DESTROYERS TRADED FOR BASES BY U. S.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—The United States today gave Great Britain 50 recon-ditioned World War destroyers in an historic trade for naval and air base sites in the Western Hemisphere and Britain's pledge that her fleet will never surrender to Germany.

President Roosevelt's revelation of the deal touched off a bitter controversy in congress, with isolationists crying that the move is an illegal "step toward war."

Unconfirmed reports said that 18 of the vessels had sailed secretly from Hampton Roads, Va., Saturday night.

British crews will come to the United States to claim the destroyers, which Britain badly needs for convoy duty to complete the blockade against Germany Secretary of State Cordell Hull reported today.

Attorney General Robert Jackson ruled that the trade is legal and Admiral Harold Stark, chief of naval operations, certified that the ships are not essential to this country's defense at this time.

Bases to be obtained on a 99-year lease will include Newfoundland, Bermuda, Bahamas, British Guiana, Jamaica, Trinidad and St. Lucia.

Vaccination For School Children Is Being Urged

AUSTIN, Tex.—Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, in a statement issued in Austin this week, urged all local boards of education to pass regulations providing for exclusion from school of all children not presenting certificates of vaccination against smallpox and immunization against diphtheria.

"School children are exposed to so much infection during the school year that where a definite preventive against a disease is known, parents should be urged to take advantage of this knowledge. Vaccination may save a period of prolonged absence from school, doctor's fees, and even life itself. It is foolhardiness not to require that all school children be rendered non-infectious from the communicable diseases, smallpox, diphtheria, and typhoid, before they start to school this year," Dr. Cox stated.

Because of the fact that authority of school boards to pass such regulations has been upheld by the courts, the Texas State Department of Health wishes to recommend that the various local school boards adopt such regulations, taking further into consideration that such action on their part may mean the difference between a successful school year and prolonged illness, failure in class work, or death.

It is desirable that parents take the child to the family physician for a physical examination before school opens. Such examinations are valuable in determining the readiness of the child for learning. A child suffering from defects in carrying an extra load, and when the weight of school problems is added, he may become ill, develop serious bad habits, or respond with character or emotional upsets. These examinations, when reported to the school, enable the school to adjust the curriculum to the needs of the child and thus minimize the possibility of failure with its attendant inferiority complexes.

Parent-teacher organizations, the public health personnel, and local medical organizations are strongly in favor of preschool examinations and vaccination. In this campaign against unnecessary death and disease among the school children of Texas, the State Health Department lends its full support.

Uncle Sam's New 'Winged Bullet'

Like a gigantic steel-jacketed bullet with wings is this new dive-bomber, being readied for U. S. Navy trials at the Curtis-Wright plant, Buffalo, N. Y. The artist's conception shows it at the bottom of the dive, just after releasing bomb. Designed for aircraft carriers, the low-wing, all metal Curtis XSB2C-1 has unusually heavy fire power and carries increased bomb loads over long distances. It has a 14-cylinder, 1700-h.p. Wright engine.

Public Changing Attitude On Fires

AUSTIN.—Interesting changes in the public's attitude toward fire were pointed out today by Marvin Hall, State Fire Insurance Commissioner.

In the United States a man who has a fire in his home, store or factory is regarded as unfortunate, but during pre-war days in Europe he was assumed to be a public offender, the Commissioner said.

In France, if a fire spread beyond a man's property and damaged that belonging to his neighbor, he had to pay his neighbor's loss. In Germany, if a man had a fire the police ordered an investigation.

Carelessness was assumed from the fact that the fire occurred. If he could not prove in court the next day that he had taken every reasonable precaution, he was fined, and for his negligence he had to pay the city for the unnecessary use of the fire department.

Louisiana Seeks Rich Horse Race Trade from Texas

NEW ORLEANS.—Louisiana is angling for Texas' rich horse-race betting trade.

The newly-created Louisiana State Racing Commission is doing all in its power to encourage establishment of racetracks at Shreveport and Lake Charles, within easy driving distance of populous Texas areas shut off from racing seasons since the legislature at Austin outlawed pari-mutuel betting in 1937.

The commission, first in the history of this state, has power to license tracks planning to operate with both pari-mutuel and handbooking systems of betting. The handbooks must operate within the track enclosure only, however.

"North and Southwest Louisiana offer strong appeal as thoroughbred racing centers—Shreveport and Lake Charles being the most desirable communities," the commission reported after making a survey "for the purpose of ascertaining the possibilities of developing the sport in other parts of the state besides New Orleans."

"Since Texans always have displayed a keen interest in horse racing, and it being illegal to conduct the sport with its necessary accompanying betting features within that state, border town welcome from those who are interested in the thoroughbred," the commission's statement said.

"That there are many of this class is evidence by the number of breeders and owners of racing stables that Texas can boast of."

Pointing out that the Dallas-Fort Worth-Waco area contributed to the attendance of the Shreveport fairgrounds tracks during its recent years of operation, the commission said that fact "clearly demonstrates the stability of racing in that section."

The statement named other North and East Texas cities including Marshall, Longview, Tyler, Kilgore, Henderson, Carthage, Nacogdoches, Jefferson, Gilmer, Winnsboro, Pittsburg and Texarkana as potential areas of support.

"A similar condition exists in the Southwestern sector," the statement said. "Undoubtedly the attendance at races staged in Lake Charles would be greatly increased from such Texas towns as Orange, Port Arthur, Port Neches, Beaumont, Houston, Liberty, Dayton, Silsbee, Sourlake, Kirbyville, Jasper, and numerous other lesser communities."

Both Shreveport and Lake Charles, under terms of the last Louisiana legislature's horseracing bill, would have to stage races affording purses not under $300. The bill set minimum purses according to the population centers.

While the commission seeks other tracks outside the city, it is vitally interested in continuance of a track in New Orleans. Robert Eddy, operator of the New Orleans Fairgrounds track, is attempting to sell the property, but racing fans believe Eddy will reopen for the 1940-41 season on or about Thanksgiving Day unless he finds a purchaser.

The commission, anxious to give prospective track operators every chance for the coming season, has set the deadline for applications for licenses back to Sept. 15 from Aug. 15.

36th Division To Hold A Reunion on October 5, and 6

FT. WORTH, Tex.—Veterans of the War-time 36th Division will gather in Ft. Worth, Texas, from many states, October 5th and 6th, to attend the annual Reunion of their Association. There is every indication of a record breaking attendance. The Veterans will find near Ft. Worth, this year, a scene reminiscent of their training days at Camp Bowie, as one of the government's contract aviation schools is in operation north of the city on the site of the aviation school maintained in 1917-1918.

The 36th Division Veterans Association has as its members Texas and Oklahoma National Guardsmen, who comprised the 36th Division, which received its baptism of fire in the Champagne Sector of France on October 7th and 8th, 1918. While the majority of the members still live in Texas and Oklahoma, each Reunion is attended by many now living in various states of the Union.

Many of the units of the old Division have formed Organization Clubs and it is expected that competition will be keen between such clubs to capture the loving cup to be awarded the unit having the largest membership attendance.

Headquarters for the Reunion will be at the Texas Hotel. Saturday morning, October 5th, will be given over to registration and the assembly room, off the lobby, will be open all day.

Saturday evening the first annual banquet will be held, to be followed by the annual dance in the Crystal Ballroom of the Texas Hotel.

Sunday morning Memorial Services will be observed at Municipal Auditorium, followed by a short business session. At noon luncheon will be served in Pioneer Palace of Casa Manana grounds. Other entertainment is being planned.

The Women's Auxiliary to the Association will hold its annual meeting in the Texas Hotel Saturday morning and the Auxiliary has promoted plans for the entertainment of the women and families of the Veterans during their stay.

General John A. Hulien, who commanded the 72nd Brigade, 36th Division, throughout the war is president of the Association and Mrs. Young Yates of Fort Worth is president of the Auxiliary.

Highway Users To Save on Insurance On Automobiles

AUSTIN, Tex.—Highway users of Texas will be saved more than $2,000,000 annually by the reduction ordered last week in insurance rates by the State Board of Insurance Commissioners, Lynn Shaw, manager of the Texas Motor Transportation Association, declared today, following the receipt of the order from Casualty Insurance Commissioner R. G. Waters.

With a reduction of 10 per cent in rates on fire, theft, and comprehensive coverage insurance for private passenger cars, a tremendous saving will be given September 1, 1940, when the new rates go into effect, to all private car owners in Texas who carry insurance on their automobiles, Mr. Shaw said.

Automobile dealers' fire and theft rates were reduced 25 per cent by the order, and the owners of Texas' 335,467 trucks will enjoy reductions in various types of insurance, ranging from 10 to 25 per cent. Long-haul truckmen's bodily injury and property damage rates were reduced 10 per cent in all territories in Texas by the order.

Contributing to the saving to private and commercial truck owners which Mr. Shaw estimates at considerable in excess of $200,000, will be the elimination ordered by the Commissioners of restricted type policies, so that truck operators in the future will be provided coverage any place anywhere in the United States and Canada at no additional cost. Also, the order makes a reduction of approximately 25 per cent in rates on trailers and semi-trailers over 25 feet in length. On fleet operators where sufficient equipment is operated for individual experience rating, a substantial advantage has been given by elimination of the claim investigation expenses being charged against the risk along with the losses.

Cattle Shipments For July Lower

AUSTIN, TEXAS.—Movement of livestock from Texas ranches to Fort Worth stockyards and to other states for July dropped 20.5 per cent from July, 1939. University of Texas business statisticians report.

Only 4,632 cars were shipped, consisting of 2,614 cars of cattle, 741 cars of calves, 565 cars of hogs and 712 cars of sheep. Cattle shipments were down 9 per cent, calves 45.8 per cent, hogs 12.5 per cent and sheep 27.8 per cent.

During the seven-month period from January 1 to August 1, 40,951 carloads of livestock were shipped, 16.8 per cent less than during the corresponding period last year, University Bureau of Business Research figures show.

Cattle movement has dropped 22.4 per cent, calves 12.5 per cent, hogs 10.1 per cent. Sheep shipments alone show a gain—3.1 per cent—over the first seven months of 1939.

Power Consumption Has Leveled Off

AUSTIN, TEXAS.—Consumption of electric power in Texas during July leveled off to a point only 2 per cent above that of July, 1939, in contrast to a sharp upward trend during recent months, University of Texas business statisticians have announced.

Industrial use of electric power declined 3.2 per cent, while commercial consumption gained 9.4 per cent and residential use gained 5.3 per cent.

GOES TO HOSPITAL

Henry Pullman and H. Mitchell took less Richardson of Eastland, who became ill several days ago, to the Veterans' Hospital at Legion, Texas, Sunday. They are expecting a report on his condition within a few days.

A Bow From the Duchess

Accustomed to receiving bows, the Duchess of Windsor seems to be giving one while putting at her ease the bashful little Bahama girl who has just presented a bouquet. Spectators and the Duke of Windsor, right, look on with amusement. The occasion was the formal welcome for the new governor, given by the native population of New Providence Island to the Duke of Windsor.

GERMAN AIR ATTACK HIT BY DEFENDERS

Great Britain today fought off strong German air attacks along the Southeast coast and watched the Balkans tensely for threats that might involve Germany in a war with Russia, as the European war entered into its second year.

The Nazis insisted that Transylvania will be transferred from Rumania to Hungary without comment and that Russia is satisfied. But at Cluj, capital of Transylvania, 100 Rumanian soldiers rebelled and declared guerrilla warfare against any "invaders."

Disorders were general because of King Carol's rule. Despite claims of friendship, both Germany and Russia maintained large armies near Transylvania.

Meantime hundreds of Nazi planes were thrown back before reaching London and the British Royal Air Force demonstrated its confidence in victory. London reported that 25 German and 14 British planes were lost today.

General de Gaulle, commander of the fugitive French forces in London, reported that Tahiti, largest French oceanic colony, had declared allegiance to his regime and spurned the Vichy clique.

Breckenridge Oil Producer Dies of Throat Infection

BRECKENRIDGE, Sept. 3.—Funeral services for W. L. (Red) Knight, Breckenridge, Central West Texas pioneer oil producer, were conducted here today at 9 a. m. with burial in the Breckenridge cemetery.

Knight died in a Fort Worth hospital Sunday morning of a throat infection. He was born in Oxford, W. Va., in 1882 and came to Texas about 25 years ago and had lived in Breckenridge 20 years.

He was the discoverer of the Curry pool and had been a pioneer in Shackelford county production. He also operated in the Jones county fields.

Survivors include his widow, a son, Larry, 6, a sister and two brothers.

Joe Weaver of Eastland was one of the active pall bearers.

Debate Upon the Conscription Bill Being Continued

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—Debate on the conscription bill was interrupted in congress today by a "peace" demonstrator who shouted from the house gallery that conscription was "fascism." He was evicted.

Several hundred members of his group were present at the time of his demonstration, but they were not molested when they remained quiet.

Meanwhile an amendment allowing heavy penalties, rather than confiscation of factories refusing to handle government defense orders, was endorsed by the house military affairs committee.

Young Attorney Serves As Judge of Shackelford

William W. Blanton, who was nominated county judge of Shackelford county in the recent Democratic run-off primary, is only 29 years of age and will be one of the youngest county judges in Texas.

Young Blanton, who stands above six feet in height, is the son of Thomas L. Blanton, former district judge and former congressman from the 17th district. He has been practicing law for several years. He was educated at Princeton University and the University of Texas Law School. Blanton reads Greek "in the raw" and is a student of several languages.

He is the fourth qualified lawyer of the Blanton family.

ALIENS REGISTERED

Presbyterians To Observe Oct. 20 As Sesquicentennial

Rev. V. K. Aubrey, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Breckenridge, and chairman of the Committee for Christian Education for the Abilene Presbytery, is supervising local plans for the celebration of Sesquicentennial Sunday to be held in Presbyterian churches throughout the country on Sunday, October 20. Dr. Lewis S. Mudge, secretary of the Sesquicentennial Fund for Christian Education, has announced.

The observance of Sesquicentennial Sunday will climax a four-year campaign sponsored jointly by the Board of Christian Education of the Presbyterian Church, and its 53 Presbyterian colleges, 52 Westminster Foundations, and 11 Theological Seminaries who seek to raise $10,000,000 to "make Christian religion an integral part of the education of every youth in a Presbyterian school in the country."

The 52 Westminster Foundations are those centers of religious guidance maintained by the Presbyterians on the campuses of United States. For the most part, they are found on the grounds of large colleges and state Universities. The leaders of these centers work to establish a closely-knit tie between religion and education.

Sanity in South American Sales

Funk fulminates in Koenigsburg and Molotoff mutters in Moscow.
 Both misrepresent the American ideal of trade relationships with South America. Funk wants the world to believe that the United States seeks to monopolize South American trade by embargoing and boycotting others out of that field. Molotoff wants the world to believe that the United States plans to exclude others from South American trade by conquering and dominating countries down there. Both have amply demonstrated their own familiarity with the technique which they charge against the United States. But—

The United States, as we understand it, has no wish to exclude anybody from South American trade. That goes for Germany and Japan, as well as for everybody else in the world. The United States doesn't even object to a straight barter deal which is made on an even-stein basis and leaves no aftermath of later control in the form of balances useful in trade with only one country.

Anybody with half an eye knows that there are vast regions of South America which must trade with Europe. Vast quantities of South American products are needed in Europe and not needed in the United States. It is desirable and inevitable that such products in one way or another find their way to the place where they are needed.

Nobody questions this; nobody considers it an evil. Even if the United States could corner the whole of South American trade it would not be desirable. The United States has never had any thought of trying it.

What the United States is interested in is this: it wants to assure that no South American country is placed in a position where it must of necessity barter away its economic and political independence with its beef, coffee, wheat or bananas.

Had the totalitarian countries not exhibited such a wolfish insistence on mixing into the internal affairs of countries with which they trade, nobody would have minded the trade itself.

Anytime they want to give up intrigue and go back to hoss-tradin', Uncle Sam is willin'.

News comes from the White House on the heels of the latest poll that President Roosevelt is allergic to straw votes.

Prime Minister Churchill warns the House of Commons that the danger to Britain has not yet passed and if they don't believe it, they can just look out the window.

MODERN MENUS

BY MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX

CHILDREN require abundant food to keep well, grow and develop mentally and physically. But that food must be wisely chosen. Just eating a lot is not enough. Where the budget is small, economy is achieved by getting the most in nutrients for your food dollar.

Plan your meals for a week at a time, not day by day. Then you will be able to buy more economically.

Here's a week's market list planned by recognized nutritionists, which provides enough of each kind of food to meet nutritional needs with a margin of safety for a family of four, two children under 12 years.

Milk—12½ quarts, potatoes 13 lbs., fresh or canned tomatoes 4 lbs., leafy green or yellow vegetable 7 lbs., dried beans or peas 2 lbs., dried fruits 1½ lbs., other vegetables and fruits 7 lbs., eggs 1½ dozen, lean meat or fish 4½ lbs., bread, flour, other grain products 15 lbs., butter, lard, bacon, other fats 2¼ lbs., sugar, molasses, sorge syrup 3¼ lbs.

LIVER AND RICE LOAF
 One-half cup brown rice, 4 cups boiling water, 1 pound sliced liver, 2 tablespoons butter or other fat, 1 small onion, chopped fine; 1 cup chopped celery, ¼ cup chopped parsley, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 cup tomatoes, canned or fresh, 2 teaspoons salt.

Cook rice in boiling water until tender. Do not drain, but let rice absorb water so as to form sticky mass which will act as binder for the loaf.
 Wipe liver with damp cloth and remove skin. Sprinkle liver with salt and flour and cook in fat in skillet for about three minutes. Remove liver and grind or chop very fine. Cook onion, celery and parsley in drippings for few minutes, add flour and tomatoes, stir briskly until thickened.
 Mix all ingredients until thoroughly blended, form into loaf with hands on parchment paper, place on rack in open roasting pan. Bake for about 30 minutes in moderate oven (350 degrees F.).

BEEF STEW, VEGETABLES
 One and one-half lbs. beef, rump or round, ¼ cup flour, 2 onions, chopped; 1 quart water, 2 cups diced potatoes, 2 cups diced carrots, salt, 2 tablespoons chopped parsley.

Wipe meat and cut in inch cubes. Try out fat in skillet and add meat, which has been rolled in the flour, and chopped onions. Cook and stir until browned. Then transfer meat and onions to kettle. Add water, after first pouring it into skillet so as to get full benefit of browned-meat flavor. Cover and simmer about one hour. Add vegetables, and cook until tender.

TOMORROW'S MENU
BREAKFAST: Grapefruit juice, wholewheat muffins, butter, crisp bacon, coffee, milk.
LUNCHEON: Diced potatoes with parsley sauce, baked beets, bread and butter, lemon sponge with custard sauce, tea, milk.

Dove Hunting Is To Be Improved Over Last Year

AUSTIN, Texas—When dove hunters blast the lid off the closed season in Texas on Sept. 1 in the northern part of the state and on Sept. 15 in the remainder they will find a far better crop of the fast little birds than last year, the executive secretary of the State Game Department said Saturday after perusing reports from its game managers in all parts of the State. All other types of game are also reported in excellent shape this year and more plentiful than in 1939.

Rainfall at the proper times of the year has provided the mourning doves with an abundance of food and they have prospered.

Too, conditions in most of the state were ideal during the nesting season and mourning doves, prolific enough to raise two and three broods of birds each year, have multiplied rapidly, the executive secretary said. However, game managers studying the white wing situation have reported that while there are apparently more birds in the Rio Grande Valley this year, there is a shortage of certain weeds, especially croton, upon which the white wings feed and there is a possibility the birds will not remain in the Valley as long as they did last year before migrating to Mexico.

The mourning dove situation shapes up like this: An excellent crop of birds is on hand awaiting the hunters in West Texas all the way to El Paso. North central and Central Texas has a better crop this year than last. More birds nested in these areas than in 1939, due to the better conditions and a more abundant food supply. However, the game manager of the area warns hunters that their sport may not be as easy this year as in some past seasons due to the fact that doves probably will not concentrate as much as much because of the greater abundance of water.

The Panhandle and the remainder of northwest Texas is this year recovering from a severe drought of several years duration, but reports indicate there is a large increase in mourning doves in the eastern half of the area and there are as many birds this season in the western portion as there were last year.

East Texas had an unusually good nesting period for doves and the game manager for the piney woods area from the coast to Texarkana reports an abundance of birds. South Texas and Southwest Texas also had excellent breeding seasons and the supply of birds there is expected to be considerably better than last year.

YESTERDAY, Mark and the Taylors build Carrie's sad home...

CHAPTER VIII

FOR a long time Carrie stood in the moonlight outside her saddy until the s-treating figure of Mark Deuel...

suggested Mrs. Taylor, laughing. "You haven't forgotten Ed's expecting you to cook breakfast, have you?"

"Sleeping out here in the open makes you hungry," said Mrs. Taylor. "You'll find you can eat enough."

"It ought to be cool when I get down far enough," he joked, "and if I get down a little ways I can sit in there in the shade and you women won't know the difference."

"Oh, yes we shall," warned Carrie. "We're going to have water from that new well by night. We're going to have a good, cold drink all around, remembering suddenly how few cold drinks she had really had since she came to Sioux Springs."

HE didn't rest in the shade. By 4 o'clock there was a well, not deep, because the spring filled it quickly, but deep enough and rocked up with large flat stones from the creek bottom.

Carrie turned back to the saddy, her feelings a curious mixture of fear and joy. But at last the feeling of Mark's strong arms around her seemed to blot out all else.

lip. So she stayed and the Taylors drove off in the darkness. Once again Carrie stood listening as she had the night before, but tonight it was not Mark splashing across Rock Creek and there was a sudden, utter loneliness in her heart because he wasn't.

Bumping along in the darkness after leaving Carrie, the Taylors sensed that loneliness, too.

"Doggone," Ed Taylor told his wife, "if I didn't hate to leave that girl there by herself tonight, seems somehow she ain't quite the type for this kind of thing, leastways alone."

It was late when she finally went to bed but she couldn't sleep. The crickets sounded like monsters, the air hung heavily close, suffocating. She got up once for a drink from the bucket on the shelf, noticed the sky was ominously dark. At last, perhaps an hour later, she tossed off to sleep.

"Mrs. Taylor," she screamed, "Mrs. Taylor," rushing back to the bed, and then she remembered that there was no Mrs. Taylor, that she was alone. Carrie Lane, alone—with a prairie fire sweeping toward her and toward everything on Rock Creek.
