Four Big Dams In Central West Texas Approved

FORT WORTH, Tex., Oct. 12 (UP)—The construction of four big dams in Central West Texas without Federal aid and at a cost of some $25,000,000 today had the unanimous approval of the directors of the Brazos River Conservation and Reclamation District.

Milton E. Daniel of Breckenridge, chairman of the special committee assigned to investigate the projects, told the directors at a meeting at the Blackstone hotel yesterday that power companies in the area had expressed willingness to purchase the power thus generated.

The demand for power is so enormous that these people are willing to pay a very good price for it, and we are assured they can use all of the power we can develop," he said.

Tentative sites for the dam are inspiration point and Turkey Creek in Palo Pinto County, De Cordova Bend in Hood County and Bean Mountain in Somervell county.

To be financed by bond issues, the dams would take 30 to 35 months to construct, Daniel estimated. Following his report, his committee was reappointed to make positive plans for the project.

Two West Texas groups appeared before the directors seeking aid of the district. A committee from Comanche asked financial assistance for a 191,000 reservoir project. Pat Cagle, spokesman for the group, declared the situation was so desperate that he had only one drink of water daily for the past three or four years.

A delegation from the Upper Brazos watershed asked that plans be speeded up for building Bob Baskin dam on Double Mountain Fork of the Brazos.

Mine Workers Demand Fourth Wage Increase

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 12 (UP)—The United Mine workers 40th convention today adopted a "fourth round" wage policy calling for a general pay boost, shorter work week, increased royalty fund, and other improvements.

The convention's wage scale committee did not give out the detailed demand, but it referred to Miners' President John L. Lewis and a national policy committee resolutions which would reduce the work week to 30 hours, increase the royalty payment to the welfare fund from 20 to 40 cents per ton, boost annual vacation pay from $199 to $209, lengthen the vacation from one to two weeks, extend the paid lunch period from 30 minutes to one hour, and require coal operators to pay for all supplies, equipment and much of the mining work not now compensated.

The committee recommended that the convention void spelling out the demand in detail in order to give Lewis the widest possible latitude in the 1949 coal wage negotiations.

The convention reaffirmed his demand for a national bituminous contract which has been in effect since 1945.

The union, which along with the rest of organized labor has received three general increases since the end of the war, is the first big organization to frame its fourth round demands for 1949.

Mayor Proclaims Oil Progress Day

"City of Ranger Oil Progress Day" was proclaimed as October 14th today by Mayor Lee Dockery.

The Mayor's proclamation directed "the attention of our citizens to the contribution and service the oil men who live among us, and their industry, make to our public, social, business and private life."

The proclamation of Mayor Dockery said that "whereas citizens of the City of Ranger who are engaged in the oil business have stated their desire to report on the progress the oil industry has made in serving the best interests of the public, and whereas it is believed that by informing our community of how free, competitive enterprise, typified by the oil industry, supplies Americans with the good things of life, the public welfare will be benefited, now, therefore, I Lee Dockery, Mayor of the City of Ranger do hereby proclaim October 14th as 'Ranger's Oil Progress Day.' The proclamation then directed attention to contribution that oil men make to the life in Ranger.

H. P. Earnest, Chairman, who is in charge of the Ranger's Oil Progress Day program said that L. R. Pearson will mark the observance on that day, with a talk before the Lion's and Rotary luncheon clubs.

"Competition is keen among oil companies to meet the public's growing needs," said Mr. Earnest. "Expansion of facilities to serve the unprecedented public demand this year has been rapid. This expansion has been financed entirely by the companies. Since prewar 1941 the oil industry has increased the volume of its products delivered to consumers at a rate twice the average of all industry."

PARIS, Oct. 12 (UP)—The United States warned the Soviet Union today that the American rearmament program is being speeded to "stay the heavy hand of Russia's constant drive for world power."

U. S. Delegate Warren Austin made this statement in a speech before the United Nations political committee, which was considering a Russian proposal for immediate one-third disarmament by the Big Five Powers.

Russian delegate Andrei Vishinsky replied in a shouting, screaming speech of one hour and 57 minutes in which he made some of the bitterest charges ever heard in a United Nations meeting.

Austin had taken a leaf from Vishinsky's book. Instead of defending American policy, he took the offensive. He denounced Russia for blocking a lasting peace, creating a threat of peace, refusing to cooperate in the UN, and frustrating a settlement of the Berlin crisis.

Admitting that the United States disarmed "too far and too fast" after World War II, Austin said this mistake was going to be remedied by a stepped-up rearmament program designed to protect against Russian aims of world domination.

Vishinsky came back fighting. Red-faced, waving his arms, pointed his finger accusingly at Western delegates. Frequently raising his voice to a shriek, the prosecutor of the famous Moscow purge trials:

1. Asserted that Russia will give no information about her armed forces to the world until and unless the U. S. discloses the size of her stockpile of atomic bombs.
2. Accused the western powers of "making believe" that they wanted to prohibit the atomic bomb, while actually depending upon "this illegitimate queen."
3. Warned that "there is a reply for every weapon, gentlemen—don't forget that—there is a reply for every weapon."
4. Accused the Western Powers of plotting with Nazi Germany to attack Russia in 1939.
5. Attacked John Foster Dulles, Republican foreign policy adviser who frequently has been mentioned as a probable choice for U. S. Secretary of State if Gov. Th.

mas E. Dewey of New York is elected president next month. He said Dulles' New York law firm of Sullivan and Cromwell played a major part in building the war potential of Hitler's Germany.

6. Denounced the delegates of the U. S., Britain and France for "transgressing all permissible limits" in their "unbridled attacks" on Soviet Russia.

Even while Vishinsky was speaking, a sub-committee of the political committee was overwhelmingly approving the Western Powers plan for international control of atomic energy, and rejecting the latest Soviet proposals on this question.

By a vote of 8 to 2, with India abstaining, an 11-nation sub-committee favored a Canadian resolution which would suspend the work of the UN atomic energy commission until the Big Five and Canada could find that "there exists a basis for agreement on international control of atomic energy."

The western proposal called for establishment of an international atomic control agency with power to inspect and supervise any and all atomic enterprises. There would be no big power veto in this agency.

Thus, in effect, the sub-committee backed the stand of the Western Powers that they have done all possible to reach agreement with Russia on the problem of control of the atomic bomb and possible other atomic weapons, and that any further advances must come from the Soviet union.

Vishinsky replied to challenge Russia to lift the iron curtain from its military forces by demanding that the west accept the Russian disarmament proposal first and make public information about its stocks of atomic bombs and all other weapons.

"We will give this information when it will have practical significance," he said. "You adopt our proposal, gentlemen, and then we will put our cards on the table, every single one of them. Put yours right next to ours. When we can check which ones are wrong, and whether there is any falsification, I can assure you the Soviet Union's cards will be true and genuine."

The United States, Vishinsky charged, made millions of dollars out of rearming Hitler.

He said the Western Powers were not rejecting Russia's disarmament proposals because they were unworkable, "but because they are throwing a monkey wrench into the plans of warmongers and militarists." He said Austin apparently "would welcome an appeal for war against the Soviet union."

West Texans Told Redistricting Vital To Them

ODESSA, Tex., Oct. 12 (UP)—West Texans were advised today that they have a vital stake in redistricting the state because of the phenomenal growth of their cities since the last redistricting in Texas in 1921.

The statement was made yesterday by John Ben Sheppard when he met with Odessa Jaycees. Sheppard is immediate past president of the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Sheppard cited Ector county, which has had a population increase of 413.4 per cent since 1921, as an example of West Texas urban population increases.

The past Jaycees chief, discussing the international situation, said that Americans must become better citizens and salesmen of Democracy. He said Russia could be stopped politically by Europeans realizing the benefits of Democracy.

Later, at Hobbs, N. M., Sheppard said the Marshall plan is "America's acceptance of world citizenship" for everyone who will be called upon to bear the cost of carrying it out.

Railroads Hike Increase Request

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12 (UP)—Railroads today asked the Interstate Commerce Commission for a freight-rate increase of 13 per cent instead of eight per cent requested Oct. 1.

They filled formal petition with the ICC amending the Oct. 1 request. If the 13 per cent is granted, it would add $1,092,000,000 (b) a year to shippers' costs on the basis of estimates by the railroads of their next year's business. And it would bring to $4,100,000,000 (b) the total annual increase in rail freight-passenger revenue since the war.

WASHINGTON COLUMN

Dewey Apparently Will Win, On Vague Political Platform

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA)—With one month to go before election day, these campaign developments stand out: Save on the big bi-partisan principles of foreign policy, anti-communism and a few generalities like belief in the future of the great American West, Republican presidential candidate Thomas E. Dewey has yet to say specifically where he stands on most important domestic issues.

President Truman in his campaign for re-election has said exactly where he stands on every conceivable issue, even at the risk of putting his foot in his mouth to do so. You may not like his words. You may not like his ideas. You may not like the way he has in the past tried to carry out his words and ideas. But at least he has made known his principles. This, however, is apparently not enough to get him re-elected.

Jack Kroll of the CIO-PAC thinks Truman can be re-elected if 60,000,000 or more of the 94,000,000 eligible voters get out and register, then get out and vote.

THE biggest political story of the year is the once-solid South, where a major political realignment is going on. Save for Truman's dip into Texas, neither of the major party candidates has as yet invaded Dixie. It has been largely a private stamping ground for South Carolina Gov. J. Strom Thurmond, presidential candidate of the States' Rights Party. Henry Wallace has of course been there, but has been egged out.

Governor Thurmond claims he will carry 10 states or more and get 100 electoral votes or more. Five states and 50 electoral votes would be a more accurate estimate. Governor Thurmond admits that if he carries only one state, it will be a victory.

If the States' Rights Party gets 100 votes, Thurmond thinks it will be enough to prevent either Dewey or Truman from getting a majority of the electoral college—266 out of 531. Should this happen, the election would of course be thrown into the new House of Representatives. There each state would have only one vote for a choice between the three high candidates in the national election. Thurmond thinks the Southern states would then have balance of power and be able to decide the election.

This possibility is pretty generally discounted by Washington political observers. It is believed that Dewey has good chances for a minimum of 300 electoral votes, even if Thurmond gets his 100. Thurmond says the rise of his States' Rights Party has prevented Dewey from capturing any Southern states, which he might otherwise have done because of opposition to Truman's civil rights program.

PROGRESSIVE Party campaign manager C. B. Baldwin refuses to predict that his candidate Henry Wallace will carry even one state. Baldwin is still predicting that the Wallace popular vote will be surprisingly large—without mentioning a figure. Practically every other political analyst says it will be surprisingly small—less than 3,000,000. Baldwin still hopes the Wallace party will be on the ballot in 44 states. As of today it is accredited in only 29.

The Wallace party has withdrawn many of its candidates for Congress. Baldwin says this is to support proven liberal candidates of the Democratic Party. Jack Kroll says it is because of the poor showing in California, Wisconsin and Minnesota primaries. Originally the Wallace party had entered over 100 candidates for Congress and 11 candidates for the Senate. Its best chances are probably to elect several congressmen from the New York area.

Football Briefs

BY UNITED PRESS
AUSTIN, Texas, Oct. 12 (UP)—The Longhorns of Texas University were scheduled to run through hard drills today and Wednesday in preparation for Saturday's contest in Austin against Arkansas. It will be the Longhorn's first conference game.

Coach Blair Cherry said yesterday he believed the Longhorns would be in their best physical shape of the year by Saturday. The only player suffering a major injury was end Ben Pater, who received a dislocated shoulder against Oklahoma Saturday.

Cherry, in a long chalk-talk session, planned strategy for the clash with the Razorbacks. He said his squad is starting a "brand new season."

COLLEGE STATION, Tex., Oct. 12, (UP)—The Texas Aggies began secret workouts today in anticipation of a strong running game in their conference bid-blast against the TCU Horned Frogs Saturday at Argyleland. Scout Marty Karow, who watched the Frogs defeat Indiana 7-6, said TCU has a "sound football team with a stronger running game than many people think."

The Aggie regulars took only a light workout yesterday. Halfback Bob Goode was working out as a result of an injury in the game with LSU.

WACO, Tex., Oct. 12 (UP)—Coach Bob Woodruff of Baylor's undefeated but once-tired Bears looked forward today to a tough Texas Tech eleven in Saturday's game in Waco.

The contest will be the Bear's third non-conference game of the season.

The Baylor eleven went through a light workout yesterday, devoted mostly to running against Tech plays and formations.

Want Senate To Probe Election

AUSTIN, Tex., Oct. 12 (UP)—Two San Antonio men were reported today to be heading a movement which hopes to petition the U. S. Senate to investigate the recent primary election of the Democratic U. S. senatorial nominee.

R. Neil Campbell, an attorney, and W. D. Bacon, a contractor, announced they hoped to gain 1,000,000 signatures on the petition which would ask in addition to an investigation, that the Senate decline to seat Lyndon Johnson, the Democratic nominee, until the inquiry is completed.

The petition asks an "inquiry of the actions and policies" of the candidates for senator.

Little Stinker Makes His Exit

FORT WORTH, Tex., Oct. 12, (UP)—"The Little Stinker" took a powder and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Jennings were relieved he had today.

"The Little Stinker" was a skunk who invaded the bedroom closet of the Jennings house. They found him there Sunday.

They blocked off the bedroom and left plenty of exits open for the little stinker.

How he got in the bedroom closet no one knew. How he left was a moot question.

"He's gone—that's what matters," said the Jennings. "That bedroom just wasn't big enough for the three of us."

"Oil Progress Day" Recalls Industry's "Pot Still" Days

One day some ninety-odd years ago a tall, stoop-shouldered canal boat man named Samuel M. Kier was stirring a sticky, evil-smelling brew in an iron kettle which squatted on a stove in the cellar of a shack just outside the city limits of Pittsburgh. The mess on the stove was a sample of Kier's Rock Oil, a patent medicine in which Sam had invested heavily but which tasted so vile that few people would buy it. Kier was trying to salvage his investment by seeing what would happen if he ran the unsavory stuff through a primitive still.

As the petroleum began to boil vigorously, Kier slapped a homemade "worm" on top of the kettle. A dribble of colorless liquid ran out of the still. He touched a match to it and the liquid burned slowly. Inspired, he put some of it in an empty whale oil lamp. The lamp glowed brighter than it ever had before!

That was how Sam Kier discovered kerosene and became America's first petroleum refiner. The petroleum industry, which is paying tribute to Sam Kier, to all of his successors and to the pioneering spirit of the American people as a whole during the observance of "Oil Progress Day" on October 14, has come a fabulously long way since those ante-bellum years.

Instead of a handful of struggling companies, the industry now consists of 34,000 competitive firms. Instead of one well—that brought in by Colonel E. L. Drake at Titusville, Pa., in the summer of 1859—oil companies have drilled around 1,200,000 wells and oil is produced in 25 states. Some 428,000 of these wells are producing oil today. Instead of a transport system consisting of a few rickety wagons and canal boats, the oil companies have a remarkable system of 150,000 miles of pipelines, plus large fleets of ocean-going tankers, inland-waterway tankers, barges, railway tank cars and tank trucks. Instead of peddling their products in five gallon tin cans, oil men now include thousands of wholesale distributors, and operate a quarter million modern, clean and efficient service stations.

Today, oil and natural gas supply almost half of this nation's heat and power requirements. From crude oil comes a grand total of more than 1,200 useful products—products which everyone uses almost every day of his life.

"Oil Progress Day" is being observed this week. Members of the industry will report such things as the above to citizens of the communities in which they operate. Oil men are making that report to call the attention of their friends, customers and neighbors to the fact that they operate in the American tradition of free, competitive enterprise. As a result they are doing an outstanding job in their efforts to contribute to America's progress and well-being. They are, in fact, echoing Sam Kier's cry: "We're making progress."

Temporary Pastures Pay Two Ways

By R. L. Miller
FFA Reporter

The Ranger Future Farmers have been studying the advantages and disadvantages of winter grazing, and cover crops. They have found, in their figuring and estimation, that these crops prove to be profitable for grazing as well as erosion control.

According to "Soils and Men" they learn that over three billion tons of top soil are removed each year from our valuable farm lands through the action of water and wind. Whenever water flows any appreciable distance across cultivated lands, it carries considerable soil with it. Experience and tests of the past decades have disclosed effective means to control soil washing. Two general methods are involved, one is a good cover crop and the other is mechanical practices.

"Nature stopped soil washing and built up the fertile top soil by heavy growths of trees and grass. The men cleared the forests and plowed the prairies. Therefore it is our job to return some of nature's method of erosion control and also use man's methods of erosion control."

Some of the best winter crops for this part of the country are rye, vetch, wheat, and oats. Sudan grass is a suitable temporary summer-pasture for this area.

Plans Laid To Seize Paris

PARIS, Oct. 12 (UP)—The French government has organized a detailed plan to seize Paris in one hour in case of armed revolt, forestalling any rebel effort to take the capital, confidential reports said today.

A force of 100,000 loyal troops and police have been especially briefed and trained for this emergency by Jules Moch, hardboiled Socialist minister of the interior who has an equal dislike for Communists and DeGaulleists.

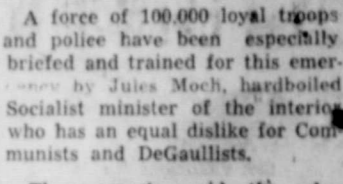

These reports said the plan would be put into effect whether the threat to the French government came from the extreme left or the extreme right.

THE SCOREBOARD Southworth, as Ol' Clo'sman, Leads Beantown to Pennant

BY HARRY GRAYSON NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—When even Connie Mack lost patience, and summarily dismissed Nelson Thomas Potter in the middle of a game, the venerable right-hander still knew where to turn.

For when Billy Southworth switched from the Cardinals to the Braves, he necessarily became baseball's Ol' Clo'sman. Anybody with anything left always has one more chance, and Nels Potter had considerable.

The Phillies smacked the Beantowners, 6-4, in the first game of a double-header the other afternoon, and with the score 1-1 in the ninth, Del Egan led off in the 10th with a triple off Vern Bickford.

Manager Southworth thought enough of his latest pick-up to start him in a key game in Brooklyn. "He was a pretty good pitcher to be lying around loose," beams Billy the Kid, "especially these days."

SOUTHWORTH is winning his fourth National League pennant in eight years, part for the course and then some, with a collection of illustrious starlets.

Southworth's starlet deal was getting Bob Elliott for Billy Herman. The Dodgers didn't want Eddie Stanky, but Muggsy developed Alvin Dark and gave the Braves the cushion that saw them through when the jinx came.

Jim Russell could do nothing right in Pittsburgh, but stuck out in center field with the Braves until sidelined by heart trouble. Mike McCormick was considered washed up when he broke his leg. Clint Conaster was drafted from Buffalo. Tommy Holmes was passed along by the Yankee chain.

Frank McCormick, now 35, couldn't buy a base hit with the Phils last trip, but batted .354 in 81 outings with the Braves.

Red Barrett can't get himself arrested under anyone else, but is considerably more than adequate when assigned by Southworth, who also keeps the breath of life in Clyde Shoun.

Pennants follow Billy Southworth around. Except this time he is doing it as an Ol' Clo'sman. Any old ballplayers today?

ST. PAUL, KANSAS CITY TO OPEN HOCKEY SEASON

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 12 (UP)—The St. Paul Saints and Kansas City PJs-Mors open the U. S. Hockey league season tomorrow night at Kansas City and every one of the eight league members will see action before the end of the week.

New managers and new affiliations with clubs of higher classification mark the new season and rookies will be amply scattered throughout every club.

Clint Smith, who served as player-coach at Tulsa last year, has a taken over at St. Paul and will have a full crop of rookies sent down by the New York Rangers.

Kansas City still has Reg Hamilton at the helm and will introduce a new goal tender, Al Rollins, who starred with the Edmonton Flyers, Allan cup champions, last season.

Manager Les Cook has been sent some promising material from Montreal for his Dallas Texans, who invade St. Paul Thursday night.

Omaha's Knights and the Tulsa Oilers open their season Thursday night at Tulsa. Jack Riley succeeded Smith at Tulsa and has the help of a new working agreement with the Boston Bruins, while Modere Brute-Neau has a flock of Detroit Red Wing prospects around the Knight bench.

The defending champion Houston Huskies open at home Thursday night against the Fort Worth Rangers with Will Field as playing coach succeeding Toe Blake who moved up to Buffalo.

LINEMEN TOP SCHOOLBOY STARS WEEKLY ROUNDUP

DALLAS, Tex. Oct. 12 (UP)—Linemen bounced back into the limelight last week end in the Dallas News' weekly roundup of schoolboy stars, but the backs continued to grab most of the headlines.

Team play up front tends to lessen the chances for an individual lineman to stand out, but some—like Houston Reagan's Don Bidwell—manage to do it anyway.

Bidwell, a 190-pounder who plays center and backs up the line on defense, was one of the main reasons Reagan upset S. F. Austin High 13-0 last week. He intercepted three passes and made over half of his team's tackles as he smashed Autin's running and passing attack.

Other linemen making their bids for possible all-state berths were: Hugh Reeder, Port Arthur center, credited with being "the difference in the line" with his great defensive work as Port Arthur came from behind to beat San Antonio Brackenridge 14-6.

Dick Self, Brackenridge tackle, who almost matched Reeder's great defensive play on the opposite side of the line as the Eagles held Port Arthur scoreless for the first half.

James Garner, Amarillo end, who stars as a signal caller and who caught two touchdown passes snugged a 32-yarder to set up another score and recovered an Odeza fumble to start another touchdown drive at the Sandies routed the Braves 23-6.

Joe Mac Gresham, Waco end, whose consistently-great defensive work enabled the Tigers to check Highland Park's hitherto unbeaten Scotties in a 27-7 victory.

Sam Trevino, Port Arthur end, who teamed with Reeder to smear Brackenridge's attack and who recovered an Eagle fumble to set up the Jack's first touch down.

Among the backs, Mary Vincent of Denison again popped up with

Indians To Get Rousing Welcome

CLEVELAND, Oct. 12 (UP)—After two weeks of tension, this baseball-minded city on Lake Erie today planned a parade and civic reception for the new champions of the world, the Cleveland Indians.

The change are slated to return from Boston today and folks here were getting ready to give them a rousing welcome. A big victory banquet has been planned for noon Thursday by the Cleveland Lions Club.

However, there were few signs of a celebration yesterday when the Indians grabbed the series with a 4 to 3 win over the Braves in Boston.

When the radio announced Bob Kennedy's catch of Tommy Holmes' fly for the final out, a few automobile horns were tooted and a host of toasts raised. But the general mood was quite and everybody seemed disappointed that the first Indians' series in 28 years hadn't been won at home.

The world's first agricultural college was founded at Hohenheim, Germany, in 1818. In America, the first one is believed to have been founded in Maine in 1823, according to the World Book Encyclopedia.
