

about dimmitt and castro county

by b. m. n.

It is my nature to call attention to the good things about Dimmitt and Castro County, and maybe often overlook some of the shortcomings and needs of our city and community. If that is the wrong attitude I will try and correct it here and now.

I have always thought it was a waste of time to suggest, and endeavor to promote, the obvious impossible no matter how much a certain project might be desired. I am still of that opinion. The suggestions I shall make here are entirely in the realm of the possible, in fact they are improvements that should have been made before now, even some time ago before now.

To begin with the traffic situation in Dimmitt is becoming a major problem in the downtown area. It is doubtful if there is another town in Texas with the traffic volume that Dimmitt Streets carry, depending on an orderly flow regulated by one traffic light. A minimum of four new traffic lights would be required to unsmarl downtown traffic and to make city driving reasonably safe. There should be traffic lights at least, one block north, south, east and west of the present facility.

Both of these streets, of course, are traversed by State Highways, one being a Federal and State Highway. Whether its the State's responsibility or the City's responsibility to see that the proper signals are installed I am not sure, but I do know that it should be done, and now. The way matters stand right now every downtown intersection is a traffic hazard and traffic jams are a common occurrence during rush hours. The only remedy is the installation of at least four new traffic lights. The City Dads should take care of this needed improvement or see that it is done forthwith if not immediately.

Then there is the matter of the Courthouse lawn. Apparently the county is going to considerable trouble and expense to eradicate noxious weeds and grasses and to reseed the lawn. This is a neverending problem and will continue to be such until practically all of the courthouse square is paved and turned into a parking lot. Check out neighboring towns, or observe towns downstate when you have occasion to visit the State Capitol, and see how many are keeping up expensive courthouse lawns as compared to the ones that have paved the area for the parking convenience of city and county residents. While the added parking space would be of considerable value to downtown merchants, it would be of far more value to citizens who have county business at the courthouse and find that they have to park a considerable distance away and negotiate, in the wintertime, icy sidewalks to the courthouse entrance. As it stands now the courthouse lawn is all but useless and during refurbishing efforts becomes an eyesore. The trees are of little practical value, except as a haven for Sparrows, and they too become unsightly when we have an ice storm as we are wont to do on occasion. This is valuable property and it could be put to a needed practical use with but little initial expense which would in fact be an economy measure in the long run. It would be fine if the county would take care of this matter by the time the new traffic lights are installed. If city and county officials feel that they need an expression of public opinion about these needed improvements, The News would endeavor to conduct a poll.

Weather Extremes Are Remarkable

Facts about the weather extremes around the world are so remarkable that they defy belief. But they are authentic, based on data compiled by the Earth Sciences Division, Quartermaster Research and the Engineering Command of the U. S. Army.

For example, there's a difference of 263 degrees between the highest temperature ever recorded and the lowest. The all-time high came on September 13, 1922 in El Azizia, Libya, Africa, and was a fantastic 136 degrees Fahrenheit at the other extreme, the lowest temperature ever was 127 degrees below zero one chilly day in August 1960, in Vostok, Antarctica. Either day would have been a good one to stay home, in your air-conditioned mansion or in your cozy igloo.

How about the wind? The highest surface wind speed ever clocked was a 225 mph gale on April 12, 1934 at Mt. Washington, New Hampshire.

Then, there's the snow. Top 24-hour snowfall in the U. S. was 76 inches that buried Silver Lake, Colorado, on April 14-15, 1921. And the greatest single season snowfall was 1000.3 inches that fell on the Paradise Ranger Station in the State of Washington 1955-56.

Talk about rain and more amazing statistics are available. World's greatest average annual precipitation is 472 inches at Mt. Waialeale, Kauai, Hawaii, which amounts to more than an inch of rain a day.

Most rain to fall in one year—August 1960 to July 1961, was 1042 inches and took place in Cherrapunji, India. The same spot had the most rain—366 inches in one month, July 1861.

Heaviest 24-hour rainfall on record was 46 inches and took place July 14-15, 1911 in Baguio, Luzon. World's greatest 42-minute rainfall 3.47 at Holt, Missouri. And the greatest 20-minute rainfall was 8 inches on July 7, 1889 at Curtea-de-Arges, Romania.

Unofficial greatest 12-hour rainfall in the United States was 32 inches on September 9, 1921 in Thrall, Texas.

emergency care, but many more could be saved.

It is rather common to find that people throw all responsibility on the physician or the rescue squad which respond to emergency calls, undertaking none themselves except to telephone for help. Sometimes they do not know what to do; other times they are too excited to think or act wisely. The urgency of the situation may lead people to give grossly improper care for burns, internal injuries or extensive lacerations.

The person telephoning for help should not rely upon the physician or ambulance attendant to give him advice; he should ask what to do until help arrives. In most cases, the telephone conversation need not be rushed; there is time for careful directions in cases of poisoning, heart attack, burns or head injury. Even though the caller has never had a course in first aid or has forgotten what he learned, he can still obtain directions that may save a life.

"Hurry cases" of first aid include cessation of breathing, severe bleeding and poisoning. In these cases a delay of even a few minutes may result in death. Rescue squads save extremely few people who have stopped breathing unless someone has given artificial respiration on the spot.

Teaching people to react promptly and efficiently in emergencies is one of the major goals of the "medical self-help" courses now being conducted around the state and local health departments and civil defense organizations. Conceived originally as a tool for civil defense training against times of nuclear attack, the content of the courses also ideally equip people to cope with personal peacetime emergencies.

Further information on medical self-help courses can be acquired from local medical societies.

Meanwhile the important rule to remember when summoning medical help or an ambulance in the event of serious injury or sudden illness is this; ask what first aid measures to take.

Jaycee Jake Says

Western Week is over (whew). One thing can be said for the Western Week Posse. They really did their job. High Sheriff Truman Touchstone and his able-bodied deputies really kept his honorable (most victims pronounced it "Orner-y") Judge Buddy (Roy Bean) Byrnes busy passing out sentences in the form of fines and dunkings.

The whole "shebang" kicked off Monday morning and yep, you guessed it, the first willful violator to be punished was Fred Bruegel, Jr. our entemed (?) president, who found the water mighty cold. And, to keep Bob DuLaney from feeling jealous, he was tossed in, too. There were too many similar happenings to follow to print the names of the offenders.

As most of you know, the posse ceased to operate after Thursday. Final action came in the parade where, even though they had tried to avoid it, the posse was forced to "dunk" two young ladies who dared to appear on the street dressed as if they were going to a "debutante" ba. Incidentally, our "hats off" to Sharon Maynard and Janie McDermitt for being such good sports.

And—the second place trophy for the parade float will look good in the trophy case.

For the benefit of those who were fined, the club is putting all money collected into a special fund to defray the expenses of our Jaycees Queen who is doing a wonderful job representing Dimmitt wherever we take her. The grapevine has it that she will be seen at the "Miss Wheatheart of the Nation" contest in Perryton this weekend and of course, at the "Miss Grain Sorghum of the Nation" beauty contest at Dimmitt the following week. Best of luck, Suzie.

Bob DuLaney (who was supposed to write this column this week) is still trying to get the Air Show lined up. Says he may have to pull a few strings in Washington to get the Ft. Hood Skydivers. We have confidence(?) he will swing the deal. If not, he plans to make an exhibition at the airshow of some "Upside Down-No Stick" flying.

Labor Day is just around the corner and John Stokes tells me the "Jaycee Rest Stop" will be in operation on the Northwest corner of the Courthouse Square. Purpose is to give weary weekend travelers a place to stop and rest a minute and have a cup o coffee. We hope it may prevent a wreck or two and it may save a life. Naturally, we'll be handing out a little information on the fair city of Dimmitt. Maybe we'll get it across to some traveler to come back and make our home his home.

Guess that's it—See you next week.

"Litter Longhorn" Joins Campaign Against Litterbugs

An indignant cartoon character and a revised highway sign have joined the Texas Highway Department's efforts to quell the mounting cost of litter pickup along Texas highways—a cost which jumped another $100,000 last year.

The Department disclosed today it had to spend $1.4 million to pick up litter during 1962, an increase of about a hundred thousand dollars over 1961. Repair of vandalism damages added another $485,000 to bring the total figure for litter pickup and vandalism to a whopping $1.9 million.

These funds could have built 76 miles of Farm to Market Roads or 25 miles of two-lane primary highways.

The cartoon character, called informally the "Litter Longhorn," is printed on the 1963 Official Highway Travel Map published by the Department to remind the public in a lighthearted way not to litter the roadsides and Safety Rest Areas.

The sign being revised throughout the state reminds drivers sternly that littering is a violation of a state law, and that a litterbug can be fined from $10 to $200.

The next time you take a trip, take a close look at the 1963 Travel Map. In bright colors you will see the Highway Department's comical new "Litter Longhorn." Garbed in cowboy duds, complete with a 10-gallon hat, the Litter Longhorn wears an indignant look as he puffs and stomps on a heap of litter.

The cartoon caption, printed on a red stop sign behind the longhorn, pleads with the public to "Help Stomp Out Litter."

Drivers have long been familiar with the signs along the highway that read, "Throwing Trash on Highway Prohibited—State Law."

But these signs are taking on a new look—and a new meaning—as supplementary signs are added below them as a reminder that a person can be fined $10-$200 for violating this state law.

Teresa Barnes Wins Top Honors In Bake Show

Many Castro County families have been eating rolls and cake steadily as the 4-H girls practiced for the County Bake Show.

Whole wheat rolls and butter cakes were entered by the Castro County 4-H Club girls in the show. Twenty-seven girls competed at this county event as they tried for the chance to enter their baked products in the Tri-State Fair at Amarillo in September.

The winner was determined from the one who had the highest score. The total score possible was 300 points—100 points for the rolls, 100 points for the cake, and 100 points for their recordbook.

Miss Linda Webb, County Home Demonstration Agent from Hartley-Oldham Counties judged the recordbooks. Miss Mary Behrends, Dimmitt, and Miss Rita Witkowski, Hereford, both Home Economics majors at Texas Tech and former Castro County 4-H'ers judged the baked products.

Teresa Barnes, 10 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Barnes will represent Castro County and compete for the title of "Bake Show Queen." Teresa is a member of the Lucky Jumbo Community 4-H Club. This is her first year in 4-H Club and she has carried projects in foods and clothing. Teresa made a score of 284 at the County Bake Show. She was also one of the top winners in the County Dress Revue in July.

Alternate was Edlana Vinson, 13 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

hension for 1963 Dimmitt football prospects. After losing the nine or ten scheduled games, in post-season apprehension, the coach brushed away his tears and made with remarks about how hard the boys are working and that they might even win some of their games, that is if the other teams are crippled badly enough in previous games. Coaches are all alike, they cry in their soup and make all kinds of dire predictions, but I have a hunch that they are disappointed if they don't win all of their games. I said all coaches are alike, that is all of them except the ones that win a three million dollar plus liable suit. If Covington sues this publication and gets three million dollars, I may have libeled the guy, I'm not sure, I hope he uses part of it to take golf lessons and the rest of it to buy crying towels. I bet we win most if not all of our games.

Sheriff Recovers Stolen Pickup

Sheriff Jack Cartwright recovered a stolen '63 Ford pickup Tuesday night after giving three-mile chase on Hart highway.

Ralph James Tolley was driver of the stolen vehicle.

Gerald Broadstreet of Dimmitt told the Sheriff about a '63 white pickup which attempted to run him off the road near the Highway park.

Sheriff Cartwright had just received radio message from Hereford concerning a stolen pickup. He immediately started for Hart where he finally arrested Tolley after a dangerous three-mile chase.

Cartwright commented, "Talley was driving all over the road and on the dirt shoulders also at a high speed. He was leaning out the window waving and yelling at the cars which passed."

Cartwright disarmed Talley who was carrying a six-inch blade knife in his belt and brought him to Dimmitt where he was turned over to Hereford police.

Castro County Sheriff Department is going to file second offense DWI on Tolley.

Facts Discussed About Use Of Irrigated Pasture

Proper use of pastures can be summed up as grazing of pasture plants to the extent maximum production of beef is obtained and adequate leaf surface is maintained to provide optimum regrowth for forage production and litter for land protection.

Leaf surface and sunshine are both still necessary for grass production even on well fertilized and irrigated soils.

The leaf surface mentioned above is an absolute must. The following report shows the reason. The leaves manufacture plant food in the form of carbohydrates, fats and proteins. When the leaves are removed, the plant becomes a food user instead of a food manufacturer. The plant takes stored food from the roots to produce new leaves. This causes delay in forage production, stops root growth and weakens the entire plant.

Continuous defoliation kills the plant. When adequate leaf surface is maintained during the growing season, the plant continues to manufacture plant food without drawing the food reserves in the roots.

Adequate leaf surface insures a healthy vigorous root system. This increases the soil area from which moisture and nutrients may be obtained. Grass with a good, deep root system can withstand dry periods much longer.

The capacity of the plant to extract water and nutrients from the soil is proportional to the leaf surface.

Approximately 95 per cent of the total amount of plant nutrients are taken into the leaves from the air. The leaves furnish cover to the crown of the plant and to the soil which in turn regulates soil temperature.

Leaves furnish organic matter, which are needed to increase water intake rate and capacity of the soil to accept the sunlight.

U. S. SENATOR RALPH W. YARBOROUGH, right, confers with Secretary of the Interior Stewart Udall on plans for development of the Padre Island National Seashore Recreational Area, off the Gulf Coast of Texas. Senator Yarbrough was author of the Padre Island Park bill, to set aside 3 1/2 miles of the island for preservation for public use. Secretary Udall said that Padre Island, which extends along the Texas coastal counties of Nueces, Kleberg, Kenedy, Willacy and Cameron, will become one of the state's greatest assets because of its drawing power as a tourist attraction. The Texas legislature has recently passed a concurring bill clearing the way for the Interior Department to begin buying the land for the Padre Island National Park site. Senator Yarbrough said he had received assurance that Interior Department personnel will be at work on Padre Island within 60 days.

"Looking Through The Knot Hole"
With Myrtle

Hi Bill! Have you ever wished for just the right power tool to be used in your carpenter work?

Well, John Nichols tells me that Willson Nichols store has just about everything a builder might need even I would like to have one of those small power saws, for those do it yourself jobs "Skill" power tools is one of the best and they lead the world in the development of new and better tools.

Let me describe a few and then you go down and let Bob Myers or John show you their models.

The Skil roto hammers several size models for drilling holes in masonry. There is the exclusive only small hammers with 3 way action. This makes holes with 3 way action This makes holes in masonry fast and east, and at the very lowest cost. This hammer does chiseling, channeling, chipping, rivet's slots and tucking. I always thought tucking pertaining to sewing, see we learned something new. John has the heavier models for big jobs also and all the different drills and accessories that will fit the hammer or machine.

Be sure and see the "Skill" top handle saws. He has the super duty models, small ones and the High Torque Worm drive saws. These are the professional. Have unequalled power for cutting any material. Watch it, that you don't lose a finger or hand, in other words power tools are made for men to use, not children.

There are many fine blades for the different saws.

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER IN THE UNITED STATES POST OFFICE IN DIMMITT, CASTRO COUNTY, TEXAS, UNDER THE ACT OF MARCH 3, 1879

Some 700 state employees scattered throughout Texas are getting a new set of bosses. Reason is the recreation of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission on August 23.

James M. Dellinger, Corpus Christi contractor; A. W. Moursund, Johnson City rancher-attorney; and Chairman Will Odom, Austin geologist and engineer, make up the new three-man Parks and Wildlife commission. They replace nine commissioners and the old Game and Fish Commission and six on the old Parks Board.

Many state employees, who wondered whom Gov. John Connally would select to head the infant agency, now are worrying whether they themselves will remain on the payroll.

About 72 of the employees are in the Parks Department; some are managers of the state's 50-plus parks system. Another 625 or so are in the field of game and fish. About 100 of these are in the Austin office the rest out in the field.

Connally says the consolidation will eliminate some duplication of services and effort.

One thing the state is sure to save on is per diems and expenses for the commissioners. The $25 per diem plus travel, hotel and meals allotted the three new men should come to about one-fifth the amount spent in past years on 15 commissioners.

HIGHWAY PATROLMEN NEEDED—Col. Homer Garrison Jr., head of the Department of Public Safety, is looking for 100 additional highway patrolmen.

Connally says the consolidation will eliminate some duplication of services and effort.

He asks applicants, aged 31 to 35, to contact him no later than September 14. Recruits will start to school November 19. Pay is $412 a month while in training, $453 on graduation.

Department will endeavor to assign the men to stations within 100 miles of their present homes.

HOPE TO CUT TRAFFIC DEATHS
Col. Garrison cast a gloomy eye at his crystal ball, and predicted a possible 31 traffic deaths in Texas over the three-day Labor Day weekend. But he hopes he is wrong!

"There is always a chance that the estimate can be proved too high," Garrison said, "if motorists will put forth a concerted effort to hold the line by driving within safe and legal limits, and remaining especially alert to the added dangers of holiday travel."

DPS has enlisted the aid of the Safety Association, Texas Association of Broadcasters, junior chambers of commerce, Texas Council of Safety Supervisors and the Texas Motor Transportation Association for a Labor Day "Operation Motorcade"—a concerted campaign to call attention to highway dangers.

SCHOOL LAND BOARD MEMBER NAMED—A Taylor attorney—William H. Fox—has been appointed by Attorney General Waggoner Carr to take Carr's place on the School Land Board. Law specifying the change was passed at the attorney general's request.

Governor Connally and Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler will remain on the three-member board, which does a big, and complicated, business, leasing many thousands of acres of state-owned land each year.

Fox is a former district attorney and state representative for Burnet and Williamson counties.

HAWAII CALLS—Many of Texas' state officials now are in Hawaii attending the National Legislative Conference in Honolulu.

Lt. Gov. Preston Smith of Lubbock heads the list.

Others attending are House Speaker Byron Tunnell of Tyler, Rep. Ben Jarvis of Tyler, Sen. George Parkhouse of Dallas, Rep. Wayne Gibbons of Breckenridge, and Rep. Dick Slack of Pecos.

Also in the group are Bob Johnson, former representative from Dallas and now executive director of the Legislative Council, and his assistant, John T. Potter of Austin.

POPULATION VS ORGANIZATION
Theory that a large population produces a greater volume of business activity than a small population is not 100 per cent true.

This is revealed by the University of Texas' Population Research Center. It surveyed 30 Texas cities for the 20 year period—1940 to 1960.

Cities surveyed were Alpine, Angleton, Aspermont, Boerne, Borger, Brackettville, Burnet, Cotulla, Del Rio, Denton, Eastland, Grapevine Hillsboro, Humble, Italy, Killeen, McKinney, Menard, Merkel, Olney, Paris, Port Lavaca, Runge, Rusk, San Diego, Seagraves, Seymour, Somerville, Van Alstyne and Winnsboro.

Nine of these—Brackettville, Eastland, Hillboro, Italy, Menard, Rusk, Seagraves, Somerville and Van Alstyne—had a population decline. Runge, Italy and McKinney all saw a decrease in the number of business organizations. Brackettville and Hillsboro were the only ones that had a decrease in the number of governmental organizations.

Only city that had a decrease in the number of organizations, but grew in population, was Runge. San Diego was the only place that failed to produce additional volunteer associations.

In general, the survey proved that business and other organizations multiply even when population growth does not occur. Smaller cities usually support a greater number of organizations per 1,000 population than do the big cities.

HIGH SCHOOL DROPOUT—The growing problem of high school dropouts will be the topic of the annual meeting of the Texas State Committee on Public

OIL ALLOWABLE CUTS—Producing ability of Texas oil wells was cut by some 28,617 barrels a day when the Railroad Commission reduced the daily oil allowable from 28.5 per cent in August to 28 per cent for September.

MOMENTOUS DECISIONS TO COME

History will remember this First Session of the 88th Congress for decisions it will make in the weeks to come. Up to now, Congress has not acted on any legislation of an unprecedented nature. Measures enacted so far have, in the main, provided for the continuation (or abandonment) of programs established in past Sessions, met the financial obligations of the government, taken care of the government's "housekeeping" responsibilities.

That pattern is changing. Now the focus of Congressional activity is on legislation of a momentous nature—legislation of such scope that decisions made will have a bearing on the Nation's very security and its economic well-being and on the future course of Federal-State relations and personal liberty.

The three most important pending legislative matters—and certainly there are many other vital matters of national importance—are the nuclear test ban treaty, tax code revision and a tax cut, and civil rights.

The test ban hearings are making daily headlines. The Senate, which Constitutionally is the only body of Congress empowered to act in ratifying treaties, will explore the treaty provisions thoroughly. Tax Legislation has been the subject of prolonged hearings by the House Ways and Means Committee; a bill is likely to be submitted to the full House in a matter of days. Then the Senate will begin its own work on the tax bill. Meanwhile, both houses of Congress are in the committee stage of considering civil rights legislation.

The Senate will dominate the coming Congressional drama. It alone holds the power of "yea" or "nay" over the test ban treaty. It will be in the spotlight also because Senate rules permit unlimited debate on measures reaching the floor. The debate may continue until each Senator has had his say. It can be cut off only by exercise of that rarely invoked Senate procedure called "closure," by which two-thirds of the Senate must concur in a motion to end debate.

By contrast, debate is limited on the floor of the House. A major bill coming before the House is presented along with a "rule" adopted by the Rules Committee—a resolution (which the full House may either adopt, amend or reject) establishing in part the number of hours during which debate is to be permitted and whether or not amendments to the bill may be submitted during debate. There can be no filibusters in the House; once a bill has reached the floor a decision on it cannot long be delayed.

The Senate, on the other hand, can devote weeks to debating the provisions of a bill. Oratory is more common to the Senate, once called "the world's most exclusive debating society," since its rules permit prolonged discussion. Now, it's anyone's guess as to what will happen in the Senate on the nuclear test ban treaty, the tax bill or civil rights. But with the shadow of a bitter civil rights showdown looming over every Senate action, I would say that the country is assured of a very thorough airing of all measures coming before it. Senate opponents of civil rights leg-

NEWSLETTER FROM

Senator JOHN TOWER

Senator John Tower (R-Tex) said today that the special directive issued by Defense Secretary Robert McNamara and based on the so-called "Gesell Report" is "completely destructive of the traditional role of the military in our country."

Tower urged the Defense Department to hold the order in abeyance until the matter is thoroughly investigated by responsible committees of Congress.

"The military establishment of this country was created for the purpose of defense against foreign enemies," Tower said. "It was not created to be used as a tool or device by which domestic political goals might be achieved."

The text of Senator Tower's statement follows:

"I regard the special directive issued by Defense Secretary McNamara, in which he puts into practice some of the recommendations of the so-called 'Gesell Report,' as being completely destructive of the traditional role of the military in our country."

The order by Mr. McNamara seeks to use the weight of the military establishment in this country as a vehicle by which the customs and mores of our people are changed to fit the pattern sought by the present Administration.

The military establishment of this country was created for the purpose of defense against foreign enemies. It was not created to be used as a tool or device by which domestic political goals might be achieved.

The order, particularly that section allowing economic sanctions to be decreed against off-base business establishments, could well place base commanders in the midst of swirling controversy. It can do nothing but damage military morale and change the traditional friendly attitude of local citizens toward military bases in their community.

I wholeheartedly endorse the call that has been made on the Senate floor for a complete investigation into Mr. McNamara's directive. I would further urge the Defense Department to hold the order in abeyance until completion of the investigation by responsible committees of the Congress."

Waggoner - Turner To Exchange Wedding Vows

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Waggoner of Dimmitt announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Earnestine Ann to Charlie Lee Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Turner of Tullia.

The couple plan to wed Tuesday, September 24 at 7 p.m. in Lee Street Baptist Church. Reception will be in Fellowship Hall. Friends and relatives are invited to attend.

isolation, with an eye on the calendar, may attempt to forestall action on civil rights by prolonging debate on all controversial issues presented to the Floor.

Those who expect Congress to be in session until the snow flies aren't going to be far wrong, I'd guess. It may happen that the First Session won't end until the Second Session is ready to begin in January, and that this will be the first continuous Congress since World War II. Again, however, predicting coming events on Capitol Hill is like forecasting rain in the Texas Panhandle; you can find yourself all wet when you least expected it.

I don't look for the August 28th civil rights "march" on Washington to have much impact on House or Senate consideration of civil rights legislation. It will be business as usual in my office. While I believe the rank-and-file of those who are coming here to demonstrate believe their action may have an effect on the legislation, their leaders know better. The leaders, I believe, are simply giving their followers a chance to let off steam. I doubt that the demonstration will produce more support for civil rights legislation that it otherwise would have; on the contrary, if the march gets out of hand, if violence occurs in the Capitol votes in the House and Senate will turn against civil rights legislation. While Congress is responsive to public opinion, it has a low regard for pressure tactics and threats.

Senator YARBOROUGH'S REPORT

Fellow Texan:

I am pleased to report that this week the U. S. Senate passed by a record vote a bill to increase the pay of almost all the men and women in the armed forces. I am confident that the bill will become law.

This is the first general pay increase for members of our armed forces in five long years. This bill will help retain experienced officers and enlisted men. It will provide an increase in pay in the officer grades of an average of 18.8 per cent and an increase in pay for the men in the enlisted grades averaging 16.6 per cent.

These pay increases will offset in large part the expense of the increases by cutting down the high military personnel. The Defense Department is now spending a billion dollars a year to train and retrain personnel.

Texas also has a big economic stake in this bill. With 177,000 members of the armed forces in Texas, we have more servicemen than any state in the Union.

In the last fiscal year $721 Million was spent on the salaries of military personnel in Texas. Another $664 Million was spent in Texas in the last fiscal year on federal civilian salaries. Many of these were civilian jobs connected with the military. The military pay more than $1.2 Billion, and about $100 Million of that will be paid out in Texas.

Let us look at some other particulars of this bill.

A corporal, for example, would have his pay raised $35 a month, bringing him up to $205 a month. Certain personnel who were trainees with less than two years of service would not get an increase. Also if a man is in a Cold War, exposed-to-death-or-injury position, like those fighting in South Vietnam, he will get $55 a month more. If a man is sent overseas, and his family cannot go, he will draw $30 a month more for a separation from-family situation.

Another group of people who have been discriminated against in the past, who received justice under this bill, are the personnel who retired prior to 1958. Under the last pay increase, the Cordiner Bill of 1958, those who had previously retired did not get an increase. They do receive their recomputation increase under this new bill, and I am particularly pleased at this. In my campaign for the Senate in 1958, I had a plank in my platform for the passage of a bill to recompute the pay of those retired before 1958. I am proud to report that this has been accomplished in the military pay act of 1963.

For the best move you ever made contact the nearest office of the Texas Department of Public Safety about improved job benefits as a highway patrolman.
