This column is published as a daily feature and may not be construed as representing the editorial views of this paper. What follows is merely what one man thought at the time it was written, and the writer reserves the right to change his mind concerning any subject, without notice, explanation or apology.

Several weeks ago I attended a meeting at the Chamber of Commerce at which much enthusiasm was expressed in favor of setting a bank for Eastland. A committee was appointed. I guess the matter rested there.

The easiest was to dispose of a matter is to appoint a committee. The only way to dispose of a matter is to appoint a committee. Committees meet with obstacles. I guess the committee appointed to see about a bank met with so many obstacles that it considered the matter a hopeless task.

Eastland is getting along without a bank. It might be getting along without one as well as it would with one, but I doubt it. There must be some reason why we can't have a bank. If the two bank buildings here cannot be rented at a rental that will enable a bank to stay open, there are plenty of other buildings.

I don't know but what a bank that used a few goods boxes for fixtures and a waterbucket for a safe would have about as much of the people's confidence as one with tile floors, marble walls, high ceilings, onyx fixtures and de luxe jail cells for cages.

Have an old duck sitting over behind the counter with a big chaw of tobacco in his jaw who would pay little attention to the stock market and its acrobatics and plenty of attention running his own business.

In the meantime, Eastland merchants will struggle along, doing their banking in other towns, Eastland people who get paid by check will go abroad for their money and spend part of it. As a man sows that shall he also get frostbitten.

Krause To Head Eastland Elks

Julius B. Krause was installed in the office of exalted ruler of Eastland Elks Lodge No. 1372 to succeed W. K. Jackson, retiring exalted ruler, at the regular installation of officers Monday night at the club.

Other officers installed were: J. L. Cottingham, esteemed leading knight; Paul Bryan, esteemed knight; Frank Embick, esteemed lecturer; knight; Earl Francis, secretary and treasurer; L. Y. Morris, tiler; Oscar Wilson and W. K. Jackson, trustees. W. K. Jackson was selected as delegate to the grand lodge. Joe Stebbins was installed as equir and J. F. Little as chaplain.

The new officers are making plans for a membership drive to increase the club membership and renew its activities as a social organization. In former years the Eastland Elks club has been one of the more prominent places for social gatherings in the county and the officers are planning to place the club back in its former status.

Breckenridge Woman Suicides At Kilgore

KILGORE, Tex., April 12.—A record of suicide was recorded today by Justice Homer Glover in the death of Mrs. Cecelia McLeone, 33, formerly of Breckenridge.

She died in a one-room, tent-covered house a mile from here yesterday after taking poison. She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McLain of Breckenridge.

Heaving Mountains Are Quiet Today

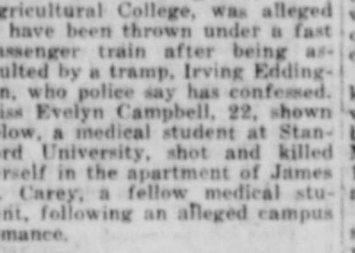

SANTIAGO, Chile, April 12.—The heaving Andes, with half a dozen volcanic peaks that for two days spouted smoke and ashes spreading terror over a vast area of the southern parts of South America, subsided today.

The volcanoes had sent a shower of ashes from the Pacific to the Atlantic brought darkness to many Chilean towns and threatened to damage or destroy several communities.

Tragedies End Lives of Co-Eds

Trained Sea Lions Given Exercise On Garage Floor

The trained sea lions which were left as wards of the county by the death of their trainer, Solly Abraham, were liberated from the tank Monday afternoon and permitted to take exercise on the floor of Frank Robinson's garage where they are being housed.

A shipment of fish for them arrived and the pets were fed. Although no experienced trainer was present, the sea lions expressed their appreciation for the food by going through a series of tricks such equipment as was found in the truck.

No arrangements have yet been made for disposing of them, but it is thought that they will be removed by relatives of Abraham after his funeral in New York. His body was shipped there early Monday morning.

Pastor Taken In On Confidence Gag

Rev. D. W. Nichol was the victim of a scheme recently when a young man relieved him of $5 on a confidence game.

The young man went to the home of the pastor and told him a story about one of his babies being sick with a disease that required a special kind of serum. The serum, the man said, cost $13 cash and he had only $8 with which to purchase the medicine to save his child.

Rev. Nichol gave him the $5 and then became suspicious. He investigated and found that no doctor in Ranger had heard of the case and the name was unknown at the address given.

10,000 Lambs Will Gambol On Ranch

MARTINDALE, Mont.—Approximately 10,000 lambs will gambol in the meadows of the 77,000-acre Smith ranch, near here, this spring.

The lambing started about the middle of March and will continue until the middle of May. Vernon Galentine, manager of the ranch, said there were about 13,000 sheep on the ranch before the lambing season opened.

The huge tract has a capacity for 20,000 sheep, but due to range conditions and a lack of hay, the number of sheep was reduced from 16,000 to 13,000. At one time there were 30,000 sheep on its ranges.

STOCK MARKET PROBE HALTED UNTIL MONDAY

WASHINGTON, April 12.—The Senate banking and currency committee today voted to adjourn its stock market investigation until next Monday.

Short holdings on the stock market from April 1 to April 6, when the administration suspected an unprecedented bear raid was in the making were revealed today by the committee, showing the greatest short position was in U. S. Steel and General Motors.

Proposals that the committee employ Samuel Untermyer, New York attorney, to lead its investigation of the alleged bear raids, were made today by a committee member. They complained the inquiry so far had been a "fiasco."

Bates Funeral Will Held Wednesday

Funeral services for Floyd (Bill) Bates, formerly of Ranger and for the past few months of Big Spring, will be held at Henrietta, Texas, on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Young Bates, who was well known and well liked in Ranger, was fatally injured in an automobile accident between Pecos and Monahans Monday morning about 11 o'clock, dying in the hospital at Pecos at 1:30 that afternoon.

The body of the deceased was shipped today to the home of his parents at Henrietta, where the funeral will be held. A large number of Ranger friends will leave tomorrow to be present at the services. Burial will be in the cemetery at Henrietta.

Store Managers Agree To Close At Six Each Day

Mrs. Alice D. True, secretary of the Retail Merchants association of Ranger, announced today that several stores that had been staying open until 6:30 and 7 o'clock had agreed to close at 6 each evening, in accordance with an agreement between members of the association.

Several stores had been remaining open until later than the 6 o'clock closing hour, which had been agreed upon, and the managers of these stores have been agreeable and considerate, Mrs. True said today, in co-operating with the other merchants on closing at the 6 o'clock hour.

Experts Argue Over Racket

CHICAGO.—Three authorities differ on the meaning of the word "racket."

The discussion was started by Frank H. Vizetelly, New York lexicographer who defined rackets as "any occupation by which money is made, by legitimate means or otherwise."

"First to challenge the New Yorkers was Edward (Spike) O'Donnell a racketeer of years standing who professed to know what he is talking about.

"Racket is an old Irish word meaning a lot of noise and money," said Spike. "The word, as used in its present sense, is about 15 years old and was coined by 'Big Tim Murphy.'"

Robert Isham Randolph, head of the "Secret Six," who also is wise in the largon of the underworld, also challenged Dr. Vizetelly's definition.

"A racket," said Randolph, "is a conspiracy to commit extortion by violence."

That's About Fur Enough!

Here's what you call sharp practice. Sydney Snow Los Angeles sportsman, is shown at play with a mountain cougar. Three years ago Snow captured the cougar as a kitten. Since then it has followed him around like a pet spaniel or even like a pet dog. Frequently it goes surfing-board riding with him. Snow knows that if kitty gets rough a punch on her tender nose will quell her.

BISHOP ORDERS CHAPERONS

QUIMPER, France.—In a circular, addressed to all the priests in his diocese, the bishop here has decreed that dance hall managers must be deprived of church blessing until they have paid for absolution and taken an oath that dancing will only be indulged in on the occasion of marriages. Absolution also is refused to those who take walks in the country, or go on automobile trips, without their parents.

Fort Worth Cafe Owner Out of Luck; Shoots Self Twice

FORT WORTH, April 12.—Luck just wasn't with S. M. Simpson, 38-year-old cafe owner, who was shot through the right hand when his automatic pistol discharged accidentally today.

Simpson was taking the pistol out of his pocket when the gun discharged, the bullet going through his hand. He dropped the gun and it went off again, shooting him in the hand.

WOMEN WETS TO PLAN FIGHT AT WASHINGTON

NEW YORK.—Prominent women from 40 states and the District of Columbia, who are convinced that repeal of the eighteenth amendment is the paramount issue for voters at the November election, will gather at Washington, April 12 and 13, for the third annual conference of the Women's Organization for National Prohibition Reform.

The presidential elections this year will afford this organization its first opportunity to carry the fight for repeal into a nation-wide campaign, and the delegates are going to Washington to make definite plans for supporting only those candidates who will vote and work for repeal.

Alone in Field.

Up until three years ago when Mrs. Charles H. Sabin resigned as national republican committee-woman from New York and publicly declared her intention of devoting herself to the work for prohibition reform, the women prohibitionists had the field to themselves.

At this conference, concrete plans are to be made for securing submission blanks in both party platforms and failing that to work in every state for the election of those candidates who have indicated their determination to effect a change in the prohibition situation.

The conference will last for two days and consist of four sessions. The first session will be addressed by Mrs. Charles H. Sabin, national chairman, and by Mrs. Kelllogg Fairbank, prominent Chicago leader in civic and social activities, formerly an ardent dry who has become convinced that the passage of the eighteenth amendment was a grave error.

Outstanding Women.

Among the outstanding women planning to attend are: Mrs. Pierre S. Dupont of Wilmington, Mrs. Frederick Agler of Detroit, Mrs. Stanley Fox of Chicago, Mrs. Annasa Stone Mather of Cleveland, Mrs. Archibald Roosevelt of New York, Miss Ethel Zabriskie, Mrs. John L. Sheppard and Mrs. William Temple Emmert of New York, Mrs. William T. Healey of Atlanta, Mrs. Lawrence O'Donovan of Alabama, Mrs. Clifford W. Gaylord of St. Louis, Mrs. Henry Joy of Detroit, Mrs. John B. Casper of San Francisco, Mrs. Robert Lovett and Mrs. Roger W. Cutler of Boston, Mrs. Lucius Robinson of Hartford, Mrs. James Ross Todd of Kentucky, Mrs. George Orvis of Vermont, Miss Maude Wetmore of Rhode Island, Mrs. William Brewster of Virginia, Mrs. Andriani of South Carolina, Mrs. Kelllogg Fairbank of Chicago.

Three Instincts Control Actions Of All Children

URBANA, Ill.—Psychologists, studying young children and babies, have decided they have but three instincts—rage, fear and affection—and that the only thing that will enrage a youngster is restraint of his movements, according to Edna Walls, specialist in child development in the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois.

As a result of the finding, modern clothing for infants has been changed from old style designs, according to Miss Walls, and present day togas are made in such a manner that they can be slipped on or off the child with a minimum of restraint to the youngster's action.

Timberlite Clay Hides West Coast Diamond Deposit

CHEROKEE, Calif.—Pipes of timberlite clay similar to that found in the Kimberley mines of South Africa, have been located in the old Cherokee mine, from which 300 diamonds have so far been taken, Jack Sullivan, president of the Cherokee Drift Mine, revealed.

Sullivan said one of the workmen at the mine recently struck a diamond in the clay with a pick. The diamond was five karats in size but only two karats of the stone was saved after it was cracked by the pick.

Sullivan believes the sources of all the diamonds found in the old mine for many years past might be discovered in the clay.

Ruth Hits Homer First Time Up

SHIBE PARK, PHILADELPHIA, April 12.—Babe Ruth started his 1932 home run drive today with a four-base blow the first time at bat against the Athletics; George Earnshaw was pitching and two men were on base.

OPPONANTS OF BONUS PREDICT SURE DEFEAT

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Conferees have been held among democratic and republican members of congress on the subject of the soldier bonus and as a result high sources opposed to the bonus held the view today that it would eventually be lost.

It was not explained whether they expected its defeat in congress or whether they believed it would be vetoed and the president's vote sustained.

Father Charles E. Coughlin, Detroit's "radio priest," pleaded today for a "revaluing of the dollar" when he appeared before the house ways and means committee in support of legislation for payment of the bonus.

Coughlin testified as advocates of the bonus renewed their drive in the face of warnings from democratic leaders in the senate and the house.

"This legislation will undoubtedly throw us off the gold standard," he said, "but we can use the soldier bonus to get down off the unjust gold standard."

The priest attacked the "disease of over-valuation of the dollar" and advocated a cheaper dollar and "inflation" of currency.

"Gentlemen," he said, "we have given the economic system its last blood transfusion with this reconstruction finance corporation. Soon we will have a corpse on our hands."

"This bill would put two billion dollars into channels of trade and commerce. It would buy food and clothing."

Presiding at 'Honor' Trial

Judge Charles S. Davis, above, of the Hawaii circuit court, is presiding at the trial of five co-defendants in the Hawaiian "vengeance killing" of a native said to have assaulted Mrs. Thalia Massie, wife of a United States naval lieutenant.

STORY OF JOE KAHAWAIS DEATH TOLD

HONOLULU, April 12.—The vivid story of Joe Kahawais' kidnaping and death heightened a net of circumstantial evidence around four American defendants today as prosecutors swiftly developed their murder case before a jury of whites and browns.

False mustaches, the dreaded kahoked pepper and the Hawaiian's bloody, bullet-marked clothes fitted in the tale which the territory relied upon to send Mrs. Grace L. Fortescue and three navy men to prison for life.

Clarence Darrow, bulwark of the defense, lolled in his big leather chair and helped Prosecutor John Kelly unravel the story. His manner disclosed better than words that the defense will not deny the "honor slaying" but will rely on a plea of temporary insanity. Kelly likely will complete his case Wednesday.

W. S. Adamson of Ranger, the next speaker on the program, said that though he was not directly benefited by the payment at this time, he was in favor of the movement and believed that it would put money into circulation that would be an indirect benefit to all businessmen.

SPEAKERS ARE IN FAVOR OF CASH PAYMENT

Dissenting Vote Is Not Heard When Question Is Brought Up.

Without a dissenting vote, those assembled at the mass meeting at the American Legion hall, Ranger, voted in favor of a resolution that telegrams be sent to Congressman Thomas Blanton and Senators Tom Connally and Morris Sheppard stating that the people of Eastland of Eastland county were heartily in favor of paying the balance due on the adjusted service compensation certificates at this time.

The meeting had been called by the Carl Barnes post in order that the views of the businessmen as well as the veterans might be obtained in regard to a cash payment at this time.

Mayor John Thurman started the speaking by advocating the payment of the balance due on the certificates. He said there was little that he knew about the question as it appeared at this time, but that he had always been of the ex-servicemen had been underpaid throughout the period of the war and that it was up to the government to right this wrong at this time.

D. W. "Burr" Johnson acted as chairman of the meeting. He called on Grady Owen, assistant criminal district attorney, who gave a brief but concise review of the events leading up to the issuing of the certificates. He said that the war profiteers the government chairmen who worked at Washington at large salaries during the war had been given a cash bonus, but that the soldier had been compelled to be satisfied with a certificate that covered the balance due, still owed him money. He urged the immediate payment of the balance due, saying that much of the money paid out would go for food to fill the empty stomachs of the unemployed veterans.

W. S. Adamson of Ranger, the next speaker on the program, said that though he was not directly benefited by the payment at this time, he was in favor of the movement and believed that it would put money into circulation that would be an indirect benefit to all businessmen.

Judge George Davenport of the 91st district court, said that he had never spoken before such a unanimous crowd in his life, and that he was sure anything he say would not convert anyone to the cause he was stating, however, that he believed the government could pay the balance due without materially hurting the financial structure of the government and said that he believed the veterans were right in asking payment at this time.

Joe H. Jones of Eastland pointed out in a short talk that economies of the right kind on the part of congress would more than make up for the cash outlay necessary to pay the ex-soldiers, sailors and marines. He said that if congress would reduce the salaries of the congressmen and senators from $10,000 a year to $7,000, which they got until a few years ago, that it would go a long way toward making the payment. At the conclusion of his talk he offered the resolution, which was unanimously passed by rising vote.

The chairman made a short talk at the conclusion of the meeting in which he touched on the cash payment and in addition stated that the American Legion was doing much to help relieve the unemployment situation. He said that the local post, through its unemployment committee, had given more than 50 men one day's work at $2.50 a day.

BEER NOT WANTED AS A REVENUE RAISER

"An unbridled house" brushed aside a beer tax approval but approved a one cent a gallon levy on imported oil as part of the new income revenue bill. Texas is one of the greatest of oil producing states. Texans are vastly interested in the petroleum industry and higher price levels. A protective tariff has been the slogan of the republican party since its organization.

Now the home folks who produce petroleum insist if it is a good thing for the manufactured products it is a good thing for the petroleum refined and otherwise. Their argument is that the ports of entry have been practically closed to the products of foreign mines and mills and factories.

A tax on imports has been the play all along the line for years and years. A mighty argument has been that a high tariff protects American labor as well as the manufacturer or maker of things. If the argument, so they say, is flawless then a tax on oil, produced it is alleged by the cheapest of labor, is the thing for the real protection of American independent producers and their employes. It must be admitted that it is a poor rule that will not work both ways. A republican member of the house has introduced an amendment to the revenue corpse bill to strike out the tax on lubricants. His argument is that it will take out of the pockets of American consumers a total of $25,000,000 annually.

Well, a billion dollars has to be taken from the pockets of the American people. The other alternative is a new bond issue of a billion dollars or more to hit the deficit next year on the nose and knock it out, until prosperity returns and the jobless have been given jobs, the purchasing power of the farmer has been restored, the wheels of industry are flying, the factories and mills and mines are busy and the house of steel has been made again the great barometer of business activities the country over.

CONVERSION OF BIG BILL THOMPSON

Col. Big Bill Thompson of Chicago, for 12 years mayor of the Windy City and republican boss, has repented of his venial as well as cardinal sins, and has joined the Thorburn Methodist Episcopal church on the far south side of Chicago "to be a greater help to our city." There is a chance for repentance at the 11th hour and it is said somewhere "that the vilest sinner may return." Now Big Bill must have hidden away a program for the untrue to be revealed to a gasping and perhaps an admiring public should an emergency come. No doubt he will take the stage as a model reformer and do his level best to teach men how to live—even if it is impossible for him to teach them how to die.

Big Bill is college bred, his ancestors came over on the Mayflower, he believed for years in the political uplift for Big Bill and his followers and when he stepped down and out of high office Chicago was on the verge of bankruptcy. Otherwise, Big Bill is said to be a prince of good fellows, an ace among rabble rousers, the champion puller of the tail of the British lion under American skies, and the idol of the black battalions who are voters in the city that was built in the marshland of Lake Michigan.

SHEPPARD ON THE TRAIL OF JOHN

Senator Morris Sheppard of Texas never tires of camping on the trail of John Barleycorn. He has introduced three bills to strengthen the Volstead act and there will be senate hearings in the near future. First, he has a measure intended to punish the purchaser of liquor and another who produces intoxicants by allowing fruit juices to ferment in his home. As for a third, it would strike from a section of the Volstead law dealing with intoxicants a provision saying: "It shall not be unlawful to possess liquors in one's private dwelling." Senator Robertson of Indiana is chairman of the committee on hearing. He has let it be known that the Texas statesman "would testify in favor of his bill."

Of course, Senator Sheppard is ever on record. He is not "open minded" when it comes to prohibition and all that goes with prohibition. Moreover, he is not open minded when he is given the 50-cent test as to his regularity as a democrat. He is a participant in the primaries. He takes the pledge. He goes all the road. He bows to what is known as the wisdom of the majority.

COTTON GROWERS MAY BE HAPPY YET

A distinguished American chemist makes public a marvelous discovery. His research work has convinced him that gasoline may be obtained from cotton seed. In the early stages of his discovery the cost would be 30 cents a gallon but later along he hopes to attain additional light or information which will make the cotton seed gasoline as cheap, speaking of price, as that obtained from crude petroleum.

Paper manufacturers say that cotton stalks make a splendid pulp. If the day rolls around when cotton seed makes a splendid gasoline driving power for the millions, the cotton grower should find himself on easy street. Then the foreign market would be able to close up shop in so far as the buying or the selling of American cotton seed would be concerned.

CALLS FOR ABOLITION OF SHIPPING BOARD

President Hoover has called for the reorganization of the merchant marine activities. He is for the abolishment of the shipping board. This is his quaint argument: "The shipping board in its present form should be abolished, though this is not a criticism of the board itself." If it isn't a criticism, then a key should go with the argument. All taxpayers will agree to the proposal that hundreds of commissions and bureaus created in recent years should be abolished and this is a criticism of the commissions and boards and of their inefficiency and their cost to the people.

LAWMAKERS LAMMING THE LAME DUCKS

Main lawmakers wheeled into line when both houses of the Maine legislature approved the lame duck amendment to the federal constitution. This brought to nine the total number of states that have approved it. Thirty-six are necessary for adoption. When the fall call closes, 48 legislative bodies representing the people of 48 commonwealths will disclose unanimous ratification of the lame duck amendment. "This well. It was a long time coming."

WASHINGTON—While statesmen bellow in Capitol Hill, downtown Washington still rings with the echo of the police clubs which rained down on the heads of Communists who recently attempted to demonstrate in front of the Japanese embassy.

A Great Little Fight

OTHER reporters saw a motor cycle cop run down a fleeing Communist and, driving full tilt, knock him under a car. I didn't see that. I spent much time watching Joan Hardy, a tiny tigress, tussling with a big, old sergeant and others in a remarkably close fight. Some reports said she was finally knocked out by a policeman's fist, but I didn't see the blow. If there was one.

THE Communists insisted on their right to demonstrate and both plainclothes and uniformed men proceeded to grab the banners and arrest bearers.

Lawmakers Laming the Lame Ducks

Main lawmakers wheeled into line when both houses of the Maine legislature approved the lame duck amendment to the federal constitution. This brought to nine the total number of states that have approved it. Thirty-six are necessary for adoption. When the fall call closes, 48 legislative bodies representing the people of 48 commonwealths will disclose unanimous ratification of the lame duck amendment. "This well. It was a long time coming."

Anti-Hoarding Campaign Now Getting Response

By W. W. COPELAND,
United Press Staff Correspondent.
FORT WORTH.—The uniform manner in which Texas has responded to the anti-hoarding campaign indicates it will be one of the first states to shake off the prolonged business depression, believes A. P. Barrett, chairman of the Texas drive.

The whole-hearted co-operation in returning money to trade channels, coupled with the diversity of industry in Texas points toward this state being one of the first if not the leader in a return to normalcy, said Barrett.

While it is impossible for Barrett to determine the amount of money returned to circulation, he said bank reports from every part of the state had revealed sharp increases in deposits and the money put back into circulation would run into the hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Wide-awake merchants also are expressing their confidence in increased newspaper, radio and other forms of advertising, he pointed out. The return of money into trade channels is under way in all classes, capitalists and laborers, rural districts and cities, according to reports to Barrett.

Back To the Farm Movement Gains Favor in Texas
By United Press.
FORT WORTH.—The "back-to-the-farm" tendency, which already has caused many to desert the factory for the plow, has gained momentum in Texas with the advent of spring.

Statistics compiled by the federal land bank of Houston show that 77 per cent of the farms sold by it in 1931 were purchased by city dwellers. This represents only a small portion of those desiring to go to farms, he said, because a majority of them do not have funds or credit with which to buy.

Other factors which keep the unemployed from flocking from cities into the country are the lack of financial means to purchase tools and seed and because many lack sufficient knowledge of farming to insure themselves of food and clothing.

The Man Hunters

BY MABEL McELLIOTT

BEGIN HERE TODAY

HOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XII

Every time the telephone rang the next few days Susan's heart raced like a wild thing. But the days passed hope died. "Surely he'll call me just once again to say goodbye," she thought. Her moods veered from wild exhilaration to deepest gloom. At one moment she would be certain that she had been right about the possibility of feeling existing between herself and Bob Dunbar that day at Blackstone. Again she would be as certain she had been completely wrong. The flushes and evers and chills of first love possessed her. She moved like a person in a dream. Aunt Jessie's harpest speeches fell on deaf ears. "I declare I don't know what's got into you," her aunt would say, "Susan scarcely heard her. The never went out on the street at lunch hour, never joined the some-going through without exclaiming a sudden wild hope that she would see the face she sought to hear that deep, remembered voice. This was the thought that colored all her days. It made even the hot, tiresome journey back and forth on stifling street cars endurable. Today—it might be today, she would think! He would telephone and finish what he had started to all her week ago. But at last her dream died. That was the morning Susan read in a newspaper gossip column, the name familiar to her from the printed page, that Bob Dunbar had sailed for Europe. She was so white and still that morning that even Pier-

Pony Harrison Announces For Justice Peace

T. W. (Pony) Harrison, for 31 years a school teacher, business man, banker and well known citizen of Eastland county, has announced his candidacy for the office of justice of the peace of precinct 2.

Mr. Harrison is an old-time resident of the county and is known by practically every man and woman in this part of the county. He came to Eastland county 31 years ago and for a time taught school. In 1900 he was associated with the William Bohning company, where he remained until the company was sold in 1903.

In 1903 he, together with W. T. Garrett and J. F. Dreinhof, organized the Ranger Mercantile company, which bought part of the Bohning stock and of which Mr. Harrison was president. This establishment was many friends over a wide area and practically everyone from Graham to Lingleville knew and traded with the company.

Mr. Harrison was head of the Ranger Mercantile company until 1907, when it was consolidated with the C. R. Brock company, which had purchased the remainder of the Bohning stock. When Mr. Harrison sold his interest in the Brock concern he moved to Eastland, where he was in business for a number of years.

During the World war he was a member of the local draft board and devoted a good portion of his

Refrigeration By Electricity Booms During Year 1931

Electric refrigeration owes its phenomenal growth to aggressive advertising in the newspapers of the country, according to Mr. Barham, manager of the local Montgomery Ward store. He points out that current business surveys show that sales for electric refrigerators have sky-rocketed in the last few years similar to the automobile a decade ago. Mr. Barham states that $25,000,000 was spent in 1931 on newspaper advertising for this product.

Montgomery Ward & Co., explains the local manager, are now advertising TruKold, their new electric refrigerator, from coast to coast. The refrigerators recently put on display at his store have attracted people from 40 miles distant, always developing considerable interest.

"Engineers have made this modern type of refrigeration more desirable than ever to the American public," said Mr. Barham. "Yet wide sales throughout the country and better factory methods have lowered the cost within the means of the average man." Similar to automobiles, which were once considered luxuries, electric refrigeration has been improved and its costs to the public lowered, with the result that one-sixth of American families have installed it.

"Our many customers," continued Mr. Barham, "are always pleased to hear of the rapid forward stride in this new field. For instance, our product, the TruKold, is entirely automatic, so that the electric current is used only about one-fourth of the time. Our engineers have provided eight different freezing speeds for different kinds of desserts, ices, etc.

"We are glad that in these days of enforced economies, through wide newspaper advertising, the American public can be shown the effectiveness of TruKold refrigeration for the average home. Everything points to greater sales in the coming year, because of the new models and splendid features."

Maine republicans have endorsed a dry plank. Well, all of us are not that close to Canada.

A FEW YEARS ago, when I was weak and nervous, when my color was bad and I was in need of a tonic, my mother gave me Cardui, and it seemed to strengthen and build me up, so that I am glad to tell other ladies of its benefit.—Mrs. Chas. W. Gibson, Brinkley, Ark.

Broadway America Motorcade Will Stop in Ranger

Special Correspondent.

EL PASO.—Details for the Broadway of America motorcade from Broadway, New York city, to Broadway, San Diego, are working out rapidly. F. O. Mackey, president of the Broadway, said here today. The motorcade will leave New York early the morning of May 3, reaching San Diego the night of May 12. The convention will be held in San Diego May 13 and 14.

Several hundred cars will be in line when the motorcade rolls into San Diego, Mr. Mackey said. San Diego, through the Chamber of Commerce, San Diego California club and the Automobile Club of Southern California, is arranging an elaborate program of entertainment for the delegates.

E. H. Greene, secretary of the Colorado, Texas, Chamber of Commerce, has announced that the famous Gold Medal Band of Colorado, the official Broadway band, will join the motorcade at Colorado and will be available for band concerts at stepping points en route to San Diego. The band will play for the convention.

A miniature motorcade, headed by President Mackey, will leave El Paso April 25 for New York, to form the nucleus for the motorcade leaving the metropolis. Mr. Mackey and his associates will visit every city on the route and make arrangements for the returning motorcade. Several cars from the Pacific coast will make the trip eastward, distributing literature on the Broadway and convention itself.

The motorcade, bound for San Diego will arrive at Ranger at 11:45 a. m., on Sunday, May 8, and will remain one hour and 15 minutes, stopping for lunch in Ranger.

"This motorcade will not be a speed race but will afford plenty of time to see the interesting places along the route," Mr. Mackey said. "We plan a safe, one motorcade, at reasonable speedy pace, without the petty annoyances usually found on a cross-country journey."

Nebraska Has Long Primary Ballot Today

By Donald Pease.

LINCOLN, Neb., April 12.—Actuated by a growing interest in governmental affairs, particularly as they concern matters of taxation, Nebraska voters went to the polls today to pass upon one of the longest lists of candidates ever filed in the state primary.

Heading the ballot and of great interest are three democratic candidates for presidential preference. The three are Franklin D. Roosevelt, of New York; John N. Garner, of Texas; and William H. (Alfalfa) Bill Murray, of Oklahoma.

Ostensibly, the Nebraska vote on presidential preference will indicate where the support of the Nebraska delegation shall rest at the democratic national convention in Chicago. Actually, however, the presidential preference primary has seldom been the determining factor in the action of the Nebraska delegation.

The greatest interest is in the gubernatorial nomination. Democratic incumbent, Charles W. Bryan, is seeking renomination and election. He has been careful to make no declaration on the democratic presidential race.

Opposing him are William Ritchie Jr., of Omaha, a politically untried attorney and veteran of the World war; George Walter Olson, of Plattsmouth and James Franklin Christie, Omaha.

Even more numerous are the republicans who seek the honor. Six candidates have entered the race.

Most active have been Kenneth S. Wherry, of Pawnee City, garage owner, and Dwight Griawold, of Gordon, newspaper publisher, former state legion commander and state legislator.

The race for nomination on the democratic ticket as candidate for congressman from the new fourth congressional district has been hot.

The last state legislature reduced the congressional districts from six to five. In so doing, it placed in the fourth district Congressman Ashton C. Shaflensberger and J. N. Norton. Elam Peterson.

TEXAS LEAGUE SEASON OPENS ON WEDNESDAY

By GEORGE HUCKABY.

United Press Staff Correspondent DALLAS, April 12.—Opening of the thirty-first annual Texas league pennant campaign is scheduled for Wednesday when seven clubs will be out hoping to make a running start to head off the Houston Buffaloes (of the St. Louis Cardinals) and keep that club from winning its second consecutive pennant in the league.

Houston, with its strong connections that already have proven

Opening day games in each city of the Texas league, call for the following schedule: Wednesday, Fort Worth at Dallas. Wichita Falls at Shreveport. Galveston at Houston. San Antonio at Beaumont. Thursday, Dallas at Fort Worth. Friday, Shreveport at Wichita Falls. Beaumont at Galveston. Houston at San Antonio.

While hoping for better attendance records because the larger cities — Dallas, Houston, Fort Worth and San Antonio—figure to be up in the running, magnates in the circuit are entering into the new campaign with a fearful attitude. However, with the exception of Houston in the south, they do not plan to begin night baseball until the first or middle of May, although the Pacific coast loop found it advisable to turn on the lights from the start in order to lure the paid patrons through their turnstiles.

President Gardner, will witness three opening day games. For the first time in history, he plans to be on hand when the gong sounds in Dallas Wednesday. Then he will go to Fort Worth for the opening there Thursday and then to Galveston Friday when the Pirates blast the lid off their home season.

Several new umpires will make their appearance in the loop this year as a result of the sale to the Pacific Coast league of colorful Harry Kane, to the National league of George Barr, and several releases. These arbiters will convene with President Gardner in Dallas today for their annual dinner, at which he will be host and for their final instructions.

PHILADELPHIA.—An additional entry from the University of Florida and signed entry from the University of Iowa, Duquesne college, Ohio Wesleyan, West Virginia university, and Boston college have been received for the annual Penn relay carnival.

Nash Higgins, coach of the Florida track squad, entered Joseph Hall, all-around star, of the one-mile relay team. Some time ago he nominated Joseph Jenkins in the discus throw.

TEXAS LEAGUE SEASON OPENS ON WEDNESDAY

By GEORGE HUCKABY.

United Press Staff Correspondent DALLAS, April 12.—Opening of the thirty-first annual Texas league pennant campaign is scheduled for Wednesday when seven clubs will be out hoping to make a running start to head off the Houston Buffaloes (of the St. Louis Cardinals) and keep that club from winning its second consecutive pennant in the league.

Houston, with its strong connections that already have proven

Opening day games in each city of the Texas league, call for the following schedule: Wednesday, Fort Worth at Dallas. Wichita Falls at Shreveport. Galveston at Houston. San Antonio at Beaumont. Thursday, Dallas at Fort Worth. Friday, Shreveport at Wichita Falls. Beaumont at Galveston. Houston at San Antonio.

While hoping for better attendance records because the larger cities — Dallas, Houston, Fort Worth and San Antonio—figure to be up in the running, magnates in the circuit are entering into the new campaign with a fearful attitude. However, with the exception of Houston in the south, they do not plan to begin night baseball until the first or middle of May, although the Pacific coast loop found it advisable to turn on the lights from the start in order to lure the paid patrons through their turnstiles.

President Gardner, will witness three opening day games. For the first time in history, he plans to be on hand when the gong sounds in Dallas Wednesday. Then he will go to Fort Worth for the opening there Thursday and then to Galveston Friday when the Pirates blast the lid off their home season.

Several new umpires will make their appearance in the loop this year as a result of the sale to the Pacific Coast league of colorful Harry Kane, to the National league of George Barr, and several releases. These arbiters will convene with President Gardner in Dallas today for their annual dinner, at which he will be host and for their final instructions.
