NO NEW TAX LOBBY

The most numerous anti-tax lobby of recent years has massed in Austin, with only two gaps in its ranks.

The "no new levy" phalanx lacked only C. A. Jay of Dallas, foremost general exponent of state retrenchment, and spokesman of the three regional chambers of commerce boards which recently demanded a 50 per cent reduction in state ad valorem levies, future cuts in state expenses, and a constitutional limit on taxes for state purposes.

But individual interests were abundantly represented: Petroleum, natural gas, sulphur, railroads, mercantile business, insurance business, gasoline and highway interests, investment and security interests.

Some of the "third house" battalion was here with respect to other matters than new tax levies, but ready to rush the fortress if taxation comes along. Some specifically were concerned with the remission of tax penalties and interests, as affecting the rights of foreclosure upon properties. Some were in Austin having official connection with other measures, including both public development programs and the Texas Centennial.

But the Centennial measure, calling for $8,900,000 of appropriations which the state was asked to finance from source, and various proposals of house members for finding the revenue, was at the crux of the tax scare. Many of those who were defending specific lines of business or economic interests from new levies were not opposing, and some were favoring the Centennial and other proposals of this session.

Investment interests were ready to smash any mortgage moratorium proposal that might follow that off ad valorem tax penalties.

Humble Beginning of Modern Oil Drill

Here is the grand daddy of the modern rotary oil well drill. Recently brought to light in the plant of the American Well and Prospecting Co. at Corsicana, birthplace of Texas' petroleum refining industry, this ancient "gripping device" will be exhibited at the annual convention of the American Petroleum Institute in Dallas, Nov. 12 to 15. Holding the implement in the photo is Captain J. F. Lucey, pioneer oil man who heads the API entertainment committee, while D. A. Little, Magnolia Oil Co. president, is an interested spectator.

Students Wanting Only Good Times

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. — Sixty-seven years' observation of educational trends in America have led Rev. Allen Manderville Elston to the conclusion that present-day college and university students want only a good time from their school careers.

Rev. Elston, who will be 90 on Christmas day, recently was notified by officials of the University of Missouri, the oldest university west of the Mississippi river, that he is the institution's oldest living alumnus.

The pastor graduated from the University of Missouri with the class of 1867. "Looking back over a span of 67 years," Rev. Elston observed: "In my day, young people went to college to study—now they seem to want only a good time." Union soldiers were quartered on the university campus and General Prentiss maintained his headquarters there when Rev. Elston entered as a freshman. Classes could not be held in some buildings because they were in use as military prisons.

Rev. Elston was ordained for the ministry at the University of Kentucky, came to California in 1871 and has six children and 19 grandchildren. Four of the latter now are students at the University of California.

Councilman Sports His First Necktie

TIFFIN, O.—When Councilman Charles H. Trimmer walked into council chambers here his colleagues felt like singing "Blest Be the Tie." Trimmer was wearing a cravat for the first time in 20 years.

"I'm celebrating the return of prosperity," Trimmer smiled. He admitted he hadn't put on a necktie since 20 years ago when he had refused to put on one to be photographed with a group of labor leaders.

Leader Claims "Y" Facing Real Test

CLEVELAND, O.—The Y. M. C. A. is facing the most crucial period in its history, John E. Manley, general secretary of the National Y. M. C. A. council told 300 delegates at the opening session of a three-day meeting here.

"Not only must the association find a sound financial basis for its work, but it must assume leadership in other fields, with 3,000,000 young people who are just out of school and have never had a job. An added burden is the fact that the voice of religion is none too sure today."

Mounties Will Display Skill at N.Y. Horse Show

By United Press
 NEW YORK.—Men who are expert horsemen because such an accomplishment is a daily necessity will perform in the National Horse Show at Madison Square Garden, Nov. 7-13, when 36 officers and men of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police take part in the varied program for the first time in 51 years of the show's existence.

The mounted policeman always gets his man and in most parts of Canada the "Mountie" must depend upon his horse to get him to his objective. As a police force, the Mounted ranks as one of the most effective in the world and its horsemanship is known and respected everywhere.

The group will not represent Canada in the seven nights of military jumping, to be climaxed on the night of Nov. 13 with the competition among army teams from over the world for the international military challenge trophy. This task in horsemanship will be left to the Canadian Army team, riding against the United States, Chile, Irish Free State, France and probably Hungary.

Instead, the Mounties will take part in other events on the program and give exhibitions of their every day performances of horsemanship which, while not perhaps as exciting as taking a horse over a stiff pumping course, are interesting and will provide spectators a new attraction.

The men, riding their own horses, will be garbed in the same brilliantly designed uniforms that the world—broad-brimmed, khaki-colored smorrons, deep scarlet tunics, black, yellow - striped trousers, booted and spurred.

Work of these mounted police is often thrilling and romantic but it is constantly hard and consists of a great deal of routine in administering not only justice and enforcing the law in sparsely settled districts, but in performing other public services. At present the force, which last year observed its 69th anniversary, numbers 2,500.

Governors In Nine States Jeopardized

By United Press
 WASHINGTON.—Republican gubernatorial tenure in eight of the nine states which kept G. O. P. governors through the 1932 Democratic whirlwind is jeopardized by the November election.

Delaware is the only state in which the present Republican administration is assured of remaining in office. The term of the Republican Governor of Delaware will not expire until January 1937.

The states now having Republican governors and where gubernatorial contests now are under way are: California, where Upton Sinclair is attempting to oust the Republican state leadership; Kansas; Nevada; New Hampshire; North Dakota, seeking with the aftermath of the Langer ousting; Oregon; Pennsylvania, where Democrats are striving earnestly for the governor's chair.

Thirty-three governors are to be elected in all. Twenty-four of those states now have Democratic governors. Louis J. Brann, a Democrat, already has won re-election in Maine. Floyd B. Olson, Farmer-Laborite, is expected to be re-elected Governor of Minnesota.

The campaigns which have attracted so much attention are those in California, Pennsylvania, New York, North Dakota, Wisconsin and Ohio.

Sinclair, denounced at first by the regular Democratic organization in his state, now has the backing of Democratic leaders, but it is lukewarm support.

The Pennsylvania gubernatorial contest is between George H. Earle, Democrat, and William A. Schnader, Republican.

Governor Herbert H. Lehman is a candidate for re-election in New York. He is opposed by Robert Moses, a Republican who served with the Al Smith state regime.

In North Dakota, Mrs. William Langer is seeking to win the governorship from which her husband was ousted. She is opposed by Thomas Moodie, a country editor.

Philip F. LaFollette, brother of Senator Robert M. LaFollette, is attempting to regain the governorship of Wisconsin as a third-party Progressive. The two, running against Republican and Democratic candidates are putting up a lively campaign.

Ohio's governorship probably will go the way of the senatorial contest there.

NRA Has Changed Auto Deliveries

ABILENE, Texas.—The NRA has chalked up another achievement to its credit here.

This city is on the high road of the truck caravans moving new cars from factories in the east to the west coast.

Formerly there have been caravans moving both directions on highway No. 1 at almost all hours of the day and night.

Now, however, all that is changed. The automobile code which took effect recently, requires that all drivers of the caravan take time off after an eight-hour run.

The state officials are also checking the trucks to see that they carry 1934 licenses.

CROW FOLLOWS BOY

DOVER, O.—Mary had her little lamb, but Paul Haueter, of Strasburg, near here, has his pet crow which follows him to school. It perches itself on a window sill and, instead of Mary's lamb, it does its crowing. It has followed the boy ever since he fed it one day. Paul's school teacher has demanded something be done about the bird.

The Clew of the Forgotten Murder

By CARLETON KENDRAKE

BEGIN HERE TODAY
 When CHARLES MORDEN, reporter for The Blade, is found dead DAN BLEEKER, publisher, is called to the scene. A criminologist, to solve the murder, Morden had been investigating the affairs of FRANK B. CATHY, wealthy and prominent following the arrest of an impostor claiming to be Cathy and accompanied by a girl called MARY.

The day following Morden's death Cathy dies of poisoning. Cathy leaves Morden and visited the apartment of ALICE LORTON who has reported the disappearance of her roommate, ESTHER ORDWAY. Grif questions Alice and instructs detectives to shadow her.

Grif and Bleeker go to the apartment occupied by KENNETH BOONE, friend of Alice's. Boone denies knowing Morden. Grif moves toward another door of the room and Boone threatens him with a gun.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXIX
 DAN BLEEKER'S voice was strained and harsh. "Drop that gun," he said, "or I'll make a sieve out of you."

Boone hesitated. Bleeker's gun was covering him. Boone's gun was covering the criminologist, Grif with a cool and smiling.

HOW TO MAKE DARNING more DIFFICULT!

Sewing and darning demand even more from the eyes than reading. Nature didn't plan for such tasks! She had outdoor, distance seeing in her mind. So, to keep the nervous muscular tension as low as possible—and to avoid eyestrain—we must give care to light. For light is the scientific partner of seeing. Let's not do the equivalent of wearing smoked glasses!

KEEP THESE LIGHTING RULES IN MIND

1. Use lamp bulbs of the correct wattage... never less than 40-watt MA/DA lamps for three-socket lamps, 60-watt for two-socket lamps, 100-watt for single-socket lamps.
2. Have all lamp bulbs shaded. For portables, a shade of light color, wide in spread, and open at the top.
3. Never read in the glaring light from bare bulbs, or in your own shadow. Always use bulbs of reputable make. Inferior bulbs burn out and blacken quickly.

 There will be no meeting next Monday because it will be a holiday, but the meeting will be called next Friday instead. This meeting will be called to finish the work under the leadership of Mrs. Bob Hodges.

CALLS ALL-BRAN NATIONAL NATURAL LAXATIVE
 Delicious Cereal Checked His Constipation

He's an unsolicited letter from Mr. Daniels:
 "For many years I have been habitually constipated, and have used all sorts of laxatives. So, in fairness to Kellogg's ALL-BRAN, I heartily claim it to be a most wonderful remedy for constipation.

"Need I tell you that I have long since ceased using laxatives? Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is the National Natural Laxative. If it were used by every family in the United States for breakfast, we would have a much healthier race of people."—Mr. John Daniels, 1090 Third St., North Bergen, N. J.

Tests show Kellogg's ALL-BRAN furnishes "bulk" to exercise the intestines and vitamin B to help tone the intestinal tract. ALL-BRAN also supplies iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that in leafy vegetables. Isn't this food much pleasanter than rickety pills and drugs? Two table-spoonfuls daily are usually sufficient. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Football Squad to See Football Film

B. E. Garner, manager of the Arcadia Theatre, announced today that the entire Ranger High school football squad would be his guests at a theatre party tonight, in order that they might see a special sports reel showing professional football teams in action.
 Although the professionals use rules and plays that are not in the amateur category, they demonstrate some wonderful teamwork and blocking that should be an inspiration to any football team.
 Mr. Garner has invited the squad and Coach Moore to be his guests in order that the players can become familiar, through the slow motion shots, with the way in which plays are made to click.

Mrs. Alice D. True Expresses Thanks For Cooperation

To My Great Host of Ranger Friends:
 Words fail to express my appreciation for you and your loyalty, and the way that you have stood by me in business and pleasure, and my life has been made much richer and sweeter for having lived among such people.
 In my work as secretary of the Retail Merchants' association, it has been a pleasure and a joy to be a part of the building of Ranger, and my hopes and prayers shall ever be for the prosperity and happiness of each and every business as well as each individual.
 Our friends can never be measured in dollars, and I'm truly a millionaire when I count your worth.
 "Though many miles may divide us, I hope in many ways to be of service to you, and memories of Ranger and its valuable citizenship shall always be bright spots in my memory. May God's richest blessings be yours, and I hope that each of you may give the same co-operation to the secretary who fills my place.
 MRS. ALICE D. TRUE.

High School and Junior College News of the Day

By Reba Callaway
 We Are College Students
 Isn't it queer how often we are reminded of the fact that we are now college students? That we are here to get an education.
 Material is presented to us, and in modern slang, we can "take or leave it." In high school we were pushed and shoved along as though the acquisition of an education was a handicap rather than the advantage that it really is. We allowed our teachers to do most of the worrying or supply the incentive to work while we idly sat back, criticized and complained. The teachers seemed to be much concerned with the interest we took and the grades we made, as though we were to be pushed and shoved along as though the acquisition of an education was a handicap rather than the advantage that it really is. We allowed our teachers to do most of the worrying or supply the incentive to work while we idly sat back, criticized and complained.
