ALGIERS, French North Africa, May 10. - It was disclosed Monday night that General Henri Giraud has suggested an ar rangement to General Charles De Gaulle whereby the two would alternate as leaders of the French forces fighting with the United Nations,

Giraud made it clear, however, that he intended that this should be a temporary arrangement with all involved willing to turn over this power to a provisional government selected by the French people as soon as France has been freed.

The offer was embodied in an appendix to Giraud's reply to De Gaulle's proposals.

Under the scheme, two big jobs were suggested for the temporary setup-president of a French ouncil and president of a committee charged with executing the council's orders. Giraud suggested that DeGaulle and himself take turns at both jobs, switching from time to time. Would Sign Orders Jointly

"We will fulfill in trun the role council," Giraud said. "This does not mean a duumvirate. Quite the contrary. "Our responsibilities would be

Improve Your Lighting

Use One Large Bulb

There is one time when 2 + 2 doesn't equal 4, and that's when you add lamp bulbs. One 150-watt bulb gives more light than three 50-watt bulbs, so where practical, use one or two large bulbs instead of three or five smaller bulbs.
