SIX JAP SHIPS ON MARSHALLS FORGERS GIVEN

PEARL HARBOR, Hawaii, Dec. 9. (UP)-United States carrier task force planes, in their bold cruisers and four other ships, damaged four vessels and destroyed scores of enemy planes, Admiral Chester W. Nimitz announced

Seventy two enemy planes were shot down, numerous others were destroyed aground and Japanese installations on two Marshall Islands atoll groups were damaged or destroyed in a pre-Pearl Harbor Day vengence raid which may prove one of the most successful

For all the damage done, the United States forces suffered only minor damage to one ship and light aircraft losses.

The attack was made Saturday on the long-fortified Marshalls, immediately north of the newly conquered Gilberts chain. Nimitz ely. had announced the bare fact of the attack but the necessity for a complete radio blackout by the at tacking fleet had delayed details until the operation had been completed, and only Wednesday were the amazing results of the Ameriean foray known.

In addition to sinking the two ight cruisers, the carrier planes fank one oiler and three cargo transports. One troop transport and three cargo transports were | AREADY ENDORSED. Have it Vigorous and prolonged enemy aerial attacks by bombers and tor pedo planes were fought off by the American fleet.

Six out of seven torpedo planes in one formation were sent hurtling into the sea.

The Kwajalein, Wotje, Aoi and Ebeye Atoll groups of the Marshalls, east of the great Japanese naval base of Truk and on the Hawaii-Australia route in the Cen tral Pacific, were the target areas Kwajalein was hit hardest. It was there that the two cruisers were sunk along with the oiler and the three cargo transports, and in addition a troop transport and two cargo transports were damaged by the fleet of planes which caught a big Japanese concentration in the coral reefed Kwajalein lagoon. endorsed again in your presence. 4. Require that all employees who cash checks shall initial them.

The Secret Service has for some years been engaged in a program of Crime Prevention. In 1938 they began a campaign known as 'Know Your Money" and since then counterfeiting has dropped 97 per cent. In addition to the great reduction in counterfeiting. the campaign has helped a great deal to keep down juvenile delinquency. Since many offenders in check cases are juveniles, the Secret Service is not only hopeful that their present campaign of "Know Your Endorsers" will save the taxpayers money in reduced investigative time, and expense of keeping prisoners in penitentiaries, but will help keep juveniles out of trouble. Also, because of the effect on morals of the armed forces, the Government is extremely anxious that no allotment or allowance check be delayed even one day, and Chief Murphy states that every effort will be made to make this effort successful here.

In connection with this warning Chief Murphy also warned persons about being careless with pocketbooks and purses while Christmas shopping. It was pointed out that there is always more | or less thieving of this nature go ing on during Christmas season and people cannot be too careful in such matters.

The Chief also warned about leaving valuable packages in unlocked cars, reminding that no one but the owner can be held responsible in such cases.

All-Out Bombings Move Writer to Compassion

Many Swedes Now Think Germans at Rope's End

By HELEN ESSARY Central Press Correspondent

• WASHINGTON-I often wonder what God in His heaven thinks of the human beings he created. Does He grieve or is He moved to righteous anger when He sees what they are doing to each other in the world He gave them?

Since He is a just God He must be tempted sometimes to destroy both the world and the people therein. The wastefulness and brutality of the air raids of modern warfare aimed at virtually helpless cities of defenseless civilians must sicken Him with the handiwork He created in His own image and likeness. Yet even more sickening than the raids themselves is the pride some of us feel when we report gleefully, for in-stance, that we "dropped 500 tons of bombs last night." -To Gloat If we of the United Nations have to do this slaughter in order to get the horrible business over, let's get it over as quickly as possible. But for decency's sake, don't let's gloat over the misery we have inflicted. I was discussing air bombings of civilian populations with a colonel in the United States Army. He said they were a confession of human degradation.

"Once I was in a city in Europe," he said, "when the Germans bombed a railway station. Four trains were taking on old men, women and children who were trying to escape the invaders. I arrived at the station less than five minutes after the bombs had been

"I have seen much fighting in my lifetime. I must admit that I have got a certain thrill out of hand-to-hand combat. Or opposing tanks in action. This sort of fighting is a sort of duel between evenly matched, evenly armed warriors.

"But when I looked at that hideous railway station, at the bleeding bits of women and children scattered amongst the flames, frag-ments of bricks and iron I thought "This is the end! There is nothing more that human beings can do to each other. I wonder why God doesn't smite us down forever!

The question in every mind today is, "When will we get through with all this degradation of war?'

Some authorities think the war in Europe cannot last longer than a few months. Certain exiled Norwegians have taken passage on the first ship out of New York for Bergen and are getting their affairs here in order preparatory to the return home. Czechoslovakian Prime Minister Eduard Benes declared when he was in Washington that the New Year will see Germany out.' Many military men say that the war is far from won.

They beg that we remember that great racial characteristic of the Germans-efficiency. If the world had not forgotten German efficiency at the end of the last war, they insist, if it had not lulled itself into thinking that Germany was finished as a nation World War II might not have come about.

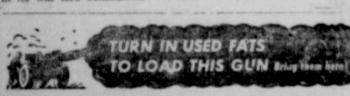

Here and there, however, you are told incidents that help you to believe Germany is reaching her last resistance. William L. Batt, vice chairman of the War Production Board, says when talking informally that many Swedes with whom he talked on a recent tour of Sweden believe that Germany will soon ask for an armistice. In proving this happy prediction, the Swedes point to the jokes about Hitler which are now being told openly in Germany, • I SHOULD LIKE to add my woman's last word to l'affaire Patton. Public sentiment may swing to the defense of the general who struck a shell-shocked soldier. Yet, I doubt if it will ever swing wide enough to obscure the perfect picture of totalitartanism given by General Pation and the authorities On That who concealed his outrageous conc Potton If you pluck the Patton story from its background you have the model for a four-rier movie of Nazi brutality and secrecy. The sacrety is worns than the brutality. It is stupid and unnecessary and makes civilians ask what is going on in this Army anyhow Out of the evil, however, her come wome good. Disapproving pubhe opinion is certain to make the heldary catablishment realize that it is a servant and not the rule of the people. Among the thousands of officers serving their on the knavely and efficiently there must be a few who have been reason g given too much power. The Patton display will lessen the Amer. At risk of following Germany in its war lord domination.

CHAPTER SIX

BETH WAS not home when Jim went to the apartment straight from his train. But Andrea was there. She was sitting on a stepladder, trimming the Christmas tree because Beth said it should be trimmed before Jim got there and then they would have all of Christmas and was not of the strain with him, so go to the train with him, so "Oh, Jim, Jim," Beth's small-

"It might hurt him, darling."

Andrea turned a surprised look upon Beth. "Who are you most worried about, Beth, Jim or me?"

"The worried about, Beth, Jim or me?"

"The worried about both of you, if this is the way you are beginning."

Andrea began to rub cold cream into her skin. "Don't you fret your pretty head about us. I'm going down to camp to visit Jim in a couple of weeks. I'll dig up a beau for you. You really ought to have one, Beth. You're likely to become jealous when you see the good times

.t. has been costly to many honest and sincere purchasers. Unlike the precious stone, the title with a flaw, in most cases, may be cured by means of the abstract and the attorney's opinion. A flaw in your right of ownership not only impairs the value of your investment but sooner or later is almost certain to cause you loss of time and money. In buying real estate, always demand an abstract.
