

Shopping Center Under Way

Dimmitt's first shopping center is presently under construction across the street north of the Post Office. The shopping center, which is owned by Ray Bearden, is being erected by Paul Acker Builders of Dimmitt.

Modernistic design and latest conveniences will highlight the 150' x 75' structure.

One hundred feet of the building will be used to accommodate facilities of Harry's Super Market which will be operated by Harry Brown, former manager of Bob's Super Market.

Remaining four office spaces are yet to be filled. Anyone desiring office or firm space in the air conditioned shopping center should contact Ray Bearden.

"A large percentage of Dimmitt consumers do not patronize city merchants and we are in hopes that this new shopping center, which will offer services presently not available in our area, will help in gaining more home-trade," Bearden said.

"In the next few years," Bearden added "if Dimmitt's growth continues with the progress it now has the citizens will need a new large grocery store like the one being built to accommodate their growing needs."

According to Bearden, the new super market will have the most modern facilities necessary for carrying foods which have not previously been offered to Dimmitt consumers. This includes the latest developments in food preserving equipment.

Paved parking area, which will accommodate about 75 automobiles, will be featured with complete lighting for night-time parking.

Glass and brick front elevation will be highlighted by automatic doors enabling package-laden customers to enter and exit without the use of their hands.

Opening date for the shopping center has, as yet, not been announced. Formal grand-opening will be announced publicly in the future.

Wheat Harvest Completed With Drop in Production

With the wheat harvest virtually complete this week, appearances are that only about half as much wheat will be made this year as last.

There are several factors involved in the decline. In the first place, there are only 80,000 or so acres this year planted to wheat as compared to 103,000 last year. Most informed guesses around the county estimate that ten percent of the wheat crop was lost due to hail and that more—possibly fifteen to twenty-five percent—of the crop was lost because of high, dry May and June winds which caused earlier maturing, curtailing the normal bulk growth of the grains.

There were no tremendously high yields reported this year. The best yield one farm expert heard about was from the farm of C.O. Burt of Hart, who cut 70 bushels per acre from an eleven-acre field.

While farmers last year averaged 45 bushels on irrigated land and dryland farmers averaged 20, it is estimated this year that the county average will be 30 irrigated and 10 dryland.

County farmers now face harvest in little more than three months of grain sorghum and cotton. Lack of moisture and high winds in May have been rough on the cotton crop this year. Most of the herbicides and systematic insecticides were rendered more or less ineffective, according to one farm source. Spraying planes have been busy spraying for thrip and have reportedly done a good job of controlling this pest. Hail caused some replanting, but except for a strip north of Dimmitt Sunday afternoon there has been little hail this month.

Grain sorghum, the toughest crop on the plains, is weathering the adverse weather conditions well and for the most part is being heavily irrigated and fertilized and should produce average yields this year, or better if more rain comes.

Wheat sedimentation tests for milling quality has meant a premium for many farmers this year. For the most part, sedimentation tests were above average.

Sugar beets, of which the county has about 300 acres, are looking good. Carrots, onions, pinto beans and other vegetables are coming right along.

Barring weather reversal, this appears to be a normal year for general crop yields. Good cotton and grain sorghum crops are hoped to offset the lower wheat yields.

Northside Church of Christ Opens New Building Sunday

Northside Church of Christ proclaims opening day of their new building at Third Street and Hallsville Avenue to be Sunday, June 24th as announced this week by its elders, A.V. Barnes and V.G. Wood. Regular services will be of Bible Study at 9:30 a.m.; worship at 10:30 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. A special service for the afternoon is scheduled at 2:30 o'clock to consist of a short welcome message and singing. An "Open House" will afterwards grant all visitors a tour of the building.

The brick and stone structure was erected by Killingsworth Construction Company of Dimmitt. Plans for the construction dates back to March 1961, when a resolution to borrow $50,000 in capital by a bond issue was made, which also was accomplished by June 1961 in making the bonds negotiable.

The floor plan consists of an auditorium to permanently seat 342 people, with two additional overflow wings, enough to accommodate 80 more. The auditorium roof is supported by laminated wooden beams, overlaid with double tongue in groove roof sheeting, naturally finished, and utilizing an indirect lighting system. The furniture includes solid oak pews to blend with other natural interior decorations.

There are eleven classrooms, in addition to the minister's study and workrooms, each surrounding the auditorium and opening therein. A commodious glass-paned nursery room is conveniently located to the rear of, and above, the au-

About Your HEALTH

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health. HENRY A. HOLLE, D. D., Commissioner of Health.

There's a one to five chance your youngster needs a major teeth straightening job since an estimated one-fifth of the nation's children suffer from "malocclusion", or improper alignment of teeth. And, summer is a good time to do something about it.

A generation ago, parents of young children with teeth which did not meet properly were usually advised to "let them alone and nature will correct them."

Today we know better. Malocclusion is a condition to be corrected by a dental specialist known as an "orthodontist". Nature, by herself, is a very poor straightener of crooked teeth. Although the public is just now becoming aware of the health significance of malocclusion, experience has taught dentists that crooked teeth contribute to decay, faulty speech and malnutrition. One of the worst results of malocclusion is the psychological stress borne by a child singled out for ridicule by his friends because of "buck teeth".

A child with facial deformities such as those caused by misshapen teeth may develop traits of indecision and begin to doubt his ability to cope with problems in his environment, psychologists say.

What causes teeth to erupt irregularly? Dentists agree heredity is probably one important cause. Another is persistent thumbsucking and abnormal pressures against the jaw. Living bone, contrary to popular thought, is not always hard and unyielding. The entire jaw structure can be molded by gentle, persistent pressure.

In the case of thumbsucking, dentists believe that if the habit can be broken before age five, there is a good chance the teeth may return to normal position without harmful effects.

NUMEROUS GIFTS were presented to Mrs. E. R. Rothwell Friday by the Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service at a housewarming following the remodeling of her home after the fire in March which considerably damaged the entire home. Refreshments of coffee and doughnuts were served to the thirty-five guests who were present at the housewarming.

Another cause of malocclusion is prolonged retention of baby teeth. Permanent teeth which follow are then prevented from arranging themselves properly.

On the other hand, when primary teeth are lost too early, adjoining teeth may tend to top and "migrate", crowding into spaces where permanent teeth should erupt.

There are different methods of bringing teeth into proper alignment. Sometimes it may be necessary to extract teeth to make room in some cases a plastic or wire appliance may be fitted to the teeth to guide them into position by pressure.

Whatever the method, it is calculated to help the youngster avoid the fate of a "buck tooth".

Senator YARBOROUGH'S REPORT

Dear Fellow Texan:

Today I will report to you on an unpleasant subject, foreign aid. The bills authorizing next year's program of foreign aid by our government are now before the Congress, and once again as your Senator, I face the unpleasant prospect of sending many of your tax dollars overseas.

We must approach the consideration of our foreign aid program from the standpoint of what we can best do to fight Communism. It seems evident that if we really want to stop the spread of Communism, we must help the weaker countries strengthen themselves to resist Communist aggression or Communist subversion. I certainly favor doing everything reasonably possible to strengthen our own defenses and the defenses of friendly countries, and I favor carrying the fight for freedom even into the neutral, the Red-leaning, or the Communist-dominated countries. However, I have not kept secret my doubts and disappointments as to the effectiveness of our foreign aid program as it was previously run.

It has been proposed in the Budget of the United States that we spend $4 billion, $78 1/2 million dollars in this next fiscal year 1963 for the various forms of foreign aid. This is a vast sum, and I am not at all convinced that such an amount can be effectively used. I was pleased with the action of the Foreign Relations Committees in the Senate and the House in cutting off about $200 Million of this request. But I think that further prudent cuts are in order. Every year that I have been in the Senate I have joined in voting to reduce the amount spent on foreign aid. These were votes for prudent, justified reductions. I favor cutting the fat out of foreign aid.

There seems little doubt that great amounts of our foreign aid money have been wasted, either through poor management or corruption in the receiving governments. However, I am very hopeful that the new administration, the Agency for International Development, under its able new ad-

Sharon Morrison Receives $100 WT Scholarship

Miss Sharon Ann Morrison, 1962 graduate of Dimmitt High School, has been awarded $100 scholarship to attend West Texas State College during the 1962-63 session.

The scholarship, given to a number of outstanding area high school graduates, is awarded annually by the Ex-Students Association of West Texas State.

Miss Morrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H.M. Morrison, 500 S.W. 4th, plans to begin work toward a degree in commercial art. She was a member of the DHS Choir, National Honor Society, and Future Homemakers of America. She was a member of the all-region choir for two years, and rated second division in the solo contest.

Administrator, Fowler Hamilton, can get the maximum value for the American foreign aid dollar.

Another problem that particularly concerns me is the aid we have been furnishing to Poland and Yugoslavia. Although there has been much evidence in the past to show that our aid to these Communist countries was effective in creating divisions and doubts within the communist bloc, recent developments show that this situation may be changing. We know that we are not going to convert any Communists by giving them dollars; we must carefully calculate whether any short run advantages accrue to the United States from this type of aid. I don't like giving American dollars to Communist countries. It is sure time to re-examine this whole program. The Senate foreign aid bill this year contains one very desirable new feature: a requirement that the President suspend aid to any country which seizes and nationalizes American-owned property without fair compensation. I certainly favor this. It doesn't make sense to let any country that treats Americans unfairly continue to receive aid paid for with American tax dollars. By this provision to stop such aid, we are sharpening our foreign aid weapon and making it a more effective sword against the enemies of freedom in the world.

Miss Gail Layman, Bill Dunning Exchange Wedding Vows in Hereford

Miss Paula Gail Layman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie L. Layman of Dimmitt, and William Lloyd (Bill) Dunning, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dunning of Miami, Oklahoma, were married in a double ring ceremony on June 10 at 2 p.m. in the Assembly of God Church in Hereford with the Rev. Eldon Bryce of Ardmore, Oklahoma, a cousin to the bride, officiating.

Organist was Mrs. D.M. Grubbs of Deming, New Mexico, an aunt of the bride who accompanied the soloist, Miss Judy Malchi when she sang "Always and 'The Lord's Prayer."

As a part of the ceremony the groom sang to the bride, "Because" and she, in turn, sang to him "Whither Thou Goest," before an archway entwined with white roses and greenery. Baskets of white mums, gladioli and greenery flanked the altar. The bride and groom exchanged their vows on the 23rd wedding anniversary of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Layman.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father was attired in a floor length gown of white bridal satin designed and fashioned by Miss Edna Follis of Dimmitt. The close fitting bodice was fashioned with a round shirred neckline and long close fitting sleeves ending in points at the wrists. A full, flared skirt with shirred gores swept into a chapel train. Satin roses enhanced the dress at the waistline in back, and tiny, satin covered buttons fastened the fitted bodice and sleeve openings. A tiara of rhinestones and pearls held her veil of silk illusion. For something borrowed she wore a single strand of pearls and for something old she wore a pearl ring given to her by her mother. As a bridal bouquet she carried a white Bible topped with a bouquet of white centered mums with a white orchid.

In the bridal party were Miss Glenda Layman, sister of the bride, maid of honor; Miss Faye Rogers, Spiro, Oklahoma; Miss Betty Dunning, sister to the groom; Miss Peggy Spear, Waxahachie; Miss Lynn Thompson, Hereford, cousin of the bride; and Miss Edna Follis, Dimmitt were the bridesmaids. ## Push-Button War On Johnson Grass

ORTHO C-56 Johnson Grass Control is right on target. Soaking through the waxy coatings of the leaves and shooting to the root, it turns plants brown while you're in the field.

With the new Ortho gravity hand sprayer, just a press of your thumb gives you the easiest control of Johnson Grass you've ever had. And because of the applicator's deadly aim, there's much less risk of injury to cotton.

C-56 increases tremendously the penetration of kerosene or oil, both into young shoots and older plants of Johnson Grass... even under adverse weather conditions. And it will not sterilize the soil.

So don't wage a losing battle with Johnson Grass. Just press the button and knock it out—with C-56 and the Ortho gravity hand sprayer.

Walter Rogers' WASHINGTON NEWSLETTER

HERE WE GO AGAIN

On May 13, 1962, I wrote a newsletter about the Sugar Act in which I stated that there would probably be others in the future. My predictions in that newsletter as in previous ones are coming true. The House of Representatives was advised on the afternoon of June 14 that the Sugar Act had been decided upon in all details and would be presented to the House of Representatives for passage, as a formality. In other words, the duly elected Members of Congress are again being victimized by parliamentary procedure, in order to perpetuate a practice that has been most detrimental, in my opinion, to the farmers of this Country, to the consumers, and to both as taxpayers. Time after time efforts have been made to extend the Act for long periods of time. These efforts have failed, primarily due to the opposition that has been mounted against such attempts when the time for action was very short. A pattern has been followed in the Congress, deliberate or otherwise, but nevertheless a pattern, which results in sugar legislation being brought before the House of Representatives just a few days before the expiration of the law. This creates a situation which provides the argument that unless the sugar legislation which has been approved by the sugar industry (perhaps a better name would be the sugar trust), utter chaos will result and many will go bankrupt. The fact is that the small compact groups that have a monopolistic stranglehold on the sugar business in this Country are not going bankrupt, for the reason that they have made so much money at the expense of the American farmer, the American consumer and the American taxpayer, that it would take many, many more things than the expiration of the Sugar law to even dent their assets. Each and every year the industry gets together and decides what the law will be. In holding the meetings at which these decisions are made, the producer of sugar in the United States is not consulted, but is advised as to what he will be allowed to have. This has progressed to the point that in recent years some of the present sugar producing areas of this Country have been reduced to the status of mendicants at the able of international sugar trade. Complexities are built into the law that totally discourage the average person who is unfamiliar with what is going on.

For instance, the 3 million tons of sugar that were taken away from Communist Cuba have been divided up between other foreign countries, with not one pound being allocated to the American farmer. It is this gimmick in the bill that is being used at this time to argue that the bill should not be opened for amendment before the House of Representatives. In other words, the industry has written the bill, has handed it to a committee of the Congress of the United States of America with instructions that this is the bill that has been agreed upon. This bill in turn, is handed over to the duly elected members of the House of Representatives with the advice to take it or leave it. That is, permit the sugar industry to write their own legislation, deny the duly elected representatives of the people of this Country under the representative form of government from changing one letter or punctuation point. And the members of the House are told that unless they take this legislation, as the industry has written it, the alternative is utter chaos in the sugar business. The arrogance of these people in their refusal to agree to open and free debate on a matter so vital to this Nation is ample evidence to me that the whole matter would stand a thorough airing.

The assignment to American farmers of only one third of the sugar allotments taken away from Communist Cuba, could take out of production of surplus crops over 400 thousand acres. Yet, deaf ears are turned to every plea that this be done. It has been argued that the importation of sugar was necessary for consumer protection. When this argument was shown up as false, it was then argued that the foreign policy of this Country required importation from these foreign countries of 45 percent of our sugar needs. When this argument was effectively countered by facts and figures, the proponents of the sugar industry began to argue that it was necessary to continue this practice in order to prevent these countries from which it was being imported from going communist. It was while this argument was being so freely used, our neighbors to the south under the leadership of Mr. Castro, went communist. At that time we were buying one third of the sugar requirements of this Country from Cuba. In other words, the sugar Members can become acquainted with the true facts in this matter. When they do the playhouse of the sugar trust will collapse.

May Big Month For Accidents

The Highway Patrol investigated 5 rural accidents in Castro County during the month of May according to Sergeant W.E. Wells, Patrol Supervisor of this area. These wrecks accounted for one person killed, two persons injured and an estimated property damage of $1,825,000.

The rural traffic accident summary of Castro County from January through May of 1962 shows a total of 23 crashes, as a result of these crashes there were 2 persons killed and 12 persons injured. The estimated property damage amounted to $12,855,000.

Beginning with this month, the Texas Department of Public Safety lends its support each year to the national "Slow Down and Live" summertime safety campaign which, as its name indicates, has as its objective the task of emphasizing the need for motorists to control their driving speed. Speed control is vital to safety, because of the vacation travelers, most of whom are in a big hurry, since vacation time is usually all to short. The veteran patrol supervisor said, "The hurry attitude frequently steers them into a speeding violation, worse than that, a serious accident, or even death itself."

about dimmitt and castro county by bascom nelson

It would be much, much more appropriate if whoever turns the fire siren on and off would let the thing howl for just the bare minimum of time when there are wicked looking clouds overhead. People in our end of town looked like they were ready to head for the timber after a couple of minutes of the siren serenade. The weather looked as foul as we've seen it in a long time and from our own observations it appeared a lot of people were really shook up when the insistent yowling failed to stop after the normal duration.

As we remember it, the tornado warning is a series of short blasts, continuing for quite some time. A fire is one long continuous blast and practice is two short blasts.

Wall Street might get encouragement right now if they would study Dimmitt. New signs are going up on several local businesses, a new shopping center is being constructed, work is well along with a new cleaning establishment a bright new church is in use, work is underway on a new $850,000 High School, new brick homes continue to be planned, and in general our local economy is moving right along. Dimmitt has never stood still for long and we hold that the faith local citizens have in our long-range prosperity could well be copied by other areas.

Castro County has been fortunate weather-wise. All the rest of the Panhandle South Plains area has been hammered by hails and floods almost unmercifully, but (knocking on wood) we've gotten by with spotted light to medium hails that harmed specific crops but has left relatively undamaged county agriculture as a whole. Some counties such as Briscoe, have had their entire crop production wiped out and are left with soggy, lifeless fields. Before you read this, we may have six inches of hail on the ground, but so far, for some mysterious reason of mother nature, people all around us have taken it in the teeth, while we have gotten off rather lightly.

Time was, when you wanted to mix it up in politics you joined the party of your choice, and there has been quite a choice over the years, such as the American party, Antimasonic party, Constitutional Union, Federalists, Free-Soil, Gold Democrats, Greenback Labor, Independent National, Labor, Liberty Populist, Progressive, Prohibition, Socialist, Socialist Labor, Union and Whigs. For anyone with a hard time making up their mind there was once a Democratic-Republican party.

Over the years it has boiled down to a grudging duel between the two major parties. The Texas Regulars, Constitutionalists and others have given up their lonely battle of vague principles and joined the two main parties. Mostly they joined the Democratic party in Texas because that's always been the winning party and if you're going to join somebody it's better to join the winner. This ill-conceived marriage of convenience has not, to say the least, worked out to the best interests of the Democratic party.

And searching for strength, the Republican party has lately opened its arms to those people also and have, in some cases, found themselves usurped, despoiled, and defiled. In Houston they cry, "We are not either all members of the John Birch Society." But little good it does.

At some time or the other there has been a party for most any shade or deviation of political thought. Perhaps we should go back to that. Under current, contemporary definitions they could be called the Ultra-Patriotic Far Right, the Patriotic Far Right, the Far Right, the moderate patriotic rightish, the rightish moderate, the moderate, the moderate-liberal, the liberal, the liberal-leftist, the unpatriotic liberal leftist, the leftist, the far leftist, etc. Nobody would know what these terms mean any more than they do now, but that ought to be better than lumping them all into parties, divided at random.

Then maybe the whole stupid, harangue would fall apart in a glorious hodgepodge and they'd all have to join the Republican or Democratic Party to get on a winning side. But that's where we came in. Maybe we ought to dump people on Plymouth Rock and start all over.

Miss Mary Ford, Roger Owen Wed In Home Ceremony

In an impressive home ceremony Saturday evening, June 16, Miss Mary Kathryn Ford became the bride of Roger R. Owen. The Rev. Gene Hawkins, pastor of First Baptist Church of Lockney read the double ring ceremony at 6:30 p.m. in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R.H. Ford of Lockney.

Mr. and Mrs. B.L. Owen of Dimmitt are parents of the bridegroom, members of the families witnessed the ceremony.

The bride chose a formal gown of bridal deluster satin with hand clipped French lace. The moulded bodice was designed with a bateau neckline and long tapered sleeves which extended to petal points.

The princess waist featured a bouffant skirt with inverted pleats at the hipline and swept into a chapel train. Her fingertip veil fell from a small crown of seed pearls.

R.H. Ford gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Dixie Ford served her sister as maid of honor. She was attired in a lemon yellow floorlength formal gown.

Best man was Eddie Owen, Dimmitt, brother of the bride.

A reception was given in the Ford home following the ceremony.

Mrs. Owen is a graduate of Lockney High School and attended West Texas State College. Until her marriage she was employed as a secretary at Baccus Motor Company.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Dimmitt High School, and presently is serving with the U.S. Army at Fort Bliss, Texas.

As the couple departed for their home in El Paso the bride was dressed in an olive green suit complemented with black accessories.

as five entries in one event. Most of the thirty Dimmitt people attending the event participated in the games.

Different events display certain abilities of the horse and rider. Potato racers begin with the drop of a flag from the starting line and they proceed at top speed to a box of potatoes where the contestant picks up a potato with a spear and returns again at full speed to the finish line. Fast starting horses who respond well to the rider's actions are necessary for qualification in this event. Other events likewise demonstrate varied abilities of the horses and the riders.

Dist. 8 President Reports on State P.T.A. Parley

Mrs. Woodrow Killingsworth, president of District 8 of the Parent Teachers Association recently attended a three-day Program Parley with Citizenship Emphasis, sponsored by the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers June 4-7 on the campus of the University of Texas in Austin.

State president, Mrs. T.W. Whaley of Kosse, presided and introduced the planning committee, composed of R.H. McKay of Dallas, state workshop chairman; Mrs. Linus D. Frederick of Copperton, Chairman of the state program committee; and Wesley Martin of Greenville, state chairman of citizenship.

At this parley a theme was adopted around which local P.T.A.'s will build their activities for the coming year. The theme is "Homes Create Community Strength Through Good Citizenship."

Mrs. Killingsworth stated that the Good Citizenship theme was developed at the parley in an outline of six general topics. They are:

1. Good Citizenship is Self-Development. Self-development is a basic aspect of good citizenship. It is evidenced by such action as assuming responsibility for one's own deeds, self discipline, consideration for others and understanding.

Self-development is also portrayed by learning to give and take by accepting change with a minimum of conflict within oneself, and by faith in self, faith in others, faith in God.

2. Good Citizenship is Knowledge Through Education. The public school is responsible for the education of every child in the community. Compulsory education is provided for every youth of legal school age except the individual who has completed the four year high school course or has reached the maximum realization of his capacities.

Emphasis in education varies according to the needs and capacities of the individual and in keeping with the situation concerned. Proper emphasis is placed on utilitarian knowledge and skills. Although the spirit of this generation is one of technological and scientific discovery, it is not forgotten that the culture of the ages is a potent factor in the constructive growth of the individual and in the progress of society.

3. Good Citizenship is Faith through Moral and Spiritual growth. The individual learns that certain fundamentals do not change even in the face of a changing world. True education gives him clear concepts of the basic principles of life, and arouses a sense of social and spiritual values; all of these combine to produce a high moral code, lofty ideals, and intellectual integrity. Since surface changes are inevitable, the individual must be able to adjust himself wisely and to work for those changes most beneficial to the particular needs and ambitions of himself and of society.

4. Good Citizenship is Responsibility Through Civic Participation. Simple justice is the essence of the democratic process. The individual citizen must understand and be committed to the basic ideals of democracy. He should be able to debate, to weigh evidence, to respect the rights and views of others to understand what it means to compromise, and to be able to abide by the decisions of the majority.

5. Good Citizenship is—Devotion Through and Appreciation of America's Heritage. The love of truth and an abiding faith has always been the tradition of an American heritage. If America is to remain free, it is only wise to insist upon free communication. It was not the intention of our forefathers to have us become the victims of half truths and false propaganda but rather to demand complete evidence in concluding our thoughts and the determination to make decisions in the face of that evidence.

6. Good Citizenship is Consider-

Book Offered On Erosion Control On Irrigated Lands

Wind erosion can be controlled on irrigated land by maintaining a crop cover during as much of the season as possible and by keeping the soil surface rough and cloddy between crops, points out a new U.S. Department of Agriculture publication.

"Wind Erosion Control on Irrigated Lands" (L-506) explains that conditions are favorable for soil blowing on many irrigated fields. Cultivation and preparation of land for irrigation often leave the soil pulverized and bare. Winds in most irrigated areas are high enough to cause this soil to blow.

The publication, prepared by Stephen J. Meech, agricultural engineer of the USDA's Agricultural Research Service, outlines erosion control practices to use during preparation of new fields for irrigation and after the soil has been stabilized or "tied down."

On a new field, Meech says, the wind erosion hazards will be minimized by beginning land preparation in summer. He advises planting a cover crop immediately after leveling and ditching to stabilize the bare and pulverized soil. The publication suggests a schedule of practices for farmers to follow during this soil stabilization period.

After this soil is stabilized, a cropping system that includes other ation Through Respect for the Dignity and Worth of the Individual. An appreciation of all members of our society requires team work of the "we" and "our" variety. A respect for the worth of each individual must generate a feeling of confidence and a feeling of belonging.

All good citizens must have a feeling of helpfulness and willingness to share.

The health of the citizens of a great nation is second to none in importance when it comes to establishing basic principles. Not only is the health of the individual important, but the importance of health counseling, which leads to better habits of rest and work, are important phases of the citizenship program.

erosion preventing practices is recommended. Meech advises delaying spring plowing until just before planting, preparing a cloddy seedbed, seeding forages in stubble, and planting row crops on ridges. Erosion-resistant strips of stubble or cover crop should be left in large fields of cultivated row crops as these fields are particularly susceptible to wind erosion.

Single copies of "Wind Erosion Control on Irrigated Land" (L-50) are free from the Office of Information, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D.C.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM 1962 State CAPITOL
By Vern Sanford
Crooked-hole well-drilling is the big news at the Capitol. More than $3,000,000 in penalties is asked by Atty. Gen Will Wilson in the first suit brought by the state following "crooked-hole" investigations in the East Texas Oil Field. Suit contends that six oil wells were drilled in such a direction that they wound up under someone else's land.

accident in 1960. Statistics also reveal that there's something to what they say about Texas weather. Deaths from extreme heat and from freezing both were reported during the year. Biggest killer for all age groups, except those under one and over 75, is the highway accident. In the home, fire and explosion are the biggest killers. Falls are in third place. Home ranks next to the highway as the scene of most accidental deaths. Mental Patient Clinic—Board for State Hospitals and Special Schools is expected to act within the next week or two on whether to select a site in the lower Rio Grande Valley or in the Beaumont area for an outpatient clinic for discharged mental patients.

Dr. C.J. Rullman, state director of mental health and hospitals, said the Board already had chosen the Fort Worth area for one of the two clinics authorized by the last Legislature. "Second will be established in South Texas," he added. Sites are being considered at Beaumont and Brownsville-Harlingen. Such clinics now are operating in Houston, San Antonio and Dallas.

Bill M. Collins, executive director for the Parks Board, said that increases in the number of visitors particularly were noticeable at Garner State Park in Southwest Texas, Lake Corpus Christi Park, Palo Duro Canyon Park in the Panhandle, Bentsen Park on the Rio Grande border, and Kerrville and Buescher parks.

Total visitors in April, latest figures available, were 681,871, compared with 590,133 in the same month a year ago. Dove Hunting Season—will have representatives at the national dove conference in Washington on June 26 when length and dates of the 1962 hunting seasons will be discussed. H.D. Dodgen, executive secretary of the State Game and Fish Commission, reports the outlook favorable for a good dove crop in Texas—both mourning and whitewing doves.

Jimmy Hoelting, left, president of the Nazareth Chapter of the Future Farmers of America, holds a check in the amount of $50.00 for winning 4th place in the F.F.A. Chapter Electric Awards contest in Area I. The chapter adviser, and vocational agricultural teacher at Nazareth High School, Mr. Thomas Hefferman, was presented an automatic control center. Tom Field, Southwestern Public Service Company in Plainview, presented the awards which were furnished by Southwestern Public Service Company.

Legislature allowed the Turnpike Authority to raise the speed limit to that figure. Cigarette smokers are chipping in more than $7,000,000 a month to the State Treasury under the 8-cent sales tax on each package. Treasurer Jesse James reported income from that source to be $770,588 in May. Screwworm Control—Fight against the screwworm fly has been extended northward. Reason is because truck-hauled livestock, infested with screwworms, crossed the control line which was being maintained by aerial distribution of sterile male flies.

Miss Zelda Axe, Gayland Anderson Marry in Methodist Church Ceremony

Miss Zelda Marie Axe and Gayland Clay Anderson were united in marriage in the First Methodist Church in Dimmitt, Friday June 8, at 7 p.m. Clergyman officiating was Rev. E. Lee Stanford.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. H.L. Axe, Route 3 Hereford. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Clay Anderson, Hart.

Vows were exchanged before an altar framed with a white satin heart, entwined with blue carnations and flanked with candelabra. White satin bows and candles marked the pews.

Traditional wedding selections were given by Weldon Davis, brother-in-law of the bride, accompanied by Mrs. Weldon Davis.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a floor length gown, with scalloped neckline outlined with iridescent sequins and seed pearls. Long sleeves tapered to petal points over the hands. The skirt was of nylon lace with side panels of pleated illusion nylon over cloud mist taffeta, which swept into a chapel train. Her elbow-length, imported English silk illusion veil edged with matching lace of the gown fell from a crown of seed pearls with two teardrop pearls in front. She carried a white orchid with carnation streamers atop a white Bible which was a gift of the groom's parents.

Maid of honor was Miss Beth Cleaver, Dimmitt and bridesmaid was Maretta Odom, Dimmitt. Their dresses were of bright Open blue silk organza over taffeta with fitted bodices, scoop necklines, puffed sleeves and full gathered skirts, with matching pillbox hats.

Art Miller, Happy, attended the groom as best man, Kenneth Flowers, cousin of the groom, Amarillo, was groomsman. Ushers were Marvin Axe, brother of the bride, Dimmitt; Lavelle Phifer, Lubbock; Jim Axe, brother of the bride, Dimmitt; and Kenneth Flowers, Amarillo.
