaching position at Wake Forest College in North Carolina.

A representative at Ranger College said that the college was sorry that Feathers had decided not to take the job at Ranger, but that they didn't want to hold anyone to a contract if they were not satisfied with the position.

The college representative said that they didn't have a statement as to who would be in line for the job.

Jim Puryear, whose resignation created the opening, hasn't indicated where he will go when he leaves the college.

Paramount Coffee Shop Stages Big Open House

The Paramount Hotel has announced the opening of their completely remodeled and newly equipped Coffee Shop with a big open house Thursday, March 9.

The Hotel and Coffee Shop is under the management of Mrs. (Bud) Griffin of Olden. She has had much experience in managing hotels. They opened and operated a hotel in Snyder recently. The Griffins have lived in the Ranger area most of the time since 1918. They have been making their home at Olden since returning to Eastland County from Snyder.

The open house will be held Thursday evening between 7 and 9 p.m. The Coffee Shop will serve free coffee, soft drinks and donuts to everyone and will have balloons for the children.

The management of the hotel extends an invitation to everyone to come in and inspect the newly decorated and equipped Hotel and Coffee Shop.

The American Hereford Association announced today that W. H. Hoffmann and Son of Eastland have purchased a registered Hereford bull, four Hereford cows and 12 Hereford heifers, from Lewis M. Mitchell of Strawn.

The transaction was one of 15 in the Southwest announced by the Association.

Abilene Groups Throw Support to Court Move

A bill to move the 11th Court of Civil Appeals from Eastland to Abilene has been introduced in the House of Representatives by Rep. Wesley Roberts of Lamesa. Such a move has been in the planning stage by Abilene city leaders for several years.

Roberts, one of 71 candidates for the U. S. Senate, filed House Bill 680. Rep. Truett Latimer of Abilene and the Taylor County Commissioners Court immediately threw their backing behind the bill. The Commissioners Court went on record last Friday as being in favor of giving free office space if the Court is moved.

The Appeals Court already has free office space in Eastland. In fact, an additional floor was built onto the Eastland County courthouse to house the court.

The Abilene Bar Association has gone on record favoring the move. Tom Epley, president of the group, announced the Bar's stand. The Eastland County Bar Association has many times gone on record as opposing the moving of the court.

The Taylor Bar resolution states it favors the move "... so that the Court of Civil Appeals might be more centrally located and better able to serve the needs of the people of the 11th Supreme Judicial District."

The bill has been referred to the House Judiciary Committee, but no hearing date has as yet been scheduled.

Crop Means $3,500,000 to County

National Peanut Week Celebrated

Eastland County has a good reason to join in celebrating National Peanut Week March 5-11, a three and one-half million dollar reason to be exact.

That's what the peanut industry meant to this county in 1960 and prospects are that 1961 may be an even better year. Ross Wilson, manager of the Southwestern Peanut Growers' Association in Gorman, said that county growers had a crop of some 750,000 bushels during the past growing season.

The Council lists the following facts as some of the reasons why peanuts continue to enjoy more and more national prominence and popularity: Peanuts are high in food value and are high respected by nutritionists. A peanut concentrate has been chosen to sustain America's astronauts on their projected trips to the moon.

President Kennedy in his first executive order directed that peanut butter be added to foods for families of unemployed workers in distress areas. The Government immediately ordered 5,000,000 pounds of peanut butter.

Seals pointed out that only perfect peanuts are used for edible purposes. The balance is crushed into oil. Refined oil is sold for shortening, deep-frying and salad dressing. The rest is marketed as crude oil for soaps and detergents, he explained.

Survey of County Farms Producing Grain Is Set

Due to pending legislation in the Congress of the United States concerning feed grains it is mandatory that a survey be made in all major feed grain producing counties in the United States. This survey will be conducted by ASC offices throughout the nation.

Eastland County has been classified as a major feed grain producing county. Data must be obtained for each farm in the county on which one or more of the four major feed grains was produced in either 1959 or 1960 or both.

Feed grains shall include only field corn and grain sorghum, defined as follows: 1. Corn acreage means the number of acres of land on which field corn was planted. 2. Grain sorghum acreage means the number of acres of land from which this crop was harvested as grain by combining or threshing. It is important that this data be supplied by each farmer. This data will be used to establish base acreages for each feed grain producing farm in the county as a basis for determining price support eligibility and cash payment rates for producers who desire to participate.

To expedite the securing of this information, it would be helpful if you would have in mind the feed grain crops you grew in 1959 and/or 1960.

The full cooperation of all producers in the county is vitally needed and will be greatly appreciated. The sign up for Eastland County will be in the county ASC Office beginning March 6 and running through March 10.

Fish Fit For A King

Fish is easy to cook and can be prepared quickly. Fresh fish should not be stored longer than overnight, but should be used as soon as possible. If you use frozen fish, it is best to defrost it on a shelf in the refrigerator. Allow it to thaw enough so that the pieces can be separated easily. Fish is done the minute you can flake it easily with a fork or a toothpick. Be sure to avoid overcooking because this makes it dry and impairs the flavor. Flounder fillets are inexpensive but the following new recipe gives you a dish fit for a king.

FILLETS WITH ORANGE
1 1/2 lbs. fillets of flounder
1 Tbsp. prepared mustard
1 Tbsp. 1 & P Worcestershire sauce
3 dashes Tabasco
1/2 cup orange juice
1/2 cup dry bread crumbs

To the mustard, add Lea & Perrins Worcestershire and Tabasco, and stir well. Add orange juice and mix thoroughly. Add fillets and let stand 5 minutes. Then roll fillets in bread crumbs, coating them well. Sauté in oil until golden brown (about 3 minutes on each side). Serve with a garnish of fresh parsley and orange wedges.

ABOUT YOUR HEALTH

Malignant neoplasms—as cancer is listed in statistical studies—claimed 11,390 Texas lives during 1960 according to State Department provisional estimates.

This is a rise of only about 300 deaths over the final 1959 figures. However, the 1960 death rate—per 100,000 estimated population—was 118.4 compared to 117.7 for the previous year.

Only heart diseases caused more deaths in Texas last year. Deaths from cancer begin to take a significant toll after age 40, when the rates begin rising sharply over the earlier years.

The key to cancer cure or arrest lies in early detection, a fact which is repeated continuously to the public over every possible news and information outlet.

However, one leading national organization estimates that only one out of six women have physical examinations each year.

For women, early cancer detection is surprisingly simple, provided proper examination techniques are performed.

Self breast examination can be taught quickly and simply to any woman during a visit to her family doctor. There is an excellent film available from the State Health Department film library on the subject, suitable for showing to women's groups.

The film should be viewed in the company of a physician who can offer further explanation and answer questions.

Breast cancer accounts for about one-fourth of all cancer cases in women, while uterine cancer is next in order of occurrence.

In a yearly physical check-up, a physician may take a uterine smear for analysis, whereas a trained technician can detect early cancer.

The universal use of uterine smear analysis at least once a year would virtually nullify uterine cancer as a leading cause of death. Nearly all physicians are qualified to make this examination today.

Cancer prevention begins with the individual. (A weekly feature from Public Health Education Division, Texas State Department of Health.)

Mrs. Horace Lane. The women of the community have solved the problem of "getting together" by having a "quilting" each week in various homes of the community. They take a covered dish and pass the day with pastime and fun. This week the quilting will be held in the home of Mrs. Helen Arnold.

Mrs. Stell Joiner of Arlington was here over the past weekend.

Magic at Montego Bay

A tropical sunset seen across magnificent Montego Bay has a magic that makes it the most memorable of any Caribbean sight. Yet the peace and serenity of the scene is a striking contrast to the activity that characterizes the Bay area around the clock.

Called the "Aristocrat of the Caribbean," Montego Bay is situated on Jamaica's north coast. Chief attraction is Doctor's Cave, one of the world's most celebrated bathing beaches; hotels that feature excellent accommodations and the ultimate in service; and a heady international social whirl.

The sunset above is viewed from one of Jamaica's smallest and most fashionable resort hotels, Sunset Lodge. Intimate atmosphere and continental cuisine served in an elegant colonial dining room, or on a spacious terrace under the stars, combine to help make the Lodge one of the island's most popular resorts.

Sunset's private beach and sun decks attract guests from all over the world during the height of the tourist season, December 15 through April 15. Rooms with private balconies are luxurious without losing the charm and simplicity of the tropical isle.

Special rates and vacation plans are available through local travel agents or the Lodge directly, from mid-April through mid-December. Jamaica's sunshine and sunsets are magic in any season!
