Ranger Police to Aid Sheriff With Marble Board War

Judge W. S. Adamson, police commissioner of Ranger, Saturday stated that full cooperation of the Ranger Police Department would be offered to Sheriff Virge Foster and his deputies in their campaign to remove all marble machines from the City of Ranger. The sheriff's order, which was issued Friday morning, was that all marble machines must be removed from the county not later than Oct. 31.

"The police department would have taken action against the local operators of marble machines some time ago," Judge Adamson stated Saturday. "but we were awaiting some ruling by the state courts on the matter. Now that the Tenth Court of Civil Appeals at Waco has handed down its ruling action is being taken in practically all the cities of the state.

"If the sheriff asks the aid of the Ranger police in seeing that all marble machines are removed from Ranger on the date specified it will be readily given," Judge Adamson stated.

Olden Is Winner Over Woodson by Score of 13 to 0

Olden High School, outweighed about seven pounds to the man, defeated the Woodson football team in a Class B conference game at Olden Saturday afternoon on a mud-soaked field.

Olden started scoring in the first quarter when Woodson kicked out of bounds on the Olden 20-yard line and the touchdown march was started from that point. Johnny Garrett going over for the score and G. W. Curry going around end for the point after touchdown.

The second quarter saw Olden forge farther ahead after Woodson opened an aerial attack. Max Anderson, left halfback, intercepted a Woodson pass on his own 40-yard line and returned it about 35 yards before being brought down. Garrett again carried over for the score.

The two teams played air-tight ball the last half, neither being able to push over a score.

The starting lineup for Olden was: Melvin Holt and Howard Young, ends; Wilbur Martin and Charles McGill, tackles; Roy and Tex Howell, guards; Hiatt, center; Johnny Garrett, quarter; Charlie Butler and Max Anderson, halves, and G. W. Curry, full.

Town Demolishes Jail Never Used In Its 24 Years

SISTERS, Ore.—The Sisters jail, built in 1911 and now being razed, never had a guest in its 24 years of service.

Public-spirited citizens, incensed by cowboys "rip-snorting" through the little town, built the jail to house the recalcitrant cowhands.

Immediately the boys began walking their horses quietly down the middle of the streets and the jail served only as preparedness.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—The United States tonight gave its official blessing to League of Nations efforts to enforce world peace, but at the same time politely declined to become a direct party to those efforts.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—America's corn and hog raisers cast their ballots today in a vote regarded as the crucial test for the administration's entire crop control program.

"Do you favor a corn-hog adjustment program to follow the 1935 program which expires Nov. 30, 1937?"

Results of the poll will not be known until next week, after returns have been sent to AAA headquarters, nor will the number voting be announced until that time.

T. C. U. Breaks the Centenary Jinx

SHREVEPORT, La., Oct. 26.—A hard-driving T. C. U. team broke the Centenary jinx today and whipped the Gents on the home field, 27 to 7, the first time the Centenary team has been defeated on its own field in seven years.

The passing combination, Lawrence to Harrell, was just too much for the Louisiana lads.

T. C. U. scored twice in the second period, once in the third and once in the fourth. Centenary made her touchdown in the third quarter.

Gaining power toward the close of the first period the Christian picked up speed and would not be denied in the third and following quarter.

Weslaco Planning A Birthday Party

WESLACO, Texas.—Weslaco's annual birthday party celebration has been tentatively scheduled for Wednesday and Thursday, Dec. 11 and 12, according to Gus S. Kaufman, chairman of the party committee. The celebration is staged on each anniversary of the city's founding, and is one of three major winter celebrations presented annually by Valley cities.

In past years, the chief feature as well as the climax of the party will be the annual citrus style show in which Valley girls parade in costumes fashioned from citrus and vegetables. The style show will be held the night of Dec. 12.

A new feature to be included in the program for the first time this year will be a horse show and information already received by the committee indicates there will be a large number of entries, Kaufman said.

As usual, the opening display of the celebration will be a parade in which entries from numerous Valley civic organizations have already been assured. Last year's parade was one of the most colorful ever staged in the Upper Valley.

SUSPECT IN MANY DEATHS IS A SUICIDE

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Al Stern, 22, a slim, sallow-faced killer, suspected of complicity in 11 recent underworld murders, including the slaying of Dutch Schultz, was found strangled today in a cheap Newark rooming house.

Police believed that he had committed suicide. Superficially the evidence in the gas filled room pointed to suicide. Stern lay crumpled on a bed. A necktie was knotted about his throat, with one end tied to a gas jet from which gas was flowing. A note addressed to "darling" nearby read:

"This is good bye. Life is not worth living without you. One who loves you more than life itself. Please take it as I would have you to. Remember the lilacs. Signed, Al."

Senators Take Off For Football Game

AUSTIN, Oct. 26.—Efforts of rival senators to put others on record for quitting to see the Rice-Texas game, failed today. Senators blocked the usual Saturday noonday recess by calling for a record vote. Senator Wewee Moore countered with a motion to adjourn until 2:30, which was game time. It was defeated. The senate then adjourned until Monday without a record vote.

Representative of West Texas C of C Visitor In Ranger

J. A. Rix of Lubbock, representative of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, was a visitor in Ranger the latter part of the week, the main object of the trip being to invite the American Legion Tickville Band to the annual convention to be held in Amarillo late next spring.

In a conference with Dr. Harry A. Logsdon, director of the band, Rix stated that Ranger and the Tickville Band would receive more favorable publicity through its engagement at the convention than it had ever received from any similar program.

While in Ranger Rix attempted to contact J. E. Matthews, Ranger director of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, but since Matthews was out of town he worked with J. E. Mernoy, secretary of the local chamber of commerce and secured nine new memberships in the region organization, which swells Ranger's total to 12 for this year, the best showing that has been made locally in the past four years.

North Borneo Chief Wants a Missionary

SINGAPORE.—Three Anglican priests from the Community of the Resurrection, Mirfield, Yorkshire, are undertaking experimental missionary work in Sarawak, the British-protected state in North Borneo.

Recently the headmen of one village asked the missionaries to come and convert them—a rare instance of such a request.

The Bishop of Labuan and Sarawak states that village after village will become Christian if sufficient man-power and funds are available.

Touchdown Twins Win Over Texas

AUSTIN, Oct. 26.—The "touchdown twins" were right again today and Rice took a nip-and-tuck battle, 28 to 19, from Texas to win in the running for the championship.

The 45 minutes that John McCauley and All-American Halfback Bill Wallace played for Rice were fatal to Texas. Coach Jimmy Kitts' pair of touchdown fame crashed the Texas line, circled the ends, passed and punted to drive the Longhorns back in disorder. In the other 15 minutes the gallant Texas eleven was supreme, scoring three touchdowns.

Freedom of the Seas
Loses U. S. Support

If you have moments of doubt that this country sincerely wants to stay out of war, you might notice that recent moves for peace have included the discarding of one of America's most ancient and strongly-held principles of foreign policy—the demand for freedom of the seas.

Ever since the nation was in swaddling clothes this had been one of its most dearly-cherished ideas. The notion that the seas were an international highway that could not be closed, and that an American shipowner could take cargo anywhere on the globe that he could find a buyer or a market, shaped our policy for much more than a century and helped to get us into two wars.

In 1812 we rushed (woefully unprepared) into a fight with the British over this principle. To be sure, we came near to getting the stuffing kicked out of us, and the treaty of peace did not mention the issues which had brought on the war; but the fighting served notice on the world, nevertheless, that we were ready to do battle for that principle, and it remained a cardinal part of our program.

Then in 1917 we went to war again because of interruption of our sea-borne commerce. That commerce had been so thoroughly interrupted and man-handled by both sides in the World War that there actually was a possibility, at one time, that we would fight England instead of Germany. But the German submarine seemed a greater menace than the English cruiser, and besides the English wed us money, and in the end we fought the Germans, and the freedom of the seas was one of our chief reasons.

Since the war we have spent great sums on our navy, and most of us have supposed that this was to enable us to enforce our concept of a free sea on any nation that tried to flout it.

Now, however, we have turned in the opposite direction. President Roosevelt's neutrality proclamation warning all citizens that they ship goods or buy passage into a war zone at their own risk is a direct reversal of the traditional American doctrine. Heretofore we have argued that an American could use the sea lanes anywhere on earth save where an actual, effective blockade existed, and that our warships would be ready to make that right good. Now we are singing an entirely different tune.

No more striking testimonial to the growth of the peace sentiment in America could have been devised. We are no longer ready to use our navy to protect American lives and property anywhere and any time. We prefer, instead, to let American lives and property look out for themselves if they do not choose to stay at home.

This may make the old-fashioned patriot howl with haggard; but to the ordinary citizen it will probably look like common sense. It is hard to avoid war when you persist in clinging to a policy which, in a pinch, you must give up.

Allred's Appeal for Quick Action
On the Part of Law Makers

In his message to the Texas legislature, Governor Allred pointed to an over-whelming approval of pension last summer. He asserted that the pensions could be "paid without hurt to anyone if the legislature will do its duty." Continuing, he said: "It would be unfair to the people to authorize old-age pensions, yet fail to finance them—a type of politics justly and surely to be condemned in the polls. I cannot too earnestly emphasize the necessity for immediate, consistent, continued attention to this important problem. It is no criticism to say that the people are sorely disappointed at the outcome of the first called session. It is a simple fact that another barren session will be a tragedy." He predicted that enactment of pension legislation would remove thousands from relief rolls and gain called attention "to the grave situation threatened when direct relief is discontinued in December."

The federal government it is said has its plan. The federal dole is to be discontinued in the new year and the states and the counties and the municipalities must provide for their own charges. And why not? Federal government aid is pledged in the security act to match dollar for dollar a state pension to the extent of $15 per pensioner. This is liberal to say the least as there will be thousands of applicants for pensions who are property owners and additional thousands who have small incomes to carry on.

Governor Allred has warned the law makers against enactment of a sales tax bill for any purpose. He holds that a sales tax "is a tax on poverty and all efforts should be required to contribute to the far-reaching functions of government." This is true. Every man who is protected by government should be willing to contribute to the support of his government. Heading the list of new bills was a proposed 6 cent tax a barrel on oil or 4 cents increase over present rates. Numerous new taxes were proposed—on laxing cards, electricity, luxuries, natural gas, salt, gross receipts, income, mutual assessment companies, one sales tax (exempting necessities of life) was included. Texas law makers gave a definition of an open saloon at the first called session. Now a definition is in order as to just what constitutes a sales tax, a tax on luxuries or a sales tax omitting "the necessities of life."

EAGLES WIN
FROM RANGER
BY 26-0 SCORE

About 300 Ranger fans braved the rain and mud around the Eagle Stadium at Abilene Friday afternoon to see the Ranger Bulldogs go down in defeat before the Abilene Eagles by a score of 26 to 0. The game was the first conference contest for the Eagles and the second for the Bulldogs and definitely threw the Bulldogs out of the conference race for the season. Although not the most decisive defeat for the Bulldogs this year, it was the most decisive victory of the Eagles over the Bulldogs since 1927 when Abilene won by a score of 33 to 0 and only one other time since 1921 have the Eagles scored as decisive a victory, the other being the 40 to 3 win in 1922.

The first touchdown for the Eagles came in the first quarter on a 59-yard drive, which included the only completed pass the Eagles made in the afternoon, only two being attempted. Harris carried the ball the last yard of the drive to score and Cumpston's kick for the extra point was low.

The second touchdown, in the second quarter, was on a 46-yard drive down the field, with Harris scoring, Crumpton again failing to kick the goal.

Seven plays were needed for the Eagles to make the next tally on a march from the Bulldog 28-yard line, the last play being an 11-yard dash around end by Couch. Crumpton converted for the first time to make the score 19 to 0 in favor of the Eagles at the half.

The Eagles made their last touchdown in the third quarter when a Bulldog punt was returned to their 38 yard line and eight plays, including three first downs, were needed to push the ball over for the marker, Couch making the last five yards in two attempts.

The Bulldogs made the first of their three first downs late in the first half when Payton took a circus catch with one hand after leaping high in the air, and it was not until the fourth quarter that Walsh and Jacoby plunged for another first down and Payton passed to Walsh for the third.

The lineups:

Clark converted as the half ended. Near the end of the third stanza Burnam fumbled in an attempt to punt from behind his goal line and recovered the ball for a safety, giving Breckenridge a 15 to 7 lead.

The third Breckenridge touchdown came in the middle of the fourth quarter when Magness led a 50-yard march on power plays. After making a first down on the Cisco 9, Magness jabbed the line four times before he put over the marker. Pass from center was fumbled in the attempted point after touchdown.

Despite threatening weather a good crowd turned out for the game.

The game was the first conference contest for the Eagles and the second for the Bulldogs and definitely threw the Bulldogs out of the conference race for the season.

Made Money By Posing as Doctor
To Many Victims

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—The medico-burglario profession today had lost the services of its most illustrious practitioner as Edward Koch, alias "Dr. Katz" alias "Dr. Franklin"—alias a lot of other names—prepared to spend some time as the guest of the state.

Koch—a former convict—was taken captive by police after he had robbed a score of women by posing as a doctor sent to the home by absent husbands to examine the eyes and health of their wives.

It was a most ingenious racket—and it worked this way—"Dr. Katz" would call at a home after the husband had left for work. The "physician" would introduce himself and say that the husband wanted him to investigate the health of the housewife.

After a brief talk, Koch would ask the "patient" to step into the bath room or another room and divest herself of some of her clothing so that the examination could proceed. Then if possible he would lock the woman in the room, gather up her jewelry and other valuables and leave.

Koch was successful in the Bronx but he decided he would give up his "practice" there and change neighborhoods. He moved his field of activity to the Brownville section of Brooklyn. That was where he made his big mistake.

For Mrs. Eva Zirinsky, 23, needed no medical attention and her eyes had never caused her any trouble—and she knew her husband would not send a doctor without informing her. Nevertheless she admitted "Dr. Katz" to her home and trapped him in a series of questions. He had professed to know her husband's telephone number but did not call it correctly at her request. He ran for the door and tried to get out.

"You're a fake!" she screamed. The "doctor" beat a hasty retreat, with Mrs. Zirinsky following. On they raced, Koch is a stout little man but he made swift progress. Two men caught him. "Let me go," he pleaded, "and I'll give you $75." But they held him and Detective James Drumm came up.

At police headquarters it was estimated his loot totaled $50,000 since his release from Sing Sing. Prior to his arrest in 1918 he was not a "doctor" but a "tailor." Then it was his custom to call at a house and say he had been sent by the husband to make a new dress for the wife. Would she mind taking off part of her clothing to permit him to measure her? When the victim in a partial state of undress he would take the jewelry and depart. When arrested he said: "When a woman is trying on clothes she never thinks of her jewels. No matter how carefully she may guard them at other times."

Warning: Beware of strangers seeking admission into your home. Local salespeople are to be readily received.

Retail Sales Over Texas Continue to Show Slight Gains

AUSTIN, Tex.—Retail sales in Texas during September compared favorably with the previous month and also with September last year, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Reports from 88 representative Texas establishments showed average dollar sales 3.7 per cent above those of September a year ago and 40.3 per cent over the previous month. The usual seasonal increase from August to September is 35.8 per cent.

Aggregate dollar sales for the first nine months were 4.8 per cent greater than for the corresponding period last year. The increase in sales over September and the year to date was above the average for the State in the following cities: Austin, Beaumont, Dallas, and San Antonio.

Of the different types of stores the best relative showing was made by women's specialty shops, followed in order by large department stores, men's clothing stores, small department stores, and dry goods and apparel stores. The ratio of credit sales to total sales was 4.2 per cent above a year ago, and the ratio of collections to outstanding accounts was about 1 per cent better than last year.

MISSION, Tex.—Final approval of a Public Works Administration loan-grant totaling $557,000 for Hidalgo County Water Control & Improvement District No. 7, the Alton district, was received by district officials, according to E. P. Congdon, district manager and engineer.

The district board of directors immediately issued a call for bids which will be received until Nov. 19, it was announced.

Under the new construction program, about 2,342,000 square feet of concrete canal lining will be laid in approximately 40 miles of district canals. The new program will approximately double the concrete canal mileage in the district. In addition, about 11.5 miles of underground concrete pipeline will be laid to better serve water users and decrease district operating costs through faster movement of irrigation water and prevention of loss through evaporation and seepage.

The Alton district is the second in the lower Rio Grande Valley to be given money with which to start irrigation work. Donna Irrigation District has just started construction on its 66 miles of new concrete canals to cost $420,000 under PWA financing.

Ranger Steam Laundry Will Open Thursday

MACHINERY BEING INSTALLED AND BUILDING REMODELED FOR OPENING ON NEXT THURSDAY

The new Ranger Steam Laundry now being installed at 120 North Austin, will likely be ready for business by Thursday, Oct. 31, it was announced Saturday by L. T. Rushing, manager, who is supervising the installation of the machinery.

The new laundry is owned by J. P. Pace & Son of Sweetwater who moved it here from McCamey, where it has been in operation.

Workers have been busy the last week installing a large boiler, which was placed at the rear of the building, connecting up electricity, gas and water and getting everything in readiness for the opening on next Thursday.

The interior of the building has been repainted in white with a green ceiling, so that, when the machinery is ready for use, will present a neat and sanitary appearance.

Enough equipment, to be operated by steam, has been installed to more than care for the needs of Ranger, Rushing said Saturday, and if the laundry can be run to half its capacity it will be able to show a profit.

The owners of the new laundry made inquiries in Ranger before moving the equipment here, and found that there was a demand for a laundry in Ranger as the town has been without a laundry since Oct., 1932, when the old laundry burned.

Although the quarters in which the laundry is located are small, there is ample room to handle the business, it was said Saturday, and the smaller building will make everything compact so that work can be turned out rapidly.

When operation starts, it was said, about five girls would be employed and the entire payroll, including the manager, would take care of about eight employees.

Rushing stated Saturday that he was going to Sweetwater this week-end to move his wife and family to Ranger, where they will make their home in the future.

All Ranger is joining in welcoming the new laundry and is wishing for it every success.

France and Japan Seeking Submarine Supremacy In 1936

By United Press
CHERBOURG, France.—The French policy of maintaining the lead it already has established among navies of the world in submarines was advanced another stage last week when the 2,000-ton submersible Beveziers was launched here.

This vessel, when completed, will bring France's total submarine fleet to the impressive figure of 75, this including the small coastal submarine, Junion, which took the water a few weeks ago.

With the steady increase in France's submarine flotillas, the ministry of the navy becomes increasingly opposed to all moves by other naval powers to restrict or abolish undersea craft as part of the navies of the nations. The French Admiralty not only is embarked upon a program of maintaining its undersea craft strength but of increasing it.

During the next 12 months, submarine construction will go forward at a steady pace until, by the time when the Washington Treaty is due to terminate at the end of 1936, it will have the formidable total of 74,076 tons in submarines. This will be second in tonnage to the Japanese strength, but it is believed the French submarine fleet will outclass the Japanese in numbers.

U. S. To Rank Third
The figures for submarine tonnage of the powers at that date will be:

Japan	79,777 tons
France	77,076 tons
United States	58,800 tons
Great Britain	52,194 tons
Italy	46,437 tons

In refusing to abandon the submarine as a naval weapon, France has shared the same views as the Japanese. Both nations, in resisting efforts by Great Britain to bring about an agreement for the abolition of undersea craft, have held that those vessels are not considered as weapons of attack, but of defense.

Both the United States and Germany recently expressed their agreement to abolish the submarine, it is believed, thereby siding with the British argument, but France and Japan have refused to participate in any conversations aimed at banishing the submersible.

Russia Leans Toward France
It is stated that Russia is now ranging itself on the side of France and Japan and is preparing a program of large submarine construction, thus making more remote the prospect of agreement at any future naval conference on banning or severely limiting this type of warfare.

Not only in total tonnage but in individual size, France keeps the lead among the maritime powers in submarines. The giant submersible cruiser, Sarcouf, of 3,500 tons, still is the largest in the world and is capable of meeting on equal terms on the surface many craft before which other submarines would be forced to retreat.

The newest addition to the fleet, the Beveziers, constitutes a powerful fighting unit, as she will be equipped with 11 torpedo tubes. Propelled by engines developing 8,000 horsepower, the Beveziers is a sister craft of the Agosta, Quésthe Mediterranean, Britain has by far the largest, it is calculated. The British Admiralty has five battleships either at Gibraltar of around the entrance to the Suez Canal, off the coast of Egypt, against three French battleships and two Italians attached to the Mediterranean fleets of these two powers.

Strength of Forces Shown

Other figures showing Mediterranean forces are:

Battle cruisers—Britain, 2; France, none; Italy, none.

Aircraft carriers—Britain, 2; France, 1; Italy, none.

Cruisers with 8 inch guns—Britain 8; France, 6; Italy, 6.

Cruisers with 6 inch guns—Britain, 10; France, 1; Italy, 7.

Destroyers—Britain, 3; France, 33; Italy, 9.

Torpedo boats—Britain, none; France, none; Italy, 35.

As France carries through submarine construction program, thus rendering more remote agreement on restriction of this type of war vessel, it is anticipated other maritime powers gradually will be forced to increase their undersea craft, unless the dim hope of the long awaited naval conference is fulfilled and results in an international agreement of submersibles.

It is not yet revealed whether these new craft will be attached to the Atlantic or Mediterranean squadrons of the French navy. France has adopted the policy in recent times of keeping most submarines in the Mediterranean, while maintaining large units in the Atlantic.

From reliable sources it is estimated that France has 50 of its 75 submarines in the Mediterranean, compared with Italy's 59. Great Britain is calculated to have 13 submarines in the Mediterranean, but is expected to increase this number if it decides further to strengthen naval plans in the inland sea in view of the Italo-Ethiopian conflict.

UNION OAK LEAFLET

Published By The Union School Staff

Reporters—Eula Bee Smith, Wynell Smith, Helen Fox

EDITORIAL

We feel like, as this is the first issue of the "Union Oak Leaflet," that it might be the appropriate time to state our purpose of organizing such a news item.

First, we desire that the community fully understand the teachers' aims and objectives regarding the matter. This effort does not mean less but more work on the part of the teachers. It means extra work.

Our convictions are that teachers should not be paid merely for the salary which they receive, but the service that they render to our young lives, who are under their care.

We sincerely and earnestly believe that this move is one of the most worthwhile undertakings, as yet devised. I wish to state why consider it as such:

First, it affords the pupils an opportunity to attempt and accomplish a thing, which they may regard as their own. Thus, affording a place in our curriculum for the initiative of the pupil to expand. We also hope that this undertaking may prove fruitful in bringing about unity, ties of friendship, loyal co-operation, and democratic spirit among patrons, pupils, and teachers, all of which must exist if an undertaking is to end in success.

The Literary Society presented their first program on Oct. 11. The program consisted of representative speeches and dialogues. Songs were presented by Maurice Hazard and Hervey Fox. Mr. Smith and Mr. Nichols entertained the guests with music. Sonny Fox from Eastland presented a speech. We wish to express our thanks to every one who rendered a part in this program.

REASONS FOR ORGANIZING LITERARY SOCIETY

There may be several reasons presented for organizing the Literary Society, chief among which are to learn the children to appear in public in an intelligent manner, speak to be understood, dismiss

By HARRY GRAYSON

DETROIT—This piece might well be titled, "How to Take Care of a Football Team."

University of Detroit teams have suffered fewer injuries during the last several years than any other major outfit in the country.

I queried Charles E. (Gus) Dorais, coach of the Titans, about it.

Dorais, a quarterback, and a little end named Knute Kenneth Rockne, made the nation forward pass conscious on a fall afternoon of 1913 on the Plains of West Point by smothering Army with what to the east was a new weapon.

That was a historic contest, for it not only contributed much toward revolutionizing the game, but inaugurated the brilliant series between Notre Dame and the academy.

"Dad" Butler," replied Dorais, when I asked him how it came that a limp was an event on the U. of D. squad.

It is traditional that a club trained by Michael H. Butler will be able to muster its full strength on the day of a battle. Now and then, of course, a member of the array sustains a fracture. "Dad" knows no shortcuts to the healing processes that nature invented, but it appears that only a broken bone will keep a Six-Mile Roadster off his pins.

Rest, Heat, Plenty of Tape, Detroit Trainer's Formula

BUTLER makes no secret of his formula. Rest, heat, and plenty of tape are the trio of ingredients. The Red and White aggregation undoubtedly uses more tape per capita than any other squad in the land—miles of it in the course of a season. Ankles the least bit weak are carefully taped by Butler before an engagement, with the result that sprained ankles are almost unknown.

The application of heat to an ailing muscle is one of Butler's great remedies. "Dad" has a big lamp in his training room and almost always one of the lads will be found absorbing its beneficial rays.

Butler is firm on the subject of sufficient rest. The moment a man begins to show signs of wear on the field he is ordered to the bench by the trainer. Fortunately, Dorais is thoroughly in sympathy with this idea. No matter how good the combatant may be who is weary, or how poor the replacement, out he comes when "Dad" says the word.

Butler has had an interesting career. Born at Catskill, N. Y., he was one of that large crop of professional foot-racers that flourished some 40 years ago.

Butler-Tutored Track Teams Also Successful

BUTLER dropped out of the training business for a number of years and conducted a physical culture school at Portland because he liked to fish and hunt in Oregon. He returned to it at Oregon State College, where for 19 years he enjoyed remarkable success both with track and football teams. His Detroit track team won the distance midget at the Drake Relays this year. He coaches a remarkable young miler in Bill Daly, who will be a junior next spring.

When Dorais came to Detroit from Gonzaga in 1925, he immediately went to work to persuade Butler to follow him and in 1927 the veteran trainer joined forces with the Titans, with the result that they immediately began to achieve fame as iron men.

timidity, and promote freedom and love of expression.

WHAT ENDURES

Often we find ourselves facing the question of what endures.

Walt Whitman once said that nothing endures but personal qualities.

What do you think endures? Do you think a great city or teeming manufacturing state endures; or a prepared constitution, or the best built steamships, or hotels of granite and iron, or any chef d'oeuvres of engineering, forts, armaments? Away! These are not to be cherished for themselves. It is true they fill their hour, the dancers dance, the musicians play for them, the show passes, all dyes well enough of course, all does very well till one flash of defiance. A great city is that which has the greatest men and women in it—even though it be a few ragged huts it is still the greatest city in the whole world.

And so it is with a school and a community; the greatest school is not always the one with the finest school building or the finest fixtures, but the one with the greatest men and women or boys and girls in it with clean minds and high ideals.

CLASSROOM NEWS (Lower Grades)

There have been several absent from our room during the past week due to the fact that harvest time is in full blast, and parents have needed their children. The harvest crops will soon be gathered and a full attendance can be reported.

We were favored Monday by a visit from little Miss Bettie Fox. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson came by Thursday to see Bertha Lee and visit with us for a few moments.

Every student in the room is going to do his best to make our Halloween carnival a big success. Don't forget the date.

Efficiency Stressed In WPA Projects

By United Press

SAN ANTONIO—Reiterating that a dollar's value must be received for every dollar spent by Works Progress Administration in Texas, Administrator H. P. Drought this week instructed engineering officials to plan greatest possible efficiency in the works division.

"We have no fear of running out of man-power on these projects," Drought explained. When Texas list of employables has been exhausted, our job will have been completed.

"Federal authorities have attempted to secure final approval of approximately twice as many projects as can be financed out of available funds," Drought declared. "This has been deliberately done to afford a maximum of latitude in operating the program by insuring instantly approved projects of every character. It is obvious, therefore, that we cannot prosecute every project. We are expected to utilize these projects to meet the need for employment that exists in each locality, choosing from among the approved projects those which require the number and particular classes of workers that are available from the relief rolls."

Drought asserted that fairness to the sponsors who, in many instances, are contributing materially toward the completion of projects demands that work be done thoroughly and conscientiously.

"We never lose sight of the fact that our major purpose is the rehabilitation of human beings," Drought declared. "It is only through demanding an honest day of work for a day's pay that we can remove the specter of the dole from the lives of persons who are subsisting on WPA wages."

By seeking approval of more projects than necessary to absorb all employables from Texas relief rolls as of May, 1935, state WPA officials hope to be able to choose only work of permanent worth while nature in the program which has already taken several thousand persons off the dole.

Texas Turkey Crop Smaller Than Last Year

By United Press

DALLAS—The turkey crop in Texas, which annually supplies a large part of the birds for the nation's Thanksgiving dinner, will probably be about 20 or 25 per cent smaller this year than last year, according to a recent survey.

Last year Texas shipped approximately 1,600 car loads of turkeys, with an average of about 1,900 birds to a car. This season estimates are that between 1,300 and 1,500 carloads will be shipped.

The decrease in this year's crop is generally attributed by growers to heavy rains which occurred during the hatching and incubating season early last spring. The wet weather resulted in losses ranging as high as 40 per cent in some localities where turkey raising is a major farming industry.

At Cuero, in South Texas, where the annual "Turkey Trot" is a major festival at the marketing season, it is estimated that the crop will be 25 per cent less than last year.

Meridian and Stockdale, both fairly large turkey marketing centers, indicate that the number of birds shipped this year will be about 40 per cent less than last year.

The price of turkeys for the Thanksgiving market is highly uncertain, according to shippers, and depends largely on the out-of-storage movement of a large supply of frozen birds.

Last year in Texas turkeys sold for about 23 cents a pound at Thanksgiving and 25 cents a pound at Christmas. Shipments generally begin about Nov. 20 to the large Eastern markets.

One encouraging factor is turkeys are generally reported to be of a better quality this year than last. Most growers indicate that their birds will be of better size and the quality of the meat far superior to last year.

Because of the better size, shippers estimate that about 1,600 or 1,700 birds will make a carload this year whereas last year 1,900 were required.

Welcome to our community and we know that you will receive the cooperation of its citizens.

CONSIDER!

THESE COSTS

- EQUIPMENT—Home washing demands it. Costly tubs, washing machine, wash board, etc. A big expense item.
- MATERIALS—Soaps, bluing, heat, light and water. They add still more to the large expense of home washing.
- NEW CLOTHES—Have to be purchased oftener because home washing provides no way for making clothes wear well.
- YOUTH AND BEAUTY—As if these other costs were not enough, the physical strain of home washing takes a large toll of youthful charms.
- LAUNDRY SERVICE—Takes all these costs, combines them into one cost—and makes the whole cost much lower.

Is it Worth It?

THEN CONSIDER OUR METHOD

- SOFT WATER—Used in all the washing we do. It means richer suds and cleaner clothes, with less washing.
- GENTLE SOAPS—That preserve all fabrics and colors.
- EXPERT HANDLING—By experienced workmen. Assures you that each garment gets the exact treatment that is best for it.
- RINSING—An important step, because it removes the last bit of dirt and takes out every trace of soap.
- DELIVERY—From your home and return, by courteous drivers. They know laundry methods, can advise you on the laundry service best suited to your washing needs.

Isn't it the TRUTH?

My Home used to be my castle, where I could live without annoyance—When the door bell rang I could expect a friend or neighbor. But that is not so any more, with solicitors, agents, peddlers, ringing my door doorbell from early morning—yes, even 'till late in the evening using "something free" or smart story methods to gain admission to my home. In fact says the Prudent Housewife and Miss Thrifty Shopper—"I am pestered with peddlers trying their specialty sales arguments on me every day of the week until they have become a NUISANCE."

Who are these bell ringers?

As a Rule many are Floaters---here today and gone tomorrow. They are NOT responsible financially, morally or otherwise. They are NOT taxpayers or voters in any community. Where a local citizen is representing a house-to-house selling firm, he or she secures the majority of business thru the friendly sympathy racket and NOT on the merits of the product. This condition is OVERWORKED in every community---and Master Peddlers are always looking for this class of representative.

Many Are Irresponsible. Men who cannot hold a position of any responsibility for any length of time---and continually float from one job to another. The large number of classified ads reading "Agents Wanted---Canvassers---Peddlers---Solicitors---Representatives to sell from house-to-house" confirms the uncertainty of the peddler.

If a Strange Man Came to Your Door---with nothing to sell---asking for permission to come into your home---WOULD YOU LET HIM IN?

Can You Afford to Take a Chance?

What Values Have These Peddlers To Offer?

Do you always receive THE SAME QUALITY as in sample shown? A large majority of these Peddlers are representing firms which go into the wholesale market and buy SECONDS—IMPERFECTS paying equally as much as your merchant does for perfect standards. When the merchandise you ordered from the peddler arrives—and it DOES NOT PROVE SATISFACTORY—Can You Get Your Money Back? Try to locate the clever salesman who collected your deposit.

A WARNING FROM THE CHIEF OF POLICE TO THE HOUSEWIVES AND CITIZENS OF RANGER AND THE RESIDENTS OF THIS TERRITORY

THIS IS A WARNING TO BEWARE OF THIEVES POSING AS SOLICITORS, Salesmen, or inspectors. STRANGERS seeking admittance to premises as salesmen, solicitors or inspectors SHOULD NOT BE ADMITTED UNTIL THEIR CREDENTIALS HAVE BEEN CHECKED UP AND VERIFIED THROUGH DEPENDABLE LOCAL PERSONS OR LOCAL INSTITUTIONS. IN MANY CASES STRANGERS, without reliable credentials are spotters for professional criminals and according to police records lack of caution on the part of householders in admitting such strangers often times results in costly property losses and bitter experiences.

DO NOT PAY CASH IN ADVANCE TO STRANGERS ON ANY MERCHANDISE . . . in many cases and from experience reported to the police department the customer has never received anything for the cash advances nor has any refund been made of the original cash deposit. DO NOT CASH CHECKS FOR STRANGERS NOR ISSUE A CHECK as down payment on any order to a stranger as in a number of cases these checks have been altered and later cashed by a third and innocent party.

SHOPLIFTERS WORKING THROUGH GUTHRIE pilfer merchandise from local stores and dispose of this merchandise to citizens in this territory. POLICE ARE KEEPING CHECK OF SUSPECTED INDIVIDUALS and your cooperation is asked in tracing down stolen goods. Beware of this merchandise usually sold as a special deal or offered at a ridiculous price for quick disposal. IT'S BETTER TO BE SAFE THAN SORRY . . . BE SURE YOU KNOW who the stranger is at your door before granting admittance to your home. IN CASE YOU ARE SUSPICIOUS PHONE THE POLICE AT ONCE. . . as we are anxious to cooperate with our citizens at all times.

HIGH PRESSURE FREE GIFT ARTISTS HAVE BEEN WORKING the resident and farm districts of late selling all kinds of merchandise and offering "something free" to get into the homes. IN MOST CASES THERE IS NOTHING FREE TO BE GIVEN AWAY. ONE NEED NOT BE AFRAID OF OFFENDING THE HONEST SOLICITOR, salesman, or inspector here or representing a local firm. THEY HAVE THEIR CREDENTIALS WITH THEM and welcome such investigation . . . that is why they are required to carry credentials. PROTECT YOURSELF . . . ASK FOR CREDENTIALS SHOWING THEIR IDENTITY AND THEIR LOCAL CONNECTIONS.

LOCAL EMPLOYMENT AND COMMUNITY GROWTH depend on the customer's attitude toward Guthrie business houses. Too many worth-while institutions (employing local people and paying taxes to support schools, etc.) have been allowed to leave town because of lack of support and cooperation from business men and customers. The big city firm is not interested in the betterment of our town . . . neither is the catalogue house. It is a puzzle to find buyers repeatedly biting on the something-for-nothing story with the genuine value right here under our noses. It is time for the housewife, the business man and the citizen to take action.

JIM INGRAM, Chief of Police, Ranger.

Do NOT confuse representatives of local institutions with the itinerant peddler . . . for they represent legitimate business houses which furnish employment to local people, pay taxes and are entitled to an interview. Protect yourself. Ask the man who calls for credentials from his employer.

Hallowe'en Party

A pre-Hallowe'en party proving gala throughout the hour, entertained members of a Child Study Association No. 2, at the home of Mrs. Z. B. Morgan, Cherry street, Thursday afternoon.

The true Hallowe'en spirit prevailed and bright costumes added effective to the motif already made with black cats, witches, and other creatures of the spook world.

Timely games were enjoyed, and the highlight of the program came when an amateur hour was introduced and conducted in the form of a Major Bowes feature.

PUBLIC ENEMIES

THE CROSSWALK CREEPER

Not so innocent as this candidate for public enemy of the highway dishonors.

By inconsiderately edging his car across the safety lines of crosswalks at street corners, the Cross-Walk Creeper forces pedestrians into danger zones. Many serious accidents result.

Good drivers are considerate of others—they obey the law by stopping back of the crosswalk.
