UNITED PRESS FULL LEASED WIRE SERVICE BRINGS THE WORLD'S NEWS TO THE RANGER TIMES
RANGER, TEXAS, SUNDAY MORNING, JUNE 19, 1932

American men are saps, a British novelist says. Well, he needn't think that's very original. Wall Street found that out years ago.

DEMOCRATS ORGANIZE TO OUST HOOVER

PEEPING THRU THE KNOTHOLE

with BILL MAYES

D. W. "Buzz" Johnson has an idea. Which makes news. The idea Buzz has is to form an Eastland County Veterans Political League. As we understand it, the veterans to be veterans of the World War, Spanish American War, Civil War and veterans of other wars, if any. And the organization is to start a war on candidates who are elected to office and do not fulfill their promises, or something of the kind. We do not have the information we should have in order to write an intelligent explanation of the league, but Buzz thinks it should be a good thing and should be put into effect. The league is to dabble in politics a little and attempt to take politics out of government or the government out of politics or do whatever it is that should be done or prevent officers from doing things they should not do, lower taxes, cut down government expense and be a general cure-all for all the ills and evils, if any, of our present system of government, federal, state, county and city.

How a league could accomplish all this and whether this is the intention of those fostering the idea is not known. Anyway Buzz was expressing from as many veterans as possible and if there is any interest in the movement an organization will no doubt be formed. For full details, and Buzz is probably full of details because he has talked to many, apply to D. W. Johnson and he can tell you all about it.

At the request of the B. E. Garner, manager of the Columbia theatre, we are refraining from printing the story about the man getting too close to the cooling system in the theatre Saturday afternoon and getting both feet frozen. He said that he got in touch with Gus and the two of them walked him around on Austin street and got him thawed out by any material damage was done.

Speaking of the veterans political league reminds us that it is not to be as radical as Dr. C. Craig. After listening to him a few minutes Saturday afternoon W. C. Hickey was looking for a red flag for him. Dr. Craig said he believed there should be a law providing a death penalty for anyone who stole more than $50 or property of that value, and that under $50 there should be a penalty of one year in prison for each dollar. A man stealing a 10-cent article, according to Doc's criminal code, would be given 10 days, 25 days for a 25-cent theft and on up the scale.

The argument was put up that if such a law was passed all the lock manufacturers would be forced out of business and the manufacturers of plate glass windows would all go broke because there would be no need of their wares as a merchant could display diamonds in his show window without any glass in front and never have fear of anything being stolen. Doc would all go broke because there would be no need of their wares as a merchant could display diamonds in his show window without any glass in front and never have fear of anything being stolen. Doc would all go broke because there would be no need of their wares as a merchant could display diamonds in his show window without any glass in front and never have fear of anything being stolen.

W. D. Conway says that he is holding a $25 hot check given him nearly a year ago by office. He says that he is not going to tell which candidate it is, at present, but he hopes that he will come in and pay him sometime before election so that he won't have to make his name public and cause him to lose the election.

Note to Mr. Conway: Our usual fees on collections is 10 per cent.

Two Ranger Girls Injured in Fall

Mildred Balch, 7-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Balch, and Doris May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. May, both of Ranger, were painfully hurt Saturday afternoon when they were thrown from a horse which the two little girls were riding.

Little Miss Balch was knocked unconscious for a few minutes but was soon revived and taken home, where an examination showed that her injuries were not serious.

Miss May received a sprained arm.

Bishop Cannon in Prohibition Plea

Embattled leader of the nation's dry forces, Bishop James Cannon, Jr., is shown here as he addressed a "loyalty convention" of prohibition organizations in Chicago.

Wets who challenged him during his speech were ushered from the church which was the scene of the

Eastland To Have Community Canning Plant

Dr. Tanner, chairman of the Eastland Chamber of Commerce, held a meeting of the board of directors yesterday at the Connelley hotel for the purpose of discussing a proposed community cannery in Eastland. Miss Ruth Ramey, local home demonstration agent, affiliated with the county agricultural agent, gave a talk on the benefits of community canneries.

The committee appointed, with Dr. Tanner as its head, was Dr. J. H. Cason, O. E. Harvey, Grady Pipkin, and Miss Ramey. The committee motored to Cisco to inspect the cannery there this morning.

As a whole, the committee seemed very favorable to the idea, and Dr. Tanner says that immediate steps will be taken to procure the necessary equipment. The operations of the cannery must be necessarily small, the location to be at the rooms of the local Chamber of Commerce and in all probability within the very near future.

The following rates are quoted by Dr. Tanner, subject to change:

Beans, Tomatoes, etc.
Canned for cash: Patron furnishes cans, sugar, prepares berries. Charge for canning: 1c per No. 1 can, 2c per No. 2 can, 2 1/2c per No. 3 can.

Share canning: Patron furnishes all cans, sugar, prepares berries. Charge for canning: 1c per No. 1 can, 2c per No. 2 can, 2 1/2c per No. 3 can.

Share canning: Cannery furnishes cans and sugar; patron prepares berries. Charge for canning: 1/2c per No. 1 can, 2c per No. 2 can, 2 1/2c per No. 3 can.

Meats—Beef and Pork
Meats should be canned during winter months or after the meat has been kept in a good ice vault for 36 hours or longer. Remove meat from vault in small quantities; not more than can be canned in an hour.

Canned for cash: Patron furnishes all cans, lard, seasoning, etc., prepares meat and assists with canning. Charge for canning: 1 1/2c per No. 1 can, 2c per No. 2 can, 2 1/2c per No. 3 can.

Funeral Held For C. Gray Saturday

Clyde Gray, aged about 40, resident of the Lackland addition and was buried Saturday afternoon and was buried Saturday in Evergreen cemetery. Rev. H. B. Johnson of the First Christian church officiated at the funeral. Gray was a married man and left a family.

LONE STAR TO HAVE PICNIC ON JULY 9TH

The third annual picnic for the employees of the Lone Star Gas company, Lone Star Gasoline company, Community Natural Gas company and the Stamford Western Gas company will be held at Lake Cisco on July 9, it was announced in Ranger today by Hal Hunter. It is expected that between 2,500 and 3,000 employees and friends of the companies will be present, representing organizations in Texas and Oklahoma.

The program for the day will start with a golf tournament at 1 o'clock in the afternoon. Sam Gamble and Ira Wolford will have charge of this portion of the entertainment.

A bridge tournament will be held at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. It will be in charge of Mrs. Sam Gamble, Mrs. Cecil Louk, Mrs. E. K. Smith, Mrs. Johnny Ducker and Mrs. Jeff Mills.

At p. m., a tennis tournament will be held. The committee, in charge of the arrangements, are Russell, Tom Shafer and Scottie Mullins.

From 6 to 7 in the evening a band concert will be held by the Lone Star band, followed by a bucket lunch from 7 to 8 o'clock. From 9 until 12 o'clock a dance will be held at the Cisco Country clubhouse.

Eastland Plans Golf Tournament On July 2 to 4

The Eastland Golf and Country club has outlined plans for a golf tournament July 2, 3 and 4. All members of the club are invited to the tournament.

C. Aubrey Cheatham is secretary for the arrangements and committee members include: tournament and rules, W. I. Clark, F. W. Blatt, L. V. Witchee and Lonnie King. Calcutta pool, J. E. Lewis, Harry B. Porter, and Carl A. Angstadt.

Entertainment will be arranged by August and C. A. Herbig. Trophies are in charge of C. A. Cheatham; greens, F. W. Blatt.

On Saturday, July 2, from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m., will be qualifying rounds. The tournament will be held at the clubhouse for qualifying score cards. Mr. Cheatham stated the qualifying round must be completed and the tournament will be held on Sunday, July 3, from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. Local registration will be at the clubhouse for qualifying score cards.

Other programs will be announced later for Sunday and Monday. Prizes will be arranged for all qualifiers. This is especially called to the attention of the club and its friends.

Monterrey Votes To Be Counted At End of Contest

Contrary to some reports regarding the counting of the votes and the publishing of the standings of the contestants in the Monterrey contest, there will be no counting and no publishing of the standings until the close of the contest.

Entrants in the contest were told this at the start, and several ladies entered only on the guarantee of the paper that no relative standings be published. This policy is followed strictly and no entrant need worry over being embarrassed by having her name published with relative standing in the contest.

Contestants are requested to exchange their votes for large denomination votes weekly at the campaign headquarters. This saves them the time and trouble of writing their names on so many ballots. It also saves time at the counting of them when the contest ends. No votes of smaller denominations that 500 will be considered in the final counting of the ballots. It is preferable that votes in the 2000 denomination be placed in the ballot box to facilitate ease in counting.

No Monkeying With His Cold!

Solemnly contemplating his doctors through the glass window of a mechanical "june," Buddy, ailing chimpanzee of New York's Bronx Park Zoo, has his cold treated while the camera clicks. This was the first public demonstration of the zoo's method of treating coughs, colds and other maladies by releasing soothing fumes of eucalyptus or tincture of benzoin into a vaporizer in which the animal patient is seated.

TROOPS GUARD SANTIAGO AS REVOLT LOOMS

SANTIAGO, Chile, June 18.—Troops patrolled the city and machine guns were mounted on the presidential palace today to prevent an uprising against the revolutionary regime of Carlos Devilla, head of the Socialist Junta.

Extensive tramway and railroad strikes, a walkout of 4,900 hands of the Braden Copper corporation and other labor organizations to the new regime were added today.

So far there was no organized outbreak and no casualties.

Authorities took every precaution and the atmosphere was tense. Precautions were increased this afternoon and troops guarded the airplane base because of a rumored attempt against the Junta.

Five Indicted By Gregg Grand Jury

LONGVIEW, Tex., June 18.—Grand jury indictments naming five men for participation in oil thefts from a well in the southern part of Gregg county where on file here tonight.

The four men arrested at Kilgore last night by national guardsmen were indicted, and a fifth man not yet apprehended. The indictments named A. Carter, L. R. Chism, Lon Wright and D. N. Franklin.

Dawes Says Country Is On Way Back

CHICAGO, June 18.—Charles G. Dawes, retiring president of the reconstruction finance corporation, expressed the belief on arriving here today that the country has reached "the turning point" in the depression.

Dawes based his prediction on the general improvement in the small business enterprises of the country in the formal statement issued here which was treated with a good deal of significance because of the close insight he has had into business conditions as head of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

Olympic Tryout Sets New Record

PORTLAND, Ore., June 18.—Helene Madison, Seattle aquatic star, established a new world record for the 50-meter free style swim in the Olympic trials at Jantzen Beach pool today. Her time was 30.3 seconds. The former record was 31 seconds.

DOUBLE POPULATION.

JONESVILLE, Wis.—The population of this village in southeastern Wisconsin was doubled with the arrival of one family—a man, his wife and their 13 children. Previously the town had 17 residents.

BONUS ARMY TO STAY IN WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, June 18.—Unrest stirred in the ranks of the bonus expeditionary force today tattered veterans, their dreams of a cash bonus shattered, began a grim struggle to impress their plight upon the nation.

In answer to a summons from their commander-in-chief, the veterans swarmed over the Anacostia mud flats to a huge rally, called to strengthen their morale after the senate's death-blow to the bonus bill last night.

Walter W. Waters, leader of the army of 5,000 destitute veterans, demanded that the men pledge themselves to remain in Washington "until the bonus is paid."

With a great shout the veterans raised their hands. Their attitude so far has been peaceful, but as thousands of them swarmed about the capital during the senate debate, a lawless, lawless since the war, hung over the capital.

TWO KILLED, FIFTEEN HURT IN CAR WRECK

TUCSON, Ariz., June 18.—Southern California's bonus army, underled by defeat of the bonus bill in the United States Senate, was to push on from Tucson to Douglas, Ariz., today.

The cavalcade of automobiles and trucks clattered into Tucson yesterday after a desert drive from Phoenix, where some 50 men classed as "radicals" and "undesirables" were ousted from the army's ranks.

The men were quartered in a public park as guests of the city permitted to swim in a nearby pool and furnished with food supplies.

Ranger Golfers In Cisco Tourney

D. A. Harkrider of Ranger was medalist in the first annual invitational golf tournament of the Cisco Country Club when he shot a 69 for the 18 holes, three under par.

J. S. Hrimberry, of Ranger, won the driving contest, shooting a total of 51 1/2 yards on three drives.

Rosendahl Does Not Know When He Is To Go Out To Sea

LAKEHURST, N. J., June 18.—J. J. Commander Charles E. Rosendahl, commander of the navy dirigible Akron, which returned from a 28-day trip to the west coast for maneuvers with the Pacific fleet, said today that he does not know when he will relinquish the command of the airship and depart for sea duty on the West Virginia.

Quake Shakes Central Mexico

MEXICO CITY, June 18.—A strong earthquake shook central western Mexico today and reports over disrupted communication lines tonight indicated the property loss might have been considerable with possible casualties.

The shock was felt here and to a lesser degree in Vera Cruz indicating that it extended from coast to coast.

Auditor Named For Dallas County

DALLAS, June 18.—John I. Crosthwaite, 41, a native of this city, tonight was the newly appointed auditor of Dallas county, replacing Charles E. Gross, who resigned last week.

Y.M.C.A. Leader For Liquor Test

Latest ardent dry to favor reconsideration of the liquor question in the United States is Dr. John R. Mott (above), of New York, president of the International Missionary Council and of the World's Alliance of the Y. M. C. A. Holding that the good results of prohibition outweigh its evils, Dr. Mott, now in London, Eng., urged prohibition be put to a non-political vote after an educational campaign to give the electors a choice between the present system and a definite alternative plan.

State Patrolmen Start Drive On Defective Lights

The state patrol of the highway department is starting a drive next week on all drivers who have insufficient lights. According to the police, chief offenders are those who drive with but one headlight or those who have no tail light. This warning is issued to those drivers who are not victims of circumstance, but those who are regular offenders. Another of the regulations the public as a whole are confused on is the proper signaling of the drive. In the near future the proper signals shall be shown. The driving public must conform to the regulations set forth by the department of police for their own benefit as well as the general safety of the community.

Headquarters of Hoover To Be In New York, Chicago

WASHINGTON, June 18.—President Hoover today issued a formal statement declaring his campaign headquarters will be established at Chicago and New York and that he "will not take part in the forthcoming campaign" for his reelection.

The President's statement said he would, however, make a "few major addresses expounding policies of the administration."

Candidates Form Headquarters In Chicago Hotel

CHICAGO, June 18.—Business began to pick up today along "candidates row" in the Congress hotel, where numerous seekers after the democratic presidential nomination have arranged headquarters for the duration of their forthcoming party convention.

The first blast of the intra-party struggle came when a representative of Speaker John N. Garner made the barbed suggestion that Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt's campaign manager should be awarded the political decoration of the order of the "double cross."

Special Train Is Carrying Woman To N. Y. Hospital

SAN ANTONIO, June 18.—Gen. Plutarco Elias Calles' special train rushing his sick wife to New York overtook the regular Missouri Pacific train after passing here and the two private cars were attached. The train is due at St. Louis at 11:20 p. m. today after passing through Longview, Texas, and Little Rock.

Farmers Held In Extortion Plot

SULPHUR SPRINGS, Texas, June 18.—J. V. Webb, 50, and Henry Wilson, 26, farmers, were jailed here today on charges of attempted extortion after a futile attempt had been made to obtain $3,000 from Mrs. Sid Graves, 65, wealthy widow living at Cumby, 10 miles west of here.

The two men were arrested by officers concealed near the culvert in which a son and a daughter of Mrs. Graves had placed a dummy package in accordance with a note received two days ago by their mother. The note, a penciled affair, came through the mail.

CAMPAIGN TO BE CENTERED ON PRESIDENT

Shouse Says Blame Must Fall On Shoulders of Mr. Hoover.

By RAYMOND CLAPPER, United Press Staff Correspondent.
CHICAGO, June 18.—A democratic keynote that President Hoover must accept responsibility before the voters without any plea for pity was sounded tonight by Joust Shouse, chairman of the democratic national executive committee.

As democratic leaders assembled early for their national convention, which begins here a week from Monday, it was apparent that the party's campaign will aim its guns straight at the white house and keep them trained there.

Herbert Hoover is to be the democratic issue.

This was forecast in an address by Shouse tonight.

"Whatever the faults of democratic members of congress," Shouse said, "whatever the faults of republican members of congress in either house or senate, Herbert Hoover cannot escape the responsibility that was his, the duty that he neglected to attempt to find sane and reasonable remedies for the situation that existed."

"Upon his shoulders rests this blame and he will not be allowed to escape by any attempted perversion of facts or any spacious plea for pity."

Many key figures of the democratic party were due here within the next 48 hours. Roosevelt headquarters were to be opened over the week-end under the direction of James A. Farley, New York state chairman.

Roosevelt's bitter foe, his former political partner, former Governor Alfred E. Smith, is expected Tuesday. National Chairman John J. Raskob, Smith's ally, is due at the same time.

Other candidates, including Speaker Garner of Texas, Governor Ritchie of Maryland, Governor Murray of Oklahoma, Governor White of Ohio, former Senator Byrd of Virginia, former Senator Reed of Missouri, and possibly some others are arranging headquarters on "candidates row" in the lake front hotels.

As the advance contingents arrived the approaching struggle to "top" Roosevelt's overshadowed even the prohibition controversy.

Local Paper Beats State Papers on Many News Stories

No newspaper can always be the first to have news of every event before other papers get it printed, but this paper consistently has late news of importance from other papers reaching this section of the country. This is made possible because the paper is printed and distributed in the afternoon, not printed in the morning and distributed that afternoon.

For instance, on June 14 this paper had this heading on the front page:

"Congressman Dies in Midst of Bonus Speech."

The Dallas News of June 15, the following day, had the following heading on the front page:

"Death During Bonus Debate Holds Up Vote."

The Star-Telegram of the same date, June 15, had a heading that read:

"Death Delays Vote on Bonus."

In the issue of June 16 the banner, or main headline, of the paper read:

"Hoover Nominated By Republicans."

And in the Star-Telegram of the following day, June 17, the banner read:

"Republicans Unite Behind Hoover-Curtis Ticket."

On the same day, June 16, the paper carried a story about a shell-shocked war veteran shooting two army officers under the heading:

"Two Army Officers Shot By Veteran."

ALLRED AND HIS OIL SUIT

Attorney General James V. Allred, in his pending suits against eleven of the major oil factors, can well afford to exercise discretion. According to the "Gulf Coast Lumberman," the oil industry last year paid 56.8 per cent of the total state revenue from taxation. The eleven defendants in the suits represent approximately 80 per cent of the industry, upon which it is estimated that more than 10 per cent of the Texas citizenship is directly dependent for their livelihood.

Assuming that the attorney general is right and that the indictments he charges against these defendants are correct and that he is able to prove in court that when these defendants agreed to follow a specified code of ethics they were violating the Texas Anti-Trust law; were the Texas statutes designed to demand the most extreme penalty for such transgressions? Would it not seem more expedient, particularly in days of economic stress such as these, to consider the attorney general's function one of regulation, rather than penalization?

Attorney General Allred is asking for fines, cancellation of charter and permanent expulsion from the state. Under the laws of Texas, a Texas corporation convicted and punished in this manner cannot be acquired and carried on by other corporations.

With the oil industry as vital a factor in Texas economic welfare as it is at present, it is our belief that Attorney General Allred should look well to possible consequences in demanding such a devastating penalty for the alleged violations of Texas Anti-Trust statutes.

We believe that in the prosecution of the duties of the attorney general's office, foresight should tincture his action, since the scales of industry are so delicately adjusted at this time that unanticipated reactions detrimental to public welfare might result from blind adherence to the punitive possibilities of the statutes.

SPEAKER GARNER'S PUBLIC WORKS BILL VOTED OVER THE HOUSE TOP

Speaker Garner's public works bill passed over the house top and was sent to the senate. Five or six democrats defied the action of the caucus and a dozen republicans deserted their reservation and voted for the Garner measure. Passing the buck is a great game. Now what will the senate do? There is a Hoover program pending. Will the Hoover proposal be side-tracked, and the Garner measure substituted? If so, will the president veto it? Buck passing is the outstanding congressional sport. Samuel G. Blythe, political correspondent of the Saturday Evening Post, furnished the readers of that weekly an interesting interview with Ex-Gov. Frank O. Lowden of Illinois, one of the outstanding gladiators of public thought in America. This former governor who was the first executive in the nation to smash bureaus and commissions and consolidate many departments into a very limited number, predicts that prohibition and taxation will be the issues to be settled at the ballot box in November and that a vast majority of the voters of the nation have scant respect for the bogus party trademarks of bygone years. Lowden is a thinker and a statesman. He was the best and the least costly governor that Illinois has known. He is neither hidebound nor water-bound. It is his deliberate opinion, expressed without stuttering or stammering, that there will be a realignment of parties and that the congressional backpassers are as badly frightened as startled jackrabbits on a Western prairie.

POTSHOTTING THE POLITICIANS

Florida democrats elected 18 delegates to the Chicago convention and all straight out Roosevelt-for-president advocates. Mississippi elected delegates to the Chicago convention, to a man pledged to vote for Roosevelt for president and to keep a dry or wet declaration out of the platform.

Senator Smith Wildman Brookhart of Iowa carried his political pitcher to the well once too often, and drowning in the well was his fate. Henry Fields, head of a million dollar seed company, a farmer and a dry, won the republican nomination. Henry Fields knows every farmer in Iowa. He is the biggest seed merchant in the Middle West, or the Mississippi river section. He owns one of the model farms of Iowa. His wife, while the campaign was on, kept open house. She fed all comers chicken stew. There must have been a tremendous slaughter of chickens, as thousands visited the Fields' farm, filled their stomachs and made hearty pledges to place the husband of Mrs. Fields in the senate of the United States.

Another thorn removed from the rib of National Committeeman Rene B. Creager, the leader as well as the boss of Texas republicans. There is a hint in the political haunts of Texas that Thomas B. Love may be selected by Creager and his cohorts as their nominee for governor should certain things happen in the July primary or the August runoff.

John D. Rockefeller Jr.'s message to the American public is the topnotch subject of discussion the nation over. Ultra-dry, everywhere, are up in arms and are hurling their maledictions as well as their threats at the platform makers of the major parties. Is there going to be a showdown in 1932? ON WITH THE BATTLE.

DICTATOR DAVILA HAS A PROGRAM

Dictator Davila of the socialist government of Chile plans to place all Chilean unemployed to work within a month by taxing fortunes and big incomes. He will create three state companies—one for agriculture, one industrial and one mining. Each of these companies will employ the unemployed of Chile. He will put on the fortunes of rich people and upon those who have big incomes sufficient taxes to bring in the money he needs for that purpose. He denied that church property would be taken over. This Stalin of Chile is going "to sock it to the rich. Dictator Davila makes no bones of his intentions. Speaking of the so-called rich" of Chile, he said, "They have had all the privileges, all the money, and they never pay taxes. They are going to pay them now and provide life and happiness for those people who have been trod on and kept down by the selfish money class." Americans have investments estimated at $2,000,000,000 in Chile. Americans made wild gains there in recent years. Now what will happen to their investments?

And We Thought They Were Loaded for Bear!

Judge Davenport Announces For 91st District Bench

To Citizens of Eastland County: In presenting my claims for reelection as judge of the 91st District Court, I am not unmindful of the many courtesies you have extended me in the past and of the splendid cooperation you have given me in connection with my work. I fully realize that my degree of success I may have attained can be attributed largely to your unselfish help and assistance. I realize fully that throughout the many trying experiences of the past, incident to the duties of the office I hold, I have always been able to rely upon your sound judgment and wise counsel. You have always responded willingly when called to do service through the courts and have rendered a valuable service to the court and to my country. For this I am profoundly grateful.

Prior to the time I became your District Judge I had had a long experience in the practice of law in this State, and during that time I have served in this capacity I have tried and disposed of one of the largest dockets, both civil and criminal, of any district court in the State. Many of the cases tried have involved millions of dollars in property values. I have likewise presided over many important criminal cases that are still fresh in your minds and just, fair in my rulings and decisions to all alike, striving at all times to accord to everyone that prompt, fair and impartial trial which is guaranteed by the laws and constitution of our State. How well I have succeeded in this is a matter for your determination. Every citizen of course is interested in the efficiency of the courts and realizes that it is necessary to select from the lawyers of the county one to preside over your court who, from experience and training, is qualified, and whose honesty can not be questioned, who, by nature, has been endowed with judicial poise and temperament. As a consequence of the above requirements the usual political methods of frequent changes in office have not been favored in the selection of men for this important office.

If you believe I possess these qualities, I will appreciate your vote and influence.

GEO. L. DAVENPORT.

Political Follies of 1932

BY RODNEY DUTCHER, NEA Service Writer

CHICAGO.—Who said Hoover was unpopular? Until the Republican convention here the theory was that his popularity was at its height in 1928 and had waned a lot since. But now one must reconcile that theory with the fact that every regular Republican who opposed his nomination four years ago was found in the Hoover camp when the 1932 convention opened—and some of those who once most bitterly attacked him are now among his enlists.

Senator L. J. Dickinson, the key voter himself, was one of those who inveighed against Hoover as a leader of the ill-fated Lowden movement of 25. Senator Jim Watson of Indiana, who was hurling all sorts of mean names when he himself was a candidate, would have been here whooping for Hoover had he not been so busy defending Hoover policies as party floor leader in Washington.

Charlie Curtis, another '28 candidate who had assured the party that it might as well fold up and quit if it were going to nominate Hoover, was anxiously seeking a renomination for vice president.

One could name many more such who contributed to the unanimity for Hoover. It seems to prove that a lot of the boys were dead wrong about him—or that there really is such a thing as practical politics, after all.

In the Shop Windows

THE main windows and inside showcases of a large store in the Congress Hotel, which was convention headquarters, featured (exclusively) all the deplorable scandal books about Hoover and the Republicans that have been published in the last couple of years. And an automobile showroom in the hotel, facing on Michigan avenue, displayed large pictures of Al Smith, Speaker Jack Garner and Newton D. Baker.

All About a Button

WET and dry leaders, here for the platform fight, spent a lot of the time posing for newspaper pictures. Most of them were willing to stand on their heads if requested.

All except the famous Bishop Cannon, who did his best to elude the photographers. Handsome, alluring wet ladies were all over the place, trying to pin huge celluloid "Repeat" buttons on one's lapel. A photographer approached one of the nationally known elderly dry ladies, asking the privilege of taking her picture. She spotted one of those buttons on his coat. She said: "Are you a drunkard? Have you no respect for your mother? If you will take that button off and throw it away I will let you take my picture. I will not allow any man to take a picture who wears such a button." The photographer, who might have been a little more graceful about it but apparently decided to remain loyal to the slurping wet lady who had tagged him, refused to do anything of the kind.

Racketeers Still With Us

EXPERTS on the subject report that despite the incarceration of Mr. Capone, the syndicate which the gentleman left behind him is stronger than ever. All the racketeers which made Chicago famous, one is informed, still flourish despite local activities of Uncle Sam and a change in Chicago's municipal government from Republican to Democratic.

The racketeers still walk in on speakeasy proprietors and successfully instruct them to take so much beer, so much whisky and so much alcohol per week. And even cigars and ginger ale. Not in all parts of town, but most.

Convention "Prices"

IN accordance with time-honored pre-convention custom, Republican prohibition enforcers staged numerous raids in the Loop district and made that section "tight" during the convention period. That stimulated a considerable bottle delivery service of poor liquor at high prices—eight dollars a pint for medium rye whisky was often asked.

Someone, for goodness knows what reason, left the following price list in your correspondent's room: Bottled beer, $12 per case. Four bon, $6 a pint, $109 a case. Scotch, $10 per fifth, $109 a case. "High-grade Scotch," $11 and $115. "Baccardi" rum, $11 and $109. Gin $4 and $49. Three-Star Hennessy and champagne, $12 and $120. No sale!

Not Appropriate!

A PROMINENT Democrat was sent here in advance to look over the arrangements for his party's convention. On the eve of the Republican convention, some of the proud Chicagoans pointed out into the stadium and asked him to comment. "I like all the red chairs," he said "but it's a— of a color to use for a funeral!"

Blind Girls In Rowing Race

By United Press.

LONDON.—A rowing race between two crews of blind girls recently was held on the Thames. Slight "spectators" cheered from the banks, with remarkable powers of divining which shell (that of the Swiss Cottage Blind School, or of the Sports Club) was ahead.

A witness, standing near one of the blind cheerers, has described the event, as he saw it at Putney, above the Chelsea river bridge.

"The boat nearest shore is ahead, isn't it?" cried the sightless girls. "It's the Sports Club crew!" In a moment her face fell.

"Something's wrong; they're missing," she said. The in-shore boat was, in fact, in difficulties. One of the crew had "caught a crab," valuable time was lost; the other shell took the lead and held it across the finish line.

The prize for which these two blind crews raced for the first time was a sightseeing tour of Windsor!

Many of us are up in the air about the new government taxes which will take effect Tuesday. It is to be presumed that the price of gasoline will be raised a cent a gallon to take care of the government gasoline tax. Other commodities will be raised accordingly, but some of them will go up gradually. For instance, one store has stocked heavily on matches and intends to sell them at the present price until the stock is exhausted.

Many tire dealers are urging their patrons to buy tires now before the tax goes into effect and an advance of approximately 12 per cent is predicted. The tax of 2 cents each on bank checks may have its effect in reducing the number of checks issued. Hall Walker said that according to his understanding, the bank would serve as a government collector and would count the checks charged to each account during the month and would charge the account with 2 cents for each check and remit the full amount to the revenue collector.

I guess it's all right. Senators and congressmen must be paid their salaries and mileage. The $43,000,000 salary account in the Veteran's Bureau must be raised from some source or other. One certain way to bring the public's attention to the waste and inefficiency in government administration is to make said dear public think about it every time it writes a check, buys a box of matches or a lipstick. Oh, yes. . . . Tom Blanton has to mail us all a copy of the Congressional Record every so often and these new taxes will be needed to help pay for that.

The post office deficit is another thing. We'll pay that in increased postage. The mail could be carried at a 2-cent rate for first class mail of the users of that class didn't have to help pay for excess baggage in the form of air mail and free postage for government agencies. "Franking" privileges they call it.

So now, we're off to prosperity. The new tax schedule is said to be what was necessary to balancing the budget and balancing the budget was said to be what was prolonging hard times. . . . whatever that is. Soon we'll be paying the taxes with a smile just like we are paying the cigarette tax and everybody will be happy. . . . I hope. . . . Meroney can then close the post office every afternoon if he wants to. The sun shines in there in the afternoon and it's too hot to transact any business. Besides, there won't be much business in the afternoons this summer and we can all close up and go swimming if we want to. What do you say?

I'm in favor of daylight saving. Why not move the clock up an hour and go to work while it's cool and get an extra hour off in the P. M.? I can't see where it would hurt anything and it would be a big help to us pore working folks who have no leisure. All in favor, say aye.

Roosevelt Success Seen In Pole Omen

WAYNESBURG, Pa.—Belief that Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt will be the next President of the United States is growing in this community with reports of an optical illusion on a telegraph pole here. Application of creosote to the pole brings out an image of former President Theodore Roosevelt, it is said. The illusion is taken as an omen that Roosevelt will secure the Democratic nomination.

NEW DORMITORY AT WELLESLEY

WELLESLEY, Mass.—A new dormitory to house "self-help" students is being erected on the Wellesley College campus here because of the increasing number of girls applying for assistance in working their way through school.

The TINMITES

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

ONE seal, that played the big bass horn, made notes come out that were forlorn. "It sounds just like a fog horn," said wee Duncy, with a grin. "Each note that's played sounds just the same, but that poor seal is not to blame. Why, look! The seal has puffed so hard, I think he's getting thin."

"Now, watch!" said Duncy. "There! What did I tell you? That seal is clever as can be!" Upon the seal's nose, safe sound, the ball had landed whirled 'round. The seal tossed it back to Duncy cleverly. "He bounced it with his little 'That stunts' a good one." So said. "I've heard that seal really smart and now I know are."

SOON Duncy said, "I wonder what real tricks they know. As like as not, they've all been trained in something. I am going to have some fun."

"The rest of you can watch a bit. Pick out a place where the seal sits down to see what would be done."

A trunk of trick stuff stood nearby and Duncy said, "I guess I will take this rubber ball to try some juggling stunts right out that were forlorn. 'It sounds just like a fog horn,' said wee Duncy, with a grin."

Mrs. and Mrs. Trott
Presents Society Editor
With Beautiful Flowers

The Ranger Times society editor wishes to take this opportunity of thanking Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Trott of Lone Star plant No. 3 for the pretty compliment paid her Saturday afternoon, in the form of a beautiful bouquet of mixed flowers. The soft pastel tints reflected through the blending colors of roses, gladioli, zinnias, and a choice variety of other blossoms, nestled in their own foliage made quite attractive the writer's desk.

Six O'Clock Dinner Honors
Mrs. Belle T. Tomlinson

Bringing to a climax a week of social functions, Mrs. W. R. Gordon entertained with a beautifully appointed six o'clock dinner honoring Mrs. Belle T. Tomlinson of Wallace, worthy grand matron of the Order of the Eastern Star, last evening, the compliment paid at the home of the hostess' mother, Mrs. Homer Hodges, South Commerce and Melvin streets.

The dining table, where three delicious courses were served, was laid with white madeira linen and centered with a lovely cluster of fern sprays more exquisite with roses made.

Places were designated for the honor guest, Mrs. Tomlinson; associate honor guest, Mrs. Naomi Wise of Moran, and Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Rigby, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dreinhof, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hodges, Misses Marie Kohn, and Winnifred Dunkle, Ralph Dunkle, and the hostess and husband, W. R. Gordon.

Party Honors Lonnelle Herring
On Seventh Birthday at Home.

Mrs. Lonnelle Herring very delightfully entertained with a party at her Lone Star camp home, Thursday afternoon, honoring her young daughter, Lonnelle, on her seventh birthday.

Games made merry the occasion drawn to climax with the serving of a refreshment course of peach ice cream, angel food cake, and confectios.

The young honoree was the recipient of a selection of lovely birthday remembrances.

Mrs. Herring was assisted during the gala hours by Mrs. H. U. Pond of Eastland, Miss Lillian Wolford of Childress, house guest, and Mrs. Herman Pool, who before her recent marriage was the former Miss Lota Wolford.

Party members were Dorothy, Mary Wanda, Ella Joy and James Farris, Joyce and Juanita Burks, Inez Harrell, Mildred and Marie Rucker, Florence and Mary Rose Watson, Elsie Hummel, Norma Little, Maxine and Bobby Hise, Mary Ruth Fend of Eastland, and honoree, Lonnelle.

Lawn of Holloway Home is Scene of Gala Entertainment.

The pretty and spacious lawn of the holloway home presented a gala scene Friday evening when Prof. and Mrs. R. F. Holloway, assisted by the "Reds," entertained the "Blues," both factions being members of the Golden Rule Bible class of the First Christian church, of which Mr. Holloway is teacher. Shimmering lights were strung across the lawn and tables placed

Ranger PERSONALS

Miss Ollie Ware has as her house guest Miss Maydelle Frazier of Fort Stockton.

Miss Kate Kramer, secretary of the Texas-Louisiana Power company, left yesterday morning for a 10 days vacation to be spent in San Antonio and cities of old Mexico. Miss Kramer was accompanied by her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Engle of Albany. They are enjoying the vacation by motor.

Wilbur Morrell of Dallas was a Ranger business visitor Friday afternoon.

Miss V. Marie Stephens, who has been ill at her home for the past two weeks, is reported much improved. Miss Stephens received her degree from Baylor university this year and her illness is a result from over-exertion and study during the heavy course of study. She is the only daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. H. S. Stephens.

Mrs. Saunders Gregg, Pine street, has as her house guest Miss Polly Hill of Amarillo.

Mrs. E. E. Holley, who has been ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Roy W. Gilbreath, for the past six weeks, is much improved. Mrs. Holley was able to make an automobile trip to Brownwood Thursday, where she and her son visited in the home of her daughter.

Mrs. S. B. Baker and daughter, Mrs. J. J. Kelly, and Mrs. J. T. Killingsworth have returned from a visit to Dallas, Paris and Hurry Grove, where they visited friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Perdue of Tulsa, have arrived for a visit as guests of Mrs. Perdue's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Perdue, and Ranger friends, among whom are Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Jones, and daughter, Lora.

Mrs. L. D. Tucker and daughter of Roswell, N. M., are visiting as guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Morgan, 601 Elm street. Mrs. Tucker is a sister of Mrs. Morgan.

The program proper was resumed by Miss Leverage speaking on the Holden institute, following the contest for title of playlet, which was accepted from Mrs. Harry Fisher of Dublin who named the production "Rejuvenation of Mrs. Pessimism."

The business session developed several invitations for the next district meeting. Ranger's invitation was accepted and the convention will be held there next year. The hymn, "One More Day's Work for Jesus" and prayer dismissed by Mrs. Lola Mitchell confederate Membership year program for 1932.

A notable feature of the convention was the World Outlook booth, in charge of Mrs. F. M. Kenny. This booth was decorated inside and out with handsome illustrations of world work, covers from the Outlook magazine, and was placed adjacent to pulpit and topped with banner, "The World Outlook."

More than 100 juniors who have been in the junior choir during the meeting enjoyed an ice cream feed on the church lawn Friday afternoon.

All prayer bands continue to bring stage attendance to them. The young people had 62 in their band last evening. The juniors came next with 55, then the ladies' and men's bands. Many lasting impressions have been received in these prayer bands.

This morning's Sunday school period will be used in interest of the meeting. The program for today is as follows:

Sunday school, 9:45 a. m.; T. J. Anderson, superintendent.

Preaching by the pastor, 11 a. m. Subject, "Blessings and Privileges of My Religion."

Prayer bands, 7:30 p. m.

Preaching by the pastor, 8:15 p. m. Subject, "The All-Sufficient Christ."

All who have joined during the meeting will please be ready for baptism. Mr. Maddox will be in charge of the music. Special attention is being given to the singing of old-time gospel songs.

Ranger is cordially invited to all these services.

Economical Street Lights Increased Crime In Detroit

By United Press.

DETROIT, Mich.—Crimes of certain types have increased in Detroit this year due to the curtailment of street lighting as a municipal economy measure, officials of the Police Department and the Public Lighting Commission believe.

Quoting comparative statistics to support his theory, Deputy Superintendent of Police James E. McCarly pointed out that "the criminal selects a darkened spot for his operations whenever possible. By turning off street lights" he adds, "the city plays directly into the crooks' hands."

Quoting comparative statistics to support his theory, Deputy Superintendent of Police James E. McCarly pointed out that "the criminal selects a darkened spot for his operations whenever possible. By turning off street lights" he adds, "the city plays directly into the crooks' hands."

DETROIT, Mich.—Crimes of certain types have increased in Detroit this year due to the curtailment of street lighting as a municipal economy measure, officials of the Police Department and the Public Lighting Commission believe.

ST. FRANCIS XAVIER CHURCH
June 19, 1932

Mass on Sunday at 8:00 a. m. by Rev. P. Ruano. This is the fifth Sunday after Pentecost and the Gospel read is taken from St. Matthew V.20-24. Christ tells us that unless our justice abound more than that of the Scribes and Pharisees we cannot enter the kingdom of heaven. This means that unless we are more charitable toward our fellowmen we cannot get to heaven. The Scribes and Pharisees observed the law externally and interpreted it for the people but internally. Our Lord called them "Whypers and Scourers." It is not said in this Gospel that we are to be reconciled to our enemies before God will accept our offerings. If we hate our fellowman or bear him some ill will then we need not come with prayer offerings to God because He will not accept them until we have first made friends with our real or imaginary enemies. Love for all men is essential in order for get into heaven. That does not mean that we cannot disagree with men and their ways and their government and system of doing business but it does mean that we may not hate any man personally.

Two Million Sought Jobs In Russia

By United Press.

MOSCOW.—Nearly 2,000,000 foreigners applied for jobs in the Soviet Union in the last two years, according to an estimate made by V. Vladimirov an official of the foreign department of the Supreme Council of National Economy.

These applications, he said, were received directly by various economic organizations here and by Soviet representatives abroad.

The actual number of foreigners of all nationalities working in the Soviet Union at present Vladimirov placed at about 6,800. This figure, which agrees roughly with estimates obtained by the United Press from other sources, contradicts the exaggerated reports about immigration into this country published in some newspapers abroad.

The principal obstacle towards a wider opening of the gates to foreign labor is the acute housing shortage.

SEATTLE READY TO ENTERTAIN WORLD ROTARY

SEATTLE.—From far away Brazil, scattered across Europe, Australia, Honolulu and America will come approximately 6,500 delegates to what is expected to be one of the most important conventions in the history of Rotary International here on June 20-24.

The world economic crisis probably will receive the major time and discussion of thousands of delegates from 47 nations and every state in the Union.

The convention will open June 20, with Rotary's official welcome to its president, Sydney W. Pascall, London, Eng. He will arrive with a large group of British Rotarians, who left Liverpool, May 27, on the Canadian Pacific liner Duchess of Bedford. They will tour through Canada and arrive here from Victoria, B. C., in company with many Canadians.

Hawaiian Delegation
The big Matson liner, Malolo, also will bring a delegation of Rotarians leaving the Fourth Pacific Rotary convention at Honolulu, June 12-14. Pacific delegates will board the Malolo and arrive June 20.

It appears there will be no contest for the office of president of Rotary International.

The only candidate so far is Clinton F. Anderson of Albuquerque, N. M., who is chairman of the magazine committee of Rotary International, and has served for years in various state and national capacities.

Outstanding Addresses
Outstanding addresses on international relations and service will be delivered by Canon William Thompson Elliott of Leeds, Eng., Mrs. James W. Davidson, President of the National Y. W. C. A., president, Ernest Prinsborn, Vienna, Austria; Dr. Raemon Lorenz and Glyndon H. Crocker.

Highlights of the social program will be the president's hall at Civic Auditorium and the British Empire dinner, June 22. The Spanish and Portuguese speaking dinner will be a feature for delegates from Latin-American countries.

A wild west show, informal dancing and tours of the city and lakes also will be included.

Royalists of Spain Quit Struggle

United Press Staff Correspondent PARIS.—The royal indignation with which Spanish monarchists received the expulsion of Alfonso XIII has somewhat subsided, and the short-lived restoration movement started in France will hardly be revived unless the Republican regime should suffer a collapse.

As in all restoration movements, the entourage of the monarch is the most interested. These royalists, in most cases, depend on the support of friendly monarchs still on their thrones, but the times have changed since the Bourbons were dethroned in France, and when England was an arch conspirator against the French Republic.

Little Assistance
Alfonso XIII has not much more help than the other eight sovereigns who have been expelled from their thrones since 1914. The political strategy in Europe calls for the recognition of existing governments and the Spanish Republic was not long in having its ambassadors accredited, and its republican authority recognized.

And Alfonso is the least insured of the Spanish Royalists. There is a group in Paris, strongly attached to the Vatican and to the old regime, and vaguely sympathetic with the French pretenders, but as time goes on, the royal

In New Columbia Film Today

Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., who returns to the Columbia Theatre, Ranger, today in his newest release, "Love Is a Racket." Young Fairbanks has become quite a box office draw since turning in such excellent performance in "Union Depot," "It's Tough to Be Famous," and other films. The Columbia gets the new film for its first Texas showing.

$5,000,000 Mellon For Best Trotters

GOSHEN, N. Y.—A $5,000,000 bag of gold will be on the block for light harness racing stars, during the 1932 season, according to Will Gahagan, secretary of the American Trotting Horse Register association.

One of the largest melons to be cut in any 1932 sport, first will be sliced at the Cleveland Grand Circuit meeting, opening of a series of futurities to be trotted in preparation for the richest of all harness racing stakes, the $60,000 Hambletonian here on Aug. 17.

The figures released by Gahagan indicate the time-honored American sport is anything but on the decline. Nearly 10,000 standard bred horses will campaign in more than 900 meetings this year. An estimated audience of 15,000,000 persons, Gahagan said, will witness the events.

The announcement, however, contains one fact which may partly explain the reason harness racing plays only to "class" patronage.

"Of the 900 meetings which are scheduled for the 1932 season, less than 100 will permit betting, and these will be chiefly county fair meetings," he said.

"The mistaken impression which prevails, chiefly in the eastern metropolitan cities," he said, "that light harness racing is wanting in public favor, is not supported by the records of the American Trotting Horse Register association."

The year book for 1932 shows that 8,500 standard bred horses campaigned at 925 meetings. The year book for 1931 places the number of starters at 8,000 and the number of meetings 925.

Toy Balloon Lands After Long Flight

TAUNTON, Mass.—Leonard Farley believes he holds the record for toy balloon distance flights.

He sent one up here last Oct. 1, and recently received a letter from Miss Lois Knowles of North Calcutta, India, saying it landed in her back yard. The balloon bore Farley's name and address.

Peoria, Ill., Guards Its Blind Citizens

PEORIA, Ill.—A city ordinance making it compulsory for drivers of vehicles to stop and remain inoperative while blind persons, walking with specially designed red and white canes, cross streets was adopted recently by the Peoria City Council.

The canes have been provided blind persons here through efforts of the Lions' Club, which also was instrumental in obtaining passage of the ordinance. The movement to offer protection to the blind through the use of the colored canes has been taken up nationally by Lions Clubs in other cities. The cane is white with a red tip.

Congressman William E. Hull, of Peoria, recently presented United States Senators Thomas P. Gore, Oklahoma, and Thomas D. Schull, Minnesota, both blind, with colored canes in connection with the plan.

"Love Is a Racket" At The Connelle

Sardi's famous restaurant of the theatrical and newspaper folk of New York city, has been reproduced almost exactly for Douglas Fairbanks Jr.'s newest First National vehicle, "Love Is a Racket," playing today at the Connelle theatre, Eastland.

The hardest reproduction came when it was necessary to duplicate the caricatures of famous visitors to the restaurant done by Sardi's caricaturist, Gard, from life as the patrons sit about the tables. Almost every well known personage who has visited New York and Sardi's in the past 10 years is represented among these drawings, and it was believed at first that actual photographs of the drawings would have to be made.

Anton Grot, art director, solved the problem, however, by engaging a young Los Angeles artist, Roland Auginbaugh, to do actual caricatures of historical and well known people, the actual charcoal drawings on sepi paper giving a far more realistic effect than any photograph could do.

So clever have these drawings been done, so carefully has each style been copied, that New Yorkers visiting the Fairbanks set seen drawings of themselves believed them to be the original from Sardi's. The only difference between the actual Sardi drawings and those of Auginbaugh is the different characters chosen.

"SIX CYLINDERS NO MORE-NO LESS," says America

Anything more and you sacrifice economy—anything less and you sacrifice smoothness.

BUYERS everywhere are comparing priced cars. Lifting hoods. Counting cylinders. And the result? An overwhelming verdict for the six, in preference to cars fewer or more cylinders.

"SIX CYLINDERS. No more—No less! And America backs up that conviction by purchasing more six-cylinder Chevrolets—far more—than any other type of low-priced car. Since January 1st, buyers have chosen more Chevrolet Sixes than the combined total of all fours and all eights priced under $1000.

Why such decisive preference? America knows its automobiles... and America has found the real economy and real smoothness can be combined in only one type of engine: the SIX.

With more than six cylinders, you sacrifice Chevrolet's famous economy of gas, oil and upkeep.

With less than six cylinders, you sacrifice built-in smoothness.

But with a six—a Chevrolet Six—nothing sacrificed. You get everything you want.

You get economy—the greatest all-round economy available in today's motor car market.

You get smoothness—the built-in smoothness that makes driving really restful and enjoyable.

You get power, too—60 horsepower. A speed—65 to 70 miles an hour, easily! A pick-up—a smooth, lightning-fast get-away from a standstill to 35 miles an hour in less than 7 seconds!

So, when buying a new low-priced car, set the question of cylinders RIGHT, and you can't go WRONG. "SIX CYLINDERS. No more—No less!"

In addition to a six-cylinder engine, Chevrolet provides Free Wheeling; Syncro-Mesh shifting; big, spacious Fisher bodies. Due to new reduced prices, you'll be money ahead buying a Chevrolet instead of keeping the old one another season.
