ANOTHER YOUTH IS HELD IN TULSA SLAYING

Well, repeal didn't bring in as much revenue as its proponents thought it would, but it made a pretty good showing against the bootleggers at that.

YOUTH SMASH NARCOTIC RING; KID 'BIG SHOT'

By United Press
WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Feds smashed through more world hideouts today in their hunt for a "big shot" Harry Anderson, federal narcotic chief said. Anderson was caught in a raid Saturday and another Francis today. They were expected to reveal more details of the spread nature of their action both coasts.
Anderson said the raids had been successful in curbing the narcotic traffic and pointed to a drop in the price of illicit opium in Washington to $860 an ounce.
Anderson, he said, was the chief of the New York office when he was seized in the Saturday raid. He said the drug was taken into this country mostly from New York and sold at a profit.
Anderson said he expected to be sent to the new narcotic court at Lexington, Ky., operated by the United States Public Health Service.

May Help Solve Tulsa Mystery

Miss Virginia Wilcox, above, daughter of a wealthy Tulsa oil man, was reported named in an extortion note that figured in the fatal shooting of John Gorrell and a charge of murder against Phillip Kenamer, son of a Tulsa federal judge. Police hope she can throw some light on the tragedy attributed to "amateur racketeering" by young Tulsans.

MAYORS URGE PUBLIC WORKS FOR THE WINTER

By United Press
WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Representatives of the American Conference of Mayors, warned Secretary of the Interior Harold Ickes today that "there will be trouble in American industrial centers this winter" unless the government supports a big public works program.
"The relief load will jump from 18,000,000 to 23,000,000 persons unless the administration supplies money to put men to work," Paul Bettors, Chicago, secretary of the mayors' conference, said.
After conferring with Secretary Ickes, the mayors met with Harry Hopkins, federal emergency relief administrator, where they declared themselves in "hearty accord" with the proposed low cost housing program.

Ship Shattered in Blizzard Crash

Wrecked in the worst blizzard on the Great Lakes since 1929, the Henry Cort, 2394-ton whaleback freighter, was beached, a gaping hole in her bow, in Muskegon, Mich., harbor, after one man had died in a rescue attempt and the crew of 25 narrowly had escaped death in the storm-lashed waters of Lake Michigan. The Sort, ice-sheathed, is shown here as she appeared after a late-season trip to Milwaukee.

EUROPE HEARS WAR TALK AT COUNCIL TABLE

By United Press
GENEVA, Dec. 10.—Jugo-Slavia and Hungary accepted tonight, a compromise solution of their dispute, which has threatened the peace of Europe.
GENEVA, Dec. 10.—The Little Entente hurled the threat of war across the council table of the League of Nations today, resisting efforts of the big powers to compromise the dispute between Hungary and Jugo Slavia.
Nicholas Titulescu of Romania, speaking for the Little Entente, Roumania, Czechoslovakia and Jugo-Slavia, declared that Hungary's insistence on revision of the post-war treaty which carved out new countries in Europe, constituted a threat of war.
To each demand of Hungary for revision, the three interested nations have replied with a categorical and final "No." To insist would no longer be the work of peace, but of war, he said.
Titulescu's speech shattered the hopeful atmosphere which had been fostered by a resolution of Foreign Minister Pierre Laval of France, designed to curb political terrorism and appease Jugo-Slavia.
After a direct, personal attack on Tibor Eckhardt, Hungarian delegate, Titulescu linked revisionism with terrorism, despite the statement of Baron Pompeo Aloisi of Italy that they are not connected.
"To me," he said, "revisionism and terrorism are not entirely distinct. There is between them a percentage which united father and child."
He reaffirmed the contention of Laval and Edouard Beneš of Czechoslovakia that the revisionist campaign violates Article 10 of the League covenant, which binds the council to protect nations from aggression.
Titulescu's speech was described as one of the most violent ever delivered before the council.

Smile Broadened By Holiday

Leaving Warm Springs, Ga., to return to Washington and face the vital problems of an incoming Congress, President Roosevelt's smile was broader than ever. His southern holiday had been crowded with conferences on legislation to be passed this winter.

SHOT LIGHTS OUT AT SCENE OF KILLING

By United Press
TULSA, Dec. 10.—Homer Wilcox, Jr., 17, member of a wealthy Tulsa oil family, was arrested today on a police accusation that he shot out street lights Thanksgiving night near the spot where Jim George Gorrell, 23, was shot and killed.
Philip Kenamer, 19, acquaintance of Wilcox, and son of a federal judge, has admitted the killing and has been charged with murder.
The youth's father provided the $500 bail requested on the accusation. Trial was set for tomorrow.
Sidney Born, 19, who told police he drove Kenamer to a rendezvous with Gorrell before the killing, died last night of a pistol wound which authorities said was self-inflicted.
H. F. Wilcox, Sr., head of the Wilcox Oil and Gas company, was present with an attorney when the arrest of his son was made. He offered to make bond. It was said the boy would not be sent to jail at all.
The father issued a statement in which he said young Kenamer, son of U. S. Judge Franklin Kenamer, had "forced his confidence and personality on younger Boyd."
Meantime authorities had abandoned the idea that Born was a theory outright.
Born's wound was from a gun identified as belonging to his father, Prof. Sidney Born of the University of Tulsa.
Several state witnesses asked for protection, fearing reprisals for the statements they gave authorities last week. One, Ted Bath, left town. Another, Robert Thomas, sought permission to carry a gun for protection.
Holly Anderson, county prosecutor, who was in Washington today, said last week that he believed a gang of well-born Tulsa youths had been operating here for thrills and adventure, if not for profit.

PEEPING THRU THE KNOTHOLE

with BILL MAYES
Although the football season closed Saturday afternoon for the Ranger Bulldogs when they were defeated in the bi-district by the Amarillo Sandies 19 to 14, for the fans it will not close for several weeks. There will be talk for several days about the Ranger-Amarillo game and alibis to be offered and the remainder of the state race to be talked over and discussed.
True to form the Bulldogs put up a good scrap against Amarillo and it was the most closely contested game in the first round of the playoff.
In years gone by practically every sports writer of the Oil Belt has tried to have the coaches select an all-district team, without much success. The coaches have made their selections, but they have been biased.
This year Wilson Ritchie, being new at the game, made the same attempt and ran into the same kind of a middle. We didn't even try to tabulate the returns, and probably won't. No one pays very much attention to all-district selections, anyway, because they mean nothing. The team is a composite of guesswork, sometimes by those who have seen some of the teams in only one game, which is not much on which to go.
After hastily reading over the selections we have decided that we could do almost as good a job as follows, though we hope no one will take us too seriously:
For ends we would select Onis (Stumpy) Warden of Ranger and Eho Howell of Abilene, because as far as we know neither has ever played that position.
For tackles we pick "Spud" Taylor of Breckenridge and Beasley of Cisco, for no reason at all except that it seems to be the opinion of the coaches that every man should be changed from his regular position, so we will try to do so too.
At guards we would have John Garrison of Eastland and Maurice Agnew of Ranger.
Center was a hard position to fill, but Callum of Cisco should fill the bill.
At quarter we would put Schupbach of Abilene because as far as we know he can't call a game, can't pass, can't run and did some poor punting when we saw him in action. He should be a natural.
At halves we would put Collins of Abilene and Wall of Brownwood. Why not? Collins was a good tackle and Wall was a guard who never broke into the lineup as far as we know, but he might have been a whiz at half.
We had a hard job selecting a fullback, so we just decided to run in all the remainder of the players, giving each one vote, so if you have any second-hand programs left over from Oil Belt games just

"Toy Factory" Is Given Donations To Aid In Project

The Ranger toy factory at the fire station, in which five men are employed building toys for the youngsters of the city who would otherwise have no Christmas, has received additional donations in cash, which will enable it to continue in operation for some time.
A group of young people recently gave a dance at the Ranger Country club and the net proceeds, which amounted to $5, were turned over to Fire Chief G. A. Murphy, who is in charge of the project.
Those who sponsored the dance were Jim Blair, Ruth Smith, Floyd Killingsworth, D. T. Wier, Sammy Ruth Matthews, W. O. Shafer, George Paulowsky, James Phillips, Tom Grady, Keith McLaughlin, Joe Simmond, Truman Head, Jimmie Westbrook, Johnson Bradley, George Albert Bumpers, Nick Crawford and Kathryn Galloway.
In addition to the donation from the dance proceeds E. A. Ringold donated $5.50 in cash to the project after purchasing two of the dance tickets to aid in raising the money from that source.

Peoples' Tax Lobby Urged For Session

By United Press
AUSTIN, Dec. 10.—A "people's lobby" to represent the public at hearings on tax bills was suggested to the senate's tax research committee today by State Tax Commissioner H. P. Edwards.
He pointed out that big business fighting a proposed tax, is able to send well informed lobbyists to raise countless objections. The legislator sponsoring the bill being no tax expert, is unable to answer every objection raised.
Commissioner Edwards, who will retire with the Ferguson administration, recommended that the present law taxing intangible assets of railroads and pipe line companies be revised to provide a specific method of calculating intangible assets.

Roy Thornton Is Recaptured After A Short Liberty

By United Press
ANGLETON, Texas, Dec. 10.—Roy Thornton, former husband of the notorious Bonnie Parker, who was slain with Clyde Barrow, today was safely back at Ramsey State Prison Farm after a brief liberty.
Thornton, under a 99-year sentence from Dallas county for robbery, and another convict, E. D. Davenport, serving 15 years from Harris county, stole a prison car last night and drove toward Houston.
Thornton, who attempted to escape from Huntsville several months ago by climbing a ladder, was free about three hours. Davenport was caught an hour after the break.

Evangelists Plan Meeting In Chicago

By United Press
CHICAGO—Prominent evangelists, directors and Bible teachers from all parts of the United States and Canada will assemble Dec. 30 to Jan. 8 for the national convention of Evangelists and Christian Workers.
Included on the program will be Billy Sunday, Gypsy Smith, Dr. Charles L. Goodell, Homer Rodheaver, Charles F. Weisde, Roy L. Brown, Harry Von Brush, Walter McDonald, Howard S. Cadle and others. Last year more than 50,000 persons attended during the eight days of the session at Philadelphia.

Kimble Pecan Crop About Fourth Normal

By United Press
KERRVILLE, Texas.—Kimble, one of the leading hill country pecan counties, exported about 25 per cent of a crop this year, about 200,000 pounds, compared to 800,000 pounds last year. One large producer, in spite of severe drought, had harvested 15,000 pounds which was about 5,000 over his average yield.
The Kimble county market opened at eight cents this year and rose to a steady 13 cents whereas last year it opened at four cents and closed at seven and eight cents.

Autos Have Killed More In Five Years Than World War

AUSTIN.—The number of deaths in Texas due to automobile accidents during the past five years more than equals the number of Texans killed during the World War, according to a statement issued by the state department of health. Last year over 1,200 persons met death in this manner and from the figures compiled so far for 1934 the number of deaths will be even higher.
Most of the automobile accidents occur on week-end or holidays. This is a surprising fact since fewer pedestrians are abroad and traffic congestion in towns and cities is less on Sunday than on other days of the week. This paradox may be explained in part from having more inexperienced drivers on the road, together with their failure to observe traffic rules.
Some of the most frequent violations of traffic rules are: exceeding the speed limit, driving on the wrong side of the road, failure to give right of way, and running without lights. The observance of rules and regulations is not enough to prevent all accidents. The car itself must be in good shape, especially the brakes and steering connections. The common sense must be used in all situations.
The consequences of an automobile accident are so disastrous that no one can afford to stand on their legal rights in a situation of impending danger. Only if you have conceded such rights and have made every possible effort to avoid an accident, can you consider yourself blameless, in case of accident.

Pension Plan of Aged Assumes One Of County Aspect

Supporters of an old age pension plan have evidenced themselves in the county by signing of a petition that is in the lobby of the commissioners court. Over 300 persons have signed the papers urging creation of a law that will provide income for persons freed from a habitual criminal record who are over 60 years of age.
The petition is addressed to Senators Tom Connally, Morris Sheppard and Congressman Thomas L. Blanton.
The petition urges that $200 be paid persons over 60 years of age and providing it is passed, all of the sum should be spent in each month. The petition urges that a national sales tax be enacted to provide revenue for the plan. Ages of the signers vary from 20 to 81.
The plan is believed of Townsend origin. W. L. Coley, Fort Worth attorney, spoke in behalf of the measure in Eastland recently.
Representative Blanton, who blocked a House vote on the old age pension bill for the District of Columbia at the last session, is known to be agreeable to some sort of type of national statute.
The bill for the District of Columbia, which failed in the House would have paid up to $35 a month to indigents who had lived in the District ten years prior to the passage of the act and who were 65 years of age or older.
His objection to the District bill last year was that it would give Washington an advantage over many of the states.

Funeral Is Held For Citizen of Ranger

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at Evergreen cemetery for Francis Marion Groce Bagley, 83, Ranger carpenter, who died at his home, 324 Strawn road Sunday morning. The services were conducted at the cemetery by Rev. H. R. Johnson, pastor of the First Christian church.
The decedent was born in Birmingham, Alabama, in 1851, and had been a resident of Ranger for a number of years.

BOLIVIA WILL THROW POWER INTO BATTLE

By United Press
BUENOS AIRES, Dec. 10.—Bolivia prepared today to throw its entire manpower into the war against Paraguay, while accepting without reservation the League of Nations' recommendations for peace.
Mobilization orders were prepared for all reserves, which means all able-bodied men between the ages of 18 and 50. The orders will send perhaps 150,000 men to the front.
As the orders were drafted, Bolivian and Paraguayan field guns thundered on the Bolivian edge of the Gran Chaco, the jungle territory rich in oil, which has been in dispute for a century.
Paraguayan dispatches from the front told of the capture of three more Bolivian forts on the eastern frontier.

Do You Want a Guardian?

"If any part of our people want to be wards, if they want to have guardians put over them, if they want to be taken care of, if they want to be children, patronized by the government, why, I am sorry, because it will sap the manhood of America," wrote the late President Wilson in his book, The New Freedom. "But I don't believe they do. I believe they want to stand on the firm foundation of law and right and take care of themselves. I, for my part, don't want to belong to a nation, I believe that I do not belong to a nation, that needs to be taken care of by guardians."

In those words, the war President, who had a greater knowledge of world history than almost any man who has held the position of Chief Executive, accurately caught the true American spirit—the spirit that set this nation off from all others, dedicated to the ideals of freedom and democracy which had been subjugated with force and bloodshed in the old world. It was the spirit that led to the sailing of the Mayflower 300 years ago—to the Revolutionary War—and finally, to the arduous development of the west by men who wanted no wards, and wanted only the right to work and save and make their own destinies. That spirit is our American heritage—and nothing the founders and the pioneers could have sent down to us through time could have equalled it in worth.

It is likewise the spirit that we must keep constantly in mind, as a guide to the future, if we are to endure as a democracy in which liberty is always to be maintained, and in which opportunity is to be offered to all. All paternalistic and socialistic endeavors, no matter how well and honestly meant, are at variance with this spirit—and, long enough pursued, they must inevitably result in the destruction of those institutions which are peculiarly American.

Obviously there must be something wrong somewhere with a lot of the political machinery in this country, but now that the searchlight of investigation has been turned on by the people, we can hope for some needed changes.

Cheap prices for cheap goods advertised in cheap handbills make no appeal to those who want true value for their money. People who want quality goods at reasonable prices read the advertisements in the home town newspaper before they shop. They believe in safety first.

What most cities need are fewer pessimists and a greater number of citizens with more faith in its future.

STOCK MARKETS Allred To Have Many Appointments To Make When He Takes Over Office

Table of stock market closing prices for selected New York stocks, including Am Can, Am P & L, Am & F Pwr, etc.

By GORDON K. SHEARER United Press Staff Correspondent AUSTIN, Tex.—Governor-Elect James V. Allred's first appointments and the rumor list of those to follow confirm the expectation that the new Governor will surround himself with "brain-trust" assistants. R. B. Anderson of Godley, his choice for the important tax commissionership, distinguished himself in prep school, college and law school. Pat Moreland, first secretary to be announced, is a S. M. U. man, a theologian and writer. Another prominent S. M. U. man is popularly supposed to be Allred's choice for Secretary of State. He has been in Austin and looked the office over. Robert Calvert of Hillsboro, whose candidacy for House Speaker is generally conceded to be Ely of Abilene is re-appointed. Chairman John Wood, named by Governor Ferguson, is from East Texas. D. K. Martin, the other hold-over is from San Antonio. He is said to be anxious for Judge Ely's retention and it is reported may resign if Judge Ely does not continue on the board.

North and Central Texas seem to lead among home places of those being discussed as possible State Labor Commissioners. Travis J. Lewis of Fort Worth has numerous strong endorsements for it. Robert Graze of Austin, who was labor commissioner in the Sterling administration, has backers; and A. W. Schulz of Dallas and F. E. Nichols of Ennis have been mentioned. "Dick" Waters of Texarkana, Allred's campaign manager, seems to be left out of capital gossip about Allred's probable appointees although it is believed he could have what he wanted. He has been mentioned as possible Secretary of State but the place is one of the poorest-paid at the Governor's disposal. Some believe Waters is destined to be chief enforcement officer or chief assistant to Attorney General William McCraw. McCraw left those places vacant in a recent staff announcement.

If Waters is not named, East Texas might be recognized in the appointment of an Adjutant General or one of the other places. The Governor's military appointments include a State Service Officer as well as the Adjutant General. On boards the new Governor will have a number of appointments to make. Ray Jackson of Alpine and Albert West Sr., of San Antonio are being discussed as possible appointees on the State Livestock Sanitary Commission. No vacancy will occur until 1936 on the State Board of Control.

The State Auditor and State Banking Commissioner have terms running until next September and the state reclamation engineer until July. A member of the state board of water engineers will be one of the appointments available at once to the new governor. Water development plans have made this board one of great importance in the state. A pardon board member will also be available for the Governor's appointment.

QUINCY, Mass.—Hough's Neck

but they broke all records recently.
The alarm was sounded by a heard it at the station because they were already at the scene. The firemen were burning the grass on a vacant lot and had it under con-

Two Good Bouts On Elks Card Tonight

Tonight's wrestling card at the Elks arena is one of the best of the season, according to the promoters, and brings another newcomer in Jack Davis. Davis comes from the west coast and brings along with him a reputation as a fast and scientific grappler.

He takes on Dutch Aultman, who is a worthy opponent for any matman anywhere near his weight. The two wrestlers are on the semi-final match in a 45-minute affair.

The main event, for the best two out of three falls in a two-hour time limit match, will be Ken Ken, the Roswell cowlard, pitted against the champion, Ramon Vico. Vico, who won the national title last week and accepted the challenge.

Both are scientific wrestlers, but Vico is rougher than his opponent. He will extend himself to the limit and Ken has any more leg likely need them to win.

The stakes here are high and the arena will be regardless of the result.
