MAVS READY TO PLAY AT GRAHAM SITE

For the second time in as many years the Eastland Mavericks will meet a non-conference team at Graham site this Friday night. The team is reputed to have the edge over them.
The game will be called shortly after 8 o'clock, it was stated. The engagement marks the second of the Mavericks this season. Eastland team having been defeated 52 to 19 last week at Oklawaha.

With many faults having been pointed out last week, the team is expected to show great improvement. Many defects in the performance last week have been pointed out, it was stated.
The question of reserves is still a matter of major importance for the Mavericks this season. The entire team numbers 19.
While the Graham engagement is being held, perhaps the best held for the team at Graham site is the week of the Mavericks against the Ranger Bulldogs at Oklawaha.

Drivers' Licenses Protecting Children

AUSTIN—Texas' amended driver's license law has brought about additional safety in the transportation of school children, state officials said today.
Regulations adopted by safety officials for the examination of school bus operators have required more thorough tests than for other type of driver. School drivers must have an A or B license with a special endorsement for the safety department.
The tests include questions on laws of the road, handling of passengers, vision tests and the operation of buses under the supervision of state examiners.
Although the school bus law does not include such strict requirements, state police have implemented additional regulations in promotion of safety. One of the regulations is for drivers to get out from their buses and conduct other traffic before the passengers are discharged. The safety department condemns school buses not constructed of steel and requires fire extinguishing equipment. The bus itself must be mechanically perfect before a driver's license is issued.
"We are attempting to afford every type of protection to the thousands of school children riding buses," said Chief Ralph Hagan, head of the driver's license bureau. "School bus drivers must be mentally and physically capable before their applications for licenses are considered."
At Wichita Falls recently, he stated out, Captain M. L. Berry, commander of the highway patrol district, held a five-hour safety caucus with 200 school bus drivers of Northwest Texas. Other conferences are planned by safety officials.

Benes Forms a New Cabinet for Czechs

PRAGUE, Sept. 22.—President Benes tonight announced formation of a new government and appealed to the nation to avoid dissensions that might give a foreign power reason to intervene.
The new cabinet was formed after "foreign" influence forced Benes to abandon his plan to name Gen. Jan Syroby, leader of the Czech army in Russia during the world war, as premier and to select instead Jan Cerny, governor of Moravia. Cerny concentrated on a broad coalition with army support.
The conference at the Dreesen Hotel here lasted more than two and a half hours.
Authoritative British quarters believed the zero hour was approaching. It was felt that if Hitler rejected the British-French plan he might order the Germans to march.
Thereafter the decision would rest entirely with France whether to aid the Czechs if the nazis penetrated beyond Sudeten land. Informed sources held that if France finally decided to aid the Czechs, Britain would be forced to do likewise.
PRAGUE, Czech, Sept. 22.—President Benes announced today that a new cabinet had been formed to succeed that of Premier Milan Hodza, which resigned as a result of the Sudeten crisis.

Herrington Home Is Destroyed by Fire

WASINGTON, Sept. 22.—P. W. A. Administrator Harold Ickes said today no funds are available for a proposed $28,000,000 power plant project on the Brazos River in Texas.
"I think before there is any more money for the Brazos River there should be a clarification of policy and how they will handle the power," he said.

HURRICANE TOLL IN NEW ENGLAND GROWS TO NEAR 300 VICTIMS

More than 300 persons died in the hurricane and tidal waves which lashed Northeast United States, a survey revealed late today.
Restored communications in storm-lashed New England disclosed today a major disaster resulting from yesterday's unprecedented hurricane and tidal wave.
By mid-afternoon the number of known dead in New England was 261. Another 35 were added in New York, New Jersey and Quebec, making a total of 296.
With floodwaters rising toward record-breaking heights in the Connecticut river valley in three populous states, authorities feared the death toll would be even higher.
The death totals by states: Rhode Island, 138; Massachusetts, 72; Connecticut, 42; New Hampshire, 9; New York, 32; New Jersey, 1; Quebec, 2.
The full horror of the storm as it swept over Long Island and New England became apparent after telephone communication was restored between Boston and Rhode Island.
Huge tides piled up by the 100-mile-an-hour hurricane accounted for most of the destruction. Walls of water descended on Providence and other coast towns and roiled inland as far as one-fifth of a mile.
In addition to the known dead, hundreds were missing, thousands were homeless and other hundreds were injured. Property damage estimates rose to $150,000,000.
Whole communities were devastated and many remained cut off from the outside world.
The American Red Cross and volunteer groups rushed to the work of rescue and relief. President Roosevelt ordered the coast guard, the CCC, the national guard and other federal agencies to aid.
Hardly a community in Long Island, Connecticut, Rhode Island, and Massachusetts, escaped the storm, which appeared to gain intensity as it sped northward.
Federal weather experts in Washington were surprised by reports from the storm regions.

WEST HAMPTON, N. Y., Sept. 22.—Coast guardsmen and state police counted a mounting toll of dead and missing today in this Long Island summer colony.
Estimates of the missing, which had ranged from 25 to 60, dropped when it was learned that 25 children attending a party in a home owned by Norvin Greene, were safe. They first were believed to have been swept away.
By noon 16 bodies had been recovered along the beach.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—WPA Administrator Harry Hopkins announced from Los Angeles today he is flying east immediately to take personal charge of rehabilitation work in hurricane disaster zones.

PARTITION AROUSING PEOPLE IN SEVERAL EUROPEAN COUNTRIES

GOESBERG, Germany, Sept. 22.—Prime Minister Chamberlain and Adolf Hitler discussed details of partition of Czechoslovakia today while the Sudeten German Free Corps army and German police awaited the order to march in and take over the Sudeten area.
Informed Germans said that Hitler would insist that an early hour, perhaps tomorrow, must be set for movement into Sudeten lands.
The conference at the Dreesen Hotel here lasted more than two and a half hours.
Authoritative British quarters believed the zero hour was approaching. It was felt that if Hitler rejected the British-French plan he might order the Germans to march.
Thereafter the decision would rest entirely with France whether to aid the Czechs if the nazis penetrated beyond Sudeten land. Informed sources held that if France finally decided to aid the Czechs, Britain would be forced to do likewise.
PARIS, Sept. 22.—Three members of Premier Daladier's cabinet put their resignations in his hands today, in protest over the partition of Czechoslovakia, but acceptance of the resignation was delayed.
Letters of resignation were left with Daladier by George Mandel, minister of colonies; Paul Reynaud, justice; and Auguste Champetier de Ribes, pensions.
The ministers conferred with the premier after they and several other cabinet ministers, reluctant to accept the Czech deal, had discussed advisability of resigning.

Watches Man of the Hour in Street

The man is Neville Chamberlain, who has made two journeys to confer with Adolf Hitler in Germany. These visits were not easy for Chamberlain; it is not customary for Great Britain's prime minister to go seeking peace. But these are worried times . . . and the strain of trying to halt war, no matter what the cost in prestige, plainly shows on Chamberlain in this picture showing him walking with his wife in St. James park in London while the European crisis was at white heat.

AUSTIN, Sept. 22.—Investigation of a power marketing fight between private and public utilities today took on almost a statewide scope.

Rail labor leaders predicted that their 900,000 members would vote to strike by an overwhelming majority and said the date for the walkout would be fixed Monday in Chicago.
Both groups admitted it would be impossible to agree on a legislative program to rehabilitate the railroads until the dispute over the wage cut is settled.

Gasoline Company Safety Meeting Held In Ranger

With plant No. 108-2 in charge and Harold Getts acting as chairman, about 65 employees of the Ranger district of the Lone Star Gasoline company held their regular monthly safety meeting Wednesday night in the Ranger office yard.
Joe Patterson, musical director of the Colony high school, presented several members of the Colony Choral club. Miss Yvonne Ivey rendered two musical numbers on the piano, and Miss Norma Crabb, Yvonne Ivey and Norma Hadley gave two songs, with Miss Allene Fitzgerald at the piano.
Harry Henry gave a talk on the "Winter Operation of Our Cars" and stressed the importance of everyone assuming the responsibility of the operation of his car and to see that the car is properly protected from cold weather. Winter driving is the most hazardous of any time of the year, and the work of Lone Star employees is most important at this time, so extra precautions must be taken to see that the cars are in good operating condition and able to go in all kinds of weather.
Guy T. Smith, superintendent of the Colony high school, had the subject, "Safety in the Schools," and brought out the work that the schools are doing to impress safety habits on children while they are in the habit-forming ages. He also gave a brief sketch of the legislative acts of other states requiring certain courses along safety lines and how Texas is a little behind the other states in this respect. The rural schools are responsible for the transportation of the children to and from school as well as while they are at school, and requires the constant supervision of the entire school staff and how well they are assuming this responsibility is shown by the fact only one-eighth of the accidents occurring to children of school age occur at the schools or on the way to and from school.
John W. Ivey of plant No. 108-2 gave a talk on "Preparing for Winter," and stressed the point that now is the time to eliminate the water pockets in the lines in the fields and plants, to repair the insulation on the regulator and traps, to prepare the coils so that some of them could be cut out of service and drained in severe cold weather, to put the drips in good condition and to install new ones where needed, to prepare the roads in the fields so that the drip trucks will be able to make all the drips in the worst weather, and to prepare walkways so there will be no danger of accident in icy weather.

Judging from current newspaper and magazine articles, the time has come when America expects every Englishman to do his duty.

Fascism is on the march, and nothing but the threat of force will stop it. If that threat is to be effective, England has got to make it. Few Americans have any use for Fascism. So—Q. E. D.—most Americans are expecting England to speak up, and are inclined to be pretty impatient with Premier Chamberlain for waiting so long.

All of this would be very well if America were prepared to pick up a gun and stand by the Briton's side when the showdown comes. But it isn't. If one thing is certain in a highly uncertain world, it is that this country will make every possible effort to stay out of any war that may break out overseas.

That being the case, it might be a very sound idea for us to say a little bit less about England's moral duty in regard to the checking of the dictators.

After all, there are more ignoble aims than the desire to preserve the peace. And when all that there is to say about Mr. Chamberlain's alleged inner sympathy with the Fascists has been said, the fact remains that the man has been making a desperate effort to keep his country out of war.

Maybe he has been making his effort in the wrong way. Maybe the risks of his policy are greater than the risks of a forthright, daring, and clear-cut policy of defiance to all aggressors. Maybe in the long run England will have to fight anyway, and will only make the fight tougher by postponing the evil day.

But it is hardly becoming for Americans to be too vocal about all of this.

The last war isn't so far away but what the English can remember it pretty clearly. A whole generation of young men was destroyed. The monument which commemorates the Somme drive bears a plaque in honor of some 60,000 unknown dead—not total casualties, just men who vanished without a trace during the course of the battle. The war wrecked England's economy and left the empire with problems that will be generations in the solving.

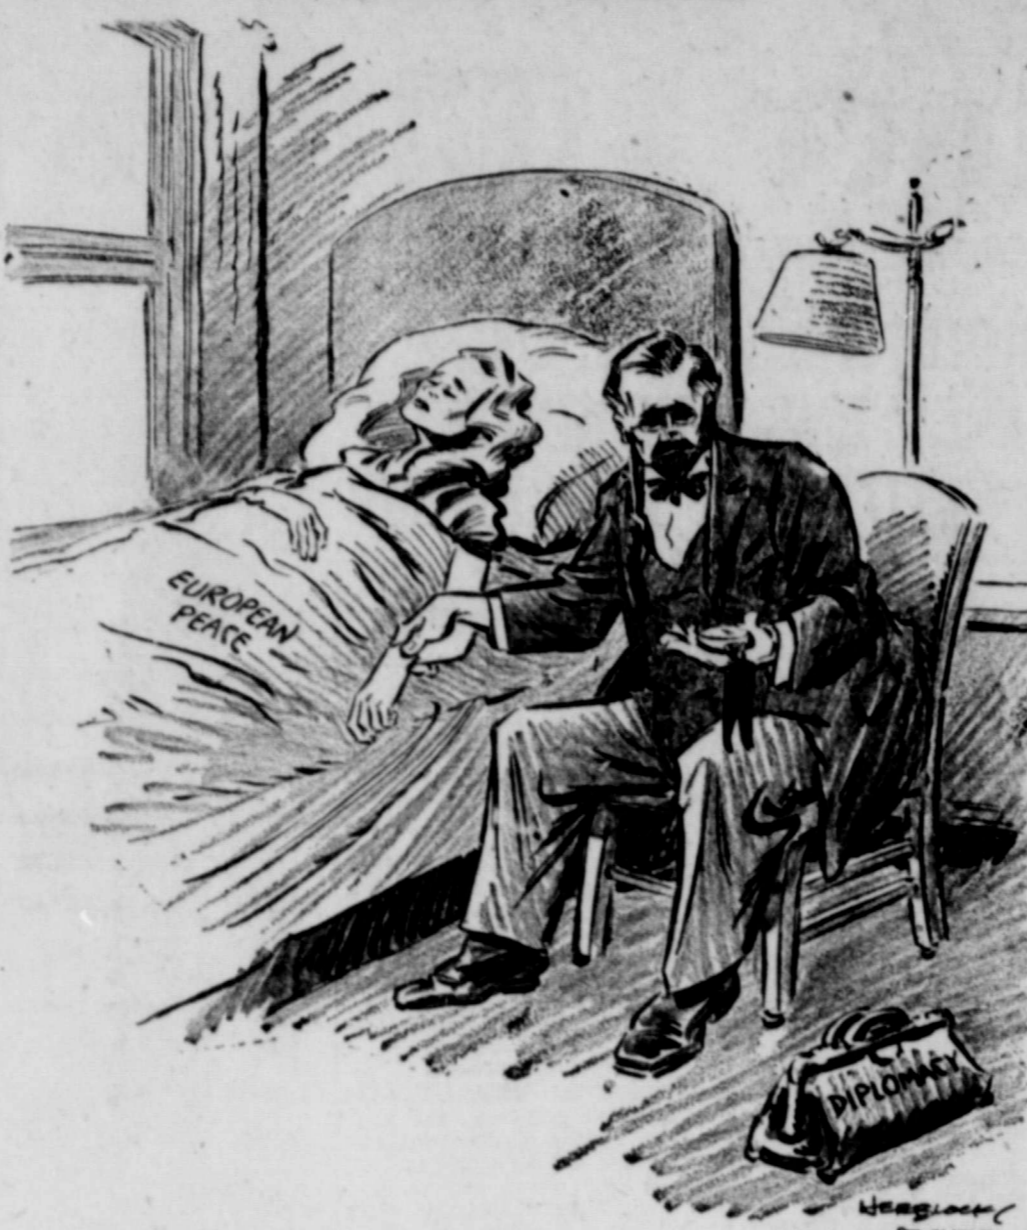

In view of all of this, the English are hardly to be blamed if they choose to move cautiously in the European powder mine. And since we ourselves are determined—and very properly so—to stay at peace no matter what happens in England, we have small reason to be impatient about English caution.

If we think that stopping Fascism is worth a war, we have the privilege of getting out on the firing line and doing our part. Since we don't have the slightest intention of doing that, it would be just as well for us to stop talking about the policy of a nation which is right under the gun.

CONDITION CRITICAL

WASHINGTON LETTER

BY JEDNEY DUTCHER
WASH. Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON.—President Roosevelt is likely to keep out of the 1940 presidential campaign if the Democratic party picks a conservative candidate unsatisfactory to him.

THE fact that W. Lee O'Daniel, the "biscuit-passing pappy" who campaigned with a hill-billy band, is to be next governor of Texas is now being accepted with equanimity by all sides.

Anti-New Dealers are beginning to describe O'Daniel as "conservative and sound." He proved that, they say, by making $500,000 in the flour business and applying the same technique to politics.

GEORGIA girls make valuable political advisers as well as good wives, say Washington correspondents who have been covering southern primary campaigns.

Gov. Olin Johnston of South Carolina married Gladys Atkinson of Atlanta. She managed his successful gubernatorial campaign. Then two babies were born in the executive mansion. Busy Mrs. Johnston wasn't active in the recent senatorial campaign. The governor was licked by Senator "Cotton Ed" Smith.

SPORT GLANCES ——— By Grayson

BY HARRY GRAYSON
Sports Editor, NEA Service
PITTSBURGH — Some changes have been made at Oakmont for the National Amateur, Sept. 12-17, but for the championship golfer, Fownes' Folly remains the stiffest going test inland on any continent.

The course has been made easier for the 85 to 110 shooters, in which category most of Oakmont's and the members of any other club are listed. But Oakmont remains 7000 yards of rolling, trap-dotted terrain. It's greens are lightning fast.

Oakmont is no drive and pitch layout. The 1938 champion must have command of long second shots — particularly the spoon and the Nos. 2 and 3 irons. Par 3 holes have unusual length. Two of them coil for wood clouts off the tee.

Oakmont symbolizes the American theory of penal golf architecture as contrasted with St. Andrews of Scotland, which represents the strategic principle in bunkering.

As for the winner of the 42nd National Amateur, J. Wood Platt fancies a straight hitter with a sensitive putting touch. Johnny Fischer, the former University of Michigan star of Cincinnati who came down in front in 1936, fills the order. Platt has an idea that the personable Fischer should be the young man to beat in Pittsburgh.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—
Without Colic—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning!

The liver should pour out two pounds of bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food does not digest, it just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks pink.

ed their home and a filling station which Mr. Scott operated. His health failed to the extent he was unable to take care of it longer. He met Mr. Nelson, who formerly lived here and was employed by Swift & Co. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson purchased the place on the country club road once owned by E. C. Shipp and wife, and resided here for several years. On account of the convenience of the Scott place to Mr. Nelson's work, and the ultimate here, the families decided to trade places. The deal has proven satisfactory to both parties and the Scotts have regained their health.

Before his illness Mr. Scott had enjoyed a very interesting career in detective work. He was chief of detectives in Amarillo for four years, and at one time was a detective in New York City. In 1924 he did detective work in San Francisco.

PEEPING THRU THE KNOTHOLE

By Bill Maves

J. C. WILKERSON, Jr., associate editor of the Comanche Chief, states in a letter dated Sept. 20, that the Indians, who will play the Bulldogs at Comanche Friday night, have a very light team, "averaging about 155 pounds," but adds, "but we have three outstanding backs in Pate, Carnes and Cox."

And then, just to prove his point, he casually remarks that "Pate, Indian halfback, turned in an 85-yard run against Stephenville last week." At first we read that Pate had gained 85 yards, and didn't notice that it was a non-stop affair.

But, unless the bookkeeping department is in error, the team averages slightly more than 155 pounds, with the line averaging 158 and the backfield the same figure. However, W. T. Watton has word from another source, which gives the starting lineup and the weights are different. In the backfield one man weighs five pounds more than the lineup gives us, two weigh five pounds less and one 10 pounds less, making the latter a mere shadow of the 190-pounder we have listed, and weighing but 180.

HASTE makes waste, and sometimes humor. In writing of the Stephenville team, someone wrote that Stephenville didn't mean to write "player," of course.

THE COMANCHE starters will probably be:
Co-Capt. McMillan, RE, 143.
Co-Capt. Guthrie, RT, 170.
Fletcher, RG, 160.
Coker, C, 148.
N. Robertson, LG, 170.
B. Robertson, LT, 160.
Palmer, LE, 160.
Gore, Q, 135.
Pate, Half, 155.
Carnes, Half, 155.
Cox, Full, 190.

ONE OF OUR SCOUTS reports that Weatherford Junior College football numbers all have three digits, beginning with 400. The numbers are 885, 886, etc. That is about as bad as the Eastland system of a few years back, with their double letters, AA, BB, etc. But that is something few of us here will have to worry about, because we don't have to see Weatherford play unless we want to.

Which is reminding of the story about the two negro football teams that called signals from scrimmage instead of going into a huddle. On one team the quarterback would bark, "One million, nine hundred twenty-six thousand, five hundred and fifty-six; ten million, six hundred thirty-nine thousand, four hundred twenty-two," while on the other team a different system was used and the quarterback could be heard clear up in the stands, if any, yelling his signals, "Mississippi, Tennessee, South Carolina, Hike!" Confusing, probably, even to their own team-mates.

ditto, in Houston, who is associated with the Vinson, Elkins, Weems Francis law firm. Mrs. Gregg has received word from her son, Lewis, that he is now connected with Best and Company in New York City, which is an advancement over his former position with Saks and Company.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Poe and daughter, Lucille, of Rising Star, were among those attending the funeral of R. D. Cooper Tuesday. Mr. A. N. Searly of Rising Star and Mr. Gilford Gray of Gorman also attended. Messrs. Poe, Gray and Searly served as commissioners at the time V. V. Cooper, Sr., brother of the deceased, served 10 years as Eastland county commissioner. Mr. Poe served eight years. Mr. Searly two and Mr. Gray four. Clyde Garrett, who was county judge at that time and is now congressman from the 17th congressional district, was another friend who attended.

Miss Mary Allen Lanier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Lanier, 910 Sinclair, was unable to attend school yesterday and today on account of suffering from a cold.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Barant have been unable to get away from home the past week due to colds.

Preston Head, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Jim Head, and sister, Mrs. Bill Head, made a trip to Gorman, where he received radical treatment for an ear affection.

Common Sense About Constipation

A doctor would tell you that the best thing to do with any ailment is to get at its cause. If you are constipated, don't fiddle with make-shift remedies. Find out what's giving you the trouble!

Chances are you won't have to look very far if you eat just the things most people do. Most likely you don't get enough "bulk" and "bulk" doesn't mean just a lot of food. It means a kind of food that isn't consumed in the body, but leaves a soft "bulky" mass in the intestines and helps a bowel movement.

If this is what you lack, your ticket is crisp crunchy Kellogg's All-Bran for breakfast. It contains the "bulk" you need plus the intestinal tonic, vitamin B, and it's not a drug, not a medicine!

Get All-Bran every day, drink plenty of water, and join the "regulars" made by Kellogg's in Battle Creek. Sold by every grocer.
