RAY HAMILTON TAKEN BACK TO DEATH ROW

HAMILTON AND HIS CAPTOR

An hour before this picture was taken, Raymond Hamilton, public enemy and the most hunted criminal in the south, and who is the master of the art of jailbreaking and bank robbing, was taken into custody by Sheriff Schmid, shown behind Ray, and six other officers in a railway yard in Fort Worth. He was arrested with two companions after one of them was apprehended in Dallas and lead officers to the bandit. Hamilton is a product of West Dallas, from whence came the notorious Clyde Barrow and Bonnie Parker.

Committee Told Of Effects of the Rayburn Measure

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Analyzing various phases of the Rayburn bill which he termed "drastic," S. R. Inch, president of the Electric Bond and Share company called to the attention of the house interstate and foreign commerce committee that no plan has been presented as a substitute for the present locally-regulated, privately operated public utility system.

"Certainly nothing so drastic as this bill should be enacted into law, unless and until those who would destroy what now exists have prepared and submitted a definite and workable plan of procedure," Mr. Inch said.

Effects of the Rayburn bill would ultimately increase the costs of electric and gas service to the consumer and by demoralizing local companies would impair service, Mr. Inch also stated.

"A large number of operating companies receiverships would inevitably follow the passage of this bill because necessary financing now obtained from holding companies, would not be forthcoming," said Mr. Inch.

"In normal years they spend a hundred million dollars a year. This is just an indication of what these industries mean in the drive for business recovery."

"During the depression years the Electric Bond and Share company and its associated holding company and its invested $144,000,000 in building and unifying two natural gas systems. This created employment for thousands, with benefits to their communities and protected investors who would have suffered severe losses unless we had come to their aid."

"These developments represent real and outstanding contributions to social stability and business recovery during the worst years of the depression and they could not have been carried out and put into successful operation without the financial assistance of our company."

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE OF CC STARTS SOON

Tuesday morning, April 9, has been set for the date of the membership drive, announce John Hassen and F. D. Hicks, who compose the committee in charge of the detail arrangements of the drive.

The men who are to compose the various committees calling on the firms and individuals, will be served breakfast at the Gholson Coffee Shop at 7 o'clock, where the committee will explain the plans and duties of the various committees, and furnish them with pledge cards to be signed and membership cards for individual members, who will be asked to enroll as a member and pay $1 per year.

Thirty men will meet at the coffee shop Tuesday morning and be ready for the drive. These men will be called on the telephone about 6 o'clock by members of the committee in charge of the drive, and asked to be at the breakfast ready for an hour's work.

Realizing that the men who have been asked to serve on these committees are busy with their own businesses, the territories have been so arranged that each committee will be able to complete their work within an hour.

The cooperation of each firm in town is asked when the committee calls, that they might be enabled to get through their work as soon as possible. It is also asked that the various employers contact their employees in advance of the coming of the committee and have them lined up for membership, and by doing this 100 per cent, a window card will be left with the firm stating that it is supporting the Chamber of Commerce 100 per cent.

There will be a regular meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce Monday night at 7:30, it has been announced by J. E. Meroney, president, and all the directors have been urged to be present as some important matters are scheduled for discussion.

The arrangement committee of the Oil Belt safety meeting, which is to be held in Ranger on Monday, April 29, will be at the meeting to make announcements concerning the convention, and plans are to be made to have all organizations in the town assist in welcoming the 1,500 to 2,000 delegates to the convention.

THE BELL RINGER

The household peddler and solicitor, who is he, and what shall we do with him seems to be a growing problem of the hour. As the spring season opens up this person appears as regularly as the first robin or the dandelion on the lawn. In former years the door bell ringer was not so numerous and his visit was treated as a sort of pleasing variation in the day's dull cares, but now things are different. The busy housekeeper is obliged to drop her cooking, sewing, ironing, or whatever task at which she may be engaged and run to the door every half hour and listen for a short or long period to harangue of the itinerant peddler.

And this is not the worst phase of the situation. The peddler of today is not the same species as the one who called at the door yesterday. The present day visitor has proven himself, in many instances, to be a rogue using his mission as a would-be itinerant merchant merely as a subterfuge to cover his real mission which may be to steal outright, get the "lay" of the house for real robbers who will visit the place later on, or perhaps to intimidate the lady who answers the door and to scare her into giving him money or valuables.

In many cases these men are bona fide agents taking orders for legitimate merchandise. But even in this instance they can offer no better inducements than can be obtained from the home merchant. A profuse amount of glib talk has in many cases won an order from the housewife who, after she receives the goods she has ordered, invariably regrets the transaction and is made to realize that she could have done better from the local merchant.

It must be remembered that these house-to-house peddlers are what may be termed as "floaters." In most cases they are not property owners, they have no taxes to pay or establishment to keep up. The money paid them invariably is sent to some other city and the home community is to a certain extent drained of money that should rightly be distributed among the business concerns that are helping to support our schools, churches and other community institutions.

Now as to the remedy, and this may be briefly summed up by stating that a concerted movement on the part of housewives of the community in the matter of discouraging the house-to-house visitor would serve the purpose admirably and soon rid the district of the nuisance. Very few of the itinerant peddlers have the perseverance to continue their operations in any locality where they are met at every door with a refusal to listen to their arguments. The housewives will do well to unite on the movement and get rid of the itinerant door-to-door visitor. Discourage him all you can and never allow him to enter the house.

Do not confuse representatives of local business firms with "ITINERANT" peddlers—the local salesman is in most cases well known to the people of the community and should be received as one of your local merchants.

Dr. W. L. Jackson, J. E. Meroney and Felton Brashear, candidates for re-election in the Ranger school trustee election were swept back into office by easy majorities in Saturday's election over Mrs. Rex Outlaw and Lloyd Bruce, candidates on a "Citizens Ticket."

TAKEN BACK MORNING AFTER HIS CAPTURE

DALLAS, April 6.—Raymond Hamilton started, today, on his return to the Texas penitentiary to await the setting of a date for his execution.

He left here at 10:30 a. m. in custody of Lee Simmons, manager of the prison system, and Ward W. W. Waide, of the penitentiary with three Dallas deputies as guards.

A crowd of several hundred persons gathered in front of Dallas six-story jail building, shouted "Good-bye, Ray," and the West Dallas bank robber and killer smiled and waved.

Hamilton rode in the rear seat of one of the two automobile with a deputy on either side of him.

The desperado who had declared he would "shoot it out" the next time he met officers, surrendered in a Fort Worth railroad yard last night.

Simmons said Hamilton was "pretty downcast."

Hamilton insisted last night that he was innocent of the robbery at a Prentiss, Miss., bank, but shortly before leaving he changed his story and admitted he and a companion robbed the bank.

"But I didn't get $1,000 like they said I did. I only got $500," he said.

Two women friends captured still are held in a Mississippi jail.

HOUSE RECESS TAKEN BECAUSE OF ABSENTEES

AUSTIN, April 6.—Absentees in the Texas house of representatives today forced the house to adjourn until Monday.

When the roll call was read only 68 of the 150 members answered. They ordered sergeants-at-arms to find and bring in absentees. An hour and a half search brought 22 to the house. Still short of the 100 needed for a quorum, the house adjourned.

Absentees jeopardized chances of many bills to pass at this session, Speaker Coke Stevenson warned members. He was particularly critical of members who have maneuvered to get favored calendar position for bills and have been absent.

Meanwhile, Governor Allred, who reprimanded legislators for not staying in Austin, was non-committal on a special session.

Held as Texas Outlaw's Aides

Charges of robbery with firearms, carrying possible death sentences, face these three women, held in Jackson, Miss., jail. Left behind by Raymond Hamilton, Texas outlaw, in his flight after a Prentiss, Miss., bank holdup, they are accused as his aides. Mrs. Johnson, skilled artist, once was the wife of a Hattiesburg business leader.

Mr. Inch said that the money they put into these projects is still in them and he said, "the reward now offered to our stockholders is that their property shall be taken from them without compensation."

Three Unopposed in Eastland Voting Elected to Office

A total of 94 votes was cast in the Eastland school board election held Saturday, and all three candidates for re-election to positions on the board were elected. There was no opposition for any candidate in the election. Not a candidate was scratched.

Those re-elected were: Frank T. Crowell, 94 votes; John M. Mouser, 94 votes; K. B. Tanner, 94 votes.

J. A. Beard, candidate for county school trustee from Precinct No. 1 and Dr. P. M. Kuykendall, candidate-at-large, were leading Saturday night in the school trustee election with the complete count from the Eastland and Ranger voting boxes accounted for.

One peculiarity of the Eastland count was that all candidates for both places received exactly the same number of votes.

The vote from Eastland was as follows:

- Trustee, Precinct 1—J. A. Beard, 45; O. E. Lyerla, 45.
- Trustee-at-Large—J. T. Poe, Carbon, 45; Dr. P. M. Kuykendall, Ranger, 45.

C. of C. Directors To Have Many New Subjects at Meeting

There will be a regular meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce Monday night at 7:30, it has been announced by J. E. Meroney, president, and all the directors have been urged to be present as some important matters are scheduled for discussion.

The arrangement committee of the Oil Belt safety meeting, which is to be held in Ranger on Monday, April 29, will be at the meeting to make announcements concerning the convention, and plans are to be made to have all organizations in the town assist in welcoming the 1,500 to 2,000 delegates to the convention.

Plans for the membership drive, which is to start on Tuesday morning, with a breakfast for all the workers, will be completed and discussed at the meeting of the directors.

Sig Faircloth and Ray Harrington and other rodeo-minded citizens have been invited to attend the meeting to outline plans for a monthly rodeo to be held in Ranger this spring and summer.

Dr. W. L. Jackson, J. E. Meroney and Felton Brashear, candidates for re-election in the Ranger school trustee election were swept back into office by easy majorities in Saturday's election over Mrs. Rex Outlaw and Lloyd Bruce, candidates on a "Citizens Ticket."

Dr. Kuykendall and J. A. Beard Lead in County Election

J. A. Beard, candidate for county school trustee from Precinct No. 1 and Dr. P. M. Kuykendall, candidate-at-large, were leading Saturday night in the school trustee election with the complete count from the Eastland and Ranger voting boxes accounted for.

One peculiarity of the Eastland count was that all candidates for both places received exactly the same number of votes.

The vote from Eastland was as follows:

- Trustee, Precinct 1—J. A. Beard, 45; O. E. Lyerla, 45.
- Trustee-at-Large—J. T. Poe, Carbon, 45; Dr. P. M. Kuykendall, Ranger, 45.

The total for the Eastland and Ranger boxes showed that Dr. Kuykendall has 256 votes; J. A. Beard, 262; O. E. Lyerla, 90, and J. T. Poe, 60.

Dr. W. L. Jackson, J. E. Meroney and Felton Brashear, candidates for re-election in the Ranger school trustee election were swept back into office by easy majorities in Saturday's election over Mrs. Rex Outlaw and Lloyd Bruce, candidates on a "Citizens Ticket."

ANNIVERSARY OF WORLD WAR IS CELEBRATED

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Mobilization of 60,000 men for "army day" parades commemorating the eighteenth anniversary of America's entrance into the World War, contrasted today with a little ceremony of tribute to members of congress who voted against the war.

In the capitol are statues of three late members of congress who opposed the declaration of war April 6, 1917—Sen. Robert M. La Follette, Wisconsin; Speaker Champ Clark, Missouri; and Representative Claud Kitchin, North Carolina. At the feet of each was placed a wreath with a card saying "placed by the National Council for the Prevention of War in gratitude for his stand against war."

A few blocks away units of the regular army, reserves, cadets, veterans and members of patriotic societies, gathered with 40 bands to pass in review before Vice President John Garner and other dignitaries.

Hamilton was graduated from the category of petty offenders when he teamed up with the Barrow brothers, Clyde and Buck, both of whom subsequently were slain by officers.

The list of his crimes run through theft of a toy wagon, automobile theft, post office burglary, kidnaping, hijacking, bank and payroll robbery and murder: Hamilton was born in Wiletska, Okla., in 1912.

Juvenile officers became acquainted with him at an early date. He stole junk, practiced shop-lifting, and pilfered trifles. He was "jailed and released," the juvenile records show, over and over again.

When his parents moved to West Dallas he met the Barrow brothers. In 14 months time he committed enough crimes to acquire prison sentences totaling 263 years.

Later another 99-year sentence brought the total to 362 years.

Of slight build—police records describe him as five feet six inches tall and weighing 136 pounds—

Pillar of Cloud Grim Warning of a Folly

About all we need to find the warning from the western plains is a pillar of fire by night. We had the pillar of cloud by day, and it went swirling eastward as a grim reminder of the fate that follows after folly.
 A dust storm, of course, is a natural phenomenon like a cyclone or a flood. But unlike these it is partly a man-made thing, also. We got our dust storm because of the way we used our land, and it was an ominous indication of the way nature can go on the rampage when man upsets her balance.
 Altogether, it is a queer situation. We expanded our agricultural production beyond reason, a few years ago, just as we expanded other kinds of production. By bringing under cultivation more land than we need, we helped to give ourselves a farm depression which today is requiring the most heroic measures.
 Then, as if that were not enough, high winds and dry weather combine to ruin the land which we unwisely plowed.
 Out of it all we ought at least to get a new comprehension of the proper way to use our natural resources.
 Few lands have ever been as blessed with such resources as America. Fertile soil, great forests, mineral deposits—they were here in seemingly limitless abundance, and we let them dazzle us. We got into the habit of moving in on them en masse and letting the lucky first comers use them as they pleased.
 That worked all right for a while. Now it is exacting a penalty. The dust storms are forcing us to learn that unwise exploitation of these resources has to be paid for by the nation as a whole. We can use our resources as individualists, but eventually we have to foot the bill as collectivists.
 This is not true only of farm land. It is true of our forests, of our oil fields, of our coal deposits and of all the other riches with which nature blessed us. All of us must have a say in the way these things are used, because if they are used unwisely all of us will feel the effects.
 This is the warning presented by our pillar of cloud. If we are as smart as we like to think we are, we won't wait for another warning before we insist that our resources be used under a plan which has the welfare of the whole country in view.

Famous Band to Play at Cisco

It's a long way from the annual county fair at Hunt County, Texas to the great Kentucky Derby at Louisville, and a long way from first clarinet in the Commerce band to the leadership of the popular MCA radio, recording and dance orchestra which comes to Lake Cisco on April 10, through arrangements made with the Music Corporation of America by Lloyd Hughes, who is rapidly setting the standard for bringing nothing but high class music for the pleasure of dancers in this territory. This is the distance Jimmie Joy has traveled since he made his professional debut at the age of twelve.

 Soon after entering the University of Texas in 1920, Jimmie joined the college band, known as the "Longhorn Band." In 1922 he was elected President and assistant director of that organization. In 1923 he organized his own band which he called Jimmie's Joy's and the orchestra filled its first engagement at Joyland Park, Galveston, Texas. Jimmie carried six boys through college on its payroll, and all six are still with the orchestra.
 Superior talent has landed the Joy orchestra in the smartest dance centers of America. For the last few years they have been the favorites at the Brown Hotel, Louisville; Coronado Hotel, St. Louis; Muehlebach Hotel, Kansas City, and the Bal Tabarin, San Francisco.

"Summer-izing" Is Begun by Magnolia

DALLAS, April 6.—Armed with new knowledge gained through attendance at the spring course of Magnolia Institute, field service men of the Magnolia Petroleum Company have left Dallas to assist dealers and station men throughout Magnolia land in launching their annual "Summer-ize" service activity. Magnolia's "Summer-ize" program is of particular significance this spring as it marks the introduction of the new improved Summer Mobiloil made by the revolutionary Clearanol process.
 Introduced several years ago as a simple, but certain precaution against summer driving troubles, Magnolia "Summer-ize" service has gained steadily in popularity as motorists have learned the economic value of having their cars checked at Magnolia Dealers and stations and lubricants changed to the proper grades to match changes in the weather. Fred M. Lege, Jr., Vice President in charge of marketing, said: "Each fall Magnolia performs a corresponding service for its customers known as 'Winter-Proof' at which time heavier summer lubricants are changed to lighter grades for winter driving."
 "Magnolia's 'Summer-ize' service as developed and taught at Magnolia Institute consists of seven distinct operations including draining, cleaning and refilling with summer grade lubricants such vital parts as the crankcase, transmission and differential, a thorough greasing, flushing and cleaning of the radiator, battery check and a tank of Mobilgas adjusted for summer driving. Magnolia dealers and stations throughout the Southwest are now performing this service for motorists in preparation for hot weather driving."
 Mobiloil made by Socony-Vacuum Clearanol process was made available to the public for the first time last fall only in the "Aretic" grade. The proven advantages of motor lubricant made possible by this revolutionary process of manufacture are now found in the entire line of Mobiloils for summer. The Clearanol process actually washes away all the gum, sludge and tarry elements not essential to good lubrication and produces a totally new kind of motor lubricant impossible to obtain by old methods of refining.
 Magnolia, the oldest petroleum producing, refining and marketing company in the South, is celebrating its twenty-fourth birthday in April with the annual observance of Founders Month and the "Summer-ize" activity at Magnolia Dealers and Stations.

TAKEN BACK

 Hamilton needed the "difference" supplied by pistols and machine guns, obtained for the most part in raids on national guard armories.
 His first prison sentence was in Dallas county in 1931. He was given three years for automobile theft. He was about 19, and the judge, because of his youth, suspended the sentence.
 His first prison break was at McKinney, Texas, where he had been imprisoned for automobile theft. He escaped before he could be tried.
 Less than a year after this escape he was captured at Bay City, Mich., on Dec. 6, 1932, and returned to Dallas. In the interim he and Barrow had killed two men, kidnaped an officer, robbed a post office and were involved in numerous other crimes.
 On Oct. 20, 1933, he was sentenced to prison for 263 years. He served fewer than three months. Clyde Barrow and Bonnie Parker delivered him from the Eastham prison farm on Jan. 16, 1934. Major Crowson, a guard, was killed.
 It was after this that he often was accompanied by Mary O'Dare of Wichita Falls. Again he teamed up with Barrow and Bonnie Parker. Joe Palmer, too, was with the gang until he and Hamilton quarreled with Bonnie and Clyde. In open letters Barrow called Hamilton a "yellow rat"; Hamilton called Barrow a "dirty skunk."
 Hamilton again was captured following the Grand Prairie bank robbery in which he obtained $1,000. The jury couldn't reach a verdict, so he was not sentenced for this crime.
 Tried in Denton county for robbery of the Lewisville bank, he was given the 99-year sentence which brought his term total to 362 years.
 Then he was tried for the killing of Guard Crowson in his escape from the Eastham prison farm. For this crime he was condemned to die.
 On July 22, 1934, Hamilton, in company with Irvin (Blackie) Thompson and Joe Palmer, escaped from death row.
 On Feb. 4, 1935, Raymond and his brother Floyd narrowly escaped from a police trap in West Dallas after robbing a bank at Buffalo, Texas. Floyd's wife, Mildred, and Katie Jenkins, another woman, were taken prisoners.
 Floyd later was captured in Shreveport, La., and sentenced to two years in the federal penitentiary for harboring members of the Barrow-Parker gang when they were fugitives from justice.
 For the same crime on Feb. 27, 1935, Mary O'Dare was sentenced to one year in the Alderson, W. Va., prison. Hamilton's mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Davis, received short sentences, and Floyd's wife, Mildred, was sentenced to one hour.
 His last brush with the law before his capture Friday night in Fort Worth, was when he robbed a bank at Prentiss, Miss., and kidnaped two men, who later escaped from the rumble seat of the bandit car in the outskirts of Memphis, Tenn.

Committee Told

 The same can be said of their efforts to develop the foreign market, Mr. Inch said.
 "If this bill becomes a law, we must sacrifice $250,000,000 we have invested in foreign countries," he said. "Our government which now would force us to get rid of our foreign holdings, urged us to enter the foreign utility fields as a means of creating closer ties between the United States and various foreign countries and as a means of creating new markets for American-made goods."
 Mr. Inch warned that if his company was forced to give up their foreign investments, it would be acquired by foreign interests, closing these important markets to American goods.
 Mr. Inch brought out also that if this bill is passed "investors generally will regard it as the first step toward nationalization of the industry."
 "Many believe that its purpose is to accomplish government ownership or at least government management, without compensation," Mr. Inch continued. "With this weakening in the investment field I see little hope that private enterprise can survive in this field."
 Mr. Inch branded as false, claims that owners of public utility securities will lose nothing if this bill passes. He said these statements are incorrect and misleading to the security owners.
 Mr. Inch championed diversity in business. He said diversity is the principle upon which most kinds of successful business is based. He used insurance companies as an example. The results of diversity as one of the principal contributions of the utility industries to social progress he brought out by showing how metropolitan utility service was brought to village, hamlet and farm.
 "The Electric Bond and Share company is not a 'paper' organization," Mr. Inch said. "We furnish our client companies with necessary expert service at a charge which represents less than one-fortieth of one cent per kilowatt hour sold. The advent of our company has always brought about improved service and lower rates. The customers of our associated companies have been saved over $64,000,000 in rate reductions since 1929."
 Since service has been good and rates reasonable, how can the present demand for the abolition of the holding company and the drastic federal regulation of local operating companies be for the well-being of the public utility user, Mr. Inch brought out.

The Universal Car

ONE name comes quickly to mind when you think of "The Universal Car." The description is distinctively Ford. No other car is used by so many millions of men and women in every part of the world. Everywhere it is the symbol of faithful service. . . . That has always been a Ford fundamental. Something new is constantly being added in the way of extra value. Each year the Ford has widened its appeal by increasing its usefulness to motorists. . . . Today's Ford V-8 is more than ever "The Universal Car" because it encircles the needs of more people than any other Ford ever built. It reaches out and up into new fields because it has everything you need in a modern automobile. . . . The Ford V-8 combines fine-car performance, comfort, safety, beauty and convenience with low first cost and low cost of operation and up-keep. There is no other car like it.

EDITORIAL
 —Elzie is neighbors, the Browns, live
 us; in fact our apart-
 house is a pained man
 by the narrow court.
 of the Browns seem to be at home, and they have a which they delight in histo-ring out heads and even covering our heads until we almost another in our efforts to keep the offensive sound out.
 We feel that we might possibly tolerate it if they would only choose to tune in on what we consider a good program, but alas!
 They never do! They listen to the most absurd music, uninteresting dramas, and longest dryest talkabout such subjects as food, housekeeping, care of babies, and the stock market. It seems to our poor tortured minds as if they deliberately choose the worst programs
 on the air to aggravate us.
 Not radio is ruining the disposition of every member of our family. Father comes home if the evening hoping to get a little rest after a hard day's work. He picks up his paper to read a bit before dinner, but after a few minutes of having to listen to that distracting radio he jumps to his feet, throws down his paper, jama his hat upon his head and goes for a long walk, after which he returns more tired and dejected than ever to a cold dinner. All these trials have not served to better his temper and he is grouchy and gruff
 all through dinner, while mother, who has been hearing the radio most of the day, is in no mood to humor him. Brother does his share of grumbling, as does little sister, while baby frets and squirms. We are compelled to endure the blar-ning of the radio until bedtime when we stagger hopefully to our beds expecting to get a little restful sleep, a little period of resistance from the sound of that terrible radio. But we find that sleep will not come so easily. We toss about on an imaginary sea as the waves of inharmonious sound break over us. Finally we fall into a troubled sleep through which we still hear subconsciously the blar-ning of the radio across the court.

FRESHMEN NEWS
 Doris Williams has withdrawn from Olden High and is now attending Eastland High. We bid her a kind farewell and hope she has success in her studies at Eastland.
 Come again sometime, Doris.

SPORT NEWS
 The junior track team, under the coaching of Mr. Seuzges, won another victory for Olden last Saturday, running up a score of 32 points. The nearest scorer was Carbon who had 24 points. The members of the team and the points they won were:
 Wilbert Norton—First, 50-yard dash, first 100-yard dash, second, chinning bar; lap of winning relay.
 Joe Norton—Third, 100-yard
 dash; second, broad jump, third, chinning; second, high jump; lap
 of winning relay.
 Melvin Holt—Second, 100-yard
 dash; lap of winning relay.
 Charles Hunter—Fourth, chin-ning; lap of winning relay.
 The senior track team goes to the A. C. C. invitation track meet the third of April and to the state meet the third and fourth of May.
 We certainly wish them luck.
 Spring football training starts
 Monday for a period of three weeks.
 Congratulations to the volley ball team. They were winners of third place last Saturday at the tournament in Eastland. The starting lineup was: Capt. Frances Edwards, Betty Everett, Lena Norton, Beatrice Young, Doris Stanton, and Goldie Brayhears.

DOPE
 What is this we hear about you,
 Red? You won't let Eastland beat your time, will you? We can't blame you much, though.
 Well, Tip, it seems as if you went to the wrong house Saturday night—you'd better follow directions next time.
 We heard Cisco was O. K. Sunday afternoon. But you'd better ask John C. and G. W. for details.
 Beatrice, how do you like the little gray Chevrolet you was seen riding around in Saturday afternoon?
 Frances, did you ever spend any time riding around with Troy Taylor? Beatrice seems to know quite a bit about it.
 Wonder where Mildred was over the week-end? We didn't see her even once.
 Darlene, we hear you cheat too much in this game called "Cock-eye." How about it?

STAFF
 We are still in need of rain. A good rain at this time would mean much towards making a good grain crop.
 Farmers of this section of the country are very busy at this time planting their crops, some gardens that were planted real early are up and looking pretty. Here's hoping that we won't have a late freeze to kill the gardens and fruit.
 Some friends and relatives of M. O. Hazard gathered at his home on last Tuesday evening and gave him a pleasant surprise on his birthday. After the guest had arrived Mr. Hazard was blindfolded and O. L. Pollard led him into the dining room, where a table was that contained the beautiful gifts.
 Mr. Hazard was then unblindfold-ed and he and all those present admired the nice gifts. The entertainment consisted of music on the piano, violin, harmonica and singing
 also some readings.
 Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Comm Hazard and son of Ranger, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williamson and sons, F. C. and Terrell, Mr. J. M. White, Mr. and Mrs.
 Spencer Hazard, Mr. and Mrs. O.
 L. Pollard, Mrs. Pearl Hourland,
 Mr. and Mrs. Carl Elliott and two daughters, Carleta and Marleece, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barber and daughter Sarah Mae and the honoree, M. O. Hazard and co-host and hostess, Marlice Hazard and Mrs. M. O. Hazard. J. M. White closed the evening's entertainment with a prayer. All report an enjoyable time.

Heavyweights On Elks Wrestling Card For Monday
 Charlie Lay, the new promoter for the Elks wrestling shows, is putting on a double main event of heavyweights for Monday night,
 April 8, at the Elks arena.
 The first event will be Tuffy Watson, 175 pounds, of Dallas, a newcomer and a tough one. Watson takes on Pat Swanson, 180 pounds, of Fort Worth. Swanson has been successful in his recent bouts, beating some of the top-notchers, winning the last 10 straight bouts. Watson will attempt to break his winning streak.
 The second event will be between Blacksmith Smith, 180 pounds, of Dallas, and Charlie Lay, 180 pounds, of Ranger. Blacksmith asked for this match as he thinks he was given a bad deal when he was defeated by Lay at Fort Worth. Charlie Lay will introduce his drop kick, which he made famous in Ohio and other places where he wrestled.

 The above matches are both two-hour time limits, best two out of three falls.
 Under the new management, all old passes are cancelled. Ringside seats have been advanced to 40 cents, due to the better class of wrestlers who will appear here in the future. The show starts promptly at 8:30 p. m.

The next thing for Newton, J.
 Baker and James M. Beck to find unconstitutional is the overwhelming vote for President Roosevelt.

1920 Club Gives "Texas Day" Program

A program which thrilled the heart of every Texan present was that presented by the 1920 Club at its regular meeting Thursday, April 4, in the colonial room at the Ghislon hotel.

Mrs. M. C. Hagaman, president of the club, presided as president and also, as leader, for this special program, which is presented annually commemorating Texas' independence.

Mrs. Hagaman opened her program with "Texas, My Texas," led by Mrs. J. T. Warren club chairman of music and song by the club members. Next was a quartet, "Home on the Range," by Misses A. H. Allison, I. N. Griffin, Mrs. D. T. Weir and Miss Dorothy Outlaw. The weird pathos of this popular song was interpreted with great sympathy by these well known local artists.

Mrs. Weir sang as a solo, in her usual charming manner, "Main Sella Marie," by David Guin.

Miss Adamson, as accompanist at the piano, performed with her usual graciousness.

Mrs. R. B. Canfield gave a most pleasing review of "Historic Shrines in Texas," reminding her audience anew of the ever-growing romance and glamor of the empire state.

Mrs. Garvin Chastain read, in her own inimitable manner, a group of her original poems. Among them being "San Jacinto Day," which was perhaps the best-known and loved by her friends.

Mrs. A. Neil gave those present at this program a rare treat in the form of a short lecture on Texas literature.

Mrs. Neil's presentation of her subject was both original and comprehensive, rich with its early Spanish, French and colonial, as well as modern background of colorful history and intrigue with appropriate, rich pathos, and dignity she touched upon history, legend, fiction, folk song and lore, poetry and drama, journalism and publishing. Mrs. Neil read several poems characteristic of the age quoted and illustrative of the dramatically unique, rapidly moving, history of our Texas. She quoted numbers of native Texans, who have attained international fame in different fields of literary endeavor.

After a short business session the members of the club, artist guests, and guests, were invited by the president, Mrs. M. H. Hagaman, to drive out to "Hagaman Place" on Frisco highway to see her gardens and have tea.

Upon arrival, guests were received in a traditional Hagaman manner, first by little Miss Frances Ruth Hagaman at the door. Mrs. M. H. Hagaman met her guests informally, while Mrs. Leslie Hagaman presided over the dining room.

The tea table was charmingly arranged, covered with a lace and lighted by white tapers in silver candlesticks, centered with a huge bowl of white and purple iris, from the hostesses' own gardens.

Mrs. J. A. Shackelford poured tea, dressed in a green gown, which completed a picture, long to be remembered by those attending Mrs. Hagaman's Texas Day tea.

Young School Makes Splendid Record at Parent-Teacher Association Meet

The local report, given by Mrs. Boon received second place, six of the 13 posters made by Young School children receiving a grade of "B" and honorable mention was given the publicity record book. A complete report of the conference will be given at the next regular meeting of the association.

Mrs. Kelly is Delightful Hostess to Lone Star Auction Club

Mrs. Herman C. Kelly was a delightful hostess Thursday afternoon when she entertained at home in honor of the Lone Star Social Bridge club, whose favored diversion is auction bridge. Snapdragons were used in room decorations to an effective advantage.
