SENATORIAL FACES IN NEW PICTURE

There are many new faces in the senatorial picture of the new congress. Democrats elected their nominees and defeated republican contnders in Indiana, Illinois, New Hampshire, Connecticut, New Jersey, Wisconsin, Utah, California and Iowa. Iowa landed in the democratic column of states. It declared for Louis Murphy, democratic senatorial nominee, and gave the democrats a majority from top to bottom. They elected Percy F. Stewart in New Jersey; Fred H. Brown in New Hempshire; F. Ryan Duffy in Wisconsin; Dr. Elbert B. Thomas in Utah; William Gibbs McAdoo in California. Wisconsin cast its electorial vote for Roosevelt by a huge majority. All the followers of Senator LaFollette and Governor LaFollette invaded the democratic reservation and voted the straight democratic ticket. Republican newspapers and magazines, after the republican primary results in Wisconsin, declared that Am "LaFolleteism was buried forever in the Badger state." Well, the democrats and followers of that "Fighting" La-Follette is dead joined hands and they placed the Badger state in the democratic column and elected F. Bryan Duf- Av. fy, democrat, to a seat in the American senate. Col. Frank Ra Hague according to Arthur Brisbane "the most astute politician in America," led the democrats and progressives in New Jersey to a hurricane victory. Colonel Hague is a marvelous strategist and organizer. However, the most astute political strategist and national campaign manager in Cor America is Col. James A. Farley of New York. He is not only the best salesman and political prognosticator of all Fe but he is the most dramatic showman that has directed a campaign in the nation since the close of the war between Ger the states.

INSULL AND HIS MAGNIFICENT OPERA HOUSE

Samuel Insull was a lover of music, Grand opera appealed to him, and when the millions began to roll in, he built a magnificent temple dedicated to music and song Lie at a cost of $20,000,000. He was the angel who footed the bills for the grand opera outlay for years and years. Now Nat he is a fugitive from justice. His palace of song is dark. Ohi His grand opera company has been disbanded, and the cur of gall and wormwood is ever in reach of his hand and his lip. A biography of Samuel Insull written by a man who began at the foot of the ladder leading to fortune and fame and then tumbled from Alpine heights into the ditch of despair, shorn of all his possessions and his pride broken, would be one of the best sellers of the age. It is easy to fall from the lower rung of the ladder. It doesn't smash the pride or the pocket of the individual who drops off. It is different with the Samuel Insulls of history who hit the stop rung and then crashed to the bottom.

OIL BONUSES SUBJECT TO INCOME TAX RATES

Bonuses received by the owners of oil and gas lands under leases under Texas law was declared by the supreme | Warner Pi court of the United States to be subject to the graduated rates imposed on ordinary income and not to the lower rates on income from the sale of capital assets. The story opens with a prologue in which a murder is committed by a homicidal maniac. Later he hoards a train for Long Island, thinking of the plenannt week-end the boards a train for Long Island, thinking of the plenannt week-end the murderer is not disclosed.

The seems shifts to the Long Island home of LINDA and TOM AVERILL, married three years and much in love. The Averilis have five guesta for the week-end; toTSIN AMOS PEAHODY, elderly, distant relative of Linda's; CAPTAIN DE VON, handsome Beigian representing a European perfume manufacturer with whom Averili hopes to do business; MR. STATLANDER, middlewestern manager of the firm Averili works for; MARVIN PRATT, former suitor of Linda's, and LIAN SHALGHNESSEY, Irish writer on a lecture tour. Consin Amos immediately makes trouble. He quarrels with Shoughnessey because the Irishman holds liberal political views; plays golf with Statiander and infuriates him by criticizing his game; discusses prohibition with DeVos at the Country Club and declares DeVos is "no gentleman." It is fanily agreed that Cousin Amos is to leave early the next morning.

That night, while the others are
