Gen. McCraw Tells It Straight From the Shoulder

Attorney General McCraw is a very busy man. He polds a very important post. He is battling at all times for he enforcement of the laws of Texas and the regulations nade to curb as well as to punish all violatoss of the peroleum and natural gas industries of the commonwealth. He is not in the race for governor. He was elected attorney reneral by the people of Texas. He will seek reelection as attorny general. This is his very blunt and very candid nessage to the Texas public: "If Governor Allred moved o Missouri tomorrow I would not be a candidate for governor." Governor Allred is not going "to move to Missouri." He is a native Texan. He won his spurs and laurels n Texas. He was a district attorney in Texas. He was atorney general for two terms. He was given the high honor of election to the post of governor. Why should he go o Missouri? There are thousands of Missouri democrats who are hungry for office. A distinguished Missourian, Mitchell by name, held an important federal post. He was lismissed from his job the other day by the President. He bither talked too much or to fast-or too late. Now he is on the outside looking in. Texans who are holding mportant federal posts are too wise to talk too much or too fast. I There is a time for everything, and silence is golden and a precious medal when attached to the human tongue.

Latest Texas Highway News From Washington

Now that the Colorado River Authority is a fact and not a fiction the building of highways is a topic that is uppermost in Texas. The Associated Press carried the announcement from the capital of the nation that the Texas Highway commission was "thoroughly assured Thursday night that it could inaugurate a $35,000,000 highway pr gram in a fe wdays." Thomas McDonald, chief of the fee eral bureau of roads, declared he hoped to make availab about $22,000,000 as Texas' share of the highway an I grade crossing program from the works relief fund. Th ne said would be supplemented by the states regular $7 500,000 for federal aid highways and a like contribution by Texas. Furthermore he told the delegation from Texas -Texas senators and representatives and hundreds road enthusiasts-he hoped to place in the hands of the commission before they leave a definite plan of procedu where 15,000 persons on relief in Texas could be put work on highway improvements on per-man of $1400 established by Work Relief Administrator Harry Hopkin
