WILLOWS MAY BE OPENED ON NEXT MONDAY

A committee composed of Lions and Kotarians met with the city commission Thursday afternoon and made arrangements for a water rate reduction for the willows swimming pool for the summer and plans are now about completed for opening the pool by next Monday night.

The committee had already secured reductions in water rates to be paid to M. H. Hagaman and for lights from the Texas Electric Service company, which will reduce the operating expenses to a minimum and it is thought that the pool can be operated this summer without expense to the club.

When the pool is opened the co-operation of the entire citizenship of the town in patronizing it has been urged by the Lions swimming pool committee, which will have charge of the operations this summer, in order that the pool might be kept open and the club not have to bear any additional expense.

Plans called for a little concrete work to be done today, which would be dry enough to begin filling the pool Sunday night in time for the opening Monday. Complete details, however, had not been completed, though it was expected that the plans would progress rapidly from here on out.

Tentative plans call for several five days for the children, which will be announced later by the committee. Improvements made last year at considerable expense will not be involved in the expense of opening of the pool this year and the same sanitary conditions will prevail, with the water kept in good condition at all times.

Members have been made for any opening program, though a committee meeting is to be held either today or Saturday morning to work out these details, it was stated this morning by some of the members of the pool committee.

Eastland Wins From Eliasville By 9 to 6 Score

Bring up ball playing was evidenced in the Eastland independent soft ball team and the Eliasville town team played Thursday night at Eliasville which the Eastland group won, 9 to 6.

Outstanding work on the Eastland team, according to Howard G. Owens, manager of the team last night, was contributed by Fullingmeyer, Owens, Norton and Cheatham. Gorton made two consecutive double plays. Tully of the Eastland group was responsible for the strikeout. Johnston, Eliasville pitcher, was the best that the Eastland soft ballers have encountered, displaying exceptional delivery and a mean speed ball.

William Castleberry of Eastland got the following scores:

EASTLAND
Player	AB.	R.	H.
Castleberry, cf.	5	1	2
W. Gorton, p.	4	0	1
Norton, 2b.	3	1	1
Cheatham, 3b.	4	0	0
Owens, 4b.	4	0	0

W. Gorton, 6b.	3	0	0
Tully, 7b.	4	0	0
W. Gorton, 8b.	4	0	0
W. Gorton, 9b.	4	0	0

The decision followed a report by three physicians that Baer was in excellent condition.

Members of the contract proposal committee will carry it to heads of local packing firms. The proposal calls for a 10 per cent wage increase, a 32-hour week, recognition of seniority and recognition of the rights of collective bargaining.

ALANREED, Texas.—E. G. Stapp, garageman, has successfully flown a home-made airplane he built in his spare time. The ship, which took over a year to build, has a top speed of 80 miles an hour and is powered with a Ford motor.

Relief Commission To Meet Monday

AUSTIN, June 8.—Texas Relief commissioners today were summoned to meet Monday. The session will be held with the disputed membership between R. L. Holliday, El Paso, and Julius Dorenfield, Jr., of Amarillo, still in court.

Should Dorenfield insist on sitting at the session, as he can do under a supersedeas bond, Holliday is expected again to be present and to protest each of Dorenfield's votes.

Purposes of Monday's session were not set out in the call for the regular meeting.

DILLINGER MAY BE DEAD IS AN AGENT'S BELIEF

WATERLOO, Ia., June 8.—"Hick town" policemen chalked up another victory today over the hard-boiled John Dillinger gang, with Dillinger's ace machine gunner in a morgue and rumors that Dillinger is dead substantiated by a deathbed statement.

The gang's most feared killer, Tommy Carroll, died last night, a few hours after two city detectives knocked a gun from his hand and shot him as he fled.

Leaning over a hospital cot, Federal Agent O. H. Dewey asked him: "Where did you bury John?" Carroll rolled his head to look at the agent defiantly in the eye.

"I hid him," he mumbled, then died.

Dewey was not certain whether Carroll meant Dillinger was alive or buried, dead.

J. M. Nunn Runs For Representative

Due to a similarity in names, the name of J. M. Nunn has been carried in news stories as being a candidate for representative from Eastland county, when, as a matter of fact the man who is the candidate is J. M. Nunn.

Mr. Nunn is an employee of one of the major oil companies and resides at Olden. He is not a candidate. Mr. Nunn, an independent oil operator, resides at Eastland and is an avowed candidate for representative from the 106th district.

Title Bout to Be Held Thursday

NEW YORK, June 8.—The New York Athletic commission ruled today the Carnera-Baer championship fight must be held Thursday night as scheduled.

The decision ruled out Commissioner Bill Brown's proposal the bout be postponed a month or cancelled completely because of Max Baer's reported poor physical condition.

The decision followed a report by three physicians that Baer was in excellent condition.

Members of the contract proposal committee will carry it to heads of local packing firms. The proposal calls for a 10 per cent wage increase, a 32-hour week, recognition of seniority and recognition of the rights of collective bargaining.

Marital Law Is Declared as Storm Sweeps Salvador

SAN SALVADOR, June 8.—Marital law was declared today in the wake of a devastating hurricane which caused great damage and possibly considerable loss of life.

Unofficial estimates were eight dead and 500 homeless in the vicinity of San Salvador. Property damage was estimated at $1,500,000. The storm tore down power lines, disrupted communication and badly damaged many principal buildings.

The only 1932 democratic platform pledge binding on the national administration was for federal legislation to protect dry states. McBride contended, however, Mr. Roosevelt could intervene in the states or big cities and named Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Chicago.

"I don't know whether we ever will ask for another eighteenth amendment," McBride said. "But the liquor issue will be in the forefront of the campaign this year."

"What we are asking is an enabling amendment to the constitution to permit congress to limit, restrict or prohibit the traffic in alcoholic beverages. That would keep it always an issue in the congressional districts. I would rather have that than another eighteenth amendment."

McBride listed broken promises as:

1. There would be no saloon.
2. Racketeering would be stopped.
3. Bootlegging would be ended.
4. Young people would cease drinking.
5. Political corruption connected with liquor would cease.
6. Federal revenue would boom.

"The saloon is back," McBride said. "Attorney General Cummings recently reported there was more racketeering than ever. Joseph H. Coate Jr., of the alcohol control administration, says there is tremendous illegal sale of liquor."

"Now," said McBride, "the young folk cannot avoid liquor. It is everywhere. The pre-prohibition days were better when liquor was confined to the saloon."

"Political corruption in big cities is more marked than before."

"Mayor Kelly of Chicago doesn't dare order the illegal dives closed. Neither does the president of the United States dare order him to do it. If President Roosevelt got as busy enforcing the control law as he was repealing the eighteenth amendment he would do it."

McBride said he believed repeal was costing the government about as much as was gained on liquor revenue.

Heidingsfelder is disgraced by court. HOUSTON, June 8.—C. E. Heidingsfelder, 61-year-old Houston attorney, was permanently disgraced from the practice of law in Texas by a judgment signed by District Judge Charles Ashe.

INSURGENTS IN HOUSE WANT BILLS PASSED

(Copyright 1934 by United Press) WASHINGTON, June 8.—Insurgent house members, angered because inflation, warm relief and labor aid bills have been sidetracked, secretly circulated a petition today pledging house members to vote against adjournment until the measures have been acted upon.

The petition carried 40 signatures, shortly before the house convened today. The petition pledges signers to oppose adjournment until the house has acted on such bills as the Wagner labor dispute measure, the bank deposit pay-off bill, the 30-hour week bill and the inflation farm relief measure.

McBride Charges Roosevelt Dodges Repeal Promises

By LYLE C. WILSON
United Press Staff Correspondent
(Copyright 1934 by United Press) WASHINGTON, June 8.—President Roosevelt is dodging the duty of making prohibition repeal promises come true, F. Scott McBride, chief Anti-Saloon league strategist, charged today in an interview with the United Press.

He predicted prohibition would come back.

McBride complained wet-doubt-crossed the American people with repeal promises which have not been kept. He said Mr. Roosevelt did not "dare" compel local communities to clean up.

The only 1932 democratic platform pledge binding on the national administration was for federal legislation to protect dry states. McBride contended, however, Mr. Roosevelt could intervene in the states or big cities and named Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Chicago.

"I don't know whether we ever will ask for another eighteenth amendment," McBride said. "But the liquor issue will be in the forefront of the campaign this year."

"What we are asking is an enabling amendment to the constitution to permit congress to limit, restrict or prohibit the traffic in alcoholic beverages. That would keep it always an issue in the congressional districts. I would rather have that than another eighteenth amendment."

McBride listed broken promises as:

1. There would be no saloon.
2. Racketeering would be stopped.
3. Bootlegging would be ended.
4. Young people would cease drinking.
5. Political corruption connected with liquor would cease.
6. Federal revenue would boom.

"The saloon is back," McBride said. "Attorney General Cummings recently reported there was more racketeering than ever. Joseph H. Coate Jr., of the alcohol control administration, says there is tremendous illegal sale of liquor."

Wheat Field Once; Desert Now

Scared by blazing sun in the long drought that has taken huge toll in the Midwest, and covered by several feet of sand whirled across it by high, scorching winds, this South Dakota wheat field looks like a stretch of desert land. Extent of damage wrought is indicated by the fence, which in places is entirely buried beneath the high-piled billows of sand, leaving a Herculean task of clearing it facing the farmer before he can plant another crop.

Advances Made To Get Germany Back In League

By United Press
GENEVA, June 8.—France and Great Britain, making mutual sacrifices in an effort to save the disarmament conference from failure, today approved a resolution designed to bring Germany back to it.

The resolution emphasized the necessity for Germany's return if success is to be attained. Negotiations will be held outside the conference in an effort to win Germany back to disarmament discussion.

3 Permits to Drill Issued This Week

Operators who, according to the records, started drilling this week were from Eastland county with the exception of one. The maximum depth contemplated for drilling was 1310 feet.

The permits issued were: Kirk Oil Refining Co., Inc., and Texas Water Oil Co., of Gorman on the Murrell B lease in Eastland county, section 29, block 2, well 2. The company proposes to drill to 1310 feet.

C. J. Thomas of Dallas on the Dunham lease in Eastland county, section 16, block 2, well 1. Work on the well started Friday. The company proposes to drill 1200 feet.

O. L. Wilson Grows Freak Potatoes

Here is one that might interest Ripley, of "Believe It Or Not" fame.

O. L. Wilson, who lives in the Chastain Addition, Eastland, planted Irish potatoes in April and planted only the Red Triumph variety. A few days ago in digging under one of the vines he found two large potatoes, one a perfect Red Triumph, and the other a perfect white Early Rose, both grown on the same vine and same stem.

Mr. Wilson says this is something he has never heard of before and something that sounds unreasonable, but that he had the potatoes and that numerous people have seen them.

All of Air Line Passengers Safe When Ship Falls

By United Press
SELLECK, Wash., June 8.—All passengers of the United Air Lines Seattle-bound transport, which crashed in a wooded wilderness of the Cedar river watershed are alive and a rescue party is close to the plane.

P. C. Beezley, Seattle, one of the six passengers aboard the transport, was found about a mile from the plane.

Blood streaming from his injuries, Co-Pilot Dwight Hansen staggered into a mountain home last night to report that the ship had been forced down.

SENATE COPS SHOCKED BY MAHATMA GARB

By United Press
WASHINGTON, June 8.—A man dressed like Mahatma Gandhi strolled into the senate gallery today.

In sandals, loin cloth and white cape and nothing else, the man almost paralyzed with astonishment the capitol police and sergeant-at-arms, Chesley Journey, before he was ejected.

The man said his name was W. H. Goodell but he wouldn't give his address.

In one hand he carried a staff and in the other several books entitled "Nature," "Life Under the Sun," and others which indicated he might be a member of a nudist colony.

Central Baptist Prayer Bands Have Reached 176 Total

The prayer bands of Central Baptist revival reached the high mark of 176 last evening, and with the increase in number came an increase in spirituality and interest. The young people reported around 12,000 verses of Scripture read during the day. Many requests for prayer were made.

At the preaching hour Rev. Dunlap spoke on "The Need of a Refuge," and climaxed with Christ the only abiding refuge for man. Upon the invitation two came forward for membership in the church, one upon profession of faith and one by letter.

Central Baptist is enjoying a great spiritual revival. She is singing with power, praying with power and Rev. Dunlap is preaching with power.

If you miss the prayer bands you miss the spiritual touch of the 176 in these bands. You miss the great song service that is held in each band, you miss the quoting of God's promises to those who seek Him, you miss the fellowship. Don't be a loser; be a gainer, getting the things that are in store for Ranger in this revival.

Morning services 9:30, prayer bands 7:30, preaching 8:30. Come early and be assured of a comfortable seat.

SECURITY FOR ALL PROMISED BY PRESIDENT

Insurance Against Unemployment and Old Age Plan Is Message.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—The pattern of a greater new deal—a social order promising security for all through insurance against unemployment and old age and planned use of natural resources, was presented to congress today by President Roosevelt.

Regarded as one of the most important documents ever transmitted to capitol hill by this administration, the message encompassed the whole economic picture and charted for the next congress the new reforms Mr. Roosevelt seeks.

Security for the individual, the family, the home, was the tenor of the communication through which the president wove the pattern of his greater new deal. He suggested guarantees for the aged and jobless after reviewing legislation since 1933, calling attention to necessity for additional emergency measures that this session, and finally bluntly warning the lid on the "pork barrel" had been nailed down to stay.

"Next winter we may undertake the task of furthering the security of the citizen and his family through social insurance," he said.

"Hence, I am looking for a sound means which I can recommend to provide at once security against several of the great disturbing factors of lives—especially those relating to unemployment and old age."

"I believe there should be a maximum of cooperation between the states and the federal government. I believe the funds necessary to provide this insurance should be raised by contribution rather than by an increase in general taxation."

"Above all, I am convinced that social insurance should be national in scope, although the several states should meet at least a portion of the cost of management, leaving to the federal government the responsibility of maintaining and safeguarding the funds, constituting the necessary insurance reserve."

Mr. Roosevelt explained that he had commenced to make the actuarial and other studies necessary for consideration in the 74th congress.

Candidate For Lieut. Governor County Visitor

R. M. Johnson of Palestine, Anderson county, who is a candidate for Lieutenant Governor, was a visitor in Eastland county Thursday. In company with Judge O. C. Funderburk of Eastland, he visited various places and met as many voters as possible in the short time he had.

A number of years ago Mr. Johnson and Judge Funderburk were law partners in Palestine. Mr. Johnson is at present a member of the lower house in the Texas Legislature and his campaign literature carries the slogan, "The Lone Candidate from the Lower House."

The total number of candidates for the position of County Treasurer was raised to four this week with the announcement of Mrs. Frances (Thornton) Cooper that she is a candidate for the office.

MERRIMAN BAPTIST CHURCH Bro. Woodie W. Hill is conducting a revival at the Merriman Baptist church. We cordially invite the public to attend these services. Subject for Saturday night, "Blood Redemption;" Sunday morning, "Take Ye Away the Stone;" Sunday night, "The Two General Resurrections."

The revival will continue through next week with the aid-time Gospel message. Song service begins at 8:30 each evening.

State Gasoline Tax Returns Were Up During 1933

WASHINGTON—State gasoline taxes in the calendar year 1933 yielded a revenue of more than $519,000,000 as compared with $514,138,900 in 1932 according to reports collected from state authorities by the Bureau of Public Roads, U. S. Department of Agriculture. This figure does not include tax returns from the Federal gasoline tax.

Consumption of gasoline exceeded 14 billion gallons and was slightly less in 1933 than in the previous year. The weighted average tax rate was 3.65 cents per gallon. There was a noticeable increase in the diversion of funds to other than highway purposes and also an increase in funds allocated to local roads.

The total revenue was allocated as follows: To state highways, $27,517,371; to local roads, $111,109,158; to state and county roads, bond payments, $58,972,767; to city streets, $3,334,180; to costs of collection and administration, $2,727,801; and to other than highway purposes, $55,742,173.

Food Market Advice

WEATHER plays a much more important part in our lives than our temporary comfort or discomfort due to heat, cold or wet. At the present time the supply of many food staples is threatened or beginning to be affected by heat and drought in the middle west. The usual large increase in BUTTER production in late May and June is not taking place due to shortage of pasture. GRAIN crops are already seriously affected, and this increases the cost of feeding beef cattle, sheep and hogs. Heat tends to decrease the number of EGGS which hens lay. Eggs, like other perishable foods, need refrigeration at this season. The weather breaks we shall probably have to pay more for many staple foods before very long.

Peaches Are Promised
PEACH crops in the northeastern states are going to be short because of the unusually cold winter. Fortunately for those of us who like PEACHES, Georgia is going to have a bumper crop ripening during July, and the state of Washington also later in the season.

In the meantime BUTTER and EGGS are still moderately priced, and there is a generous supply of most seasonable fruits and vegetables. Tomatoes cannot be said in praise of fresh PEPPERS. Although the peak of the season has just passed they were never finer and will be plentiful until about the first of July. PEPPERS, PLUMS, and CHEERIES are beginning to be plentiful and moderately priced. WATERMELONS are less expensive than a week ago and popular for week-end picnicking. An attractive MELON plate can be made with a ring of CANTALOUPE and balls of HONEYDEW and WATERMELON, or the ring may be of HONEYDEW with CANTALOUPE and WATERMELON balls. MELON also combines well with other fruits. BANANAS continue attractive in price and quality. STRAWBERRIES are plentiful and cheap. RASPBERRIES make delicious sherbet.

Vegetables Are Cheap
GREEN BEANS, ONIONS and SPINACH are very cheap and of excellent quality. NEW POTATOES are now comparable in price with old. CARROTS and BEETS are plentiful and inexpensive. Vine-ripened TOMATOES are a satisfactory purchase at this season. SCALLIONS and RADISHES make an inexpensive and attractive relish dish with or without the addition of pickles or olives. GREEN CORN is in market but is high in price. GREEN PEAS are very reasonable.

STEAK is always popular whether it be braised chuck, pan-broiled top round, broiled porterhouse for small families, or planked sirloin for parties. And all of them are reasonably priced this week. A FOWL, white or brown fricassee, in pot pie, in chicken salad, as jellyed chicken or in sandwiches is always appreciated—and this is a good time to serve it.

FISH in variety continues to be plentiful and inexpensive. For economy and good eating why not enjoy it twice a week? A simple prepared menu* made up from foods that you family will enjoy.

New Oil and Gas Commission Is Being Discussed

HOUSTON.—Advisability of creating an oil and gas commission to control Texas' fields, relieving the Texas railroad commission of the responsibility, was discussed in Houston oil circles today. Creation of such a commission is not a new idea. Three times bills to create an oil and gas commission have been introduced in the state legislature. Each time they have been defeated. Rumors are current here that a special session may be called this summer to create the new commission. Oil men said the Fergusons were in favor of the new commission. Under the present laws, the governor would have the appointive powers.

Discussion of such a commission was said by some to have shown in effects already on the coming election, July 28. The race is for railroad commissioner, in which Lon A. Smith is running for re-election. He considers his most dangerous announced opponent to be Gregory Hatcher, former state treasurer.

R. D. Parker, member of the commission's staff in the huge East Texas field, probably would throw his hat into the ring against his "boss" if it were not for the loud booming talk about this new commission, oil men say. Parker has been mentioned numerous times as one of the most likely appointees to the oil and gas commission if it were created.

He recently was "demoted" from chief supervisor of the oil and gas division of the railroad commission in charge of the entire state to the position of chief supervisor in charge of the East Texas field only.

Another person prominently mentioned as a possible appointee of the proposed oil and gas commission is Cecil Storey, Wichita Falls attorney.

State Owned Lakes May Enrich Fund

AUSTIN.—When grants made by the Mexican government conveyed land along the gulf coast of what now is Texas, the titles excluded lakes. With extension of oil development, these lakes now promise to help enlarge state school funds.

The Republic of Texas and the State of Texas, in turn, acquired the lakes rights that had been reserved by the Mexican government. These rights are being surveyed to establish the lines of the lakebeds. The territory in the beds will be leased for oil development. Funds from leases will go to the state permanent school fund.

New Highway To Take Out Curves

AUSTIN.—Some figures on the new highway between Temple and Waco have been gathered by the Temple Morning News from Division Engineer E. C. Woodward. Visibility of approaching cars on the hills on the old road was 100 feet; now they can be seen 600 feet. Some of the old bridges were 12 feet wide. The narrowest now is 24 feet. The old 50-foot right-of-way has been doubled. Surface width has been increased from 16 to 20 feet. Curves on the old road made a motorist turn eight complete circles while he was traveling between Temple and Waco. The combined curves on the new road make only half of one complete circle. Three miles distance is saved.

Young Negro Real Hit and Run Victim

SAN FRANCISCO.—Eddie Parks, five-year-old negro boy, was numbered today in San Francisco's small but select group of hit-run pedestrians. Run down by a car driven by Dr. Blake Wilbur, son of Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, Stanford university president and former secretary of the interior, Eddie jumped to this fact and ran down the street.

"I ain't done nothing, mister," he shouted, terrified, as Dr. Wilbur attempted to catch him. The chase ended at Eddie's home. Dr. Wilbur took him to a hospital, where Eddie evidenced considerably more interest in surgical instruments than in the cut on his forehead.

Twin Canaries Are Hatched From Egg

KOKOMO, Ind.—When a mother canary hatches a tiny little babe it usually brings "ohs" and "ahs" from the household, but the cheery songs which announced the birth of twin canaries at the Roscoe Rose home here recently are due to catch the attention of the ornithology world.

The twin birds, hatched from the same egg emerged from the shell, each independent of the other and perfectly formed. A day later three other eggs, which the little bird had been keeping warm for several weeks, hatched. Ornithologists report that twin canaries from the same egg are rare, and that in most instances the birds are dead, or are deformed.

Skill Is Needed To Be Poisoner

WASHINGTON.—There is an art to spreading grasshopper poison, says Dr. J. R. Parker of the Agriculture Department's Bureau of Entomology. To be fully effective, he announces, the bait "must fall apart in flakes and must not drop in lumps too large for small grasshoppers' jaws."

"The trick is to throw the bait into the wind with a snap of the wrist." Dr. Parker, who is field leader of the co-operative anti-grasshopper campaign, financed and organized by the Department, reports that more than 31,000 tons of mixed bait have been delivered to infested midwestern states.

In Nevada, where the insect eggs hatched earlier than usual because of warm weather, the poison was said to have successfully halted grasshopper advances over many acres. What ever may have been its ill effects the record drought prevailing in corn and grain belts may make it possible to "obtain relatively complete kills" of grasshoppers with one application of bait because continuous hot weather promises to produce a uniformly heavy hatch throughout the affected territory, Dr. Parker observed.

Satisfactory results cannot be expected, he said, if the bait is dumped on the ground "in a hit or miss fashion." It should be scattered "thinly and evenly over the infested area at the rate of 10 to 20 pounds to the acre, according to the number of hoppers present."

"HOW ARE WE GOING TO ACTIVATE THE CAPITAL GOODS INDUSTRY?"

Washington sounded the warning that a big push to send congress home in another fortnight has been opened by administration leaders. President Roosevelt is said to have helped when he compromised with a militant senate conference committee "to prevent a deadlock over controversial section of the stock market control bill. He also has given the administration blessings to a silver program in an effort to appease Western senators and thus hasten adjournment." Now both measures are assured by early passage—this by the leaders of both houses of the congress.

Majority Leader Joseph Taylor Robinson is hopeful of disposing of both the tariff and the silver legislation this week—perhaps in the early days of the month of June. Very important is the tariff bill and its passage. It authorizes the President to raise or lower tariff rates 50 per cent for the purpose of negotiating reciprocal trade agreements. According to the wise leaders who are legislative friends of the administration the tariff bill is certain. Likewise quick acceptance by both houses of the compromise conference report on the stock market regulation bill was forecast May 28.

Another important committee, that is the durable goods industry committee of the national recovery set-up has made its report. This committee was created to answer the administration's question of "how are we going to activate the capital goods industry?" Well, the committee investigated and reported. Its foreword was that reestablishment of confidence on the part of investors was most important. Its program as made to the President, by a committee of 16 headed by George H. Houston, president of the Baldwin Locomotive Works, was summarized as follows by Washington correspondents: "First, a free flow of private capital into private business. Second, a sound real estate mortgage market. Third, an industrial relations on a basis to assure cooperation instead of strife. Fourth, a balanced price parity between agricultural commodities and manufactured goods."

Now it is for the congress to get busy on the legislation necessary. All the people, regardless of political party affiliations are interested in pushing along the cause of national recovery and the complete restoration of confidence in all branches of business, in all fields of human endeavor and in a policy of cooperation instead of strife, on the part of the employers of labor as well as a quick recognition of the rights of all on the part of wage workers as well as those who operate the great corporations of human activity the country over.

Some of our politicians seem to think they know it all, but do they?

HOW ARE WE GOING TO ACTIVATE THE CAPITAL GOODS INDUSTRY?

Washington sounded the warning that a big push to send congress home in another fortnight has been opened by administration leaders. President Roosevelt is said to have helped when he compromised with a militant senate conference committee "to prevent a deadlock over controversial section of the stock market control bill. He also has given the administration blessings to a silver program in an effort to appease Western senators and thus hasten adjournment." Now both measures are assured by early passage--this by the leaders of both houses of the congress.

Majority Leader Joseph Taylor Robinson is hopeful of disposing of both the tariff and the silver legislation this week--perhaps in the early days of the month of June. Very important is the tariff bill and its passage. It authorizes the President to raise or lower tariff rates 50 per cent for the purpose of negotiating reciprocal trade agreements. According to the wise leaders who are legislative friends of the administration the tariff bill is certain. Likewise quick acceptance by both houses of the compromise conference report on the stock market regulation bill was forecast May 28.

Another important committee, that is the durable goods industry committee of the national recovery set-up has made its report. This committee was created to answer the administration's question of "how are we going to activate the capital goods industry?" Well, the committee investigated and reported. Its foreword was that re-establishment of confidence on the part of investors was most important. Its program as made to the President, by a committee of 16 headed by George H. Houston, president of the Baldwin Locomotive Works, was summarized as follows by Washington correspondents: "First, a free flow of private capital into private business. Second, a sound real estate mortgage market. Third, an industrial relations on a basis to assure cooperation instead of strife. Fourth, a balanced price parity between agricultural commodities and manufactured goods."

Now it is for the congress to get busy on the legislation necessary. All the people, regardless of political party affiliations are interested in pushing along the cause of national recovery and the complete restoration of confidence in all branches of business, in all fields of human endeavor and in a policy of cooperation instead of strife, on the part of the employers of labor as well as a quick recognition of the rights of all on the part of wage workers as well as those who operate the great corporations of human activity the country over.

Some of our politicians seem to think they know it all, but do they?

OAK GROVE

OAK GROVE--This is the sixth week since enough rain fell here to meet the moisture. Every rain-gauge has failed to bring the much needed moisture. Every prophet of the weather has missed his guess, but if you would know just when it will rain ask Uncle Houston Been. He knows. The two small children of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnson of Cisco spent the past week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Hall, in this community. Mrs. R. E. McMillan visited in the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Almer Lockhart of Pleasant Hill the past week. C. P. Hastings and wife were shopping in Eastland Saturday. Mrs. Julia E. Parker has been on the sick list since last Wednesday. The fine blackberry crop in this community is cut short by the continued dry weather but there will be plenty of berries for local needs and some to spare. Most early gardeners have produced a short crop on account of six weeks drought. All field crops are showing good growth and the fields are clear of weeds and grass but we need rain very badly. Troy Cannaday and wife of Pleasant Hill were in this community Monday picking and canning berries. Gilford Gray, candidate for com-

The tobacco in them seems to be of the right length, and they must be the right size because they burn right and smoke right. I like them also because they are milder.

On Thursday night at the Masonic hall the Desdemona Eastern Star chapter held public installation of officers for the coming year. As members and visitors entered the reception room down stairs they were greeted by Misses A. C. Robert, M. P. Williams and D. E. Hoover, who served fruit punch from a beautifully decorated table.

After the crowd had gathered upstairs, I. N. Williams, as master of ceremonies, announced the numbers on the program as follows: entering march by retiring officers; singing of "America" by audience; reading, "Follow the Star," Adell Maltby; installation of officers.

Mrs. C. W. Maltby was installing officer with Mrs. E. Heeter as marshal, Mrs. Mattie Henry as chaplain and Mrs. Carl Baker as organist.

The officers installed were: Mrs. Roy Ashburn, worthy matron; R. J. Krapf, worthy patron; Mrs. Clarence Ragland, associate matron; Joe Merrill, associate patron; Mrs. Roy Rushing, secretary; Mrs. J. H. Jackson, treasurer; Mrs. Fred Welder, conductress; Mrs. A. C. Robert, associate conductress; Mrs. J. E. Heeter, warden; Mrs. R. J. Krapf, marshal; Clarence Ragland, sentinel; Mrs. M. P. Mrs. Roy Ashburn, the incoming matron was presented a beautiful bouquet of flowers and Mrs. W. C. Stark, the retiring matron was given a past matron's pin by the chapter.

Both matrons gave well worded addresses. The closing number was a vocal quartette by Ed Parks, T. L. Acres, Sam Roberts and Mrs. D. E. Hoover, who sang "Day is Done."

An interesting fact of the installation was that it was the tenth time for R. J. Krapf as patron.

Eleven Holidays Are Recognized By State of Texas

AUSTIN.—Monday was a holiday for state department employees. They will have a delayed observance of Jefferson Davis's birthday.

His natal anniversary June 3, is a state holiday by act. Falling on Sunday this year, the holiday will be observed on Monday.

May 30, widely observed as Memorial Day in northern states, is not a Texas holiday. Some state departments closed for it; others did not. State higher courts held regular sessions.

There are only 11 state holidays. They are designated by legislative act. They are: Jan. 1, New Year; Jan. 19, Robert E. Lee's birthday; Feb. 22, Washington's birthday; March 2, Texas Independence Day; April 21, San Jacinto Day; June 3, Jefferson Davis's birthday; July 4, Independence Day; First Monday in September, Labor Day; Oct. 12, Columbus Day; Nov. 11, Armistice Day; and Dec. 25, Christmas.

Thanksgiving Day is not a state holiday by law. It is so designated by a governor's proclamation.

Beside the official holidays, the legislature also has designated Aug. 12 and Nov. 3 as "special days" without making them holidays.

Aug. 12 is "Texas Pioneer's Day," and Nov. 3 is "Father of Texas Day" in honor of Stephen F. Austin.

Unique Slogan Business Getter

"Carwin Wins Cars" is the slogan adopted by two Eastland boys who have just engaged in the filling station business here.

Carroll and Winston Allison wanted a job but couldn't find one, so they decided to create a job for themselves. They secured a lease on the filling station at the corner of West Main and South Walnut streets, known as the Nash building and the present location of the Baughn Ford agency, and went into the filling station business.

Taking the first three letters of Carroll's name and the first three letters of Winston's name, they combined them into the word "Carwin" and gave this name to their station.

They are doing business and gaining new accounts daily, so in reality "Carwin Wins Cars."

Agricultural News From County Agent

That hail we had two years ago damaged my grape vines so severely that I had to prune them back until I thought they were ruined, but the next year I made the best crop of grapes I had ever harvested; and that is how I learned that it pays to prune grapes way back every year. That is how T. B. Garrett of Carbon explained to the county agent his long prospects for a grape crop this year. Allowing the growth of so much foliage on grapes limits the crop of grapes and nampers seed control.

Producing and developing Hereford bulls for the home county is the pride of Bob Weddington of Cisco. Several years ago he bought thirty-four head of registered Herefords and has increased his herd to ninety head of stock. He advised the county agent that seventeen head have been sold in the Eastland territory alone. These young bulls are from the best of blood lines, are sturdy and are always well developed. Mr. Weddington has been experimenting with pasture improvement, having planted burr clover in his native pastures. He is well pleased with results as the burr clover is growing under every condition that exists on his ranch. He is now planning to make more extensive plantings this fall. He says broadcast the clover still in the burr and makes no effort to cover it. This gives a fine winter pasture, according to J. C. Patterson, county agent.

Last year Billy Wyatt of Carbon budded several topworked pecan trees and now reports that the new growth is heavily loaded with papershell pecans. He informs county agent Patterson that seedlings grown from pecans planted three years ago are now ready for budding.

T.C.U. Star Gets Big League Tryout

By United Press

FORT WORTH.—Should Hersel Kinzy be able to make the grade with the Chicago White Sox he will be the first contribution from Texas Christian university to major league baseball since Pete Donohue.

Like Kinzy, Donohue was a pitching ace for Texas Christian. Donohue got his chance with the Cincinnati Reds in the National League. For several years he was a leading pitcher.

His "jinx" over the St. Louis Cardinals was a tradition in big league circles. He beat the Cards so consistently that it became an almost foregone conclusion that he would do so.

A great number of Kinzy's admirers, however, fear that he lacks a lot that Donohue had. Many of them doubt that he is major league calibre.

Kinzy is a big right-hander. He stands six feet four and has speed and a good curve ball. He won seven games last year to give his team the Southwest conference title.

Despite that performance, he appears to most of his admirers to be a long way from big league material. Minor league schooling may improve him.

But you can't tell about baseball. Look at the great hitter, Al Simmons, steps "into the bucket" on every swing. The famous "Shoelless Joe" Jackson was just another farm boy when he started. "Rube" Walberg got his name because he was that way.

Last year when Ernie Koy, famous Texas university football and baseball player, was signed by the New York Yankees, few believed he could even stick in minor league baseball. He has not made the big league grade but seems to be doing well with a Yankee farm.

Kinzy certainly looks better as a pitcher than Koy did as an outfielder. So guesses may be in order again after the lanky Marshall boy has been under the supervision of big league coaches.

TOOK PILLS FOR YEARS THEN CEREAL BROUGHT RELIEF

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN Corrected His Constipation

If you are troubled by common constipation, read this letter: "Just a word in appreciation of what your ALL-BRAN does for my health. For years, I had been doping myself with pills and other drugs for constipation. I decided to try Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Now I am in good health, and haven't taken a drop of medicine for six months."—Thos. F. Little, 564 E. Wheeling St., Lancaster, Ohio.

Headaches, loss of appetite and energy, sleeplessness—any one of these may be caused by common constipation. Yet this condition can be corrected, usually, by eating a delicious cereal.

Tests show Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" and vitamin B to help promote regularity. ALL-BRAN also furnishes iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that in leafy vegetables. How much safer than patent medicines! Two tablespoons of ALL-BRAN daily are usually sufficient. Chronic cases, with each meal.

If seriously ill, see your doctor. ALL-BRAN makes no claim to be a "cure-all."

Serve as a cereal or use in cooking. At all grocers in the red and green package. Get ALL-BRAN, and not a part-bran product. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

By HARRY GRAYSON

CLEVELAND.—Bob Grove, Wesley Ferrell, and George Earnshaw may go on for some time, and win more games than they lose, but Walter Johnson doubts that any one of them ever again will regain the form that made them the American League Big Three. Johnson is dubious about pitching apparatus once it starts to rebel.

"It's delicate mechanism—difficult to repair," he explains. Johnson believes Ferrell stands more chance of getting back to the right-track than Grove or Earnshaw, who threw enough fire balls to develop old men's arms. He calls Ferrell one of the smartest pitchers he ever saw.

The Cleveland counselor ventures the opinion that Grove and Earnshaw now are learning more about pitching than they did in all the years they whizzed hard ones by lettered shirt fronts. Either that, or they won't last much longer, and of late both have shown unmistakable signs of retightening their grips.

"I was with Washington 10 seasons before I thought of anything but pumping the ball by the boys," smiles Johnson.

Half a Pitcher Better Than Most of Them

THE Big Train says Ferrell will help the Boston Red Sox if he is half as good as he was during the four-year stretch from 1929 to 1932, when he bagged from 21 to 25 engagements a year for Cleveland like breaking sticks.

"The only hitters Ferrell won't know as well as they know themselves are those who broke in this spring, and he'll have a mental map of them after one inspection," elucidates the Indian guide.

"The games I enjoyed most last season were those in which Ferrell tackled the toughest opposition with everything against him, and kept the situation well in hand.

"The hitch in his shoulder finally became so pronounced that he couldn't pull his arm all the way back. Toward the finish he was more or less pushing the ball up there."

Ferrell Not Trouble Maker as Supposed

FERRELL has been painted a contentious cuss, not above passing the buck when things broke against him. But if that description ever fitted the Guilford Guide, the big, handsome right-hander turned over a new leaf in June, 1933, when Johnson became chief of the Tribe.

"I wish I had 22 Ferrells, and that happens to be the major league limit," Johnson goes on. "We was first on the field and last to leave. He always was in condition. He likes to play baseball.

"And now that the outfielding idea has been knocked out of Wes' head, I expect to see him make a fine comeback."

Quickly Convinced He Was Not a Ruth

FERRELL made up his mind that he was through as a pitcher last August and finished the grind in left field.

But when pitchers got to working on Wesley daily, weaknesses developed. This convinced him that he must pitch to remain in the big show, and he was optimistic in regard to 1934 when warm-ups late last season revealed that his shoulder was loosening up.

Ferrell impressed Boston officials when he worked out with the Red Sox while they were on route north from their training base. He has been pitching in the North Carolina Textile League. The old Ferrell wouldn't know one league from another.

Malaria Increases In State of Texas Health Officer Says

AUSTIN.—According to information reaching the Texas State department of Health, the number of Malaria cases is increasing; a sharp turn upward was noted for May. This is directly related to a parallel increase in the number of mosquitoes. The Malaria Unit reports that not for years have they noticed such large numbers of mosquitoes.

Probably one item that favors this increase is the mild winter and rainfall which leads to many temporary collections of water. Of course the breeding of mosquitoes is not limited to temporary water, but they are the ones that are often the cause of the increase of the mosquito population. They must have water to propagate.

Attention paid to the following and similar points will largely reduce the opportunities for mosquito breeding. Remove all trash from the back yard, including old cans, pails, bottles, and automobile tires or bodies. Clean up the premises.

Put new washers in leaky hydrants. Screen rain-water barrels or oil them regularly. Get some top-minnows and place them in lily pools and cisterns. Look over the roof gutters and drain-spouts and remove trash and straighten up any sagged portions. Change the water in flower vases frequently. If there are low spots in the yard where water stands for days after a rain, either fill or drain these places. In any event before complaint is made about mosquitoes to the health department, be sure that your own premises have been thoroughly inspected and found free from mosquito breeding places.

Many Taking Advantage of Public Library

The opportunity to read to wile away one time these warm days and keep cool and enjoy oneself all in one is making Ranger's Public library a popular place this summer. Fiction is always popular, and you will find many novels on the shelves of the library which will hold your attention.

Our biography collection is unusually complete for a library of this size. Some of the people who are included in our biography section are: Austin, Joe Bailey, Bismark, Burns, Crockett, Disraeli, Edison, Ford, Hamilton, Lee, Lincoln, Lloyd George, Mair, Pasteur, Roosevelt (both Theodore and Franklin D.), Thoreau, Voltaire, Washington, Walt Whitman, and Wilson.

Books of a practical nature are also well represented upon our shelves. Productive dairying, principles of correct dress, training for secretarial practice, food industries, how to make and how to mend, variety in the little garden, the art and business of interior decoration, handicraft for girls, seaside marketing, and manual of wood working are some of the subjects of this section.

Books may be checked out for one week and may be once renewed. Fine for keeping books overtime is 2 cents a day. No deposit or fee of any kind is required. The library is open each morning from 9 to 12, and Monday, Wednesday, and Friday afternoons from 2 to 5:30, and Tuesday and Thursdays from 5 to 8 p. m.

MAGNOLIA IS WINNER 7 TO 3 IN GOOD GAME

Magnolia won an interesting game from Marathon Thursday afternoon by a score of 7 to 3 in which three home runs, two by Charlie Koch and one by Davis, both of Magnolia, were featured. The other main highlight of the game was Groves' catch in the sixth inning to retire the side.

McConnell, Marathon left shortstop, who had gone hitless throughout the game was at bat with the bases full in the sixth. He had been up under similar circumstances in the fourth and fanned, but in the sixth he hit a high foul ball back of the third base line which Groves went after. Running to the edge of the drainage ditch at the edge of Blundell street, Groves took the catch leaning over the ditch and then, losing his balance, jumped into the ditch just as he speared the ball.

Jimmie Rex at third base for Marathon had a hard time on the hot corner, getting one hard put-out when Wyatt slid into him, knocking him off his feet. He got three hot grounders that could have been handled, but which were scored as errors when he muffed them long enough to let the runner get to first base.

Magnolia errors were made by Smith at left short, whose throw to first was wild, pulling Koch off the bag; by Lingle, who dropped a fly; by Croft who tossed the ball away with a man on third, letting a man in, and by Davis at right short, who also muffed a popup.

Kindred, Magnolia pitcher, got wild in the sixth, walking the only two Marathon players to get free passes, but Groves' catch saved him from letting in any scores that inning. Hubbard walked four, two in the fifth that also filled the bases.

"Wheels of Destiny" Rolls Back to Nature

The vast sweep of the western plains, the wild vistas of rugged mountain peaks, braved by our gold-seeking ancestors, are only a small part of the scenery displayed in the latest Ken Maynard-Universal starring production, the epic "Wheels of Destiny," which will be shown at the Columbia Theatre next Saturday.

Maynard has devoted months to supervising and acting in "Wheels of Destiny," the dramatic story of a trek in covered wagons into the west in search of gold. In the story, a tundra is swept by man-made flames to drive back Indians, two turbulent rivers are forded, there is the repulse of an Indian attack, and early highwaymen are driven from their attack on a mid-western hotel.

A thousand buffalo graze peacefully on a vast plain until shot by a band of marauders. Indians rise to the vicious peak of a war dance and attack. Maynard goes to the rescue of the embattled pioneers as they fight their way toward the new El Dorado, California.

In the gripping production with Maynard—the most lavish he has attempted in ten years of picture making—are Dorothy Dix, Jay Wiltsie, Philo McCullough, Freddie Sale, Jr., Jack Rockwell, Fred McKay and many others who are familiar to those who thrill to the Maynard stories.

Locations were mainly at Lone Pine, Calif., a spot of great natural beauty, and Muroc Dry Lake, Calif., a spot where many pioneers perished in their drive for California during the early days.

Farm Sales Show Steady Increase

HOUSTON.—Farm sales by the Federal Land Bank of Houston continue to make steady gains, according to figures supplied by E. R. Eiland, acting manager land department, Records for May show that 26 farms were disposed of, while in May of last year only eight farms were sold by the bank.

That this is the result of a steady upturn and not just a coincidence is supported by comparison of data on the first five months in 1934 with a similar period in 1933, Mr. Eiland pointed out. In the period, January to May inclusive, 1934, the Federal Land Bank sold 150 farms for $374,817.50; during the same months of 1933, there were 80 farms sold for a total selling price of $258,515.50. Cash down payments and average prices per acre have shown similar improvement, he said.

In commenting upon the terms upon which the bank makes sales, Mr. Eiland said: "Ordinarily the bank requires

Picnic Lunches Are Being Prepared By Paramount Cafe

The Paramount Hotel cafe, managed by Bill Dorsey, is making an announcement elsewhere in the paper that will be of particular interest to picnic lovers and to the business man.

For those who plan to take a spin into the country and have picnic lunch away from the heat of the city, Mr. Dorsey has arranged to pack a lunch that will appeal to the most jaded of appetites. Featuring, of course, the excellent and cooked barbecue of every kind that has won fame for the Paramount through the years, they also make up sandwiches of every description. All the good things that can be thought of will be included according to the desires of the patron. The touch that makes the whole thing perfect is the addition of a many bottles of beer of any brand the customer wants. All packages and ready for a call just before leaving town.

A light lunch and a stein of beer served each afternoon between 1:30 and 5:30 o'clock for the price formerly charged for the stein alone is a feature that is sure to attract many each day.
