Presumably that aplies mostly to the eastern seaboard, where an extended oil shortage is threatened because of transportation difficulties. But conceivably, it this could affect all sections which do not have fuel supplies in their own back yards.

If easterners are slow about converting from oil to coal, where they can do so, then there will be a railroad and over barge bottleneck when an effort is made to rush coal to them next winter.

To relieve that bottleneck and prevent dangerous exposure, coal cars will be diverted from their runs elsewhere, and the normal flow of fuel in more westerly areas may be for a wife, especially after $10 is

TO GET THE MOST LIGHT FROM YOUR LAMPS ... and help your eyesight, too!

Here are three simple and economical ways to get more light from your electric table and floor lamps. I office suggestions, and you'll help your eyesight, too.

/. Keep lamps clean . . . dustfreq

teffector bowls and lamp bulbs

2. Replace dark shades

our lamps have dark shades now turned yellow inside, Clean them regularly; or if they're too bad, replace them with fresh shades and you'll get a los more light. (Even light-colored silk shades

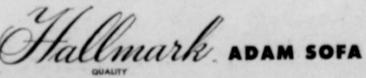

3. Place lamps to make light more useful

Put them where they give eyes most help. Often, two or more of the family can use the same lamp when furniture is properly arranged. (One suggestion is shown above.) And don't get too farway from the lamp; a difference of twelve inches can cut your ight as much as 50%.

KIEP SPARE FUSES on hand to save you time and trouble if a fuse blows. First, urn off the main switch and puil the cords out of wall outlets. Then eplace the blown fuse, but don't econnect any lamps or appliances sected of having caused the fuse to blow our until they're been fixed.
