2,500 HEAR SAM RUSSELL AT ALBANY

Address Is Interrupted by Noise from Garrett's Motorcade—Refers to Opponent's Paper As Slander Sheet.

ALBANY, Aug. 23.—The largest political gathering since W. Lee O'Daniel spoke here in 1938 during his first successful campaign for governor, last night heard Judge Sam Russell of Stephenville present his candidacy for congress.

The crowd, composed of people from Shackelford and surrounding counties, was estimated at from 2,500 to 3,000. Russell spoke on the broad lawn surrounding the beautiful old stone courthouse in the cupola of which ticks one of the few remaining old style clocks in Texas. Briefly he presented his appeal to the voters of the 17 district. He advocated a constructive preparedness program for which he declared he had been preaching for 20 years; pensions for the aged which he referred to as "Old Age Justice," and economy in government.

The Stephenville candidate also outlined his 21 years of service as county attorney, district attorney and as district judge, citing some of the hardships encountered in getting an education and preparing himself, by studying law and government in the army camps while serving in the army.

"By education, training and experience, I feel that I am qualified to best serve you as your congressman," the speaker said. He urged his listeners to inquire of his homefolks concerning his ability, qualifications and moral standing.

In the audience was a Mr. Williamson of Throckmorton county, whom Russell introduced as the man with whom he boarded while cutting cord wood to get money with which to attend school.

Hal Collins of Mineral Wells introduced Russell as a high type gentleman, well qualified for the position he is seeking and as a man who is not and will not engage in a mud-slinging campaign. "From somewhere Mr. Russell's opponent has uncovered a slush fund which has been used to get out a newspaper containing many untruths," Collins said. He mentioned especially an article carried in the paper under the heading "One Man's Opinion," adding "He should not have done that."

Judge Russell's speech was interrupted several minutes while a motorcade of boosters for his opponent Congressman Clyde L. Garrett rolled through town, making their presence known by blasts from numerous auto horns and by shouting "We Want Garrett," through loud speakers.

"I have not engaged in mud-slinging during this campaign and I would not treat him that way," Russell said as he paused in his address waiting for the noise to clear and for the audience, which to that time had been very attractive, to regain its composure.

At one point in his address Russell referred to what he termed his opponents' eleventh hour "slander sheet."

The Crazy Gang of Mineral Wells, composed of Jack Amundson and his orchestra, Sugar Cane and February, and Loraine Miles, the yodeling cow girl, presented a 45-minute program following Judge Russell's speech. They were well received and like Judge Russell was loudly applauded.

Tonight Judge Russell and the Crazy Gang will appear in a two hour homecoming program at Stephenville, which will be broadcast over KPFL, Dublin radio station. Friends of Russell from over the district are invited to attend this homecoming and closing program of this campaign. It is estimated that 10,000 people will be present.

Garrett Will Speak In Ranger Tonight

Congressman Clyde L. Garrett will wind up his campaign for reelection with a talk in Ranger this evening at 8:30.

Arrangements have been made for a large crowd, as much interest has been shown in this race throughout the runoff campaign period since the July 27 primary, which Garrett led.

Four years ago when Garrett first ran for the congressional post he now holds, he completed his whirlwind campaign over the district with a talk in Ranger on the evening preceding the primary election.

NTSTC Coeds Use Mattress Ticking To Cover Glamour Instead of Cotton

DENTON, Texas.—Are you a coed who must plan a smart wardrobe from a limited budget? Mattress-ticking is the answer that two popular college coeds at the North Texas State Teachers College have found to the question of good-looking suits on a limited budget.

When Miss Martha Jo Godwin of Whitesboro and Miss Betty Brown of Corsicana searched the dry goods counters in vain for durable material which would not crease easily on picnics and after swims, and still be inexpensive, they finally sighted some mattress ticking at 12c a yard, exchanged looks, commented on the popularity of striped material, and said, "Why not?"

Each girl bought 3 1/2 yards and got together at their boarding house to design the patterns with the results shown above.—For Miss Godwin, an 80c dress with a six

Campaign Closes With Balloting On Saturday

Eastland county voters will go to the polls Saturday as will the voters in other counties of the State and cast their ballots for Democratic primary run-off candidates.

The campaigns attracting most attention in this section is the race for congress between Sam Russell of Stephenville and Clyde Garrett of Eastland; John Lee Smith of Throckmorton county and Omar Burleson of Anson for State senator, and Claibourne Eldridge and W. S. Adamson for County Judge of Eastland county.

Other names appearing on the Eastland county ballot are those of the candidates for Railroad Commissioner and Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

The polls will open at 7:00 a. m. at the various polling places in the county and will remain open until 7:30 p. m.

Oscar Lyster, Democratic county chairman, has announced that the usual bulletin board will not be up in Eastland, but that instead a loudspeaker will be used to announce the results.

The ballot being short election officials were of the opinion that the results of the election could be announced within a few hours after the closing of the polls.

JAP BOMBING FAILS TO AWE THE CHINESE

Editor's Note: The following dispatch describing the latest and most severe in the long succession of Japanese bombing raids on the Chinese capital of Chungking was written by Lin Yutang, famous Chinese author whose works in English, including "The Importance of Living" and "My Country and My People" have been American best sellers. He was in Chungking during the raids and has just reached Hong Kong.

By LIN YUTANG HONG KONG, Aug. 22.—The bombing of Chungking on Monday and Tuesday was, perhaps, Japan's greatest effort to destroy property and to overawe the Chinese people.

They succeeded considerably in their first objective.

They failed totally in the second.

The two impressive things about these raids were the fires which they started and the calm of the people.

On Tuesday morning I was strolling in the streets. I was amazed to see a shopkeeper laying out a display of porcelain wares for sale.

I said: "That's not a display of porcelain. That's a display of Chinese nerves."

Four days of raids began at daylight last Saturday. There were also two night raids in the light of the full moon.

I had just gone to bed after the first raid when the sirens roused me at 2 a. m. Everybody went to the dugouts. We heard the explosion of bombs but no one was upset and I learned that at 6:30 a. m. the government officials went to their offices as usual.

On Sunday I dined with Getz-alissimo Chiang Kai-Shek. He went to bed at 10:30 that night, went through another night alarm and went to his office in Chungking at 6:30 Monday morning. That morning, attending the usual weekly memorial meeting of Sun Yat-Sen, China's first president, he said:

"This is no longer a conflict of material forces but a conflict of moral forces against moral forces."

The Japanese raid Monday was the climax of my air raid experiences. It outdid any of the 40 raids I had gone through in the preceding three months.

We were in a dugout protected by 70 feet of rock overhead from 11 a. m. until 3 p. m. There were two direct hits on the dugout and three hits in front of it. A succession of muffled explosions followed and from the depths of the shelter a whiff of air blew past and extinguished the oil lamps. The rocky cavern shook as though a terrific earthquake was going on. It lasted 15 seconds.

I couldn't see that any one was frightened by this experience. After the all clear signal sounded I paid a personal call to a minor official. He was already sitting at his typewriter while his wife and servants cleared away the dust from the fallen plaster.

These people work from 12 to 14 hours a day at a temperature that ranges between 90 and 105.

What more can I say? It takes more than shellholes to frighten our people. Big fires razed three streets of Chungking while the smoke billowed up 400 or 500 feet to join the clouds. But the people carried on.

Rescue parties started out before the all clear signal sounded and relief crews provided food and shelter for the homeless.

The air raids have united the government and the people as nothing else could have united them.

I heard no grumbling against the government for resisting Japan.

The war will be won. It will be won by Chinese nerves.

Mrs. G. W. Dakan Died Today In Ranger Hospital

Mrs. G. W. Dakan, widow of the late G. W. Dakan, died today at 1:00 o'clock in a Ranger hospital. Funeral services were announced for 1:00 o'clock Saturday afternoon from Killingsworth's Funeral Home in Ranger, followed by interment at Stamford.

Mrs. Dakan had been a resident of Eastland many years. She formerly lived at Stamford.

ARTILLERY ON FRENCH COAST EXPERIMENTAL

BY J. W. I. MASON United Press War Expert Attack on a channel convoy by German artillery mounted along the French coast must be considered an experimental maneuver of doubtful expediency. It follows recent reports of fragments of German artillery shells being found in a British east coast town with no traceable damage. The channel is too wide to allow control of its waters or the British coast by guns firing from France and Belgium.

Accuracy has never been attained for long range artillery. The margin of possible misses is too great to permit reliance upon the firing in a serious encounter. As the number of rounds fired increases, the probability of the target being hit increases. The shells take erratic courses and cannot be controlled.

Too, the life of a large caliber gun is short. The extreme velocity affects the inner lining of the rifle and in some cases repair becomes necessary after 25 rounds have been discharged. One hundred rounds may be taken as the possible limit of usefulness for such artillery. Thus, for continuous efforts to battle an objective, reserve guns become essential which are difficult to install.

It is especially complicated to direct coastal guns at distant shipping. The British convoys, by keeping close to the British coast while passing through the narrow Dover strait, would be approximately 20 miles away from the German batteries.

Added to the normal inaccuracy of the bombarding shells, the artillerymen would be unable to maneuver their guns which conveyed vessels pursued under attack.

Mounted on a revolving platform, the guns have some latitude of movement but they cannot keep aiming laterally at ships which turn and twist to present their narrow sterns and bows to enemy fire. During a sea battle the combatants can follow one another's maneuvers far more effectively.

It would be impossible for Germany to cut the channel in two by artillery fire. The coastal guns can play little part in trying to maintain the German "total blockade" of Britain.

The primary purpose of the guns newly put into action along the French littoral must be for use if ever Hitler considers it feasible to attempt an invasion of Great Britain. The guns would be effective in covering the embarkation of German forces by keeping British warships at some distance from the shore. Firing at channel convoys gives the Germans some limited practice in familiarizing themselves with range problems and getting to know the peculiarities of their great weapons.

Once an invading army left the French coast for Britain, however, and got into midchannel, where British light armed craft certainly would attack at close range, the shore guns would become useless. To use them in a midchannel battle would subject the German ships equally with the British to possible destruction because of projectile inaccuracy.

The guns might try to shell British troops massed to repel the invaders, but here again the erratic flight of the shells could not be counted on for results. Once an invading force started to land, shelling might have havoc among disembarking groups.

Another reason for mounting the German shore guns would be to try to forestall a British military landing along the Franco-Belgian coast. The German high command cannot know what eventual form British offensive strategy may take. War conditions may so change as to cause the British to try to recapture the German channel bases.

The Germans would be remiss in elementary foresight if they were to leave the channel coast unprotected against such a possibility. Undoubtedly, this is the German defensive reason for the presence of the guns, as the remote opportunity for invading Britain is the major offensive reason.

Rumanian Crash Is Fatal For Twelve

BUCHAREST, Rumania, Aug. 23.—Twelve persons were killed and nine were injured today when a plane carrying 17 Rumanian newspapermen and a crew en route to Leipzig, to the annual fair, crashed during a mountain storm.

Export Subsidy On Cotton Is Increased

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—The Agriculture Department announced today that on August 26 it will increase the export subsidy payments on cotton products by as much as three and a half times, in an effort to increase cotton exports.

Torpedoes for Outboard Racers

BRITISH SHELL AND BOMB NAZI CHANNEL GUNS

British bombers today raided the big gun emplacements of the Germans between Calais and Boulogne, while Britain's own guns shelled the German emplacements from across the channel.

The British did not announce whether their big guns were based along the shore, as are the German guns, or whether they were fired from British battleships.

The air ministry revealed, also, that 22 German air bases were attacked last night and today by the Royal Air Force bombers, as were aircraft works and railroad yards.

Nazi planes dropped 200 incendiary bombs in England today, mostly on the countryside, in an effort to ignite growing crops. Delayed action bombs, dropped last night in a raid upon London's suburbs, exploded, but few casualties were reported.

Italy and Great Britain traded blows in the Mediterranean. The Italians bombed Alexandria and a British convoy, while the British attacked Domba in Libya and reported they had sunk two Italian submarines, a submarine tender and a destroyer.

Maritime war observers continued to speculate on whether or not Adolf Hitler would attempt a direct attack upon England, and many believed that the activities of the big guns on the French coast might be a forerunner of an invasion attempt, while Germany called them target practice.

Activities of the air force, too, in attacking German air bases and concentration points, was believed to be a handicap to immediate invasion.

Improved Processes Seasoning Timber

ABERDEEN, Wash.—Lumber industrialists are studying a new method of drying timber after reports of 25 per cent higher grading results.

The Aloha Lumber Co. developed a dry kiln operating at lower temperatures. Although it requires several more days to dry the timber as contrasted to the hot kiln, checking is eliminated and knots do not shrink in the process, it is said.

Aggies Will Meet Hot Competition In The Southwest

FORT WORTH, Tex.—The Texas Aggies, aiming straight down the barrel for a national football title this fall, will have plenty of competition right in their own Southwest Conference. In the opinion of T. C. U.'s coach, Leo (Dutch) Meyer.

The Aggies, undefeated a year ago, have their team almost intact and have one of the easiest schedules in the conference. No Southwest Conference team ever won two titles in a row, however, and the Aggies next Thanksgiving must play Texas at Austin, where no Aggie team ever won a conference football game.

Coach Meyer said that Texas, coming back after many lean years, was one of three teams that will give the College Station Cadets a rough season. The others are Southern Methodist University and Baylor.

The T. C. U. coach rates his own team, along with Arkansas and Rice, as "probable" second division.

GARRETT MAKES SPEECHES OVER WEST DISTRICT

Motorcade of Boosters Make Trip Through Many of Towns in District.

ABILENE, Aug. 22.—Clyde L. Garrett, incumbent Congressman of the Seventeenth District, accompanied by a large motorcade of supporters, carried his campaign for re-election into 14 communities Thursday to maintain the political warmth that has characterized the race being run between Garrett and Sam Russell, Stephenville.

The motorcade, ranging at times to around fifty cars, escorted him from Eastland, his home town to Cisco, Putnam, Baird, Clyde, Abilene, Merkel, Trent, Sweetwater, Roys, Rotan, Hamlin, Stamford and Breckenridge.

In Abilene he sounded a warning against the possibility of England falling to the Nazis and said that "if England falls, Hitler and his Nazis will have no reluctance in trying to take whatever they desire of control of South America."

"The only way we can prevent such actions is to show the Hitlers and Stalins that we are strong enough to resist any attempts to land on our shores," the stocky, reddish-brown haired Congressman, seeking his third term, told an Abilene crowd. "This was the position I took in 1935—the position that caused some to criticize me but the position that was endorsed by the majority of voters in this district."

"Since I have been in Washington I have honestly and earnestly endeavored to secure a more adequate national defense—and I can point with pride that the United States is better prepared than at any time in our peacetime history."

Garrett said that he didn't return from Washington until Aug. 5 because of defense measures pending there and despite the "whispering" being done against him by one of his opponents, referring to Russell, Garrett said the Stephenville district judge can "only offer you promises, and he does not explain how he hopes to achieve his promises."

"His promises are like the smoke of a cigaret, without substance and worthless," said Garrett, who campaigns in white suit and Manila straw hat.

He then reiterated his stand for compulsory military training and added, "I shall not play politics with the safety of the country."

In Baird, three pretty girl singers, Elaine, Eloyee and Laura McConnell, of Palo Pinto, sang for the crowd and Elaine spoke in Garrett's behalf as she did in Abilene. Boaz Reeder, Stephenville, C. J. O'Connor, Breckenridge, and Milburn McCarty, Eastland, also talked. Speakers in his behalf in Abilene were Rupert N. Richardson, of Hardin-Simmons University, and Rev. Robert L. Butler, of Fairmount Methodist Church.

Counties in this district are Callahan, Comanche, Eastland, Erath, Fisher, Hamilton, Jones, Nolan, Palo Pinto, Taylor, Shackelford and Stephens. The Eastland High School band accompanied him Thursday.

Youth Leaders To Hold Meeting At Buffalo Gap

Youth leaders from ten different religious groups will meet at Buffalo Gap, near Abilene, from August 31 to September 2 for the annual Workers and Officers Conference of the Texas Christian Endeavor Union.

At the Conference plans will be discussed for making young people's work in the Church more effective. Leaders are expected to attend from Harlingen, Corpus Christi, Houston, Beaumont, Fort Arthur, San Antonio, Austin, Dallas, Fort Worth, Waco, Tyler, Longview, Wichita Falls, Breckenridge, Eastland, Abilene, and many other towns.

The President of the Union is J. Stuart Pearce, Jr., of San Antonio, and the General Secretary is Al Goodrich, of Dallas.

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 23.—Two United States Army officers and seven enlisted men, members of the crew of a giant army bomber, were killed near here last night when their huge plane ran into a thunderhead during bombing practice and crashed.

Mrs. Trotsky Being Guarded By Police

Police said that Mrs. Trotsky was being guarded because she too knew many secrets that caused enemies to plot against Trotsky's life.

RED RYDER

By Harman

TO THE VOTERS OF EASTLAND COUNTY:

Tomorrow is election day. I am very much interested in seeing the people re-elect Congressman Garrett to his present office. Congressman Garrett has served Eastland County as County Judge in a most efficient way. He is well acquainted with Eastland county's troubles, in fact Eastland county has had to depend a great deal on W.P.A. the last few years. If it had not been for the aid received through W.P.A. business would not have been so good and many of our worthy citizens would have suffered due to the fact work was scarce and they were not in a position to move elsewhere, and this condition still exists in our County and I am saying that each man who is in business, or at present receiving work through W.P.A. projects should be interested in re-electing Congressman Garrett, due to the fact he is in Washington and well-acquainted; has made his many friends already and now possesses influence there that today a new man cannot possess for awhile. It takes time to know the workings of the Government. I am saying that Congressman Garrett will do us more good than any new man we can send from our District today. In addition to this Congressman Garrett has supported the President in his National Defense program; is a big friend to our N.Y.A. program, therefore we should all vote for Congressman Garrett tomorrow. It is for our best interest.

Scrap Metal Now Is "Dead Business"

FORT WORTH, Tex.—Scrap metal dealers here are almost ready to close shop as a result of the president's ban on exports to nations outside the Western Hemisphere. "Business is sure dead now," commented Max Walinsky, one of the principal buyers. At the height of the scrap metal-purchasing campaign by for-ign nations, Fort Worth was shipping away about 15,000 tons a month. Under the new program, about 2,000 tons can be sold monthly. Dealers declared that a few of 600 persons employed in the salvage business here would

Our Two Jobs in One

The United States has before it two jobs. You can almost feel the tightening of the collective belt of the American people as they gird for the effort. On the way those jobs are done depends the future of America—and not only the America of our children, but the America in which those of us now living will complete our lives.

The jobs:
1. To build as quickly as possible such defenses as will not only make direct attack on the United States unattractive, but such as will compel respect for America in those who respect nothing else.

2. To dedicate ourselves anew, every man, woman, and child of us, to freedom—to the way of life that insists that man's institutions exist for man, and not man for the institutions he has created.

"Two tasks—and yet they are one task. The Citizenship Educational Service shows this clearly in its call for revitalizing the ideals of democracy: "The paramount need in national defense is the strengthening and invigorating of democracy."

This co-ordinating committee of national organizations with a membership of 30,000,000 is seeking billions of dollars of a pledge:

"To join wholeheartedly and with personal sacrifice in strengthening the work of our organizations and of other civic and social activities in our community, our state, and our nation.

"To be vigilant and courageous in maintaining human sympathy and respect for the rights of others.

"To be aware of the enemies of democracy, whatever their passwords or places of birth, and wherever they may be found.

"To stand united with all lovers of freedom, whatever their tongue or origin.

"To keep our nation strong in valor, and confident in freedom, so that government of the people, by the people, and for the people shall not perish from the earth."

It is good to sign and display pledges like this, but it is even better to think them through, to burn them into our hearts, and to act upon them.

Jim Farley will help direct a soft drink company as well as New York Yankees. Jim probably plans to make his own pop bottles to heave at the umpire.

MODERN MENUS

BY MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Service Staff Writer

ICE and ice cream, especially apple pie and chocolate ice cream, are the bandwagon American desserts. But the average American family, as shown by a recent survey by Martha Logan, nationally known home economics expert, likes other desserts too, if they contain whipped cream.

Fresh berry or fruit shortcake, chocolate cream tarts, butter-scotch puddings and tarts, fruit and berry sauce and whipped cream on sponge cake or ice cream, were named as their favorites by many average American families questioned. It looks as though the American dessert must be either pie or ice cream, or else some plain but simple concoction of fruit or other well-defined flavor, cake or eggs, lots of sweetness and made of whipped cream.

Chill until firm and garnish with more whipped cream.

DOG ADOPTS LITTER

By United Press

FORT WORTH, Texas—A month-old kitten named Squeegie owes her life to a Pekinese that was willing to forget the traditional feud between dogs and cats.

Mrs. Mary Williams owned both of them. Squeegie was one of four kittens deserted by their mother. The other three kittens died during the first week and Brownie the Pekinese, adopted Squeegie. The dog had a litter of puppies at the time.

The kitten rapidly gained strength.

Dairy Maids In Graham Tourney

Street's Dairy Maids won their first game in a girls' softball tournament at Graham Thursday night, winning from a Vernon team by a score of 8 to 0. Drake and Curtis, pitching for the Maids, allowed but one hit while their mates were gathering in 11 blows including 2 home runs and a double. The meet has 8 entries and requires two losses to eliminate and will probably run most of the next week. In the second game Thursday night Abilene provided the upset by taking a 2 to 1 game from Alford in a game that went an extra inning to decide. The Maids met and defeated some of the strongest teams in South Texas and placed three of their members on the All State team. The Maids played close, hard fought games and a record crowd is expected out to this final game.

Maids will meet Abilene in their next game Monday night.

Tuesday night the Maids will play the Stephenville girls on the Eastland field. This will be the Maids annual benefit game and will probably be the last game the girls will play on the home diamond. The Stephenville girls were fourth in a field of 17 teams at the recent State tournament held at Austin by the A.A.F. In this meet the girls from Stephenville met and defeated some of the strongest teams in South Texas and placed three of their members on the All State team. The Maids played close, hard fought games and a record crowd is expected out to this final game.

VOTE FOR CULBERSON SATURDAY—

Olin Culberson's opponent was disapproved by Governor in 1938 and has been defeated twice for other State offices.

The Governor has not changed his mind and has said he will not endorse anyone.

Texans are interested in Olin Culberson being elected Railroad Commissioner. His experience, qualifications, honesty and services to the public justifies this promotion. Culberson has no dealings with political influence peddlers, contact men and fixers. Mr. Culberson was the leading candidate in the primary because the people believe he can help restore our lost agriculture and oil markets that affects everyone. Olin Culberson will get us lower gas rates that will save us money, cause industrialization and make jobs for Texans. Culberson wants Texas to benefit and get revenue now from our natural gas before it is exhausted or piped away and sold cheaper elsewhere.

TO THE VOTERS OF EASTLAND COUNTY:

Many times have I expressed to the voters of Eastland County my appreciation for their many favors but never before have I felt more grateful and appreciative for your support than I do for putting me in the run-off for County Judge. I have done my best to see each voter during the last four weeks and express to the people my many thanks and if I have not seen you please accept this as thanks to you and as a personal solicitation for your support Saturday, August 24th.

If I am your next County Judge I shall remember at all times my duty to you, to my country and to Him. I shall conduct all the affairs of the office with such courtesy and Christian dignity that all who transact business will feel that justice to all and special privileges to none has been faithfully and pleasantly done. I shall not forget that the office is yours and I am your hire-servant. The aged and needy shall at all times receive my special attention and that impartially. Every ounce of energy within me shall I give to secure for this County the maximum aids and benefits under the present set up and at the same time strive for something better for us and our posterity.

Please do not vote for me as a soldier on Flander's Field or a farmer or rural school teacher or through need or sympathy, but as a man who is qualified and anxious to serve you with a vigorous life that the entire agencies and persons connected with the office may profit most. I'll do my best to make you the best County Judge you ever had, and give service you pay for and expect to get.

Thanks,
C. S. ELDRIDGE.

TO THE VOTERS

Since I have been privileged only two short weeks in which to campaign, and my opponents had eight months to spend throughout the district... I believe my friends will understand why I have been unable to visit them personally in their stores and in their homes to solicit their votes and influence personally. I had to remain in Washington at my post of duty until a short time before the election... and in that short time, I have been covering the twelve counties of this district. I do earnestly solicit your votes and your influence in the elections tomorrow.

QUALIFIED BY EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE TO THE CITIZENS OF EASTLAND COUNTY:

In the closing hours of this campaign I again wish to thank you for the vote you gave me in the July Primary. I am very grateful indeed. The official returns show the following results: W. S. Adamson 3011 Votes Nearest Opponent 1454 Votes Lead over nearest opponent 1557 Votes I received approximately 40% of the vote cast and led the ticket in twenty-two boxes in the County.

I am not saying this boastfully, but that you may know what the people of Eastland County think of your County Judge. As County Judge it has been my policy, and I have tried, to assist the old people in securing Old Age Assistance, and I doubt if anyone has been more assistance to them than I. It has always been my desire that they receive the maximum amount they are entitled to under the law.

No one has done more to help those who are certified for W.P.A. work in securing work than your County Judge, and I have cooperated with the Commission Court in every way in trying to keep work projects going so that our citizens may be employed.

As Presiding Officer of the Commissioners' Court I have always cooperated with and assisted them in handling the finances and business of the County and, being a lawyer, have advised them as to legal questions that continually arise before that body, and since I have been your County Judge it has not been necessary for the Commissioners' Court to employ attorneys for opinions upon legal questions coming before it.

The County Judge, to properly discharge the duties of Presiding Officer of the Commissioners' Court and advising them as to legal matters and presiding as County Judge in the trial of civil and criminal cases, should be a lawyer.

By sponsoring the various W.P.A. projects we have provided employment for our unemployed citizens and the Federal Government has expended over $400,000 annually in Eastland County.

We have reduced the tax rate twenty cents on the One Hundred Dollar valuation, saving the tax payers of Eastland County $40,000.00. We are now installing the Food Stamp Plan which will mean that those receiving Old Age Assistance and those who are on the W.P.A. rolls will receive 50% more food for their money than heretofore.

I have tried to conduct my campaign in a clean, Christianlike manner, and am running strictly upon my own merits and upon my record. I do not have a deputy to look after my office when I am away and on account of the heavy business that is necessary to be taken care of it has been impossible for me to see each one of you personally, and in this my last appeal to you I want you to know that no one will appreciate your vote and support in Saturday's Election more than I.

Very sincerely,
W. S. ADAMSON (Pol. Adv.)
