Three Unions Face Claims Of Over $1,285,000

WASHINGTON—A survey showed today that labor unions face claims for $1,285,000 or more in damages in the first five suits filed under the Taft-Hartley law.

The miners, steelworkers and teamsters—three of the nation's most powerful unions with combined national treasuries of $38,000,000 are defendants in four of the suits.

TRINITY RIVER NEAR FLOOD MARK

DALLAS—The muddy Trinity River, problem child of the U. S. Corps of Engineers and lowland residents of south Dallas, roared toward flood stage today as flash flood waters from a rain-soaked Dallas returned to their normal channels.

Rain, however, continued to fall over Dallas and the surrounding area from leaden skies that loosed a total precipitation of 9.18 inches of rain during the past 24-hour period and snarled up the normal life of the city.

General rains of lighter proportions were reported throughout the central belt of the state with the heaviest precipitation in Dallas and the surrounding areas.

Parts of the city were under "several inches of water and approximately 50 families in a large west Dallas area were forced to wade knee-deep water early today to higher ground as flood waters rose to the floor level of their homes.

RESOLUTION PASSED IN PLACE OF PACT CLAUSE

By United Press

PETROPOLIS—Argentina defeated the United States today in an inter-American conference fight over the requirements to be imposed on an American aggressor or state under the new hemispheric defense treaty.

The United States had fought to include a clause in the treaty which provided that as soon as the treaty apparatus was invoked the aggressor state must return to the status quo prevailing before the outbreak of trouble.

Argentina had opposed including this clause in the treaty and the Argentine position won out over the American position. Instead of putting the requirement into the treaty the conference merely adopted a separate resolution expressing its sentiment in favor of such action. The separate resolution received unanimous approval.

This action came as the conference drafted the final clauses of its treaty to unite the American republics in defense against aggression from the Arctic to the Antarctic.

Negro Trainmen File Suit To Break Barrier

By United Press

ST. LOUIS—A $4,150,000 damage suit seeking to break a 19 year old union agreement with the St. Louis-San Francisco Railway barring negroes except as train porters was on file in U. S. district court here today.

It alleged that the major railroad brotherhoods for more than 40 years have conspired and "persistently tried to drive negroes out of train, engine and yard service solely because of race."

The suit was filed yesterday by attorneys of the Association of Colored Railway Trainmen and Locomotive Firemen in behalf of Negroes classified as train porters but doing other work.

Farben Combine Officials Face War Crimes Trial

By United Press

NUERNBERG—The United States opened the war crimes trial of 24 I. G. Farben officials today with a charge that they were the master-builders of Adolf Hitler's army and were largely responsible for the second World War.

"These are the men who made the war possible, and they did it because they wanted to conquer," Brig. Gen. Telford Taylor, chief prosecutor, told the American Tribunal hearing the trial.

The executives of the vast Farben combine went on trial in the courtroom where Hermann Goering and the other Nazi government leaders were convicted. It was the first major test of war criminality in the field of industry.

Oklahoma ranks first among the states in Indian population with 63,125, Arizona is second with 55,076.

Well... I Dunno, But...

My, how that week flew by! It was nice to have it but it's almost nice to be back on the job. We can't say that there was too much difference in the way we spent the vacation and what we do at work. At work we're trying to meet the deadline and while on vacation we were trying to meet the hemline. Kinda believe working toward the deadline is more fun. But both have their points. However, we believe it's easier to meet the deadline. You do know when that is and sometime you don't know where the hemline is. For instance we saw one ad last week that had four lengths. We're gonna beat the four lengths, though, 'cause we let 'em out as far as they go trying to get to the 14 inch mark and everyone of 'em turned out to be a different length.

We have an idea that we won't be by ourselves in the hem lengths from all the talk we hear.

A card from the Garvin Chastain now in Mississippi, tells of the cool weather they are encountering. Requires covers at night and, such. Sunday they attended services in an Episcopal Church that was established in 1847.

Ranger will be represented in the Cleveland, Ohio, air races on Labor Day, through the efforts of the Premier Oil Refining Company. The Premier has placed a plane in the race and will use its famous Sky Ranger oil in the plane. The oil is named for Ranger and is made from Ranger crude oil. Elsewhere in this edition of the Times is the story of the race and a picture of the pilot and the plane, both from Texas.

Premier Oil Refining Company is one of the most consistent users of the Ranger Airport, the largest the most talked of subject in Ranger at this time.

Everywhere we went around town during our vacation, groups of citizens were gathered together, discussing with grim faces, the decision on the airport improvement program. Yes sir, we are convinced that Ranger wants that program carried out.

More people are telling us how they feel about it and we quote: "I think that the amount of equipment that we have secured from the government for our schools is sufficient proof of what government aid can mean. If any town has ever been treated fairly by the government it's been Ranger, and I think we should take all we can get. Certainly I think we ought to have our airport improved. People perhaps do not realize that we have secured from the government for the schools and what it means to the schools."—Dr. G. C. Boswell, superintendent of schools and president of Ranger Junior College.

"I'm for anything that will help business in Ranger and I see no reason why a good airport wouldn't. I'm for it and believe that it will be an asset to the community. I'm willing to do anything that I can to see the program carried out." G. D. Nicholson, one of the owners and operators of the Texas Drug Store.

"Well, I voted for it and think it's a fine thing if we are able to finance it. Nor doubt it will be a valuable investment and a paying proposition. While on a recent trip through other states, I was very much impressed with activities at various airports which I visited." Dr. A. K. Wier, physician and surgeon and city health officer.

"I feel that it'll be a fine thing for our community. It means progress for the community and I'd like to see it go ahead." Dr. Mark E. Huff, physician and surgeon.

The Carl Barnes Post of the American Legion is 100 per cent behind the airport improvements program, and we're ready to help in any way possible to see the program go over. The Ranger Legion post started the airport years ago and for a number of years operated it under the management of the late C. J. Moore. It's something that we've always been interested in and want to see the proposed program carried out."—R. H. Hansford, commander elect of the post.

PRUET FINDS VETCH CROP A GOOD ONE

C. B. Pruet who lives on the Breckenridge road adjoining the City Limits of Ranger in an interview today regarding his first experience with planting vetch stated that he put in 25 acres this year and that the land was poorly prepared but grossed $40.00 per acre in vetch seed, which sells for 20c per pound.

Due to the extensive growth of nut grass this land for several years had not raised anything, but the vetch crop fitted into the reason that the nut grass was not growing.

Due to the shortage of combines this year Pruet harvested late and the vetch had fallen down and he estimated that he recovered only about 50 per cent of the total yield.

Mr. Hickman of Rising Star who cleaned and separated the seed for Pruet stated that his was the best vetch seed he had cleaned, and the Rising Star section raised more vetch than any other section in the County.

Mr. Pruet stated that he has 70 acres in his farm adjoining the city limits of Ranger and that he intends to plant all of his cultivated land this year to vetch exclusively.

Mr. Pruet states that vetch hay ranks with alfalfa in feed value and that vetch can be grazed in the fall and that it is also wonderful soil builder.

He is of the opinion that suitable combines will be more plentiful next year and thinks every farmer in this section would do well to plant as much acreage as possible to this valuable crop.

Britain's Move To Cut Buying May Hit Exports

WASHINGTON—Britain's decision to cut its American agricultural purchases as part of its economic belt tightening may put a permanent crimp in U. S. tobacco exports, agriculture department experts said today.

These experts said the British buying cutbacks will not affect American farmers generally or result in any drastic change in prices here. But they will have an important effect on certain specialized commodities.

U. S. PLANS PART IN PARIS MEET

By United Press

WASHINGTON—The United States is preparing to take a direct hand in the final stages of the 16-nation Paris Conference on the Marshall Plan, it was learned today.

The aim is to see that the 16 western European nations don't come up with a proposition that will cost a lot more than Congress is likely to approve.

The Marshall Plan is a U. S. proposal that European nations get together and figure out a joint scheme for putting themselves back on their economic feet. When a workable plan is developed the U. S. has offered to step in and back it with aid in the form of money and equipment.

Former Ranger Geologist Dies In Abilene

Homer H. Adams, 64, of Abilene, formerly of Ranger, died at 7 p. m. Tuesday at Hendrick Memorial hospital in Abilene after a heart attack at 6:30 p. m. He had been taken to the hospital ill Monday night.

Mr. Adams was born on Sept. 22, 1882, in North Point, Pa., and after graduating from Bucknell university he moved to Colorado, where was superintendent of schools for several years.

About 1916 he went into geological work and was at Ranger during the oil boom there.

He was married to Mildred Grizzard on Aug. 9, 1930. The couple made their home in Fort Worth until moving to Abilene 13 years ago. Mr. Adams continued as a geologist in Abilene, maintaining an office in the Mims building.

He was a member of the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineering and the American Association of Petroleum Geologists.

Survivors include the widow, two daughters, Martha, and Jane Adams, all of Abilene; three sisters, Mrs. Miles Tinlin of Pennsylvania, Mrs. Virginia Gahan of Montana, and Mrs. Mary Graham of California; and two brothers, George Adams, of North Dakota, and Robert Adams of Pennsylvania.

Funeral arrangements were incomplete Tuesday night at Loughter-North funeral home.

NEW UNIFORM TRAFFIC CODE IS EXPLAINED

(One of Series)

AUSTIN, Aug. 27—You can take the right-of-way from the other fellow, but you can't take it to Heaven with you.

So said Colonel Homer Garrison, director of the Department of Public Safety, today in explaining provisions of the new Texas traffic code that goes into effect September 5.

"Where two roads or streets cross," Garrison said, "the vehicle that gets into the intersection first has the right-of-way. If they get there at the same time, the vehicle on the left must yield to the one on the right."

"In other words, if the other fellow is to your right, you must let him go ahead. If he is to your left, he is supposed to let you go ahead."

How about right-of-way when you're trying to make a left turn at a busy intersection?

"A car that is already in the intersection, coming to meet you, has the right-of-way," Garrison said. "So does the next car behind that one. To cut in front of either one of them would create a hazard. But when you have signalled and taken the proper position to turn, and have let these first couple of cars pass, then you are ready to turn. Others coming to meet you must let you turn."

Garrison described the right-of-way rules as "just common sense and courtesy." Summing them up, he said, "You must not bust out in front of the other fellow if he is too close to you or if he is coming too fast."

Third Game Of Tournament Tonite

The third game of the Ranger softball tournament will be played tonight when Premier and Stephenville teams will meet.

Thursday night the King Tractor team of Eastland and Mineral Wells will meet. Other games for the week will be announced later and the finals will be played on Monday, September 1.

Tonight's game is scheduled to be another good one with the score very likely being of the same tone as those of the first two games. The first game score was Gorman 3 and Mingus 1 and last night Ranger held the opponents to 1 to 2 score. At that rate the game tonight would be a 1 and 1 tie.

Under-inflated tires give more traction than fully inflated ones because more surface is exposed to the road.

Not What You Get—
 ... but what you have is the important thing in buying real estate. If one buys without an abstract he may get something, but it's value will depend on the sufficiency of the title. BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Regardless of what happens now, 1947 is already in the books as the Old Guard's year.

The managers, I mean—not the players. The stickout athletes are on the young side.

The Old Guard never dies. What better examples of this than Burt Shotton, pulled out of nowhere, reactivated as manager of the Dodgers at 62, and Connie Mack at 85, with his Athletics in the first division all the way along the route.

Bucky Harris became manager of the Yankees because on this particular occasion the job demanded a name and Larry MacPhail could find none other acceptable to the paying guests.

RECOMMENDED by veteran sports editor Harry G. Salsinger of the Detroit News as one of the better appraisers of ivory, Harris was MacPhail's adjutant as Joe McCarthy shuffled off to Buffalo, Bill Dickey walked out and the club president evidently decided that Johnny Neun was incapable of giving the Bronx entry the emotionalism he used to talk about.

Meanwhile, MacPhail had taken from the Brooks the coaches he put there, Chuck Dressen and Red Corriden. It is no secret that the Yanks regarded them as National League interlopers.

Only a steady old head like Harris could have straightened things out, especially when the club got off badly with the great Joe DiMaggio on one good heel.

Harris kept the Yankees going through a 19-game seasonal high winning streak, among other things—despite the loss of star pitchers Shea, Chandler and Wensloff and slugger Keffler. Leo Durocher was supposed to have done it with sleight-o'-hand in Brooklyn, but Branch Rickey brought in a young winning pitcher in Harry Taylor, a 300-hitting first and third baseman, and Burt Shotton, is making it look much easier.

Shotton and Harris long ago clearly demonstrated that they were sound managers, of course, but their success this trip further stresses the obvious fact that the players make the pilot. The head man can help the hired hands, no doubt about that, but he can't hit, pitch, run and think for them once they have been given the sign.

Baseball people actually felt sorry for Mr. Mack last spring. The A's appeared to be an outfit as sorely in need of repair as Shibe Park. But the venerable tactician further demonstrated that he still has a way with ballplayers, and that pitching is, as he has held all along, from 75 to 90 per cent of baseball.

When the Cardinals practically stood still at the start, Eddie Dyer, who spent years winning pennants in the minors, had a grand opportunity to prove that he was no morning glory in his first season as a major-league manager, and the gentleman from Houston is capitalizing on it—and then some.

The Giants have manufactured 148 home runs, but have had no pitching to speak of, and Mel Ott finally has had a chance to show that he can wrap odd ends together as well as anybody else.

Daughters of Judge and Mrs. Crossley Married in Double Wedding Saturday

(By special Correspondent)
EASTLAND, Tex. August 24
In a double wedding Saturday evening August 23, at the first Methodist Church, Miss Elaine Crossley became the bride of Marshall M. Morris, of Muleshoe, and Miss Wilma Jeanne Crossley became the bride of Glenn Boyd of Cisco.

The brides are daughters of County Judge and Mrs. P. Lewis Crossley. Mr. Morris is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Morris of Muleshoe, and Mr. Boyd is a son of Mrs. Walter Boyd of Cisco.

Rev. E. K. Gordon, pastor of the First Methodist Church, read the double ring ceremonies. The twilight rites were candle lighted by white tapers in floorstanders, greenery, and white and pink background was provided by floor baskets of white and pink gladioluses.

Homer Meek, at the pipe organ, played prelude music, and Miss Helen Cole of Fort Worth, who is a sorority sister of Mrs. Morris sang "Because," and "At Dawning," accompanied at the organ by Mr. Meek, who also played the traditional wedding music.

The brides were given marriage by their father, wore identical gowns of white brocaded satin, fashioned with close fitted bodice, and full, gathered skirts with medium train. Long fitted sleeves came to a point over the hands. A chiffon bertha around the yoke fell over the shoulders, the necklines were finished with a bias fold of the brocaded satin.

The finger tip illusion veils were caught with a halo of orange blossoms. The brides carried white prayer-books topped with white carnations and white hearts tied with white satin streamers.

Mrs. C. C. Elliott of Mineral Wells, was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a sky blue taffeta gown fashioned similar to the brides, and she carried a bouquet of pink gladioluses.

Brides maids for Mrs. Morris were Misses Johnnie Lou Hart of Fort Worth, and Barbara Morris of Muleshoe, who is a sister of Mr. Morris.

Misses Beth Rhineman of Eastland, and Betty Jo Lane of Comanche were bride's maids for Mrs. Boyd. The brides maids all wore identical fashioned gowns similar to the matrons of honor. The taffeta gowns were pink and they carried white gladioluses.

Mr. Elyaine Frazier of New Mexico was best man for Mr. Morris and Glen Tableman of Cisco was best man in the Boyd wedding.

Groomsmen were Eudie Blackman, Muleshoe; Bob McGowan, Cisco; Lewis Crossley Jr., Eastland, brother of the bride, and C. C. Elliott, of Mineral Wells, brother-in-law of the brides. The candles were lighted by Mr. Crossley and Mr. Elliott.

A reception was held on the lawn of the George Davidson home on south Scaman next door to the Crossley home. Members of the house party were: Mmes. J. O. Earnest, John Ernst, Guy Parker, J. F. Collins, W. D. Maddrey, Victor Cornelius, M. H. Hart and Misses Catherine Cornelius, Kathelene Colie, and Anne Maddery. Misses Collie and Cornelius presided at the beautiful hand-made brides-book.

The white four tiered cakes topped with miniature brides and grooms standing under and arch of orange blossoms was cut by the brides and grooms. Mrs. Earnest Mrs. Ernst had charge of the serving of the cakes and fruit punch to over two hundred people.

The couples left for separate wedding trips, and after their return Mr. and Mrs. Morris will reside at College Station where Mr. Morris is majoring in aeronautical engineering in his senior year. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd will live temporarily in Eastland.

The brides chose for travel, two piece suits of cohama fabric Mrs. Morris' suit was charteruse and her accessories were black. Mrs. Boyd wore a brown suit with brown snake skin bag and shoes. Her hat was brown felt.

Mrs. Morris received her B. A. degree at North Texas College at Denton June 1. Prior to that she attended John Tarlton, at Stephenville. At Denton she was a member of the Kappa Kappa Sorority and at John Tarlton, she was a member of O.W.L.

Mrs. Boyd attended North Texas College at Denton and John Tarlton and was a member of the O.W.L., sorority. She has been employed in the veterans office in Eastland.

Mr. Boyd graduated from Texas Tech and his major was in accounting. Mrs. Morris and Mrs. Boyd are among Eastland's most popular ladies.

By United Press
LAKE SUCCESS — The United States announced today unqualified acceptance of United Nations plans to subject the atomic energy facilities and activities of all nations to strict supervision and management by the projected world atomic control authority.

The United States became the first government to accept the proposals as laid down in a plan devised by experts of 11 of the 12 nations on the U N atomic energy commission. Russia was the only country whose experts did not participate.

Frederick H. Osborn, deputy American delegate, said the principles and rules laid down by the experts represent the only hope for "effective security" in the atomic age.

No Solution Of Greek Cabinet Crisis Is Near

By United Press
ATHENS — The Greek cabinet crisis today appeared no nearer solution and King Paul was reported strongly considering calling a council of the crown in an effort to break the deadlock.

Premier Designate Constantinos Tsaldaris, apparently giving up his efforts to form the kind of coalition government acceptable to the United States, was attempting to make up a cabinet exclusively of populists—royalist-party members.

It was doubted that such a cabinet could win parliamentary approval.
