FOUR ALLEGED KIDNAPERS ARE SHOT

Texas Senate Passes Cotton Restriction Bill

ABOUT THIS AND THAT.....

By W. H. MAYES Jr. Superintendent R. F. Holloway the Ranger public schools has eye for business and at the same time for trading at home with the merchants who help to support the schools and pay his salary.

Recently a salesman from out of town was trying to sell supplies for the schools. Among other things he had a quart bottle of ink. Holloway picked up the telephone, called a number and inquired if the store carried ink in quart bottles and was informed that it did. He then turned to the salesman and informed him that he would buy the ink in Ranger.

"But, you will pay 40 cents a quart more here than you do from the salesman said in an effort to make the sale.

"Yes," Mr. Holloway answered, "and by the time we pay the stage it will cut that saving down to around 25 cents and in order to save a quarter you want to buy out of town from a company that does not spend a cent in our town or does not contribute a penny to the upkeep of our schools, while the merchant whom I can buy this ink will spend right here at home and it may for the ink that we would buy from a competitor. No, I think we had better buy the ink right here in Ranger."

That was logical reasoning on the part of Mr. Holloway and though the quart of ink probably cost a few cents more, the amount that got the business will contribute many dollars in the way of taxes to the upkeep of the schools and the city.

Ranger's airport has come in for a bit of criticism this week, through the selection by the officials of the Kelly flying field of Antonio as a stop for the adulating class on its tour of the state as a final instruction period before the pilots receive their licenses.

When the first group of some 12 planes landed on Wednesday, the officer in charge complimented the pilot, saying that it was very delectable located and was kept in excellent condition. Every one of the planes landed here made good landings and only one had any trouble in taking off.

The officer, however, stated that the field presented a hazard if it could not be removed, it would make the field much better for every purpose. These uses have presented a problem since the field was first established.

Since the field has been established they are in the way in every sense. Charlie Moore, manager of the airport, is anxious to have the houses removed, as is every visitor here who has anything to do with the airport.

The Boy Scout movement is one of the most important works that is being done in any community, and in Austin, where new plans are being made in order to carry on the work for another year, but in a more satisfactory manner than ever before.

Probably there is no movement in the United States today that has more bearing on the future citizens of the state than the Boy Scout movement.

IS AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL ALREADY VOTED

Gov. Long Says He Will Not Call Back Solons To Pass a Bill.

AUSTIN, Sept. 18.—The Texas Senate today adopted its bill restricting cotton planting for the next two years to a fourth of the cultivated acreage by a vote of 19 to 8. The one-fourth restriction bill was offered as an amendment to the House bill which would restrict planting to a third of the tilled soil.

The amended bill will probably be returned to the House late today and a conference committee called to determine which of the two percentage figures more nearly effects a 50 per cent in the Texas cotton crop, which is the aim of proponents of both figures.

Twelve minutes after a messenger from the House announced the House had passed the one-fourth measure, the Senate agricultural committee returned a favorable report on the bill.

The Senate did not even stand at ease to permit the committee to deliberate. Instead debate proceeded on the Senate bill as Senator Oliver Cunningham, chairman of the agricultural committee obtained the favorable report.

Random shots were still being fired today at the Senate's own 25 per cent restriction bill.

Pilot and Two Passengers Killed

QUINCY, Kan., Sept. 18.—Joe Shultz, pilot, and his two passengers were killed today when an airplane crashed near the grandstand at the fair grounds here.

The plane with Floyd Norton and Leo Sheay as passengers, was flying over the crowd at the fair when the craft fell to earth.

Central East Texas Fair to Begin On 21st of September

MARSHALL, Texas.—The Central East Texas fair will open its annual showing here Sept. 21 and will continue for six full days. Five free night football games are the leading entertainment feature and on the night when there is no football game there will be an armadillo race.

Women and girls of Harrison county have arranged more home demonstration club exhibits that have ever been seen here before.

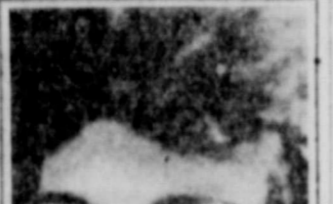

Twenty-one communities have entered exhibits—more than double the usual number. Poultry, feed and general exhibits are all more numerous than in other years.

Lachman-Carson shows, who have the midway concession this year, offer 10 rides and 14 shows.

The five football games to be played at the fair are: Sept. 21, Longview vs. Marshall (high schools); Sept. 22, Carthage vs. Henderson (high schools); Sept. 23, College of Marshall vs. Peacock Military academy, Dallas; Sept. 25, Colored Junior college of Houston; Saturday, Sept. 26, Gilmer vs. Marshall (high schools).

Guest Tickets to Ranger Show. The Ranger Times has guest tickets for Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stuffer to see "Hell Bound" now playing at the Columbia Theater, or any other show.

Miss Grace is registrar of the state land office, succeeding her father who died. Governor Long's other woman appointee is Alice Lee Grosjean, secretary of state.

Bandits Hold Family Captive And Rob Bank

MILTON JUNCTION, Wis., Sept. 18.—Four bandits, who installed themselves in the home of John A. Paul, president of the Farmers bank, his yesterday and held Paul and his family captives all night, obtained $5,000 from the bank today and escaped.

Paul was at home alone when the bandits arrived, threatened him with guns and forced him into a bedroom. When his two sons and a daughter arrived they were herded into the bedroom.

The daughter, Miss Janet Paul, former University of Wisconsin co-ed, said today she was amazed at the bandits' courtesy.

At 7 o'clock this morning they made one of the sons, Malcolm, accompany them to the bank and tied up the others.

Eastland to Have Boy Scout Drive

John M. Mouser who so successfully headed up the Boy Scout campaign for memberships last year, will call a meeting of the local committee Thursday at the Chamber of Commerce rooms to plan and make final arrangements for raising funds for the next year's Scout Budget.

At a recent meeting of the Executive Committee of the Oil Belt Council each town accepted a portion of the Council's 1932 operating budget, to be raised and reported back at a meeting Oct. 7th.

Why Should Eastland Respond? Because Scouting embodies a code of self-discipline that commands boys to talk clean, live clean and fight clean—even as the immortal Roosevelt played the game.

Because Scouting is a mighty buttress to home and school, and it kindles a fire in the breasts of boys that drives them forward as crusaders in the moral and spiritual world—even as the Pioneer Scouts blazed their trails and conquered the earth.

Because Scouting beckons and calls to patriotic men to love, lead and serve the sons of America yet crusaders in the moral and spiritual world—even as the Pioneer Scouts blazed their trails and conquered the earth.

STERLING SUBMITS A TAX BILL

AUSTIN, Sept. 18.—Governor Ross Sterling today changed his announcement that he would not "submit a freezing thing more" to the legislature and sent up a bill fixing the state tax rate at "not to exceed 69 cents." That is the present rate. The possible rate under existing law is 77 cents.

The 69-cent bill would result in a 27-cent rate for general state purposes, as 35 cents goes to schools and seven cents to Confederate pensions.

Thurber to Play At Eastland in Golf Play-Off

The Thurber Country club will invade Eastland Sunday afternoon to play off the tie between the two towns in the Oil Belt Golf association matches, which is of importance in the standing of the clubs.

Should Eastland win, Ranger and Thurber will be in a tie for first place and another play-off between these two teams will be necessary.

Thurber is planning on taking 27 men to Eastland for the match Sunday, which will make another tie impossible. Last time they met there were 26 players. Eastland and Thurber each winning 13.

Wheat Buys College Tuition

Money being scarce and wheat plentiful, Park Region Luther College, Forbes Falls, Minn., is accepting wheat in lieu of cash for tuition. Here is Miss Ingrid Ahlson, at the right, delivering a load at the college door as her payment. The school disposes of it through local elevators, but stipulates it will accept wheat only from families that grow it.

Olden High to Play Strawn On Saturday at Strawn

The Olden High school football team will play their first game Saturday, Sept. 19, at 5:30, when they will play Strawn at Strawn. Although this game is not a class B conference game, it promises to be exciting and many Olden fans are going down to watch Coach Pickens' boys in action.

The probable lineup for Olden high will be: Ends, Squigvland and Middleton; tackle, Britt and Watson; guards, McMin and Massey; center, Wright; backs, Curry, Connel, Crawford and Leclair.

Reserves who will probably play are Smith, Mills, Fuller, R. Craig, C. Craig, Goodman, Lindsey, Boyford and Grosvenor.

Coach Pickens has good material for a class B team, and works his boys out daily on the football field. Coach Dickens lettered two years in baseball, football and basketball at Simmons university. He was coach at Olden last year and is very popular and well liked by the patrons as well as the students, not only because he is an excellent teacher and athletic coach but because he is always working for real sportsmanship and fair play, regardless of who wins or loses.

Oil Field Worker Loses a Finger; Is Convalescing

Carl Culpepper, brother of Mrs. John Barnes and Mrs. Bernice Lemma, is convalescing in Ranger after having his finger cut off while working in the oil fields of East Texas.

Culpepper got his right forefinger caught under a part of the rig on a well and was forced to bear the pain until it could be removed after a jack was used to raise the part of the rigging under which his finger was caught. He is reported to be rapidly improving.

Two Fires Do Slight Damage. The Ranger fire department was called out Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock to a small fire in a house belonging to Joe Young on Foch street. The fire started in a wood stove in the kitchen and was confined to one room, searching the walls of the kitchen slightly before it was put out.

On Thursday night about 9 o'clock another call was received and the trucks made a run to the Hudson grocery on Blackwell road, where a motor on a Frigidaire caught fire. The wiring on the motor was burned out before the slight blaze could be controlled and no other damage was done.

Peavy Refuses to Return to Texas On Thief Charge

TEXARKANA, Ark., Sept. 18.—Chester Peavy, 27, held in jail here in connection with the investigation of the Avery, Texas, bank robbery, refused today to return to Texas.

He said he did not want to return because he was dodging a woman. He is a brother of Clyde Peavy, held at Clarksville.

Mac David, a customer in the bank when three men held it up, took $1,500, identified Clyde as the man who held a shotgun.

A pair of trousers found in the bandit car bore Chester Peavy's name and led to his arrest.

Famous Oklahoma Rancher Is Dead

MULHALL, Okla., Sept. 18.—Colonel Zack Mulhall, famous Oklahoma ranchman and showman, died at his home here today. The 84-year-old pioneer was stricken Tuesday midnight. Grief over his wife's death last January, was said to have broken his health. He died at 3:05 a. m.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p. m. Sunday at the ranch home. Father Van Mens of the Guthrie Catholic church will have charge. Burial will be in the Mulhall vault at the ranch.

CRIMINAL FACES MEAN NOTHING

MERPHIS.—Phil Wallace, 34, one of the youngest criminal court judges in Tennessee, told in an interview on the anniversary of his first year's duty on the bench that an "honest face" didn't mean anything, nor did he believe a "tough" expression on a man's face indicated guilt.

Eastland Church to Hold Revival

Religious services will be conducted on the vacant lot at the rear of the Colonial Filling Station in the West part of Eastland starting Sunday night, Sept. 20, and continuing for two weeks. Good, spiritual singing and gospel preaching will characterize this meeting. The pastor of the Church of God will have charge of the services, which will begin at 7:45 each evening.

It is intended that this shall not be a sectarian effort. Our purpose is to save souls by the preaching of the Gospel. A hearty invitation is extended to all who feel that inner need to work for Christ to assist in this meeting. We will be glad to have those who sing in chairs assist it this way. If you enjoy a free, spiritual atmosphere without extremism, you will enjoy these meetings. All are cordially invited to attend these meetings.

The Eastland city commission is scheduled to meet next Monday afternoon, that being its regular meeting time. Possibly a number of things of importance to the citizens of Eastland may come up for discussion and disposal at this meeting.

THREE DIE AND ONE PROBABLY FATALLY SHOT

Filling Station Operator Is Aiso Shot in Arm When He Resists.

ATLANTA, Texas, Sept. 18.—Ten men were arrested today in connection with the attempted kidnaping of J. H. Boyd, 50, who killed three men frustrating the abduction.

J. M. Luce, living near Boyd's service station, and Joe Luce, brother of one of the dead men, were arrested on charges of assault to murder and kidnaping.

ATLANTA, Texas, Sept. 18.—A shooting orgy between four purported abductors and their intended victim resulted today in the death of three of the supposed kidnapers, perhaps fatal wounding of the fourth and the wounding of the victim, J. H. Boyd, 50, filling station operator.

The first that was known of the killing was when Boyd staggered into a doctor's office about midnight, seeking medical attention and told of the attempt to kidnap him, resulting in the death of J. M. Luce, 25; Bill Fish, 35, Boyd's step-son, and Early Sullivan, a brother of Early Sullivan, 30, in a Fibersport hospital and may not recover.

"One of the men came to my station about 11 last night," said Boyd, "and declared their car had run out of gasoline. I went to the station and returned with him with a can of gasoline.

"Two men were in the parking car and one drove into his right arm, breaking it, as his attacker returned the fire. He changed the pistol to his left hand and fired two more shots, one killing the third attacker and the other perhaps fatally wounding Bill Sullivan.

Another bullet, laid a furrow across Boyd's chest, but so quickly did he rout them that he assailed them had little time to shoot back. Boyd then drove back to Atlanta for police and medical attention leaving the dead and wounded where they had fallen.

In the struggle Boyd said they produced what appeared to be a sack, but he resisted their attempt to cram him in it. Boyd is expected to recover.

Trouble over the division of family property is believed to have prompted the attempted kidnaping. The abductors were led by Phil Boyd, the origin of the trouble, Boyd said.

Ranger May Swap Days At Fair

Negotiations are under way to have Cisco and Ranger trade nights at the Eastland County fair, because the Tickville band has a previous engagement for Wednesday night, Sept. 23, which has been designated as Ranger night.

The first plans were to have Ranger furnish the program for the opening night and Cisco was allotted the last night. On account of the engagement of the Tickville band at Breckenridge and because it was urged that the band have part on the program, the change is being contemplated.

J. E. Spitzer, secretary of the Cisco Chamber of Commerce, has indicated that it will be suitable for the Cisco program to be put on Wednesday night instead of Saturday and Dr. H. A. Lordson, director of the Tickville band, has said that the band will be ready to play at the fair on Saturday night.

HIT-OR-MISS REDUCTION.

Salary-cutting, if there is to be any official salary-cutting, should not be on a coercion basis, and certainly shouldn't be on any hit-and-miss principle to apply to some people and miss others getting the same amounts from the same public source.

It is a question that should be cautiously considered. If there have been some type of salaries artificially boosted above the proper level, one may be certain to find that these have been nailed up by statute. Thus a legislative act besides a budget change would be required to change them, and they would escape any so-called "voluntary" agreement for reducing salaries.

Elementary employees are notoriously underpaid. Some of them get as low as $360 a year and board.

Unless its proponents could prove conclusive justification for salary-cutting, that would stand the scrutiny of the legislature, there should be no salary-cutting. If there is any, it should await legislative action, because on that basis alone will anything like uniformity or justice to all public officials and employes alike be secured.

The workers in some one department should not be penalized because the head of the department has to run for office, or seek reappointment, and therefore makes what might appear to be a popular political gesture. Arbitrary premiums should not be accorded those in departments that refused to go into such a so-called "voluntary" scheme.

Salary-adjustments should start farther back. The board of control has given the duty of making an executive budget. It hires a man by the year to work on the budget, and its three members review every item of the budget.

The board of control recommends some few increases in pay this year, but no reductions.

Then both houses of the legislature have committees which review the budget, item by item. The house committee reduced board of control estimates, but did not apply any general salary reduction schedules before recommending enactment of the budget. The house itself applied "five and ten" per cent reductions, then abandoned them at a time when veto of the entire budgets seemed certain. The veto was expected because the budgets were too high, not too low.

It is a strange time now for department heads to be talking about "voluntary" reductions in the schedules of state salaries.

Every official of the Texas government is vested with "discretion" in handling important state business. Courts cannot even go behind the exercise of that discretion—you can in court compel an official to act upon a matter, but not as to the manner of his action.

That applies to all agencies save one—the most important, as affecting the financial welfare of all the people. Governor Ross S. Sterling, Treasurer Charley Lockhart and Compt. George H. Sheppard are the three men who now form the automatic tax board. The individuals holding these three offices are the tax board. As a tax board the only authority they have is to add up the state revenues, add up the appropriations, and divide one into the other to fix a tax rate, not to exceed 35 cents. This year, the board has needed more latitude. There is no reason why it shouldn't "use discretion" the same as any other agency of the government. There is no reason to hog-tie it in a way that it cannot do an act beneficial to the public, if the opportunity should come. In past years the board has attempted to lower the tax rate, after once fixing it, months before any taxes were paid, but the rigidity of the law forbade granting this relief.

PEEPING THRU THE KNOTHOLE

With BILL MAYES

This is the period of the year when sports come in for their greatest play and the public interest is more or less divided between baseball and football.

The Philadelphia Athletics and the St. Louis Cardinals have again cinched the flags in their respective leagues and will again face each other in the world series.

Down in the southern division of the baseball world Houston and Birmingham are battling for the championship of the Dixie series and to date—at least when this is written—are even Stephen. Birmingham defeated Mr. Dizzy Dean in the first game by a close score and Dick McCabe, formerly of Fort Worth, held the Barons to a few scattered hits Thursday and turned in a 2 to 0 win, leaving them right where they started, but a few dollars richer.

At the same time the football season is beginning to bud and the first real non-conference games of the season are in progress.

Out at Amarillo the Sandies, who come to Ranger on Friday, Sept. 25, are playing the Norman, Okla., team. Last year the Sandies won their game with Norman by a score of 32 to 6.

a practice session, after defeating the Daniel Baker freshmen the week before. The game is not expected to be much of a trial for the Mavericks but they will get some good experience before the curtain raiser later on.

Ranger's Bulldogs have what at this time is considered one of the hardest games in the state when they meet the Sweetwater Mustangs along about the time this column goes to press this afternoon.

No schedule has been announced as yet for the Mavericks for next week, but, as has been mentioned several times before, the Amarillo Golden Sandstorm plays the Ranger Bulldogs next Friday at Lillard field.

Amarillo is reported to have the best team they have had since last year—which is another way of saying that they are expected to be as good as ever. Always a hard team to defeat, their taste of fame last season when they went into the finals in the state championship race, has given them an ambition to sweep all opposition before them and they believe, probably with justification, that they have the team that can do it. They are coming to Ranger with confidence, but with due respect to the strength of the Oil Belt delegation, and will be primed for a stiff fight from start to the last down.

If reports from Sweetwater are true, and we have no reason to doubt them, the Mustangs are not so hot in working against the shift. They are reported to have worked one entire afternoon against such a method of play without mastering any of its intricacies and without making much showing as a defensive team. Their experience on the defense is somewhat limited, anyway, as they did not play that kind of a game with Hamlin.

Although little has been said about the possibility of the Mavericks defeating Ranger, there are those who believe that the little scrappers from the county capital will be a serious threat in any football game they take part in. Ranger's more massive Bulldogs may find that a light, fast and aggressive team is the kind against which they have little defense. However, the Maverick line is said to be rather weak and Ranger's line may have little trouble opening up holes through which the ball carriers can gallop and furnishing

A wall through which the Mavericks cannot score. This is not a prediction, merely a possibility. On the other hand, Eastland's fast and shifty backfield may run rings around their heavier opponents and it looks as though it will be an interesting game, regardless of who wins and what the score is.

And in speaking of the present reign of sports it would not do to forget to mention that the Ranger Country club is planning a city tournament for members only, to be held the first Sunday in October and played through the following Sunday when the finals will be held. On the same day the qualifying rounds are played the American Legion Rifle club has planned a big all-day shoot with

A little of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will clear up trouble like that, gently, harmlessly, in a hurry. The difference it will make in your feelings over night will prove its merit to you.

Dr. Caldwell studied constipation for over forty-seven years. This long experience enabled him to make his prescription just what men, women, old people and children need to make their bowels help themselves. Its natural, mild, thorough action and its pleasant taste commend it to everyone. That's why "Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin," as it is called, is the most popular laxative drugstore sell.

CHEANEY NEWS

CHEANEY, Sept. 17.—Crops are looking good at present considering the dry weather. Some syrup is being made but we surely do need a good rain so we can sow turnips and some grain.

Several have had colds in the community but all are getting over them.

James Love is having some syrup made off of the J. O. Calvert place.

Only school opened Monday, Sept. 7, with all teachers present and a full attendance of pupils. We are looking for a good school year.

W. A. Howard and wife, T. W. Howard and wife, J. O. Snell and R. K. Browning attended the cemetery working at Howard Thursday.

The fair at Cheaney was a grand success. A good display of all products from the farm and also the livestock display was good.

The football team played a real good game at the fair against a picked team. Result was 12 to 0 in favor of the experts. They gave our team some good practice.

A good many from here are going to the cotton fields to pick cotton.

The Seay brothers are through making syrup. They made 200 gallons of fine syrup.

Cotton is opening fast and will soon be ready to pick.

Since the wolves have been caught or run out the rabbits are ruining our crops. Lots of peanuts have been ruined by rabbits. Give us more wolves and less rabbits or a bounty on rabbit poisoning a man to catch these pesky rabbits around Cheaney.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Seay of Triumph were in Cheaney Wednesday picking peas for winter. Also Mr. Carlisle and children of Ranger were here picking peas.

The section on the Jake Hamon Railroad just north of Cheaney has been discontinued and the hands sent to other sections and the foreman was let out.

There will be preaching at Cheaney Saturday night and Sunday.

Sunday school was well attended last Sunday. Let's all try to get interested in Sunday school and stop so much Sunday work for we do not have to work on Sunday.

Trades Day at Ranger was a grand day Sept. 14 to all that attended. They report lots of trades made and a real good time for all with a large crowd in attendance.

Anderson Seay was circulating a petition Friday for an election to equalize the school tax in the Cheaney, Allen and Alameda School Districts. Its not more tax we are wanting now, its how are we going to pay what we have already got.

The Cheaney school bus caught on fire one evening last week but Mr. Reynolds was successful in getting it put out without calling out the fire fighters.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Neger Sunday morning, a son, Babe and mother doing fine.

Willard Poteet and family, Harry Hunt and family of Breckenridge were visiting in Cheaney Sunday.

National Pecan Assn. Meets in Dallas

The National Pecan Association holds its annual convention this year in Dallas, September 22, 23, and 24. The Texas members are putting forth every effort to make this the biggest and best convention ever held by the association.

It is purely an educational organization and its members include not only growers but shellers, dealers and others interested in the pecan industry from all over the nation.

Every phase of the pecan industry will be covered by the program—the most elaborate ever attempted by the association—and it will be well worth while for every grower especially to attend.

President A. C. Easley of the Texas Pecan Growers Association in urging his members to attend this meeting offers to refund membership fee of any of his members who join the National Association and attend this meeting who are not thoroughly satisfied that their money has been well spent.

Hon. J. Hill Fullilove, Shreveport, La., is president and J. Lloyd Abbott, Mobile, Ala., Secy-Treasurer of the National Association. This is the first time in years it has met this far West and it may be several years before it comes this way again. "Let's not pass up this opportunity of improving ourselves," says Easley. Don't forget the time and place, Sept. 22, 23 and 24, Dallas.

Sow Rye for Pasture and Cover Crop

Rye, oats and barley sown on peanut land and other blow sands last fall proved so successful in combating drifting of sand, in providing winter pasture and as fertilizer when plowed under that farmers generally should adopt this practice. Rye is still recommended because it does not freeze out but due to making better grazing barley or oats may be mixed with the rye. Wherever possible this small grain should be sowed this month, as rye must be planted early to get a good start. This may successfully be planted before peanuts are dug. May be sown broadcast and harrowed in or plowed with a cultivator or put in with a row drill.

Small grain seed are cheap and sown with the prospects of all other farm crops selling at a very low price it is necessary that the very highest possible per acre yield be made. This cannot be done if the sand is allowed to blow away.

Green pasture is a valuable asset for all kinds of livestock and poultry. It saves other feed and keeps stock in much better condition which is generally understood and requires no proof. That this crop can be plowed under at a profit has been proven time and again. It is known that commercial fertilizer yields are increased and the land becomes more like new land where this plant food is added to it.

Dairying is picking up, cream was quoted at 24 cents last week and has been consistently advancing a cent a week for the past ten weeks. There is no question as to the value of winter pasture for milk production. Green feed or a so-called succulent feed is necessary for profitable dairying. The cheapest and most satisfactory manner of providing this green feed is through the planting of small grains. The rye mixed with oats or barley provides some pasturage when the oats and barley may be killed out by freezes.

Procrastination is the Thief of Time, an old adage that certainly applies in this time. Many farmers plan to sow this winter pasture crop but never seem to get to it, or else they delay until a part of the benefits to be derived have been lost. Plans that are not carried out do not build up a bank account. Why not get at this job and do it rather than regret that it was not done. That section of the county that has had rains should be planted now, other sections just as soon as there is sufficient moisture to bring up the crop.

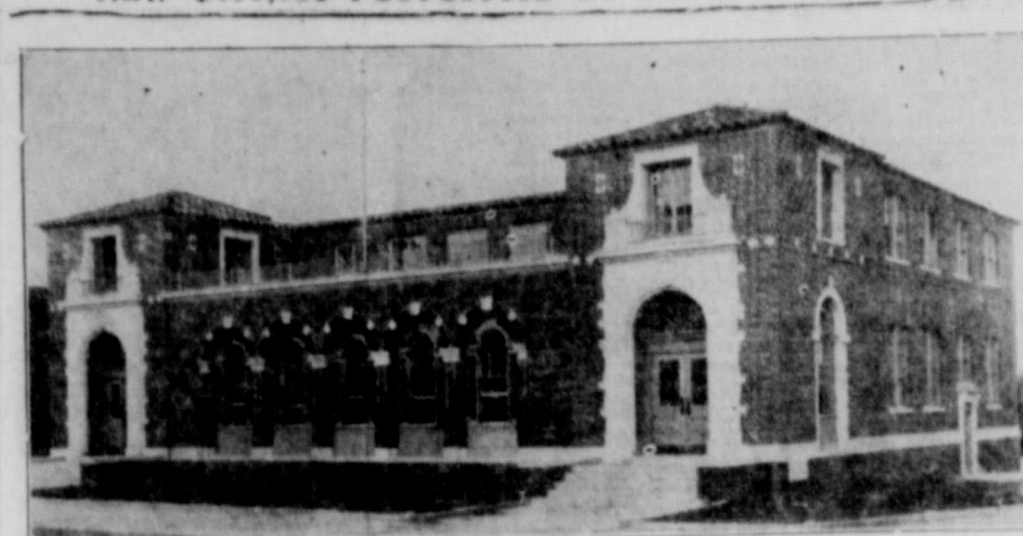

Panhandle Cream Shipments Grow

NEW $100,000 POSTOFFICE COMPLETED AT MEXIA

With school children national guardsmen, Boy Scouts, American Legion members and officials leading, Mexia Tuesday formally opened the new $100,000 postoffice. Completed Congressman Lator A. Johnson was the principal speaker at the dedication. A flag ceremony was held and the public invited to inspect the beautiful new building, one unit of Mexia's civic center. The postoffice is the street from Mexia's new $150,000 city hall-auditorium, while on another corner at the intersection is the fire station and armory building.

Civic Clubs and Their Place in The Civic and Economic Life Today

By H. C. ANDERSON
There was never a time in the history of the country when more people were engaged in the discussion of one subject, that being that of this most unusual condition which we Americans are pleased to call "depression." So, also, it is true that never in the history were there more leaders of nations, leaders of industry, statesmen, and politicians trying to formulate a plan that will restore the country back to prosperity. However, I am sorry to report that up to the present time, there has been no plan that would seem practical or workable.

What has brought about this most unusual condition no one can adequately explain, however, it is here and all the howling we can do will not improve conditions one iota. Fundamentally, the South and West will never experience prosperity until they can make a crop and market it for a price above the cost of production. The East and North can never hope to recover until we in the South and West can take the cash and purchase their manufactured products.

But let us view the situation as it now faces us as civic clubs as affecting the economic life today. William A. Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, explains that we have six millions of people unemployed whose dinner-pails are rusty and empty, and presents the problem to the producers of the nation, those producers being, of course, members of civic clubs throughout the nation. Then, on the other hand, statistics give us the fact that we have a surplus of oil, cotton, wheat, copper, silver and gold. Now is it not strange that a condition could exist in a civilized country when you have unemployed men, and hungry women and children on the one hand, and a surplus of food and clothing on the other hand. Something is wrong, say what you will, and it most assuredly challenges the best brain to remedy same.

It seems that here in our country, having been taken up in trying to help untangle a situation in other countries which exists similar to our own, when in reality the total of our foreign business is less than 2 per cent of what we do among ourselves. The total profit we make on all foreign trade is less than 2 per cent of our annual income. THINK THIS OVER!

We are peculiar when it comes to trying to "right" a wrong. It seems that the first thought is a law to remedy the situation. For instance, on the North of us W. H. "Alfalfa Bill" Murray sent to the Oklahoma oil fields the militia to close down the flow of gold, stating that he would keep them there until the price was raised to one dollar. Governor Sterling of our State followed in his foot-steps and sent the militia to the great East Texas oil fields closing them down for the same purpose. The governor of Mississippi is considering using the militia to close down the gins and oil mills of that state in order to bring about higher prices of cotton and its by-product. Up in the State of Arkansas, the militia was sent to keep peace over a revival in progress. Now all of the above actions on the part of the leaders of the country might have been right, I am not in a position to say as time only will reveal.

Right now in our own State, and in other cotton-producing states, legislators who are the representatives of the country, are busily engaged in trying to bring about a law that will relieve the cotton over-production. Can you gentlemen conceive of legislators forming laws to relieve the farmer of the privilege of planting cotton on land that he has bought and paid for when cotton, if only he receives $20 per bale, is all the cash he can rake and scrape to buy gingham aprons and cotton shirts for himself and family. I have never heard of so absurd a plan and in my opinion, no such law shall ever reach our people for adoption.

Now it is funny about the condition of the country. In 1873 and 1893 we had what newspapers and prominent writers informed us, a depression from which we could never recover, and that there was positively no hope for the country's recovery. As it always is in always the worse, the last mile we traveled is always the longest, and the last depression is always the worst. Right here may I say that a good turn to be performed by civic clubs would be to see to it that the newspaper representatives of such clubs print nothing that would tend to create the wrong impression to its readers, and as to some of our editorial professionals and daily-columnists, I think that they could help to create a sentiment quite different from some that it has been my displeasure to read. Some of these columnists receive the startling price of almost one dollar per word for the dark pictures that they paint in the dailies.

If civic clubs such as Rotary, chambers of commerce, Kiwanis, Lions, and such organizations, can not modify the inate-cussedness in the average selfish, hard-boiled, mercenary, penny-picking, narrow-gauged, human-poker, and lift his snout high enough that he can see further than his home, his business, and personal interests and set on rotting for his community and nation as a whole, then they have failed to reach the mission for which they are intended. One way that we can be governed according to the teachings of such organizations would be to go to the polls and cast our vote for just such men as we know will perform the duty of statesmen and render such service as we will be proud to look back upon. As to the unemployment situation that faces us today, please men don't be alarmed if you hear of breadlines, riots, and stories of strife, for there is no time for slackers; we must assume the responsibility that has been entrusted to us and back up with our finances and morals the Red Cross, Child Welfare, Community Chest, and such organizations who are trying to relieve the unemployed, and give to them food and raiment. Don't be afraid to penalize, contract, or criticize too severely those poor employed, hungry people.

As for me personally, I am built out of the kind of stuff that teaches me that a man who is willing to work, and can, and is employed, whose wife and children are hungry, who would take such groceries to relieve their hunger, would not be painted as criminal so let's be patient, and help the cause as we have been prospering.

The best plan that can be thought of to be of help as civic clubs in taking care of surplus would be to start now talking better times. When a man asks you "How is business?" don't draw up in a knot and say "There ain't no more," but be a believer and have confidence for business stands on confidence and faith in your fellowman and country. As Fielens has said, "Hard business is had for all business," tell the man who asks you, that business looks better and that you think it is a matter of a very short time until conditions will be greatly improved and see for yourself what a change it will make.

The road to success is through work, hard work, and digging, if you please. Hard work means nothing to a hen, she keeps on diggin' worms and laying eggs regardless of what is said about depression; the quick to penetrate, contractors, if it is dry, she digs deep, deep, or if it is wet, she digs where it is dry; if she strikes a rock, she works around it; if she gets a few more hours of day-light, she gives us a few more eggs, but all ways she digs up worms and turns them into hard-shelled profits as well as tender profitable broilers. Did you gentlemen ever see a pessimistic hen? Did you ever hear of one at work, waiting for worms to dig themselves to the surface? Did you ever hear one cackle because work was hard? Not on your life! They save their breath for digging and their cackle for eggs. Success means work, means confidence, means digging. Are you a digger?

We took an obligation as Rotarians that we would do our part when called upon. Are we doing that? Let's review in our minds today that from here on out we are going to see to it that our shoulders are to the wheel, and that we like the hen are going to be diggers.

Our objects of Rotary are: (1) The ideal of service as the basis of all worthy enterprise; (2) High ethical standards in business and professions; (3) The application of the ideal of service by every Rotarian to his personal, business, and community life; (4) The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service; (5) The recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations and the dignifying by each Rotarian of his occupation as an opportunity to serve society; (6) The advancement of understanding, good-will, and international peace through a world of fellowship of business and professional men united in the ideal of service. The above objectives will give to you an outline of what is intended for Rotarians

By cutting out many wastes, A&P is able to charge you less, and pay you a larger share of the retail price. We bridge the gap between the farmer and you.

THERE'D BE NO USE FOR A & P IF YOU COULD DEAL DIRECT WITH THE FARMER

For in the "Good old days" what the housewife received for her money was actually equal. But as towns and cities grew, the farmer received less and you paid more... because of the clumsy, round-about system.

Many Thrills In "The Squaw Man" Now at Arcadia

For those who like their thrills strong and with plenty of "pepper," it is said that Cecil B. DeMille's new talking picture, "The Squaw Man," which opened today at the Arcadia theatre, Ranger, is "just what the doctor ordered."
 The famous tale, one of the three most successful stage plays ever written, shifts colorfully between England and Arizona for its geographical backgrounds.
 It begins with a man accusing a cousin of being in love with his wife.
 It mounts upwards in excitement when the cousin leaves England, taking upon himself the disgrace of the round, in order to save the feelings of the wife.

PARIS STYLES

THE EUGENIE mode brings with it the vogue for large pearl jewelry. A double bracelet of two sizes of pearls is one of the newest novelties.
 The second one is made out of black satin and it fits into a white satin blouse that has a good strong whiff of the Orient about it. The neck of the blouse seems to be bound with two pieces of the black satin. A tiny gold thread outlines them. The very short cuffs on the sleeves—no we take that back—because the cuffs in this case are the sleeves. Around the waist of the blouse is a black satin belt with ends that widen just a bit to match the treatment at the neck and over the shoulders.
 And here is number three. For the sweet young thing surely, but we wager that anyone wearing it would look sweet and young regardless of age. Looking at the picture of the whole frock of which these sleeves are a part, we see a dozen lovely materials and color combinations that could be used. The neckline of the dress is high, like a choir boy's, and there is a little bow in front where it is tied together and the ends extend nearly to the waist where they meet another band that ties at the left side in a larger bow. The sleeves are close-fitting about the arms just as the neckline is about the throat, and midway between the shoulder and the elbow they tie in two more little bows with short ends.

Engineers Trying To Send Coal Through Pipe Lines

By Elmer Press.
LANSFORD, Pa.—Lehigh Navigation Coal company engineers are experimenting with transportation of pulverized anthracite by pipe line as a means of reducing transportation costs.
 Reports of the experiments show that the engineers have developed a method of pulverizing smaller sizes of anthracite, moving the product in a semi-liquid state through a pipe line for a considerable distance and drying it at its destination.
 The method is expected to reduce materially the delivery price of coal.
 Particular interest in the success of the experiment was created by the proposed 15 per cent horizontal freight rate increase asked by railroads. Anthracite operators and union leaders contend that rates on coal are already excessive and further increase will seriously hamper the industry in regaining its markets.

Lone Star Social Club Meets With Mmes. Huffman and Ford.
 The ladies of the Lone Star Social club were delightfully entertained with Mrs. Huffman and Mrs. Ford, co-hostesses, this week with the afternoon affair held in the clubrooms.
 During the course of a business period Mrs. Fred Dreinhofer was elected president; Mrs. J. A. Bates, secretary; Mrs. Littlefield, treasurer, and Mrs. J. L. Turner, press reporter.
 After the business session, a "gift exchange" was a feature of the hour. This was adopted by the club several meetings ago and has proven most interesting.
 Pretty and useful gifts composed the selections exchanged.
 The club welcomed one new member, Mrs. Joe Woril. Guest for the afternoon was Mrs. Ward Henderson of Sibley Springs.
 Mrs. E. K. Smith and Mrs. F. E. Byrnes were announced as hostesses for the next meeting, which will be held at the club on the afternoon of Sept. 30.

Herring as joint-hostesses, entertained a complimentary meeting to members of the Adolphian class of the First Christian church during the mid-afternoon.
