Four Members of Famous Gang Captured

Hauptmann's Wife Declares Witnesses Lie

FLEMINGTON, N. J., Jan. 18.—Testimony that Hauptmann had a sprained ankle two days after the Lindbergh kidnaping and a passionate outburst by Mrs. Anna Hauptmann, wife of the accused man, caused a sensation today at Hauptmann's trial for murder.

Mrs. Hauptmann's outburst, with a cry of "lying" duplicated yesterday's outburst by Hauptmann as witnesses continued to pile up evidence against the Bronx carpenter.

Mrs. Hauptmann's angry shout of "you are lying" at a former neighbor, Mrs. Ella Achenbach, came when her former neighbor and employer testified:

1.—That Mrs. Hauptmann, visiting her directly after the kidnaping, said she and her husband had just come back from a trip.

2.—That Hauptmann, walking with a limp, said he had sprained his ankle.

Hauptmann's limp was of great significance. It is the state's assertion that when he kidnaped the child and carried it down the home-made ladder, the ladder broke, precipitating him to the ground, probably killing the child at the fall and injuring Hauptmann.

Mrs. Hauptmann, her eyes blazing, raised a shrill voice in the courtroom, raising the question of Mrs. Achenbach's first reply.

Again there was a commotion in court. Justice Thomas W. Trenchard, somewhat angry, pounded for the prosecuting attorneys to return to their feet and began re-arranging.

The blond wife of the prisoner sank back to her chair. Her face was white and a grim smile was around her lips.

Thieves Turn Out To Be Inspectors Policemen Find

Armed with a machine gun, a sawed-off shotgun and rifle, Eastland nightwatchmen this week came to the Eastland American legion airport in answer to the keeper's call that some one was endeavoring to steal gasoline from a tank.

An explanation by two "unknown" persons revealed that the intruder was a government inspector of airports of this district and was endeavoring to test the vigilance of the Eastland keeper.

A burglar alarm attached to the door of a small house where the gas was stored warned the keeper of the entrance.

The Eastland police made the trip to the airport in less than five minutes after the report was sent in. One of the parties was evidently a "dog lover," police indicated. In the car was a Great Dane.

Certificates Given For Coin Purchases

B. E. Garner and C. J. Moore are displaying certificates of distinguished service to the State of Texas for their purchase of Texas Centennial half dollars No. 1 and No. 2, respectively.

Garner has donated the No. 1 coin, which he purchased for $20 to Carl Barnes Post No. 69 to be placed in its trophy case as a permanent exhibit in the American Legion hall.

Brought Back for Bigamy Trial

His long fight against extradition from Austria ended with his surrender to a representative of New York City for the long trip to America. Ivan Puderjay (above), now faces trial on charges of bigamy as a result of his marriage to Agnes Tufverson, successful woman attorney, who vanished mysteriously a few days after the ceremony.

Legion Auxiliary Decorates Window For Week of Drive

Members of the American Legion Auxiliary of the Carl Barnes Post No. 69, who are planning a membership drive to start on Monday, January 21 and to continue through Saturday, January 26, have decorated a window on Main Street in a very attractive way.

The window, which is designed to call attention to the auxiliary drive for membership, shows a miniature pup tent, similar to the ones used in the army, with a small cot on which a doll, with bandages around its head rests, with another doll dressed as a nurse in the rear of the tent.

In the background is a grass-covered grave, covered with the poppies which have been made famous through the poppy sales by the auxiliary.

Mrs. A. J. Baum, who has been appointed as general chairman of the membership drive, is anxious that the membership quota of 50 members, which has been set, can be reached during the one-week drive in order that the auxiliary may have its full strength before the preliminary work on the 17th district convention opens in Ranger in February. The auxiliary will have an active and prominent part in the convention.

All members of the auxiliary are expected to aid in the membership drive during the week.

Stock Warning Issued For Ranger Airport

C. J. Moore, manager of the Haughard airport, today warned that stock was being allowed to graze on the airport, which forms a dangerous hazard for any airplanes that might want to land at the airport.

In the warning he stated that any stock found on the airport would be placed in the city pound, where the regular fines and fees will have to be paid in order to have them released.

Tickville Band to Play at Seymour

The American Legion Tickville Band of Ranger will go to Seymour on Jan. 25 to play at the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet there, it has been announced.

The entire personnel of the band will make the trip and the main musical feature of the annual program will be presented by the group from Ranger.

BIRMINGHAM BUILDING UP By United Press BIRMINGHAM, Ala.—Building activity in Birmingham during 1934 increased more than 75 per cent over that of 1933, city building department figures revealed. Expenditures for building during 1934 totaled $1,065,218 as compared to $594,583 in 1933.

COLD WAVE MAY STRIKE NORTH TEXAS

A cold wave which has brought temperatures far below freezing to Western Canada and the North Central states, is moving southward and will strike North Texas tomorrow, the weather bureau announced today.

The brunt of the cold wave may pass east of Texas, Dr. J. L. Cline, federal meteorologist at Dallas, said, but the weather bureau has issued livestock warnings for the Panhandle and the northwest section of the state for tomorrow.

If nothing happens to turn the storm aside all of Texas may experience freezing weather by Sunday, Dr. Cline said.

Overpass Hearing Was Scheduled in 11th Court Today

Scheduled to be submitted today in 11th court of civil appeals at Eastland was the suit of S. M. Shelton et al vs. The City of Abilene.

The case, an injunction suit on appeal, represents 45 Abilene property owners who are endeavoring to restrain the city of Abilene, the Texas & Pacific Railway company and the State Highway commission from construction of an approved $140,000 PWA overpass at Abilene.

The setting was made on granting of a motion filed by A. K. Doss of Abilene, plaintiff attorney, for advancement of the case on the appeals docket.

The plaintiffs were denied an injunction in 12nd district court at Abilene. In the Eastland court a writ of superdenial was sought while the original case went thru on appeal. It was denied as was an injunction asked from the court.

The hearing scheduled today will be regular appeal procedure.

The plaintiffs have contended the construction would be a violation of the original dedication of the railroad right-of-way for railway purposes only.

Decision will probably be handed down in three or four days.

Stalin Unopposed In Soviet Today

MOSCOW, Jan. 18.—Josef Stalin ruled unopposed today after the addition of 98 more names to the long list of those who have paid with liberty or life for the assassination of Sergei Kirov.

Nineteen men were sentenced to prison terms last night and 72 men and women to exile for participation in the Moscow and Leningrad opposition groups whose activities, it is held, made possible the condition under which Kirov, Stalin's old friend and co-leader, was killed.

SHIP CAPTAIN DASHED TO HIS DEATH IN SEA

PORTUGUESE, N. S., Jan. 18.—Duncan Milne, master of the British freighter Kengery which crashed on a reef in a blinding snowstorm last night, was dashed to death in mountainous seas today when he attempted to reach shore by a breeches buoy.

True to traditions of the seas, Captain Milne remained with his battered ship until the crew of 28 was ashore.

With the vessel falling apart beneath him the captain was being hauled ashore when the floundering ship split, breaking the breeches buoy line and hurling the master into the sea.

MORTON VALLEY SERVICES Preaching services will be held at Morton Valley Baptist church at 2 p. m. it was announced today.

She charges that George Eastman Dryden, kokak millions heir, pushed her, fully clothed, into his bathroom tub at a party, after striking her and her sister, and that she was severely burned. Dryden denies the charges.

ARMED GUARDS AVERTING WAR OF TRAPPERS

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 18.—Armed with shotguns and revolvers, a large number of deputy U. S. marshals patrolled the wild swamp country south of here today to quell a trapper's war that has reached serious proportions.

It was understood the trappers' anger was directed against the Miranda Brothers, trapping company.

Serious trouble started last week when a trapper was shot and wounded by a guard hired by the Mirandas to protect their land from "sneak trappers."

The bayou folk gathered to start a reign of terror against the company. They were reported to have started reprisals against all company employes, upsetting their homes and setting fire to the houses and supplies.

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—Four men and a woman of the desperate tri-state bandit gang including Robert Maiz, fell into traps set by police and federal agents in the last 48 hours, without a blow being struck or a shot being fired.

Government agents announced that New York and Philadelphia police had cooperated in the captures which struck a humiliating death blow to a gang charged with many murders, robberies and kidnapings—and probably murder of William (Big Bill) Weiss, Philadelphia sporting character.

Maiz, jailbreaker under death sentence in Virginia and known as a desperate man, was caught asleep in bed, a pistol by his side, home-made ladder, the ladder, the Walter Legenza, his chief lieutenant, also under death sentence, was captured in a hospital where both legs were in casts. The house and senate had just finished canvassing the election returns. It became Leonard's duty as temporary presiding officer to announce the result. He said: "I declare James V. Allred governor of Texas."

EUROPE STILL IN TURMOIL OVER GERMANY

GENEVA, Jan. 18.—League of Nations leaders feared today the hope that return of the Saar to Germany would be the turning point toward European friendship already had proved illusory.

Reports from the Saar that Nazis are conducting a reign of terror, possibility that technical affairs may cause delay in transfer and other factors indicated that, if the Saar does not lead to acute unpleasantness, Europe will be fortunate.

Statements by German leaders have made it plain it is not the return of the Saar but recognition of Germany's right to re-arm that must be the first real step.

Statements by French leaders have made it plain that France is not willing to recognize the right of Germany to re-arm unless Great Britain gives France further guarantees against attack.

How Texas Cities Got Their Names

History does not record who deserves the credit for inventing the name, but Texarkana is supposed to be named in honor of the three states, Texas, Arkansas and Louisiana.

One story is that Col. Gus Knebel, who surveyed the Iron Mountain railroad right-of-way from Little Rock to this point, on arriving near the Texas state line, marked the name "Tex-Ark-Ana" on a pine board and nailed it to a tree stump, declaring that "this is to be the name of the town to be built here."

Another version is that the sign board was placed there by Father Buford, a Catholic priest from Galveston, who was doing mission work in the railroad construction camps.

Still another story is that a community school house, a short distance from the site of the present city, was known as "Texarkana" some years before the opening of the railroad in this section.

First town lots were sold on

Dec. 8, 1873, and the first train came through on Dec. 24 of the same year.

Auto dealers first try to locate prospects in streamlines, and then divert their interest to downtown lines.

Producers May Enjoy Neighborhood Movies

Somehow or other the people of the United States, the common people who go no farther than the neighborhood movie house for their entertainment, seem to be a class entirely apart from those great industrialists to whom they look for their future welfare and morals.

Take the movie industry, as an example. High up in the steel towers of New York, or out in the guarded studios of Hollywood, sit the Mayers and the Warners and the Goldwyns with no other contact with the millions who daily enjoy their products than the money that comes streaming to them through long devious channels.

All they know about the likes and dislikes of their patrons comes to them only through reports of their hirings or criticisms in the newspapers. Direct contact with the people themselves, where they may hear and feel the truth about their pictures, these potentates of the screen rarely if ever attain.

For it is only through the neighborhood movie house in the larger cities, and the one or two theaters in the smaller towns out in the country, that the reactions of the American people to the new productions can be gauged properly.

Let one of these chief executives visit a neighborhood movie theater on a Saturday or Sunday afternoon or any evening of the week, and he will have a far different feeling than any he might have had at the premiere of his latest production on the city's leading screen.

The reason is that children attend these neighborhood shows, with their parents, and children are the most natural and out-spoken of critics. They give vent to their emotions by yelling and applauding and booing; and if you will just analyze these reactions, in the light of the pictures presented, you will find that the young ones are pretty fair judges, at that.

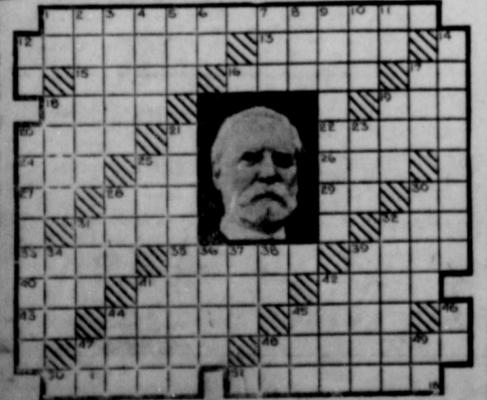

You will find that the children boo down the pictures which their elders have been trying to have been trying to have outlawed or restricted in deference to the moral education of these same youngsters. You will find that pure entertainment, with a loud and hearty laugh, is most to be desired.

And you'll find finally what Hollywood only lately has discovered, that those undying children's classics like "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" and "David Copperfield" and "Little Women" are far more enjoyed than any picture Mae West could give us.

Perhaps, after all, those sitting atop the movie towers

ON TEXAS FARMS

In Jackson county, home demonstration club women report 57,247 quarts of food canned during 1934 by themselves and by the women they have helped. Estimated value is $12,166.15.

Terracing schools attended by 77 men and boys were held by Brown county farm demonstration agent in December. He has on file 98 applications for help terracing, covering 8,973 acres.

Starting with two trench silo demonstrations and a depression, along by a drought, Brazos county farmers and dairymen have 75 trench silos ranging in capacity from 35 tons to 950.

Hog killing and pork curing demonstrations were held in Washington county at the farms of Mrs. Chip and Lewin Rout in December by T. H. Roensch and Hohn, county and district extension agents, when 26 hogs were killed, cut and cured the Texas A. M. way. About 30 people participated in the demonstration.

Delta county women had an eye looking well and in their home demonstration work they completed 322 individually fitted patterns and made for themselves 6,245 articles of clothing valued at $9,140.63. New clothes closets to house their good clothes were reported by 20 women and 37 others improved the closets they already had.

CANADIAN—An average of 11 eggs per hen was laid during November by 550 white leghorn hens belonging to Mrs. Smith Morehead of the Washita Home Demonstration Club in Hemphill county, while the standard production for that month is only 9 eggs per hen, according to Miss Sadie Lee Oliver, home demonstration agent. The 509 1/2 dozen eggs sold for $160 while the cost of production was only $82.65, leaving Mrs. Moorehead a profit of $77.35 for the month. Her chickens are raised by methods outlined by the Texas Extension Service, and her expenses were for laying mash, grain, oyster shell, medicine, and lights.

QUITMAN—Doris Jeanne Holley, 11-year-old bedroom demonstrator for the Cartwright 4-H club in Wood county, has completely refinished her bedroom at a cost of $14.80 by doing all of the work herself with the help of her father and mother, according to Miss Katherine Kelly, home demonstration agent. Doris Jeanne planned walls, used heavy building paper to cover them, and sewed up the curtains. She repapered her walls and ceiling, finished her woodwork and floors which had previously been unfinished, and then enameled her furniture jade green.

FALFURRIAS—Sixteen Brooks county women taught to can by Mrs. J. M. Word, member of the Falfurrias Home Demonstration Club, have preserved $305.50 worth of meat and vegetables this year, according to Miss Louise Hogue, home demonstration agent. Meat canning was taught to 13 women, 11 of whom were not members of the home demonstration club. These 13 women canned 210 quarts of meat valued at $283.50. Vegetable canning demonstrations given to three women resulted in the canning of 110 quarts of vegetables valued at $22. In addition one non-club member taught by Mrs. Word made six quarts of orange marmalade valued at $2.10.

MADISONVILLE—By terracing 50 acres of land, Fred Seay of Madison county estimates that he has added $250 to the value of his farm for a cash outlay of $25, he told W. L. David, farm demonstration agent. Mr. Seay used the county grader and machinery to do his work and found that it cost him 41 1/2 cents per acre. The ter-

JUST WHAT THE MAT GAME NEEDS

The professional wrestling game would pack 'em in if it followed the example set by Iowa State Teachers' College, at Cedar Falls, Ia., and featured fair combatants on the mat. The school has added a course in wrestling instruction for co-eds, under direction of Paul Bender, and here are two fair ones. Dorothy Jean Peterson, left, and Helen Kurtz, doing some fancy necking.

aces were built 24 feet wide and 24 inches high. Since Mr. Seay has found out how little it costs him to have this work done, he plans on aving more terracing done in the near future.

KOUNTZE—Thirteen thousand five hundred pounds of wool were sold by 43 members of the local wool growers' association in Hardin county during December for $2,600, averaging $60 per grower, according to W. P. Barrett, farm demonstration agent. Through a cooperative agency, small growers in the county have been able to sell their wool for several cents above the price offered them individually by buyers. The wool was assembled at two central points in the county where it was weighed, branded and listed.

GATESVILLE—The cost of digging and filling a 60-foot trench silo was only $18.50 for an estimated amount of 25 tons of silage, W. T. Perryman, Coryell county, told D. W. Sherrill, farm demonstration agent. Mr. Perryman declared that the $18.50 covered the cost of labor and all other expenses, and that the estimated replacement value of the 25 tons of feed in the silo is $150. "In a time of short pasturage and feed the use of trench silos and the saving of feed that otherwise would be wasted is very important," Mr. Perryman says.

Neglecting Copper For Gold In Arizona

PHOENIX, Ariz.—Steadily but slowly, gold is replacing copper as the backbone of the mining industry in the "Copper States."

With mines of the red metal working at low schedules and prospects of further cuts, the outlook would be gloomy but for gathering momentum of a "gold boom."

Hundreds of old properties have been reopened. Mills throughout the state have been enlarged, and most are working at capacity. Maena Copper Company and the United Verde extension are among former larger copper producers who have started into gold production, giving rise to hopes that the former huge state payroll may be built up by the switch of copper firms.

Most of the work is being done by small units, however.

ENJOY MORE SUNNY DAYS

Your moods, your actions, your very personality—all are influenced by the state of your health. Avoid common constipation due to insufficient "bulk" in meals. This ailment may cause headaches, loss of appetite and energy. It takes the color out of living.

Kellogg's All-Bran, a natural laxative food, furnishes you with this needed "bulk." Within the body, it absorbs moisture, and forms a soft mass. Gently, this clears out the intestinal wastes.

The "bulk" in All-Bran remains effective with continued use. Two tablespoons daily are usually sufficient. Chronic cases, with each meal. If not relieved this way, see your doctor. Isn't this cereal food better than patent medicines?

All-Bran also provides vitamin and iron. Serve it as a cereal with milk or cream, or cook into muffins, breads, waffles, etc. It's much more satisfactory than part-bran products. Get the red-green package.

See your grocer. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

WOMEN ALIMONY PAYERS

By United Press
KNOXVILLE, Tenn.—It's the woman who pays—the alimony. At least this is true in the office of Clerk Jesse Shackelford of the Criminal Court, where numerous wives come in to pay off the husband's alimony to Wife No. 1. Whether or not the money belongs to Wife No. 2, or is the husband's, Shackelford has been unable to learn.

LET'S TALK ABOUT CLOTHES

By a "Young Modern"

DENTON.—With the beginning of the New Year, fashion thought turns to ideas for spring, and suggestions for the in-between season which makes its appearance mid-winter blasts of rain and snow are left entirely to the individual. Not much enthusiasm can be roused over a delightful printed silk when howling winds tear about the country. Something warm yet possessing a strictly 1935 note is essential.

Along these lines, fashion leaders at Texas State College for Women (CIA) advocate the new tweed jacket suits smartly tailored for town and country. These are essentially a part of any woman's wardrobe, and can be worn in all weathers with blouses, wool sweaters, furs or scarfs. Select a fine dull toned tweed, and have it designed so as to include wide revers, deep comfortable pockets, large bone buttons and a jaunty belt across the back. Then purchase a brilliant plaid scarf and your costume is complete.

For an ideal swager ensemble that doesn't appear "last year," select a plain knee length coat along straight slenderizing lines. Then for those little touches that mean so much, strap the cuffs to fit your wrist and finish it off with a buckle. Do this same thing to the neck and use buckles instead of buttons to fasten the coat down the front. With a mingled rough tweed skirt and a gay kerchief, your costume will be warm enough for motoring and light enough for walking.

Flaming jersey or plaided wool lunie blouses worn over solid skirts are something else that make make the in-between season a pleasure. Made with high necklines, intricate yokes and patch pockets these frocks are delightfully chic.

Mr. Hagaman's Message To Club One To Be Remembered

High point of yesterday's 1920 club meeting held in the Colonial room, Gholson hotel, was the wonderful talk given by M. H. Hagaman, a past mayor of Ranger and one who is well versed along the line which his subject named, "President's Message to Congress." Mr. Hagaman's address brought together the finer points of his message and will long be remembered by each member of the club.

Mrs. Roy Jameson led the program on national government in the absence of Mrs. C. E. Maddocks, who was called out of town. The New Dealers was well discussed by Mrs. J. K. Fletcher, one of Ranger's most brilliant young women, and who for several years has contributed much to the course of study occupying the attention of 1920 occupant.

A business session covering all the important and necessary details was conducted by the president, Mrs. M. H. Hagaman.

The annual business meeting will be given attention on the afternoon of Feb. 7, when Mrs. R. F. Holloway gives the parliamentary drill.

Geraldine Pirkle Hostess To Beethoven Club
Miss Geraldine Pirkle was hostess at the home of her mother in Ranger to the Beethoven Junior Music club, on Tuesday afternoon.

The election of officers was held, conducted by Miss Anna Jane Taylor, retiring president. Miss Ruby Lee Pritchard was elected president; Miss Billie Gates, vice president; Miss Eleanor Harper, secretary; Miss Josephine Murphy, treasurer; Miss Florence Clyatt, parliamentarian;

Miss Martin Jean Lister, reporter; Miss Geraldine Pirkle, reporter for Ranger; Miss Joyce Newman, pianist, and Miss Betty Joe Newman, historian.

The program proper opened with the club song, with Miss Newman as pianist.

The leader of the program, Martin Jean Lister, presented Miss Josephine Murphy in a talk, "The Use of the Metronome."

Piano solo, Billie Gage.

The importance of memorizing was discussed by Ruby Lee Pritchard and Florence Clyatt.

Piano solo, "Gondolied," Gladys Hoffman. Piano solo, "Romance in Argonne," Eleanor Harper.

A musical game closed the program. Mrs. Pirkle served a refreshment plate of sandwiches, cakes and cocoa with marshmallow topping to Misses Florence Clyatt, Eleanor Harper, Martin Jean Lister, Gladys Hoffman, Joyce Newman, Billie Gage, Ruby Lee Pritchard, Anna Jane Taylor, Josephine Murphy, Betty Joe Newman, Geraldine Pirkle; Mmes. A. F. Taylor, Milton Newman and Pirkle.

Interesting Program Heard on "Thrift"

Young school Parent-Teacher association held their "Thrift" program Tuesday afternoon. Pupils of Mrs. Hamrick's room read themes on many different phases of "Thrift." Mr. Turpin gave a talk on "The School Child and Money," and the program concluded with a reading by Donald Martin.

A short business meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. H. S. Packwood. The next meeting will be held Feb. 5.

President's Charity Ball To Be Given In Breckenridge

President's charity ball, sponsored by the Breckenridge Junior Chamber of Commerce, will be given Tuesday evening, Jan. 29, at the Burch hotel roof.

Durwood Cline and his Collegians will furnish the music and the entertainment gives every assurance of a very delightful affair bringing the month to a close.

For those who enjoy the square dance feature their part of the entertainment will take place in the junior ballroom of the Burch. Music by Albert Crudington and his Midnight Ramblers will be the high point of attraction.

Friends from surrounding cities are given a special invitation to attend these dances. Dancing begins at 9 o'clock and $1.50 has been set for admission.

Officers Training School Has Enrollment of 85

A group of members representing the Women's Missionary society of the M. E. Church of Ranger, helped in forming an attendance of some 85 persons who gathered in the assembly room of the Methodist church at Eastland Wednesday for the officers training school of Cisco district.

Mrs. W. K. Barron, district secretary, who presided, opened with song ensemble, and roll call of district members. Banner for the best standard of excellence going to the west zone.

Mrs. Barron's address, "What Every Officer Should Know," was followed by the group meeting led by their respective leaders.

The Women's Missionary society served the noon luncheon under direction of Mmes. Lola Mitchell, T. M. Johnson and W. P. Leslie.

The quiet prayer hour following was presided over by Mrs. Boles of Fort Worth.

Attendance represented Caddo, Buxton, Carbon, DeLeon, Dublin, Cisco, Eastland, Gorman, Rising Star, Olden and Ranger.

Huge Birthday Card To Be Sent President

Western Union has placed its nationwide system of telegraph offices at the disposal of the President's Birthday Ball committee for receiving 25 cents from each person who places his signature on a multiple signature birthday greeting.

"Happy birthday, Mr. President. I am proud to know that the cost of sending this greeting will help in the great fight against infantile paralysis, to which you have given your leadership and loaned your birthday."

Signatures from every city, town and hamlet will be mailed to New York, where they will be bound into what probably will be the greatest birthday greeting in history. One hundred per cent of the money will be turned over to the national birthday ball committee, which will arrange for proper credit for each community.

High Court Rules On Planting Grass

AUSTIN.—State workers can plant Bermuda grass along state highways sustained by an appellate court decision at San Antonio. An attempt to prevent the planting had been made by a farmer who feared the rapid-growing grass would spread from Highway 3 to his farm. Chief Justice John H. Bickett filed a dissenting opinion.

"It is serious and dangerous," Judge Bickett warned, "to invest subordinate state employees with immunity from judicial process." The majority opinion held planting Bermuda grass a proper way of maintaining a highway. Bermuda grass is used extensively by engineers to prevent washing away of embankments. The close mesh and its roots quickly cover the dirt and prevent soil erosion. The grass will grow on a new embankment a long time. It waits until soil, usually excavated from borrow pit, has become aerated.
