For economic development

City calls bond election

The Dimmitt City Council was told Monday night that general obligation bonds will be a better way to go than certificates of obligation in financing $4.5 million for economic development.

The council was also told that a bond election will be necessary. The election has been called for Jan. 9.

Dimmitt Mayor Wayne Collins said that bond attorneys advised the city to pursue general obligation bonds rather than certificates of obligation. He said there is some language in the Certificates of Obligation Act that requires that the funds be spent for a public purpose rather than a private enterprise.

Although general obligation bonds "obligate" the income from ad valorem taxes for repayment of the debt, Collins said the council has no intention to raise taxes. The council intends for the bonds to be repaid through payments made by the food processing company planning to locate in Dimmitt.

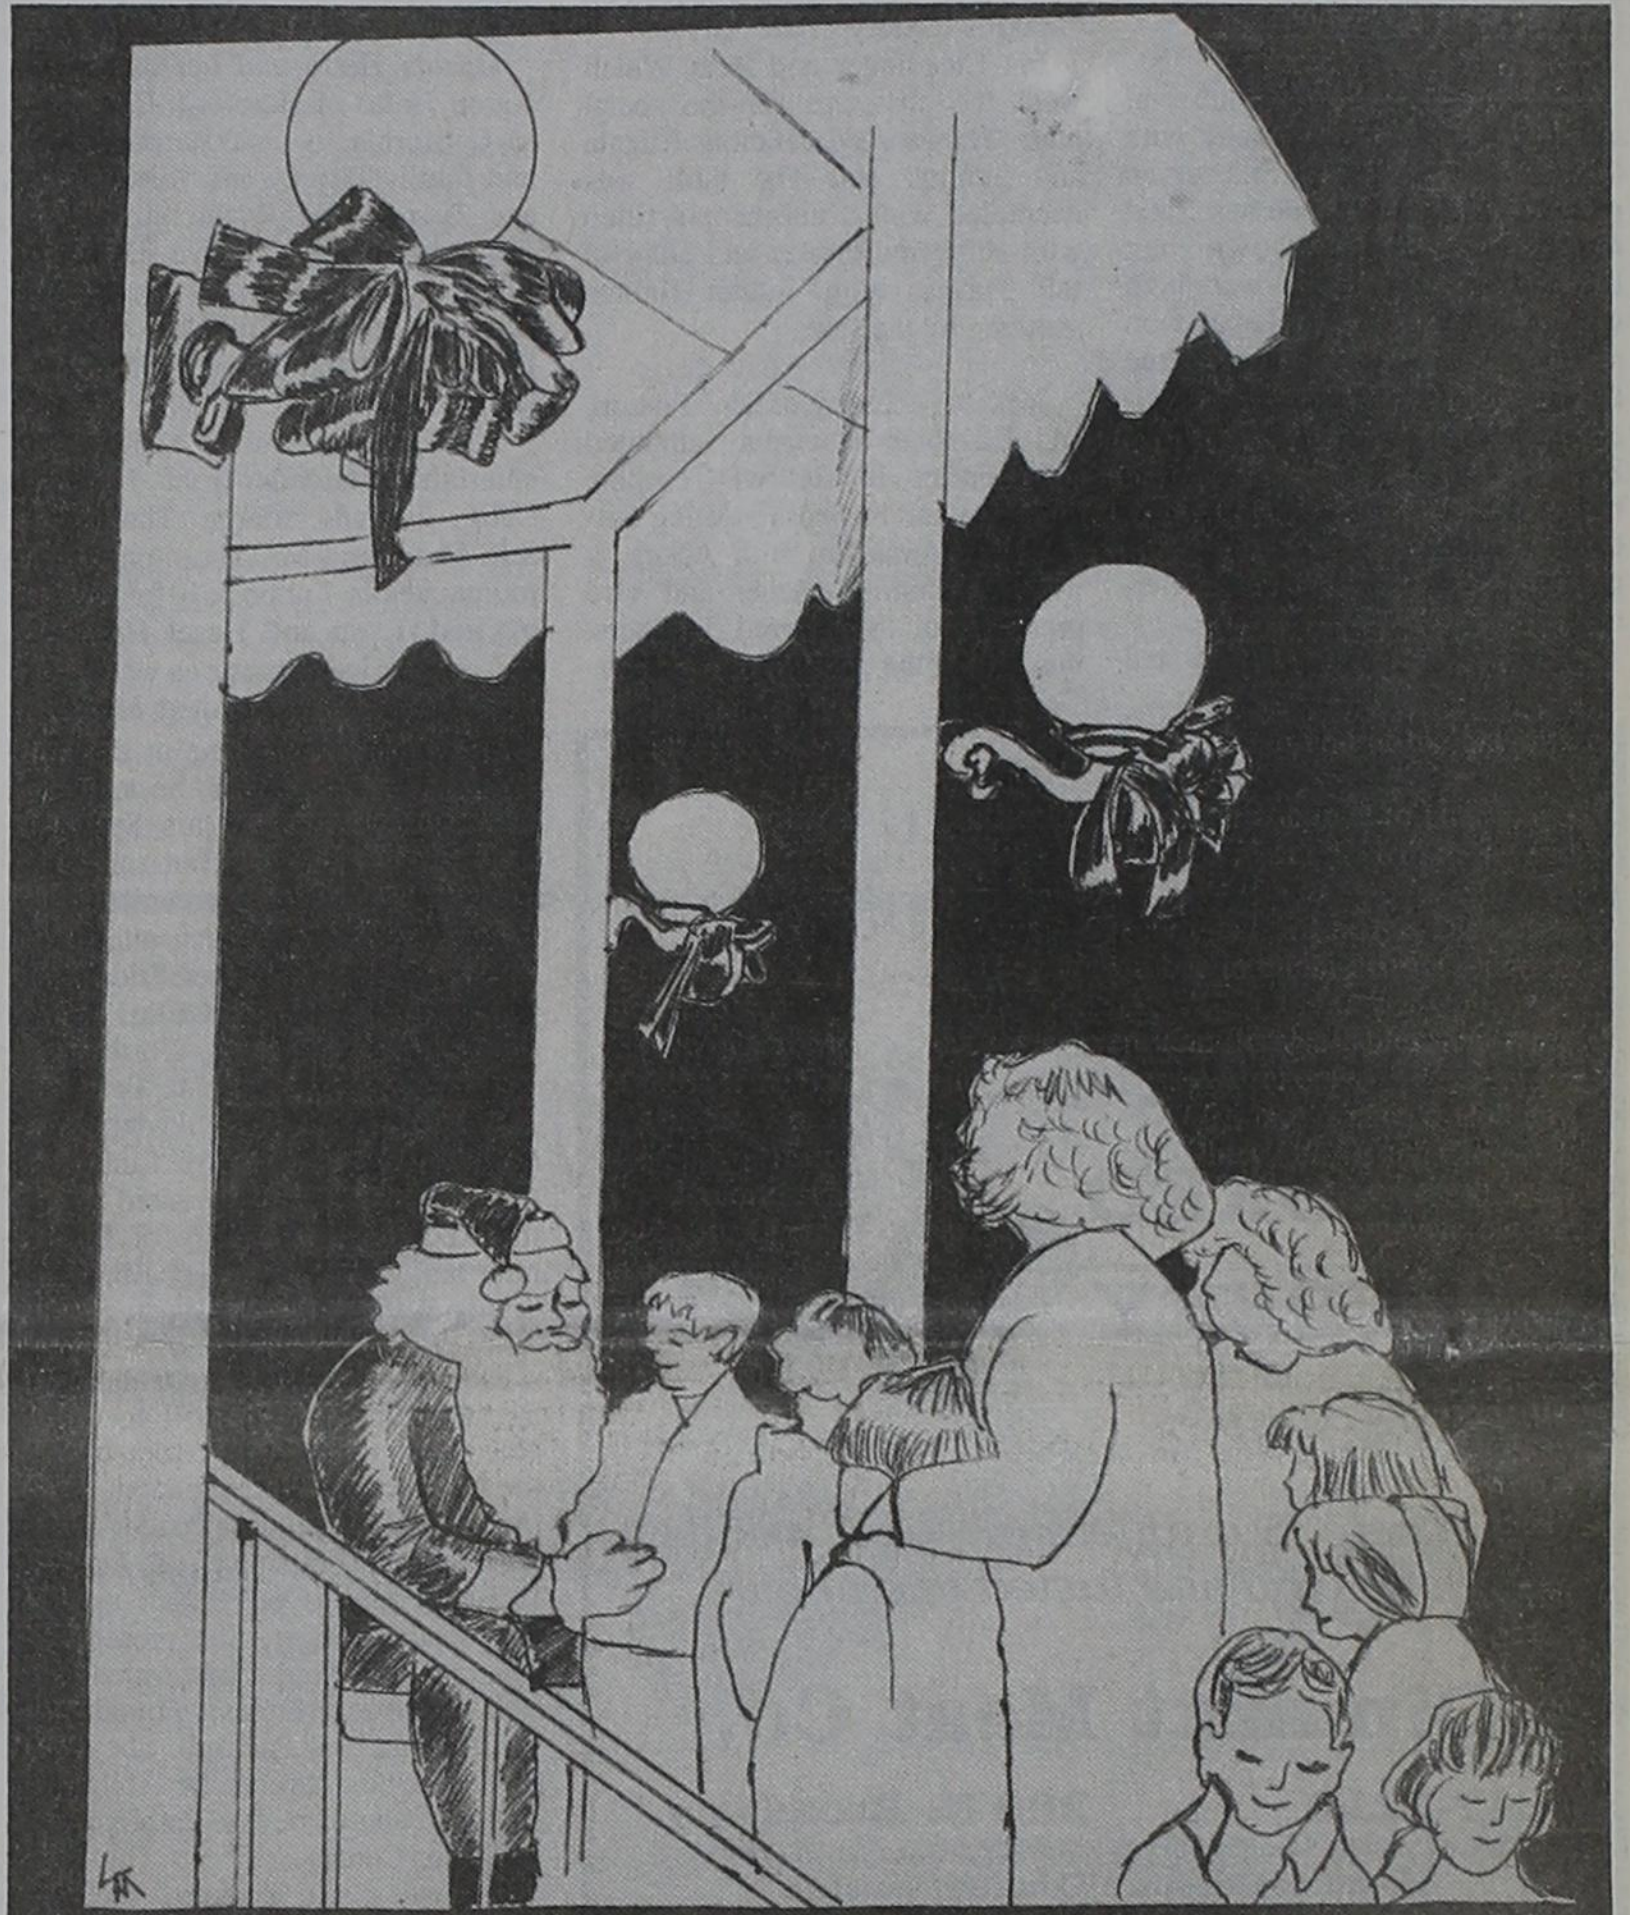

"Any venture has risks, but the council will make every effort to minimize the risks to the city," Collins said. He added that the company would repay the city more than the amount of the loan, and the additional funds would be placed in a special economic development account for future projects.

Collins reminded the council that the city will have the power to name members to the board of directors of the company in order to protect the city's interests even further.

The council revealed that the negotiations are being made with Ron Rubinoff of Rubinoff Foods, Inc. He has been a marketing director for ConAgra, and is highly regarded in the field of marketing, Collins said.

The vote on the issuance of the general obligation bonds will be for $4.5 million for purchase of land, facilities and equipment for economic development. The company

GUESS WHO'S COMING?—Santa Claus will arrive in Dimmitt tonight (Thursday), when he makes his first appearance at the gazebo in the Centennial Plaza on the courthouse square at 6:30. He'll visit with local children for 45 minutes or so, then will run some errands, then will return to the gazebo at 7:45 to make sure he hasn't missed anybody. Santa's arrival coincides with Christmas Open House in local stores and the lighting of the downtown area for the holidays.

Light Up Christmas

Christmas open house is tonight

Local merchants will "Light up Christmas—Dimmitt Style," tonight (Thursday) when the new Christmas lights will be turned on during the Dimmitt Merchant's Christmas Open House.

Eighteen downtown stores will be open from 6 to 9 p.m. to kick off the holiday shopping season. Many of those businesses will have money-saving "Open House Specials" (check the individual store ads throughout this issue, in borders like this one).

In addition to the lighting of the Christmas tree and the fronts of at least 45 buildings around town, Santa will arrive in Dimmitt on the fire truck at 6:30 p.m. Christmas caroling will be held from 7:30 to 7:45 p.m. at the gazebo. Santa will visit with more children at the gazebo from 7:45 to 8:45 p.m.

Christmas posters will be placed in participating merchant's store windows and drawings for "Dimmitt Dollars" will be held.

The first drawing for Dimmitt Dollars will be held tonight at the gazebo for those registering during the three-hour open house. Merchants are asked to deliver their entry forms at the gazebo before 9 p.m.

Additional drawings for Dimmitt Dollars will be held at 4 p.m. on Nov. 23, Nov. 30, Dec. 7 and Dec. 14. Two $50 winners will be drawn on Nov. 23, Nov. 30 and Dec. 7. On the final day, Dec. 14, one winner will receive $100 and another will receive $200.

Winners may redeem their Dimmitt Dollars at any Dimmitt business which redeems them.

Registration forms may be filled out at participating businesses. Customers must register each week in order to be eligible for each week's drawing. All registration slips will be placed into the drawing for the $200 prize. Merchants are asked to stamp their store name on the back of each registration slip.

For a complete listing of businesses participating in the Open House, see the ad on Page 6 of this issue of the News.

By Don Nelson

Okay. His name is Ron Rubinoff.

He lives in Eldorado, Ark., and is a marketing project manager with ConAgra—the second-largest and fastest-growing food processing company in the US.

He was born in Wichita Falls. He received his bachelor of business administration degree from Michigan State and an MBA from Southern Cal. He and his wife have three daughters, two of whom are married. He's a Baptist.

He has been with ConAgra 23 years. He is thoroughly versed in the production and marketing of processed foods, and is ready to strike out on his own. ConAgra doesn't want to lose him, I've been told, but they understand his desire to be independent.

He wants to establish Rubinoff Foods, Inc. And he wants to put it in Dimmitt.

Mayor Wayne Collins released the name and background on Rubinoff Tuesday night, when the City Council called an election to enable the city to issue $4.5 million in general obligation bonds "for economic development" — specifically, to help finance the construction of the Rubinoff Foods plant here, with the city as a one-third partner and a primary lien holder in the corporation.

(The council expects the city's actual share of the cost to be $4 million. The $4.5 million is a pop-valve figure in case there are unforeseen delays in start-up.)

Rubinoff expects his total capital requirements to be $12 million by the time the company can start generating income. That means he must raise and commit $8 million himself.

Reportedly, Rubinoff projects that construction will take about nine months, and that the company can start producing and marketing processed foods in one year, with approximately 50 employees. Then, as the company develops its markets and supply sources, it will in-

Holiday Calendar

TODAY: Christmas Open House from 6 to 9 p.m. Viewing of the new Christmas lights, caroling at the gazebo, and Santa's visit will be part of the activities. Also, a drawing will be held for $50 in Dimmitt Dollars.

SUNDAY: A holiday arts and crafts show will be held from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Nazareth School Cafeteria.

SUNDAY: The Christian Mothers' Society of Nazareth will sponsor a Thanksgiving dinner at the Nazareth Community Hall. The menu will include turkey, dressing and all the trimmings.

SUNDAY: Castro County Ministerial Alliance Community Thanksgiving service at 7 p.m. at Dimmitt's Fourth and Bedford Street Church of Christ. The song and prayer service will include a presentation from men's quartet, Psalms IV of Amarillo. The annual holiday food basket offering will be taken.

DEC. 5: ROW Holiday Tour of Homes from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the homes of Jay and Reba Touchstone, Gary Thompson, and Scotty and Terrie Abbott. A bake sale also will be held at the Abbott home. Funds help send a girl to Girls' State.

Barrett says 'Fair Share' is not fair

"There's no equity about it." That is what Dimmitt Supt. Bob Barrett told the school board about the "Fair Share Plan" of school finance being considered in a special session of the state legislature.

"The County Education District has been much more fair to us than this plan," Barrett told the board last Thursday. However, the CED plan has been declared unconstitutional by the courts. A new plan must be put in place by June 1 or the schools will be forced to shut down without any financing from the state. Also, the courts would select the new financing plan, rather than leaving it to the legislature.

Barrett said the "Fair Share" plan projects a tax increase for DISD through 1995, going from the present rate of $1.16 per $100 property valuation to $1.35. He said the plan projects increasing enrollment and increasing property wealth in the district over the course of the next three years. However, Barrett pointed out that both figures actually have been declining in Dimmitt.

'Horns to tackle Munday in area

Hart's Longhorns are Class A bi-district champions, but they want more than that. Head Coach Alan Cherry said his team has set a goal to reach the state championship.

But the road to the state championship has several obstacles and the first of those is the Munday Moguls.

Hart and Munday will square off in the area round of the playoffs Friday at 7:30 p.m. at Childress.

"We're going to have to buckle down and continue to play tough defense. We're also going to have to be able to get the ball in the end zone," said Cherry.

The Munday Moguls carry a 4-6 record and finished as District 3-A runner-up behind Spur. They drew a bye in the bi-district round of the playoffs.

Five of the Moguls' six losses were non-district games, and three of those losses came against ranked Class AA schools.

Munday lost to Class AA's Haskell (7-0), No. 6-ranked Holliday (48-6), No. 18-ranked Electra (43-0) and Olney (19-0); and Class A's Throckmorton (21-11). The team did lose one district game—to Spur, 28-2. But Cherry says several of Munday's key players were out for that game.

"Munday has a lot of tradition and they're going to be a very tough ballclub," said Cherry. "They had a killer non-district schedule, so their record doesn't count for a lot."

Cherry said Munday is "very large," and its 4-3 defense is the team's strength.

On offense, the Moguls operate out of a wishbone, but they do a lot of different things. Cherry said they have good speed, especially runningback Bronco Fly.

Cherry said to win, Hart's defense will have to be in top form. The Horns will have to stop Fly in the backfield because he's "one of the keys to their offense."

"We're just going to take one game at a time from now on," Cherry said. "There won't be any more easy games. We're just going to lay back, have fun and hopefully play good football."

The Plains Memorial Hospital Auxiliary met Nov. 11 with 14 members present. Mattie Seale presided over the business meeting and reports were given by Lucile Drerup and Barbara Sava. Claudine Langford gave the program on "Life Line" and showed a film, too. A lifeline can be rented for a short time or a life-time. How about giving a Life Line to someone for Christmas? Contact Claudine Langford or Ruby Wood or call the hospital if you are interested.

The Auxiliary will be having a bake sale at the hospital on Monday.

Reta Welch announced that the Dimmitt High School students will join together on Nov. 25 for STARS (Students Together Avoid Risky Situations). Pat Porter, a motivational speaker and youth consultant, will speak to the students during an assembly, and the public is invited.

The Thursday Bridge Club met at the Senior Citizens' Center with Cleo Forson as hostess. She served pumpkin delight for dessert, and members brought brown bag lunches. Ina Rae Cates won high score, and Elizabeth Huckabay won second. Others playing were Ferne Dickey, Emily Clingsmith, Helen Braafladt, Edith Graef, Neva Hickey, Louise Mears, Alma Kenmore, Johnnie Vannoy, Virginia Crider, Susie Reeves, Loranel Hamilton, Dude McLaurin, and Bernice Hill.

Grandparents, aunts, uncles, and cousins, mother and daddy and big sister, Chauncey, helped Cailee Gilbreath celebrate her first birthday in the home of her parents, Coby and Connie Gilbreath on Nov. 8. Birthday cake and lemonade were served. The cake was decorated with "Beauty and the Beast" in blue and mauve, with the same theme in the plates and napkins, accented by mauve-colored forks.

The Dimmitt Book Club met on Nov. 11 with Debbie Matthews, president, presiding. Marie Perrin introduced her guest reviewer, Jodi Thomas, an Amarillo author whose works include The Tender Texan. Thomas is a former school teacher, but she became so involved with her writing that she had to give up her teaching. She has written several books, including best-seller Prairie Song. She gave a speech on "Making History Come Alive."

Ina Cleavinger and Reta Welch were the hostesses for the social hour. They served delicious Rugala and almond tea. The table was decorated with a cornucopia filled with shiny red apples and colorful fall leaves, with Indian figures standing by the side.

Jackie McLeroy, Cleo Forson, and Elizabeth Huckabay attended the District 16 Retired Teachers luncheon and business meeting Saturday in Amarillo. Bob Askey, a former Dimmitt teacher and vice president of the Retired Teachers, introduced the guest speaker, Myr-tice Larson of Austin. Kenneth Gibson is the president and McLeroy is the secretary. There were 168 in attendance.

Alexis and Paula Proffitt presented a message in music as they played a piano duet Faith of Our Fathers on Sunday evening at Dimmitt's First Baptist Church.

The Adult 5 Sunday School Dept. at FBC held a fellowship dinner following the morning service. Turkey and dressing with salads, vegetables, and yummy desserts were served. The tables were pretty with grape leaf garlands down the center of each table, with votive candles embedded among the leaves and unusual confetti scattered all along the leaves. Roger and Geneva Malone hosted this special occasion. Paul Kenley's parents, Dub and Dorothy Kenley of Tahoka, and Dr. Carl and Mary Lou Moman and daughter, Claire, of Plainview were special guests.

Oneida Hutto and her son, Dr. Aaron Hutto of Hereford, flew out to California to visit Aaron's son and family, Monty and Kim Hutto and Brandon of Roamond, Calif. (This is in the Mojave Desert.) They drove around in the desert and went to Los Angeles, visited Disneyland, and went to Knott's Berry Farm.

After Oneida returned home, she entertained friends from Hemet, Calif., H. and Marge Thornton. S.R. Hutto and Mr. Thornton were roommates in Lubbock before they married. Lynn and Hazel Hendon of Lubbock were guests as well.

Members of the United Methodist Church were guests at an annual enchilada supper hosted by Reeford Burrous and his Sunday School class. They served enchiladas, beans, salad, and brownies.

Ed and Betty Freeman attended the Open Doors banquet Friday at the Harvey Hotel in Amarillo.

Kim Holland of Fort Worth and Jeff Lindsey and friend, Belinda Murphy of Dallas, were recent visitors in the home of Doris Lindsey. While here, they also visited with the Kent Lindsey family of Dimmitt and the Dr. Robert Lindsey family of Plainview.

Jackie McLeroy and her daughter, Judy Gray, drove to Abilene on Nov. 8 to a concert presented by the Abilene Opera Association, featuring Martha Pender. Pender is a high school classmate of Jackie McLeroy and is an Italian opera and concert singer. She presented some of the songs performed in Rome, Paris, Naples, Frankfurt, Amsterdam, and Palermo. She has produced nine operas in Abilene, and has been named a "Pathfinder" of Taylor County.

Following the concert, special guests were invited to celebrate her birthday at a reception on the stage.

Houston and Doris Lust, Rosa Acker, Doris Lindsey and Jack Flynt recently returned from a fall foliage tour through the beautiful Ozarks. They traveled from Amarillo on through the Oachita National Forest to Eureka Springs, Ark. The group attended the Passion Play, a drama depicting the story of Jesus' last days on earth, which is performed in an outdoor amphitheater.

From there, they continued on to Branson, Mo., where they visited the School of the Ozarks, Waltzing Waters, and toured the Shepherd of the Hills Farm. In Branson, they also enjoyed a show at the Mel Tillis Ozark Theatre, the John Davidson matinee at the Jim Stafford Theater, and the Shoji Tabuchi show. Rosa Acker had an exciting birthday recognition while the group attended the John Davidson show—she was the recipient of a hug and kiss from the star himself.

Rain prevented the group from touring Silver Dollar City, which features Ozarks arts and crafts, an amusement park and other musical shows. (Ralph and Avis Smith show their crafts at Silver Dollar City.)

From Branson, the group traveled to Claremore, Okla. to visit the Will Rogers Memorial, and spent the night at Fountainhead Resort on Lake Eufaula, Okla. After visiting the National Cowboy Hall of Fame in Oklahoma City, the group returned to Amarillo.

Also making the tour were Mr. and Mrs. John Schacher of Nazareth.

Driving class to be offered

A defensive driving course will be offered in Dimmitt Saturday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the City Hall, 200 SE Second Street.

Fee for the class is $25 and it is payable by cash or money order on Saturday.

Those who wish to pre-register for the class should call the Dimmitt Counseling Center at 647-2409.

The course is being offered by Central Plains Mental Health/Mental Retardation Center in cooperation with the National Safety Council. It is operated under license No. 605.

Cancer Society Helpers

The Castro County Unit of the American Cancer Society works hard to provide service, information and support to Dimmitt, Hart and Nazareth.

Nationwide today (Thursday), the American Cancer Society is sponsoring "The Great American Smoke-Out." This program draws national attention to the relationship between smoking and lung cancer and helps make everyone aware of the dangers of smoking.

The Castro County Unit participates by sponsoring a poster contest at Richardson Elementary School. School nurses Carol Lantz and Gracie Killough distribute information to all students. At high school, the FHA also will have a special emphasis and have some fun on "Great American Smoke-Out" Day.

The local unit is noted for the "gala" that is sponsored each year. The funds raised through "galas," the annual Cancer Crusade, golf tournaments, style shows, etc., are used to promote research, education, services, equipment to loan, and transportation of local cancer patients for treatment. The local unit also has placed educational materials at the schools and hospital, and has presented many programs for civic clubs.

All of this takes time and effort by volunteer workers. At the local level, all the work of the American Cancer Society is carried out by volunteers.

This Sunday from 2 to 3:30 in the Lamar Fellowship Hall of the First United Methodist Church in Dimmitt, the Castro County Unit will sponsor an Appreciation Tea to recognize local cancer survivors and to say "thank you" to all friends, sponsors and contributors.

This special work to help our friends and neighbors would not be possible without the help of others.

Incidentally, there is an urgent need for more members to continue the efforts. Especially needed right now are drivers for the "Road to Recovery" program, which involves driving cancer patients to and from treatments.

Please stop by for a few minutes Sunday afternoon and let the local Cancer Society leaders say "thank you" for your help and cooperation.

And if you can, please offer to help.

Sunnyside By Teeny Bowden, 647-5703

The reason why there has not been any Sunnyside News the past couple of weeks is because of my health problems, including a blood clot, stomach or liver distress, and arthritis in hands and feet, accompanied by swelling.

Sharon Sadler drove me to Amarillo Nov. 2 for an exam. I am trying to get more rest, but I'm still going.

Glenn and LaWanda Wilson, Rev. John and Ginger Hazle, Verba Sadler, and Teeny Bowden flew from Lubbock Nov. 8 to attend the annual session of the Baptist General Convention of Texas in Corpus Christi. All acted as messengers except Teeny. Clara Vick and Ezell Sadler also were elected messengers, but Clara had to go to a required seminar for her business, and Ezell stayed to finish a well he had been working on before cold weather set in.

After the convention, Glenn and LaWanda rented a car and drove to Donna, where they visited with her uncle and aunt through Thursday. They took the Wilsons into Old Mexico and showed them South Padre Island. They saw the ship Lexington in Copus Christi. They got home Nov. 12.

The pastor and LaWanda made short reports to the church about the convention. The Texas Baptist Committed breakfast on Tuesday of the convention drew about 1,000 to hear Keith Parks.

Frances Duke was co-chairman for the United Methodist Women's Thanksgiving dinner at the FUMC in Dimmitt Nov. 3. She said they fed over 800 people. Terri Loudder and possibly others from the community helped with the meal. Rita Bural bought two carry-out plates and brought them to have lunch with Teeny Bowden.

Rita Bural was admitted to Plains Memorial Hospital last Thursday for tests. She was admitted to Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo that night for tests and surgery. Rita's husband, Kevin, was with her through Thursday and the surgery, then Teeny Bowden spent Friday night with her. She came home Saturday.

Ezell and Verba Sadler went to their lake house at Hubbard Creek Lake on Monday to winterize the house. They came home Tuesday. Patricia Powell of Canadian and Verba Sadler visited with Goldie Thompson and Teeny Bowden Saturday. Patricia spent the night with Ezell and Verba Sadler Saturday night.

Bess Bills was honored with a birthday party by the Birthday Club Monday afternoon. Those present were Frances Duke, Betty Rose Loudder, Emma Jean King, Nelda Curtis, and Willie Mae Sadler.

At the meeting at Corpus Christi, Teeny Bowden saw Dorothy Shearer of Denton for the first time in probably 20 years. Their husbands had served in the Air Force together, and the two couples became good friends.

The church received a letter from Gale and Verba Sadler the last part of September. Verba said the Indian summer weather continues there, but a hint of fall is in the air. She told about the woman who was selected to attend a meeting of the Baptist Women's Union of Africa. Verba said the woman is probably the most educated woman in Tanzania, and she was elected secretary of the international BWUA. Verba said the woman did not have enough money for travel expenses, so they gave her $130 sent from our church.

Verba said they are staying busy as usual and praying for us, and hoping we are praying for them each day.

SS card required to get, renew driver's license

Texas who apply for a driver's license and persons renewing their license or seeking a duplicate must show their Social Security card as of Nov. 1.

"We think this new policy will make it harder for an individual to fraudulently obtain a driver's license," said Texas Dept. of Public Safety Driver's License Inspector John Hall.

Liability insurance verification also is required to secure or renew a driver's license.

The driver's license office in Dimmitt is open on Monday, Thursday and Friday of each week. The office is located on the first floor in the west wing of the courthouse.

Robison, Komuves united in double-ring ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew John Komuves Jr. are home in McKinney after enjoying a wedding trip to the Caribbean islands of Aruba, Curacao, St. Thomas and Virgin Gorda.

The couple exchanged wedding vows Sept. 19 in a formal, double-ring ceremony at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Amarillo with Msgr. Francis J. Smyer officiating.

The bride is the former Sydney Lyn Robison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dutch Robison of Amarillo. She is the granddaughter of the late Florence and Mildred Ball of Nazareth. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Komuves of Highland Village.

A large vase of deep purple gladiolas, baskets of greenery and a brass candelabra entwined with greenery decorated the church. White satin pew bows marked the center aisle.

Music played during the prelude included Vanessa Rauscher singing the Ave Maria. The processional featured Michael Burt playing the trumpet for Trumpet Voluntary. Margaret Skinner was the organist. Other musical selections during the ceremony were Come to the Water, Prayer of St. Francis, The Song of Ruth and Sent Forth By God's Blessing.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of candlelight shantung. It featured a portrait neckline with an off-the-shoulder collar accented with appliques of re-embroidered Alencon lace beaded with pearls. The long sleeves featured turn-back cuffs with beaded lace appliques. A fitted bodice topped the full skirt, which extended into a long cathedral-length train. Beaded lace appliques accented the back of the train and the hemline. The center front of the collar was marked with a flat cluster bow accented with beaded lace appliques.

A matching bow topped the veil of silk illusion which extended the length of the dress train.

She carried a bouquet of fresh flowers featuring gardenias, bridal roses, stephanotis, Queen Anne's lace and ivy.

For "something old," she carried an antique gold cross and necklace entwined in her bouquet. The necklace and cross had been presented to her great-great-grandmother by her husband at her wedding and has been passed down in the bride's mother's family and each either carried or wore the necklace at their own weddings.

Maid of honor was Carol Anne Beard of Fort Worth. Bridal attendants were Holly Anna Neal of Dallas, Sarah Murray Pelham of Newnan, Ga., Victoria Paige Kersey of Amarillo and Lynn Mary

MR. AND MRS. ANDREW KOMUVES JR. ... She's the former Sydney Lyn Robison

Komuves of Bedford, sister of the groom.

The attendants wore gowns of deep purple shantung. The dresses featured a long, slim skirt topped with a tailored fitted jacket which featured a narrow squared neckline, long sleeves with turned-back cuffs and rhinestone buttons.

They carried a free-form cluster of fresh bright-colored miniature carnations and pom pom mums, Gerbera daisies, alstromeria and statice.

The bridal gown and veil and the attendants' dresses were designed and made by the bride's mother.

Best man was Brian Cunningham of Houston. Groomsmen were John Clanton of Bryan, Darrell Rogers of Houston, and Cole Robison and Quentin Robison, both of Amarillo, brothers of the bride.

Ushers were James Shelton of Houston, Creighton Maynard of Weatherford, Cristopher Jammal of Lakewood, Ohio and Dr. James McKinley of Flower Mound.

Honorary attendants and members of the houseparty were Elizabeth Anne Baum of Atlanta, Ga.; and Melissa McMurray Shelton, Michelle Rogers, Michelle Miller Long and Jenny Cleveland McKay, all of Houston.

Following the wedding, the couple was honored with a reception at the Galbraith House in Amarillo. They rode to the reception in a horse and buggy decorated with "Just Married" signs and purple ribbons furnished by Bill Cornette.

The bride's table held a four-tiered Italian cream wedding cake decorated with fresh flowers including white roses, babies breath, white gladiola blossoms, lemon leaves and ivy.

The groom's double fudge chocolate cake was decorated with chocolate roses.

Decorations at the Galbraith House were vases of fresh flowers in varying shades of purple. The tables in the backyard were centered with pots of pansies. The buffet lunch was served in the dining room from a table laid with silver appointments.

Piano and guitar music was provided by Ramon Saldana during the reception. As a special dedication to the couple, he sang Could I Have This Dance for the Rest of My Life.

For her traveling attire, the bride wore a black linen dress topped with a black beaded bolero jacket.

The bride holds a bachelor of arts degree in political science from Texas Christian University in Fort Worth. She was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. She received a law degree from the University of Houston School of law in Houston and is a practicing attorney in north Dallas.

The groom has a bachelor of science degree in secondary education from TCU, where he was a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity. He also holds a bachelor of science degree in pharmacy from the University of Houston. He is chief pharmacist at Princeton Family Drug in Princeton.

The groom's parents hosted a rehearsal dinner, catered by Cattle Call, at the Galbraith House. Musical entertainment was provided by Creighton Maynard.

By CINDY POTTORFF Rhoads Memorial Library

During the holiday season, families are on everybody's mind.

Sometimes just what families are supposed to be about gets lost in the hustle and bustle of the season.

What better time to read Familyhood: Nurturing the Values that Matter by Dr. Lee Salk? It's full of "common" sense. There are no quick fixes here, but plenty of sound ideas.

In a lighter vein, Maeve Binchy has written The Copper Beech, a novel about small town life in Ireland. Young people in Shancarrig carve their dreams in an old copper beech tree. What becomes of them makes the story.

Lives are not always as they appear in Shancarrig. Over the years, the group of children who embarrassed the parish priest when the bishop came to visit, go their separate ways. But in the end they come together to help a new generation cherish the copper beech.

The library will be closed on Thanksgiving and the following Friday, but will be open the Saturday after Thanksgiving.

Happy Turkey Day from all of us at the library.

WASHINGTON FOCUS CLOSING CEREMONIES
Bill Hochstein carries Texas Flag.

Hochstein attends Washington Focus

Bill Hochstein, a member of the Nazareth 4-H Club, attended the 1992 Citizenship Washington Focus this past summer.

At the closing ceremonies, Hochstein was selected to retire the state flag for the Texas delegation, and also accepted a US flag that had flown over the nation's capitol during the Focus program. The flag was brought back to Texas to be flown at the state capitol in Austin.

Hochstein is the son of William and Katherine Hochstein of Nazareth, and he is a senior at Nazareth High School.

The CWF is a 4-H program that helps youth understand how individual actions can make a difference. Conducted in Washington, D.C., the program uses the nation's capital as a classroom to foster youth appreciation, understanding and involvement in civic responsibility, government operations and current issues.

The Focus program combines educational workshops and operational simulations with education field trips and professional consultations. Topic highlights included youth issues, the US Constitution, and the federal government. Another feature is the opportunity to meet 4-H members from across the nation and share concerns, ideas and inspirations.

Nazareth

By Uirle Gerber

A good crowd of 44 members and guests enjoyed dinner Sunday at the Nazareth Senior Citizens Center. It was a very good meal catered by Catherine Huseman, Lenora Braddock and Marlene Acker.

A scripture service was held in Holy Family Church for Leonard Hoelting, 64, a resident of Canterbury Villa Nursing Home in Dimmitt. Deacon Jerome Brockman officiated at the service.

Stevie Dobmeier is home to recuperate after having surgery at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock.

Ray and Mattie Swirczynski left on Nov. 5 and made Muenster their first stop. They visited with old friends and Ray's family who lived there on Nov. 6. Mattie went on to Fort Worth that afternoon and spent the night with her son, Dick Endres. All their family were home that evening (14 members).

On Saturday morning Dick, Rosic and Mattie drove to Houston to visit Nick and Linda Endres. They all attended the wedding of Vic Brockman's grandson, Chad Brockman, on Saturday evening. On Sunday morning Sister Irma Endres joined them at Nick's home for a good visit. On Monday Mattie was met in Denton by her daughter, Jean, of Ardmore, Okla. She spent the night there and helped her granddaughter celebrate her 13th birthday. She returned to Muenster on Tuesday after stopping in Wichita Falls to visit with Sister Agnes Endres.

Ray stayed in Muenster and visited with his family in Irving and Lewisville. They had lots of family news to share upon their return to Nazareth.

Several Nazareth parishioners including Ronnie Wilhelm, Alice Palazzini, Timothy Braddock, John and Norma Schacher and Mary Litsch attended the five-day mission at Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Dimmitt. It was given by Father Forrest McAllister, a Franciscan priest. The theme was "How to Move Mountains in Your Life." The three Rs he discussed were redemption, repentance and reconciliation.

Aurelia Schoenenberger and Ann Kern recently drove to Itasca, Ill., to a conference sponsored by Voice Network International. It was on Catholic activism and there were speakers from Canada, France, Scotland and England as well as from the US. Most of the leaders were authors and journalists, and some of their writings are familiar. They were impressed with Father Norman Weslin, leader of the Lambs of Christ, who has been jailed 50 to 60 times for praying in front of abortion clinics. A remark which stands out in his talk is "we would meet again in fireside chats in purgatory!"

The First Friday mass was at the traditional Polish church of St. John Cantius in downtown Chicago. It was a ridentine mass with beautiful music from a pipe organ. They visited again with Father John O'Conner, who had given missions in Amarillo.

In the workshops they were amazed at the discipline and questions of children attending. These children were "home schooled." The conference was quite educational with much information. They have hope because "we are not alone."

Sunday evening was spent visiting with Bill and Lorraine Benson in South Holland, Ill. Bill is the author of the book, The Law That Never Was. The two-volume book was the result of researching the 16th amendment to the US Constitution.

On their journey home they visited with Acker relatives Alberta Morris and Genevieve Janssen in Otterbein, Ind. They traveled in cloudy, damp weather and saw a lot of corn in the fields, which had not been harvested.

In Gravette, Ark., they visited with Al Schoenenberger's niece, Judy, and her husband, Randy Porter in Edmond, Okla. They visited Aurelia's niece, Lois and her family, Gregg, Shane and Robin.

They drove through cloudy weather and sometimes heavy rain in Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Arkansas and Oklahoma and only saw the sun while nearing the Texas line.

George Schacher is home to recuperate after being a patient at High Plains Baptist Hospital in Amarillo. He is doing as well as expected.

Ed and Eileen Gerber of Ruidoso spent the weekend here with their parents, Tony and Mary Gerber and Paul Venhaus. Ed will have shoulder surgery in Methodist Hospital in Lubbock this week.

Top teacher award letters due Saturday

It is not too late for you to tell everyone what a great teacher you have.

You can still help your teacher win a "South Plains Outstanding Teacher Award" if you send a letter by Saturday telling about how your teacher has helped you learn.

KTXT-TV Channel 5 in Lubbock is asking students in grades one through 12 to tell about a teacher they have this year, or a teacher they had in the past. The letter should tell why the student thinks that teacher should be a winner, and it needs to tell if the teacher still works as a teacher or not.

From all of the letters, six winning teachers will be picked. KTXT-TV will tell who the winners are on a program on Dec. 9 from 7 to 9 p.m. If the teacher you write about is one of the winners, the station will tell your name, too.

In the letter, students should write the name of the teacher they want to honor, the school where the teacher works, the teacher's grade level, and the address and phone number of the school.

Letters must include the student's name, home address and phone number.

Letters should be sent to Carla Relaford, KTXT-TV, Box 42161, Texas Tech University, Lubbock, Texas, 79409-2161.

Holiday arts and crafts show, turkey dinner set in Nazareth

Nazareth's annual holiday arts and crafts bazaar and turkey dinner will be held Sunday.

The arts and crafts show will be open to the public from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Nazareth school cafeteria.

The turkey dinner, sponsored by the Christian Mothers Society, will be served from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Nazareth Community Hall.

Individuals interested in reserving a booth for the arts and crafts show should contact either Lucille Drerup (Box 3, Nazareth 79063) at 945-2562 or Rose Mary Wilhelm (HCR 2, Box 13, Nazareth 79063) at 945-2583 before Saturday, Nov. 14.

Booths are 8 x 10 and include a table and two chairs. Booths may be reserved for $15 each, and when making a reservation, individuals are asked to state if they will need the table or if they will use their own display racks. Individuals reserving booths also should specify whether they prefer to rent a wall or center booth.

Booths will be assigned on a first-come basis and must be paid for to be reserved.

Checks for booth reservations should be made payable to the Nazareth Art Club. When sending a check, individuals should also enclose information about what will be displayed in their booth.

On the day of the show, the cafeteria will be open at 7:30 a.m. so exhibitors may set up their booths.

Community Thanksgiving service set

The Castro County Ministerial Alliance is sponsoring the annual Community - Wide Thanksgiving Service Sunday at 7 p.m. at Dimmitt's Fourth and Bedford Church of Christ.

The public is invited to attend the song and prayer service, which will include a presentation by a male quartet, Psalms IV of Amari- lo.

Many local congregations are cancelling regular Sunday evening services so that their members may attend the community service.

The Ministerial Alliance will take up a free-will offering to be used for the annual holiday food baskets that are distributed to the needy. Last year's offering passed the $1,000-mark.

"Each year, as a nation, we stop and give thanks for the blessings we have. This year we, as a community, will join together to give thanks and to have a special time of prayer for our newly elected officials and to ask for guidance for our nation as we look to the new year," an Alliance spokesperson said.

PREPARING FOR THE STARS—Reta Welch (left) and Sue Summers make final preparations for Dimmitt High School's STARS (Students Together Avoid Risky Situations), which will be held Wednesday. The day-long event will feature programs about issues facing today's youth. Among these are teen pregnancy and alcohol and drug abuse.

Health issues, risky situations are topics set for STARS event

Dimmitt High School students will join together on Wednesday for STARS, Students Together Avoid Risky Situations.

The STARS program will focus on education and information about a variety of topics concerning today's youth. It will feature a number of sessions in which the students will participate. These include highlighting some risky situations and behavior among high school students and how the students should react to these.

On Wednesday Pat Porter, a motivational speaker and youth consultant, will speak to the students during an assembly.

His REAL Teenagers program is designed to address problems of teen sex, alcohol and drugs abuse and negative peer pressure.

He also speaks to students in the fifth and sixth grades in his "Getting TUF on Alcohol" program.

Porter is a frequent speaker for teacher workshops and in-services. He presents keynote speeches and workshops to groups such as the Future Homemakers of America, Future Farmers of America, Peer Leadership Conferences and more.

According to DHS Counselor Sue Summers, students will be able to select four sessions which they wish to attend. The sessions address topics of concern for today's youth.

The focus of the program is on "wellness," or educating students on health issues and ways to prevent problems from occurring.

Among the sessions planned during Dimmitt's STARS event are:

- ◆ Parent-teen relationships.
- ◆ Staying in school — road to success.
- ◆ Cultural influence and alcohol.
- ◆ AIDS — What you need to know.
- ◆ True Colors—identifying and understanding values.
- ◆ 3 Rs of abuse
- ◆ "On the rocks."
- ◆ Cruising and boozing.
- ◆ Date rape and domestic violence
- ◆ More than saying no.
- ◆ My fault, your fault, our fault — Who's to blame.
- ◆ Fetal alcohol syndrome
- ◆ Head injuries.
- ◆ Ocean of emotions.

◆ Getting the true message—media influence.

◆ An inside look at the "fine" family.

◆ "Fair fights"—problems with parents.

◆ Coping and healing — grief and loss.

◆ The hidden addiction—eating disorders.

◆ Teen sexuality.

◆ Muscles—real or artificial.

◆ Ritualistic abuse.

◆ Suicide: Facts and warning signs.

◆ Stress management.

Church Happenings

Immaculate Conception Catholic Church

There will be a communion service instead of mass Thursday and Friday at 7 and 8 p.m., respectively. CCD classes in Dimmitt and Hart will be canceled Wednesday because of Thanksgiving.

Hart will celebrate a Thanksgiving mass on Tuesday, Nov. 24 at 8 p.m. Confessions will be held from 7 to 8 p.m.

There will be a mass on Thanksgiving Day at 11 a.m. and the usual 7 p.m. mass will be cancelled.

A prayer meeting will be held next Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

Ministerial Alliance

A union Thanksgiving Service will be held Sunday at 7 p.m. at the Fourth and Bedford Street Church of Christ. Claude Hendricks, pastor of the Assembly of God, will be the speaker.

Norbert Choong will lead the Castro County Ministerial Alliance in a study of Matthew 24:36-44 on Tuesday at 10 a.m. at the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church's rectory.

ROW sets home tour

The Castro County Republican Organization for Women will sponsor its annual Holiday Home Tour Dec. 5 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Featured will be the homes of Jay and Reba Touchstone, sixth house west of Dimmitt on SH 86; Gary Thompson, 725 Maple; and Scotty and Terrie Abbott, 1620 Sunset Circle.

Also, a bake sale will be held at the Abbott home.

Proceeds from the event will be used to send a local girl to Girls' State, a legislative learning experience for high school juniors.

A club spokesperson said this may be the last year the tour is offered, since interest in the project has been declining in recent years.

Presbyterian Church

Sunday school classes will meet Sunday at 10 a.m.

"What in the World is God Doing?" will be the subject of Pastor Edward D. Freeman's sermon at the Sunday morning worship service, scheduled to begin at 11.

Presbyterians will join with members of other county churches in a union Thanksgiving service Sunday evening at 7 at the Fourth and Bedford Street Church of Christ.

Claude Hendricks, pastor of the Assembly of God Church, will be the speaker. Special music will be from a Church of Christ college.

At the congregational meeting, Mary Jo Brown, Mary Cox and Betty Freeman were elected as elders to serve on the Session. L.C. Braafladt was elected to the board of trustees.

Church Directory

So Abram went, as the Lord had told him; and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran. And Abram took Sarai his wife, and Lot his brother's son, and all their possessions which they had gathered, and the persons that they had gotten in Haran; and they set forth to go to the land of Canaan. When they had come to the land of Canaan, Abram passed through the land to the place at Shechem, to the oak of Moreh. At that time the Canaanites were in the land.

AIR BUCKLEY—Darrell "Slam Jam" Buckley goes up for a basket against the Dream Team '96 during a benefit basketball game last Thursday night in Dimmitt Middle School gym. Dream Team players are Carlos Brazolin (25), Stacey High (34), Mitzi Marquart (20) and Teresa Tinner (22). Locals following Buckley's shot are his wife, Beth "Fast Break" Buckley and Lori "Long Legs" Lemons. The game raised approximately $700 for the Dimmitt Athletic Booster Club. "The Booster Club really appreciates everybody's attendance and support," project chairman Don Moore said.

crease its production and payroll steadily. Rubinoff reportedly projects a work force of 500 to 600 and annual sales of $130 million in five years.

By comparison, the American Fructose plant here (which carries 40% of our local tax load) has approximately $106 million in sales annually.

If the people of Dimmitt were to approve the bond issue, the bonds would be secured primarily by the city's capital assets, tax base and excellent credit rating. And the city's loan to the corporation would be secured by the physical plant and equipment. The bonds would be paid off not by taxes, but by income from the business.

"Even if the company were to go broke, the chances of the city ever having to raise taxes because of this bond issue would be slim to none, considering the capital assets and reserve funds that the city has," Collins said.

Originally, I thought Dimmitt was the first city to try this method of financing economic development, as authorized recently by the legislature.

But George Williford, vice-president of First Southwest Co., investment bankers, told me Tuesday night that Wheeler County already has done it, along with several cities downstate. City-backed and county-backed bonds are likely to become the new norm for financing industrial development.

At first, the City Council thought it could simply issue "certificates of obligation" without an election being necessary. That's the way the city wanted to go — if residents would support it in a public hearing — in order to save time and strike while the iron was hot.

But the city has been advised by experts in the field that, from a legal and practical standpoint, general obligation bonds are the best method to raise the money. With either bonds or certificates of obligation, an election is necessary, the city has been told.

So the schedule has been revised.

It's still a dream, both for Rubinoff and for the city.

Rubinoff can't start getting his own financing together until after the city's voters (and the state attorney general) approve the bond issue. And $8 million is a lot of capital to raise. But his prospects look encouraging, Collins says.

It's a dream that's definitely worth pursuing.

"Although there will be ongoing investigations and considerations, we feel pretty comfortable about the project so far," Collins said. "I think there's a possibility that this can work out real well for the city."

He added, "Six hundred new jobs would put our population back over 5,000, and we could get back on track for steady growth."

"This could be the thing that can turn the city around."

Smith files answer in declaratory suit

More about City . . .

Pct. 1 Commissioner Harold Smith has filed an "original answer" with the 64th District Court in response to a suit for declaratory judgement filed recently by Castro County Commissioners.

The suit asks for a declaratory judgement on Section 130.908 of the Texas Local Government Code, which concerns pre-approval of spending by an incumbent who has failed to win his party primary.

After Smith was defeated in his bid for re-election in the March primary, the county issued an order saying all purchases by Smith had to be pre-approved by the court, in compliance with Section 130.908.

After a federal judges' panel declared the March primary invalid and ordered that Smith remain in office until a new election can be called (which could be next May), Smith asked that the pre-approval order be rescinded.

That's when the county asked County Attorney Jimmy Davis to file the suit for "declaratory judgement."

Amarillo Attorney John Thomas Boyd Jr, who has been retained by Smith, filed an "original answer" from Smith.

Boyd contends that although Smith is not named as a defendant in the county's original petition, the interpretation of Section 130.908 and the relief sought by the county are adverse to Smith's interests.

In Smith's answer, Boyd has stated "The Commissioners' Court of Castro County is seeking to treat Smith as a defeated incumbent under Section 130.908, even though the primary election in which he ran was in violation of the Voting Rights Act and declared invalid by the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas, and the Nov. 3, 1992 general election for County Commissioner, Place One, enjoined. For that reason, the interests of Smith in this suit are those of a defendant."

The document further states that Section 130.908 does not apply to his situation and it "does not require the Commissioners' Court of Castro County to approve expenditures by him in his capacity as county commissioner for Precinct 1, and that he recover his costs of court. . ."

name will not be tied to the bonds.

If the issue passes, the city does not have to issue the bonds right away. It could wait as much as a year or two. If conditions do not continue to look favorable on the Rubinoff project, the bonds could be issued for another project.

"We want to know how the voters feel about this issue," Collins said. "If there is not public support for the bonds, then the council will not pursue it any further."

In other business, the council authorized City Manger Reeford Burrous to seek bids on a one-ton pickup for use by City Works Dept. Supervisor Ralph Salinas.

Burrous reported that the overall city budget is .15% under projected expenses for the fiscal year so far.

Police calls

A 15-year-old Dimmitt youth told police Saturday that someone assaulted him at a party around 2:45 a.m.

Juanita Dominquez of Dimmitt reported that someone stood on the hood of her car, causing $150 in damage to the vehicle. She said the damage was done around 10 p.m. last Thursday.

Doris Gabel of Dimmitt inadvertently left a bag on the trunk of her vehicle, and lost the bag and its contents, valued at $75. She reported the loss around 7 a.m. Monday.

An article of women's jewelry was found in the women's restroom at the Dimmitt High School football stadium Friday night. Hart High School teacher Euva Skiles reported the find to police around 9:16 p.m.

The Town & Country Store in Dimmitt reported two losses during the past week. Last Thursday, someone took $20 in cash around 7 p.m. Then, Monday at 8:15 a.m., someone driving a 1978 blue Ford pickup drove off without paying for $15.70-worth of gasoline.

A 22-year-old Hart man remained in jail Tuesday afternoon as a result of violation of his probation. The man was on probation on charges of burglary of a building, and he was arrested for DWI around 12:30 a.m. Friday.

Three Hereford men, ages 30, 44 and 46, were arrested on charges of public intoxication around 7 p.m. Sunday.

A Dimmitt man, 44, was charged with DWI around 10:15 p.m. Sunday, and at 10:36 p.m., a 40-year-old Dimmitt man was arrested for public intoxication.

Friday was definitely unlucky for a 53-year-old Lubbock man who was charged with DWI, third offense around 5:50 p.m.

A 19-year-old Dimmitt youth was arrested for public intoxication and disorderly conduct around 3:55 p.m. Nov. 10.

Oralia Herrera, 14, of Dimmitt was ticketed for no driver's license when the 1983 Buick she was driving was struck by a 1984 Plymouth driven by Jimmy Dale Taylor, 37, of Plainview. Police reported that Herrera was heading east on West Bedford, when Taylor exited from the Allsup's parking lot and struck Herrera's vehicle. The accident occurred around 4:41 p.m. Nov. 11. Both vehicles were rated with moderate damage, and no injuries were reported.

Leaving the scene of an accident, no liability insurance, and no driver's license were all charged against Richardo Castillo, 20, of Dimmitt, when the 1978 Cougar he was driving struck an unattended pickup parked in the 600 block of Northwest Seventh Street in Dimmitt around 10:28 p.m. Saturday. The pickup was owned by Jim Roberts of Dimmitt. Damage to both vehicles was rated moderate and no injuries were reported.

'WILL YOU GIVE 30?'—Auctioneer Jack Howell calls up bids during the annual cake auction at Canterbury Villa nursing home last Thursday night. Holding cakes up for display are Sharon Leinen (left) and Carolyn Moke. During the lively, fun-filled event, Howell auctioned off 85 donated cakes for more than $3,100. The money will go to buy Christmas gifts for nursing home residents and to supplement the home's activity fund. "We really appreciate the way the town supports the nursing home residents," Administrator Clota Marie Shaw commented. A turkey-and-dressing dinner for residents and guests preceded the auction. Obituaries

Mary Bliss

Funeral services for former Hart resident Mary Elizabeth Henderson Bliss, 64, of Greenbrier, Ark., were held last Thursday in the Roller McNutt Funeral Chapel, with Sonny Harvison officiating.

Burial was in Hunter Hill Cemetery in Clinton, Ark., under the direction of Roller McNutt Funeral Chapel.

Mrs. Bliss died in a tractor accident Nov. 9.

Born Jan. 31, 1928 in Lamb County, she lived in Greenbrier, Ark., since 1968. She attended school in Olton and Hart, and had been a Hart resident for some time. She was a Baptist.

She is survived by three sons, Tommy Rainer of Russellville, Ark., Bobby Rainer of North Pole, Alaska, and Gary Don Rainer of Breenbrier; a daughter, Patricia Stracner of Conway, Ark.; three brothers, R.G. and Cliff Henderson of Hart, and Charlie Henderson of Payson, Ariz.; seven sisters, Bea Cole of Hart, Anna Lou Huff of Lubbock, Glee Williams of Canyon, Nola Jobe of Granbury, Joy Owens of Carlsbad, N.M., Lola Stewart of Illinois, and Jane Schlock of Amarillo; nine grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

Carl Collyer

Funeral services for Carl Otis Collyer, 69, of Fort Worth, formerly of Dimmitt, were held Monday afternoon at Edge Park Methodist Church in Fort Worth. Masonic graveside services were held at Laurel Land Cemetery, with burial under the direction of Harverson and Cole Funeral Home.

Mr. Collyer died Friday in Fort Worth.

He was born Nov. 6, 1923 in Emporia, Kan., and he was an Army veteran of World War II. He married Alice Hays 46 years ago. They lived many years in Dimmitt. Mr. Collyer had been in the grain industry since 1948, and continued to work part-time since his retirement in January of 1991.

He was a charter member of South Hills Masonic Lodge #1389. He was a past patron of Mathis Lodge #874 and of Dimmitt Lodge #819. Collyer also belonged to the Order of the Eastern Star South Hills Lodge #835. He was a member of the Fort Worth Transportation Club and a charter member of Edge Park Methodist Church.

During his years in Dimmitt, Mr. Collyer was an employee of Bruegel & Sons. He was instrumental in organizing the successful effort to fight the closure of the local train depot in hearings held in 1983. He also helped with the 1988 effort to organize a multi-county Rural Rail District in further efforts to maintain rail service in the area.

Survivors include his wife; two daughters, Mary C. Faherty of Fort Worth and Patricia C. Hatchel of Hayward, Calif.; two sons, John W. of Arlington and David C. of Saginaw; a sister, Esther C. Crimmet of Council Grove, Kan.; six grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews.

The family suggests memorials to the Order of the Eastern Star Home, 1111 E. Division, Arlington, 76011.

Lola Estes

Funeral services for Lola I. Estes, 81, of Olton, the mother of a Hart woman, were held Monday afternoon in Olton's First Baptist Church with Rev. Mike Wilcox, pastor, officiating.

Burial was in Olton Cemetery under the direction of Foskey Funeral Home of Olton.

Mrs. Estes died Saturday in Heritage Home in Plainview after a lengthy illness.

Born in Gustine, she married J.G. "Jack" Estes on Sept. 17, 1927 in Comanche County. They moved to Olton in 1933. She was a member of the Olton First Baptist Church, the Olton Garden Club, the Extension Homemakers Club, and the Olton Senior Citizens.

She is survived by her husband; three sons, Sam Roy of Troy, Johnny Mack of El Paso, and Teddy Jack of Leander; a daughter, Letha Key of Hart; two brothers, Kenneth McDonald of Mullin, and Alden "Cotton" McDonald of Dallas; 11 grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

The family suggests memorials to Runningwater Draw Care Center or the Olton Ambulance Association, in care of Olton State Bank.

Leonard Hoelting

Services for Leonard A. Hoelting, 64, lifetime resident of Nazareth, were held last Thursday at Holy Family Church in Nazareth with Deacon Jerome Brockman officiating.

Burial followed in Holy Family Cemetery under the direction of Foskey Funeral Home of Dimmitt.

Mr. Hoelting died at 6:53 p.m. on Nov. 10 at Plains Memorial Hospital in Dimmitt after a lengthy illness.

He was a farmer and a member of Holy Family Catholic Church.

Survivors include three brothers, Cecil, Richard and Ronnie, all of Nazareth; two sisters, Estelle Keys of Lubbock and Dianna Norris of Dallas; his mother, Ella Hoelting of Nazareth; and a host of nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers were Stanley Hoelting, Neal Hoelting, Keith Hoelting, Leland Hoelting, Jeff Norris and Darrin Keys.

The family requests memorials to Holy Family Cemetery Fund, P.O. Box 100, Nazareth, 79063.

Wessie M. Ivey

Graveside services were held Tuesday afternoon at Westlawn Memorial Park for Wessie M. Ivey, 82, of Dimmitt. Rev. Claude Hendricks, pastor of the First Assembly of God, officiated at the service.

Burial followed under the direction of Foskey Funeral Home of Dimmitt.

Mrs. Ivey died at 1:13 a.m. Monday at Canterbury Villa Nursing Home after a lengthy illness.

She was born in Brownwood and lived in Seguin before moving to Dimmitt in 1982. She married James Ivey on Jan. 27, 1959, in Seguin. He preceded her in death.

She was a homemaker and a member of the Pentacostal Church. There are no known survivors.

Mary Rice

Graveside services for former Dimmitt resident Mary O. Rice, 87, of Nevada, Mo., were held Friday morning at Newton Burial Park in Nevada, Mo., with Danny Fox officiating.

Burial was under the direction of Ferry Funeral Home of Nevada, Mo.

Mrs. Rice died Nov. 9 in Moore-Few Nursing Home in Nevada, Mo., after a lengthy illness.

She was born March 30, 1905 in Loco, Okla., to Charlie and Fannie Williams Rice. On Dec. 20, 1924, she married Olen A. Rice in Plainview. He died in 1983. Mrs. Rice had moved to the Texas Panhandle in 1907. During the time she and her husband had lived in Dimmitt, they were involved in farming and belonged to the Church of Christ in Dimmitt. She had been employed at the Cobb's store in Dimmitt. They moved to Missouri in 1968, and were members of the Nevada Church of Christ.

She was preceded in death by a son, Lonnie, in 1986, and by two sisters and five brothers.

She is survived by a sister, Maurine Hoelting of Twentynine Palms, Calif.; five grandsons; two great-granddaughters; and two step-great-grandsons.

The family suggests memorials to the Nevada Church of Christ.

Ashless Engine Oil

for Minneapolis-Moline irrigation engines that burn natural gas

Minneapolis-Moline recommends that you use motor oil containing 0.1% ash content in their natural gas-powered engines. Many oils now being used in M-M motors has a higher ash content, which doesn't take full advantage of clean-burning natural gas fuel.

TROCO ASHLESS OIL will give you less carbon buildup and lower your repair costs. We have it in sizes from quarts to 5-gallon buckets.

Longhorns win 9-0 slugfest

Happy's defense was stingy, but Hart's was nearly unpenetrable Friday night, and that enabled the Longhorns to pull out a 9-0 Class A bi-district victory Friday in Dimmitt.

The win gave Hart its first bi-district championship since 1976. "Happy's a great football team. They're as good as any team in our district. We just performed excellent. We played good and beat a very good team," said Hart Coach Alan Cherry.

Hart, which improved its record to 10-1 with the win, will advance to the area round of the playoffs this week, taking on Munday Friday at 7:30 p.m. at Childress.

The bi-district matchup was a leather-popping defensive battle from start to finish and Hart's defense made several big plays when it counted.

Hart forced Happy into fumbling the ball three times and recovered each, and picked off one pass. And each of Happy's turnovers came just when the Cowboys' offense seemed to be finding its rhythm.

Hart's Israel Garcia recovered two Happy fumbles while teammate Jason Aven captured another. Cesar Salas picked off a Happy pass late in the game.

Cherry said his entire defensive unit played exceptionally well, but he singled out noseguard Manuel Minjares as playing an "outstanding" game.

"Minjares made some key tackles for us. He had eight in the game, including four big ones behind the line of scrimmage."

Harvey Robledo recorded 11 tackles for the Horns, Salas had 10-1/2 and Jayson Wilhelm contributed seven.

Both teams managed nine first downs and 159 yards total offense, but it was the Longhorns who eventually put points on the board.

The teams battled to a scoreless first half, even though each managed to penetrate the opponent's 20-yard line one time.

Garcia picked up his first fumble of the night in the first half after a hard hit by tackle Fernando Urbina jarred the ball loose with less than a minute to go in the second quarter. That gave Hart possession on Happy's 18-yard line.

But the Longhorns ran only one offensive play, and that resulted in an interception which returned the pigskin to the Cowboys.

Hart had a chance to put points on the board with 52 seconds left in the second quarter, but kicker Bryan Welps' 45-yard field goal attempt was wide to the left.

Cesar Salas paced Hart's offense, rushing 30 times for 107 yards, including a 23-yard touchdown. His effort Friday night lifted him over the 1,000-yard rushing mark for the season.

Hart's Anthony Washington returned a punt to midfield to start the Longhorns' first scoring drive in the second half.

Morales gained four yards and Salas picked up another 16 for a first down at Happy's 30-yard line. Salas got the call again, but only gained two yards up the middle. A holding penalty moved Hart back to the 35. On a second-and-18 play, Salas gained 11 yards around the right side. Happy stopped Salas after a three-yard gain on the next play and that forced a fourth-and-three situation on Happy's 23.

The Longhorns decided to go for it and the chance paid off in six points.

Salas broke through a wide-open hole at left guard and raced 23 yards for the score.

Welps kicked the extra point, but it was nullified when Hart was penalized for illegal procedure. His second attempt was wide, and Hart had to settle for a 6-0 lead.

"That fourth down play gave us the momentum we needed to carry us through the rest of the game," Cherry said. "We knew we had a good chance to win at halftime. Then after we scored, we missed the extra point and that could have been a problem later. But we were able to add the field goal in the fourth quarter to seal the win. That was a big play."

A shanked punt by Happy in the fourth quarter gave Hart possession on the Cowboy 20 and the Longhorns took advantage.

Salas gain five yards on the first play. The Longhorns were forced back 10 yards on the next play after they were flagged for holding. Two plays later Hart was facing third-and-13 from Happy's 23 when Aven attempted a pass in the end zone, but the ball was dropped and Hart had another "fourth-down decision" to make.

Cherry didn't take any chances this time.

Welps kicked a 40-yard field goal with 7:19 left in the game to give Hart a 9-0 lead.

Hart's defense shut down the Cowboys' offensive attack for the rest of the game to seal the victory.

HART'S BRYAN WELPS (77) dives at and sacks Happy quarterback Justin Dempsey (20) forcing the Cowboys into a fourth-and-20 situation during Class A bi-district action Friday in Dimmitt. Hart's defense shut out the Cowboys Friday night, winning a tough defensive contest, 9-0, and a spot in the area playoffs this week. Photo by Deana McLain

DOWN THE LINE—Hart's Cesar Salas (30) breaks away from Happy defenders Jimmy Stockett (32) and Jimmy Reyes (29) and gains good yardage down the sideline in a Class A bi-district game Friday night in Dimmitt. In an intense defensive battle, Hart outlasted the Cowboys, 9-0 to advance to the area round of the playoffs. Veteran Bobbies have title visions

This year's Dimmitt Bobbies are loaded with talent, experience, depth and desire.

Those ingredients should form a solid foundation for another banner year for the Bobbies.

Dimmitt's goal this year is to earn a trip to the state tournament in Austin, and with four of five starters back from last year's 20-12 playoff team, that dream might just become a reality.

Back are senior starters Halley Bradley, Wendi Ethridge, Michelle Schumacher and Tara Grand.

If there's one thing that worries Dimmitt Coach Richard Wood, it's the lack of size on this year's team. The Bobbies three tallest players are 5-8.

"We just don't have a big girl," Wood said. "Wendi plays a lot taller than she is, though."

Bradley, a 5-8 all-state wing, will start her fourth year for the Bobbies, while Ethridge (5-8 all-district post) and Schumacher (5-5 point), an all-region player, both will be starting for the third-straight season. Grand, a 5-8 post, started her first season a year ago.

The quad of returning starters will be joined in the starting lineup by 5-6 sophomore wing Kim Thomas.

"I felt like we had a good shot (at going to state) last year, but injuries kept us down," said Wood, referring to a season-ending knee injury to Bradley during district.

But Bradley's injuries have been treated and now she's back, full strength.

Before her injury last year, Bradley led the Bobbies in scoring with a 16 point-per-game average. She also dragged down nine rebounds per outing. Ethridge averaged 14 points and eight caroms last year and Schumacher tossed in eight points per game.

Dimmitt's roster also features four other seniors—5-7 post Amy Beck, 5-6 point Holly Edwards, 5-7 wing Nadine Schulte and 5-8 post Rose Cruz. Juniors Amy Wooten (5-6 wing) and Katrina Acker (5-7 wing) round out the Bobbies' roster.

Edwards saw limited playing time last year.

Wood, who is in his eighth season as Dimmitt's mentor, says this team's strength is that the girls have played together for years and each knows what the other will do.

Wood plans to utilize a flex offense again this year, with Bradley and Thomas working the wings, Grand and Ethridge on posts and Schumacher as point guard.

Asst. Coaches: Nella Malcom, Bobby Feaster, Christy Ulrich and April McBroom.
Managers: Tisha Rice, Olivea Tamm and Shanna Schaeffer.
Filmers: Alma Longoria and Linda Fuentes.

Off the bench, Wood says he has several players who could fill a role as "sixth man," including Acker, Edwards and Cruz.

Ballhandling chores against presses will fall into the hands of—well, almost any starter. Wood says Bradley, Ethridge, Schumacher and Thomas all are capable of breaking through press defenses.

Wood says his five starters and several players off the bench are good outside shooters, and he hopes that will open things up for his post players inside.

Look for Bradley and Thomas to penetrate and either shoot, or dish off to Grand and Ethridge inside.

"If we can keep only one guard on Wendi, she'll pick up a lot of points," said Wood. "She's tough one-on-one. I don't think there are many players around who can defend her by themselves."

Defensively, the Bobbies will use a man-to-man coverage, but Wood says he is looking at a few zones, also.

The Bobbies will take advantage of their talented bench and "good" team speed by pressing—usually in a 2-2-1 or 1-2-1-1 lineup.

"Kim really helps on our press. She's a good, smart ballplayer and she's quick enough to be effective," Wood said.

Wood hopes the Bobbies can perfect their game during a tough pre-district schedule which includes three of the toughest tournaments in the state—the Queen's Classic, Caprock Holiday Tournament and Levelland Invitational.

The Bobbies also play Levelland, Lubbock Monterey, Randall, Sudan, Canyon, Nazareth and Clovis during the season and Wood says each game will be tough.

He expects a very competitive District 2-AAA schedule also.

The Bobbies are favored in the six-team district which includes Tulia, Friona, Floydada, Muleshoe, Littlefield and Dimmitt.

Friona, which finished second to the Bobbies in district a year ago, lost three starters, and although the team is expected to be down this year, Wood says the Squaws will still be tough.

Tulia is facing a rebuilding year, but "you can't ever count them out," said Wood.

He added that he expects Mule-shoe's girls to be tough because the team will feature a host of returning starters.

As for teams to beat in Region 1-AAA, there's always Canyon, the defending state champ. And Wood said Slaton, Perryton, Seminole, Abilene Wylie and other schools in the southern part of the region could be tough challenges this year.

Swiftettes return three starters

Three returning starters who averaged a combined 20.3 points per game last year should provide Swiftette Coach Ritchie Tarbet with a strong foundation as he attempts to build another successful playoff basketball team.

Tarbet welcomes back three senior starters—all-region performer Jill Pohlmeier, a 5-11 post who averaged 10.5 points and six rebounds last year; Natalie Schmucker, a 5-6 all-district point who scored 6.3 points; and Nicole Kleman, a 5-10 post who scored 3.5 points.

That trio should provide strong leadership for the Swiftettes, along with returning lettermen Chris Wethington, a 5-6 senior wing; and Kristen Brockman, a 5-9 junior wing.

"I'm really pleased with our experience," Tarbet said. "We've got five back that played in playoff games and two more that saw limited action."

The other two are 5-11 sophomore post Kelly Boyd and 5-7 junior post Sabrina Acker.

Rounding out the Swiftettes' roster are Melinda Schmucker, a 5-10 freshman wing; and Kandal Derrick, a 5-3 junior point.

Tarbet's starting lineup will feature Pohlmeier and Kleman at posts, Natalie Schmucker at point and Brockman and Melinda Schmucker at wings.

If there's one thing his team lacks, Tarbet says it's a strong bench and a dominant scorer to fill holes left by graduated all-state post player Peggy Huseman and Jodi Johnson.

"We've got some good shooting guards and our post game should be strong," Tarbet said. "We'll try and get a little more ball movement in our offense because our big people can move well. We plan on running more motion-type offense and move our big people away from the basket. Jill's quick enough to put it on the floor and beat her guard to the bucket from the free throw line. We're just going to try and spread out our offense to utilize our strong inside game and good shooting guards."

Tarbet said he feels any one of his starting five can be a leading scorer on a given night, and he's pleased about that.

"We don't want to depend on one kid to do all the scoring," he said.

And although Melinda Schmucker is just a freshman, Tarbet says she "understands the game well and knows where she's got to be."

He added that she will be an asset because she can play any position.

Tarbet said for the Swiftettes to be contenders, they will have to stay healthy, cut down on turnovers and the bench people will have to come through.

"Last year out of 35 games, I think we only had one starter who played in every game. It seemed like somebody was either sick or injured."

He said last year his team averaged 20 turnovers per game—"too many" by his standards. "A lot of that (turnovers last year) had to do with a lack of experience, so I'm

Bobbies to meet Randall in Queens Classic opener

The Dimmitt Bobbies will take on Canyon Randall at 4 p.m. next Thursday, Nov. 26, in the opening round of the Plainview Queens Classic.

Randall is the defending tournament champion, having topped Dimmitt, 50-45, in the championship game in 1991.

The annual Thanksgiving tournament will be held at Hutcherson Center, on the campus of Wayland Baptist University in Plainview.

Admission for a four-game adult session (two high school and two college games) is $5 for adults or $3 for students. Daily passes (for eight games) are $8 for adults and $4 for students. Tournament passes are $16 for adults and $10 for students.

The high school division of the tournament is highlighted by three state champions, including Class AAAA Randall, Class AAA Canyon and Class AA Panhandle.

Other high school teams in the tourney are Plainview, which finished as regional semifinalist last year; Class AAAA regional finalist Levelland, Class AAA area finalist Slaton and Class A regional finalist Happy.

If Dimmitt beats Randall next Thursday, the Bobbies will take on the Happy-Levelland winner Friday at 4 p.m. Should the Bobbies lose to Randall, they will take on the Happy-Levelland loser Friday morning at 10:30.

Saturday's schedule includes the seventh-place game at 10:30 a.m., the consolation championship at 2 p.m., the third-place game at 4 p.m. and the championship finals at 7:30 p.m.

The college division features Wayland Baptist University, Campbellsville College, Southwestern Oklahoma, University of Arkansas-Monticello, Arkansas Tech University, Mount Mercy College, Simon Fraser University and Northwestern Oklahoma.

hoping things will be different this year," Tarbet said.

He added that his guards—the Schmuckers and Brockman—should be able to handle the ball against most defenses, and have the ability to work it inside to Pohlmeier and Kleman.

He expects Wethington to see a lot of action off of the bench.

"Chris can do a lot of different things for us, and she can play everywhere but the post. She's a good defensive player and rebounder and she can score, also," Tarbet said.

The Swiftettes plan to run the same type of press they used last year, taking advantage of "good team speed."

"Overall I think we're going to be a lot quicker than we were last year and that's going to help us when we get ready to press and when we need to break presses," Tarbet said.

The Swiftettes will play a tough non-conference schedule, featuring perennial powerhouse teams like Randall, Tulia, Abernathy, Dimmitt and Portales, N.M. The Canyon, Abernathy and Sudan tournaments in which the team is entered also are traditionally tough and should be good preparation for district.

And the Swiftettes will have their hands full with the Happy Cowgirls in district again this year.

"Happy's got everybody back. They are probably the team to beat in this region," Tarbet said. "Sudan and Claude will be tough, again. I think Claude's junior varsity and eighth graders last year were a combined 37-1, so they're going to have some players. Groom could be tough and Follett may have a good team. Hart could be a force — they've got a good shot at getting into the playoffs."

And Nazareth's girls hope to be in the thick of the playoff hunt when February rolls around.

The team has set several goals for the 1992-93 season. Those include winning the Texas Association of Basketball Coaches' free throw shooting and three-point shooting team titles.

And then there's always the ultimate goal Swiftette teams set each year—winning state.

Lady Horns are learning new system

Hart's Lady Horns hope to turn over a new leaf this season.

They are learning a new system under a new coach and are preparing to compete in a new classification.

And they hope the lessons they will learn will propel them into the playoffs for the first time since 1983.

Under new UIL redistricting plans, Hart dropped from Class AA to Class A. That moved the Lady Horns out of a district which featured perennial powers Abernathy and Hale Center, but moved them into a Class A district which is just as tough, featuring Sudan and Vega.

But first-year Coach Rachele Wilcox feels that if the Lady Horns can adjust to her program, the playoffs are a possibility.

"Everything they're doing is brand new. They're looking good, but they've got a long way to go," Wilcox said.

Hart returns three starters and four other lettermen from last year's team.

Among the starters back are senior all-district post April Bennett (5-8) who averaged 12 points, eight rebounds and four assists per game last year; and her sister, Shea Bennett, a 5-10 sophomore post who tossed in 15 points, 10 rebounds and six assists per outing. Also back is Kim Grossman, a 5-2 sophomore wing carrying a three-point-per-game average. Senior wing Christina Diaz was listed as a returning starter, but an injury in the first scrimmage on Nov. 10 has sidelined her for the season.

The Bennetts and Grossman will be joined in the starting lineup by 5-6 sophomore wing Sandra Lopez; and 5-0 sophomore point Danna Wilhelm.

The bench will feature three other lettermen from the 1991-92 campaign including 5-6 junior point Jaime Ethridge; 5-6 junior wing Kristi Davis; and 5-8 senior post, Francis Dozal.

Rounding out Hart's roster are Sheila Aalbers, a 5-3 sophomore point; Traci Knox, a 6-2 sophomore post; and Christi Neinst, a 5-8 senior post.

With a new coach often comes adjustment to a new system, and Wilcox is making a lot of changes which she hopes will pay off in the future.

Hart's offense will still be post-oriented, with the Bennett sisters handling the inside duties, but Wilcox said under her system, the three guards will be expected to shoot the ball as well, and that's something new to the Lady Horns.

"The outside players are going to have to contribute to the offense and that's something that's going to be an adjustment to them," Wilcox said. "Their shots look good, but every one of them have had to change up their shot in one way or another. And they are starting to show improvement.

Ballhandling was one of the Lady Horns' weaknesses last year, but Wilcox said that fundamental is one in which the team is beginning to show improvement.

"Kim and Danna are really going to have to be able to handle the ball for us. We've worked a lot on teaching them to handle the ball against pressure," Wilcox said.

Hart's inside game and the girls' willingness to learn a new method are among the team's strengths, Wilcox said.

"They're quick and they're smart. I think we're going to be able to press."

Another change the Lady Horns are learning to work with is a pressure man-to-man defense and Wilcox said that "before it's all over, they're going to be a good pressure defense team."

Hart's best defensive player is April Bennett, because she "is such a good anticipator," Wilcox said.

She also expects strong defensive performances from Shea Bennett and Kim Grossman.

Ethridge is expected to be the first guard off the bench while Dozal and Knox will be spelling the post players.

"Those three are going to need to be ready to play," Wilcox said. "I think that when they're put in with some of the starters, they will blend in well."

The Lady Horns opened their season Tuesday at home against Smyer. Their schedule includes Class AAA teams Floydada, River Road and Littlefield and Wilcox hopes that will help prepare her team for tough challenges in district.

The Lady Horns will play in "some good Class A tournaments," including the Anton Tournament, Whitarral Tourney and Sudan Invitational.

And even though Hart dropped a class, the level of competition in district didn't slack off.

"District is going to be tough. Sudan and Vega are going to be the main forces we'll have to contend with. Sudan is very strong.

"We're shooting for the playoffs," Wilcox said. "Our young kids are going to have to come around for that to happen. And I think that if that happens, we'll definitely be playoff contenders."

Compromise reached on burning of crop residue

The issue of burning crop residue has finally been resolved—at least for this year.

Texas Air Control Board officials, Texas Corn Producers Board staff and other area officials were on hand at a meeting in Plainview last Wednesday to give their opinions on burning residue.

Until a definitive policy is set, the TACB will require farmers to send a written notification to the TACB regional office. The notification must certify that there is no practical alternative, guarantee compliance with the seven conditions of Regulation I (listed below) and contain a map of the site, including uses of adjacent lands.

The notification also must indicate when the burn will occur.

It must be received in the regional office at least five days prior to the burn and telephone verification of the continued intent to burn must be made to the regional office 24 hours prior to the burn.

When it appears that several tracts of land are to be burned in the same area at the same time, it may be necessary for TACB to require the scheduling of burn times over several consecutive days to avoid cumulative nuisance and traffic safety problems.

Compliance with the conditions specified in Section 111.103 will be required, and they are as follows:

1. Burning may occur only when the wind will carry the smoke away from any city, town, residential, recreational, commercial or industrial area, navigable water, public road or landing strip and shall not be conducted when a shift of wind is predicted.
2. Burning must be at least 300 feet from any adjacent properties which have residential, recreational, commercial or industrial use.
3. Burning shall commence after 9 a.m. and be completed on the same day as soon as is reasonably practical prior to 5 p.m.
4. Burning shall not commence when wind speed is predicted to be less than 6 miles per hour or greater than 23 miles per hour.
5. Burning shall not be conducted during periods of actual or predicted low-level atmospheric temperature inversions.
6. Burning must be outside the corporate city limits of a city or town.
7. Heavy oils, asphaltic materials, items containing natural or synthetic rubber or any material which may produce unreasonable amounts of smoke must not be burned.

"The farmer is responsible for smoke that travels across non-public roads used for school bus routes or mail carriers, and the farmer must have flaggers on such roads," said Tamra-Shae Oatman, small business ombudsman with the TACB.

"All in all, this meeting was a good beginning," said Carl King, executive director of the TCPB. "We now have a revised set of guidelines that must be followed before the burning of crop residue."

TCPB agrees that it is the responsibility of each farmer to notify adjacent neighbors of proposed burning, and limit the size of the burn so that wholesale burning will not be conducted.

TCPB stresses that failure to comply with the Regulation I conditions above, or the creation of a nuisance or traffic hazard will result in an agreed TACB order with administrative penalties up to $10,000 each day or incident of violation.

The address of the regional office for the 40 counties of the South Plains and Panhandle is TACB, 4630 50th Street, Suite 600, Lubbock, Texas 79414; telephone 1-796-3494. The phone number for TACB's ombudsman's office is 1-800-824-7247.

Cotton Talks

Speculation about the size of the 1992 cotton crop is close to being over, according to Plains Cotton Growers of Lubbock.

The remarkable performance of the 1992 crop has been a continual source of wonder across the High Plains.

Early expectations for the area crop were dismal at best following the unprecedented destruction of well over half of the areas expected 3.1 million cotton acres in late May and early June.

The latest US Dept. of Agriculture projection is for the High Plains to harvest near 1.39 million acres of cotton.

Initial yield estimates for the remaining acres for the most part reflected the late start much of the cotton had received as well as the fact that the majority is located in areas south of Lubbock. Most cotton in this area is produced under dryland conditions.

"This year's crop has really been a surprise," said Donald Johnson, PCG executive vice president. "Early predictions of a crop at or below one million bales have been proven wrong and we are now looking at a crop near 1.5 million bales."

USDA's November estimate for Texas crop reporting districts 1-N and 1-S was raised to 1.51 million bales. Districts 1-N and 1-S account for the majority of the counties served by PCG and are commonly used as an estimate of the area's production.

The increase is due entirely to the better than expected yields being achieved in district 1-S. The November yield estimate for the area was increased 51 pounds to 524 pounds per acre.

"Examples of how far this year's crop has come can be seen in the grades we've been seeing at the classing office," said Johnson.

Through Nov. 5, 108,304 bales have been classed in the Lamesa and Lubbock classing offices. From this total, a remarkable 65% have graded 31 or better, 67% have mike values between 3.5 and 4.9 and 78% have an average staple length of 34 or better.

He adds that strength is averaging slightly over 28 grams/tex at both offices.

ASCS chief to discuss 'lost' crops

Scotty M. Abbott, county executive director of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, will conduct a meeting Tuesday at the Dimmitt City Hall, to inform farmers of beneficial interest in a crop and when it is considered lost.

The meeting will begin at 7 p.m. Abbott said to be eligible for a loan or loan deficiency payments, a producer must have beneficial interest in the crop.

Abbott will discuss options to purchase contracts, options to purchase contracts with sales contracts, sales contracts and other marketing options and how they affect the producers being eligible for loan or loan deficiency payments.

Announcement of the 1993 loan level and preliminary announcement of the 1993 Acreage Reduction Program (ARP) is good news for cotton producers according to PCG officials.

The announcement ended speculation about USDA's preliminary decision on the ARP, which was set at 7.5% for 1993. The 1990 Farm Bill requires the secretary of agriculture to make the preliminary announcement by Nov. 1. The final ARP percentage will be announced by Jan. 1, 1993.

Also announced was the 1993 loan level at 52.35 cents for the base quality, unchanged from 1992. What has changed for 1993 is how the base quality is described. The change in the description was necessary to reflect the upcoming separation of color and leaf in the USDA grading system.

For the 1993 crop, the base quality will be color grade 41, leaf grade 4, staple length 1-1/16, micronaire 3.5 to 3.6 and 4.3 to 4.9, and strength 24 to 25 grams/tex.

Southwest Outdoors

with Mel Phillips

It's a ritual that happens every winter. The first "blue norther" roars in from the Arctic wastelands and suddenly the old car develops a series of problems. This year could be different; you can be ready for those frosty mornings.

If you can still find a full service gas station, they are like an oasis to a thirsty traveler. Shadetree Sam, my trusty mechanic, recommends the following items be checked before winter tightens her icy grip:

BATTERY: Check each cell because a bad cell waits until that extra cold morning to finally quit.

TIRES: Inflate to the recommended pressure and check for any uneven tire wear or traces of shiny steel belts. Investing in a tire rotation, balance and alignment is cheap insurance and prolongs the life of your tires. Find your spare tire and check the pressure. Now is also a good time to see if all the parts of the jack are intact.

ANTIFREEZE: All new cars now use antifreeze as a summer coolant so most cars are in good shape. Winters in our region rarely see overnight lows below zero, but antifreeze is cheap compared to a new block. Shadetree says, "Protect down to -20 degrees." Make sure that the windshield water is refilled with the proper fluid.

BELTS AND HOSES: visually check them for any cracks or signs of wear. If you do any out-of-town driving, an extra fan belt is better than money in the bank.

OIL AND AIR FILTERS: Change both according to the owner's manual. If you plan to keep that car an extra year, an oil change is your best investment.

FLUID LEVELS: Steering, brake and transmission all need to be checked. If you don't know the source of any new leaks on the garage floor, use a white paper towel to present the evidence to your service agent.

MEL'S BARGAIN OF THE YEAR: Costing less than $10, the following emergency supplies will fit in a corner of the trunk and can save your life during a blast of arctic air: an aluminum-coated plastic space blanket, six candles, an old flashlight with new batteries, 3/4 gallon of water in a plastic jug, a dozen food bars, a pack or two of safety matches an old coat and an old blanket.

GOOD NEWS — All my camping buddies are now non-smokers.

BAD NEWS—We occasionally forget to bring any matches to start our stoves, lanterns or camp fires. Not having any matches on a camping trip is inconvenient, but not having matches while stranded on the side of the road can be cause for real concern.

Castro County ASCS farm news

By SCOTTY M. ABBOTT
County Executive Director
The following acreage reduction program provisions have been announced for 1993:

Required acreage reduction (% of base): Wheat, barley and oats, all 0%; corn, 10%; grain sorghum, 5%; and upland cotton, 7.5%.

Target price: Wheat, $4 per bushel; barley, $2.36 per bushel; oats, $1.45 per bushel; corn, $2.75 per bushel; grain sorghum, $2.61 per bushel; and upland cotton, 72.9 cents per pound.

National loan rates (after reduction): Wheat, $2.45 per bushel; barley, $1.40 per bushel; oats, 88 cents per bushel; corn, $1.72 per bushel; grain sorghum, $1.63 per bushel; and upland cotton 52.35 cents per pound.

Advance payments are authorized at 50% of the projected payment rate and may be requested at sign-up. Other provisions will be provided when they are announced.

NL payments for corn and sorghum

Not limited payments, known as Findley Payments, will not be made for the 1991 crops of corn and grain sorghum.

The 12-month national weighted average market price for corn and grain sorghum was greater than the price support level before it was reduced.

1992 crop year loan rates

The 1992 crop loan rates for Castro County are $2.20 per bushel for wheat, $1.97 per bushel for corn, $3.15 per hundredweight for grain sorghum, 52.3 cents per pound for cotton, $1.65 per bushel for barley, 91 cents per bushel for oats and $4.67 per bushel for soybeans.

Loan availability dates

The last day to request 1992 crop loans is March 31, 1993 for wheat, barley, oats and rye; and May 31, 1993, for corn, sorghum, cotton and soybeans.

May 31, 1993 is the last day for cotton and soybean loan deficiency payments.

Beneficial interest

To be eligible for a price support loan or loan deficiency payment, the producer must retain beneficial interest in the commodity.

You have beneficial interest in the commodity if all of the following remain with you: control of the commodity, risk of loss or title to the commodity.

For more information on whether you will retain beneficial interest in a commodity, contact the ASCS office.

Loan interest rate

The interest rate for loans disbursed in the month of November will be 3.125% per annum, subject to change on Jan. 1, 1993.

Recourse loans on farm-stored corn

Producers with 1992-crop farm-stored shelled corn that has been cracked, rolled, crimped or is of dry or wet low-test weight can now be pledged as collateral for a nine-month Commodity Credit Corporation recourse loan.

The loan rate will be 70% of the county non-recourse loan rate ($1.379 per bushel for Castro County).

The entire measured quantity will be eligible for loan. Corn may contain less than 50% of whole kernels. This program does not apply to any other variations of corn, such as silage and ground corn. For more information, contact the ASCS office.

Recourse loans, low quality commodities

We are now authorized to make nine-month recourse loans on low quality commodities stored on the farm in approved storage structures and in approved warehouses.

Loan rates will be equal to the settlement rates for the applicable commodity.

CCC will not assume any loss in quantity or quality. Commodities cannot be delivered or forfeited in satisfaction of the loan.

Recourse loans are not available on lint cotton. Recourse loans may be paid with cash at principal plus interest or by exchanging CCC-6s for the commodity.

1992 cotton loan deficiency payments

The adjusted world price for cotton is below the loan rate at this time.

Producers with eligible cotton can request a loan deficiency payment instead of going into the loan.

The adjusted world price changes at 12:01 a.m. each Thursday and remains in effect until midnight on the next Thursday.

On Nov. 12, the adjusted world price was 30.43 cents per pound with no course count adjustment. This results in a loan deficiency payment rate of 13.92 cents per pound.

Loan deficiency payments may be made on all or a portion of a farm's eligible production. When requesting a loan deficiency payment for cotton, you need to bring in the warehouse receipts, class cards and a gin tag listing. You also need to sign the loan deficiency payment application (Form CCC Cotton AA). All producers sharing in the crop will need to sign the application.

The loan deficiency payment rate will not be locked in until all signatures are obtained on the application.

Cooperating gins

All gins located in Castro County that are in operation have certified the use of bagging and ties that meet CCC requirements to place cotton in the CCC loan program.

Wool and mohair requirements

The wool and mohair incentive program promotes general economic welfare and a positive balance of trade, and encourages domestic production of wool and mohair.

The marketing year is the calendar year. To be eligible for payment on wool and mohair, the items must have been sold within the calendar year for which the application is filed. The producer must have owned the animals for at least 30 days before applying for payment, and have had beneficial interest in the animals from the time they were shorn up to the sale.

To be eligible for payments on unshorn lambs, a breeder's animals must have been sold or moved to slaughter within the marketing year for which payment is claimed, the producer must have owned the lambs for 30 days and the producer must report all purchases of unshorn lambs that were not previously reported.

All applications must be filed in the ASCS office by Jan. 31, 1993, along with the applicable sales documents.

Final planting dates

The final planting date for wheat and barley in Castro County was Sunday.

Crops planted for the first time after this date will be considered late planted and may be subject to a temporary yield reduction for payment purposes for 1993.

Long-term agreement sign-up

We are now conducting a sign-up period for long-term conservation agreements. The last day to sign up is Dec. 1.

The agreement cannot be more than five years. The long term agreement sign-up cannot be more than five years and could be very beneficial for complying with conservation plans that must be fully implemented by 1995.

A practice exam must be completed by Sept. 30. The maximum payment limitation for a long term agreement is $3,500 times the number of years of the agreement. The last year of the long term agreement should be a maintenance practice.

Eligibility for pipeline cost-shares

Producers who request cost-share assistance for reorganizing irrigation systems have a new set of eligibility requirements.

For purposes of obtaining cost-share assistance under ACP for irrigation, the land must have been physically irrigated four out of the last five years. Land that is reported as ACR or CU for Payment in a year will not be considered irrigated in the year designated unless a crop is planted and the land was physically irrigated.

Form AD-1026

Some Federal Crop Insurance Corp. multiple peril crop insurance agents haven't been requiring producers to file an AD-1206, Highly Erodible Land Conservation and Wetland Conservation Certification.

To receive US Dept. of Agriculture benefits, producers are required to comply with this provision of filing AD-1026.

An AD-1026 is used to determine whether a producer's farming plans for the year would cause him to be ineligible for USDA benefits.

A producer who does not file an AD-1026 before a crop loss could be ineligible for the indemnity after the claim is filed. In these cases, the insurance agent may refund the premium instead of paying the insurance claim.

Producers should check with FCIC or multi-peril agents to make sure they have a copy of their AD-1026.

Holiday

The ASCS office will be closed next Thursday, Nov. 26, in observance of Thanksgiving.

By Terri Loudder

The annual "Gotta get in shape for family holiday photos" panic came early to my house.

It started in September this year — during the World Series, actually. My husband turned away from the television (a commercial was on), and said, "You know, if we had one of those stepper machines, I could exercise while I watch sports."

Well, you could have knocked me over with the remote control. The only time he usually speaks during a televised sporting event is to tell me his Dorito bag is empty.

And to ask for exercise equipment — I tell you, I almost got teary-eyed.

The term "stepper machine" is really sort of vague in today's world of high-impact, flexible, pre-calibrated, cardiovascular jargon. Wanting to be an informed consumer, I realized immediately we would have to do some research.

Now most folks, in order to be educated consumers, would read one of those buyers' guide magazines (too easy!). I, however, turned to the two sources which are expert in any field—my Mother and my friends.

Mom recommended the stationary bike with the big fan for the ultimate aerobic workout. She also said the juxtaposition of the handles made it ideal for hanging slacks on one side and shirts on the other when doing the ironing. I wasn't completely sold, though. I hardly ever iron.

So I called a friend. She said that the bicycle with the bench seat was much more comfortable and user-friendly. Besides, it would hold a full three days' worth of her husband's folded socks and underwear. She did warn, though, that even if the bike is kept hidden in the bedroom, there is a certain guilt factor attached to seeing it sit idle under the clean clothes.

Her personal favorite was the rowing machine. It folds down flat. You can slide it under the bed and never even have to look at it again. Goodbye guilt!

But my husband's heart was set on the stepper (fine, just so long as my feet aren't set on it), so we went shopping.

By the third store, I was beginning to doubt the wisdom of this exercise. I already was sore just from getting in and out of the van. My husband, however, was undeterred.

You have to understand that something happens to a man when he's in a department store surrounded by weight benches. His brain releases some sort of "macho enzyme."

Suddenly he is transported back to his youthful days of gridiron majesty (or baseball majesty or basketball majesty... they all had some period of majesty—just ask them).

He reverently runs his fingers over the weight bars, smiles knowingly and thinks to himself: "In no time at all I could be back to my playing weight."

"Playing weight" is a dream-like figure that has about as much basis in reality as a woman's age on her driver's license or her weight on any written document.

He pictures himself working out, secure in the knowledge that with very little effort and a couple of weeks' work he could bench press Wisconsin.

As he stands there lost in reverie, one would swear he had a tear in his eye, perhaps remembering the smell of long-ago locker rooms. The macho enzyme has been released and there is no turning back.

So do I have a modest little stepper machine unobtrusively sitting in a corner? No. I have a home gym in the middle of my living room floor.

I must admit there is a certain satisfaction in wincing with pain when I breathe because I've used muscle groups which had long ago retired and begun moving south. It's not as gratifying as eating a slice of Italian cream cake, but it has a certain satisfaction, nonetheless.

So until the new wears off, we will work out. Then, who knows—maybe it would look festive draped in tinsel and lights.

I wonder if they make a home gym tree skirt?
