This morning we checked up on he straw votes on possible pres-ential candidates and found the esult to be as follows: John X. Jarner, 6; Franklin D. Roosevett, ; Herbert Hoover, 4; and Bill

Well, well! Now isn't that Well, well, well! Now isn't that omething. Here we are, just like ohn N. Garner, too busy to be othered by a presidential campaign and someone comes along and throws our hat into the ring. It is to come forward and lead the cople and the country out of its coubles, both financial and imaginary, we suppose we will have to make the sacrifice and allow the sultitude to persuade us to run.

And for the next few days we ill probably be so busy selecting reabinet that we may have littime to hurry hither and you in search for items of news. And urse we have to decide on ks of our platform.

Out in front of the Ranger nber of Commerce are 13 Chi-elm trees—the last of the lot 100 that were purchased for ribution in the city of Ranger stribution in the city of Ranger aring the tree planting campaign. Now 13 being an unlucky numer and the Chamber of Commerce to wanting any more hard luck an is necessary, they are offerg those 13 trees, or any number of them, to the first person who mes by and asks for them. This a real offer and the only remirement is that the trees be ken away and planted somether around the town.

It seems that the employes are red of being nurse maids to a much of young trees and are willing to give them away in order to be relieved of their duties along less lines, so the first person who mes by and asks for them willing it of the given as many as he can use. END OF THE LAME DUCK SYSTEM

Senator George W. Norris of Nebraska has won his bat tle for the abolition of the lame duck congress after many years of courageous service. His new constitutional amendment has been put before the legislatures of the 48 commonwealths for ratification. This grand old man of Nebraska has the courage of a lion and the tenacity of a bulldog. His proposal to abolish the lame duck session of congress received the approval of the United States senate by a vote of 73 for and 3 against, and was dispatched to the state department for submission to the states. It must be ratified by the required 36 states within seven years. Only the day before final ratification of the lame duck bill another of the Norris legislative plans, a bill to restrict the use of injunctions in labor disputes, went smashing through the senate by a vote of 75 to 5. All this after a nine-year struggle led by the veteran from the Platte river country.

Senator Norris of all the so-called progressive republicans is the most thoroughly independent. Indeed, he is the most thoroughly independent of all American senators. He is a republican and a dry and yet he follows his own flag. In 1928 he refused to vote for Hoover and Curtis. He cast his ballot for Smith and Robinson, In 1930 he was returned to the senate by a great majority running as a republic an nominee as a candidate for reelection. Now the two pet measures of his life have been given the sanction of the American congress.

TEXAS AS A PRODUCER OF MOHAIR

In 1932 United States mohair production was 19,111,-000 pounds of which more than 85 per cent, 15,400,000 pounds, was produced in Texas. For a ready reference the Pat Morris Neff Centennial address should be given wide circulation. It covered the story of Texas for 100 years and it is a classic from beginning to end. Is there to be a centennial celebration? There is an amendment to the constitution that must be adopted before the preliminaries, meaning legislative appropriations. All the electors are invited to return their verdict at the November election this year. Why not a centennial celebration? Why not tell it to the world as well as show to the world the record of achievement of 100 glorious years?

JOHN BULL ON THE ROAD TO RECOVERY

John Bull isn't a bankrupt. John pays his debts. He keeps his pledges. In other words, the British government will pay a large sum, estimated around $150,000,000, this week to 140 American banks. He borrowed the money last August. He didn't ask for a moratorium. He had the coin. We shipped it across the Atlantic. He met his obligations. John Bull always staggers through. He always comes right side up. Now he is off the gold standard and is riding the crest of the wave brought about by his new high tariff system. Money talks. John Bull's gold resources are great. It is said that the British people own one billion pounds sterling in gold sovereigns and manufactured gold articles. All loyal Britishers are turning in their gold ornaments to the mint for melting purposes. All gold art treasures are being fellow do likewise. But he loved the seat of the pants." United States will not control the gold supply of the world.

SPAIN IN THE MARKET FOR TOBACCO

The Spanish republic is in the market for 14,500,000 pounds of American tobacco. Tobacco of the Kentucky. Virginia or Tennessee type is wanted. Only 6,000,000 pounds of American tobacco was taken by the Spanish monopoly last year.

America has tobacco for sale. America has cotton for sale. America has wheat for sale. Foreign markets are Just Another Cow Town peeded. Figures available indicate that continued heavy 44 UVALDE was a cow town of head of the Marfa chamber of buying by Japan was making some inroads into the surplus of American cotton. Since Aug. 1 Japan has purchased 1,569,302 bales, more than double the total purchase for the Japanese account this time last year. Chinese purchases for the season now total 883,769 bales against 146,-676 bales for the same period one year ago.

Federal aid is to be extended to the farmers of the country. Cut in acreage production will figure largely in these loans. There must be a 35 per cent acreage cut compared with 1931. No acreage reduction, no loan. Business is business. The grower must pledge himself to grow foodstuff and feedstuffs, which is a wise provision.

FEEDING THE HUNGRY IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK In New York the home relief bureau is spending $78,-000 a day aiding the idle workers. Home aid has cost $1,-500,000 to date. Sharp increase in relief work elsewhere than in New York was shown in the last report made by the Russell Sage Foundation. As for Manhattan Island investigation shows that four out of five who registered need assistance. New York has the largest relief unit in the world. More than 50 per cent of the applicants have never in their lives before had to accept any public or private aid. In 81 American cities grants to the needy in 1931 totaled $167,000,000 as compared with $43,670,000 in 1929. New York state has a population of 13,000,000. Every tenth person is receiving public aid. These are official figures. Moreover, the vast majority represents those who are idle through no fault of their own.

CREDIT EXPANSION BILL SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

Congress sent the Glass-Steagall credit extension bill to the White House and President Hoover promptly signed it, "with comment." This is a democratic measure. It was sponsored by a democratic senator and a democratic rep-

Its purpose is to open "the vast resources of the federal reserve to new credits for the banks and depositors and make available almost $1,000,000,000 in gold for national use and security." It carries with it the pledge of the president and the congressional leaders who sponsored the mea-sure "that it will keep America on the upward swing ecoically." Time will tell. A Garden Needs Design as Much as a House Needs It. How to Design Your Grounds

Although well-designed gardens are becoming numerous most home owners are content with the layout of their home grounds which was given them by the subdivider. That is, they accept the sidewalks, back fence and side boundaries as sufficient delineation of their garden area and proceed to plant little or much within this area without further attempt at design.

In some cases there is resistance to the idea of designing, a feeling that outdoors calls for informality, and that any interference with haphaxard arrangement is stiff and pretentious. It may be so, indeed, but on the other hand, a really beautiful expression of the feeling of informality in a garden calls for a degree of designing skill much greater than formality and stiffness require.

A house might be built without design. The windows might be of verying sizes and placed without consideration of balance. The rooms might be of irregular shapes and the contour of the roof unstudied. Such a house would not be any more "informal" than perhaps a majority of our home grounds. Yet few would consent to live in it. The revolt against haphazard gardens is not so cer-
