Dairy Feed Payment Rates

Rates of payments which will be made to Callahan County farmers and dairymen delivering whole milk and butterfat, to offset increases in dairy feeds costs since September 1942, were recently announced according to information received by the county AAA office according to Sam A. Billingsley, Administrative Officer for AAA. Payments will be made at the rate of fifty cents a hundredweight for whole milk and six cents a pound on butterfat. Payments on sales of butter will be at eighty percent of the rate for butterfat.

Payment will be made by draft direct to the producer by the County AAA committee for the county in which the producer's farm is located upon the submission of satisfactory evidence of the quantity of milk or butterfat sold, according to Billingsley. For dairy producers selling whole milk the cooperative associations, milk distributors etc; the statement normally furnished the producer will constitute satisfactory evidence, provided it shows the quantity of whole milk delivered. The receipts furnished by creameries for butterfat will be accepted as satisfactory evidence under the plan outlined by the AAA administration. Producers who retail milk will need to substantiate their claims by submission of customer's lists, number of cows and amount of feed bought. Producers who sell butter to consumers, local stores, etc., will need to obtain receipts from buyers.

Payments for October will be made in November and payments for Nov. and Dec. will be made early in Jan. according to Billingsley. The War Food Administration has announced that the present program will be in effect for October, November and December.

Old Age Assistance Under New Rule

The State Department of Public Welfare today began operation of a reorganized plan of old age assistance as outlined in a new rule book issued by Jonny Winters, executive director on Oct. 20th. The 65 page manual, which replaces one of 377 pages, makes its principal changes in the rules for judging need.

The welfare director explained that "the amount of a grant is determined by itemizing and totaling the cost of necessities and deducting income. The deficit thus found determines the assistance granted. Therefore, rules governing the consideration of each necessity and kind of resource have been made.

We have found for instance," Winters continued, "that the amount allowed for incidentals varies widely and since this is a semi-essential item we are placing a $2 per month limit on allowances to meet this need so that everyone will receive equal treatment. The incidental allowance has included such items as bus fare, small church contributions, tobaccos, stamps, stationary, newspapers, etc.

"We have found a wide variance in the amount allowed for the purchase of glasses and teeth. Hereafter we feel that we cannot grant more than $15 for the purchase of glasses or $40 for teeth. The welfare department has been following the practice of providing money to enable aged persons to pay their prorata share of rent and utilities when living in the home of a son or daughter. While this department is prohibited by law from inquiring into the ability of a child to support, we have found that such allowances are often not used for payment of rent. In the future no money will be granted for rent unless the aged person's presence in the home actually increases the cost of rent."

Hereafter, the welfare department under specified circumstances did not count as a resource certain personal property, real property, and insurance. The new policies exempt only a burial reserve of $150, either in cash, liquidable property, or insurance. All real and personal property in addition to a homestead is now considered in determining eligibility. The law requires that actual contributions being made by relatives to be taken into account and full weight will now be given to such support in determining need.

"The new rules are intended to do just two things: to insure that those in greatest need get the most money and that the program be administered on a uniform basis," Winters explained. He said that the welfare department "is going to more carefully examine the needs and resources of each recipient so that we can meet the basic needs of all recipients on a more uniform basis within our limits." He predicted that it will take at least year to reexamine the rolls and get every one under the revised plan.

NOW IS THE TIME TO TREAT THE ORCHARD FOR PEACH TREE BORERS

From Oct to Nov. 15, is a very good time to treat the orchard for peach tree borers. No preparation of the soil is necessary except to break the crust for 15 to 18 inches around the tree and to remove any grass and weeds. Paradichlorobenzene chys tals should be placed in a circle around the tree, about 3 inches from the base. For mature trees of average size, one ounce by weight should be used; for unusually large trees, an ounce and a half is sometimes needed for trees 4 to 5 years old, 3-4 of an ounce; and for trees 1 to 3 years of age, 1-2 ounce, or slightly less could be used.

Immediately after the crystals have been applied they should be covered with several shovel fulls of dirt, and the dirt packed with the back of the shovel to make a cone-shape mound. After about six weeks, the mound of earth should be torn down and the residue of crystals removed.

Christmas Mail

CHRISTMAS MAILS—
—IN NOVEMBER

Instructions From The Postmaster General

The war has dislocated the Christmas mailing season. This year November is the time for mailing Christmas gifts and cards. Gifts should be marked "do not open until Christmas."

There can be no assurance, in view of the unavoidable handicap of war, that gifts and cards mailed in the week immediately preceding Christmas will be delivered on time. Such matter must not impede the payment of war material and personnel and military mail.

The number of railway cars and air planes available for handling Christmas mail is far below that of former years. More than 30 thousand postal employees have gone into the armed forces, and the postal service is forced to rely on inexperienced help. Therefore it will be impossible to transport and deliver in the last 3 weeks before Christmas the tremendous quantities of mail that heretofore has been moved in that period.

The only way, therefore, in which deliveries of Christmas mail can be assured of delivery in time is to mail all packages and cards, regardless of the distance they are to go in NOVEMBER.

Last year the department urged the people to do this. In spite of all warnings the bulk of the mailing came after the middle of the month and the senders learned to their regret that their packages were not delivered until after Christmas.

REMEMBER—this year Cards and Packages MUST be Mailed in November.

This is a family war. Put your War Bond buying through the payroll savings plan on a family plan, which means figure it out yourself.

COUNTY TURKEY PRODUCERS

Callahan County turkey producers should select their 1944 breeding stock early because present indications point to as large a consumer demand next year as this year. The parents of next year crop should be chosen before the best birds in the 1943 flock have been marketed. These which matured fastest, made the best gains, and fattened out early should be selected for breeding stock.

Walking the birds is the first step in the examination for the selection of breeders. The frame, compactness and body carriage are observed. Sometimes poor balance or symmetry can be detected more easily than by handling the turkey. Select females which develop early, have good width of breast and deep body from back to keel. The keel should be relatively long and extend between the legs, and the back wide and flat. The same consideration should be given in the selection of toms.

Such defects as weak hock joints, off-colored plumage, slipped or split wings and baggy crops also may be detected easily when the birds are walked.

The grower will be better served if he buys toms from another producer who has developed a good strain in the same breed. A number of Texas breeders are trap nesting their breeding stock and poults from these strains are pedigreed. In this manner they can locate those birds which give the highest fertility and production. Both of these points are important in a breeding program.

If producers do a good job of selecting this fall, better turkeys may be expected in 1944 than will be produced this year.

Aid to Enemy

"Any American who wilfully neglects to pay his taxes on time or to invest every cent he can in War Bonds is surely giving aid and comfort to the enemy . . . We have a job to do and we are all called for service to our country. Our dollars are called to service too. Let us all ask ourselves, 'Shall we be more tender with our dollars than with the lives of our sons?' — Secretary Morgenthau.

Sure, I'll take a Texan's Share

Your County War Fund is another "Victory weapon."

The United War Chest of Texas through war fund organizations in every county of the state is charged with the responsibility of raising $4,885,781.00 for the 17 approved war appeals of the National War Fund. The national goal is $125,000,000.

Each of the 17 participating agencies was carefully budgeted to stretch every dollar contributed before it received the approval of the President's War Relief Control Board.

Texans now are being asked to take a Texan's share in their County War Funds to aid three fronts with one gift—the Military Front, the United Nations Front, and the Home Front. Remember, President Roosevelt has said that a share in the National War Fund is a share in winning the war. Use this "Victory weapon." Give to your County War Fund.

THE 17 PARTICIPATING AGENCIES ARE:

- * USO
- * United Seaman's Service
- * War Prisoners Aid
- * Belgian War Relief Society
- * British War Relief Society
- * Dutch Relief Fund (Queen Wilhelmina Fund)
