City employees get cost-of-living pay hikes

The Dimmitt Board of Aldermen Monday evening had a second reading of the proposed 1981-82 budget and approved cost of living raises for all city employees.

The first draft of the city's proposed budget had anticipated a possible 12% cost-of-living salary increase per employee.

After a lengthy executive session, Mayor R. L. Fleming announced the board's decision to give 10% raises to employees presently earning $10,000 or less per year, 8% increases to those earning between $10,000 and $15,000, and 6% raises to employees earning $15,000 and over.

Two city employees will receive an additional $50 per month plus the percentage raise. The salaries of Virginia Cowart and Charles Whitman were apparently felt to be out of line with other salaries, and the adjustment was made to bring their earnings in keeping with other city workers, Fleming said.

New salaries will be in effect for the fiscal year beginning May 1.

Fleming said that he hoped the solution would be one "we can all live with."

"We're certainly appreciative," Police Chief Ron Mitchell said.

Fleming asked the aldermen if recipients of Revenue Sharing funds were content, and Alderman Fred Annen commented that they were at least accepting the money.

Fleming reported that Brick Autry, librarian with the Rhoads Memorial Library, was apparently disappointed that the library will receive only $14,100 and not the full $15,000 requested.

Earlier this month, the aldermen learned that the city has a legal contract that obligates it to contribute half of the library's funding while the county must give the other half.

Library Board Chairman Susan Hanners informed the aldermen at that time that equal funding had been given by the county, but since the fiscal years of the city and county do not coincide, the total contributions by each governing body would not amount to the same at any given time.

The aldermen apparently thought that the city had given more than its fair share to the library, and the mayor said that he thought the library employed too many people for its size.

The aldermen approved Roy Lilley's motion to give a six-month notice of intent to cancel its contract with the county and the library.

"Is the budget in balance?" Fleming asked.

City Administrative Supervisor Jo Hamilton said that the beginning operating reserve for the city would be $482,962, including a 1980-81 balance of $107,973.

Mrs. Hamilton suggested that capital outlay for the city include allowances for 100% purchases of the computer and backhoe, rather than lease purchases and costly interest rates.

The aldermen approved Annen's motion to buy the computer and backhoe outright, and to include the purchases in the proposed budget.

The 1981-82 budget anticipates $1,263,324 in total revenues, and $1,317,158 in disbursements and capital outlays. The city's loss will be $53,834, plus $72,222 in [See EMPLOYEES, Page 11]

Chain-type sales venture draws warning from BBB

By TERRI LOUDDER

A business venture which reportedly is selling a self-improvement motivational course in this area is suspected of promoting what is called a "less chain scheme."

The Council of Better Business Bureaus, Inc., claims the business, "Challenge to America," is associated with Glenn W. Turner, who has come under fire from the Federal Trade Commission and other groups for using "a deceptive and unfair multi-level marketing plan" in previous endeavors of this type.

Representatives of "Challenge to America" — a division of Challenge, Inc., of Nevada — have approached county residents to sell them

Business Bureaus, Inc., refers to as "a series of motivational self-improvement courses that are very similar, if not virtually identical, to those sold by Dare to Be Great, Inc., and developed by Glenn Turner."

The Council of Better Business Bureaus, Inc., headquartered in Washington, D.C., has issued a 3½-page report on Challenge, Inc., which includes its background, hierarchy, and According to the BBB report, the chairman of the board of Challenge, Inc., Edward G. Rector, was formerly associated with Glenn W. Turner as his body-guard.

The report also states that Turner was associated with Challenge, Inc., as a consultant until his resignation in September 1979, and that Turner and several of his associates were the subject of a report by the Federal Trade Commission due to allegations that "they were operating illegal multi-level pyramid sales schemes in which participants earned money by sale of the right to [See CHAIN-TYPE, Page 10]

Blood drive set Tuesday

Castro County residents may donate blood to the Coffee Memorial Blood Center Tuesday from 3 to 6 p.m. at the city hall meeting room.

This will be the first year for the Dimmitt Young Homemakers to undertake the blood drive as a service project.

Donors may receive a year's Blood Plan Insurance for their donations.

Donations may be given in the name of people who have received blood or who will be needing blood, with donors being credited.

According to John Mitchell, spokesman for the blood bank in Amarillo, the Castro County residents in need of replacement donations are W.R. (Randy) Hunter, James Vaughn, Leo Hernandez, Delia Rosas and Courtenay Armstrong.

"It takes over 50 pints of blood each day to supply the Amarillo area and hospitals," Mitchell said, adding, "All blood donated is greatly appreciated."

Water-fund bill gains lopsided win in House

The innovative water trust fund sponsored by Speaker of the House Bill Clayton cleared a big hurdle last Thursday with overwhelming approval by the House of Representatives.

The House voted 127-14 to approve a proposed constitutional amendment that would place half of any surplus state revenue into a fund to develop water resources and half into a "rainy day" fund which could be drawn upon when the state's revenue becomes more critical.

The proposed amendment, House Joint Resolution 33, still must be cleared by the Senate. Gov. Bill Clements has said he favors the proposal.

"I am especially pleased that this effort to secure the future of Texas has received such a vote of support in the House," Clayton said. "I am confident that the voters of the state will have the opportunity on Nov. 3, 1981, to approve it in the general election."

During debate on the bill, Clayton, who is recognized as an expert on state water legislation, said the creation of such a fund could save future generations of Texas from any state debt.

If surpluses continue along lines of the past decade, Clayton said, there could be as much as $1 billion in the fund by 1992, which would be enough to guarantee $10 billion in water bonds.

"We are actually implementing a form of tax relief for our citizens," Clayton said during the debate. "By setting aside these funds today, and starting water projects that would cost more in the future because of inflation, we are saving the people of Texas not only in money and future taxes—we are providing for the future."

Andrews is named to all-state team

Dimmitt forward Becky Andrews has been named to the Class AAA All-State Girls' Basketball Team.

She was named to the all-state second team in statewide consensus voting conducted by the Waco Tribune.

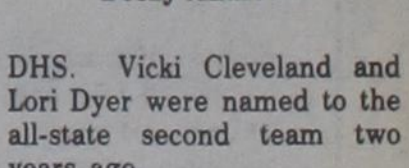

The honor capped a brilliant basketball career for the DHS senior, who has been named for the past two years to the all-district, all-South Plains and All-Regional girls' teams. She also earned all-tournament honors in all three tournaments in which the Bobbies played this year — Hereford, New Deal and Lubbock Christian.

Andrews first broke into the Bobbies' starting lineup at mid-season her sophomore year. In her 2½ years as a starter, she averaged 17 points, nine rebounds and five credits per game. Her career high score was 34 points against Lorenzo this past season.

She was chosen to play in the Panhandle East-West High School All-Star Game at the National Women's Invitational Tournament in Amarillo this year, and scored six points for the West All-Stars.

She is the third all-stater coached by Jimmy Hoyle of Castro County five all-stars in girls' basketball this year. Lori Gerber, Sharon Gerber, Roxane Birkenfeld and Sharon Birkenfeld of the state champion Nazareth Swiftettes were named to the Class A all-state tournament and/or consensus teams.

Your views are needed on legislative issues

The Texas Senate needs your opinion.

Sen. Bill Sarpalius would like to know the views of people in his district, including Castro County residents, concerning the use of tax revenues and seven other pressing issues.

But the cost of printing questionnaires and mailing them directly to the people in the district would be about $13,000, Sarpalius said. So the News is cooperating with the senator and is printing the questionnaire. It's on Page 14.

"Newspapers provide the most economical way for the people to make their views known to their elected officials on key issues," Managing Editor Don Nelson said. "We are glad to cooperate in this effort to gather grass-roots opinion while saving taxpayers' money. We hope all the News's readers will respond to the questionnaire so the results will be definitive."

"The eight issues addressed in this questionnaire have probably generated more correspondence than any others," Sen. Sarpalius said, adding, "We will have to vote on each of these issues, and we hope you will cut this survey out of your paper and send it to us so we will better know what you want from the Legislature."

"You have given us an opportunity to be your voice in the State Senate, and we want to be an effective voice for you," he said.

Answers and comments on the eight issues should be sent to Sen. Bill Sarpalius, P.O. Box 12068, Austin, 78711.

State FU chief to speak Friday

Texas Farmers Union

President Mike Moeller will keynote the convention of the Castro County Farmers Union meeting Friday, local President Doug Higgins has announced. The session will be held at 8 p.m. at the Nazareth American Legion Hall.

Moeller will speak on legislation important to farmers and ranchers which has been introduced in the Texas Legislature. Gasohol production, prohibiting foreign ownership of prime farm and ranch land, and alternative methods for producing state tax revenues will be among his topics.

Also, the 1981 Farm Bill which will be under consideration by Congress will be discussed. Moeller will be available for questions following his talk.

Joe Drerup will prepare barbecued ham for dinner and Jimmy Ray Davis and Weldon Davis will provide the entertainment with "toe-tapping" bluegrass music.

Moeller, 33, was elected to the presidency of the Texas Farmers Union in January. He succeeds Jay Naman, who was president of the association for 19 years.

A graduate of Southwest Texas State University in 1968, Moeller has been active in agriculture and farm legislation for many years. He currently is in partnership with his father in a ranching operation on the family farm in Guadalupe County and another farm in Schleicher County.

Moeller has served as the executive director of the Legislative Property Tax Committee, and also as the chief of staff for then State Senator Kent Hance. Prior to his election as Texas Farmers Union president, Moeller served as the executive director of Texans for Equitable Taxation, an association for property tax reform.

Moeller also worked successfully for passage of the Family Farm and Ranch Security Act which was approved by the voters in a statewide election.

The Texas Farmers Union president currently lives near Buda in Hays County with his wife Paula and young son Cullen. He is a member of the Methodist Church and active in many civic and service organizations in his home community.

FOUNDATION

Our nation is witnessing a building boom, such as has never before been seen. Every day new foundations are being dug and laid. Any builder will tell you that it takes a firm foundation to support today's skyscraper.

Our Lord, in His sermon on the mount, compared those that heed His word, to the wise man that built his house upon a rock, and those that did not heed His word to the foolish man that built his house upon sand and it was washed away.

Build your house upon a rock... Attend church regularly.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Coleman Adv. Ser.

Reeford and Betty Burros of Dumas and his mother and her husband Mrs. and Mr. Henry Stovall of Clovis were here for Easter services at the Methodist church. Sam and Virginia Gilbreath are-home from Arizona for the summer. They had dinner with John and Dorothy and the three sons. John had been to Arizona to help them move.

I was chatting with Swain and Katy Burkett. Seems they have two hives of bees now and the queen bee died. So a call went to Goose and Bee fan Ramey. He came over. They ordered a queen from Navasota. So maybe the honey will be made by fall.

Edna Riley went to Marbridge Ranch last week to pick up son Kim. They stayed several days around Austin and Kingsland. They saw several art and craft shows.

Suzie Davis Ellis and Bobby Phillips will be married Sunday at 5:30 p.m. in the Methodist Chapel in Ceta Canyon. Friends of the couple are invited.

I also work for a large Japanese firm called JEOL. I am the only American in a company of a few thousand Japanese. I work in an office of twelve men, typing all of their correspondence, etc. concerning their business around the world — so I'm learning my geography. I get served tea at ten in the morning and three in the afternoon and sometimes just to make me feel at home they sing "Yellow Rose of Texas."

Well, I must close — so much to tell — but it's late and I am a working gal — so got to get my sleep. Call my mom for me and tell her I said hello and will write soon.

Stewardship Week theme: 'Society's Pressure Point'

"Society's Pressure Point" is the theme of this year's national observance of Soil Stewardship Week. The Running Water Soil and Water Conservation District will join in the nationwide celebration of the observance scheduled for May 24-31, District Chairman Dale Winders said. "The purpose of Soil Stewardship Week is to remind all people that soil, water and related renewable resources are gifts from our Creator and that these gifts warrant our best in creative conservation and considerate management," added James Wilhelm, who is also one of five directors of the SWCD. In reflecting on the theme of this year's observance, Wilhelm said that conservation districts are concerned about the shrinking resource base of soil and water caused by public pressures on these resources, while at the same time contemplating the needs of an expanding world population. "We must remember that other generations will follow us. They are going to require the same or greater needs than what we require because their population will be more numerous," Wilhelm said. "Consequently we are obliged in the name of humanity to develop and follow a policy which will conserve and protect these resources. Our prime farm lands, our ranges, our forests, and our water supplies must fall within the embrace of this plan so that we can perpetuate and guarantee production." In speaking of the organization and structure of the Running Water SWCD, Winders said that the district was organized in 1948 to offer farmers, ranchers and the local community a voluntary conservation technical assistance program through which individuals could seek and request conservation assistance to meet their individual land's capabilities and needs. "Basically it is the district's responsibility to provide technical assistance when requested relative to proper soil use and treatment, erosion control practices, and to assist farmers and ranchers with crop, range and pastureland management," Winders said. "To alleviate the pressure points on our soil, water and renewable resources as stressed in the Soil Stewardship Week theme, will require individual and collective decision-making in the private and public sectors of society," he added. Wilhelm stressed that public recognition of pressure points, the clarification of values, utilizing the processes for necessary changes, including the exercising of initiative and leadership, will result in the alleviation of pressures on our renewable natural resources. Texas solons seek better loan deal on area cotton Congressman Kent Hance joined four other Texas congressional colleagues this week in appealing to the USDA to end the present loan discount "discrimination practices" against cotton grown on the Texas Plains. The 19th District congressman joined Texas Senators Lloyd Bentsen and John Tower, and Texas Congressmen Jack Hightower and Charles Stenholm in appealing to the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service within the USDA. "The problem is that Texas cotton, which has a short staple length, has been excessively discounted because it is directly compared with long staple, higher grade cottons grown outside the state," said Hance. "Texas cotton, however, is not sold on the same markets as other cottons and therefore should not receive the same treatment when discount rates are applied in connection with cotton loan rates." Cotton from the Texas Plains, along with that of Oklahoma, is used in carded yarns for coarser fabrics in which occasional neps and/or imperfect dyeability are of much less importance. The longer staple cotton of non-Texas markets is bought for use in which the neeping and dyeing problems are more critical. "It is unfair to compare Texas cotton with other markets because the two grades of cotton are raised for two totally different purposes and sold on totally different markets," Hance said. "The ASCS, however, applies the same grading formula to both, which results in excessive discounts in computing loan rates for Texas cotton."

Sweeteners lead Amstar's sales and earnings climb

For the three-month period ended March 31, 1981, its third fiscal quarter, Amstar Corp. had net income of $19,577,000, or $2.14 per common share after provision for dividends on preferred stock. Net sales and operating revenues were $466,602,000. Comparable figures for the same quarter last year were net income of $4,999,000, or 53 cents per common share after preferred stock dividends, and net sales and operating revenues of $323,221,000. Net income for the nine months ended March 31, 1981, was $62,757,000, or $6.89 per common share after preferred stock dividends, and net sales and operating revenues for this period were $1,537,886,000. For the nine-month period ended March 31, 1980, the comparable figures were $14,601,000, or $1.54 per share, and $900,633,000, respectively. "The improved sales and earnings for the third quarter and first nine months of fiscal 1981 principally reflect a significant increase in sales and earnings from our sweetener operations. However, it is also encouraging to report an increase in sales and operating income of the Industrial Products Group compared with the same periods a year ago, overcoming the modest decline reported for the first six months," said Robert T. Quittmeyer, chairman and chief executive officer. "The volume of domestic refined cane sugar deliveries of Amstar's American Sugar Division was below the level of the third quarter of 1980, continuing the trend for the first six months. However, increased export deliveries contributed to efficient refinery operations. The division recorded operating profits substantially above those of the comparable quarter last year, but below those of the quarter ended Dec. 31, 1980.

"Refined sugar and corn sweetener prices, following the trend in raw sugar prices, declined during the third quarter. The lower product price levels, as well as the decreased volumes of deliveries, caused Amstar's beet sugar and corn sweetener operations to record lower profits in the third quarter than in each of the first two quarters of fiscal 1981. As in the case of cane sugar operations, however, the earnings of our beet sugar and corn sweetener operations were significantly higher than those for the third quarter of fiscal 1980," Quittmeyer concluded. Amstar Corporation is the nation's largest manufacturer and distributor of nutritive sweeteners and also an important supplier of industrial tools and equipment. Through its sweetener business, it is a cane sugar refiner, a beet sugar processor and a manufacturer of high fructose corn syrup. Its Industrial Products Group manufactures and markets such products as heavy-duty portable electric power tools, mechanical and electric hoists, rotary unions, jacks and other positioning equipment, and designs and sells clarifiers and filters.

Axtell elected to PCG board

Charles Axtell of Sunnyside was elected to represent District I on the board of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., at a recent meeting of directors of the Lubbock-based PCG. In other action, the board elected 1981-82 executive and nominating committee members, discussed the organization's efforts to influence both administrative and legislative actions now being deliberated in Washington, and tentatively approved Andrews County as a new PCG member. The expansion of PCG's territory was the first since 1969 when Martin and Midland were added to the 23 counties listed as charter members in 1956.

Oasis Shriners to hold annual children's clinic

The 25th annual Oasis Shrine Diagnostic Clinic has been scheduled for Saturday at the Hereford Medical and Surgical Clinic.

Specialists will be on hand to make examinations in the fields of orthopedics, speech, hearing, radiology, cardiology, pediatrics, plastic surgery, otolaryngology, oral surgery, neurology and ophthalmology.

The Shrine Clinic is held each year to determine any medical deficiencies in children under 17 years of age who might not ordinarily be able to afford complete examinations by specialists.

The day's activities will begin at 7 a.m. with a breakfast at the Community Center for the Shrine Nobles, their wives, doctors and nurses who will help during the day.

The children will register at the Southwestern Public Service Reddy Room, located at Fourth and Lee Streets, beginning at 8 a.m. Examinations by the doctors will begin at 9 a.m. in the Hereford Medical and Surgical Clinic located at 343 North Miles.

Applications must be filled out by the family doctor or a school nurse before registration Saturday morning. Applications are available from doctors and school nurses in Hereford, Dimmitt, Friona, Bovina and Farwell. Members of the Shrine Club may also be contacted for applications.

All children and parents, as well as those working the clinic, will be served a noon luncheon at the high school cafeteria. Transportation will be provided to the cafeteria. Examinations will be resumed at 1 p.m. until all children have been seen by the doctors.

Following the clinic, the Shriners and doctors will meet at the Country Club for a round table discussion, led by Dr. A. T. Mims, concerning cases seen during the day. This will be followed by a dinner-dance for all Shriners, doctors, nurses and wives to complete the day.

"This is the 25th year the Oasis Shrine Club has sponsored the Clinic," said Grant Hanna, president. "We have averaged 80 to 100 children each year and expect that number again this year. There are some of the doctors and members who have helped all 25 years."

Anyone knowing of a child needing attention is urged to contact a member of the Oasis Shrine Club or write P.O. Box 26, Hereford, 79045.

GOV. CLEMENTS SIGNS BILL BY SEN. SARPALIUS (LEFT) ... Authorizing private grant to historical society

Foundation grant cleared for historical society

West Texas State University and the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society got a boost when Gov. Bill Clements signed Senate Bill 467 into law last Wednesday. The bill, sponsored by Sen. Bill Sarpalius and Rep. Bob Simpson, authorizes the society to receive a $3.25 million grant from the Harrington Foundation.

The bill was Sarpalius' first to be signed into law.

The grant will finance an addition to the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum.

Now about 166,000 sq. ft., the museum will expand to more than 241,000 sq. ft. after the improvements are complete.

"This legislation was a joint effort by Bob Simpson and me. We are both very proud of the museum and we were glad to be able to help it," Sarpalius said.

Also present at the signing ceremony were Sherm Harriman, president of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society; George Arrington, a member of the society's executive committee; former legislator Tom Christian, past president of the society; and William C. Griggs, executive director of the society and director of the museum.

The act went into effect immediately after the governor signed it. Sarpalius said construction on the new museum wing would begin as early as next summer.

View from the library

By BRICK AUTRY

Rhoads Memorial Library I suppose you saw it. It was in the Amarillo morning papers, in the editorials. It was an editorial with big headlines saying something to the effect that we should pay to use the libraries in our home towns.

Being a librarian, I immediately took my attention off the fact that my tie was drooping into my hot, steaming and full cup of coffee and started to read that editorial. First off, charging for using the library seems a good idea. Right now a lot of cities throughout the country would like to see patrons paying to use the library so they would not have to fund them so much money every year and so they could spend the left-over money on city things like police cars, computers, and acceptable staff salaries.

But things are going to have to change a lot, folks, before we libraries can charge you any more than a nickel or dime on overdue books. One big problem is that if libraries started charging for their services they would no longer be non-profit organizations. If they become profit organizations, then they lose some very important assets (like all government grants-in-aid).

The idea of paying for library service on a pay-as-you-read basis is interesting. Public libraries have always been free. Benjamin Franklin started a subscription library in his home city of Philadelphia. The subscribers paid as they read, and if they kept the book overly long they contributed to a kitty, the proceeds of which went to the purchase of new reading materials. (Sound familiar?)

In the meantime, I'll be like any public servant. The pay-as-you-read plan for libraries — what's in it for me?

MORE AMERICANS are putting off retirement than ever before, Bonnie Piernot, a family resource management specialist, reports. While inflation and the persistent climate of economic uncertainty are two key reasons for this trend, there are two other contributing factors also, she explains. They are increased longevity and the ability to work later in life due to improved medical care, and the psychological rewards of work.

Bike-a-thon riders are seeking sponsors

Riders for the Saturday St. Jude Children's Research Hospital "Wheels for Life" Bike-a-thon are now asking Dimmitt citizens to back their efforts by pledging a contribution for each mile they ride.

"The money our riders earn will help continue St. Jude's life-saving study of childhood cancer that has become so important to children all over the world," said Bike-a-thon chairman Jo Parks.

"We'll be showing that we care about children by helping this cause," Mrs. Parks said. "Please support your rider with a generous pledge, and then help them get the funds to us as soon as the ride is over."

"Each rider will be given a lap card when they register at the football field Saturday,"

Mrs. Parks said. "Every time they ride through the check points, we'll punch the card. At the end of the ride, we'll check it and sign it to show that the rider earned what the sponsor pledged." Riders will then return to the sponsors to collect the pledge.

"We'll also be giving them a hospital bracelet saying 'I'm riding for Terry' to wear during the ride. I'm sure most of them will still be wearing them while they make their collections."

The ride will start at 1:30 p.m. at the football field.

"If you have not been asked to sponsor a rider, please call 647-4466 and we'll get one to call you," Mrs. Parks said. Riders can still obtain sponsor/registration forms at school.

Lt. Everman earns honors

First Lt. Thomas D. Everman, son-in-law of Nelle Kitchens Newton of Dimmitt and husband of the former Billie Kitchens, has been selected as a distinguished graduate of the US Air Force Squadron Officer School at Maxwell AFB, Ala.

Lt. Everman was in competition with 640 students and graduated in the top 15 percent of his class. His selection for the honor was recommended by a review committee and approved by the SOS commandant.

Squadron Officer School is the first of the Air Force's professional military education schools for officers. The mission of the 8½-week course is to prepare selected captains and lieutenants for those command and staff tasks required of junior officers.

Weekend features family reunions

By VIRGIE GERBER
Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter services were all well attended at Holy Family Church.

Easter Sunday was enjoyed with family dinners, reunions and celebrations which probably included everyone in the community.

The family of Mrs. Meta Stork gathered at her home for a covered dish dinner which was enjoyed by 75 members. The afternoon was spent playing horseshoes, softball, an Easter egg hunt for the great-grandchildren and lots of visiting.

The children of Joe and Blanche Birkenfeld had a family reunion Easter Sunday at the Nazareth Legion Hall, with all their children being there except Sister M. Josella of Kansas City, Mo. Many grandchildren and great-grandchildren were there also to enjoy a covered dish dinner with plenty of good food. They came from Hereford, Dumas, Friona, Hobbs, N.M., Amarillo, Shallowater, Idalou, Yukon, Okla. and Dimmitt. There were 100 members of the family attending. The afternoon was spent playing horseshoes, card games, a "fun sale" of crafts and a "white elephant sale" which was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Florene Leinen and Mrs. Lurline Pope of Dimmitt flew to Kansas City Monday to visit their children, Shirley and Darrell Pope and family. Jim and Sandee Hoelting hosted a supper Sunday evening for the Hoelting relatives.

Include 55 limit in vacation plans

The 55 mph speed limit originally was instigated to conserve fuel, which it has done; but a greater asset has been the saving of lives and the reduction of serious injuries in traffic accidents.

Increasing your speed from 45 mph to 60 mph doubles your probability of being killed if you are involved in an accident; going from 60 to 70 mph doubles it again, according to Major C. W. Bell, regional commander of the Texas Dept. of Public Safety.

"The best way to keep your vacation safe and accident-free this summer is to keep your speed down, wear your seat belt, obey traffic laws and above all, do not drink and drive," Major Bell reminded. "Your safety and the safety of all your passengers is in your hands."

Slowing down the rising costs of anything these days. Even your electricity.

You've got someone working on it for you in the Southwest. Southwestern Public Service is using Wyoming coal to make electricity in its new power plants. Because some of the old plants run on fuel that just plain costs too much.

sell rather than by selling offered products."

The BBB Council reports that Challenge, Inc., sells its courses through "independent sales agents" (ISAs) and "sales trainees." The trainees are sponsored by ISAs who, according to the report, split with trainees a 50% commission on sales they make "jointly" on a 30%-20% basis, respectively.

Those in Castro County who have been approached by Challenge have reportedly been asked to give a check for a certain amount of money, leaving the payee's name blank, without being told the exact nature of the business. The proposition is then explained to investors when they attend a seminar which reportedly includes an eight-hour "fun day" and a banquet.

One local resident who is involved with Challenge referred to the Better Business Bureau's report, saying that the report was negative "because Challenge does not pay dues to the Better Business Bureau."

The participant added, "I can't say anything except good for it (Challenge). It is an honest and upright business."

The resident also said that the Secretary of State endorses Challenge, Inc.

A representative of the Amarillo Better Business Bureau clarified the BBB position on dues and membership by saying that, in order to be a member, a business must meet the Bureau's requirements, which include local establishment for six months.

The BBB representative also said the report on Challenge, Inc., was issued by the national Council of Better Business Bureaus, and not by a local bureau.

When asked if Challenge, Inc. could be described as an endless chain scheme, the BBB representative said, "In some states where legal action has been taken, that is the premise."

According to the BBB Council's report, Challenge, Inc., currently faces lawsuits in Arizona, Arkansas, North Carolina, California and Florida.

The BBB Council includes in its report a comment which warns, "Before joining such a plan, individuals should consider all factors involved in starting an independent business including the potential market for the product or service. If one sells oneself the product or service offered to qualify for advancement to an ostensibly more lucrative position, one should consider the sale an out-of-pocket expense or investment that must be recouped by other sales before making any profit. Also, before entering a merchandising course, those interested should check out state and local requirements applicable to the kind of business to be conducted."

"Due to various distribution levels within some marketing plans and the lack of territorial restrictions, there can exist the likelihood of area saturation. Consequently wide variations in earnings can be expected."

Grand Jury indicts seven

The 64th District Court Grand Jury returned seven indictments April 10. Indicted were:

—Estevan Angel Garcia, Plainview, theft by check.
—Mrs. Betty L. Brady, Earth, theft by check.

—Jose Fausto Gonzales, 23, burglary of a habitation, (Richard Bertram farm home).

—James Mitchell Santistevan, attempted burglary of a habitation (George Lopez home).

—Guadalupe Gloria, 28, Muleshoe, DWI.

—Ronald Claude Golden, 31, Dimmitt, re-indictment for felony theft.

—Allen Dale Beghtel, Amarillo, re-indictment for felony theft.

Soybean seed short; fungicide use urged

Unfavorable weather conditions during the 1980 harvest period adversely affected the quality of soybean seed.

"The weather caused a shortage in high quality seed. However, producers should be able to increase stands in 1981 by using a seed protectant fungicide," says Dr. Walter Walla, plant pathologist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Walla recommends using a seed protectant fungicide with planting seed that has a germination below 80 percent. Since such a fungicide is harmful to nodulating bacteria, plant seed in fields where soybeans were grown previously. Soybean seed protectant fungicides include captan, captan plus PCNB, chloroneb, thiazazole plus PCNB, and carboxin plus thiram.

Walla explains that several factors are involved in determining seed quality. These are seed size, percent germination and seedling vigor.

"The producer is primarily concerned with percent germination, which is reported on the seed bag tag," notes Walla. "Germination is affected by mechanical injury, physiological factors and disease-causing organisms."

Mechanical injury, Walla says, will either cause seed not to germinate or will result in weakened or deformed seedlings. Such injury can occur when soybeans are harvested with less than 10 percent moisture or when unloading the crop from a height that can cause seed to crack.

Physiological factors such as rapid drying or high heat will injure the seed embryo and have the same effect as mechanical injury.

Disease-causing organisms, mainly fungi, are carried inside and outside planting seed and cause seedling problems, notes Walla. Diseases can reduce both yield and quality during the growing season, so seed from infected fields should not be planted, he cautions.

Less time in the feedlot for leaner beef and lower costs is the outlook for the future according to a number of cattle experts. Many authorities now believe that because of two important developments: 1) the 30 percent increase in grain prices; and, 2) the American consumer's demand for leaner beef, feedlot operators are going to be changing their ways of finishing cattle. Research indicates cattle, after reaching certain weight levels, and depending on breed, tend to lay on only fat which must be trimmed and discarded. In order to provide cattle which will efficiently produce greater amounts of quality lean beef in a shorter feeding time, cattlemen believe an increase of larger-framed, higher cutting cattle is needed.

KDHN burglary interrupted; suspect held

KDHN Radio owner Jerry Marvin interrupted an apparent burglary in progress at the radio station late Friday night, and his quick thinking led to the arrest of a suspect inside the building.

County sheriff's officers and Dimmitt police apprehended Bentura Perez, 18, of Dimmitt inside the station, and charged him with burglary of a building.

Law officers were called to the scene by Henry Ramaekers, who had been flagged down for assistance by Marvin.

Marvin said he had returned to the office late to work and discovered a window broken and some items missing.

Suspecting that the burglar might still be inside the station, Marvin left the building, re-locked the front door, turned his car-lights onto the building and backed up to the highway, where he flagged down Ramaekers.

Officers reported they found Perez hiding in a closet.

Officers reported a pile of merchandise was found 18 feet from the building, including a case containing a remote broadcast unit, connecting cables, albums, two sets of earphones, and six cassette recorders. The Coke machine inside had been broken into also, officers said.

Perez, who has said he is an illegal alien, is in custody and will be questioned by the Border Patrol later this week, officers said. His bond has been set at $10,000.

FACED WITH a "lemon," consumers tend to replace rather than complain, says Bonnie Piernot, a family resource management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Studies show that consumers would rather spend money to replace a faulty item than invest time dealing with manufacturers, government agencies or lawyers, she says. Wives are quicker to give up on a product than their husbands, but they're also more inclined to register a complaint about the product, says Mrs. Piernot.

Richard Martinez placed first in the 50-meter dash. Alma Silva placed second in that event. Paul Gerber placed third, Sally Sifuentez placed second and Doris Steffens placed fifth.

The students competed in classes set according to their age and speed.

Postal exams open at Hart

Postmaster Betty Sanders of Hart has announced that a clerk-carrier entrance examination will be open to anyone wishing to take it from April 22 through 29.

She urged that all interested persons apply to take the job-related test that can lead to postal employment.

"We have not opened our register in quite some time, and an examination of it has led us to believe that it is out of date and that many of the names on the register are people who have moved or for some reason are no longer available to the postal jobs," Mrs. Sanders said.

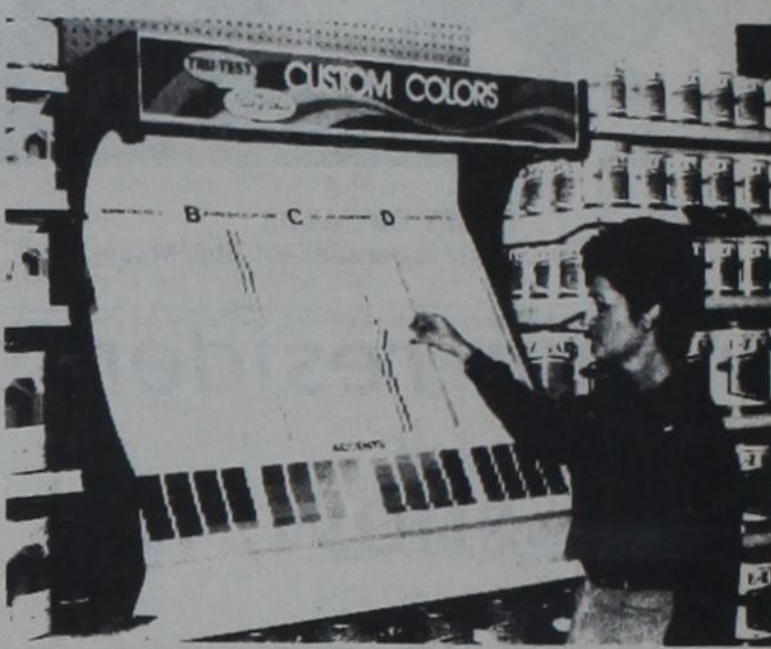

"I do not want to give the impression we will be hiring great numbers of persons in the coming months," she added.

"We need qualified people who will be willing to accept employment, and we want to offer people in the local community the chance to compete for these openings by signing up for, and taking the exams.

Mrs. Sanders explained those wishing to take the exam could do so by contacting the postmaster in person at the Post Office in Hart from 8 a.m. April 22 until 5 p.m. April 29.

Starting salaries for part-time clerk-carriers (PS-5) is $9.05 per hour to start, with steps taking the hourly rate up to $10.38 over an eight-year period. The great majority of available jobs are part time, paid at these hourly rates, she said.

Social Security in Castro County

By JANICE ULMER

The records of 25,000 SSI disability recipients, who were converted from State Welfare disability rolls, are being reviewed to see if they continue to meet the criteria for disability, a social security spokesperson said recently.

In addition, an increasing number of social security disability beneficiaries are also having their record reviewed. The purpose of the review — or continuing disability investigation — is to improve program management.

"Previously, disabled SSI recipients who were on State welfare rolls prior to January 1974, when the SSI program went into effect, had been excluded from such review," the representative said.

Continuing Disability Investigation involves a review of pertinent records to determine whether a recipient has recovered sufficiently so that he or she should no longer be considered disabled. Priority is being given to SSI recipients since there is reason to believe that some of them no longer meet the medical criteria for disability or blindness. In the case of converted SSI recipients, the State's disability criteria at the time they were found to be disabled continue to apply.

Ordinarily, "a continuing Disability Investigation is conducted whenever earnings are posted to a person's social security record, when he or she reports medical improvement or returns to work, when a medical reexamination is scheduled, or when new evidence indicates that the person is no longer disabled."

Any person who disagrees with the determination has the right of appeal.

"In fact, the forms sent out by social security advise people what to do if they do not agree with a decision. An appeal can be filed at any local social security office."

Our address is 1401-B W. Fifth St. in Plainview. For any social security question you may have please use our toll-free number, 1-800-392-1603.

Police calls

Five persons were arrested on charges of DWI by city and county law officers last week. Three were released on bond pending court action. One was fined $253 and placed on probation and the fifth was fined $303.

Law officers arrested three persons on charges of public intoxication last week and all three were released on bond pending court action.

Two men were arrested for having no driver's licenses, and were released on bond. A Muleshoe man was arrested for driving with a suspended license and fined $153.

One arrest was made on a charge of being a drunk pedestrian. The Dimmitt man charged was fined $75.

A Dimmitt man was arrested on a charge of Class C assault and fined $50.

Three arrests were made last week on theft and burglary charges. A Summerfield man was arrested on a Deaf Smith warrant for burglary of a vehicle. His bond was set at $10,000 and he was turned over to Deaf Smith County authorities.

A Dimmitt man was arrested for theft and fined $178. The third arrest was that of an 18-year-old Dimmitt man charged with burglary in connection with the Friday night break-in at KDHN Radio.

Juanita Vela of Dimmitt reported to city police that $135 was stolen from her purse Thursday while she was working at Allsup's. She reported that a Mexican-American male had come in while she was working and asked to use the restroom.

She reported that he later returned to the store, claiming to have lost his comb in the restroom and went back to get it. Vela said the $135 had been taken from the purse between 12:05 a.m. and 12:15 a.m., and that this man was the only person to go in the back where her purse was kept.

The case is still under investigation.

Police were summoned to the Blue and White Laundry on South Highway 385 Sunday evening when it was reported that someone had broken into some candy machines there.

Upon arrival, officers noted that the glass had been broken out of the front of three candy machines. The laundry operator advised officers that the broken glass was the only damage to the machines.

Dick Thomas of Dimmitt reported to city police that someone had taken the battery from his 1/2-ton Ford truck while it was parked in his back yard Saturday night.

Police reportedly found tire tracks in the alley which indicated a vehicle had apparently pulled over to the side and stopped directly behind the truck.

Dorothy Yates reported to city police that someone had entered her home at 211 NW Fifth St. and taken $90 in assorted coins.

The coin collection included $50 in half dollars, $35 in Centennial coins and $5 in Kennedy half dollars.

Officers were summoned to 1013 Stinson St., the residence of Sam Scarbrough, this week in connection with a report of damage to the bottom panels of two aluminum doors at the residence.

Scarbrough reported that the damage was done while he was away for the weekend. He later reported that neighbors had told him a juvenile had done the damage.

WOMEN WILL make up 52 percent of all undergraduate students by the year 2000, says Cindy Wilson, a family life education specialist, citing a 1980 study by the Carnegie Council concerning US higher education. Also, by then, half of all undergraduate students will be older than age 22, adds the specialist, who is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

WOMAN OF THE YEAR—County Extension Agent Teresa Nutt (left) presents a silver award tray to Ann Henderson, this year's Extension Homemakers Club Woman of the Year, at the annual awards luncheon of the County Extension Homemakers Council Tuesday. Mrs. Henderson is a member of the Town and Country Club.

Mrs. Henderson wins EHC award

Ann Henderson was given a silver tray as this year's Club Woman of the Year during the County Extension Homemakers Council's annual spring luncheon Tuesday.

Castro County Extension Agent Teresa Nutt cited Mrs. Henderson's service to the community in the Town and Country Club and other organizations, with handicapped children, the March of Dimes and the Heart Fund.

Other nominations for the honor were Carolyn Sides of the Bethel Club and Fay Mohon of the Sundowners Club.

Council scholarships were awarded to 4-H members

Edith Durbin and Randy Huseman, both of Nazareth. The young people were cited for their years of active participation in 4-H. Each was given a check for $150.

Guest speaker Wynon Mayes began her speech with Minnie Pearl humor and ended on a political note. The Hale County Extension agent stressed the need for more law enforcement and more moral teachings. She climaxed her talk with a parable illustrating each person's potential for success.

The Bethel, Town and Country and Sundowners Extension Homemakers Clubs each gave reports on the year's activities.

Gifts were presented to Mrs. Mayes, Mrs. Nutt, secretary Ann Cox and hostess Lanell Hanson.

ALL RIGHT, ALREADY!—How's this for an un-subtle way to call attention to a guy's 40th birthday? The portable, lighted sign appeared suddenly on the front lawn of Wade Maynard, whose birthday was Tuesday. No, it wasn't neighbors who were responsible for it—the culprit turned out to be Maynard's wife, Walter. As to how he plans to return the favor when she turns 40, Maynard said, he's just beginning to savor the possibilities.

Social workers' advanced study to be discussed

An informational meeting for persons interested in advancing their professional social work education will be held at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, May 5, in Room 207 of the Old Main on the West Texas State University campus.

WTSU and the University of Texas at Arlington will continue the cooperative Master of Science in Social Work degree program in the 1981 fall semester.

The WTSU Board of Regents originally approved the program in 1977. The second class of students in the program will complete its required courses this summer.

During the first year of the two-year program, students will be taught in the Texas Panhandle by faculty members from both universities. During the second year, students will complete requirements for the master's degree in residence at the University of Texas at Arlington.

Classes scheduled for the 1981 fall semester are Advanced Research Methods, to be offered on Tuesday night at WTSU, and Human Behavior I, to be offered every other Friday night and Saturday morning at WTSU.

Don't forget to reset your clocks Sunday

Daylight Saving Time will return Sunday.

The official change will be when 2 a.m. instantly becomes 3 a.m. Sunday morning.

The best solution for most people will be to move all their clocks and watches forward one hour before retiring Saturday night.

DST will be observed until this fall when, on the last Sunday in October, we will get back the hour's sleep we lose Saturday night.

Daylight Saving Time is generally credited with saving energy, promoting motor vehicle safety and alleviating street crime, because of the extra hour of daylight in the evening. However, farmers and other rural residents generally don't like it, preferring to keep the extra hour in the morning.

ONE of the most popular card games in the US is cribbage, played by an estimated thirteen million people. English poet and dramatist John Suckling is credited with inventing the game during the early part of the seventeenth century.
