NUMBER 289

TO DEMAND REPARATION FOR DEATH OF AMERICAN

STATE DEPARTMENT WILL PRESENT CLAIMS AGAINST MEXICO AT ONCE.

ONE IS KILLED OUTRIGHT

And a Number Injured at Douglas Arizona by Shots That Fell Across Border.

Washington, April 14.—Mexico will be held responsible for the loss of life and wounding of Americans in yesterday's battle in which the rebels captured Agua Prieta, according to a statement from the State Department this morning. It was announced that claims would be made against the Mexican government at once. No matter whether the injury was inflicted by the rebels or by the Federal troops it will be to the Mexican government to which the United States looks for reparation. It is pointed out that in some cases Mexico will have grounds for a counter claim owing to the negligence of Americans. Several of the American wounded however were hurt while pursuing their ordinary business vocations in Douglas. It is possible that a cabinet meeting will discuss the situation today.

One Killed, Eight Injured in Douglas.

Agua Prieta, Mexico, April 14.—The revolutionists under Red Lopez today hold this town, having captured it from the Federal yesterday. It is a part entry and an important strategic point. The insurgents expect reinforcements and further fighting is expected. Fifteen were killed and sixty wounded during the battle, the dead and injured about equally divided between the rebels and the Federal. One American in Douglas, Arizona was killed, and one mortally wounded. Seven others less seriously hurt by bullets flying onto American soil. Thousands of Americans crowded into the danger zone watching the fight. The United States officials did not order the battle stopped as reported last night but Capt. Gault of the First Cavalry crossed the border with a message from the Mexican Federal officers who had fled to American soil telling their remaining troops to surrender. This order was finally obeyed.

Action Was Spectacular.

Agua Prieta, Mexico.—(Via Douglas, Ariz.)—During a battle which lasted all afternoon and resulted in the capture of this city by the rebels, commanded by "Red" Lopez, American troops crossed the border and stopped the fighting. The action was taken after three men had been killed.

ed and several wounded in Douglas and the continued firing was endangering the lives of Americans on United States territory. Douglas was under constant fire three hours.

Thousands of Americans rushed to the International line, but as the firing continued they had to seek shelter behind adobe buildings, and in ditches. About fifteen minutes after the firing on the town began, the curfew, the headquarters of the commissario was blown up. It is not known whether a rebel bullet struck the magazine at the commissario headquarters, where dynamite was recently stored, or the federal blew up the magazine to prevent the rebels getting supplies.

The rebels arrived unexpectedly. They came on the train captured at Fronteras earlier in the day. The federal garrison of sixty-five men has stood its ground well, as is indicated by the fierce fighting. The rebels attacked Agua Prieta from the west. After detaining just below the town they marched to the west of the Nacozar railroad tracks and then with short rushes took shelter behind the railroad embankments, resting their rifles over the rails as they shot into the town.

One federal officer on top of the commissario headquarters remained and directed the federal troops. The rebels fired from doorways and from any barricade that could be used.

Two groups of rebels advanced until they were in the shadow of the American customs house, where they continued to fire. The Federal, a few minutes later, essayed a rush from the center of the town and took possession of an adobe building almost within the rebel ranks.

The rebels retreated before this sortie. One dropped with in the shadow of the customs house. Charge of the Americans. The rebels, cheered on by the cries of "Viva Madero," from a thousand Mexicans, lined up at the American customs house, repulsed the sortie after a few minutes fighting. Soon a thin line of Federal began pouring out of Agua Prieta, straight for the American boundary. At this juncture, with a cloud of dust, a troop of the United States First Cavalry, under command of Captain Gault, charged down the line into the baseball park, where he has headquarters and the fleeing Federal stopped. Some took refuge in the adobe buildings of the guard house on the line, while others dropped into trenches partly filled up some time ago by order of Major Gardner, then commanding in Douglas.

Later a third American was shot in Douglas. In an adobe building a man was killed. Many bullets fell into Douglas as the rebel forces to the southwest fired into northeast Douglas, where the Mexicans live. Cries of "Viva Madero" were stopped by the Americans, as it was feared.

Bullock with the required number of names thereon. The petition of T. P. Hickman having been filed previously, the two candidates are assured. In this connection it may be stated that other names are also mentioned for the place and it is quite likely that within the next week one or more additional petitions will be filed. Friends of J. Lee Jackson, A. L. Huey and Edgar Rye are seriously considering the matter of circulating petitions to have their names included, although it is understood that Judge Rye objects seriously and will positively refuse to permit his name to appear on the ballot. Other scattering names are also mentioned but those referred to above are the most frequently spoken of.

SERVICES TONIGHT AT TENT TABERNACLE

There were no services at the tabernacle on Travis avenue between Third and Fourth streets last evening on account of the bad condition of the ground on which the tent was standing. The tent being new the rain of yesterday went through as though there had been no canvas in the way with the result that the ground on which it stands was thoroughly soaked. Yesterday afternoon and today the soil has been given every opportunity to dry and get wet again, but it is believed it will be in good condition for the service tonight which will begin promptly at eight o'clock. Rev. C. R. Stewart is doing some good preaching and is reaching the hearts of the people as is evidenced by the general interest manifested and the hearty response on the part of the unsaved to any proposition that has been made. E. M. Yenkey has charge of the song service. A cordial welcome is extended to everybody.

The name of the Texas Advertising and Clipping Bureau will be changed to—Texas Advertising and Sales Company, the clipping part of the business being transferred to Dallas, Texas. Advertising and sales company will continue under the management of H. Armstrong of this city, who accepted the position some several months ago. Mr. Armstrong is meeting with splendid success in the new enterprise and is busy now completing a mailing list that will be inestimable value to the business interests of Wichita Falls in that it will not only give the correct address of all parties living in the city, on rural routes and surrounding counties, but give information relative to them in the way of land holdings, indebtedness, and other information wanted by business men. The Texas Advertising and Sales Company are installing a printograph, a modern circular letter machine, run by electricity and capable of turning 4000 circular letters an hour and within the next thirty days promise to have a busy department on the third floor of the Kemp and Kell building. Good Friday in Gotham. New York, April 14.—New York today observed Good Friday in accordance with established custom. Special services were held by many of the churches, with elaborate musical programs as one of the chief features. The New York Stock Exchange and the other leading exchange were closed and will not resume business until Monday. One of the distinctive features of the day that could scarcely escape the eye of even the most casual observer was the large consumption of hot cross buns by all classes of the metropolis. This custom of English origin has gained a most surprising foothold in New York in recent years. The demand upon the bakers for hot cross buns on Good Friday has increased year by year until this season, so local statisticians have computed, several million were eaten by New Yorkers yesterday and today. Missouri Republicans to Banquet. Kansas City, Mo., April 14.—The committee in charge of arrangements for the banquet of the Association of Young Republicans of Missouri to be given here tomorrow night is in receipt of advices indicating a large attendance of delegates from all over the State. Governor Hadley and a number of other prominent party leaders are scheduled for addresses. Fire at Polo Grounds. Texas Leads in Road Building

Will Spend $25,000,000 in 1911

Albany, N. Y., April 14.—Activity in road-making over the country, for which sums were expended last year, is summed up in a condensation of state highway reports made public here yesterday. New York spent about $8,000,000 and plans to spend hereafter $9,000,000 the coming year. New Jersey built roads at a cost of more than $7,255,000 with contracts of $670,000 not yet completed. Repairs and maintenance amounted to more than $1,400,000. Pennsylvania spent considerably more than $1,000,000 on roads with contracts of $790,000 not completed. Ohio had construction and repair bills of nearly $500,000, with work aggregating $620,000 still to be finished. The total expenditures of other states were as follows: Arizona, $200,000. California, besides completing three or four state roads, voted $18,000 for a state highway system. Georgia, $3,000,000. Maryland, $1,477,000. Missouri, $1,000,000. North Carolina, $900,000. Texas, $7,000,000 with estimates for about $25,000,000 in 1911. Virginia, $450,000. West Virginia, $1,150,000. Canadian Swimming Championship. Montreal, April 14.—The speediest swimmers of the Dominion are entered in the Canadian swimming championship, which are scheduled for decision tonight and tomorrow night in the tank of the Montreal Athletic Association. The program provides for the following events: 40 yards, 100 yards, 220 yards, 440 yards, diving, and 160-yard relay race for teams of four men each.

Much Interest in Meeting Of The Advertisers Tonight

Those who are expected to address the meetings are Dave Ungar of the Southwestern Engraving Co., at Fort Worth and secretary of the Fort Worth Ad Club, Fred Johnson, president of the Dallas Club, Doctor Winn of Dallas and Secretary Day of the Chamber of Commerce at this place, who is a director of the Association of Ad Clubs of the Southwest. Other local speakers will likely talk on the question of advertising, after which temporary organization will be perfected, including the election of officers and the appointment of a committee to draft a constitution and by-laws for the club. All business men, as well as others who are interested in the question of advertising, are requested to be present at the meeting.

Liberal Railroads Rates Promised Wichita Falls

A. A. Glisson, general passenger agent of the Fort Worth and Denver was in the city this morning and with him Secretary Day of the Chamber of Commerce took up the proposition of railroad rates for the various meetings at this place this summer, with special reference to the Lakeside Assembly and the proposed trade excursion to be had at an early date. Mr. Glisson spoke very encouragingly of the prospect for favorable rates and assured Mr. Day with reference to the Assembly that this city would be accorded the same rate as prevalent to Corpus Christi on account of Epworth-by-the-Sea. In this connection it may be said that the above statement is not intended to indicate that the rate will be as such as prevailed last year, as there is a possibility of the rate being revised, however, in making the revision the two attractions will be placed on an equal basis. In view of the established reputation of Epworth-by-the-Sea and the fact that this is the first year for the Lakeside Assembly, the assurance of Mr. Glisson is very encouraging to those who have this matter in charge. In discussing the rate for the proposed trade excursion, Mr. Glisson stated that the matter had been held up pending an agreement with Dallas for a like excursion to be taken early in May. It seems that Dallas is contending for a lower rate than that first proposed by the roads for the special train and as soon as an agreement has been reached a rate along the same line will be available to Wichita Falls for such territory as may be included in the itinerary. Mr. Day is very gratified over the result of the interview had with Mr. Glisson and is of the opinion that this city will fare well in the matter of rates this summer.

HOW DR. PEARSON PAYS HIS DEBTS

HINSDALE PHILANTHROPIST DISBURSES $300,000 TO SMALL COLLEGES.

TOTAL NOW $5,000,000

Nonagenarian Discharges Last of Obligations On His Ninetieth Birthday.

Chicago, April 14.—Dr. D. K. Pearson, the Hinsdale philanthropist, celebrated his ninety-first birthday today by giving away about $300,000 to the American Board of Foreign Missions and a number of small colleges, as he called it, "paying his debts." Dr. Pearson called these gifts "debts," because in most cases the sums are fulfillments of his pledges to the institutions concerned. Today's gifts were as follows: American Board of Foreign Missions, $100,000; Berea College, Kentucky, $100,000; Doane College, Nebraska, $25,000; Northland College, Wisconsin, $10,000; Highland College, Kansas, $10,000; McKendree College, Illinois, $10,000; other small gifts, $45,000.

Today's gifts will bring Dr. Pearson's donations, mostly to smaller colleges, during the last twenty-five years to about $5,000,000. In practically every case the venerable philanthropist made the recipients of his bounty earn his gifts. They had to raise, by their own efforts, three dollars for every dollar which Dr. Pearson contributed and the whole became an endowment fund, only the income from which to be used.

In many cases Dr. Pearson pledged himself years ago to contribute certain sums to the endowment of various small colleges and he considered these pledges his "debts," which he worked off as one after another of the institutions complied with the conditions upon which his gifts depended. Today's list of donations closes up the slate of Dr. Pearson's "debts," and, as he expressed it, he will be able to "lie down to sleep peacefully, free from debt for the first time in many years."

The list of the colleges and other institutions which have benefited by Dr. Pearson's philanthropy, includes the following: Beloit College, Chicago Theological Seminary, Whitman College, Colorado College, Berea College, Mount Holyoke College, Lake Forest College, Knox College, Drury College, Yankton College, S. D., Carleton College, Fargo College, Pomona College, Fairmount College, Wichita, Kas., McCormick Theological Seminary, Pacific University, Forest Grove, Ore., Illinois College, Jacksonville, Ill., Olivet College, Michigan, Marietta College, Sheridan College, Wyoming; McKendree College, California, Anatolia College, Turkey; Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill.; Montpelier Seminary, Vermont; Guilford College, Greensboro, N. C.; Piedmont College, Washington College, Tennessee; Grand University, Chattanooga; West Virginia Seminary, Morgantown; Parkville College, Parkville, Mo. and others.

Charles J. Ross is seriously considering the establishment of a theatre in New York, where new vaudeville acts and sketches may be tried out for the consideration of managers, and where players and plays will thus have a chance of practically demonstrating their value.

They Like Men's Society.
(From Detroit Free Press.)

Here is a curious observation bearing on the woman question. In the big reading room of the British museum, where earnest individuals of both sexes pore over the dusty volumes in search of knowledge, there had been since 1857 a number of reading desks with the notice affixed, "For women only." These were up to recent times occupied by the somewhat frigid type of literary woman with piety and a purposeful manner, betokening anything but frivolity.

Now the notices have disappeared. Why? A grizzled official explained that of late the large majority of women readers have been steering clear of the women's desks and have insisted on sitting with the men. "They simply will not sit by themselves," he said, shaking his head in a puzzled way. "And we can't let the chairs stand empty. So we had to take the notice away."

TWO BACHELORS WILL GIVE A RECEPTION

It's not everybody that can have an opportunity to attend a reception at which two bachelors—it won't do to call them old—are hosts. So that all who cannot qualify as guests for the reception to be given next Friday night by Judge A. A. Hughes and Judge Edgar Scurry will be envious.

The Times is authorized to publish the following invitation from these two bachelors:

"Confederate soldiers, their wives and all descendants of Confederate soldiers are cordially invited to a reception at our residence 1109 Indiana avenue from 8 p. m. to 12 m., Friday, April 21st, 1911.

"If you are a soldier, the wife or widow of a soldier or the descendant of a Confederate soldier, this is your invitation to be present and know that you are welcome. Yours truly,
A. A. HUGHES,
EDGAR SCURRY.

Have you voted in The Times' Contest yet?

FIRST SCALE OF VOTES ENDS TO-MORROW NIGHT

Very Little Interest Being Taken This Week—We Have Not Done a Quarter of the Business We Expected

TURN IN A $25.00 CLUB BEFORE 10 O'CLOCK TO-MORROW NIGHT AND SECURE 60,000 VOTES

At ten o'clock tomorrow evening the extended first period will have ended so far as our securing that scale of votes is concerned, unless we should receive some subscriptions through the mail showing a postmark not later than that hour.

At this writing the results obtained have fallen far short of what we understood our contestants had promised them in subscriptions, when the extension was first mentioned.

There is still an opportunity for you to take advantage of this period's scale of votes if you are so inclined. A club of $25 will give you 60,000 votes; one for $15 will give you 30,000 votes.

We should hate to see any one of our district prizes won for this number of votes, but it may happen if our contestants do not wake up and get busy.

It seems like a shame that we are committed to give away the two grand prizes, as the business so far turned in on account of this contest would almost make one believe that our contestants were working for the district prizes alone. We are committed however, and your Uncle Samuel will stand no money business in this respect.

When a paper announces that they will give away such and such prizes, it's up to them to do it if their editors go through the mail, or they would soon have the federal authorities after them if their attention was called to the reneging.

It is the intention of The Times to give away every prize just as advertised, even if we do not take in another subscription through the contest. We have already safeguarded our contestants in this matter, as we have deposited the prizes with The First National Bank to be paid out by them to the winners April 23rd.

We continue to live in the hope that our contestants will feel sufficiently chastened after a while—if not now—as to do a little something by way of manifesting their appreciation of what we are doing for them.

If you are one of these, we are talking to you; if not, then we wish to thank you from the fulness of our hearts for your efforts in behalf of The Times.

There is another thing of which we want to speak today: in a contest of this kind—or any other kind—there are always those individuals who appoint themselves a committee of one to see that ridiculous and altogether absurd reports regarding the contest are circulated.

These stories, (which like the poor are always with us) have come to our ears, and the only way we have of combating them is to advise you to pay no attention to them.

You can hear any day of the week that the Times is no good. That we will never give away the prizes advertised, or if we do that some friends will win them, and that you are wasting your time, etc.

You can also hear that so and so has "seven million votes," and that some other so and so is running a close second. You can soon see it is not because they are friends of yours, but because they lack manhood enough to tell the truth.

Don't worry about the prizes not being given away as advertised, your Uncle Sam will see that we carry out our program.

Don't worry about what the other fellow has or hasn't got, so that you have a large number of votes for yourself, and you will then find the other fellow doing the worrying.

Don't forget to secure every subscription possible before ten o'clock tomorrow night that you can lay your hands on, and either bring them to us or drop them in the post office before that hour.

FOR A SMALL EFFORT.

Contestants should remember these facts. In each of the three districts THE TIMES will give absolutely free one $50.00 award, one $25.00 award, one $10.00 award and one $5.00 award. Then there are the two Grand Awards, $500.00 and $250.00, respectively. All that is necessary to win is to receive the largest number of votes, according to the conditions in THE TIMES.

GET FULL INFORMATION.

If there is one single point in connection with this contest that you do not understand get in communication with the Contest Manager at once, either by phone, 147, or by mail, and have your doubtful points cleared at once. Then when you clearly understand everything lose no time in getting started.

BACK PAYMENTS COUNT.

Subscribers to THE TIMES who are in arrears on their subscription account and who pay up the same are entitled to votes according to the amount paid. When you pay up your subscriptions be sure and secure the votes to which you are entitled, because it will be impossible for us to allow them afterwards; they must be secured at the time payment is made. And remember that no votes can be allowed on a subscription for less than three months to THE DAILY TIMES or one year to THE WEEKLY TIMES.

HOW VOTES ARE SECURED.

Votes are secured by subscribing to THE DAILY or WEEKLY TIMES, or by purchasing a Classified Advertising Book. These ballots can be held and voted later in the contest by the person holding them, but the daily coupon clipped from THE TIMES are only good for one week from date of publication and will not be counted if voted after the vote date printed upon them expires.

HOW TO WIN.

Any resident in the three districts mentioned in our double-page announcement, who desire to compete in this great contest and win one of the valuable awards offered, should at once see that their names are sent to the Contest Manager. Those who get in on the start have the best chance of winning, so it is desirable that the names be entered at once. Candidates who enter do not necessarily have to subscribe to THE TIMES. Enter your name and your friends will assist you to do the rest. Should there be a tie for any one of the prizes offered the same will be divided equally between those so tying. The time is short, as the contest will end April 23rd. There is no lottery attached to it in any way, you must get the votes to win. There is no lucky number or element of chance connected with it, and you will never know how popular you are till you enter a contest of this kind.

Cottolene

Brings the sunshine of the south to your home

Cottolene is a vegetable product—made from the choicest cotton oil. Its source is the cotton fields of the Sunny South. From Cottonfield to Kitchen human hands never touch the oil from which Cottolene is made.

Compare the source of Cottolene with the source of lard—hog-fat—and you'll cease to wonder why lard-cooked food throws the stomach out of kilter and causes indigestion.

Cottolene is of absolutely pure origin and ancestry, and will make palatable, digestible, healthful food.

Test Cottolene fairly—note the beneficial effect of Cottolene food on the family's digestion—and you'll never have a pound of lard in your kitchen again.

Made only by the N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY

COTTOLENE is Guaranteed

Your grocer is hereby authorized to refund your money in case you are not pleased, after having given Cottolene a fair test.

"Nature's Gift from the Sunny South"

Never Sold in Bulk

Cottolene is packed in tins with an air-tight top, so keep it clean, fresh and wholesome, and prevent it from catching dust and absorbing disagreeable odors, such as fish, oil, etc.

BAILEY IS PICKED TO LEAD IN SENATE

DEMOCRATIC FORCES IN SENATE ARE SADLY DISORGANIZED.

WILLIAMS MAY CONTEST

Relations Between Bailey and Culbertson Said to Be Strained Despite Denial.

(By F. H. Dyer.)
Washington, April 14.—The special session of Congress now getting fairly started promises to be one of the most interesting affairs in the legislative line ever witnessed in this country. As to the net results in the way of legislation, that is another matter. While the President called the Congress together for the sole purpose of enacting a reciprocity tariff treaty with Canada, it is apparent that there is an intention to make that quite a secondary issue. The democratic House is intent on a revision of the tariff. It will begin with wool, but it will go just as far as it can. The protectionists, aided by a Republican Senate, will do everything possible to balk the revisionists. Already the progressive insurgents have shown that they realize their strategic position. They will figure largely in the final results.
To a greater extent in the Senate than in the House, there are two well defined groups of insurgents, one each on the democratic and republican sides. While the republicans are cohesive and well managed, in the main, the democrats are fighting among themselves and are unable to agree on a man for leader. They would like to have Senator Culbertson of Texas take the reins, but he would face a situation which would not be pleasant for him, as he would be directly opposed to Senator Bailey, also from Texas, and an ambitious leader who aspires to control the action of the democratic stalwarts. Relations between the two Texas senators are already somewhat strained. Aside from Culbertson the Senatorial insurgents seem to be without satisfactory material from which to pick a leader. Their forces are inchoate, unorganized and seemingly unassimilable. With talent enough none of it seems to be of just the right sort and every suggestion made of a man to lead meets with objections to him for one reason or another. William Jennings Bryan himself tried to bring order and organization among his progressive friends in the Senate but with little result. It looks, as some of the political wise ones have said, like a contest between Bailey and Bryan, with Bailey seemingly holding the advantage. John Sharp William may yet contest Bailey's leadership, and Rorer will be another contender for the honors.

Bailey is a man whose ability is not questioned. He is a big lawyer and an able and effective debater. Even those who dislike him, and he has his enemies, readily admit the brilliancy of his intellect. He seems likely to lead his party in the Senate. The only man there who ever silenced him completely was the brainy senator, Hughes of Colorado, whose superior skill in debate, knowledge of law and power as an orator amazed the galleries and won the homage of his colleagues on the one occasion when he gave a glimpse of his ability. His death cut off one of the most promising careers in the upper House of Congress. Hughes seemed destined to be the leader of the majority. Bailey now seems to have no real competitor. But he rules by force of his intellect and his aggressiveness rather than through any other quality of mind or heart.
On the republican side it seems to be conceded that Massachusetts will dominate, as Texas does on the minority side. Lodge and Crane are a powerful pair. Lodge acts as a mouthpiece for the Administration on the floor, Crane has the Presidential ear and works out arbitration and reciprocity schemes in the cloakrooms, harmonizing antagonists and placating the disgruntled. Most of the old time leaders of the Republicans have died or gone down to defeat. Frye, Cullon and Perkins are too old for strenuous warfare but their wisdom will be valued in council. Root, Nelson, Gallinger, Nixon, McCumber, Burton, Penrose, Smoot, Sutherland, Warren, these and others give a sprinkling of that element so greatly respected in the Senate, seniority. All of the old warhorses are not departed and among some of the new comers there are qualities which compensate for brevity of experience.

Battling and Alaska.
There is considerable talk about reopening the Battling case. The enemies of the former Secretary of the Interior seem not to be satisfied with driving him into private life. They seem to think that the very voluminous and often tiresome testimony brought out, with every facility offered for bringing it out at the Congressional investigation will not include some things which might be told. However, it is not the general opinion that anything would be gained by reopening the question.

In view of the country-wide excitement over the Alaska coal land cases and the Battling inquiry, there has been much interest over the decision of a federal judge in Seattle that a group of coal claimants—not the Cunningham claimants—were justified in entering into an agreement to work their claims jointly. This upsets the main question on which Government might have revoked the claims of these speculators. As it would result in the clear-cutting of nearly all the 900 claims coal in Alaska, the Government has arranged to take an appeal at once to the Supreme Court. It is expected that the court would make the case special, and that it would endeavor to reach a decision as early as possible. As the court will soon take its summer recess, this means that a decision might possibly be reached by next fall. The Alaskans, and the residents of the Pacific Coast, who always have had to pay excessive prices for even poor coal, will hope that the court will be able to settle this question at an early date, as that will expedite the opening of the Alaska coal fields under some plan which Congress will approve.

Wants Mr. Taft's Signature.
There is a man in one of the public land states who is doubtful about the validity of a patent issued by the United States and signed by the President. He is a law officer at that, judging from the manner in which he quotes law and discusses its bearings on his land title.

This man wrote to the Commissioner of Public Lands, Hon. Fred Denney, and complained that the patent he had been granted did not comply with the laws of his State. "The laws here require," wrote he, "that a deed shall be signed by both a man and his wife as grantors. This patent bears the signature 'Wm. H. Taft,' but it is not signed Mrs. Taft. Her name should be attached to the patent to make it legal under the laws of this state. I note too that while the name in the body of the document is 'William H. Taft,' the signature is 'Wm. H. Taft.' The two names should be made to correspond. Finally, the signature is not that of the President in proper person but it is signed by a clerk for him. I should like to have the patent corrected in all of these particulars."

Possibly it is unfortunate that these requests could not be complied with. The land office regards the patent in question as a perfectly good patent in every respect, and it is strictly in conformity with the law and the usage of the office. Last week was not a particularly brisk week in the government land business, and yet about 1500 patents were issued. If Mrs. Taft could be required to sign each one, she would have to sign 300 patents a day. If the President personally had to sign each one, it would make a sad inroad on the time he would have to give to public business.

Public Ownership.
The Government is making experiments with public ownership to an extent greater than most persons realize. It has in the Postoffice Department the biggest business institution in this country. It owns telegraph lines in Alaska and in the Philippines, and operates them. It conducts a steamship line and a railroad, in connection with the Panama Canal, which it is building itself under the management of an Army engineer. It carries on surveys of the public lands. It does so many things that when the Socialists succeed in electing a majority of the members of Congress, instead of one lone member, and they decree Government ownership of these things now managed privately, will hardly cause a jar to the business world.

As to the success of public ship, a recent consular report that in the past ten years the Hull, England, has received from profits of the municipal street system over $700,000, which lessened local taxation by that sum. In addition to this, the rest of the street car system, providing all operating expenses and charges, maintenance in the condition and keeping up the streets. The fare is 3 cents and morning hours is only 1 cent. seems to show that even under fares municipal operation is successful.

Lorimer is Not Sure of His Seat

(By Clyde H. Traverser in The Temple Telegram)
Washington, D. C., April 14.—Senator Lorimer of Illinois is not at all sure of his seat in the United States senate. If the investigation into his election is reopened, it is practically certain he will be ousted.

The Lorimer forces, therefore, are concentrating attention upon a plan to have the LaFollette resolution referred to a committee where it can be killed. There will be an attempt to refer the LaFollette resolution to the committee on privileges and elections, which carried out the whitewashing process last session. There are seven of the old members who defended Lorimer left on this committee, and six or seven members are to be appointed. If the Lorimer followers should succeed in having the resolution referred to this committee, the question of authorizing the new investigation would be determined largely by the character of the members. There is a bitter fight raging over the constitution of the privileges and elections committee. The progressives declare they are not worrying. They say any attempt to "stack" the committee with Lorimer partisans will only accentuate the public disgust aroused by the original whitewash.

The movement for a reopening of the investigation is gathering headway as a result of the disclosures at Springfield, Ill. The work of the Illinois state senate committee up to date is regarded as a terrific indictment of the character of the inquiry conducted by the United States senate committee. In two sessions the state investigation produced more vital evidence than did the national body in all its sittings. The committee on privileges and elections has only failed to examine Hines and Lorimer himself, but made no effort to get at the sources of the corruption fund.

Those who urge a new investigation believe that much additional evidence can be secured in Washington. They desire a rigid inquiry made regarding the lobby located in Washington during three weeks prior to the day on which a vote was taken on the Lorimer case, the Chicago boss was apparently beaten. Then a powerful lobby started to work and the Illinois senator was saved.

In the opinion of Senator LaFollette, the testimony of Clarence S. Funk, general superintendent of the International Harvester company, is alone sufficient to justify a new investigation. In testifying before the Illinois investigators Funk, referring to Edwards Hines, head of the lumber trust and one of those who lobbied for Lorimer in Washington, said: "Hines said to me personally, without preliminary: 'Well, we put Lorimer over, but it cost us $100,000 to do it. He said: 'We had to act quickly so that it became necessary for us to put up the money. Now we are seeing some of our friends to get it fixed up.'"

"He gave me to understand they wanted to be reimbursed and I asked him why he came to us, and he said: 'You are as interested as any one in having the right kind of a man at Washington.'"

"I told him we would have nothing to do with it. He said he could only go to big people and wanted to get $10,000 from each of ten. He left me and told me to think it over."

"Edward Tilden, connected with the stock yards at Chicago, is the man to whom I was told to send the money."

This testimony by a man of undisputed high character, when considered with the fact that four members of the Illinois legislature testified before the senate committee that their votes for Lorimer were bargained and paid for with cash, is considered a strong argument for a new investigation of the methods used in the Lorimer election.

LINCOLN ASSASSINATED 46 YEARS AGO TONIGHT

Washington, April 14.—One of the notable anniversaries of important events connected with the history of the civil war period in this country is the forty-sixth anniversary of the assassination of President Lincoln, who was shot and mortally wounded at Ford's Theater by John Wilkes Booth, an actor, while attending a performance of "Our American Cousin" on the evening of April 14, 1865.

In commemoration of the day the flags on all public buildings were at half-mast all day and commemorative services were held by many of the patriotic societies.

The bloody sectional struggle between the North and South had just closed by the surrender of Gen. Lee and the country was rejoicing over the conclusion of the civil war which had cost so many precious lives and enormous sacrifices of money. President Lincoln had been busy all day. In the morning he had a long conference with his son, Capt. Lincoln, in the course of which he dissuaded him from continuing a military career. Later in the forenoon the President attended the last meeting with his cabinet. All the members of the cabinet were present on that occasion, excepting Mr. Seward, the Secretary of State, who had broken his jaw by a fall from his horse. His seat was occupied by Gen. Grant. The terms of Lee's surrender were discussed and approved and President Lincoln very strongly expressed himself against any harsh measures in the South.

During the afternoon the President received many visitors and when the evening came, he was tired and would have liked to rest, but he did not wish to disappoint the crowds at the theater and, accompanied by the members of his family occupied the stage box, especially decorated for the occasion. It was after the close of the first act that Booth fired the fatal shot and escaped during the indescribable excitement following his deed. Lincoln was carried to a tailor shop opposite the theater and there died early the following morning.

CURES CATARRH.

Also Coughs, Colds, Croup and Sore Throat.

O. F. Marchman guarantees HYOMEI (pronounce it High-o-mei) to cure catarrh, acute or chronic; to cure colds, coughs, croup and sore throat, or money back.

In cases of deafness caused by catarrh, there is no remedy so efficient. HYOMEI is a liquid extracted from the eucalyptus trees of Australia, and is a soothing, healing, germ killing, antiseptic.

A complete HYOMEI outfit consisting of a bottle of HYOMEI and an indispensible hard rubber pocket inhaler costs $1.00. For treating catarrh or any throat or nose ailment, pour a few drops into the inhaler and breathe.

That's all you have to do, and as the air passes through the inhaler, it becomes impregnated with antiseptic HYOMEI, and this soothing, healing air as it passes into the lungs reaches every particle of the inflamed membrane, kills the germs and heals the raw, sore catarrhal spots.

If you now own a HYOMEI inhaler you can buy an extra bottle of HYOMEI for only 50 cents at O. F. Marchman Drug Store or druggists everywhere. Free sample trial treatment from Booth's Hyomei Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

PROHIBITION BALLOT RECOUNT AUTHORIZED

Third Court of Appeals Holds Local Option Elections Not Subject to Terrell Law.

Austin, Texas, April 14.—The Third Court of Appeals today ordered the injunction dissolved in the case of J. B. Clay et al. vs. M. L. Hurst, from Caldwell, holding that the Commissioners' Court had a right to count each ballot in the local option election held in that county on March 11, when the anti law won by a vote of 17.

The Commissioners' Court which is pro, gave notice it was going to open the ballot boxes and count the votes. An injunction was secured from District Judge L. W. Moore, preventing the Commissioners from carrying out that method of counting the vote.

One side contended that the Commissioners were merely a canvassing board and could only take the totals of the returning officers, count same and declare the result. The victorious side argued that the article gave the Commissioners power to open the boxes and count each ballot and the court sustains that view.

The court holds that the District Judge erred in granting the injunction; that the petition was frivolous in not sustaining a cause of action and that it was not properly verified.

The court, in its opinion by Judge Rice, finds that its view coincides with that of the Supreme Court and Court of Criminal Appeals. Inasmuch as the Appellate Courts are tribunals of last resort in contested election cases, today's decision may stand as final, though there is nothing to prevent the losing side from applying for a writ of error to the Supreme Court.

Under today's decision, Commissioners' courts will be authorized to open ballot boxes and count each ballot whenever they see fit to do so.

LET CONTRACT FOR 45 BLOCKS PAVING

Lawton, Okla., April 14.—The largest paving contract ever awarded in the city of Lawton—twelve blocks more than the city's entire present paving area—and by far the cheapest paving ever given to an Oklahoma city is that which was last night awarded by the Lawton city council to Charles H. Shaw, the contractor who has laid all street paving Lawton now has.

The new paving is to be laid on cross streets, including Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Seventh, Eighth, and Ninth. Second, Seventh and Eighth are to be paved from Gore boulevard, to E avenue, a distance of five blocks each; Third, Fourth and Fifth precede one block farther south, or to the Frisco at F, a distance of six blocks each; and Ninth street is to be paved from Gore boulevard to south boundary, twelve blocks.

In all, there are forty-five blocks. C, D and E avenues, already paved, make a total of thirty-three blocks. D was included in the first contract, after others had been knocked out by remonstrances, and C and E were contracted later.

In the original resolution for the present contract, both A and B avenues were included, as well as Sixth street and First but these were killed by remonstrances.

The contract of last night is the cheapest ever awarded in Oklahoma, $1.85 per square yard was the price paid for asphalt on the first two contracts in Lawton and this price was the low limit up to that time. Shaw's new contract is for $1.69. Mayfield, Shaw and Redman bid $1.68 last night but higher prices on excavation and a few other specifications ran their total price $1,950.60 higher than the one accepted.

The Soup Shelf vs. The Soup Kettle

Years ago the spinning wheel and the tallow dip went into discard—their places taken up by something vastly better. Today the soup kettle is disappearing with the baked bean jar and in their places are coming the soup and bean shelf.

Your's Truly soups are vastly better and cheaper than the homemade soup—no madam that is not casting any slur at your ability, at all—its simply a case of modern economy.

A dozen cans assorted Yours Truly soup at $1.10 will prove it to you.

Single cans 10c.

TO PROSECUTE SEWER ORDINANCE VIOLATIONS

According to a statement of City Attorney Householder, made to a Times reporter this morning, the city is going to make it interesting for those who persistently fail or refuse to make sewer connections as provided by law. The city has been having considerable trouble recently in convincing some of our people that this matter is an important one and that it is their duty to connect with those upon whom devolves the duty of looking after the enforcement of this ordinance.
