

Well...
I Dunno,
But...

N. Robinson who among other things, keeps Ranger's Main street swept, gave us the answer this morning to yesterday's complaint about Main Street not being swept. Here it is. Instead of sweeping the street at night, he's been busy with the rest of the gang getting the curbs on downtown streets marked for parking. As our friend would say, we have to tell both sides of the question, "so the people may know."

Today is V-J Day, marking the end of two years since the end of World War II.

There is yet no real peace. Instead, there is shooting and dying—in Greece and China. There is trouble in Burma and Palestine. There is tension in the Balkans, in India and in all the major capitals of the world.

There are no peace treaties with Japan or Germany. There is talk of peace treaties. But this talk goes nowhere on a German pact. There is talk now of getting together for a discussion of a Japanese peace treaty, but even that talk is off to a slow start.

There is misery and starvation in Europe and Asia. Food rationing in many countries is stricter now than during the war.

U. S. Rides Crest

In the United States, the last vestige of wartime food rationing disappeared two months ago when sugar was eliminated from the ration list. In the United States, too, the dream of 60,000,000 jobs has been realized—at least temporarily—and the nation is enjoying what President Truman recently called "unprecedented prosperity."

But many of the peoples of the world share one thing: the fear and uncertainty of the future.

The chief source of that fear is the atomic bomb, stemming from failure of world statesmen to agree on a program for controlling this vast cosmic power. It has influenced virtually all major deliberations.

Another great fear—an ideological one—grips the world. The Western powers fear the spread of Communism; Russia and her satellites fear "the capitalistic system."

Concern over Communism reached a high point last March when President Truman evolved an historic new U. S. foreign policy, since come to be known as "The Truman Doctrine." Basically this calls for containing Communism by aiding any country threatened with aggression. The doctrine became an actuality in the Congress-approved Truman plan to aid Turkey and Greece.

New Russia has proposed that the Big Four Council of Foreign Ministers—Britain, China, Russia and the United States—do the preliminary work on the Japanese peace treaty. The United States, aware of the veto trouble it encountered with such a setup in drafting European treaties, wants no part of that arrangement for the Japanese treaty.

Incidentally, did you know that the U. S. Navy which two years ago was greater than all other navies of the world combined, has dwindled from a force of 1,300 fighting ships and 3,391,832 officers and enlisted men to 306 fighting ships and 471,000 officers and enlisted men. The Marine Corps of 521,822 which slugged its way to victory and ever-lazing glory from Guadalcanal to Iwo Jima is down to 99,200 men now.

The great citizens' army of 8,023,000 as of V-J Day is now but 1,000,000. The Pacific Army force of 1,459,000 has faded to 250,000.

The Army Air Forces—once an awesome aerial juggernaut of 80,000 planes and 2,350,000 men—now is a comparatively puny aggregation of 310,000 men and 3,000 first line planes, many of them immobilized for lack of trained personnel.

On V-J Day, the Navy operated from 1,150 bases, 400 of them outside the continental limits of the United States. Today it has 23 bases—13 in the United States, 10 outside its continental limits. On the plus side, the United States has been granted sole trusteeship over the former Japanese mandated islands—the Carolines, Marianas and Marshalls.

He's Happy Now

Russia Will Veto Border Patrol Plans

By United Press

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y.—Russia, accusing the United States of "the crudest form of interference" in Greek internal affairs, served notice in the United Nations Security Council today that she would veto the new American and Australian proposals for a UN border watch in the troubled Balkans.

Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko struck back at the latest proposals of the western countries with a slashing attack on the Truman Doctrine and the once-vetoed American attempt to install permanent UN observers along the Greek frontier.

Gromyko's carefully prepared address was Russia's first reply to the new United States plan to General Assembly if a new Soviet veto blocks action by the council.

Arabs Stage Ambush Attack In Tel Aviv

By United Press

JERUSALEM—Hundreds of Arabs charged out of the orange groves fringing Tel Aviv today and attacked passing Jews in the greatest outbreak of Arab-Jewish violence since the riots of 1936-39.

Four days of sporadic skirmishing in the Jaffa-Tel Aviv border zone erupted in a pitched battle and sabotage with guns, daggers and torches.

Early reports while the fighting still was going on said four Jews were killed and 20 wounded. At least 10 Jews and three Arabs had been killed in the four days, with the injured mounting about 60.

To prepare the poultry house for winter, it should first be cleaned, and then it and equipment should be scrubbed with a mixture of one can of household lye and 10 gallons of boiling water.

CHARGES AGAINST GENERAL LEE TO BE INVESTIGATED

WASHINGTON—Rep. James G. Fulton, R., Pa., a member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, today promised a thorough investigation of charges that U. S. occupation soldiers in Italy are being mistreated in a flagrant abuse of the Army's caste-system.

Fulton, a World War II veteran, said he will look into the charges of Scripps-Howard columnist Robert C. Ruark when he goes to Italy soon with a four-man foreign affairs subcommittee. The group will study occupation policies of the Army.

Ruark wrote recently that "there are abuses condoned and fostered by—Lt. Gen. John C. H. Lee that make any of the wartime caste system howls mightily puny." Lee, a native of June-

MARSHALL DUE IN RIO DE JANEIRO TODAY

By United Press

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil—Secretary of State George C. Marshall arrives here today to head the United States delegation to the Inter-American Hemispheric Defense Conference, and to get his baptism into Latin American diplomacy.

His objective is to get all the Americas to agree quickly on a treaty providing for collective action against any future aggressors and to leave all other issues to the next Inter-American Conference in Bogota next year.

But, being the last of the delegates to arrive, Marshall faced immediately a well-organized attempt of some smaller nations to broaden the scope of the meeting. These smaller nations have Sen. Tom Connally, D., Tex., been lobbying here for two days, arrived aboard the steamer Mormacagua and emphasized the general attitude toward the conference with optimistic statements regarding the outlook.

"We expect a harmonious and successful conference," Connally said.

"A better spirit prevails than in several years."

Power Failure Doesn't Hold Up Newspaper

NACOGDOCHES, Tex. (UP)—When the electric power failed in the plant of the Nacogdoches Daily Sentinel, the employees carried on like trouper.

Headed by mechanical foreman Weaver Blacksher, the staff operated the linotype machines manually.

They operated the machines, "sweating out" the ten slugs needed to correct page proof errors, so that all page forms were ready to roll when the power came back on to operate the press.

LUBBOCK, Tex., (UP)—Every dog has his day, but not every dog has his day in court as did a red cocker spaniel here the other day.

Custody of the dog—identified in a felony theft action, styled The State of Texas against Unknown Persons, as having "a small white spot on the forehead, a white patch on the chest, and a four inch tail—was awarded by J. P. C. E. Lynn to Mrs. H. P. Watkins of Lubbock.

According to testimony, Mrs. H. P. Watkins recently gave up hope of ever finding a red cocker spaniel she believed stolen from her months earlier. She went to a Lubbock kennel to buy another.

At the kennel she saw a spaniel that quickly aroused her interest—it was the dog that had been stolen from her, she said.

Mrs. Watkins found an old x-ray picture that had been made by a veterinarian of her dog's leg preparatory to setting a fracture. With that to back up her claim she went to County Attorney John Steele to swear out a complaint. Steele issued a warrant of search and seizure.

Mrs. Watkins then had the veterinarian make a new x-ray of the dog's leg. She then presented both x-rays to Justice Lynn's court as evidence. The veterinarian, she said, was prepared to swear that the second would show the history of the healing of the injury shown in the first x-ray.

Other evidence convinced Justice Lynn of Mrs. Watkins' ownership and he ordered a sheriff's deputy to release the dog to her.

The kennel proprietor said the dog had been left there for boarding by a family which had left town temporarily for work. That family he said, had been given the dog by a family that now is outside the continental limits of the United States.

U. S Issues Pamphlets On Saving Wildlife

WASHINGTON (UP)—The government is selling pamphlets to describe its wildlife conservation program.

Albert M. Day, director of the fish and wildlife service, said the booklets were being written primarily for hunters, fishermen, nature study clubs, hikers, camera fans, Boy and Girl Scouts, teachers, students, and workers on conservation projects.

Already off the press is an illustrated 18-page booklet which describes the Chicoteague national wildlife refuge, a 9,000-acre island sanctuary on Virginia's northern shore. Other pamphlets describing the Parker River refuge in Massachusetts and the federal duck stamp program will be ready soon. Each pamphlet costs 15 cents.

An automatic flight recorder has been perfected which can detect possible dangerous airplane or pilot tendencies before they lead to accidents.

Clark's Price Investigation Draws Fire From All Sides

PRESIDENT DEFENDS USE OF ATOM BOMB

WASHINGTON—President Truman said today that he still thought it was necessary to use the atomic bomb against Japan two years ago.

He told newsmen that he hated to make the decision at the time, but that he felt it was necessary to save the lives of some 200,000 Americans, and he still thought the decision was right.

He made the comment on the second anniversary of the Japanese surrender. He said that he had thought on V-J Day that the world be at peace by this time. He added that he was wrong. He said however, that he still hoped for peace for the world and for all its peoples.

In discussing his decision to use the atomic bomb, President Truman told a story of his school days. He said that when his history class was studying the battle of Gettysburg in the Civil War, the teacher told them that any school boy's afterthoughts on military strategy were worth more than all the general's forethoughts.

Collie Speaks For College Building Amendment

Turner Collie, State Representative from Eastland County, said in a statement today that the voters of this county have an opportunity on August 25 to assist in giving the state a first-class system of college and university buildings.

"Approval of the College Building Amendment to be voted upon on August 23, means that Texas will enter its greatest era of higher education development," he said.

He added that the Legislature gave detailed study to the constitutional amendment at its last general session, and convinced that it was the best possible plan to relieve over-crowding and to provide future orderly development, submitted it to the people of Texas for approval.

"This is a practical method by which we can adequately provide for the veterans and new high school graduates who have a desire to attend college," he said.

The 30 years, $50,000,000 program proposed by the amendment is significant on two important counts," he continued. "First it can be accomplished without an increase in the presently authorized state property taxes, and second, it will mark the first time that the college and university authorities have joined together for co-ordinated efficient development of higher education in Texas."

He urged each voter to go to the polls and vote.

Public Hearing On County Budget

A public hearing on the proposed county budget will be held on Monday, August 25 at 2:00 p.m. in the courthouse, according to an announcement made today by County Judge P. L. Crossley.

The budget has been prepared by the county judge and according to law must be read at a public hearing before it is adopted by the court.

Truman Doubts Move Will Reduce Prices

WASHINGTON—President Truman said today he doubted the price investigation would actually bring many prices down. But he said it would expose those who are charging unwarranted high prices.

Attorney General Tom C. Clark's decision to investigate whether business is guilty of anti-trust violations in charging high prices has been buffeted by management, farmers and a congressman, and even labor is skeptical of what good it will do.

Mr. Truman told news conference today that he thought the results of the investigation would put the finger on those charging prices higher than warranted. In response to questions, would be the principal benefit of the investigation.

President Truman, who has tried to "talk down" prices with appeals to business, declined to comment on the CIO demand for a labor-management conference on prices. He said that he had tried that in November, 1945, and that it was not successful.

The latest criticism of the Justice Department's planned investigation came from Albert S. Goss, master of the National Grange.

Goss said in a statement that wages are the principal item in increased costs.

The national association of manufacturers has already criticized the Justice Department's drive, stating that the department failed to take into account the effect of wage bonds, strikes and foreign relief demands.

Newspaper At Seattle Suspends Publication

SEATTLE, Wash.—The Seattle Star, founded in 1899, announced it was suspending publication after Wednesday's editions because of rising costs of operation combined with the world-wide newspaper shortage.

The Seattle Times announced it would purchase the remaining newspaper owned by the Star.

In a front page statement, the paper said that "terrific increases in every item that goes into the publishing of a newspaper, chiefly labor and newsprint, have brought this industry to a point where only those with heavy volume could survive. Through the period where volume could have been attained, the newspaper found itself facing newspaper shortages which prevented that goal being reached."

Heartsease

by Elsie Glenn

Every Man Has His Secret Sorrow
God be merciful to me, a fool.
And to you, too, because we all do such dreadful things without thinking, oftentimes.

One of the most profound and soul shaking emotions ever felt by man is pity; pity for his fellow creature. Would that we had more of it!

Longfellow once said: "Believe me, every man has his secret sorrow, which he would know not; and oftentimes we call a man cold when he is only sad."

He meant the same thing that Christ meant when He said, over and over again: "Judge not lest ye be judged".

No man and no woman knows much of himself, or why he does the things he does. We are so terribly human! Much of the carelessness in the world is due to not-undness, but to ignorance. We so often wound when we do not know it.

Look around you; at the person sitting next to you at the desk; at your friends, look at the person you love. Especially look when that person does not know you are looking; look at him from the side-view; when he is looking down. If you will look and if you have any mercy in your heart, you will see a fleeting sadness in that face, a protective covering mask of everydayness that does not quite cover the true expression. In each human face is a hidden mourning look; a little, lost look; there is a loneliness in each human face, if we look right.

Believe me, every man and every woman and every child has his secret sorrow which the world knows not.

God forgive me and you when we mistreat or turn away from mankind believing him cold and unresponsive when he is only sad.

The black cross of sadness weighs the heart and the struggle of survival, the vast loneliness of living deep within the recesses of the human soul, is forever present.

There is a chord in every heart that has a sigh in it if touched aright.

The next time you really look at the person next to you at the desk there; the next time you really look at your friend, at the person you love, let that impulse toward pity and understanding take hold of you.

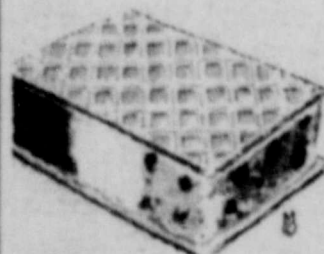

If you have any decency in you, put out your hand and touch the brow of your neighbor when you pass. Smile. Do anything to let him know that he isn't alone.

Do some great thing in this life of yours. Great things are really such simple things.

Help someone else bear his secret sorrow and in that way, your secret sorrow will be better borne. Judge not lest ye be judged.

South Texas Peanut Crop Being Gathered

Peanut picking went forward with increasing tempo in South Texas this week, according to the Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture. Farmers' stock peanuts met good demand in that section, with more shellers preparing to begin operation.

Fairly good demand greeted new shelled goods at slightly higher prices. Shelled No. 1 Spanish sold in carlots at 12 3/4 cents per pound. Little oil sold, and only small quantities of meal moved at around $80 per ton in less-than-carlots.

Light scattered showers proved of little help to growing peanuts. Early plantings on the heavier soils wilted badly. However, Aug. 1 conditions indicated a total U. S. crop of 2 billion, 137 million pounds picked and threshed, according to the Bureau of Agricultural Economics crop report. Such a yield would be roughly 100 million pounds greater than last year, and slightly above the five year average. Higher estimated yields per acre offset reduced planted acreage.

Possum Kingdom Association To Give Barbecue

MINERAL WELLS, Aug. 14—Plans for a barbecue on Sunday, Aug. 31, for all members of the Possum Kingdom Game and Fish Association have been completed, Litt Massie, association president, announced today.

The event, which will be attended by officials of the association and the State Game, Fish and Oyster Commission, will be held at Jack's Place at State Park on the Mineral Wells side of the lake.

"Through the interest aroused by the Possum Kingdom Fish Rodeo, we now have more than 7,000 members," Massie said. "These members are scattered throughout Texas but we expect to have at least 1,000 at the barbecue."

Directors of the association are serving on the arrangements committee. They are: Andy Bowden, Weatherford; Wm. W. McClain, Jacksboro; Matt Segars, Strawn and Sante; R. C. Wood, Graham; Orval Shore, Mineral Wells; Doc

St. Clair, Fort Worth; Cecil Hollifield, Breckenridge; and Ralph Lindsey, Palo Pinto.

The 32nd prize fish in the rodeo was snagged over the past weekend by E. H. Habuther of Graham. The fish, a 13 inch bass with tag No. 137, was worth $150.

Not What You Get—

... but what you have is the important thing in buying real estate. If one buys without an abstract he may get something, but it's value will depend on the sufficiency of the title. Lapses and the improvements thereon are worth little if their title proves to be faulty. Only expense, embarrassment and disappointment follow stupid, rushing real estate sales. Don't get in a hurry. Buy carefully and wisely. See your abstractor first, thank him later!

Mine White Coal
ST. CLAIRSVILLE, O. (UP)—It's "white coal" from the strip mines of the Hanna Coal Company near Martins Ferry. The white coal isn't a competitor of the usual black stuff, but a limestone bed. The Hanna engineers recently installed huge grinders in the open pits and have been producing about 2,000 tons per day. The limestone is being used as a fertilizer on farmers' fields and as a road covering.

Airport Activities

Speedy says---

Bill Lester and I went to Odessa to advertise the first professional fights in that city. They were sponsored by the American Legion.

There is no way of assessing the value of any particular phase of advertising, but we do know 500 extra tickets were printed after we arrived and the stadium was packed for the show. Neither of us were favorably impressed with the sand storms of West Texas. Bill was forced to ride the left wing while I taxied down the runway to keep the Cub from blowing over. You haven't been dirty yet till you sit out in the open about ten minutes during a sand storm.

The biggest monopoly I have seen yet is an airport in West Texas. The county has spent approximately $150,000.00 on the field and the right to operate there is given to one man. The principal city in the county is one of 45,000. Any other city in Texas of his size has at least 3 air operators.

There is one person in Ranger that is well known all over West Texas. C. C. McKeever, he has sold airplanes to every operator out there.

McKeever, Howard Oliver, and Harlin Phillips left here last Sunday in a twin engine Cessna, flew to Oklahoma, Lubbock and were sitting on the ground in Odessa when I arrived in a Cub. I left at 2:00 PM and flew straight there. A couple of 225 horsepower engines certainly do speed things up. Adding insult to injury they wanted to know what held us up.
