Hopes Revive For Berlin Blockade Settlement

RUSSIAN REQUEST FOR VOTE DELAY ON COMPROMISE PROPOSAL GRANTED

BY R. H. SHACKFORD

United Press Staff Correspondent

PARIS, Oct. 22 (UP) — Hope for early settlement of the Berlin blockade crisis rose today as Russia requested — and received — a delay in voting in the United Nations Security Council on a small-nation compromise formula for settlement.

The Council adjourned late today until 3 p. m. Monday after delegates had debated briefly the resolution of the six "neutral" nations of the council which called on the "Big four" to end the blockade crisis now, and suggested a council of foreign ministers meeting on German problems about Nov. 30.

Just why Russian delegate Andrei Vishinsky asked a delay in voting on the resolution was not clear. Western Big Power delegates appeared optimistic, however, as they emerged from a private meeting in which they approved Vishinsky's request, and it was believed a new Russian move might be forthcoming before Monday.

Russia had not agreed to accept the compromise formula, however. A high American official when asked if he could confirm a rumor that that effect resulted: "I can't confirm it because it isn't true."

But there appeared to be reason believe that Vishinsky had indicated Russia might be prepared to make some new concessions which would offer hope of a settlement of the crisis which began just over four months ago. At that time Russia clamped a blockade on all road, rail and barge transportation from the western sectors of Germany to the U. S., British and French sectors of Berlin.

Since that time, about 2,500,000 persons in the western sectors of the German capital and all western occupation forces there have been supplied by the ~~three Anglo-American air lifts.~~ Vishinsky caused an hour's delay in start of the Security Council's session today by his unexpected request for postponement of the vote on the resolution.

American, British and French delegates met privately with Juan Bramuglia of Argentina, chairman of the Council, and accepted the request. Their smiles as they finally took their places at the council table suggested that Bramuglia, who had talked earlier with Vishinsky, had given them reason for optimism.

Then Bramuglia, who has been the leader in mediation efforts of the small-nation members of the council, introduced the compromise resolution with the statement that it offered a way "to avoid a dangerous decision which might lead to war."

The delay in the start of the council meeting which was expected to reach a climax in the Berlin case brought interest and tension to a high pitch.

Just short of an hour after the opening was scheduled, the top delegates began appearing on the stage of the Palais de Chaillot meeting place. All were smiling when they finally showed up.

Sources close to Trygve Lie, UN secretary general, said the situation was "favorable," and the great powers were close to an agreement.

But the procedure was altered in a last minute shift "proposed by the Vishinsky move. It called for presentation of the compromise resolution by the neutrals, hearing of speeches, and adjournment until Monday without taking a vote.

The neutral resolution, following the lines indicated before its formal presentation, called upon the Big Four:

1. To prevent any incident which would aggravate the situation in Berlin.

2. To put into effect simultaneously, on the day the resolution is transmitted formally to the four governments, measures to remove all restrictions on transportation and communication placed by both Russia and the West in the Berlin blockade, and to begin at once talks in Berlin to establish the Soviet mark as the sole currency, with an agreement to be reached by Nov. 20.

3. Within 10 days after the currency problem is settled "or on a date mutually acceptable to the four governments," to reopen negotiations in the council of foreign ministers on all outstanding problems concerning Germany as a whole.

Richardson To Drill Wildcat In Brown Co.

A. H. Richardson of Eastland, veteran oil man who was active in the Desdemona boom of almost 30 years ago, has made location for a wildcat in Brown County, the No. 1 Nellie Bell Churchfield, 1,000 feet from the southwest north line and 600 northeast of Pecan Bayou in the I. Rousseau survey. The location is three miles southeast of Brownwood. Contemplated depth is 1,600 feet, cable tools.

The area near the town of May in north Brown county has two locations. W. C. Estes of Brownwood has made an inside location, No. 2 R. E. Blair, 330 feet from the north and east lines of Blk. 17, Jesse Dickerson survey in the Marble Falls production pool two miles north of May. An extension try for the Ester field, four miles northeast of May, will be made by Kirk-Man & Griffin with the No. 1 J. W. Smith, 330 from the south and west lines of the 154-acre tract, in Blk. 9, J. Dickinson survey.

New Well Flows 75 Barrels In Three Hours

A well with a flow that would rival some of the "gushers" for which the boom was famous nearly 30 years ago has been completed in the Kleiner pool.

In the first three hours, the well flowed 75 barrels. This was through a choke, 24/64ths of an inch, in contrast to the wide-open flow of the old-time gushers.

The well is the Lone Star Producing Company's Kincaid A-5 and is producing from the Mississippi lime. The remarkable thickness of this formation in the Kleiner pool is again evidenced by this producer which found the top of the Mississippi at 3,711 and the stratum extended to 4,067, a thickness of 356 feet. The well was perforated in only a portion, of course, of this tremendous section, the perforations being from 3,915 to 4,010.

Also in the Kleiner area, the Lone Star is drilling around 2,750 feet on the G. W. Daniels No. 2; Alsbrook & Kemp are below 1,800 on the Kleiner 40-acre tract, and two miles northeast of the pool the Lone Star is drilling a highly important test, the Chas. Kleiner B-1.

In the Lake sand pool in the northwest part of Eastland county, Lone Star is digging pits to start the C-7 Mitcham.

Wrecker of a Constellation airliner lies scattered on the ground near Arbolton, Scotland, after a crash in a thick fog. Of the 40 persons aboard, 37 were killed, nine of them Americans. The plane, owned by Dutch KLM line, was enroute to New York from Amsterdam. — (NEA Radio-Telephoto).

Education Plan Up For Passage At Next Congress

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22 (UP) — An Arkansas congressman hopes critics of the interstate education compact worked out by 14 southern states will not sacrifice it because it fails to require non-segregation.

Rep. Brooks Hays, O., Ark., said he'll ask the next congress to approve the compact, which would set up a regional university system in the South.

The compact was approved by the House during the last session but the Senate failed to act.

Hays said he hopes critics would now recognize that such a plan, in view of the South's limited financial resources, "is the only immediate answer to our need for increased facilities."

Negroes, he said, would be assured equal educational opportunities with whites under the program, although segregated.

CEASE FIRE ORDER IN EFFECT IN PALESTINE

By United Press

The United Nations cease fire order went into effect in Palestine at 7 a. m. EST today after Jews and Egyptians bombed and shot each other in a series of 11th hour actions.

Israeli troops captured Bet Hanan, between Majdal and Gaza on the main Negev road in southern Palestine, only a few hours before the truce began again.

At the same time, Israeli planes bombed Egypt's main military base in the Negev at Gaza, as well as Faluja, Majdal and El Arish. Egyptian planes retaliated with two air raids on Tel Aviv, but caused no casualties and only slight damage.

By 7 a. m. EST (3 p. m. Palestine time), however, all was quiet on both the air and land fronts. Both the Israeli and Egyptian governments formally announced acceptance of the cease fire.

SEOUL, Korea — Government sources said loyal Korean troops captured the rebel-held port of Yosu in southern Korea in an amphibious assault this morning. It was at Yosu that the Communist rebellion began last Tuesday night. Only the town of Suncheon, north of Yosu, remains in rebel hands and government quarters expected it to be recaptured by loyal forces later today.

PARIS—Communist-led strikers seized four coal mines in the Valenciennes area of Northern France after ousting non-Communist miners who were carrying out maintenance duties. Gendarmes stood by without intervening. Calais dockers refused to unload coal at that port.

CONNALLY SAYS THIRD WAR IS NOT 'IMMINENT'

HOUSTON, Tex. Oct. 22 (UP) — U. S. Sen. Tom Connally said today that a third world war was not "imminent," but urged that United Nations to assume the duties for which it was organized in order to prevent maneuvers that encourage conflict.

Sen. Connally, the feature speaker before 500 delegates to the state wide convention of the Texas Manufacturers' Association, warned Russia that this country's patience has been abused and flouted, and added that "there is a limit to patience."

Despite dismal world conditions, said the venerable law-maker, his consultations with international leaders show major nations want to avoid a war in the near future.

This said Sen. Connally, did not mean, however, that the United States would in any way hedge on the situation in Berlin.

"The United States must maintain its rights in Germany. Its policy must be one of firmness and plain speaking," he declared.

A Russian-dominated Germany inflicting a satellite status upon that nation, was not in the plans of this country, the senator stated.

"We cannot lamely permit Russia to dominate Germany and to dictate the terms of the peace treaty with Germany. We shall not permit Russia to make a satellite state of the whole of Germany."

Sen. Connally called upon the UN to "perform the high functions for which it was organized . . . we want to see it preserve the peace of the world. We denounce aggressive threats, we denounce maneuvers that may eventuate in war."

Bulldogs Primed To Scalp Comanche Indians

RANGER DAILY TIMES SPORTS

MARVIN GROSS Sports Editor

WARDEN SWITCHES STARTERS, WILSON SIDELINED WITH INJURY

By Marvin Gross
A determined team of Bulldogs, ready to move but far from overconfident, head for Indian country tonight to battle with Coach Jimmy Marshall's Comanche tribe.

It will be a far different eleven from the one which floundered and sputtered against Dublin last week. The Bulldogs have a score to settle and have had a week of hard, intensive drilling to prime them for a winning effort. Injuries have forced some switches in the Bulldog array. Marvin Wilson isn't on speaking terms with that knee again so the big tackle will watch from the sidelines.

On the offense Coach Warden will switch Charles Wheat and Charlie Campbell to the tackle slot. While there is a possibility that quarterback R. C. Smith will take over as defensive tackle, Smith has been brushing up on line play all week and may earn the job.

Wheat and Campbell will take pounds of the line's starting average as they weigh 130 and 150 pounds respectively. But Warden feels this duo can do a capable job.

Reserve quarterback Buddy Hamrick heretofore used as a defensive back will likely be called upon to revive the flickering passing attack. Hamrick has been nursed throughout the year and the Bulldog board of strategy feel the little signal caller is ripe for extended duty.

The Indians can point to but a solitary victory for their season's work in their last outing they slipped past the Gorman Panthers 6-0. On the basis of comparative scores this gives the Bulldogs to an odds on favorite. But Marshall has been prepping his club and pointing for this one game.

Marshall formerly handled the reins of the Bulldogs, leaving for Comanche in 1947. And what football coach doesn't relish swamping the team he formerly tutored. The Indians are touted as a tricky, opportunist team if not a successful one. They make use of every offensive formation in the book — changing from a single wing to a double wing to a T with a few others thrown in for the sake of confusion. And Warden wouldn't be too surprised if the Comanche mentor throws a two man line at the Bulldogs.

With either Hamrick or Smith taking over as the man-under, the Bulldogs will field their usual starting backfield. Kenneth Williams and Jimmy Comacho will run from the halfback spots with bruising Raymond Comacho plunging at full.

Captain Keith Mummerlyn and Jimmy Lee will again be the starting terminals. Dean Elder and little Jimmy Patterson take over the guard positions with E. P. Robinson at center. Frog Langley who turned in such an outstanding performance in the Dublin game will be at left tackle with either Campbell or Wheat joining him on the offense.

In yesterday's final drill the first string offense clicked with plenty of zip in roaring through the second stringers. Much attention was directed to the passing attack and Warden concentrated on furnishing better protection to the passer.

A squad of 22 Bulldogs will board the bus at 4:30 this afternoon for the Comanche jaunt and none of them are just going for the ride.

Bowling Briefs

Two teams from the City League merged with the Lions and the Jaycees to form a new circuit which is scheduled to bowl each Wednesday night. The Lions and Jaycees put on an interesting match with the Jaycees coming out on top. Morris Nevenham of the Jaycees climbed from a low of 65 to turn in a 147 game.

In the other match between team 3 and team 4, Dick Bonney's spare-strike in the final frame decided the match for team 3 by six pins.

Texas Tech Faces Arizona Eleven In Key Contest

By United Press
One of the four leaders was due to topple in border conference play this week when Texas Tech and Arizona collide in the feature game of the schedule at Tucson.

Each has one victory in title play, Tech having beaten West Texas State and Arizona having beaten Hardin-Simmons.

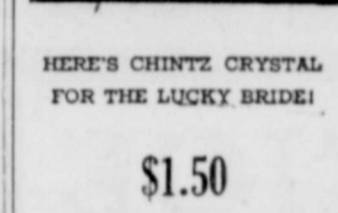

Texas Mines, one of the quartet wasn't expected to have much trouble against New Mexico at Albuquerque. Arizona State of Tempe the fourth co-leader, will be idle.

Arizona State of Flagstaff meets University of Redlands at Flagstaff, New Mexico A. & M. plays Highlands University at Las Cruces and West Texas State meets East Texas State at Dallas in non-conference play. Hardin-Simmons also is idle.

A self-unloading system announced for ships steps up the speed of unloading from 1,800 to 2,200 tons an hour.

3-5-10, Sue Ames a 5-10 and Petye Bahain was successful with a 2-5-7 split. For the men Richard Bonney scored with a 3-9-10, 3-10 and a 6-8-10.

This Sunday the ladies and mens teams of Ranger travel to Cisco for a return match. Both teams have their sights set on a double victory.

ACC Faces McMurry In Intra-city Fray

By United Press
An annual intra-city grudge battle that may have some bearing on the championship highlights the Texas conference schedule this week.

That game will send Abilene Christian's Wildcats against the McMurry Indians in an all-Abilene game. ACC and Hardin College, idle this week, rank at the top of the heap with Howard Payne with one conference triumph each Hardin has defeated McMurry.

Howard Payne takes on Southwestern, beaten by ACC, at Georgetown in the other conference contest, while off-beaten Austin College journeys to Springfield Mo., against Missouri State.

Ailing TCU Frogs Listed For Action

By United Press
FORT WORTH Tex., Oct. 22 (UP)—Only guard Milton Farmer among the six injured Texas Christian Horned Frogs was listed today as definitely out of action for tomorrow night's intersectional tilt with Oklahoma here. Coach Dutch Meyer was far from pleased with Horned Frog defense against Oklahoma plays in a prolonged scrimmage session last night.

GROSS UNDERSTATEMENTS

By Marvin Gross
Had an open date on our prognostication schedule last week. With the much needed rest and a few tips straight from the ash can we figure we'll be about 98 per cent correct this week — or high.

Texas who finally won a major game last week, makes a Houston excursion that should pay off with a victory without too much anxiety for the Steers. Rice has dropped three straight and they seemed to have so much fun doing it why stop them now.

If we boasted the courage of a Dick Merrifield or a Tom Swift we would unflinchingly say Texas A. & M. in an upset over Baylor. But no, we lack the spunk. However, the Aggies are slated to hit the heavy side of the point column soon—We pick Baylor but by a slender margin.

S. M. U. regained lost prestige with that one-sided decision over Rice last week but on the other hand Santa Clara likewise pulled out an impressive triumph. But if Gil Johnson is starting to thrive on these much delayed press notices so it's the Mustangs by a comfortable edge.

T. C. U. dips away from conference play Saturday night against a very tough Oklahoma outfit. The Sooners laid it on Texas and probably will do the same to the Frogs. In fact we won't say probably but definitely and with a two touch-down margin.

Doak's Ankle OK SMU Lives Again

DALLAS, Tex., Oct. 22 (UP)—Southern Methodist University followers breathed easier today with the report from all-American Doak Walker that his ankle wasn't hurt when someone fell on it in practice yesterday. The high-scoring tail back went down with what had appeared to be a sprained ankle and SMU's stock for a victory against Santa Clara tomorrow night took a temporary plunge until Walker reported ok.

Our own Bulldogs rate the nod in their grudge match against the Comanche Indians. Someone is going to mighty over Baylor. But no, we lack the spunk. However, the Aggies are slated to hit the heavy side of the point column soon—We pick Baylor but by a slender margin.

Heavy Volume Of Peanuts Are Moving

Southwest peanuts moved to market and to storage this week in heavy volume as harvesting reached a peak in several sections, according to reports received by the Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Farmers stock showed considerable range in quality grading from 67 per cent to 74 per cent, depending on locality. Nearly all sales of farmers stock peanuts were made at the government price support level.

Most shellers were busy shelling peanuts to produce Number 2's for sale to the Commodity Credit Corporation.

Demand for shell peanuts changed little this week. No. 1 Spanish sold around 15-14 to 16-8 cents per pound.

Southwest markets reported some peanut oil sold at 19-18 to 20 cents per pound and meal of 41 percent protein content at $65 to $70 per ton, f.o.b. mills.

RANGER now makes more calls than ever...

...and every call costs more to handle

Telephone users in Ranger are making about 7,700 calls a day—more than twice as many calls a day as were made here six years ago.

Telephone revenues have gone up, to be sure, but costs have risen even faster. Today, the telephone company is losing money each month on its operations in Ranger.

Payrolls, representing more than half the cost of furnishing telephone service in Ranger, now are almost five times as high as they were only seven years ago.

Materials and equipment, which have had to be added continuously as Ranger has grown, cost much more money than they did seven or eight years ago. A 35-foot pine pole that cost $6.30 in 1940 now costs us $18.11. Copper is up 105 per cent. It's the same for practically everything that goes into furnishing telephone service in Ranger.

Rates for local service, on the other hand, are the same as they were 26 years ago, while the scope and value of the service have steadily increased.

With more calls than ever, and each call costing more to handle, an adjustment in telephone rates in Ranger is necessary. The money we are collecting in Ranger is not sufficient to pay the actual costs of furnishing the service.

Like any other business, the telephone company cannot continue to furnish service at less than cost. Pre-war rates in Ranger simply are not enough to meet post-war costs.

The operation of the telephone system in Ranger must be put on a sound financial basis so that the system here can be enlarged and improved to meet the city's needs for more and better telephone service.
