Wanted Banker Still Wanted By Government

COURTS MAY DECIDE HE IS LEGALLY DEAD

Widow Is Suing for $100,000 Life Insurance On S. B. Norwood.

DALLAS, Oct. 27.—Sidney E. Norwood, missing Cleburne banker, may be legally dead in Texas through a suit for insurance brought by his wife in a Fort Worth court, but among agents of the United States Bureau of investigation he will continue to be an important fugitive.

Since the closing of the First National Bank of Cleburne in 1922 federal agents have been seeking Norwood. His name is numbered on the federal bureau list of wanted men.

The government agents have three federal indictments under which they will prosecute the banker should he be apprehended. The indictments include false entry, embezzlement and misapplication of funds.

The file showing reports of how operatives in their hunt for Norwood is more than two feet thick. It recounts how Norwood left Cleburne in October 1921 and a short time afterward how the bank of which he was president closed its doors. The records, according to the indictments, were altered, notes held by the institution converted into cash and bonds placed for safe keeping had been sold for cash.

"They may be able to prove he is dead," one operative said, "but for as the bureau of investigation, he is the most important fugitive in the country. We hate to admit he has dodged us so long. We are still looking for him. He is the man we would certainly like to meet most."

FORT WORTH, Oct. 27.—Three witnesses, who will testify they saw Sidney Norwood, missing Cleburne banker, in the last three years, will be put on the stand this afternoon in the trial of a suit to collect $100,000 insurance on the banker's life.

This declaration was made by Raymond Buck, attorney for the insurance company at the noon recess of the court.

Mrs. Emma Norwood, plaintiff in the suit, today went when attorneys asked why she had not supplied her husband with funds. "I made every sacrifice possible, but was unable to send him money or go to see him," the woman sobbed. "There were no friends in New York City to turn to."

In 1923 the banker's wife had become a resident buyer for Texas firms in New York.

She last heard from her husband in February, 1924, when he wrote her from Tucuman, New Mexico, she said. In 1922 she spent six weeks with Norwood in Saltville, Mexico.

Norwood's mother, a brother and a cousin yesterday testified to threats Norwood had made regarding suicide.

Mrs. Ursie Norwood, 81-year-old mother, told of receiving a letter from her son in the summer of 1924 in which he said, "I going out of your life forever." This was the last she heard from Norwood.

McMURRY TO PLAY RANGERS ON SATURDAY

H. S. Von Roder, dean of the Ranger Junior College, announced shortly before press time today that the football game scheduled to be played with the San Angelo Junior College had been called off and a game with McMurray College of Abilene had been substituted instead.

Word had been received from San Angelo that the Junior College club might not be able to make the trip and telephone conversations brought out that the San Angelo Rams had a number of players from the college and some from among the boys of the town and was sponsored by the A. B. C. Luncheon club.

Negotiations were immediately made with McMurray college and a game scheduled for Saturday, which will be played at the time advertised.

McMurray has a good team this year and is classed as a senior college, so the Texas Rangers will have an even tougher opponent than was at first anticipated.

The Texas Rangers have been working out steadily since the John Tarleton game and all players are in good condition with no injuries reported, so the fans should see a real game Saturday.

This will be the first time a senior college team has played in Ranger and it is expected that the game will draw an even larger crowd than would have been on hand at the San Angelo game.

McMurray is a member of the T. L. A. conference of Texas, composed of such colleges as Daniel Baker, Sul Ross, Abilene Christian College and West Texas Teachers and other colleges of that size.

WOMAN TRIES TO KIDNAP OWN CHILD

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 27.—Driven mad by grief over separation from her little daughter, Miss Ruth Borman, 21, kidnaped the child, intending to kill her and then commit suicide, she told police today after her capture.

Tracing her to her hiding place through information furnished by an alleged accomplice, police arrived in time to prevent the tragedy.

They returned the child, Nancy Irene Buchanan, 3 years old, to the arms of her foster mother, the wealthy Mrs. Violet Buchanan.

Miss Borman said she was the adopted daughter of W. H. Borman of Mason City, Iowa, and had left there to come to California when she learned she was to have a child.

After lengthy questioning police booked both Mrs. Borman and W. E. Warner on charges of kidnaping. Warner was described as a close friend of the young mother.

Accuses Doak In Judge Deal

A side-battle of the presidential campaign has brought the accusation from Ronald Richberg, above, labor leader, that Secretary of Labor William N. Doak "dangled" before him a possible appointment as a federal judge if Richberg would oppose the anti-injunction bill. Richberg has refuted Doak's denial of the charge, originally made by Senator George Norris.

JUNIOR HIGH HONOR ROLL OF EASTLAND

The following are the ones who made the honor roll in the Eastland junior high school for the first six weeks:

7A—Jimmy Mahon, Joyce Kelley, Jane Ferguson, Virginia Gibson.

7B—Ruby Nell Bean, Earlean Pitzer.

6B—Chester Alford, Ida Lee Foster, Ruth Agnes Harrell, Mary Jane Harrell, Alice Jones, Frances Lane, Mildred McGlamery, Marie Plummer.

On last Thursday a group of members of the First Baptist church lived over again the "good old days" when there were all-day workings and "dinner on the ground."

A group of the men of the church together with other public spirited men who substituted for those who could not be present, performed several hours of telling service with saws and hammers in the basement of the church. At the noon hour they were summoned to appear in the assembly-room of the primary department, where the women had prepared a splendid meal with hot coffee.

Arrangements were made for a second day's working today in the effort to complete the re-arrangement of the church basement recently begun, providing separate departmental quarters for the beginners, primaries, juniors and cradle roll of the Sunday school.

Ranger's school children will be given a treat Friday when they not only have a holiday, but will be given an opportunity to attend the Sam B. Dill circus, which plays two engagements in the city Friday.

Through arrangements made with the management and the superintendent of schools, 1,600 tickets were given to the school children so that they might attend the circus. The tickets call for a service charge of 10 cents each.

The Ranger public schools will be closed all day Friday because of the teachers institute and the children will be given a holiday.

Farmer Killed In Truck Crash

FORT WORTH, Oct. 27.—C. I. Chapin, 39-year-old farmer killed when a West Texas Produce company truck demolished his small coupe near here, will be buried this afternoon. He was killed instantly on the Bankhead highway late yesterday.

Ollie Horton of Cisco, who was driving the truck, according to produce company officials, was not injured.

Eastland County Has 38 Students In John Tarleton

STEPHENVILLE, Texas, Oct. 27.—Thirty-eight students from Eastland county are enrolled this year at John Tarleton Agricultural College, placing that county second only to Erath in number of students at the college.

The initial enrollment of 911 this year is the largest in the history of the institution. The student body comes from 120 Texas counties, four other states, and two foreign countries, Denmark and Mexico.

Eastland county students are: Mary Bob Snoddy, Cisco; Ruth Kaltenbough, Pioneer; Jimmie Townsend and Truett Bean, Carbon; B. H. Godwin and Walter Lee Connell Jr., Iden; Betty Dunlap, Arthur Deffenbach, Roy D. Jones, Ben Davis McGee, Conette Wilkinson, and Tribby McGee, Ranger; Cecil P. Sparkman, Bonnie Wayne Daniel, Vernon Woodard, and Minyon Whitworth, Dendemonia; Mrs. Jim T. Carter, Harold Randolph, Jim T. Carter, and Frankie Webb, Eastland; Dick King, Aubra Griffin, Hazel Griffin, and Billie Jean King, Gorman; Druella Eberhart, Edwina Eberhart, Annie Mae Cox, Lionell Lee, Benora Hancock, Dixie Cox, Willa Faye Hamilton, Joyce Pates, Genevieve Pate, Naomi McBeth, Maxine Loyd, Eunice Mayfield, Virginia Watkins, and Walter Vaughan, Rising Star.

The prize of the three-cornered race, is a world export demand for 700,000,000 bushels of wheat. The United States and Canada alone have 900,000,000 bushels to supply the demand.

In Fort Worth wheat price levels today held above 50 cents, but many middle western towns reported prices of 30 cents a bushel in Alberta, Canada, wheat sold at $9.00 a ton in regions where sawdust was quoted at $10 a ton.

Eastland Red Cross Sewing Will Start On Next Monday

The Red Cross materials received by Eastland Chamber of Commerce to be made up into garments for the direction of Mrs. W. E. Stallter, chairman of work, will be cut, and prepared for workers on Monday of next week.

The work will begin at 2 p. m. Monday afternoon and those appointed by the various church societies and clubs to assist in the work are asked to attend at that hour.

Scout Rally To Be Held Friday

A big scout rally, which will include troops from Caddo, Breckenridge, Cisco, Ranger, Eastland and other towns in this section of the country, will be held in Ranger on Friday night.

Confests will be held between the different troops and prizes will be awarded to the winners. All scouts have been urged to attend in order to assist their troop in competing for the prize.

AFRAID YET TRUSTING: Be merciful unto me, O God: Mine enemies would daily swallow me up: for they be many that fight against me. What time I am afraid I will trust in thee.—Psalm 56: 1-3.

BIG CAMPAIGN IN NORTHEAST SEEN

There is to be tremendous campaigning in the Northeastern states until the eve of election day. All the big guns of the republican party are scheduled for speaking engagements. Ogden L. Mills, the ablest of the administration leaders as well as the most resourceful, will do most of the heavy cannonading. Pat Hurley has finished his speaking engagement in Oklahoma and the West. Curtis has been sent to the Rocky Mountain states and the Pacific coast. Roosevelt will make his 3500-mile swing touching Pennsylvania, Ohio and the border states and many of the old South states east of the Mississippi river. Garner, who made his stinging reply to the Hoover gold standard address, is booked for many speeches and will be kept on the go day and night. An army of democratic senators will shell the political woods. Next week Alfred E. Smith will cover New England and New Jersey and make his final address to the democrats and independents of the Empire state of the East in the city of New York the day before the balloting in frosty November.

ON WITH THE BATTLE

They are reminded that Texans are expected to raise a sum of not less than $150,000 for the national committee to be used for legitimate campaign purposes in the debatable states of the Northeast and the West and the Pacific coast sections—states erstwhile republican which can be carried by the democrats in November if funds are afforded for legitimate organization and educational purposes until the coming of election day when the verdict of the voters of all the commonwealths will be returned and followers of Jefferson and Jackson and Grover Cleveland and Woodrow Wilson are hoping that the reins will be placed in the hands of those who are the leaders of the party of the people and pledged to ever guard the rights and the interests of all the people regardless of class or condition or sections or creed or calling. ON WITH THE BATTLE.

Now the battle will be on in earnest in the debatable states of the Northeast as well as the nation over. Republicans are determined to make the most desperate battle of their lives for control of the government. They are sending out their heavy guns. They are sending out their pop guns. Their wealthy followers who are among the kings of finance are sending in their checks to the campaign chest.

Advice is offered by the government on how to raise everything—except the mortgage.

Something for City Fathers to Think About

BY BRUCE CATTON

One of the most startling bits of recent news is a little announcement that came not long ago from the National Education Association. Someone in that organization did some figuring and found out that while it costs $300 a year to keep a man in prison, it costs only $100 a year to keep a child in school. The nation spends about a billion and a half a year on its 500,000 prisoners; it spends only two million and a half to educate its 26,000,000 school children. It would be a good thing if that information could be placed before every American public official who has anything to do with school budgets. It is the most eloquent preaching against cutting such budgets that could possibly be imagined. Educated men and women do not often find their way into penitentiaries. There are exceptions to this rule, of course; but any social worker, police official or prison warden can tell you that the youngster who goes through school and gets a decent chance to train and broaden his mind is not very apt to become a lawbreaker when he grows up. The great recruiting ground for the underworld is the place where youngsters break off their schooling before they have had enough of it to profit by it. That, of course, is only another way of saying that the public school system is about as good a crime preventative as we have. And it is an amazingly cheap one, all things considered. It is, at any rate, infinitely cheaper than our prison system, which is no preventative at all. These times demand strict economy in government. No city or state can afford any unnecessary expenditures. But this money we spend on our schools is not an unnecessary expenditure, nor is it an expenditure which is unduly high. Compared with that other little item—the cost of taking care of criminals—it is very low indeed. The school budget, in short, is just about the last place to wield the blue pencil. One hundred dollars a year per child, invested now, can save us $300 a year per criminal a little later.

Man Travels From Wisconsin In Buggy To Make Fortune

HOUSTON — It was A. H. Hause's last chance, so he clucked to his 23-year-old mare, Lucy, and clattered southward on a 1,700-mile buggy ride to Texas, where oil lay underground. "I'll be back with $100,000 or they'll send me back in a box," he told his relatives when he drove away from their honey creek farm in Racine county, Wisconsin. That was April 18, 1931, and Hause had in his pocket three cents and a postage stamp. Fifteen months later the ancient equipment rolled into Conroe, booming off town. Hause had $1.90. Hause, who is 70 years old, performed the feat by working for farmers and filling stations along the route. It was tough going, he relates. The thing that kept him going, he says, was the thought of barrels and barrels of oil lying under his 30 acres near Conroe. Now things are looking up. The land is leased. Drilling is scheduled. Lucy the mare has a comfortable stable with a clover field close at hand. Hause says the day is not too far distant when he will return to Wisconsin with the promised $100,000.

Travel Club Report

The Ranger High School Travel club held its regular weekly meeting at 2 o'clock Oct. 26. Mrs. Wagner, club sponsor, took charge of the meeting until some seating arrangements were made and some few members paid their club dues, then the meeting was turned over to President Jim Hicks. The social committee reported that they had been thinking as to whether the club would be able to have a Halloween party, and ask for some discussion on the subject from some of the other club members. Most of the members were in favor of having a party, but the club decided to wait a week or two and have another type of party, as so many of the club members had already made plans for Halloween. There will be further discussion on the subject at the next meeting. E. M. Bowen gave a very interesting talk about two fishing trips he made during this past summer. He told about two weeks that he spent on the Palo Pinto, and advised anyone not to go there with the intention of catching fish, because it rains every time you set out a line. E. M. also told about getting down to the Clear Fork of the Brazos, and of some waterfalls that he saw there. The cheers that E. M. received from the club show that everyone enjoyed his talk thoroughly. The president, Jim Hicks, appointed a new program committee, Barefield Thomas, chairman, Catherine Barker, Mary Ramsey, and Dorothy Lee Ames. This committee will prepare a program for the next meeting. —Forrest Lyon, Reporter. The government is going to build 327 new postoffices. Do your Christmas shopping early.

DERRICK SHADOWS

This column is used as a feature and should not be construed as representing the editorial views of the paper. The expressions contained in the column are the views of one individual and do not reflect the policy of the paper. A few years ago I saw the skeleton of a merman in Hot Springs, Ark. He was a tiny little fellow about two feet long with the head of an old man and the body of a sea-animal with the exception of perfectly formed arms and hands. And as I gazed at the bony creature in the glass cage, I determined to never do anything out of the ordinary like living in the bottom of the ocean all my life or going back to nature in any fashion for fear I would be put in a glass box someday and stared at. The man who can't step out of the rut of existence and do something a little better than the average person isn't worth a thing to the world, but one must necessarily know when to stop lest one be hailed too odd and be stared at. It's a problem: to be or not to be extraordinary.

Do you give for the joy of the thing or do you feel the urge of duty and grumble for days over the gift? Do you fill your mind with numerous unimportant questions about whether the needy one be worthy of your aid or a professional beggar forever asking favors of the world? It is your privilege to give, you who want for nothing to eat and wear. I saw an old woman fed and clothed this morning; an old woman with darker skin than yours and mine, who spoke a language I did not understand. But beneath her shabby coat beat a heart as lonely and sad as yours or mine might be, and her feet were wet because her shoes were worn thin, and her hands were knobby and rough from much work . . . and she had a soul. I saw her make the sign of the cross and bless the giver who put warm shoes on her feet and gave her warm food to strengthen her. . . and I saw her smile. And I forgot to wonder whether she might be worthy, because she had been made happy and I had, too. I know a man who decided he wanted a wife, and since he couldn't find one that suited him among his female acquaintances he inserted an advertisement in a matrimonial bureau magazine. And far off in a little town in another

Martha Dorcas Class Entertained
 The church party that started backward was the novel form of entertainment offered by the Martha Dorcas class by their hostesses Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Virge Foster, Mrs. D. C. Hawley, Mrs. D. J. Jobe, Mrs. W. C. Marlow, and Mrs. O. O. Mickle, who entertained at the Foster home.

Guests entered at the kitchen door and were met by Mrs. Hawley and served immediately with the refreshments of pimento cheese sandwiches pumpkin pie with whipped cream topping, nut shell mint jellied and hot coffee by Mmes. Mickle and Hawley, who conducted them through a dark hall, where they were attacked by ghosts, who laid iced (water) cold hands on their elbows, and shoved them into the living room.
 The church of Christ Bible class members were delightfully entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Dan Childress and co-hostess, Mrs. Ira Hanna at the Childress home, when timely Halloween decorations and appointments made this an outstanding holiday event.
 The church was festively decorated with lanterns, silhouettes of witches, cats and bats on the lace curtains and draperies; with bowls of marigolds bringing the yellow note in decoration made a charming affair.

Merry games with Halloween novelties as favors passed the afternoon, Mrs. Ernest H. James receiving a carrot, Mrs. B. E. Robinson a mixing spoon, and Mrs. Teatsorth an influential flowering onion for best scores.
 A living model game with costumes fashioned of newspaper had favor for best demonstrator, package of needles, awarded Mrs. J. R. Crossley.
 Delicious refreshments of pumpkin pie a la mode, coffee with whipped cream topping were served by the hostesses.

Tiny Halloween figurines were plate favors.
 Guests were Mmes. J. R. Crossley, E. H. Jones, H. C. Duke, N. K. Pradley, E. B. Reagan, John Sue, James Graham, Leo Bales, Gay Sherrill, C. F. Fehel, L. Herring, Dewartain, M. J. Pickett, C. E. Robinson, W. T. Self, John Fehl, H. E. Everett, Hoyt Davis, H. E. Rickman, Miss Leslie Word, and Mrs. W. J. Courtney of Mineola, who were co-hostesses of the Childrens Wednesday and today.
Attended Executive Board Meeting
 Mrs. B. E. McGlamery has returned from attendance at the mid-year meeting of the executive board of the Women's Missionary Society of Central Texas conference in which she is an officer.
 The conference was held in the home of secretary of conference, Mrs. Raymond Buckley, all day Tuesday from 9:30 a. m. to 4:30 p. m., Fort Worth.
 Twenty members were present, and several guests were entertained. The representation numbered visitors from Waco, Belton, Gatesville, Hindley, Coleman, Brownwood, Dandemona, Joshua, Corsicana, Haysen, Weatherford, Fort Worth and Eastland.

An outstanding guest of the conference was Mrs. Winston of Morgan, Texas, and her adopted son, Ting Koo, a Korean, who assumed Winston as his given name, and has just graduated from the Philadelphia Medical school, with the assistance of Mrs. Winston, who aided him in his education in Corea, prior to arriving in America.
 Dr. Koo specialized in X-ray work and returns to take up serious work in a large hospital in Shanghai.
 He made an appreciative talk of the wonderful kindness of his adopted mother and his sincere appreciation of American church women.
 Mrs. McGlamery was the guest in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Frank T. Culver during her stay and en route home Wednesday, visited her son, Robert McGlamery, Jr., at the Weatherford college, and learned to her pleasure that he had made the honor roll on the first six weeks college work.
 Mrs. McGlamery stated that Mrs. Landrum, president of conference offered her resignation on account of ill health, which was accepted and the office will be filled by the vice president, Mrs. Sam G. Thompson, of Coleman, until the annual election in the spring.

Will Honor Friends
 Mrs. C. U. Connelley will entertain a Halloween party Saturday night at 8 o'clock on Connelley hill, honoring her son, Jim Whitington Connelley, and his friends, Sam Butler, Jr., Kathleen Cottingham and Helen Butler.
 After a merry romp, Mrs. Connelley will characterize the guests in the Connelley theatre for the mid-night matinee, "The Crooked Circle."
Talshi Group Has Halloween Hilarity
 The Camp Fire girls clubhouse was a spooky place Wednesday evening, dressed in ghostly raiment and ready with shadowy faces to bring the Halloween chill to the ardent youth that filled it with merry laughter and joyous games when the Talshi Camp Fire group entertained their boy friends with a real Halloween program, of games and fun.
 Refreshments of hot cocoa with whipped cream topping and sweet wafers were served at close of a merry evening to Joyce Newman, Louise Brewer, Catherine Utts, Margaret Fry, Earline Harvey, Joan Utts, Audrey Fay Taylor, May Gale, Helen Butler, Edith Meek, Elizabeth Ann Harrell, Kathleen Cottingham and guests, Coleman Sullivan, Jim Connelley, James Hill, Billy Jones, Bobby Dwyer, Ralph Mahon, Roger Mounthead, Clyde Chaney, Floyd Randolph, Albert Martin, Ervin Cottingham and Mrs. Tom Harrell, guardian.

Dim Lights and Appropriate Games Add Fun to Delightful Club Affair
 Young and old alike enjoy revelling in the zest of this colorful celebration, Halloween, where witches lend their black art and where there is contagious pleasure and a few shivers of excitement in games played in spooky atmosphere.

Many new gadgets and different ideas were offered Wednesday afternoon when members of Child Study Club No. 2 entertained with one of the most attractive parties of the season, naming as honor guests members of Child Study Club No. 1, with the home of Mrs. F. E. Jacobs, Young street, serving as a most delightful place where true hospitality reigned.

Gay orange and black afforded a striking combination which played an important part in the room decorations. Chrysanthemums, fall's favored blossoms, with vases of cosmos filled bowls and vases attractively arranged throughout the house. Care was taken by the artistic decoration committee composed of Mrs. Elnor Rogers, chairman, assisted by Mrs. George Rhoads, Mrs. Max F. E. Jacobs, Young street, serving as a most delightful place where true hospitality reigned.

After the list of guests had been graciously greeted by the receiving committee, a game of "Getting Acquainted" was the opening program feature. Music which is essential to all charming functions was included on the entertaining program, with Wallace Avant playing the "Flower Song," accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. E. Avant.

A well received dust selection was given by young Misses Esta Teut Smith and Helen Jacobs. Mrs. W. W. Jarvis, a pleasing expression teacher, gave a very clever and indeed appropriate reading.
 The popular Rhythmettes, who have appeared from the stage of the Avadia theatre and aided in many programs during the past few months, offered a group of splendidly received songs.

A pretty and graceful tap dance was added to the program by the talented young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Henry, Dorothy, who spent several weeks of delightful study at Dallas this summer, and a present dance student.

C. Patterson, and chairman of flower show, Mrs. James Horton, and group of hostesses who will assist throughout the two days of show.
 Musical programs have been arranged for afternoon and evening of Friday and Saturday afternoon by program committee, Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins and Mrs. Art H. Johnson.
 A brilliant hour of music will be presented Friday night by Wilda Drago, artist-musician and special student.

Saturday afternoon's musical program will be of unusual variety and interest.
 Additional prizes have been presented the league for awards in flower show classification.

The Eastland Daily Telegram offers a special prize of one year's subscription to the paper, and Better Homes and Garden magazine gives a one-year subscription.
 Mrs. W. E. Stalter will have a both display in domestic science arrangement of cakes, pies and breads, any sales of which brings a percentage to the Civic League.

of the well known Elizabeth Maxwell.
 Mrs. Lee Galley brought the well arranged magical treat listed with Ranger's outstanding artists to a close when she played with smoothness and apparent technique a piano solo.
 The first game following the miscellaneous musical period was "Halloween Dance," truly in keeping with the occasion, and the week of social events forming one of the most looked forward to society calendars for several seasons.

Mrs. F. E. Martin, who proved a fascinating fortune teller, invited guests into her tent, where dim lights, and weird attractions immediately attracted the eyes of those desiring their future to be peeked into and thrillingly related. Intense set its rings of aroma about the tent and its unique decorations where each lady lingered, entranced by the realistic surroundings, and enticing background of colors.

The afternoon was a decided success and the last hour of fun was drawn to a close as the clock pointed to five. The members in charge of the refreshments, Mrs. Saula Perlestein, chairman, aided by Mrs. W. R. Avant and Mrs. Max Ohl. A plate of gingerbread, topped with orange tinted whipped cream, nut cups filled with fancy candies, pecans, with coffee was passed.

The program committee was made up of Mrs. C. E. Maddocks, the house hostess, Mrs. Jacobs, Mrs. C. A. Hummel, and Mrs. H. Stein. The chairman and president of the organization, Mrs. Maddocks, acted as gracious toastmistress.

Those included on the guest list were Mmes. Maddocks, Lee S. Galley, H. Stein, Odelle Cole, D. Joseph, John Hassen, Max Ohl, Onis Littlefield, E. L. Rogers, O. G. Lanier, C. A. Hummel, W. R. Avant, C. A. Smith, D. W. Nichol, S. L. Hourland, G. W. Earp, C. O. Bolen, E. L. Fontaine, E. A. Reese, Edwin George Jr., J. S. Reynolds, F. N. Hassen, E. R.
