The great Coney Island Fire--Photograph taken Saturday after the flames had been extinguished. The picture shows all that remains of Dreamland, the most famous amusement park in the world. In the foreground can be seen the twisted masses of steel that were Dreamland tower and in the rear the bridge over the lagoon. The estimated damage done by the fire is $4,500,000. No human lives were lost.

The great $4,000,000 at Coney Island--Flames bursting forth in the Whirlwind, the greatest scenic railway in the world, just after the monster blaze in Dreamland had begun to sweep its other parts of the famous summer resort. This is one of the few photographs taken while the fire was in progress. It was through this building that the prize Lion Sultan made his break for freedom, when he terrified the thousands who had gathered to watch the blaze, eventually being shot by two policemen. The Whirlwind, like all the other buildings that were incinerated, was built entirely of wood and plaster, the entire structure burning like so much timber-wood, making it next to impossible for the firemen to make any impression against the advance of the ball of flame.

Fine for Barbers; Haggins Face is Shaved Each Day

Lexington, Ky., June 2--J. B. Haggins, the multimillionaire owner of Elmendorf stock farm, has caused notices to be posted requiring the several hundred employees on his 9000-acre estate near this city to be shaved every other day.

Mr. Haggins believes that "whiskers" propagate dangerous microbes and the order is meant to affect particularly employees in the dairy department. A barber shop is being installed and accompanying it is being built a $10,000 bathhouse, both of which are to be maintained free of cost to the employees.

BUCKLING OF PAVEMENT NOT SERIOUS MATTER

Little Danger of Recurrence of Trouble Says Superintendent of Paving Company.

The recent trouble with the newly laid paving has been the cause of quite a little comment on account of the manner in which it buckles up when saturated with water and some have been disposed to offer criticism with reference thereto, it being assumed that this trouble will be of frequent occurrence. However, in discussing the matter with a Times reporter yesterday, Mr. Tracey, who is superintending the paving work in progress at this place, stated that he was very glad that such a condition was coming at this time when he was present and could readily remedy the trouble. As explained by him the blocks, such as are used in the work at this place, are disposed to buckle up in places when first soaked with water, especially if they are laid close together, but he stated that there was but little recurrence of the trouble and it is for this reason that he is pleased over the fact that the buckling has taken place at a time when repairs can be easily made. After the first few weeks he appre-

College Girls to Eat Pies; Match Goes to a Finish

Wellesley, Mass., June 2--The supremacy of the "Pie Eaters" as pastry punishers at Wellesley College is threatened by "The Consumers," a new organization which already holds the fudge and chocolate russe records. Wellesley is strong for the eats.

Pie was barred from the women's college. But pie, the girls declared, they must have, and "Pie" became their password and slogan. The "Pie Eaters" was formed and is now one of the healthiest organizations in the college. Then "The Consumers" came into existence.

"The Consumers" have challenged their rivals to a catch-as-catch-can pie-eating contest next month and the "Pie Eaters" have accepted. The date of the contest is being kept a close secret.

The only stipulation is that there shall be no dil pickles in sight. The president of "The Consumers" says the members of her club could not resist the temptation of dil pickles.

Queen Mary's Favorite Flower.

Gardeners and horticulturists in England tried in vain to have Queen Mary select the sweet pea for her coronation flower, but she decided on the pink carnation. Queen Mary particularly favors the Winsor, which is a deep pink. She gave as one of the reasons for her selection of the carnation the fact that the weather will be too warm for the sweet pea, a flower that fades very quickly in a heated atmosphere.

No Back Row in Mike's Theater.

For sixteen years Mike Finn had cleaned out the Town Hall after shows, lectures, political meetings, Decoration Day exercises, and other doings, and never a complaint did he make. Recently, however, he fancied he had a kick coming, and he went in to the Mayor's office to register it.

"What is it, Mike?" asked the Mayor.

"It's about the Hall, yer Honor. The byes stand up in the rear, they do, an' they chew and spit durin' the entire performance. An' not a word would Ol say, yer Honor, if they would spit all over the legs of the chairs in the back rows, an' on the places where the chairs do be fastened to the flure, an' hard work it is for a man of me age to stoop town an' scrub it off.

There's a favor Ol would ask of yer Honor this mornin' in respect to it."

"What is that, Mike?"

"Inndade, Ol would ask yer Honor for permission and authority to do away with the back row of seats entirely. Nobody loikes to sit in the back row anyhow, yer Honor, an' sinceless it is to have one in the Hall at all, at all."--From Norman Mack's National Monthly.

Killing Them Off.

A teacher wishing to impress upon her pupils the population of China, said:

"The population of China is so great that every time you breathe two Chinemen die."

In a short time a little boy at the foot of the class was noticed by the teacher to be breathing and puffing vigorously. The teacher, much alarmed at his actions, inquired:

"What is the matter? What on earth are you doing?"

"Killing Chinamen," was the quick reply. "I don't like those foreigners, so I'm getting rid of them as quick as I can."--From Norman Mack's National Monthly.

IT DOES PAY

MARICL COAL CO.
Wall Street Phone 407

As he neared home the conviction increased and three times he stopped his horse and went carefully through his pocketbook in a vain endeavor to discover what he had missed. In due course he reached home and met his daughter, who looked at him surprised and asked: "Why, father, what have you done with mother?"--From Norman Mack's National Monthly.

Missed Something.

A Perthshire farmer on his way home from market one day suddenly remembered that he had forgotten something but what he could not recall.

A Hurry Call.

The political boss of a small Western city drove his buckboard at top speed down the main street, on the morning of election.

"Hey, Johnnie," he yelled to his son, "git down in the fourth ward, quick! There's people down there votin' as they blame please!"--From Norman Mack's National Monthly.

Youthful Wisdom.

The other day in a New York school the teacher was explaining a sum in subtraction which--the little ones found difficult to understand. "Now," said she to exemplify the proposition, "suppose I had ten dollars and went into a store to spend it. Say I bought a hat for five dollars. Then I spent two dollars for gloves and a dollar and fifty cents for some other things. How much would I have left?"

"For a moment there was a dead silence. Then a boy's hand went up. "Well, Isaac, what would I have left?"

"'Vy, didn't you count your change?" said Isaac in a disgusted tone.--From Norman Mack's National Monthly.

NIGHT CHIEF SKEEN JOINS DETECTIVE AGENCY

Will Skeen, who for several months past has been in charge of the police department of the city at night in the capacity of night chief tendered his resignation to the mayor and city council on the 24th and requested that he be relieved by the first. No action was taken, however, pending the regular meeting on next Monday night, at which time it is expected the resignation will be considered.

Mr. Skeen resigns the position to associate himself with the Pickett Detective Agency of this city, an organization of officials perfected for the purpose of looking after private detective work. The agency was organized by Officers Tom Pickett and Charlie Yearly, two of the best known and most successful officers in the state and the addition of Mr. Skeen to the firm will add another splendid officer to its strength and efficiency.

Mr. Skeen has been serving the city for several months during which time he has made a splendid record, being at all times faithful to the duties of his position and efficient in their administration. Announcement of his probable successor has not as yet been made and will likely not be known until the council takes action on the resignation.

RELIGION CAUSE OF SEPARATION

Wa-Ma-Yo-Va Says Two Wives Are Too Many; Martiney Threat Ends Death.

Lawton, Okla., June 2.—Because Jim Martiney, a Comanche Indian, objected to being deserted by one of his two wives and threatened to kill her and her son and himself commit suicide, he was fined $10 and costs in the court of Justice S. R. Harper.

Martiney had lived with two wives for more than twenty years, but, at a recent camp meeting among the Comanche Indians, when one of his wives got "white man's religion" and conceived the idea that she was violating the tenets of her religion and living in adultery. She left the temple of Martiney and established one of her own, taking her son, nearly grown.

The Indian, angered at being deserted, came to see her. He first tried to persuade her to return with him and when she refused, drew a knife and threatened to kill the two and die with them himself. The son took the knife from his father and swore out complaint in the court.

GREAT REVIVAL IN PROGRESS AT VERNON

(Vernon Record)

The big revival meeting which is being held at the First Methodist church under the leadership of Rev. Hubert D. Knickerbocker of Waco and Prof. Albert C. Fisher, the latter of whom has charge of the singing, continues this week with unabated interest. The attendance has been good and large number of conversions and accessions to the church have resulted.

Beginning with Tuesday morning services are being held this week from 10 to 11 o'clock, all business hours in the city closing at that hour. A mass meeting for men only was held at the church last Sunday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, at which time Dr. Knickerbocker's subject was "The Scarlet Sins of Men." A similar service will be held next Sunday afternoon, at which the main auditorium will be reserved for men, and ladies and children are invited to attend and occupy the Sunday school department. The subject will be "Under Two Flags." A special invitation is extended Civil War veterans to attend in a body.

The Dreamland moving picture show has been closed all this week on account of the revival. The meeting will be brought to a close with the service Sunday night when it will have been in progress two weeks.

May was an unusually hot and dry month for Texas, but so far June has her bested.

How best to control trusts and monopolies is very likely to be one of the leading burning questions in the presidential campaign of 1912.

The Senate, by a vote of 43 to 20, has decided to re-open the Lorimer case. The chances are, however, that Senator Lorimer will not permit this to be done, rather preferring to resign.

GOVERNOR WOODROW WILSON.

There are Democrats and Democrats. Woodrow Wilson, Governor of New Jersey, is both.

Men are Democrats for various reasons. Woodrow Wilson is a Democrat because he believes in the Democratic party—in its traditions, its principles and its capacity for service to the people.

Some men are called democratic because they wear ready-made clothes, ride in trolley cars instead of automobiles, and are not too proud to shake hands with men poorer or less fortunate than themselves. Woodrow Wilson is a Democrat because he was born that way. An intellectual aristocrat, his democracy is not a matter of personal habits or campaign methods, but of deep-rooted belief in a Government in which the will of the many prevails and the welfare of the many is given priority of consideration over the wishes of the few.

Sounds kindergartenish, doesn't it?

Well, in these days of many kinds of Democrats and many kinds of Republicans, one has to be explicit. To put it into fewer words, Woodrow Wilson is a Democrat because he believes in democracy.

Because he so believes, the present Governor of New Jersey has been forced to differ with Democrats who haven't his conception of the meaning of Democracy, and because he has had the courage to stand for his convictions and to fight for them, he is today hailed throughout the country as one of the great men of his party. What is more important, he has forced reforms that make New Jersey today more democratic in its laws and institutions than most other states in the union.

Going some, isn't it? Have you noticed that nobody is sympathizing very much nowadays with the poor little "boss-ridden, corporation-dominated" State of New Jersey? Well, it's so. New Jersey isn't trucking to corporations and trusts nowadays, and the bosses, of both and all parties, are sitting in a corner wondering why nobody pays any attention to their predictions of calamities to come.

Aside from the few county bosses who have been having things their own way for a good many years, and the few "State leaders" who, for fifty years have been leading the Democratic party to annually glorious defeats, New Jersey Democrats are today about as perky and self-satisfied as a lot of people as you'd care to meet up with. Curiously enough, too, there are a good many thousand Republicans who voted for Wilson last year, who are just about as proud of their Governor as any of the Democrats.—Herman B. Walker, in Norman E. Mack's National Monthly.

Guthrie, Oklahoma has a quantity of unused explosives which could probably be bought at bargain prices. In the height of her expectancy for a favorable Supreme Court decision in the capital case, many anvils were loaned and ready for firing, firing weapons of every description were loaded and ready for the celebration, church and school doors were left open in order that bells could be rung, but the bells remain unring and the guns unfired, and disappointment reigns supreme in the capitol city.—Abilene Reporter.

Guthrie is largely to blame herself for not holding the state capitol after she once got it. About the first thing she did after being selected as the state capitol was to elect a mixed municipal ticket, with the negro race holding control of the city council. This was sufficient to prejudice all other Oklahoma towns against her, and when they got a chance to punish her they did it in good style.

DEATH TO THE TRUSTS.

The decision of the Supreme Court of the United States against the Tobacco Trust must be almost as humiliating to those who have been crying out against "the rule of reason" as it is disastrous to the interests directly concerned. Once more the common law embodied in a national statute performs its perfect and of course its reasonable work. This case was much more complicated than that of Standard Oil. It came up from a divided court. It involved a question of foreign commerce. It compelled a judgment upon restraint of trade as well as upon monopoly. It necessitated a review of the decision in the Knight case (Sugar Trust), for upon that strictly limited finding the Tobacco people depended for justification. It comprehended appeals by both the Government and the trust. It had to do with a trade conspiracy which, while no more shrewd than that of Standard Oil, did not reach back into years of actual violence and common felony.

The discussion of the Tobacco Trust, therefore, proves that courts are as well armed against the craft that has developed of late under the guidance of the lawyers of Big Business as they are against the open brutality which shocked and shamed the people in the earlier days of monopoly. If the Tobacco Trust, profiting by the experience of Standard Oil, can not live, then all combinations in restraint of trade and tending toward monopoly have received their death warrant.

Ignorantly no doubt in most cases but intentionally in some, the decision of the court in the Standard Oil case was misrepresented. The doubts thus raised may now be set aside. In that great and memorable judgment the worst of our monopolies was pronounced guilty by a unanimous court. From that finding there is no appeal. It is to be regretted that a single Justice, approving the verdict, found occasion to question one of the reasons advanced by his associates for their conclusions, but the fact, accomplished forever, over which all Americans must rejoice, is that trusts, combinations, holding companies and conspiracies in restraint of trade are unlawful and must dissolve or stand the consequences, which, as re-emphasized yesterday, are fines, imprisonments and receiverships.—New York World.

RANDALL ACTIVE IN TARIFF CAUCUS

made by Chairman Underwood or others who spoke during the day in favor of the 20 per cent duty, they replied, in a way to these free wool democrats by pointing out what the immediate absolute necessity for a small duty on raw wool.

Text of Schedule.
Chairman Underwood gave the complete text of the proposed revision of the wool tariff to 200 Democrats who assembled in the party caucus at noon. It proposes a duty of 20 per cent on raw wool, a reduction of more than 50 per cent from the Payne-Aldrich law now in force. As soon as he had concluded his opening speech, Mr. Harrison of New York offered an amendment that would abolish the wool duty in five years. It proposed a gradual reduction each year for the five-year period. Mr. Harrison declared this was the true Democratic principle of tariff making, to put on the free list a raw material so universally used.

Mr. Randall of Texas followed with an amendment for the immediate abolition of the entire duty on raw wool. With these three proposals before them the Democrats gave close attention to the debate, participated in by many members of the ways and means committee.

Two of the chief speeches in favor of free wool were made at the night session of the caucus by Representatives Randall of Texas and James of Kentucky, both members of the ways and means committee. Mr. James pleaded for the abolition of the raw wool duty on the ground that it would directly benefit consumers. Mr. James said Bryan had been accused of attempting to dictate to congress on the free wool question. He denied Bryan's open statement was anything more than an endorsement of the first action of the ways and means committee. Thirty days before Mr. Bryan issued his statement, Mr. James said, the committee had voted in favor of free wool, but later it had reversed its position and adopted the 20 per cent duty.

EXCELLENT RESULTS SHALLOW CULTIVATION

Special to The Times.
Dallas, Texas, June 2.—Correspondents of the Texas Industrial Congress who are following its instructions in contesting for the $10,000 cash prizes for the best yields of corn and cotton, report excellent results from shallow cultivation of their crops and the maintenance of a dust much to prevent evaporation of the moisture in the ground. Shallow cultivation every four or five days, keeps down the weeds and saves the fertilizing elements of the soil for the growing crop and the same keeps the ground from crusts. Many farmers who are practicing these simple but effective methods say their corn and cotton are fresh and green while their neighbors' crops are burning up, which emphasizes the fact that the dryer the weather conditions the greater is the necessity for continuous shallow cultivation.

MUSIC CONSERVATORY STARTING OFF WELL

Reports indicate that the new Conservatory of Music, of which Dr. B. Dunaeviski is director and manager, is starting off under most favorable auspices and promises to develop into a school of much importance within a short time. A very satisfactory class has already enrolled and it was announced today that there were twelve additional pupils to come in within the next few weeks. Matters pertaining to the school are being gotten in shape as fast as possible and it is announced by those who have associated themselves with Dr. Dunaeviski that it is proposed to have a Conservatory here that will be alike creditable to the city and to those in charge of the institution. F. H. Day, who is president of the newly organized company, informed a reporter of The Times today that they were already receiving inquiries

CHANGES IN PLAYERS
IN TEX. OKLA LEAGUE

The ball teams of the Texas-Oklahoma League changed positions again today, Altus going to Ardmore, Lawton to Durant and Bonham to Cleburne. Gainsville was to have played in Wichita Falls, but the game was transferred place as indicated elsewhere in this issue for today and tomorrow, Gainsville to come here for the Sunday game.

There have been a number of changes in some of the teams during the past few days, especially in the Cleburne and Lawton organizations. Cleburne in addition to securing Dad Ritter of Fort Worth as manager, has also signed Gibson, who caught here last year, Liz Torrey, and Phillips, both former Dallas pitchers, and Foley White a fast player who is known to many Wichita Falls people. Lawton has secured Tate, recently on the pitching staff of the Oklahoma City team of the Texas League, and has otherwise strengthened the organization. Lawton and Cleburne are tied for bottom places in the percentage column, but indications are such that will not long remain in this undesirable position.

Morris Bemoans Inability to Hitch Witherspoon to Contract

Fort Worth, Record.
Had it not been for very pronounced parental objections Witherspoon, the shortstop for the Wichita Falls club of the Texas-Oklahoma league, might now be playing ball in one of the major leagues. He has scores of opportunities to leave the bushes but an interest in a business house at Chickasha, Okla., and his regard for his parents at Denton have kept him back. Were it not for the latter he might give up business.

Manager Morris of the Panthers was probably the first manager to see in Witherspoon the making of a great ball player, and it was back in 1908, a few weeks before Morris left Texas for Savannah, Ga., the club he managed that season. Witherspoon was a student at the University of Texas at the time, and had practically closed all arrangements to accompany Morris to Georgia. Wishing to break the news of his decision gently as possible to his parents, he left Austin to spend Easter Sunday at Denton. While at home he told of his resolve but was dissuaded. Since that time countless offers have been made to the boy, but they have been kindly yet firmly turned down.
When the last official averages of the Texas and Oklahoma league appeared Witherspoon's rating as a hitter

GREEN WAS KNOCKED OUT

Durant Fans Turn Out With Cowbells and Raise Deafening Din.

Special to The Times.
Durant, Okla., June 2.—The League leaders were unable to solve Corzine's delivery here yesterday and went down in defeat by a score of 6 to 1. The Lads single run was not sharp.

Corzine pitched major league ball, allowing the reputed sluggers only four hits, all singles, and would have scored a shutout but for an error in the second inning. He left Witherspoon of home run fame down without a hit and struck him out the first time at bat. Green went in for Wichita Falls to retrieve his defeat of Tuesday, but the first man up hit safely and the bombardment continued until he was relieved in the middle of the fifth by Meyers, after six singles, two doubles and two passes had been made off his delivery. Meyers passed the first man, filling the bases, and then Conner knocked a two-bagger, clearing the bases. Conner was caught trying to take third. The game was witnessed by one of the largest crowds of the season, and the rosters yelled "sometime home," Cowbells and other noise makers kept up a deafening din throughout the game. The Educators made six errors, but most of these were quickly retrieved by brilliant fielding, relieving the danger the misplays had caused. The score:

Home Team Takes Deciding Game of Series by Hitting Hard, Getting Pitches From the Box.
Ardmore, Okla., June 2.—Ardmore made it two out of three from Gainsville, winning yesterday, 8 to 4. Mitchell, who started for the visitors, was knocked out of the box and was succeeded by Dupree. Boggess of the visitors got a fluke home run in the second, when the ball hit a hard place in right field and bounced over the fence. Altus comes today for three games.

Make Series Three Straight by Good Pitching and Hard Hitting.
Team Has New Men.
Cleburne, Texas, June 2.—Cleburne took the third scalp from Altus yesterday afternoon by a score of 7 to 3. Robinson wanted to pitch yesterday's game for the locals, but the visitors objected on the ground that his uniform was not according to regulation. He appeared in the box for Cleburne in a regulation uniform today, and had the visitors shut out up to the seventh inning. Robinson had good support. In compliance with the wishes of fans and rooters who kept yelling "Let 'em hit it," the visitors took several hits that might have been avoided. Gibson, Cleburne's new catcher, was in the game all the time. He got one hit and made one run. Tanner and Foley White, for the locals, made desperate efforts to put the ball over the fence. They each annexed three hits, but White's were the furthest out. He got one two-base and one three-base hit. The fans were well pleased with the fast work of the visitors on several occasions in cutting off runners. Center fielder Carson of the locals also came in for much praise for outrunning a long drive, which he took in with one hand. Dad Ritter says his bunch will soon be in shape to make it interesting for all teams who come this way. Following is the score of yesterday's game:
Cleburne 032 000 11-7
Altus 060 000 102-3

COLLEGE ATHLETIC MEET AT MINNEAPOLIS

Minneapolis, Minn., June 2.—Hundreds of trained college athletes gathered on Northrop Field at the University of Minnesota today for the preliminary events in the eleventh annual track meet of the Intercollegiate Conference Athletic Association. The survivors of today's contests will compete for the championships tomorrow. The meet this year has attracted many of the best college athletes of the middle and far West. Besides the "big nine," comprising Wisconsin, Iowa, Purdue, Minnesota, Northwestern, Illinois, Indiana, Chicago, and Notre Dame, there are present delegations of athletes from the University of Kansas, University of South Dakota, Oberlin College, Iowa State College, University of Missouri, South Dakota State College, Morningside College, Coe College and several other institutions. The Pacific coast section is represented by a strong team from the University of California.

There were no points to be contested for today, but each team used every endeavor to qualify the largest number of athletes in the early events in the hope of gathering in the coveted honors in the finals tomorrow. In numerous events it is to be champion against champion and some unusually keen competitions are promised. In figuring the chances of the general big teams many of the experts are inclined to favor Notre Dame for the championship. Illinois, Chicago, Minnesota, California and Missouri are the other institutions whose chances of winning the meet are well thought of by the critics.

A GREAT PHYSICIAN.

What He Said of Germs That Cause Disease.
Mr. Pasteur, sometimes called the Greatest Physician—often said "I believe that we shall one day rid the world of all diseases that are caused by germs."
Of all the diseases caused by germs, catarrh is one of the most persistent and loathsome. Catarrh can be cured, but only by destroying the germs.
Breathe HYOMEI (pronounce H-

High-ome) and cure catarrh by killing the germs. The HYOMEI method is the only sensible method, because you breathe the highly antiseptic and germ killing air directly over the entire membrane infested with catarrh germs. HYOMEI will cure catarrh. There may be some complicated cases where it will fail, but the chances are to one in ten in its favor, and the sufferer from catarrh takes no risk, because HYOMEI is a guaranteed remedy, and if it doesn't cure O. F. Marchman will refund the purchase price.
HYOMEI will also give instant relief and cure in bronchitis, coughs, colds and croup. A complete outfit, including hard rubber pocket inhaler, costs only $1.00. If you now own a Hyomei inhaler you can get a bottle of HYOMEI for 50 cents.

To Honor Naming of America.
Paris, June 2.—Nearly all the leaders of the American colony in Paris, including Ambassador Bacon and Consul General Mason, are going down to the little city of St. Die, in the Vosges, to take part in the celebration of the 400th anniversary of the publication of the "Cosmographie Introduction," in which the western continent was first termed "America." The celebration, which is to take the form of a Franco American love feast, is to open tomorrow and continue over Sunday and Monday. The program will include a military review, a historical pageant, and the installation of a tablet on the house where the name America was first written. The corner stone also is to be laid of an obelisk, to be known as America's Tower, on the peak of Mount Ormont in the Vosges forest.

Texas Crushers Off for New York.
Dallas, Texas, June 2.—The Texas members of the Interstate Cotton Seed Crushers' Association left this city in a special train today for New York, where the annual meeting of the association is to be held next week. Owing to several attractive features of the program, combined with the importance of the subjects to come up for consideration, give promise of the largest and most notable meeting in the history of the association. The gathering will conclude with a banquet at the Hotel Astor at which President Taft is to deliver the principal address.
Beware of the noisy man who shouts his patriotism from the housetops. It's a safe bet that he's a tax dodger.

Colleges to Hold First Balloon Race.
North Adams, Mass., June 2.—Everything is in readiness for the start from North Adams tomorrow or the first intercollegiate balloon race in the history of aeronautics. The race will be under the auspices of the Williams College Aeronautical Society, and every college and university in the East boasting an aeronautical society has been invited to compete.
Williams, Dartmouth and the University of Pennsylvania have balloons already on the field and it is possible that Harvard may make arrangements to start in the race. All of the balloons are of 35,000 cubic feet capacity. The balloons will be cut loose within five minutes of each other. Leo Stevens, the noted New York aeronaut, has accepted an invitation to act as referee and starter. A silver loving cup will be awarded to the balloon covering the greatest distance and another cup to the one longest in the air.

It Costs No More To Run a 12-inch Western Electric Desk Fan than to Burn One Electric Light

EVERYONE realizes the need of electric fans in the office and home. Many, however, do not know how small the operating cost of a good fan is.

You buy a fan just once, but you pay for current as long as you run it. Therefore, get Western Electric fans—the kind that take little current.

Notes from Labor World

A convention of the International Boot and Shoe Workers' Union will be held in St. Paul this month. The amount that may be recovered for death by industrial accidents in Minnesota has been increased from $5,000 to $7,500.

The Waitresses' Union of San Francisco voted to impose a fine on any member who in the future does not display her badge of membership while on duty.

The Ohio Federation of Labor has begun a State-wide movement to get the initiative, referendum and recall at the Ohio constitutional convention next January.

John P. White, president of the United Mine Workers of America, has gone to Kansas City to take up some differences among miners in regard to the settlement of the "powder dispute" between miners and operators.

Plate engravers in the Geodetic Survey department at Washington, D. C., get an increase of 12 1/2 per cent to take effect July 1. They are members of a local union holding a charter from the American Federation of Labor.

Wages paid in the eastern provinces of Canada are substantially the same as those paid in the Eastern States. In New York, Michigan and Ohio the average monthly wages amount to $22.50, in New Brunswick, Quebec and Ontario to $22.48.

The third biennial convention of the National Woman's Trade Union League will open at Boston June 12. The purpose of the league is the organization of women into trade unions to be affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

Normally ten per cent of the wage-earners in the manufacturing of New York State in October are not so engaged in January. Figures show that skilled and organized workmen lose on an average of 20 per cent of their possible income through non-employment.

Twenty-two railroads, employing 800,000 men, have straight pensions, and the United States Steel Company, with 226,000 men, has a straight out and out system. These corporations maintain these systems, not as charities, but as business propositions, believing they will be recouped by increased loyalty and efficiency.

In Great Britain there are 200,000 school-children in full attendance, who work out of school hours for wages. There are between eighty thousand and ninety thousand half-timers, who do a half day in the factory and a half day in the school, while the full-time workers between thirteen and fourteen years of age probably number 300,000.

The annual report of the New York commissioner of labor says that the eight-hour law is being practically observed. There were only forty complaints received last year, and twenty-five of them were found to be violations. The commissioner attributes the respect paid to the law to the severe penalty clause, involving possible forfeiture of contracts.

In addition to the numerous laws in France looking to the amelioration of the conditions of the working classes, new legislation has been proposed to regulate the employment of miners under eighteen years of age and of women in selling merchandise from stands and tables on the sidewalks outside of bazaars and large stores.

Off for the Coronation. Quebec, June 2.—The steamship Empress of Ireland sailing today for the other side of the world is believed to be the largest passenger list of any vessel that ever cleared from a Canadian port. So great is the rush of coronation visitors that some of the officers of the steamship have given up their cabins for the accommodation of the passengers.

In Session at Gulfport. Gulfport, Miss., June 2.—Gulfport capitulated today on an invading force of commercial travelers who assembled from all directions for the annual convention of their State organization. A. C. Benners of Hattiesburg, president of the Mississippi Travelers' Association, called the gathering to order and will preside over the two days' session.

Newest Laces and Embroidery. The reign of Venice lace has started. It has taken the place of the once so popular Irish crochet. Bandings of this lace are used with velvet, silk, chiffon, marquisette and woolen fabrics. The wide bands are used at the bottoms of the tunics and skirts, across the bodice and sleeves, and as vertical panels at the front, back or sides of the skirt or blouse.

Work of laying the paving blocks was resumed this afternoon on Ohio between Eighth and Ninth streets, a sufficient amount of blocks having arrived today to put down 750 square yards. It is now thought that the shipments will be regular enough to prevent a further delay in this part of the work, and if the sand for concrete is available Monday or Tuesday, a good showing will be made next week barring other unavoidable hindrance. In connection with the resumption of work as indicated above the street car company was forced to discontinue making trips around the loop as was being done this morning.
