Markrider and Vaughn in Golf Finals Today

GOOD GOLF IS DISPLAYED IN FINAL MATCHES

Unusual Upsets are Features of Ranger City Tourney This Week.

By H. C. "ANDY" ANDERSON
The golf tournament has been a most successful event, having had a dance and barbecue and a calistula pool, all matches close this afternoon. The prizes for the various flights will be awarded this afternoon immediately after the matches are over.

There was never more good golf to show up in any tournament than some that we have had during the days of this tournament, which goes to show that Ranger can always be counted upon to be in the upper ladder in any man's tournament. We have had in this tournament some most unusual upsets along with the good golf also. For instance, Jimmy Phillips, winner of many tournaments and counted as a winner in this year, lost his first match to H. H. Vaughn, however, being beaten by Vaughn with the class of golf that he shot is no disgrace as Mr. Vaughn shot 33 holes during the day and came in one under par which is GOLF if you ask me.

There was a Red Neill, our president, who thought so much of himself that he purchased himself in the calistula pool to be beaten in his first match by C. D. Davis, a dark horse and some golfer.

St. Brimberry, who went to the semi-finals to be defeated by D. A. Markrider, is a man who will let the best of them know that when they send him in to the clubhouse defeated they will know that they have had a golf match.

Philips, Walter Cash, Bob Earnest, were turned back in the first flight but those boys are real competition and will win if you are not on your stick. My opinion is that Ranger can boast of the class of golf turned in by all of our players.

In some of the other flights we have the old standby in the name of H. P. Earnest, who will take care of the boys in grand style and let me say right here he will be there by a mile when the prizes are awarded.

Then there is Con D. Harnett, our vice president, who is counted on to take his flight like a deer in a walk. However, he has J. J. Russell and some of the other boys to handle but Con says they are grapes.

Major Hoopie, friend and foe, wherever you go, is a man who will place his money with his conversation provided everything is on the up and up will be around here in a few minutes. In all matches and case they cannot locate him he will gladly send a taxi.

Dr. Hasim, defeated Herbert Stafford, much to the upset of those Herbert and the dopesters, but Dr. Hasim is a man who is yet to travel and nobody knows what kind of pill the Doctor will give the boys.

E. C. Byers, another real golfer, however all that could be heard from him was "Oh, Yeah! Then met him and was beaten 2-up and again said "Oh, Yeah!"

Jack Clements and Bill McDonald are to play some kind of a match some time however. Bill says that he has already defeated back in the lobby of the Chevron, but we are not sure if that will be official.

Three Boys Cause Trouble In Search Of Adventures

SOLONDS DO NOT ELECT STATE POET

DALLAS, Oct. 17.—Texas still struggled along tonight without a poet laureate, although today and the State Fair were the time and place set by the legislature or selection of the official state poet.

There was no dearth of voters, for nearly two score had registered, but a committee of legislators delegated to make the selection could not keep a quorum.

All committeemen from the house were on hand and looking poetic, but none of the Senate members appeared. Representatives of the muse whose output varied from verse for home town newspapers to poems known nationally were disappointed.

Football games and other attractions proved more attractive than the selection of a poet.

Even the House members who kept their appointment admitted they might not be so hot about poetry.

Chinese Form Corps Of Troops Among Canadian Chinese

VICTORIA, B. C., Oct. 17.—One thousand Chinese nationals in Canada have mobilized and an airplane corps has been formed to augment China's armies in Manchuria, headquarters of the volunteers revealed today.

Leaders of more than 25,000 Chinese in Canada gathered here to consider the controversy between China and Japan, said the recruiting was begun as the result of mass meetings.

All Chinese colonies have joined a boycott on Japanese goods and some centers have gone on record urging the national government to declare war, leaders said.

Truck Law To Be Enforced

AUSTIN, Oct. 17.—State highway patrolmen and vehicle weight inspectors will take to the roads today in double numbers to enforce the states new law requiring railroad commission permits for all trucks operated for hire.

Three Arrested As Bomb Explodes

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Three men were arrested and two women detained in Brooklyn after a bomb exploded in one of the men's apartments. Police believe one of the men may be responsible for the many theatre bombings that have been occurring throughout the country.

MOTHER KILLS FOUR CHILDREN AND HERSELF

WILMINGTON, O., Oct. 17.—While a jazz band played with the tune of a jazz orchestra, Mrs. Lucille Ward, 49, shot and killed her four children and then herself because she and her husband could not provide them with the comforts and luxuries of their playmates.

The five bodies were found by the husband and father, Russell Ward, 49, a toolmaker, as he returned home from his daily search for work.

The children were piled in the living room and kitchen of their humble home at Roseville. A bullet had pierced the head of each. A catch cartridge, unexploded, was in the revolver the mother clutched.

Japan Defeated In Stand On U. S. Observer

TOKIO, Oct. 17.—The imperial government, defeated in its stand against an American observer in League of Nations and fearing a plot at home, sent a new challenge to Geneva today.

Japan's delegates were instructed to ask President Aristide Briand to explain the league's proposal for future action.

Meanwhile it was reported the high military commands in Tokio were detaining nine junior army officers following investigation of rumors that the men were discussing political activities and possibly plotting for the establishment of a military dictatorship.

Scout Council Meets Friday To Form Plans

A very successful meeting of the Oil Belt Council of the Boy Scouts of America was held in the office of the Chamber of Commerce of Eastland on Friday evening with a fine representation from Breckenridge, Cisco, Eastland and Ranger attending.

Vice President E. P. Crawford of Cisco presided in the absence of President Homer Bralford.

A complete checkup of all the towns was most interestingly given and fine progress was reported from all the drives in the four towns. It was decided to give each town two more weeks in which to complete drives and another meeting will be held at that time to complete plans and to formulate the program for the ensuing year.

Government Ends Capone Trial

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—United States District Attorney E. Q. Johnson launched the government's final attack on Al Capone today with the charge that Capone spent more than $1,000,000 in underworld profits but never paid taxes.

Johnson ended the two days of argument in the trial on charges of evading income tax. The defense side of the case was already before the jury, which was expected to receive the case early in the afternoon.

Capone wore one of his diamond-encrusted gold belt buckles as he sat in the courtroom listening to the pleas that may result in his being sent to the penitentiary for a maximum of 33 years and may cost him $50,000 in fines.

Pershing Speaks At Yorktown

YORKTOWN, Pa., Oct. 17.—The battle of Yorktown must be considered in its results, one of the decisive battles of history, Gen. John J. Pershing, commander of the A. E. F. during the World War declared today at the celebration observing the 150th anniversary of Lord Cornwallis' surrender to George Washington.

"The victory won on this field by Franco-American forces under Washington was tremendous in its consequences. It brought independence to a nation that has become great among the nations of the earth and established the principle of democratic government for this country. It sealed for all time the friendship between the people of France and America," the general said.

BABY IS STRANDED.

SEGUIN, Texas, Oct. 17.—Investigators today blamed self-strangulation through entanglement in bedclothes for the death of Adolph Paul Strong, 8-month-old son of Prof. and Mrs. Adolph Strong.

LEGION POST TO MEET.

The Dulin-Daniel Post No. 70 of the American Legion will meet Monday night at 8 o'clock in the county courthouse. A large attendance is expected to be present.

Tammany's "Grand Old Man" Retires

John E. Voerhis is getting along in years now—his 102—and as shown by the recent picture at the top he's a little tired. But the president of the New York Board of Elections, who is shown lower right in his regalia as Grand Sachem of the Tammany Society, didn't want to retire. He says he's still able to lead an active life, and is pictured at left as he delivered a radio speech. But friends have persuaded him to relinquish his job and accept an $8000 annual pension for the rest of his life.

First, to draw a salary; second, to relieve the cotton farmer; third, to help democratic organization of the next session.

Political Strife In Louisiana Still Growing

BATON ROUGE, La., Oct. 17.—Louisiana's political imbroglio grew more involved today when Joseph C. Land, a Shreveport contractor, had himself sworn in as United States senator.

Land's entry into the mix was prompted by his belief that Governor Huey P. Long and United States senator-elect had so much trouble on his hands trying to keep two other gubernatorial claimants from seizing the executive mansion that the senatorial seat "must be vacant."

Red Cross Meet Held Saturday

Roy Speed, Tom Carpenter and W. C. Hickey of Ranger met with a committee from Eastland with Cisco members in a round table discussion of plans for the annual Red Cross drive to be started on Nov. 11. This drive is to be nationwide in scope.

RIVERSIDE, Calif.—That prices for dates grown in this section will rise was forecast by Agricultural Commissioner A. E. Bortel following receipt of information that recent rains had caused considerable damage to the fruit.

CANNON CLAIMS EXPENDITURES FOR ELECTORS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Bishop James Cannon Jr., with his former political aid, Miss Ada L. Burroughs, face possibility of a maximum sentence of 10 years and a fine of $10,000 if found guilty of the offenses charged in an indictment by the District of Columbia grand jury, may fight the case through the higher courts before question of guilt or innocence is submitted to a jury.

Indicted for violation of the corrupt practices act during the presidential campaigns, Cannon claims expenditures not accounted for were chiefly spent for the election of presidential and vice presidential electors. These are state, not federal officers, he claims.

4 RANGER PLAYERS PROTESTED

Superintendent R. F. Holloway of the Ranger High school received a letter from Abilene Saturday night in which a protest of the eligibility of four of the Ranger players was voiced.

Two of the players, Townsend and Fleming, were protested on the grounds that transfer certificates had not been filed regularly and two, Conley and Townsend, were protested on the same ground and an additional protest on the grounds that the two had played on a college team in Amarillo was placed against them.

A hearing has been asked on the protests against Yonker and Conley and transfers for the other two have been mailed to Abilene to comply with the ruling, according to O. G. Lanier.

New Accounts Worth 100 Cents On Dollar

Officials of the Commercial State bank of Ranger said Saturday that while everyone seemed to understand the ruling under which accounts with a balance of only $5 a day from old accounts, they did not understand the new accounts under which they can check out any amount up to the full balance on hand in that account.

BOYCOTT IS FEARED BY THE LEAGUE

AUSTIN, Oct. 17.—An economic boycott, most potent weapon in the power of the League of Nations, was discussed in a secret session tonight as a possible resort to prevent war between Japan and China.

The council, with Prentiss Gilbert sitting as American observer, was convened after President Briand conferred with the Japanese and found the deadlock unbroken.

The council was discussing favorably the calling of an extraordinary meeting if the deadlock is found unbreakable. The problem would then be put before the entire assembled league, comprising nearly every nation on earth except the United States, Russia and Turkey to mobilize world opinion against the conflict.

Team is Killed In a Collision

A team of horses belonging to G. W. Shepherd, residing on a farm south of Eastland, were killed about dark Friday night when an automobile driven by a Cisco man ran into the wagon from the rear.

Shepherd and his brother were returning home from Eastland. It was a little cool and they got off the wagon and were walking when the accident occurred, which fact doubtless saved their lives. As it was no one was hurt.

Scout Troop Has Good Meeting On Friday Evening

The Boy Scouts of Troop 5 met Friday night at 7:30 o'clock in the Ranger band hall on Pine street. There were 11 scouts and two visitors present.

Hope Abandoned For Ship's Crew

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—Hope was abandoned for the Japanese freighter Yonan Maru and her crew of 38.

Convinced that the heavily laden vessel had foundered in a storm 500 miles northwest of Dutch Harbor, Alaska, three rescue ships ended a 24 hour search and proceeded on their courses.

The Dollar liner, President Jefferson, bringing Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh home, was the last to end the quest. After patrolling the waters a night and a day she sent a radio message here that the search was hopeless and she was proceeding to Seattle.

HEARING IS SET.

LONGVIEW, Oct. 17.—District Judge Reuben A. Hall today set Oct. 26 for a hearing on quo warranto proceedings filed by D. S. Meredith, Jr., district attorney to oust constable and justice of the peace at Kilgore.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—The Al Capone income tax fraud case was in the hands of a jury of 12 men at 2:43 p. m. today.

The jury and United States district court began deliberating the case after an 11 day trial, in which Capone evaded $215,000 in a six-year income of $288,854.

Judge instructions by Judge George W. Wilkerson had been given to the jury's instructions during an hour and 13 minutes. The jurors they need concern themselves only with the fact of guilt or innocence and need not worry about the punishment.

NOW THAT'S OVER.

The long-foreseen verdict of acquittal for District Judge Price has been returned. The people of Texas will be well satisfied that it is finished, with its attendant expenses of over $600 a day, and with the fact, known from the beginning, that it could only prove futile.

Former Senator Paul D. Page, who gave his services free of charge to defend his aged friend, summed up the whole sorry spectacle in a single sentence:

"It is not this honorable judge that is arraigned; it is the iniquities of the fee system arraigned in this trial."

It is obvious that the very legislature which dragged the Price trial through weeks of futile effort is more responsible than Judge Price for the admitted iniquities of that system. The legislature could have remedied them. He couldn't.

Friends of Judge Price—Practically every person in his district—never for a moment had their confidence in the venerable judge shaken. So the verdict could have been of but little comfort to them. The house managers were put in the unhappy position of having to carry through a distasteful and meaningless effort which could bring them only the credit for doing a duty the best they could.

The case was unique. The house managers had offered to drop it without even requiring the judge's resignation for the offense of being crippled and old. The house offered to drop it if he would resign.

It is unique in that it is the only one in history in which the prosecutors were on record admitting the accused man innocent, and part of the jurors, on record as asserting him guilty before the trial even started.

The only satisfaction the people of Texas get out of this inatter is that it is over.

COTTON AND ITS FUTURE.

An American crop of cotton of 16,284,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight is the forecast of the federal crop reporting board. Texas is given a yield of more than 5,000,000 bales, Mississippi lawmakers are in session. Governor Huey P. Long of Louisiana is in high glee. First his plan was sand-bagged and tossed aside by the Mississippi solons. Then the friends of the Long plan staged a comeback. Now they are going to make a fight to put the Long plan over in the house and send it back to the senate. Arkansas lawmakers adopted a concurrent resolution calling upon the governors of the cotton-growing states to appoint legislative committees to meet jointly and draft a uniform law to curb cotton production. Under the terms of the resolution the legislatures of the various states would be bound to adopt any plan approved at the conference of state committees by a majority vote.

The legislators of the cotton producing states wouldn't do it in a thousand years. Really the cotton growing industry is in a bad way. Some say it is the result of over-production. Others say that it is the result of under-consumption. Regardless of what all say, the American states have given to the world another bumper crop of cotton and should the same thing happen in 1932 poverty awaits an army of producers. As for the wheat farmers, they appear to be in the same boat.

A GROWL FROM A REPUBLICAN LEADER.

Former Senator Joseph Irwin France of Maryland is an avowed candidate for the republican presidential nomination in 1932. He is running as a wet and his feet will be weary before he wins the nomination. This former senator believes that Calvin Coolidge still has hope of being nominated. He gives this fact as the reason: "Mr. Coolidge is not eliminating himself. The fact that he refused to even mention the name of Mr. Hoover in his recent magazine article, the fact that he was unable to name a single personal quality of Mr. Hoover that justifies his continuance in office; all this is ignored in the joyous thought of Washington that a possible rival has eliminated himself."

Mr. France has a mean disposition. He should be told that Mr. Coolidge never gushes; never sops over; never enumerates the good points in the makeup of a friend or the objectionable traits in the makeup of a foe. Why worry? Mr. Coolidge is out of it; Mr. Hoover is in it.

Now for a Showdown!

Daily WASHINGTON LETTER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
 NEA Service Writer
WASHINGTON—The depression, says Commissioner Ethelbert Stewart of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, is playing no favorites.

The same government which has been listening to bankers with pleas for debt moratoriums and plans for a half-billion dollar bank relief fund has been making surveys which indicate that farmers, workmen and the white collar classes all have been getting it in the neck—to varying degrees, but always in the neck.

When you think of the "long-suffering" farmer and his troubles you are likely to think only of the wheat and cotton growers, but the producers of fruits and vegetables, meats and dairy products are all hard hit by the drop in food prices which for most city families is the only discernible silver streak in the big cloud.

ALTHOUGH the factory workers have been chief victims of unemployment and heavy payroll slashes the miners and the oil field workers have suffered almost equally. And the government surveys show street car conductors, store clerks, hotel employees and the like have also been laid off in quite substantial numbers. By the time you put all the facts and figures together you realize that there probably isn't a single group which isn't in intimate contact with the depression or is without reason to pray for early revival.

When you learn that the index figure for the farmer's buying power now stands at 57 it means that his purchasing power as represented by his products, has dropped 43 per cent from its average of 1912 to 1914. The index figure was 82 as late as last year, so it has gone down fast and far. The cause is seen in the fact that the index for farm prices has tumbled from 111 in September of last year to a new low record of 72 in the past September. But the cost of what the farmer must buy to maintain his family and run his farm has fallen only 26 points from one summer to the other. His buying power fell 35 per cent and his expenses only about 13 per cent during the year. Grain prices fell 59 per cent from September to September. The indexes also show declines of 45 points on fruit and vegetables, 42 points on meat animals, 30 points on dairy and poultry products and 24 points on cotton and cottonseed.

THE treasury has revealed that the first quarter of the 1932 fiscal year, ending the last of September, gave the tipoff on members of the white collar class who make enough money to pay income taxes. Income tax receipts decreased 43 per cent from those of the first quarter last year. An interesting sidelight is that miscellaneous internal revenue receipts declined less than 10 per cent. These are made up mostly of tobacco taxes, so it appears that smoking is going on about as usual.

As a further glimpse at the white collar situation one cites reductions in payrolls of 13 per cent for street railway workers, 9 per cent for retail clerks and 15 per cent for hotel workers between the 1930 summer and the one just past.

Stewart says the net loss suffered by workers in manufacturing, taking into account a 49 per cent decline in total payroll and lower living costs, has been about 30 per cent since December, 1925. That is the date on which the index figure of 100 is based. Bringing us up to now on other important figures, he says food in that period has declined 25.5 per cent, clothing 14 per cent, rent 15 per cent, fuel and light 11.5 per cent and house furnishings 17 per cent. Food averages only 25 per cent of the workman's budget, it has been found, so there has been a decline of but 15 per cent in the items that go to make up the cost of living for the workman's family.

 on himself as good at golf as he is at mathematics as he has turned some of the boys back to wait for another day, however it may prove a problem to great for him to solve in some of the boys he is yet to meet.

J. Haig Johnson, a very tidy player, always being dressed fit to kill, says that since he sent Pete Jensen to the wagon to weigh up he feels confident that things will come his way.

Les Killingsworth, who admits that it has been his privilege to play golf in Chicago, Houston and where have you been, is considered a good horse to beat his flight and his usual smile will show up when the bacon is given out.

Little Frankie Connelly, Jack Mooney, Jr., both say that they are ready to take the older boys for a cleaning and from the class of golf they have been turning in the old timers had better be on the alert.

The Ladies Flight

Mrs. J. J. Russell and Mrs. H. C. Anderson play the final match today. Mrs. J. J. Russell wins from Mrs. Von Roeder 2 up, and will meet Mrs. H. C. Anderson for the finals today. In the match of Mrs. Russell and Mrs. Von Roeder, Mrs. Russell turned in a 47 against Mrs. Von Roeder's 51, both ladies played a fine match and it proved to be interesting to the last hole and a gallery of interested boosters were along to help them play their best shots.

Let's everybody turn out for the finals tomorrow and if I mistake not you will experience some real good golf and a good time will be had by all.

Shriners Will Not See Barbary Coast

By United Press.
SAN FRANCISCO.—Despite reports to the contrary, San Francisco's Barbary Coast will not be reconstructed for the entertainment of the 500,000 visitors expected for the 1932 Shrine convention.

The reports were that the "Coast" would be brought to life merely in a spirit of fun, so that the visitors could live in the atmosphere which created the Grizzly Bear, Texas Tommy and Buny Hugs.

William H. Woodfield Jr., potentate of Islam temple, director-general for the convention, said: "Someone has misinterpreted our plans, I fear. They must have been thinking of our Chinatown arrangements. The committee feels that a restoration of the old mysterious Chinatown, with its underground passages and cloisters, would be an enjoyable feature. But the Barbary Coast, no."

Sox Appeal Banned In Austin Schools

By United Press.
AUSTIN.—Look at their eyes, not at their legs," was the advice of School Superintendent A. N. McCallum when teachers here gravely debated bare legs versus hose in the schoolroom.

However warm an autumn sun shines in Waco, Texas, no little girl dares pass the school cloak room without slipping on her hose. But in Austin there'll be no "sox appeal" made to parents. "We're living in the twentieth century, not the seventeenth. It's a matter for parents to decide," McCallum ruled.

ABILENE SPECIAL PLANNED AT ATHLETIC COUNCIL MEETING

TRAIN WILL BE STARTED AT 12 FOR BIG GAME

Hundred Tickets Are To Be Sold For Trip To Abilene.

A meeting of the athletic council held in the office of the Chamber of Commerce Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, it was decided that it would be possible to have a special train to Abilene and ticket sale is to be started immediately.

Two tickets are to be furnished to members of the pep squad and all, but all are urged to make trip if it is at all possible.

It is tentatively arranged to have the train leave Ranger at 12 o'clock, noon, sharp, and arrive at Abilene about 1:45. As the game is to be called at 3 o'clock this gives time for everyone to get to the field by the time the game started. The return trip is to be started at 7:30 that night and arrive in Ranger about 9:15. These schedules are tentative and subject to revision if it is found impossible to have the train arranged for that time.

It was pointed out at the meeting that the special train would be convenient and safer than for individual cars because it will require a motorcade of approximately 75 cars and these would get scattered over the road when Abilene and Ranger on return trip and many would get back to town until late at night.

Under the special train arrangement, too, the pupils will be under care of teachers and fans of town who will see that everything goes off on schedule time.

It is planned to start school on Friday, cut the classes for five minutes each and in way only one period will be cut, and the school will not be out of its regular routine.

G. Lanier said at the meeting Saturday morning that he had already assured that all but one of the members of the pep squad would be able to secure the money to go to the game and that others thought they would be able to have the money by Tuesday.

Tickets for the school pupils will be on sale at the office of O. G. G. on Monday and Tuesday. Children are urged to have the money there on Monday, if possible, in order that they may be able to get tickets for the trip.

Tickets for the fans have been

PEEPING THRU THE KNOTHOLE

NE-TIME football stars from this neck of the woods have been coming in for some publicity recently in the metropolitan newspapers. One sports writer says that "Bud" Hammett of Rice formerly of the Ranger Bulldogs, is the best backfield man, pound for pound, to be found in the Southwest conference. Although small, Hammett is rated by the writer as a good, all-around man to have on any squad.

At T. C. U., former players from Eastland and Ranger are showing up well on the Pollywog team. Dutch Meyer, coach of the Horned Frogs, says that Rex Clark of Eastland is showing up well, their freshman backfield and that Dick Murry at guard and George Blackman at tackle are listed as the most promising of the linemen on the squad. These three former Oil Belt stars were expected to see action against the Weatherford team.

The 28 to 0 defeat of North Side, Fort Worth, by the Breckenridge Buckaroos makes them loom more than ever as possible contenders for the Oil Belt crown this year. The win adds to their total score for the season to date of 245 points to a grand total of only 8 for their opponents. Any team that can run up that many scores and that large a variance is either good at football or has someone who is a wizard at picking the schedule. We are rather inclined toward the football solution.

It is said that it is a woman's privilege to change her mind, but we have been changing ours some of late. At first we couldn't see anything but Ranger Oil the Oil Belt, then it was Abilene and now it begins to look as though we are going to be compelled to change again and figure some way in which the Buckaroos will be favored. It begins to look as though the Bucs are going to force us into admitting they have more than mere possibilities. And Breckenridge longer get ready for her conference season than anyone else in the district, which has given plenty of time to get ready for their conference schedule.

Friday afternoon we sat in the office of the Chamber of Commerce with our feet propped on the desk pretending we were in conference so we would appear busy if anyone saw us. Two men walked in, talked football and left. One contended that the fans and the pep squad were ruining more high school football players than any coach could make by looking up to them as heroes and giving them the big-head. The other made the same contention but gave a different reason. He said players were being ruined by the fans riding them for their early season mistakes and making them so self-conscious they were always afraid they would make mistakes and be criticized and were so afraid of this they couldn't play a good game.

We reserved opinion in the belief that one can learn more by listening than by talking and found that both agreed that there was too much grandstanding on any high school team and if the teams could play without a crowd in the grandstands they could do better as individuals and as a team. Our only opinion was that there have not been enough fans in the grandstands this season to turn anyone's head.

And while in conference we did venture to remark that there was a possibility the Abilene Eagles might have a team that was built on hot air and publicity.

"Yes, that may be true," one fan remarked, "but the funny part of it is that they always back up that publicity and hot air by coming across with victories."

North Side is Easy For Bucs

Special Correspondent.
BRECKENRIDGE, Oct. 17.—Silent Prince Shotwell's Buckaroos rounded out their preliminary prancing here this afternoon by topping North Side high school 28 to 0.

The Buckies tallied once in the first quarter, with McFall going over and Hinrichs booting the extra point. They drove two across in the second, with McFall and Wohlford tallying and Hinrichs kicking both goals, and one in the third with Ennis tallying and Pitzer kicking goal.

Estes went across for another in the final quarter but fumbled when going over the goal line, with Yeary of North Side recovering.

The second string was shot in continually by Shotwell. North Side offered flashes of opposition, but never did seriously threaten to drive a marker across.

It was the final preliminary bout before the Buckies open the season next Friday afternoon here against the Cisco Lobos.

Lost Longhorns Enrich Texas Man
By United Press.
SAN ANTONIO.—Remains of a lost herd of longhorn cattle, famous in the history of the Texas range, have been found by L. D. Bertillon of Mineola, Texas, and their horns have made him rich.

In 1812 Jacob Don Loners' entire herd of several thousand longhorns stampeded in a storm near Terlingua creek. They were never found.

That is, not until Bertillon trailed a nearby canyon to a cave opening and found a great heap of bones and horns. Bertillon has since sold more than $50,000 worth of horns, and is now negotiating for a sale to the Prince of Wales.

Aged 102, a grand sachem of Tammany is retiring. Politically he probably could sachem with the best.

James Dunn Tops 'Sob Sister' Cast

"Sob Sister," Fox drama of an ambitious girl, who was too busy trading on the romances of others to recognize her own love affair until it had practically passed her by, which opens its local engagement Sunday at the Lyric theatre, is hailed as being one of the year's most important pictures, and for several reasons.

First, it marks the second green appearance of James Dunn, who bounded into the film spotlight overnight in his history making screen debut in "Bad Girl."

Second, it introduces to moviegoers a new leading lady, 21 years old, gorgeously blonde, a favorite of the Broadway stage, Linda Watkins.

Third, the picture is the first directorial efforts of Alfred Santell since his record-breaking success, "Daddy Long Legs," with Janet Gaynor and Warner Baxter. After that picture Santell was given his choice of all the stories owned by Fox Films and from them he chose "Sob Sister."

Brown Leads
Brown is not only the favored of the fashion world for winter but it will also be the favored shade for spring, according to the House of Stehl. So keep brown in mind when shopping for your winter and early spring wardrobes. Another bit of news is that reds are also smart in the Spanish tile shade worn either with brown or black accessories, even more popular than the Persian and Patou greys.

Fourth on the list of fashion-right colors is Bruyere blue, followed by purple. Keep an eye on this Bruyere blue, however. It is going to be just about the smartest color you have ever seen for spring clothes.

Irish Linen
Draperies of Irish linen exhibit a tendency toward narrative design which is both interesting and decorative. Outstandingly new is a series of scenes printed on natural colored linen which will fit into a variety of interior schemes. One is called "Winter Sports," and shows small scenes of skating, sleighing, and other snow sports which fit beautifully in the countrying person. Another, called "After Dark" depicts scenes from an old-fashioned melodrama. If you are sophisticated, you will use it in a modern setting to lead a note of contrast. There are other scenic draperies of Irish linen to satisfy your most modern whim or that longing for early American or French provincial.

Members of the Junior New Era club will meet at the home of Miss Emily Dreinhof on Monday evening at 7:45 o'clock.

Novel Hints for Fall and Winter
Bronze Kid
Bronze kid, which has been forecast some time, has arrived with eclat as an afternoon fashion. Patou showed bronze kid shoes on his manikins in his recent Paris opening. Mirande, another famous French couturier, also showed them.

The new kid shoes may be either of dark reddish bronze or bright copper bronze, and are a style note to be observed with afternoon dresses of both velvet and satin. They also lend a nice note of contrast to the dull silk crepes of brown, blue or green.

New Linen Damasks
When you are buying your winter table cloths, look carefully at white damasks. Never, since our mothers' day, has white linen damask been more correct or fashionable than it is today. For the formal dinner, the best taste eschews gaudy colors in favor of the aristocratic white of the Georgian era.

Colors are still correct for luncheon, however, but they are soft and pale in tone. Ivory, pale gold,
