BI-DISTRICT GAME COMES TO RANGER

SETS 'MARKET DEMAND' FOR TWO AREAS

TOSS OF COIN DECIDES SITE FOR CONTEST

Game Will Be Played At Lillard Field Saturday Afternoon At 2:30.

A coin, tossed by the superintendent of the Amarillo public schools and called by R. F. Holloway, superintendent of the Ranger public schools, decided Saturday morning that the bi-district game between Amarillo High school and the Ranger High school Bulldogs would be played in Ranger on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 3.

Negotiations were entered into at a Fort Worth hotel between officials of the Amarillo and Ranger schools, each offering the other inducements to hold the game on their home field. After considerable discussion it was decided to leave the decision up to the toss of a coin and Mr. Holloway called the toss of the coin which brought the game to Ranger.

Officials of the Amarillo school contended that since the Bulldogs had played in Ranger in 1930, with no written contract to the effect that the game would not be counted on a return basis on bi-district contests, that Amarillo was due the game. In 1932 a clause in the contract stipulated that the game would not be counted in case the two teams won in their district.

After protraction and counter-propositions had been offered without either school agreeing to the terms of the offers, the coin was tossed, Ranger winning the site for the game.

A large number of fans and members of the Ranger High school Athletic committee attended the session at the Fort Worth hotel, as well as a number of teachers and officials of the Amarillo school. The meeting was held in Fort Worth because of the meeting of the Texas State Teachers association, which was being held in that city and at which teachers from both towns were present.

A large number of reservations have already been made for the bi-district game, though the order on hand to see the contest, which will start Saturday afternoon at 2:30.

The game is to be advertised extensively over the towns in the Oil Belt and it is expected that another record attendance will be on hand to see the contest, which will start Saturday afternoon at 2:30.

Pleas to Blame For Jail Term

By United Press. PARIS.—It costs exactly 12 months in prison to stick a sword-cane through the stomach of your wife's admirer, a Paris court has just decided.

It cost Alfred Gidet, grocer, even more, for he also lost his best customer, Pierre Dupont.

Gidet and Dupont were great friends, all because Dupont had an insatiable love of canned peas and Gidet sold the best peas here.

Every day Dupont came to the grocery to buy peas and from time to time the friends exchanged bottles of good red wine as tokens of friendship. But what Gidet did not know was that Dupont also exchanged wistful glances with the lovely Madame Gidet.

Then the trouble started. Dupont got bold. Madame Gidet got angry. She told her husband, who got a sword-cane.

Next day the unsuspecting Dupont came as usual to the grocery. "Good morning," he said to Gidet. "Have you any nice peas today?"

"Yes," said Gidet. "But try this first-cane from under the counter and trust his unworthy friend through the abdomen."

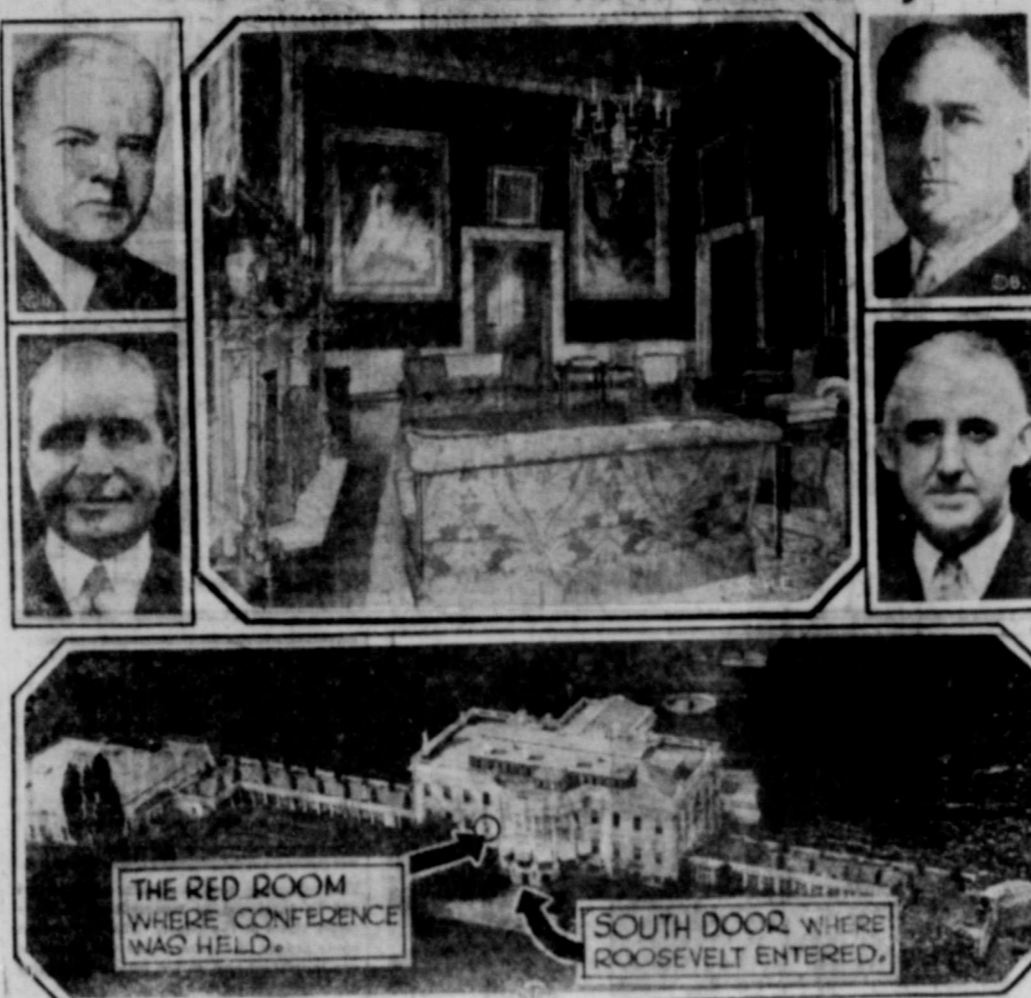

"You may be a good husband," said the trial judge, "but you should never have stabbed him. Thirteen months."

Subscribers Who Miss Paper Urged To Notify Office

Subscribers to the Ranger Times who do not receive their paper on time are urged to call 224 before 6 o'clock on week days or before 8 o'clock in the morning on Sunday in order that a copy of the paper might be sent out by special messenger.

This service, which is rendered whenever subscribers fail to receive their copy of the paper, is free of any charge and the copy you missed will be cheerfully supplied.

Where Roosevelt and Hoover Made History

Here are the principals and the setting of the historic conference between President Hoover and his elected successor, Franklin D. Roosevelt, in which the problems of Europe's war debt payments to the United States were discussed. Cheered as he rode up Pennsylvania avenue, Governor Roosevelt, accompanied by his economic adviser, Professor Raymond Moley of Columbia University, entered the White House by the south door, shown in the lower photo. The south grounds were closed even to newspapermen and photographers. Carried to the first floor on the small family elevator, Roosevelt found President Hoover waiting at the door of the Red Room, shown above. They smiled, shook hands, then settled in their chairs with Moley and Treasury Secretary Ogden Mills for a conference without precedent in American history. Hoover and Mills are shown at the left, Roosevelt and Moley at the right.

HIGHWAY WORK HALTED BY INJUNCTION

AUSTIN, Nov. 26.—The hands of the state highway department today seemed hopelessly tied by a temporary restraining order secured by Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, governor-elect.

The order, unless amended, prevents acceptance next Monday and Tuesday, of bids asked on $4,000,000 worth of state road and bridge work.

No loophole could be found in the restraining order, secured late yesterday by former Governor James E. Ferguson and State Representative Bailey Hardy of Breckenridge and John M. Chamberlain of Palo Pinto county.

Attorney General James V. Allred has received no copy of the order and today declined to forecast what might be done. Ten days' notice may be necessary, it was learned, either to ask for dissolution or amendment of the order.

Highway commission officials were not in Austin today. Bids advertised to be received here next week include part of the work on the Weatherford-Ranger highway known as highway 89, which will leave Mineral Wells off the main route to West Texas.

This cut-off is set out in the injunction petition as one of several "unreasonable" projects contemplated by the highway commission.

Unless modified or dissolved, the injunction prohibits the letting of any more highway contracts until the end of the present state fiscal year, which expires Aug. 31, 1933.

The petition asserts that if contemplated contracts are let the available highway funds for the year will be exceeded and embarrass the new administration.

Governor Ross Sterling criticized the suit as a step that will hinder relief of unemployment in the state.

Burglars Ransack Hotel Room and Take Check, Cash

Mrs. S. W. Thompson of the Southland hotel, Ranger, reported to Patrolman Jack Roach this morning that her room had been entered and robbed while she was at breakfast.

According to the report to Patrolman Roach one check for $22.50, drawn on Donley & Chastain and made out to R. H. Grant, one $5 bill and a number of $1 bills, totaling about $35 had been taken from her room.

She said that she had been out of the room but a short time and returned to find the money missing.

Baptists Select Mineral Wells

By United Press. HOUSTON, Nov. 26.—J. Earl Mead of Dallas today was re-elected president of the Texas Baptist training service and Mineral Wells chosen as the 1933 convention city.

Members of the training service today pledged "sacrificial devotion" to prohibition.

The adopted temperance report said, in part, "We, the prohibition committee, would confirm our conviction in the righteousness of national prohibition, holding no service too costly to render in order to keep the American flag floating over a sober nation."

Eastland Golf Tourney to Close

All those who are participating in the golf tournament at the Eastland Country club are requested to turn in their score today.

Prizes are to be awarded to classes A, B and C for men, and A and B for women.

Fred W. Blatt, director of the club states there has been much interest manifested in the tournament and a large number of scores are expected to be turned in.

Ranger Singers To Meet At 2 o'Clock

Ranger's singing association meets this afternoon at 2:30 at the First Christian church of Ranger. Several visiting classes will be present. The famous Rippeetoe class from DeLeon will render several selections.

Singers from all the neighboring towns will be present and a real musical treat is promised to all.

The public is invited to be present.

BANQUET FOR BULLDOGS IS POSTPONED

J. C. Smith of Ranger, who has been making arrangements for the turkey banquet for the Ranger High school Bulldogs, champions of the Oil Belt District for 1932, announced Saturday that the date for the banquet had been changed from Monday night to Wednesday night, Nov. 30.

The decision to change the date was made at the meeting of the officials of the Amarillo and Ranger schools, which was held in Fort Worth Saturday. The date was changed because the main speaker of the evening could not be present on Monday.

Although Coach Francis Schmidt could not be reached on Saturday, because of the fact that the T. C. U. Horned Frogs were playing the S. M. U. Mustangs in Dallas, it was said that Coach Schmidt could not be present on Monday night, but that he could probably be present Wednesday to address the team and the fans. Although the date is only tentative it is expected that the T. C. U. coach can be present.

The banquet will be held in the green room of the Gholson hotel and a charge of 50 cents a plate will be made. All fans of the city who desire to attend should make reservations with E. C. Smith not later than noon Wednesday and earlier if they know they can be present.

Nightwatchman Is Found Dead

By United Press. FORT WORTH, Nov. 26.—C. T. Taylor, 61, night watchman, was found shot to death at a miller's house in his mouth, at Universal Mills on King's highway today.

Mill employees found the body behind a pile of flour sacks. A revolver lay nearby. Taylor was said to have been in ill health for two years.

The wheelbarrow pushing, with Bray doing the riding, will start in front of the M-System grocery on Main street, will go to the Corner of Marston, back to the derrick on Commerce street and will end at the starting point.

Mr. Bray said Saturday he was having signs pointed, which would be placed on the wheelbarrow before the ride starts.

Wisecracker Is Fined

By United Press. BIRMINGHAM, Nov. 26.—William Mulhall, Detroit, wisecracked once too often. Arraigned here on a speeding charge, he told the court he didn't know he was passing through a village. "I thought it was a gas station," he said. The court rendered the remark with a $5 fine, plus costs.

Key to Senate

Senator Key Pittman of Nevada will probably achieve a thwarted ambition in the next Congress, and perhaps even in the Lane Duck session. He has wanted to be president pro tem. of the Senate, but Republican majorities have blocked him ever since 1913. Now it looks as if he is in at last.

DUCK HATCHES FOURTEEN DUCKLINGS

By United Press. RED OAK, Ia.—A hen duck owned by Maurice Kennon, 12, hatched out 14 ducklings recently in a nest which was situated on the cold ground in below freezing weather. Poultry specialists said that a 100 per cent hatch under these conditions was almost impossible.

Football Bet To Be Paid Monday On Ranger Street

A football bet will be paid off Monday morning at about 10 o'clock when Calvin Keith, salesman for the Abilene Fruit & Vegetable company, rolls Owen Bray of Ranger, rolls the length of Main street in a wheelbarrow. Keith bet on the Bucaroos in the Thanksgiving Day game with the Bulldogs, to his sorrow.

The wheelbarrow pushing, with Bray doing the riding, will start in front of the M-System grocery on Main street, will go to the Corner of Marston, back to the derrick on Commerce street and will end at the starting point.

Mr. Bray said Saturday he was having signs pointed, which would be placed on the wheelbarrow before the ride starts.

Aunt of Eastland Woman Is Dead

Mrs. W. A. Martin received the news of the death of her aunt, Mrs. Frances Marshall on Thanksgiving morning at 10 o'clock, at her home in Dallas.

The decedent had been in ill health for some years but the end was unexpected. She was 87 years of age and had lived the past 30 years in Dallas.

Funeral services were conducted from her home Friday afternoon with interment in the Dallas cemetery.

Mrs. Marshall had many friends in Eastland among the old timers and was a prominent figure in the early history of this state.

Defies League

Yusoke Matsuoka, above, Japanese delegate, was the sensation of the meeting of the League of Nations Council which considered the Lytton report on Manchuria. He justified Japan's course in the Manchurian fighting as "defensive" and denied that Manchukuo was a puppet state set up by Japan.

Pioneer Citizen of Eastland Dies

John Lewis Tindall, one of the pioneer citizens of Eastland, passed away in his 87th year, Friday, at 5:30 p. m., at his home, 602 South Walnut street, after a lingering illness of several months.

Mr. Tindall was born in Mississippi, Jan. 14, 1846, son of W. P. Tindall, a native of Alabama.

The decedent emigrated to Hamilton county, Texas, and several years later moved to Eastland county, where he finally built the home in Eastland which he occupied at the time of his death.

Mr. Tindall served Eastland county as deputy sheriff in 1881-1882 and was always known as a man, strong and resourceful, energetic in his private business and exemplifying a thorough public spirit in all his civic activities.

He was affiliated with the Masonic and Odd Fellow lodges of Eastland, and a life member of the Christian church.

Mr. Tindall was married Sept. 19, 1867, to Miss Elizabeth Long, daughter of T. C. and Harriett Long, to which union six children were born. Surviving the deceased are Mrs. Tinnie Davenport, wife of R. L. Davenport of Eastland; Jack Tindall and Robert C. Tindall, children; and the following grandchildren: Mrs. Guy Ward of Sierra Blanca; Mrs. Charles Sutton of La Luz, N. M.; Mrs. Dick Crutcher of Beaumont; Mrs. Dixie Williamson of Eastland; Misses Elizabeth Davenport and Ruby Tindall, and Ben Davenport, William Davenport, Jim Tindall, Lewis Tindall, Allen Tindall, Jack Tindall, Jr., Charley Tindall, and Edna Connelley.

Funeral services will be conducted from the home at 2:30 p. m., today, with Rev. P. W. Walshaw of Moran, former pastor of the Christian church of Eastland, officiating.

Retail Merchants of Ranger to Meet On Monday Night

Mrs. Alice True, secretary of the Ranger Retail Merchants association, announced Saturday that a meeting of merchants would be held Monday night at 7:30 in the offices of the association, to work out plans for the opening of the Christmas season.

It is planned to hold a formal opening at 7:30 Saturday night, Dec. 3, at which time the Ranger fire department and the Ranger high school band will cooperate in making the celebration more joyful.

Complete announcements concerning the plans will be made as soon as the details are completed by the members of the association.

Grass Fire Calls Tucks to Airport

The Ranger fire department was called out Saturday afternoon to a grass fire at Haugland Airport in Ranger.

No damage was done to the hangar at the airport as the fire was confined to the grass on the landing field and near the fences, which were not damaged.

Horned Frogs Win Southwest Title

DALLAS, Nov. 26.—The Texas Christian University Horned Frogs today were crowned champions of the Southwest conference when they defeated the Southern Methodist Mustangs by a score of 8 to 0.

TWO PAYROLLS WERE STOLEN ON SATURDAY

By United Press. FORT WORTH, Nov. 26.—Two payrolls of the Waples-Platter company were kidnaped and robbed of $1,771 in payroll money at the doorway of the Central National bank here today, as a hand-picked bandit poked a gun in the side of Lee Brown, auditor of the money satchel, and they forcibly seized their loot, escaping in automobile.

Two men were ordered into the grocery company's waiting automobile.

Lee on over," ordered the man, "and drive like hell, but with all traffic lights."

The two employees were released at a suburban road near the bank.

The bandit escaped with the loot and automobile in the direction of Monticello. Police, armed with sawed-off shotguns, took up pursuit.

By United Press. ALVESTON, Nov. 26.—Robbed of a warehouse and two helpers here today, the $2,400 payroll, they were transporting to a bank and escaped in an automobile, which spectators reported driven by a woman.

Several persons standing on a street corner, watched the payroll being forced to the curb by a hand-picked machine without realizing a robbery was in progress.

Paul Eggers, proprietor of the Nichols company warehouse; his son, Walter Eggers, and H. McManus, foreman, were among the money from the bank plant when their automobile was hijacked.

At the wheel of the bandit car was a woman. Two white men stepped out, brandishing guns, and the payroll satchel. Both men unmasked and appeared to be about 30 years old.

The bandits disabled the payroll by taking ignition keys with them.

State Teachers Elect President

By United Press. FORT WORTH, Nov. 26.—H. S. Hillwell, superintendent of public schools and president of the Texas State Teachers association, was elected president of the state teachers association convention here.

He succeeds Dr. J. A. Hill, president of West Texas State teachers college of Canyon.

Hillwell is a graduate of the University of Texas. He is past president of both the East and West Texas Teachers associations.

POCKET HAS LIKE NAMES.

COTTISBURG, Ind.—When Mrs. Brown reported for jury duty last week, she was the first on the docket to be Brown vs. Brown. Farther down the docket was another Brown awaiting trial. The defendant's wife's name was Mary Brown, identical with Juror Brown's wife.

A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

GOD'S WONDERFUL LOVE: For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.—John 3: 15.

MRS. ROOSEVELT WILL TALK FOR THE FORGOTTEN WOMAN

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt is going to make an appeal for "the forgotten woman", not for Mrs. Raymond Robins, because the colonel returned and the boys of the press are seeing to it that this faithful wife will not be forgotten or overlooked.

Mrs. Roosevelt will make an appeal for money—money to carry on the work of the Woman's Union Trade league of New York "of which many of the women she will be talking about are members." Mrs. Roosevelt is the busiest woman under the skies of America.

For many years she has been a member of the finance committee of the Woman's Trade Union league. She is the editor and manager of the magazine, "Babies." She teaches school. She is an active member of a dozen welfare organizations. She is the boss of a training school for girls. All-in-all, this is more uplifting and exhilarating than three sittings of bridge daily or a daily round of pink teas and like diversions by many of the sisterhood. Man was placed on this earth to work. Woman was given a mission. It was ordained that she should work too. All of this is a reminder there has been a lot of hustling on the part of those who came up "in the soft years" and after the crash made the discovery that "milk and honey" do not grow on trees.

IS IT TRUE THAT THE WOMAN PAYS

Page Mrs. Carolyn Hatfield of Monroe, La. Mother of 16 children, she has taken a 12th husband. Her latest is a McManus. Senator Huey P. Long may be a kingfish of politics-but he has a constituent of the feminine persuasion who should be pictured on the front page and given a column space to tell of her joys and sorrows and trials and tribulations in the matrimonial field of endeavor.

Kingfish Huey put over Mrs. Hattie Caraway of Arkansas for a full senatorial term of six years. Well, the Louisiana kingfish is not a squire of dames. He had an unholy ambition to make Minority Leader Joseph Taylor Robinson of Arkansas "eat humble pie." He started his brass band ballyhoo campaign in Arkansas and the one galled democrats of that commonwealth gave the Widow Caraway a vote that swamped the combined balloting recorded for six hungry sons of Andrew Jackson, who are ambitious to become trainers or guides of the donkey on the floor of the American senate. Widow Caraway did not pay. Minority Leader Joe did the paying. Flowers for all the faithful.

HINES' PLAN TO PAY VETERANS

Gen. Frank P. Hines is federal administrator of veterans' affairs. He is studying possible means of establishing a sinking fund through which the government might pay the present value of veterans' bonus certificates to ex-service men who desire immediate cash. He made the frank avowal that while possible methods of creating such a fund were under consideration none has been accepted by the administrators.

Cong. Wright Patman of Texas has let it be known that he will be on the job while the lame ducks are grinding in December. He has a bonus plan all his own. General Hines might get in touch with the Texan who was given a reelection by a handsome majority in November and is said to be as fit as a prizefighter "rarin' to go." There will be a lot of copy making under the big Washington dome in December of the old year and the early months of the new year.

MANY CONVICTIONS IN DRY LAW CASES

Pro enforcement officers of the federal bureau made 7789 arrests in October, secured 7642 convictions on pleas of guilty with an imposition of fines, federal and state, totaling $617,490. This record paralleled the results of the preceding month and October, 1931. Since June 30 of this year 17,602 defendants have pleaded guilty and 972 have been convicted. Only 1716 of the cases docketed resulted in acquittals or dismissals. Federal fines for the four-month period totaled $1,714,047, and state courts assessed fines of more than half a million dollars. In November the upheaval came; the repealers swept the country, the modificationists and resubmissionists won control of the new congress, and in the session of that congress in 1933 copy making as well as law repealing and law amending will keep the press correspondents very busy under the big dome on the banks of the Potomac river.

Some Football Memories

THE thrill of Penn's last desperate charge against Pitt, and the scare that Coach Jock Sutherland wore on his face in the dressing room after the game.

Coach Jimmy Conzelmann's surprise upon reading a pre-game prediction by his friend, Sutherland, to the effect that the team Jimmy coaches at Washington University at St. Louis would beat Missouri, and his further surprise when it turned out just as the Pitt coach had said.

The bad break Pardonner got in the Northwestern game when two of his usually deadly dropkicks failed, which allowed Northwestern to escape with a tie—and the many beautiful dropkicks he has booted this year—also the feeling that came from watching the scorekeeper put a nice big white "7" on the board after Purdue had crashed through for a touchdown and before Pardonner had touched toe to the ball for the extra point.

D. Joseph Slashes Prices of Dresses And Coats for Week

D. Joseph of the Joseph Dry Goods company, got back in the coat and dress department the other day or night and decided to reduce the prices even more for all this week.

There are hundreds of dresses and coats that were bought for this season's selling and they are in materials and styles that will delight every woman. The fur trimmings on the coats are exquisite. You might look at his advertisement elsewhere in this issue, but our opinion is that the best thing to do is go down and have a look at the goods sometime this week.

Montgomery Ward Opens Up Toyland

H. J. Barham, manager of the Ranger store of Montgomery Ward & Co., has announced the opening of Toyland on the second floor of the company's building on Main street.

The rearrangement of the second floor has made the toy section much more available for the display of toys and the youngsters of this section should get lots of enjoyment out of paying a visit to this toyland.

DUKE TRAMMEL AND ART DULA ON RANGER ATHLETIC CARD

NO FIGHTERS ATTRACTIONS AT ELK ARENA

Wrestling and Boxing Promised Fan At Opening Show.

The Ranger Elks club has announced that it will promote a series of weekly athletic shows at the Elks arena on Main street, beginning on Monday night and continuing weekly throughout the season.

An excellent card has been selected for the opening fight, with wrestling match and a good boxing bout.

The main bout in the boxing division, for which there will be no second round, will be between Art (Kid) Dula, 152, of Brownwood and Duke Trammel, 152, of Fort Worth. These two boys have won a wide reputation over the district as two of the best men in their division. They recently met a 10-round draw at the card and a good, fast match is anticipated by the fans and by the management.

Maybe you'll see new faces in the Yankee lineup when baseball gets under way in spring. If some of them are from the Pacific coast, they'll probably know Joe Devine, above, former Pirate scout, who left the Pirates' payroll to manage the Missions in the Pacific Coast League. Devine, the human diving rod who sent up Kremer, the Wauer brothers, Joe Cronin, Larry French, Gus Suhr and others, is reported about to join the Yanks as ivory hunter.

In Ranger Elks Athletic Show Monday

In the semi-finals in boxing Pat Slay, 145 pounder from Oiden, will mix with Lawson Acuff, 165, of Ranger. These two men have been working out most of the fall and are ready for anything the other might be able to show. Both are good fighters and this may prove to be as good a bout as the main event.

A four-round preliminary bout will be staged, with the announcement of the fighters to be made at a later date. In addition, a curtain raiser will be announced from the ringside at the show begins.

Plans have been made for a boxing tournament for amateurs, which will probably be started within the next two or three weeks. These bouts will be staged in all divisions, with a suitable prize for the winner in each weight. All who want to enter these bouts should turn in their names at the Elks club on Main street, with their weights and matches will be obtained for them from the other entries in their weight.

The admission prices for the show Monday night will be 25 cents for the outside seats, 40 cents for those inside the partition and 75 cents for ringside. At these prices, it is expected that a large crowd can be obtained as everyone can get seats at the prices they can afford to pay.

All money received from the bouts between now and Christmas will go toward filling Christmas baskets for the needy of this section, which will be distributed by the club on Christmas Eve.

Shoppe Moderne To Close Out Stock During This Week

The Shoppe Moderne enters the last week of their stay in Ranger after several years of catering to the feminine tastes in apparel and objects d'art. After this week the shoppe is to be moved by its owners, Mrs. Howard Gholson and Mrs. C. C. Craig, to Lubbock.

For the past two weeks they have been doing a wonderful business with their removal sale, and it is no wonder, since they are selling merchandise at cost and below in order to save transportation charges.

It is with regret that Ranger as a whole sees this move as it takes away one of the citizens' loveliest places to shop and the merchants could ask for no fairer competition nor better neighbors.

Killingsworth-Cox Has Toy Display For The Youngsters

The Killingsworth, Cox & Co. in Ranger opened their Toyland on Saturday afternoon when they entertained more than 500 children who were present to see their display of children's playthings.

The windows and the store have been decorated for the holiday season in a manner that has already proved to be a special attraction to the youngsters. The children who did not get to visit the store on Saturday have been issued a special invitation to go to the store at any time and to look over the things Santa has put on display in the store.

CHARLEY SCHMIDT
GREAT OLD-TIME DETROIT CATCHER, WHO DIED RECENTLY IN CALIFORNIA.

WAS ONE OF THE GREATEST MEN OF BASEBALL. HE WOULD BE ACQUAINTED OF BEING A STRATEGIST, HOWEVER.

ONE DAY WITH A RUNNER ON SECOND BASE AND TWO OUTS, HE INQUIRED BIRCH, GEORGE MULLIN TO MAKE A WILD SWEEP AND THEN COVER HOME PLATE.

THE PITCHER COMPLETED CHARLEY LET THE BALL GO TO BE SURE OF THE RUNNER, MEANWHILE, TEARING FOR THE THIRD.

CHARLEY FEIGNED TO HAVE LOST THE BALL AND BEGAN A FRANTIC SEARCH FOR IT. THE RUNNER FELL FOR THE GAB AND DASHED FOR HOME, BUT AS HE DID, CHARLEY SCORPED UP THE BALL AND THREW IT MULLIN FOR AN EASY PICK-UP AT THE PLATE.

The election leaves a lingering doubt that only time can erase. Just how did those Ford employees vote?

Every cloud has a silvery lining, but would someone please do something for last winter's overcoat?

PARIS STYLES

By United Press.

PARIS.—The "Bal du Velours," which took place at Ciro's, shows what an important part velvet plays in the mode of this season.

Black was more in evidence than colors and among the many striking dresses was a new Chanel model in black velvet worn by Mrs. Julie Thompson of Philadelphia.

This dress is made with graceful drapery on the corsage over which pass narrow bands of velvet, knotted in the center front and forming shoulder straps above the knot, while they pass the arms to give a balero effect. With this dress Mrs. Thompson wore an evening wrap of black velvet handsomely trimmed with silver fox.

Apart from black the outstanding colors at Ciro's were an attractive burgundy red and shades of blue. One of the outstanding gowns was a Chanel model in pale turquoise blue, worn by the Marquise Baztan, a very attractive Spaniard. This dress has a corsage of velvet and full flowing skirt of chiffon attached to a pointed velvet hip yoke. Another of the gowns seen on this occasion was buttoned down the side and has narrow inlet curving panels which give a slimming line to the hips. This dress is also worn with a little jacket of blue and silver paillettes by Mrs. Frank Jay Gould.

Duke Trammel, 152-pound battler from Fort Worth, who will be in the main bout at the Athletic Show at the Elks Arena in Ranger on Monday night. He will fight Art (Kid) Dula of Brownwood. The two recently fought to a 10-round draw at Fort Worth before a capacity crowd at the Fox-Cranfill arena.

HOOK AND SLIDES

Henry L. Farrell

Young Man Makes Good
OUTRUSHED and outgained in several of its games this year, Michigan still maintains the unbeaten, untied record of a Big Ten champion. The answer is smartness—plus Coach Harry Kipke.

Especially in the Princeton and Ohio State games Michigan demonstrated slick football. Ohio State outrushed the Wolverines all through the game, but Michigan won 14 to 0. Princeton made 11 first downs against Michigan's four, and outgained the Wolverines machine 41 yards to nine on forward passes. Yet Michigan won, 14 to 7.

Overcoming Yards
IT was the same story in the Northwestern game. Michigan made 87 yards in five first downs, against the Purple's 105 yards in 11 first downs. Minnesota also outgained the Wolverines, 125 yards against 85.

Quarterback Harry Newman played a very important part in keeping Michigan's record clean. His passes, kicking and running have made him the quarterback on the All-America team without a doubt. Young Newman deserves a lot of credit for both courage and judgment. His name must be ranked with that of Friedman. He may even be better than Friedman. Certainly he is as good as Benny ever was.

But Newman is not the whole story of the Michigan football team. He is more a result than a cause. The patient building by one man has made Michigan mighty in football. The man is the 31-year-old Kipke.

About the Professor
HE was an All-America man at Michigan himself ten years ago. Perhaps he was one of the greatest kickers the west ever knew. He was a fine open field runner and a good forward passer. He won nine letters in sports at Michigan.

Not many successful coaches emerge from such a background, but Kipke was more than a playing star—he was a thinking star.

He came back to Michigan in 1929. He began at once to change football ideas that Fielding Yost had been teaching for years. He made football a game to be played rather than a job to be done. He lightened the drudgery.

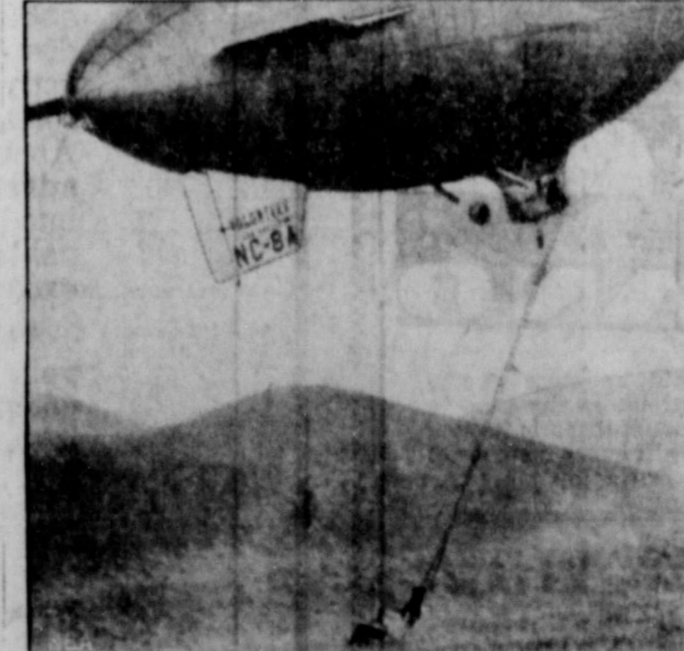

Sets Up School
MICHIGAN lost under his coaching at first. Purdue, Ohio State and Illinois took the Wolverines over the hurdles. A cry went up for his head.

It was then that Kipke started his school for quarterbacks. Harry Newman is a product of that school.

Kipke's quarterback course has held forth twice a week from December to June. The principal text used has been Yost's "Little Black Book" containing notes on all the quarterbacking tricks of such famous stars of other years as Weeks, Uteritz, Rockwell and Friedman.

Professor Kipke's school seems to this writer, is the answer to the smart football Michigan plays. It is a well educated team.

Swing Low, Sweet Chariot!

The blimp is swinging low and has picked Bob Steele, movie stunt man, off a galloping horse by a rope ladder. Just to make it harder, Bob carried a man on his back at the time. Because of his weight and the high wind pressure, Steele was unable to climb up to the car—had to hang on for several miles before he could be set down safely.

holding us all up like this," fumed the irate doctor. "Hold us all?" Tom caught at the words. "That's it, sir. This—this against the law you know to move the body—was forced to voice the truth and so place the blame. Tom scratched his head and glanced sidewise at the fuming doctor. He was thinking perhaps of the many times that irascible, kindly little man had lectured him for the various sins of growing boyhood. The tables now were turned indeed! "Yes—yes, of course, I authorized that. Perfect poppycock to say I couldn't! Doctor Boyle suppose that I'm going to leave a corpse out there for hours in the hot sun—" "Easy, easy!" said Tom anxiously, but Parsons was beyond caring for the layman's shocked reaction to the ordinary difficulties of his profession. "While he swigs whisky off in the Sound somewhere and hangs a line overboard pretending to jig for bluffs? Too bad he hasn't fallen overboard long ago, except it'd be a raw deal for the fish to be poisoned that way." TIM reverted with what could hardly be called tact to the most point of the discussion. "So the body having been moved irregardless," he continued judicially, "and the County Medical Examiner—which is Dr. Boyle—having been superceded in his duties, he himself—Dr. Boyle, ma'am—says he refuses to accept certification of the same as coming from was not authorized by himself and orders me up here to detain all persons in the house until such time as he himself may return for further examination." "Detain us?" "When will he be come?" "And what does that grafting whisky-swilling old coot—" The doctor's question had galled Tom too much emotional momentum to achieve a graceful finish before Tom spoke again, answering Linda. "Some time late this afternoon, ma'am. He was just back on land after a certain's fishin' and hungry for lunch and so were the men with him. Mad he was—swearing mad—and would not hurry a step, he said, and the lot of ye could wait his pleasure. He'll be havin' his meal and collectin' his belongings." "This to Tom who he appeared to think would to some degree sympathize with the politician's interrupted holiday. "He and his friends will come back as they went in the automobile of wan of them. 'Tis a four hour ride across the roads being crowded like on account of the holiday, and if they'll not be startin' till after lunch time—which isn't yet—'twill be six or seven o'clock before they reach town." "And those people must wait all that time!" Dr. Parsons exploded. "It's orders, sir," Tom was just enjoying himself. "And that's just what Dr Boyle himself was after saying. How many have ye visitin' here, Mrs. Averill, may I ask?" TOM spoke slowly. He had not failed to observe the quickly veiled sparkle in Linda's eyes and her flush of excitement. "Four men, Tim, to stay over the week-end. They're all getting ready to go of course. I was to take them to the station for the 12 o'clock train. Will Dr. Boyle want to see them too?" "He said ivyone in the house, Mr. Averill. Sure, 'tis just a formality, but I wouldn't dare let them go after his saying he must see ivyone here. He'll be after askin' a few questions and that will be all." "You'd better tell them right away, Tom," said Linda quietly. It was all she could do to keep the exultation from her voice. This was an "assist" she had not expected. Until evening, anyhow—and perhaps that afternoon—Tom started upstairs, then stopped as another thought struck him. "Must they all stay on the place, Tim? Is it—that official?" "Of course not, of course not," began Dr. Parsons angrily. "This isn't arrest, my boy. Even Boyle wouldn't expect to confine you all to the house all day. In fact, of all meddling, interfering, officious—officials—!" Concluding that he was repeating himself, he spluttered off into silence. Tom, accustomed to regarding the doctor's authority with a respect amounting almost to veneration, was glad enough to yield the point. "Oh, no, sir—it's as Dr. Parsons says. Nothin' but to ask a few questions, inspect the scene of the accident and close the matter. So long as those who were in the house this mornin' when he happened are here for Dr. Boyle to talk to when he comes, 'twill be all right." "And you said he wouldn't be back till after 6?" "He said he would not hurry himself in the least for any— for anybody," finished Tim weakly. The others, knowing the subdued, yet fierce, hatred of the old-time political gang and its benches for the opposing element of the summer colony, recognized the caution which deleted the medical

Vicks Company Increases Payroll to Handle Business

GREENSBORO, N. C., Nov. 26. An increase in employment of over 42 per cent—a rise in volume of sales of more than 35 per cent! That is the impressive record made by Vicks VapoRub, Vicks Nose and Throat Drops and Vicks Medicated Cough Drops for the first nine months of 1932—figures disclosed today by L. Richardson, president of Viek Chemical company. The record is made even more impressive by the fact that the increase in Vicks sales is a healthy increase in volume of business and employment in the years of 1930 and 1931, too. It's a story of business courage—and of advertising faith. A year ago—running counter to the general current of business and against the judgment of advisers—Vicks more than doubled its appropriation for advertising, and introduced two new products. The bulk of this appropriation, as usual, went to newspapers. What has followed is an actual demonstration that sometimes the seemingly impossible "can be done." Volume of sales of the Viek leader—Vicks VapoRub, the almost universally used treatment for colds—has increased steadily. Rise of the two new products has been phenomenal. Sales of Vicks Nose and Throat Drops—exceeded estimates by more than 50 per cent. Sales of the unique Vicks Cough Drop—medicated with Vicks VapoRub—were little short of sensational—over 20 million packages the first season. Already this season, President Richardson states, sales on this item alone exceed seven and one-half million packages. These new products, in combination with the famous Vicks VapoRub, made possible the new Viek Plan for better Control-of-Colds. In clinical tests among thousands last winter, this plan was proved successful in reducing the number, duration and costs of colds by half. In view of that success, President Richardson announces that it will be backed this season by an advertising appropriation substantially larger even than that of last year. Evening Bridge and Gift Shower Honors Couple Prior to Wedding

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Steel, 432 Pine street, presented a pretty setting decked in a profusion of winter blossoms, carrying a color motif of pink and green. Friday evening, when the pleasant host and hostess, entertained with a gift shower and bridge affair, in honor of one of Ranger's most popular couples, Miss Marie Crutsinger and Joe Martin, whose marriage will take place on the first day of December in the rectory of the Catholic church.

Tables were dressed in the chosen colors and finished with complete sets of accessories, where bridge was enjoyed, later followed with dancing by radio.

Preceding the serving of a refreshment plate of fancy sandwiches, confections and hot chocolates, the honor guests were presented with a useful and lovely selection of gifts.

The very delightful but informal function was attended by a group of intimate friends of the couple, among whom were Misses Bernadine Kribbs, Agnes Reuser, Wilda Duke, and bride-elect, and Messrs. Jimmie Blin of Thurber, Clifford Watkins, Charles Hamilton, and Joe Martin.

Bible Reading Suggested For Children By Mrs. Bryan

Mrs. Gid J. Bryan, who was featured speaker at Hodges Oak Park Parent-Teacher association meeting held last week, particularly stressed the grave importance of good and select reading for children.

Bible lessons were suggested by this noted speaker, emphasizing the aid in spiritual thought and mental development. Another inspiring hint was offered through the added suggestion that mothers watch the type of pictures used for room decorations as children readily observe more quickly than one might imagine. The value of Mrs. Bryan's lectures are always double in material aid since her major points are delivered in so colorful and lasting manner.

A summarized report of the state convention of the Texas Congress of Parent-Teacher and Child Study Associations, which convened at Galveston was given by Mrs. J. S. Reynolds, president of the P. T. A.

A large audience of parents profited from this interesting meeting which adjourned to meet one week from the approaching Tuesday afternoon.

Fidelis Class Entertained By Teacher, Mrs. Hicklin

The Fidelis Sunday school class of the Central Baptist church, taught by Mrs. Frank Hicklin, was pleasantly entertained with an informal social at the Hicklin home last week.

A business session was called to order and plans discussed for Christmas, to gather with other interesting topics.

Drawing to a close the social enjoyed by each member the hostess served home-made popcorn and mixed nuts to Misses Lorenzie Croft, Kathleen Birdsong, Lelia Crutsinger, Ruth Elmore, Opaldell Brown, Oya Mae McGee, Velma Brown, Pauline Daniels, Hazel Davis.

Celebrates Birthday of Young Son With Party

One of the gayest parties of last week honored young Jack Littlefield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Onis Littlefield, when his mother entertained with a prettily appointed party in honor of his important fourth birthday.

The rooms of the Littlefield home were decorated in the Thanksgiving Day motif which reflected notes of bright and harmonizing colors.

The group of party members were delightfully entertained throughout the mid-afternoon hours and prizes in games offered many thrills for the winners. In Birthday packages were opened by the young honor guest while his mother served a plate of ginger-bread and grape punch to the following: Patay Jean Youker, Sheila Lemma, Jean Jenkins, Doris Fearnstein, Vivian Cooper, Jack Cole, Dorothy Kenny, Elsie Hummel, Esther Fay Stein, Marianne Rogers, Marcus Earl Stein, Kirkie Rogers.

Assistants during the party were Mrs. J. R. Scott and Mrs. Stein.

Class Enjoys Outing At Butler Springs
The Queen Esther Sunday school class of the Central Baptist church took advantage of the delightfully cool crisp weather Saturday morning for a hike and outing enjoyed at Butler Springs.

A huge fire was built and a bountiful luncheon with cocoa was served. Those enjoying the splendid day were: Misses Margaret Crutsinger, Bobbie Lee Toliver, Inez Baker, Sibyl Lee Davis, Marguerite Norris, Evelyn White, Etta Marie Ghante, Eva K. Bearden and Mrs. F. D. Hicks.

Ted Sloan of Abilene visited in Ranger Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Jenkins and Mr. and Mrs. Onis Littlefield had as Thanksgiving day visitors, Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Littlefield of Millsap, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mounts of Jol, N. M. Mrs. Mounts is a sister of Mrs. Littlefield and Mrs. Jenkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lacy of Wichita Falls visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lowe Thursday and Friday.

George Raft, young movie player who, in minor roles in three films, developed popularity rivaling that of any star-ranking actor in Hollywood, has his first important role in "Night After Night," screen adaptation of the Louis Bromfield story, "Single Night," which comes to the Lyric Theatre today.

Raft heads a cast which includes Constance Cummings, Wynne Gibson, Mae West and Alison Skipworth.

The actor presents a strange enigma to Hollywood producers. He has played supporting roles to stars in "Scarface," "Madame Racketeer" and "Dancers in the Dark." These three films mark the limit of his movie appearances. Yet he has caught on with audiences. His fan mail is tremendous. Exhibitors throughout the country report their patrons demand more and more Raft.

Raft has the leading male role in "Night After Night." He is cast as owner of a luxurious speakeasy located in the East Fifties, in New York.

Miss Cummings, a Park Avenue debutante who was born in the house in its better days, before its conversion into an oasis for the thirsty, is drawn back to the scene by a nostalgic yearning. Her frequent visits bring her in contact with Raft, who is fascinated by her.

That "mystery ship" which has been following the U. S. fleet during its battle maneuvers off the California coast probably belongs to some taxpayer who's curious to find out how the navy spends its $400,000,000 per year.
