F. S. A. GREAT BENEFIT TO CALLAHAN COUNTY FARMERS

Long-term credit at low interest to low-income farmers who cannot get adequate credit anywhere else is not only paying dividends in food but is also a safe risk if repayments on loans made by the Farm Security Administration in Callahan County are an indication.

Nathan A. Waldrop County F S A Supervisor, disclosed today that from the beginning of the FSA program to last April 30, $327,181.15 had been loaned in the form of rehabilitation loan to farm families in Callahan County. Of that amount $211,656.30 has matured, or come due, and $191,264.00, including 5 percent interest, has been repaid to the government by these families who were unable to obtain adequate credit from any other source. Of a total of $36,380.00 lent in this county under the FSA's tenant-purchase program enabling tenant farmer and share-croppers to become home owners, $6,605.63 has matured and $6,756.80 has been repaid, including three percent interest up to March 31. Many borrowers of both types of loans are ahead of schedule with their repayments.

More than a third of the nation's increase in milk production last year came from the cows fed and milked by FSA borrowers, who number less than half a million, and are less than eight percent of the nation's farmers. In terms of their own production the year before, increases in war crops produced by FSA families ranged from 20 to 106 per cent, Mr. Waldrop recalled.

CALLAHAN FARMERS AND 4-H BOYS INTERESTED IN HOG

There are 26 farmers and 4-H Club boys in Callahan County that have registered Poland China hogs. For the past several years there has been a steady increase in the number of Poland China hogs in the county.

Farmers and Club boys are realizing the value of good breeding in producing pork for market. Many of the Club boys are selling breeding stock to other interested Club boys and also farmers in their communities.

With the expanded 4-H Club hog program, and the increased interest among farmers owning good breeding stock, there should be a sufficient number of registered pigs to supply the demand in this country.

These registered breeding hogs are located in every community in the county. Persons owning registered hogs are:

Clyde—H. K. Ray, Ersal Lee Johnson, Cloice Clemmer, Bobby Frank Estes, Homer Connel, Hiram M. Cook, Putnam—David Park Clinton, Dale Ellis, Wesley Rutherford, Mantion Reid.

The Possibilities of Baird With An Adequate Water Supply

By Raymond Young

There is an old song that admonishes us to count our blessings—name them one-by-one. In this day of post war planning we must do a little counting of material as well as spiritual blessings or potentialities. For plans made today will begin the growth of a greater Baird tomorrow.

One of the greatest assets of Baird is its location. Soon to be completed is the north and south highway connecting Canada with Mexico; already completed is the great highway 80 joining the east and the west. These two thoroughfares cross within the city limits of Baird and will bring through it traffic from every part of the United States, Canada and Mexico.

This fact alone is a challenge to the people of Baird to make the most of this opportunity. Through no effort on our part, transportation facilities have been supplied by a geographic accident. We are the Hub of National Traffic; by an economic change, industry has become decentralized with the giant factories being located in small towns. However adequate watersupply is a prime consideration in locating any industry; and because a natural lake was not one of our "gifts" Baird has not been considered as a possible site for any major project.

Whether or not it will in the future receive any such consideration is left entirely to the initiative and ambition of the people of Baird. Ample water supply is an economic necessity, and the only solution to the problem is the building of a city lake.

STERLING REYNOLDS COMPLETES BASIC FLYING SCHOOL

Aviation Cadet Sterling H. Reynolds, son of Mrs. Emma Smith Reynolds of Baird has completed his training at the Basic Flying School at Courtland, Ala. and has been transferred to the Advanced Flying School at Columbia, Miss. for the final period of pilot training.

VACCINATE AGAINST FOWL POX

Farmers—Earl C. Hays, Clyde; W. V. Roberts, Rowden; Edmond Davis, Admiral, and Frank Estes, Baird, have vaccinated more than a thousand pullets between the ages of 3 to 4 months, for prevention of fowl pox.

It has been the experience of Mr. Roberts that once the flock becomes infested with the fowl pox organism, a strict sanitation program plus the vaccination of all pullets, are the best control measures that can be practiced.

Mr. Roberts also points out that pullets should be vaccinated before they come into laying to prevent a loss in egg production.

Dr. Cox Says—

INFANTILE PARALYSIS

With the current incidence of poliomyelitis in Texas being somewhat over the seven-year median, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, is urging the public to cooperate in helping to prevent the spread of this crippling disease.

"Children should not visit homes where poliomyelitis or symptoms of this disease are present. Promptness in diagnosing poliomyelitis is one of the most important factors in its control," Dr. Cox declared.

"Direct contact between persons is the chief factor in the spread of infantile paralysis and since carriers are difficult to determine, it is advisable to reduce to a minimum all human contacts during any outbreak of this disease.

Dr. Cox stressed the fact that a rigid program of sanitation is advisable since it has been suspected that flies and other seasonal insects may convey the virus or germ of poliomyelitis. He added that insect transmission has not been scientifically demonstrated but pointed out that sanitation is always advisable in controlling disease and that filth is likely to prove dangerous.

Early symtoms of infantile paralysis are headache, fever, vomiting, unusual drowsiness, and irritability, followed by stiffness in the neck and back.

Children under five years are most susceptible and all children under twelve yearsshould be watched for suspicious symptoms. Dr. Cox urged that a physician be called immediately if infantile paralysis is suspected. If the disease is definitely diagnosed, local health authorities should be contacted immediately and patients isolated for at least 21 days.

TYPUS FEVER

Typus Fever Reports coming into State Health Department indicate the presence of Typhus Fever in almost all sections of the State without any particular apparent regard to city or rural population according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

In urging full cooperation from all communities in a campaign to exterminate rats an dthus control the possible increasing incidence of Typhus Dr. Cox said, "It must be kept in mind that the rat acts as reservoir of the Typhus germ, an dthe rat flea is the means by which Typhus is Transmitted to man Rats are known to travel many miles for mone community to another, and it is therefore obvious," Dr. Cox said, "that it will be necessary to conduct a vigorous rat extermination program over the entire State.

Dr. Cox recommends a four point extermination program in addition to the already widely used poisoning campaign which he asserts will assure more than temporary Typhus control. This program includes making all food stuff inaccessible to rats through proper garbage storage, collection and disposal; rat proofing homes, business and public places; keeping at least two traps set and baited in every home which is not rat-proof and proper educational measurers

In discussing the educational measures, Dr. Cox pointed out that since the Typhus Fever Rat is known to inhabit practically every section of the State it wil necessarily take state-wied cooperatio nto exterminate the pest. In order to do this the public must become adequately acquainted with the habits of the rat and the various effective control measures that may be applied.

Dr. Cox stated that the State Department of Health has available motion picture films on this subject and that the Department has also issued a bulletin outlining rodent control measurers. "This bulletin will be mailed free upon request," Dr. Cox said, "and the films may be had for public showing upon application through loca health units."

WHAT IS THE OUTLOOK?

What's the outlook for war-time family living during the next few months? Well, likely the number of rationed articles won't increase much There is some talk of rationing fresh milk on a regional basis . . . but that is just talk . . . so far. The War Production Board says that with sane buying on the part of consumer sit shouldn't be necessary to ration clothing.

That means buying only what's absolutely necessary, in line with the Victory Demonstrator's pledge. If clothing rationing ever comes, it will be because some unpatriotic people have hoarded, in the opinion of Dorothy Wilkerson, Home Demonstration Agent.

Here are some other changes you can expect as a result of the war; Your soap won't be quite as efficient as it used to be. That's because it contains only about a third as much glycerine as before. The supply of soap depends pretty much on fat from slaughtering and from your kitchen. So when you turn in your wast fats, you'll be contributing to the production of your favorite brands of soap.

Now about kitchen supplies. The government has decided to do something about a recent shortage of can openers. And manufacturers still are turning out a few rotary egg beaters basting spoons, food choppers, wire strainers, and cake turners. There are to replace utensils which wear out.

Matches, too, are being streamlined Miss Wilkerson says the "strike anywhere" kind will be shortened by a fourth of an inch. And there will be more in the box for the same price Finally, if you like the costume jewelry, you'd better take care of what you have. It's considered "non-essential", so little more will be made for the duration.

Enough to Go Around

Now, for the first time in years, both farmers and manufacturers can work for the biggest possible yield without thinking about the market. This year they can sell all they can produce.

As things look now, this country is due to keep up for some time, but we can't count on its lasting forever. Certainly nobody wants a prosperity built on war! So it's high time that everybody concerned—and that is everybody—gave some thought to keeping things running after the war.

You're busy, we know. So are we. The important thing right now is seeing that there's enough of everything to go around. But we've been devoting a little attention to the problems of the future, too. We feel that the people who have the producing job to do can contribute a lot to the solution of those problems.

And we hope that you, too, busy as you are with growing more food than this country's ever produced, will be turning these problems over in your mind. For if America's farmers and manufacturers, working together, can't find a way to keep the richest country on earth producing enough for everybody, and let the producers make a living in the process—if they can't, why then, who can? ### 1943 HOME CANNING HINTS WORTH REMEMBERING

BLANCHING IN STEAM

Recent tests definitely prove that blanching vegetables in steam saves more essential vitamins than blanching in boiling water, Mrs. Julia Kiene Director of Westinghouse Home Economics reports. Blanching in steam is a comparatively simple process. Put about one inch of water in the bottom of a deep utensil and bring to a brisk boil. Place vegetable to be blanched in a wire basket or colander. Place that in the utensil containing the rapidly boiling water, cover tightly and steam. Steam for five minutes when canning or preparing vegetables for a quick freeze locker.

DON'T FORGET TO SALT VEGETABLES

Salt should be added to all canned vegetables—one teaspoon each pint. Make a habit of putting salt in the jar first where you can see it. Otherwise, as Westinghouse home economists say, you may either forget it or salt the vegetables twice.

NO CHEMICALS IN CANNING

Chemical preservation should never be used in canning, warns Mrs. Julia Kiene, Director of Westinghouse Home Economics Institute. None of them is wholesome or necessary and some might be harmful.

SAFETY FIRST

All home-preserved vegetables, except tomatoes, must be cooked at boiling temperature in a covered container for at least ten minutes just before serving, says Mrs. Julia Kiene, Director of Westinghouse Home Economics Institute. Even if vegetables are to be used for a salad, they must be cooked first, chilled and used immediately.

AFTER PROCESSING

Don't ever invert jars after processing—it's an outdated practice, says Westinghouse home economists. Set hot jars upright on several thicknesses of cloth or newspaper. Avoid drafts. Don't move or handle jars for at least 24 hours—it takes that long to complete the seal. Screw bands may then be removed and reused.

DON'T FILL JARS TOO FULL

How much headroom to leave at the top of each jar depends on what you're canning. Westinghouse home economists explain that fruits and such leafy vegetables as spinach and chard expand very little and require only one-half inch of head space; starchy vegetables such as string beans, limas, peas, corn and soybeans expand more when canne dand need a full inch of head space. Regardless of whether the liquid used for filling jars is boiling water or syrup it must only just cover the food. The only exception to this rule is when canning by the open kettle method, and then jars should be filled to overflowing with boiling hot fruit.

Cotton Jacket

A short mess jacket of heavy cotton makes a summer evening gown an informal evening dress. The jacket worn here by Maureen O'Hara, RKO star, is trimmed with a drawstring and three buttons in a soft, dusty red. The same dusty red forms the background for coral and rose stripes woven into the simple evening dress. Unpressed pleats bring slender fullness to the skirt.

Molly Pitcher Tag Day, August 4

The modern Molly Pitcher will greet you throughout the nation on August 4th when brigades of Mollys will tag every buyer of War Bonds and Stamps. They will carry on the tradition of the Revolutionary War heroine who has gone down in history because she aided her fighters at the battle of Monmouth in 1778.

One battle won does not win a war. We've got tougher times ahead.

Our Job Is to Save Dollars

Who Has The Money For 2nd War Loan?

"Where is all the money coming from to meet the 13 billion dollars of the Second War Loan goal?" is a question heard on many sides. It will come out of the 45-billion dollar surplus earnings of 1943, according to statistics reported by Treasury experts.

During 1941 personal savings of individuals amounted to 9 billion dollars. During 1943 this surplus or prospective savings will increase by 36 billion dollars over 1941 when consumer goods were easy to get.

Now that prices are high, thrifty people will make their goods last longer and place more money in War Bonds.

Nationwide Molly Pitcher Tag Day

Washington, D. C.—On August 4th, Molly Pitcher is stepping out of the pages of American history to sell War Bonds and Stamps. The gal who carried water to thirsty soldiers during the blistering Revolutionary Battle of Monmouth and took over her husband's cannon when he was wounded, has long been a symbol of the heroism of American women.

In her honor, brigades of modern Molly Pitchers will take their stands on nation-wide Molly Pitcher Day at street corners, building entrances, and in public places to sell the bonds and stamps that back up our modern fighting men.

A red-white-and-blue Molly Pitcher Tag will be given to everyone who purchases a bond or stamp on that day. Members of the American Legion Auxiliary, and of the Independent Food Distributors Council unit of Molly Pitchers, will aid and augment local Women's War Savings Staffs to make up the volunteer sales force. They will use water pitchers to hold their supplies of tags and War Stamps. The slogan on the tags will read "Fill the Pitcher with Bonds and Stamps on Molly Pitcher Day," and the goal of the sales force will be to "tag" the total population.

People's Responsibility

Eight billion dollars of the 13 billion dollars in this Second War Loan Drive must come from non-banking sources, so the responsibility for the bulk of this 13-billion-dollar drive rests with the American public.

Indications are that Americans generally need only to be reminded of this responsibility and how much they should lend their government in order to reach this goal. Americans are backing up their fighting men on the battle fronts. They are supporting the Second War Loan. "They give their lives . . . You lend your money."

War Takes 96¢ Of Each Dollar

Out of every $18.75 that is invested in a War Bond, $18 goes into guns, planes, tanks, ships and other military equipment. The 75 cents goes for ordinary governmental expenditures. Out of every dollar 96 cents goes toward the war effort and 4 cents goes for Government "business as usual."

The same ratio applies to all other securities the Government has offered investors in the Second War Loan campaign for 13 billion dollars.

No second chance...no other choice

FOR THOSE who fall and freeze on the lime-covered floors of the cattle cars that carry them to German labor camps—there is no other choice.

For the little children of Tepelini and Salonika and Athens who wait with swollen stomachs for the food ship that never arrives, there is nothing else to do—but wait.

For the Russian peasant with no choice but to burn his home before the Nazis reached it; for the Chinese of Nanking who suffered the terrorism of the Jap; for all of those in nameless graves and numberless cells—for all of them—there was no second chance, no other choice.

But for you—a choice still remains. For you—among all the peoples of the world, the road to freedom is still clear.

Never before have we been able to measure the price of freedom for ourselves and our children in such tangible terms. Will you help to keep the road to freedom open? Will you invest—all you can—in War Bonds?

It's not so much to ask. Many of us are making more money than we have for years. The things we'd like to buy with that money are scarce—or unavailable. So, we're asked to loan money at good interest—$4 for every $3 when the Bonds mature. Money to help pay for the war—keep prices down—provide peacetime jobs and peacetime goods and a generally decent world for all of us when the war is won.

Chances are you're already in the Payroll Savings Plan—buying War Bonds—doing your bit. But don't stop there. Raise your sights. Do your best!
