Proposition 13, or whatever, adopted in California recently by vote of incensed taxpayers, has scared the living daylights out of public officials, at all levels, across the country. The need for frugality and common sense in the handling of public funds is no greater today than it has ever been, but people in public positions are running scared since Proposition 13 has given them an insight to public opinion about the handling of public money.

Our state officials have mounted their chargers and are riding to the rescue of overtaxed citizens, advocating a special legislative session, with many pronouncements of possible tax reliefs. The fact that those worthies would even consider being a little more careful with our tax dollars is commendable, but the fact that they had to wait for the voters of California to light the fuse would indicate that it would be better to continue to be calm about the matter and handle it as a routine business affair.

Since the Lieutenant Governor, the Speaker of the House and other assorted state officials, have suddenly realized that the tax money they spend was at sometime somebody's hard earned money, they are at least making a public show that they are interested. To prove that they have the interest of the taxpayers at heart they advocate spending a ton of money by calling a special session of the legislature. If they are sincere, the first proof that they are economy minded would be

Mrs. Weems' funeral held

Funeral services for Mrs. Laura Weems, 95, of South Hills Manor were conducted Tuesday morning in the First United Methodist Church at Olustee, Okla., and burial followed in the cemetery at Altus, Okla.

Mrs. Weems, the mother of Mrs. M.F. McRee and Mrs. Marvin Mundell of Dimmitt, died Sunday at South Hills Manor.

She is survived by six daughters, 33 grandchildren, 61 great-grandchildren and six great-great-grandchildren.

BRIDES AND GROOMS — These three couples will be married at the same time during a triple wedding July 29 at the Lee Street Baptist Church. From left are Leslie Robison and Robin Caldwell, Jerry McIntosh and Shandra Robison, and Elizabeth Mitchell and Jeff Patterson. They posed for this photo in the W.H. Patterson home while making plans for their wedding.

Triple wedding planned

A rare triple wedding will be performed July 29 at the Lee Street Baptist Church in Dimmitt.

Saying "I do," "I do," "I do" will be Robin Caldwell, 20; Sandra Robison, 19, and Jerry McIntosh, 20; and Elizabeth Mitchell, 20, and Jeff Patterson, 18.

It will be an afternoon double-ring ceremony. Each bride will have a maid of honor and a bridesmaid, and each bridegroom will have a best man and a groomsman. Each couple will also have a separate flower girl.

Zelda Ellison will be the vocal soloist, and Betty Hoover will be at the organ, performing the longest Wedding March she's ever played. A single ring-bearer—14-year-old Kevin Spinhirne—will carry all six wedding rings, and there will be two candle-lighters.

In all, 23 people will be standing at the altar when the couples recite their vows.

Rev. Ronnie Travis will conduct the triple ceremony. "This is my first triple wedding," Rev. Travis said. "In fact, it's the first time I've ever heard of one."

Rev. Travis will go "down the line" twice, asking all three men first, then all three women, to say "I do" at the same time. The ring vows also will be recited jointly—first by the men, then by the women.

After the wedding, a joint reception will be held in the Bill Patterson home, with lots of cake and punch. For Jeff Patterson, the wedding cake will also be a birthday cake.

The three couples are all inter-related or close friends. Robin Caldwell and Jeff Patterson are both the children of the Bill Pattersons, and Jerry McIntosh is their uncle. Shandra and Leslie Robison are cousins. Elizabeth Mitchell and Shandra Robison are best friends.

"Jerry and I became engaged last August," Shandra explained, "then the other two couples decided in April to get married. Mrs. Patterson suggested that we all get married at the same time. We thought it was a practical idea."

Three of the six—Jeff, Jerry and Robin—live in Dimmitt. Jeff works for K-Bob's Steak House and Henderson Foundations, Jerry is employed by the City of Dimmitt, and Robin is a "lineperson" for Continental Telephone Co.

Leslie and Shandra both live in Clovis. Leslie is employed by A&M Construction Co. there. Shandra, a Dimmitt High School graduate, will complete her associate degree work in office practices this month at Eastern New Mexico University's Clovis campus. She also works at McDonald's in Clovis.

Opening games slated in Babe Ruth Tourney

The Junior Babe Ruth Baseball Tournament will begin here at 6 p.m. Wednesday, when Plainview and Muleshoe teams meet in the Babe Ruth Park. Four teams of 13-year-olds are involved in the all-star tourney.

Dimmitt's first game in the double-elimination tourney will be against Olton, beginning at 8 p.m.

Losers in these two games will meet at 6 p.m. next Thursday, and the winners at 8 p.m. The next contest will be between losers in the first bracket and winners of the second.

The Saturday night game in the winners bracket may decide the championship of the tournament, but if it goes into another round the finals will begin at 2 p.m. Sunday.

The all-star tournament for players 14 and 15 years old will be held at Olton, starting July 11. The Dimmitt team will go into action at 6 p.m. that day against Plainview.

The other game of opening night matches Muleshoe and Olton, starting at 8:30 p.m.

HOST ALL-STARS — These 13-year-old players from Dimmitt and Nazareth will make up the host team in the Babe Ruth Tournament here next week. The all-stars were chosen Monday night by the league's coaches and officials. Kneeling, from left, are Roy Tijerina, Frank Garcia, Raul Rodriguez, Johnny Nino, David Ogas, Fermin Gonzales, Lonnie Robb, Rodney Schulte and Justin

July has been designated by the Dimmitt Chamber of Commerce as "Growth" month in the city and will be highlighted by the official opening of several new businesses and industries as well as the start of construction of new homes.

The emphasis on growth will begin with ribbon cutting ceremonies for a new million-dollar vegetable processing plant, Dimco Industries, at 10 a.m. Friday. The plant, located on highway 86 east of the Dimmitt city limits, will process potatoes, onions, lettuce and carrots.

Construction at Dimmitt High School and the million dollar highway project now underway in Dimmitt parallel the growth of business and industry. The Chamber has also confirmed more than six new home starts by local contractors, expected to begin in July.

An addition to the DHS industrial arts/vocational agriculture building is now being constructed. According to school superintendent Robert Ryan, the addition will include a drafting room, a room for woodworking classes, a choir room and two rest rooms.

Workers began this week on construction of new steel bleachers for the DHS football field, and expect the structure to be completed by the football season. The new 273 seats will be located in the center section of the home bleachers, directly behind the old press box locations. Two new tennis courts are now underway at the high school and middle school.

Several new businesses are expected to hold official opening ceremonies during the month of July, according to Chamber of Commerce Manager Shirley Hall.

Seal coat on SH 194 scheduled

Seal coating on State Hwy. 194 from the south edge of Dimmitt to the Swisher County line is a project included in the 1979 program just announced by the State Highway and Public Transportation Commission.

That project will also continue through the two-mile segment of 194 across the southwest corner of Swisher County to the Hale County line.

George C. Wall Jr. of Lubbock, district engineer, announced the projects for District Five in the $70.5 million program which was recently approved by the highway commission to improve safety by improvements on 3,766 miles of state-maintained highways in all parts of Texas.

"I think it was a big experience . . . I've learned a lot about people," said An Helderwiert about her past year as Dimmitt's American Field Service exchange student. After 12 months as the "daughter" of Jack and Myrna Miller and "sister" to Cara, Hal and Kim, An leaves today (Thursday) for the East Coast, where she will tour with AFS students from across the nation.

The Texas AFS students will meet in Dallas, fly east and end their tour July 12 in Washington D.C. An will then fly to her native Belgium on July 13.

An reflected on her year in Dimmitt, her experiences and her American family. She has been impressed with the openness of people and said, "You're friends with everybody here."

Ribbon cutting ceremony to open vegetable plant

Dimco Industries, a new million-dollar vegetable processing facility, will officially open Friday following ribbon cutting ceremonies by Dimmitt's Chamber of Commerce. The plant, located on Highway 86 East of the Dimmitt city limits, will process potatoes and onions during the summer months with lettuce and carrots to be processed in the fall.

Vegetables are expected to be shipped to all parts of the country with major supplies expected to be trucked to Florida, Georgia, Oklahoma, Kansas, Indiana, Ohio, Michigan and Texas.

Dimco Industries is the second vegetable processing plant to be located in Dimmitt, and will employ approximately 125 workers during peak seasons with an additional 150 to 175 field hands employed. The plant is expected to reach peak employment by mid-July.

Construction on the industry began in January and installation of equipment and interior facilities was expected to be completed this week.

The plant is owned by a corporation composed of Dimmitt farmers including Truman Touchstone, Jerry Watts, Carl Bruegel, Ben Holcomb and Allen McClure. Roy Lyles will be the plant manager.

Robertson's funeral held at McGregor

Graveside funeral services were scheduled at 10:30 a.m. today (Thursday) at McGregor, Tex. for William J.T. Robertson, who lived in Dimmitt ten years before he moved to Big Spring last March. He died Tuesday in a Big Spring hospital.

Rev. Randall Scott of the First Baptist Church at McGregor will officiate for the funeral. Arrangements are under direction of the Cole Funeral Home of that city.

Mr. Robertson, a former Texas Ranger and once a resident of McGregor, came to Dimmitt in the spring of 1968 to manage the just-completed Castro County Agricultural Housing Project.

Serving as manager of the housing unit here until early this year, he accepted a similar post at Big Spring. Survivors include his wife.

Rites are held for Mrs. Black

The funeral of Mrs. Prudia Black, 78, whose death occurred Saturday, was conducted in the First United Methodist Church at Hereford, where Mrs. Black had resided for many years. She lived at South Hills Manor the past few years.

Born in Tennessee, Mrs. Black went to Hereford from Canyon in 1920, the year she married James E. Black. She was a member of the First UMC at Hereford.

Survivors include a sister, Alice McFarland of Dumas, and a brother, E.W. Prichard of Amarillo.

One harvest ending, another starts here

A short wheat harvest in Castro County will virtually end this week, elevator operators over the area report, adding that they are not bothered by last year's main problem of overflowing elevators and no space to store more grain.

Another harvest, that of the county's unusually large vegetable crop, is beginning as the last wheat is brought in, and both of Dimmitt's vegetable packing plants are getting into operation this week to handle the onion crop.

Weather that developed the most unfavorable aspects at almost every stage of the wheat's growth, except at harvest time when it was about perfect, curtailed the 1978 crop which was already short because less acreage was planted and more was grazed out.

"It was too dry from the time wheat was planted, then the hard freezes last winter thinned some strands and the rainy spell last month encouraged quick growth of weeds," Bill Clark of Dimmitt Agri Industries said in describing the blows struck successively by the weather.

But he said the quality of grain was generally good, and J.R. Brown of Flagg Grain said that was true in the west part of Castro County, where the test weight averaged above 60 pounds per bushel and the grain was very dry.

"Nobody really spent much on this crop, since prices were low," Brown added. "Most of the wheat grew with very little water and fertilizers, and the marginal fields were mostly grazed out, so yields showed up fairly good."

"A lot of the crop in our area was grazed out," Ronnie Truelock reported from Farmers Grain at Hart. But he said yields of the harvested wheat were generally down, and the quality was not so good, with lower test weights attributed largely to the dry weather of the winter.

When harvest first began, test weights were down on wheat brought to Easter Grain elevators, a spokesman there said, but the quality has improved. Little wheat remains to be harvested in that part of the county, or around Nazareth, according to Lucy Leinen of the Agri-Industries office there.

Fewer harvested acres caused the drop in the county's total yield in the opinion of Ed Woodard of the Bruegel & Sons elevators. Compared to last year's bumper crop, only about half a crop is being harvested, he said.

"Quality overall is good," he added. "Most of the wheat is at least of average test weight, the moisture content is low."

Digging of onions began this week in the county and LaMantia Cullum-Collier Co. vegetable sheds scheduled their work to start at noon Wednesday with onions, looking forward to the start of potato harvest in about a week.

The new Dimco Industries plant east of the city is being readied to run onions, with hope of starting Friday, and potatoes beginning Monday.

Very warm weather of the past two weeks has taken moisture out of the ground rapidly, County Agent Charles Hottel said Tuesday, placing stress on corn, grain sorghum, cotton and sugar beets.

"The heat is good for cotton," he said, "if it is being watered. Young cotton, just emerging after being replanted when early cotton was hailed out or washed out in some areas, is up to a good stand and growing fast."

Hoeing crews are at work in many fields, with hand cultivation that is required at a certain stage for beets and is needed in cotton fields where volunteer corn from a previous year's crop, or Johnson grass which is not easily killed by chemical herbicides, is growing.

Spraying for crop insects is in recess just now, according to Mark Powell, Extension Service entomologist, who said the spray planes which have been flying over cotton fields have got the thrips pretty well under control and that the insects which damage corn will not be a problem until mid-July.

Fleahoppers may move out of weeds near the cotton fields and attack small squares when the cotton plants are a little more mature, he said.

Eggs of southwestern corn borers have been found in the Bethel and Flagg communities and may become a problem next month, and corn earworms and budworms also may give trouble later in the summer. He added that timing of the spray for these worms is critical as they should be sprayed when they are less than a quarter of an inch long.

Spider Mites, moving out of wheat fields into the corn, also could be damaging, Powell said, especially if the weather remains hot and dry. His suggested remedy, "Pray for rain!"

Aphids are appearing on some sorghums, he added, but very few are the damaging greenbugs for which a close watch will be kept later in the summer.

to forget the idea of an expensive special session and devote the next session of the legislature, beginning in a few months, to trimming the waste from state government, and if possible some tax reforms in the proper places. The present wasteful spending habits of governing bodies is the result of illadvised programs developed over the years and corrective measures can't possibly be perfected in a brief called session of the legislature.

There is no doubt that there are inequities in our taxing laws, and there is no doubt that they should be remedied and made as fair as possible, but the big need is to take the waste out of government. People are going to continue to demand public services and the fiddler, of a necessity, will have to be paid with tax dollars. Right now we need a little common sense in the good old U.S.A.

Castro County 4-H Dress Review held

Twenty-five girls modeled their self-made garments during the Castro County 4-H Dress Review competition held Tuesday noon in the courthouse assembly room.

The entrants competed in four different age groups and three girls were selected to go to the District dress review to be held July 6 at the Texas Tech Home Economics addition.

The contestants, representing 4-H clubs from Dimmitt, Bethel, Nazareth, Happy Helpers and Flagg, were judged on the construction and appearance of their clothing by Myrna Miller and Joyce Davis of Dimmitt. Cinde Sides narrated the style show.

Diane Hochstein of Nazareth was the Senior division winner and will model her winter suit in competition at Lubbock. Mary Jeanne Hochstein, also of Nazareth, placed second and Kylene Behrends of the Happy Helpers 4-H club won third.

Tammy Behrends from the Happy Helpers club will go to district after her first-place win in the 12-13 years division. Laurie Sides of the Bethel 4-H Club won second place while Janis Hutcheson of Bethel placed third.

Vanessa Pigg of the Dimmitt 4-H Club is the third district competitor from Castro County after her win in the 9-11 years division. Holly Waggoner of the Flagg club placed second and Charlynn Hunter of the Dimmitt club won third place.

say that her 16-year-old sister is now taller than An and that her 17-year-old brother has changed, too.

Change is inevitable in the AFS program for both the students and their families. As for An, she says, "I've really grown up a lot."

Just as her Belgian family shares a closeness, the Millers say they have become as close to An as a "real" family.

"Our real family is a lot like An's. She has fitted in real well," said Myrna Miller, An's American "mother."

"You have to treat them like your own, not like a guest," she added.

An says she shares a special closeness with her American "sister," Cara—"we fight just like sisters." Added Mrs. Miller, "Cara and An have been closer than any AFS sisters we've had."

Cara hopes to visit An in Belgium in the future.

During the school year, An gave "about 18 speeches" to civic clubs and groups about life in her country, and said she enjoyed being asked questions about Belgium.

She attended AFS jamborees in San Antonio and Amarillo in which AFS students living in Texas for the year got together and met one another.

In DHS, An was chosen as Flame Queen during Homecoming festivities, was a member of FHA, Student Senate and played junior varsity basketball. She traveled with the Bobcat Band to football games and on the spring trip to Corpus Christi. The courses in school she enjoyed most this year were civics, home management and art.

An thinks she has lost her Flemish lilt and gained a Texas accent since coming here. "In San Antonio," she said, "they asked me if I was from the North."

Among the activities An says she will miss are the football games and the favorite pastime of Dimmitt teenagers—making the drag.

The Millers took An on a recent trip across the Southwest through New Mexico, Arizona, California, Utah and Nevada. California and Arizona were An's favorite spots in America, she said, adding that she loved the beaches and the mountain and desert scenery.

An plans to enroll in the University of Louvain in Belgium after she completes the necessary entrance exams. Her field of study will be languages, she says.

Dimmitt's 1978-79 AFS student, Armando Bellisia from Fabbri, Italy, will arrive here sometime in August. He will live with the Bob Wests.

OBESITY is really widespread.

Davis said July 17 was the next available date when 64th District Judge John T. Boyd would be able to attend.

Davis explained that several of the jurors had called in to explain their absences, but two jurors couldn't be reached at all. Only eight showed up, not enough for the needed quorum of nine.

County hires new assistant agent

The Castro County Commissioners' Court voted Monday to hire James McNey of Dalhart as the new assistant county agent, succeeding Seth Ralston, who recently became the county agent for Parmer County.

The commissioners agreed that McNey would receive the same salary and job benefits as Ralston.

McNey is a native of Colorado and a recent graduate of West Texas State University, with a major in agricultural economics.

In other business, the commissioners:

— Voted to pay the maintenance agreement charges on the teletype equipment in the Sheriff's Department on a yearly rather than monthly basis. The charges are $1260 per year or $105 per month.

— Discussed changing some voting precinct judges. Oscar Wylie, county Democratic chairman, suggested two changes, and Precinct 4 Commissioner Jerry Wilhelm knew of two others who wanted to quit. The court postponed any action until further consultation with Wylie.

— Discussed whether to overhaul or replace the motor in the pickup used to pull the nail picker.

— Discussed changes recommended by the state in regard to jail improvements submitted to the state by architects. The changes would lessen the cost of renovation slightly.

Meeting today to push planning for Hart Days

Chairmen already appointed for various activities of Hart Days, Aug. 4-5, as well as representatives of organizations in the Hart community and other interested persons will attend a planning meeting at 8 p.m. today (Thursday) in the Farmers State Bank assembly room.

Mr. and Mrs. Kim Williamson, general chairman, announce Mrs. DeWayne Brown and Mrs. Harold Bob Bennett as co-chairmen for the queen contest and Jim Black for the watermelon feed which will be a new feature of Hart Days this year.

Richard Franks will act as parade marshal and Virginia Reed is in charge of plans for the annual parade. Hart High cheerleaders will sponsor the teenage dance with Mrs. Bob Berry as chairman, and Erma Kennedy will direct square dance plans.

Mrs. Williamson said Tuesday that color guards from the Amarillo Marine Corps reserve unit and Reese Air Force Base, with possibly another military unit, will lead the parade.

A tractor pull will be another new feature as the celebration is held in a new location — downtown Hart rather than the Hart school grounds as in past years.

Organizations which have already announced plans are Chi Psi Sorority, which will conduct a souvenir sale and a bake sale as well as sponsoring the arts and crafts show at the bank, and Xi Mu Iota which will conduct games, stunts and contests including an egg race.

Cox resigns at Nazareth

George Cox, who coached the Nazareth Swiftettes to the State Class B championship this year, has resigned to accept the girls' basketball coaching position at Carthage High School, a Class AAA school in East Texas.

He was at Nazareth High School only one year, and the girls' team won the Texas UIL championship for the second consecutive year under his direction. Cox went to Nazareth from the coaching staff of Canyon High School.

A graduate of Abilene Christian University, Cox earned his master's degree from West Texas State University.

Hubert Backus, president of the Nazareth Independent School District Board, said Wednesday morning that the board is actively seeking a replacement for Cox and hopes to have a coach employed well before the next school term begins.

"We already have one applicant and will not decide until we receive other applications. The position will be open and we will take plenty of time to find a good coach. We are sorry to lose Cox but we know a man must better himself when he gets a good job opportunity."

Cox expressed the same thought when he said he regrets leaving the Swiftettes and West Texas but feels that the larger school will give him better opportunities.

"I'll certainly miss the girls here and their parents, who have been so cordial to my wife and me," Cox said. "We've had some good times here that we'll always remember."

"I expect the Nazareth girls to go to state again this year, and am pulling for them to win another championship. The Swiftettes are going to be real strong and it would be great to coach them again, but I'm going to a school with a well-established girls' basketball program and am looking forward to working there," he said.

More about Wedding ...

The couples are sending out joint wedding invitations, printed on 6x8-in. stationery sheets with a handpainted design. The names wouldn't all fit on traditional invitations.

"I'm planning to frame one of the invitations and hang it in my office," said printer Roger Malone, who came up with the wording and design for the invitation.

The invitations read: "The honour of your presence is requested at the marriage of these couples: Robin Caldwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Patterson, to Leslie Robison, son of Ken Robison and Naomi Kimmel; Elizabeth Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Mitchell, to Jeffery Patterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Patterson; Shandra Robison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maxi Robison, to Jerry McIntosh, son of Mae McIntosh, on Saturday, the twenty-ninth of July. . . ."

Lions officers to be installed

The Lions Club will hold its annual installation banquet and Ladies' night tonight (Thursday) at 7:30 in the Dimmitt High School cafeteria.

Bob Baker will be sworn in as the new president and Tommy Fowler will take office as 1st vice-president.

Church group task force gathers here

A Texas Council of Churches task force studying migrant labor problems in the state gathered in Dimmitt last Thursday to hear reports on the farm situation in this area.

Hosting the meeting in the Colonial Inn was Dr. Ed Manning, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Dimmitt.

Serving as local spokesmen were Edd McLeroy, vice-president of the First State Bank; Jim Elder, chairman of the ASCS County Committee; and Fred Bruegel Jr., manager of Bruegel & Sons, Inc. They discussed local costs of production, crop and price prospects, farmers' financial problems, workers' facilities, labor contracting methods, food stamp expenditures locally, and factors affecting the farm prices.

Eight members of the TCC task force on migrant workers were on hand for the discussion session.

The Texas Council of Churches includes 16 denominations.

Kids Baseball season is drawing to close

Finale for the Kids Baseball season in Dimmitt will be written in the next week, with the last games in the Minors scheduled Friday and in the Majors Monday.

Making up a game rained out May 19, the Minor league-leading Dodgers were defeated by the Astros 7-5 in a Saturday contest, in spite of Dodger scores in the last two innings. That game left standings at 8-2 for the Dodgers and 6-4 for the Astros.

The Yankees and Cards began a makeup game Saturday but didn't change the standings as only one inning was played with the Cards leading 7-5.

The Yanks are 5-5 for the season, followed by the Rangers 5-4, and the Cards 0-9.

In regular Minor League games Friday the Dodgers downed the Astros 11-8 while the Yanks beat the Rangers 13-9. Scores in the Minors last Tuesday were Yanks 13, Cards 11; Dodgers 16, Rangers 3.

Major League Cardinals held their place at the top of the standings with 10-0 for the year, followed by the Astros, 8-4; Dodgers, 7-4;

Braves, 5-5; Yankees, 2-9; Tigers, 1-11.

One big inning was all the Astros needed to win over the Tigers last Thursday as David Barton slammed a homer with two men on the top of the fourth. The final score was 10-0.

The Braves beat the Yanks 15-3 that day, and the Cards downed the Dodgers 7-4.

A grand slam homer by Jason Morris was a factor in the Card's 12-8 victory over the Astros June 19. In other Majors games that day the Tigers beat the Yanks 14-6, bunting six runs in the fourth inning, and the Dodgers barely downed the Braves, 7-6.

The schedule for the remainder of the season for the Majors:

Today (Thursday) — Astros vs. Yankees and Dodgers vs. Tigers at 6 p.m., Braves vs. Cards 8 p.m. Monday — Tigers vs. Braves and Cards vs. Yanks at 6 p.m., Dodgers vs. Astros at 8 p.m.

Final games in the Minors Friday will match Cards vs. Dodgers at 6 p.m., Rangers vs. Astros at 8 p.m. It will be the Yanks day off.

Even with the soaring temperature of the past few days, golfers have been on the course. A scramble tournament was held Sunday afternoon with 15 teams participating.

Three teams were tied for low score when play was completed, these being the teams of Dyer-Holland-Hamilton, McClure-Lilley-Baker & Lapins-Hickey-Harkins. This was a lot of fun and everyone enjoyed Laverne's good hamburgers at the end of play.

There were teams from Dimmitt participating in the Tulia Ladies Partnership tournament held Monday at the Tulia Country Club. Congratulations to Beverly Lindsey and June Sutton for coming in with first place in the third flight of play.

The LGA held its monthly luncheon and business meeting Tuesday at the clubhouse. The business session was conducted by Polly Holland, president.

Play-day awards were made by Audrey Shottenkirk, chairman. May 3 the event was three clubs & putter with Juanita Bruegel, Amy Glover, Vicki Yokum and Dolores Baldrige winning.

May 23 was low putts with Gladys Benson and Audrey Shottenkirk winners of this event. June 13 was regular play less one-half of handicap with Polly Holland coming in first and Bobby George and Shirley Langford tying for second.

The LGA will host the City Tournament July 15 and 16. You do not have to be a member to play in this event and we would very much like this to be a good tournament so sign up at the clubhouse for this or let Polly Holland or Joan Thrasher know that you would like to play.

High Plains LGA will be hosted by Muleshoe on July 12. If you plan to attend this, sign up at the clubhouse or let Amy Glover know that you will be going.

JUNE 29 — Pat and Ladie Evan, H.D. and Leola Rials.

JUNE 30 — Acie and Margo Boyd, Stanley and Rita McDaniel, Claudia and Juanita Welch, Bill and Martha Dannevik.

JULY 1 — Kenneth and Ferne Black, David and Benera Thomas, John and Dorothy Street.

JUNE 2 — Bill and Vicki Yokum, Stanley and Naomi Hartman.

JULY 4 — Bill and Kathryn Birdwell, Joyce and Durward Davis.

JULY 5 — Darrell and Dorothy Musick, Leonard and Shirley Melcher.

Pickup collides with concrete pipe

No one was injured in an early morning wreck Friday in which a north-bound pickup truck collided with a concrete pipe being carried by a tractor on US Hwy 385, near the Y.

According to Melvin Summers, driver of the pickup, he was attempting to go around the north-bound tractor and hit the pipe, which jutted across the road. The sun obscured his vision, Summers said, and he only saw the flashing lights of the tractor. There was no red warning sign hung on the pipe.

The pipe shattered the windshield of the pickup and caused $2800 damage to the truck, but Summers was uninjured.

small talk from South Hills Manor

Salome Keger was born in Conley County in a log cabin in 1881. At this time Lockney consisted of one store, post office and school.

She married in 1901 and in 1932 moved to Tulia. She helped her husband drill and haul wheat and drive the tractor.

When her son was six years old, his thumb was cut severely. It was attached only by the skin. There was no doctor in the county. After a good cry to settle her nerves, Salome sewed the thumb back on and to this day he's still able to use it.

I asked what she did for entertainment as a young girl. She said not a lot but occasionally they had big dances. That was lots of fun.

Salome has one son, one grandson, two great grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

She also raised her foster daughter, Oleta Lanham. Oleta and her husband Stoud were here this week from Doutham, Ala. to visit Salome and took her to her home for a short visit.

I think any of you readers would enjoy coming out and visiting with this dear pioneer lady.

Thursday Mary Alice and grandson Jimbo Tucker came out and helped Velma Tucker make the Independence Day poster. It sure looks pretty.

Our hearts were saddened this week with the passing of Mrs. Prudy Black and Mrs. Laura Weems. We extend our sympathy to the families of these two sweet ladies.

Mrs. Tucker had visitors this week — Mrs. Joe Bob Nivens, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hart, and Mrs. Davis. Velma said there are no friends like our old friends.

Pearl Sheffy, Pearl Gass, and Nanny Thomas are here in our hospital. Mr. Kearns is still at St. Anthony's. A prayer and a card would cheer these people so.

Mr. and Mrs. Carruth came Saturday for a birthday celebration party for Mrs. Carruth's mother, Minnie McClure.

A hearty thank you to Darrell Musick and his pianist for the beautiful music Saturday night. The residents were very pleased with the numbers you selected.

Irene Latham came to spend Sunday with her mother Luda Linseys.

Sunday morning services were held by Rev. Bedford Smith from the First Christian Church. He also presented a solo. He will be at the Manor on Tuesday and Wednesday for Bible Study.

Visiting with Lottie Langford Saturday were daughter, Mrs. N.M. Caldwell from Lockney and great grandson and great-granddaughter Ronnie and Jackie Dunlap from Lubbock.

Friday Dee and Nona Umberson from Alamogordo, N.M. came to visit Dee's mother Alma Umberson.

The Rough Riders band from Nazareth came Sunday night and played for the residents. They presented such a delightful program. The residents hope they will return again and soon. Members of the band are, Dwayne and Laura Kleman, Greg Birkenfield, Keith Hoelting, Rudy Bermea and Duane Schacher.

The residents and staff at the Manor thank each of you who so graciously give of yourselves and time to make life more enjoyable. May God bless you richly.

MR. AND MRS. O.C. FRY
... Celebrating Golden Wedding anniversary

O. C. Frys to mark golden anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Othele C. Fry will be honored at a reception Sunday afternoon in celebration of their 50th wedding anniversary. The Frys are 27-year residents of Castro county, who have lived in Dimmitt the past seven years.

The reception at their home, 302 Western Drive, will be from 2:30 to 5 p.m. Sunday. Hosts will be their children and friends from the First Christian Church.

Cancer Society district meet

Seven members of the Castro County unit of the American Cancer Society attended the annual district meeting at Lubbock recently, when new district officers were elected and awards for outstanding service presented.

In the Dimmitt party were George Lamberth, president; Paul Weaver, Cancer Crusade chairman; Crusade committee members Cleo Forson, Nancy Acker and Linda Roberts; Ina Cleavinger, public information chairman and Gwen Bryant, public education chairman.

Reports on unit activities were given and workshops held on various phases of the program. Juandelle Lacy, state board member of the ACS, was the guest speaker who stressed education for preventing cancer.

Emphasis was on making the public aware of the seven signals of cancer, expressed in phrases with initial letters which spell CAUTION: Change in bowel or bladder habits, A sore that does not heal, Unusual bleeding or discharge, Thickening or lump in the breast or elsewhere, Indigestion or difficulty in swallowing, Obvious change in wart or mole, Nagging cough or hoarseness.

Any of these signals should send a person to his doctor for examination, the members were reminded.

Minister, associate named at conference

Don Price was re-appointed as minister of Dimmitt's Church of God of Prophecy and John Quisenberry was appointed as associate pastor during the church's state convention in the Lubbock Civic Auditorium last week.

Price was the organizing minister of the Dimmitt church two years ago and has served the congregation since that time. He is also an announcer with KDHN and is president of the Castro County Ministerial Association.

"We really love it here in Dimmitt and I'm glad to be appointed for another year here," Price said. "I think we have a great congregation here," he added.

Rev. Quisenberry, 31, will assume his duties as associate minister here in the latter part of July. He has served at Warren, Mich., for the past few years.

The local congregation of the church is currently renovating a building at 309 NW 4th St., and hopes to hold its first services there the first Sunday of August. The church currently holds worship services every Sunday morning and evening in the city hall auditorium.

Sheffy's Chatter

Former AFS student 'Zito' is visitor in Dimmitt

By MYRTLE SHEFFY

Jose Sartarelli or "Zito" was a weekend guest of the Lonnie Bells. Zito was Dimmitt's AFS student in 1967-68. He is currently at Michigan State University in Lansing, Mich., and will receive his PHD in marketing sometime this winter.

Gary Moore and wife Paula are home from a summer trip. First to Miami, Fla., where they attended the wedding of Paula's brother and his graduation from medical college.

After that Gary goes to Fort Hood for two weeks. He says "to learn to defend his country" really with the Texas National Guard for the annual training. Paula went on to Pensacola, Fla., to visit her parents, then a stop in San Antonio to visit her grandmother Maria Hubbard, who came to Dimmitt for a visit with the Moores.

B. M. and Viola Nelson and Don and Verbie Nelson and daughter Connie and son Nathan attended the Texas Press Association Convention held at the Hilton Inn in Amarillo last week. Newspaper people from over the state came. Much entertainment was arranged for them, a play in the city, then five bus loads went to Palo Duro Canyon to see the pageant "Texas," and for the barbecue supper. The canyon is an interesting place to go.

Brad and Juanita Fulfer are home from a few months stay at their place at Lake Texhoma. They raise a garden and catch many fish. Wynema Adams and children Steven and Tamera have been visiting them there at the lake and gave me pictures of some big catfish the children caught. The big fish were strippers, one weighed 20 1/2 pounds, one 15 1/4 pounds, some six and nine pounds.

The Bennights were there. Their place is several miles away and Claudine and Troy Langford were fishing there. Also there were Billie and Leon Gunn.

Candy Sweet, a ten-year-old, who lives in Amarillo has been visiting her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Blackie Lankford, who run the Colonial Inn Motel. They all were going to Raton, N.M. to see the horses run and to find some cool air, maybe on to the mountains.

Vera Webb and Juanita Blaine of Plainview, daughter-in-law Peggy Webb and her girls, A'llan Bradley and Kristi Edwards of Lubbock and their children met with the sisters and other nieces for a "gal talk visit" in the home of a niece at Snyder.

Ben and Wanda Derrick and I (Myrtle) went to the Hereford First Baptist Church Saturday afternoon to attend the pretty wedding of John Nino and Janie Limas. All the Ninos and friends were there. There were 10 attendants, both girls and men. After the ceremony they formed an arch going down the aisle for the newlyweds to go through, pretty and different. The girls were dressed in pretty long dresses and the boys in black suits.

I met Richard Rejino of Bovina, a student at WTSU. He is a music major and was pianist. A handsome fellow too. And his friend I met was Miss Irma Salinas who lives in Amarillo. Her sister Margaret Vaquera teaches in our Middle School. Irma reads our Dimmitt paper. That is nice. And we talked with Mike Jr. and his wife Linda and baby. They live at Dumas and they are with the Swift Packing Co. Mike Jr. got his BA from WTSU with high grades. You can see I had a good time.

Richard and Linda Perry came by here from their honeymoon trip to the mountains. They visited parents Fred and Helen Kuntz and brother. They went on to their home in hot, hot El Paso, 111 degrees outside Saturday. Maybe it is cool by now.

Dee and Nona Umberson of Alamogordo, N.M. came over last weekend to attend the wedding of Nona's niece in Plainview, then up here to visit his mother Alma. Dee and Nona bought some land going up that hill west of their city and are building a rock house using the stones from that mountain. When we go there let's go by and see it. He is with that big government plant in the White Sands.

Yvonne Fry has gone back to her home in Port Neches after a stay here with her mother Lottie Bearden, who has been recuperating from eye surgery.

Sylvia Moore has had several grandchildren visiting while the parents find a place to live in Lubbock and Sunday dinner guests of Sylvia were Orby Wayne and Gay Moore, Harold and Delha Moore of Lubbock, also Richard and Della Moore and family of here. They all went to the lake boating and water skiing. I forgot to ask what lake.

Jodie Riley and Gerald Myers went to basketball camp in Lubbock this week. They attend school at Springlake-Earth.

Jean DuLaney was hostess at a sack lunch picnic style under the backyard trees. A few games of bridge was played later. Guests were Roxie McLean, Jackie Byrnes, Carlee Warren, Sue Kemp, Martha Dannevik, Cindy McDaniel, Martha Isaacs and little grandson P. J. Head from the farm west of Hereford stayed with Jean and Bob for 10 days while his folks went places.

Dora Mooney was the birthday lady Saturday. And the folks at South Hills Manor all sang to her. They have games such as dominoes, 42 and bingo and Dora says guess what game she and three friends play, no chess, but recon poker? Surely not! And Mr. T. D. Dyer had a birthday and Minnie McClure went to Sudan to attend the 88th birthday party for her brother F. O. Masten, a well-known rancher.

Babe Scoggin came home from Midland where she visited her son Larry and Sue and girls Lisa and Jennifer. She says a long hot ride in the car Wednesday. Vern and Millie Lusty moved to town last Wednesday to 705 Maple. They have lived on that homeplace for many years at Bethel.

Woodrow and Alyce Killingsworth have been at their place in Angel Fire all week. Maybe it is cool there. And their son Jerry and Meri and babies have bought and moved into the Robert McLean house at 1012 Oak.

Jim and Becky Killingsworth have been to California the past 10 days. Made a visit with Becky's sister, then a tour of the interesting places to see.

Ewell and Nell Kelly and daughters Cindy and Kristi and Nell's brother Joe and Barbara Cunyus and son Jackie Don of Lockney had a fun trip last week, first to Possum Kingdom Lake. Nell caught one fish and he got away. Then on to Six Flags and I chatted with Kristi who was excited about her ride on the "Shock Wave." She says you can see it on TV. Then she rode the log ride with daddy again with Jackie. Oh yes, Tonya Hampton was Cindy's guest on the trip.

Laura Harkins, a teacher, is home recuperating from recent surgery in an Amarillo hospital. And Sal DiCuffa is getting well at Plains Memorial Hospital following a recent heart attack.

And Pearl Sheffy is in the hospital, not well at all. She is the mother of Sue Merritt and Ray Jr., also my in-law.

Our sympathy goes to Esther McRee and Mac and family and all the Weems for the death of their mother Mrs. Weems, who was in her 90s. Her memorial service as in an Altus chapel. She has been living at South Hills Manor. Mr. and Mrs. Weems filed on land as young marrieds in Oklahoma. It was Indian Territory. That was the same time my grandparents the J. L. Knoxes and my dad at 21 years came there. This was 10 miles east of Eldorado and southwest of Olustee.

Jan Querze of Woodward, Okla., has been visiting friends in Dimmitt the past week. She is staying in the home of Mrs. O. K. Howe and will visit the E. R. Sadlers at Sunnyside. Several bridge games have been played with Jan and these girls, Genevieve Howe, Deanne Clark, Bessie Elder, Stephanie Love, Virginia Gilbreath, Jeannie Miller, Faun Welker and Lois Ramer. Lewis and Jan are moving soon to Las Vegas, Nev. and Saturday Faun, Mrs. Howe and Jan went to Clovis to attend the bridal shower for Jerri Sue Howard, granddaughter of the E. C.

The families of Jack Summers and Mrs. Rachel got together at the City Assembly Room Sunday for dinner and talk. Jack's nephew Alvie Redden, a teacher at Grand Junction came as did Mr. and Mrs. Bob Karlin, a niece from Kirkland, N.M., Trellis and Dorothy Summers, Ola and Jack Gladman of Amarillo, Eloise and Harley Dodd, Mel- [See CHATTER, Page 9]

Continental looks at a ceiling, not a floor.

Contrary to what many people believe, Continental Telephone is not guaranteed a profit just because it is a regulated, public-utility company that has no competition in its franchise area.

The government agencies that regulate Continental's activities set a maximum allowable rate of return—a ceiling, not a floor. Our actual rate of return in any year may be much lower than the maximum allowed. It can be less, but it can never be more.

Unlike other businesses, we are not allowed to automatically raise our prices if our costs increase and our profits decrease. We can increase our rates only if the government agencies decide the rate hike is justified.

Our profits depend on how well we manage our business, how well we control our operating costs, and the volume of our sales.

Earnings are necessary for us to pay stockholders a fair return on their investment and to attract new investors. Their money allows us to replace outdated equipment with new and efficient equipment, expand our service to new customers, and provide the kind of maintenance that adds up to reliable service.

A PLACE TO PRAY

Man can, and should, pray anywhere. God has placed no limitations on his communing with him.

Our Lord has said, "... Ask and ye shall receive." God listens when we seek him, no matter where, however he desires that we gather together in prayer too. "... mine house shall be called an house of prayer for all people."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Rules for use of library room decided

The Library Board of Rhoads Memorial Library met Thursday to decide on newer regulations for the Merritt Room, the meeting room at the library.

After some inquiries about who could use the room, the board had several meetings to determine needed regulations.

"Those interested in using the Merritt room for regular meetings and other occasions should see the librarian. New regulations have brought about the new Meeting Use Form which all who use the meeting room need to fill out," Librarian Brick Autry said.

The regulations are typed out and will be given each organization using the room. At the end of the year the board will decide if the regulations need to be changed. Comments are welcome, Autry said.

Although the room will be open for public use it is not intended for social activities such as teas, showers, receptions and family get-togethers, board members decided.

A continuing concern among our government leaders is the prospect of higher oil prices. The only factor holding off a wellhead tax on oil produced in this country is the present oil glut. The surplus of oil comes about from new and increased production of oil from Mexico, the North Slope and the North Sea.

This causes a problem for the OPEC countries, the primary source of crude oil. Saudi Arabia, the largest producer of oil and a staunch friend of the U.S. has been a strong influence both against a price increase and for continued payment in U.S. dollars.

Iraq, Kuwait and the United Arab Emirates have been pushing for a price increase to offset world inflation and have also been insisting on another form of payment other than U.S. dollars. Any switch from dollars to another currency or combination of currencies would collapse the U.S. dollar overseas.

Saudi Arabia can hold off a price increase by the OPEC countries by pointing out the huge surplus of world oil which could now extend into the 1980's. But it will be more difficult to prevent the OPEC countries from insisting on some other form of payment for oil.

Oil is the largest single commodity in world trade. Saudi Arabia has over 80% of its foreign reserves and assets, around $65 billion, in dollars. Any substitute of another country for the payment of oil would cause a severe decline in the value of those assets.

Water management

'Response function' is important factor

By BILL DANNEVIK

"Knowledge of water response functions is an important set of the information needed in either private or public decision on optimal water programs" is the first statement in a new book entitled "Water Production Function for Irrigated Agriculture", published by the Iowa State University Press.

The book also points out that seldom have these yield response functions been known before large irrigation areas have been developed. It seems like I've heard a story about a barn door. . . . The High Plains is no exception. The barn door was left open and some of the horses are out.

given time. Some wells that initially pumped 700 to 800 gallons per minute for a period of six to eight weeks or longer are now yielding this amount of water for only two to three weeks.

A third major change that is effecting our Water programs is the cost of delivering water from the aquifer to the crop. Fuel costs are compounded by the reduction in yields from some of the wells, making the pump designs improper and therefore inefficient.

You know, Dad always made me close the barn door anyway and go gather up the horses.

Current moisture conditions for corn and sugar beets are entering a critical stage. Tensiometers on crops that haven't been stressed by hail or other problems are developing about four centibars vacuum per day. The acceptable range from 33 centibars (field capacity) to 50 centibars (a point considered by most authorities as time to irrigate) is 17 centibars. This means crops on light soil will need water about every four days.

The heavier Pullman and Olton soils will hold more water against the pull of gravity or below field capacity and tensiometers will read around 10 to 15 centibars for a few days after irrigating, allowing ten days or so between irrigations during this critical period of high temperatures and rapid crop growth.

Corn is now developing the ear size and moisture stress will limit the length and the number of rows of kernels on the cob. Sugar beets are developing roots into the second foot and should not be allowed to stress for moisture at this early stage of growth.

Fortunately, the law of supply and demand is at work. It forestalls any action by the OPEC countries which would work to the detriment of the U.S. But time, now on our side, may be running out. A couple of years is one thing. Twenty years is another.

Frances Bryson is at workshop for teachers

Frances J. Bryson of 603 N.W. 5th, Dimmitt, is among public school teachers and administrators from across the state attending a summer workshop on the American economic system at Texas A&M University.

The seminar, sponsored by Texas A&M's center for education and research in free enterprise, is hosting the Springlake-Earth High School teacher and some 50 other participants from Texas school districts.

Texas A&M's center for education and research in free enterprise is designed to shape a set of education and research programs with the objective of raising economic literacy in America. The one-year old center is self-supporting and privately funded with contributions totaling more than $1 million.

The center is currently engaged in a $10 million endowment program.

Added to this situation, as in the rest of our society, are the major changes that have effected water use since irrigation first started.

We have changed grain crops from wheat to sorghum to corn. All have different response functions to irrigation water.

Another is the quality of water that is available in a

Farmers need to certify crop acreage

All Castro county farmers are asked to certify their 1978 planted acreage, set-aside, diversion and other program acreages with the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) Office, Melvin Barton, chairman of the county ASC committee, said.

"Certification is the procedure by which farmers report their 1978 program acreages as accurately as possible to insure their eligibility for receiving benefits of price support and disaster, deficiency, diversion, or grazing and haying payments," Barton said.

In Castro county, the final certification dates for cotton, corn, grain sorghum, set-aside and other NCA crops is August 1.

Crops are to be reported on a field by field basis, irrigated crops separated from dry, solid acres separated from skip-row.

"Accuracy is a must," Barton said. If you have any questions at certification time or we may be able to help you in any way, please check with us, because there will be a payment reduction for failure to certify correctly."

Barton added that growers not participating in the set-aside programs should report their acreages to insure the opportunity to fully participate in future programs.

After certification the ASCS county office will select farms at random for visits and acreage measurement.

Lake Meredith park areas are improved

A cooperative agreement between the National Park Service and the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department is helping to improve the habitat around Lake Meredith in the Texas Panhandle.

Eight projects are being completed by members of the park service and the Young Adult Conservation Corps (YACC) at sites on park land around the lake.

"We have 110 members of the YACC presently repairing recreational facilities, landscaping, fencing native areas and planting trees and shrubs with technical assistance from the P&WD extension biologist Richard DeArment," said Ted Bedwell, camp director.

More than 11,000 plants including Russian olive, honeysuckle bush, buffalo berry and June berry are being placed in areas either devoid of natural wildlife food and cover or areas which show promise as ideal habitat for deer, turkey, quail or other non-game species.

The YACC program initiated by the U. S. Interior Department is furnishing conservation projects for young people unfamiliar with outdoor jobs dealing with wildlife and habitat conservation.

Fourth Of July Celebrations

By Betty W. Stoffel

Let there be prayers as well as great parades,
 Let hymns combine with patriotic songs,
 Let there be leaders of the future days,
 With heroes of the past amid the throngs,
 Let reverent silence punctuate the noise,
 Let God be praised for this great land of ours,
 Let sober meditation balance joys
 And grave humility mark crucial hours.

Let statesmanship grow from this nation's need,
 Let citizenship be equal to these days,
 That godly men who gave their lives indeed
 Be not betrayed by dull, indifferent ways,
 Let joyfulness, not wildness, mark the free,
 That God may find us worth our liberty!

Action at the local level proved to be very effective, the film said, and added that when businesses used their voices together to push for favorable legislation for themselves, they would be heard by their congress members. Dimmitt's Chamber manager Shirley Hall provided the film for the program.

Dobbs on WBC honor listing

Dusty Dobbs, a Wayland Baptist College junior, has been placed on the Dean's Honor Roll for the 1978 spring semester with a grade point of 3.80. This past year, he was resident assistant at McDonald Hall.

Five Dimmitt students get Tech degrees

Five students from Dimmitt were among those in Texas Tech who received bachelor of science degrees in the university's spring commencement exercises at Lubbock recently. Flo Lust, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Houston Lust, was awarded the degree in home economics, and Melony B. Dowell, daughter of the Brice Dowells, in accounting. Dean Smithson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rayphard Smithson, and Stanley D. Harris, son of Mrs. P.L. Hoyer, both received degrees in agricultural engineering. Steven D. Smith's degree was in petroleum engineering; he is the son of the Ralph Smiths.

Harold Love on honor roll

Harold Love, son of Mr. and Mrs. Barry Love of Dimmitt, was named to the Dean's Honor List at Texas Tech for the 1978 Spring semester. A junior majoring in political science and business at Tech, Love is a 1975 graduate of Dimmitt High School. To qualify for the Dean's List a student must carry 12 or more hours and make a 3 point or more grade average on a 4 point scale.

View from the Library

By BRICK AUTRY

Before the summer gets too far along, I want to introduce our summer staff members. We have three ladies from Manpower CETA program and two members of the Green Thumb program. Now I don't know why they call it the Green Thumb program. Because I certainly have not seen any green thumbs. They came into the library and asked our members, Louie Allen and Myrtle Behrends, to wear green smock looking things. These were to make up for no green thumbs.

However, the smocks were so livid looking that I could just not abide working with them eight hours a day, so I told Louie and Myrtle just to fake it. Forget about the kelly green smocks.

Just so you'll know that Louie and Myrtle are Green Thumb program members, I'm writing this so they won't have to wear their little green smocks. Besides, who has anything to wear with a Kelly green smock anyway?

The three ladies on the Manpower program are not all new. Again we have Ninfa Quintero, who at last writing was doing the over-dues. Well, folks, she's still doing the over-dues.

The lady who works at the desk is Alice Quajardo. She's not new either. She worked on the program during the winter after school. Alice adds charm to this library.

However, word of warning: she has a very suspicious boy friend who is rather large. So, if you don't want to fool around with him, you don't fool around with Alice. Alice's favorite hobbies are her boy friend, chewing gum (grape gum) and washing dishes.

Christy Holland is the new member of our summer staff. She is trying very hard. She even cleaned the kitchenette this morning. Although willing to do anything, Christy has had to take one of the least interesting jobs, which is trying to figure out which end of the toilet paper dispenser goes in first.

So, as you can see we have a fine staff this summer.
