Tientsin Falls To Communist Forces

GOVERNMENT RADIO IN FLAMING CITY ASKS REDS TO CEASE FIRING

France, Britain Reach Agreement

LONDON, Jan. 15 (UP)—France and Great Britain have attained "an extremely far-reaching agreement on all international problems," it was announced Friday.

French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman made the statement after two days of talks with Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin.

The British foreign office supplemented Schuman's enthusiastic announcement by saying that the two diplomats, aside from reaching agreement on European problems, "reached agreement on methods of extending to other parts of the world the close cooperation which already exists in European affairs."

Schuman admitted there was still some small disagreement between Britain and France on Germany. But his obvious pleasure over the results of his talk, and the communique issued by the foreign office, indicated strongly that the two countries had re-estimated their relations.

It was known that these relations had reached a new post-war low over the future of Germany, including the Ruhr, and British leaders were worried especially because of differences with the United States on Palestine.

Apparently Palestine did not figure largely in the Schuman-Bevin discussions. It was believed Schuman told Bevin that France favored recognizing the provisional Government of Israel but had to maintain an "independent" attitude because she is a member of the United Nations Conciliation Commission on Palestine.

"We spoke man to man, and there was more agreement between us than there exists often between members of the same government," Schuman said at a press conference.

Proposal Late On Poll Tax Law

AUSTIN, Jan. 15 (UP)—Gov. Beauford Jester commented Friday a proposal by 10 Democratic Senators in Washington that the poll tax question should be settled by a constitutional amendment "two days late."

(A resolution already has been introduced in the Texas State Senate by Rogers Kelley of Edinburg to repeal the poll tax as a requirement for the voting.)

(It would reflect the Governor's policy of opposing Federal Civil Rights Legislation through permitting individual states to endorse such action.)

Jester said he believed "Texas is out in front" on the poll-tax question and would beat the Federal Government "to the punch."

REFUSED TO GIVE UP SEARCH

Dr. Robert Dykes, right, owner of the ill-fated plane which crashed near Bakersfield, Calif., and Bob Duval, both friends of the crash victims, led a private rescue party to the crash scene but had to wait until a snow weasel could clear a trail for litter bearers. One woman was found alive in the crash which took three lives. (NEA Telephoto).

SHANGHAI, Saturday, Jan. 15 (UP)—Communist forces smashed their way into the heart of Tientsin as far as the United States Consulate today and the government radio in the city appealed to the Reds to cease firing.

Much of the city was reported in flames. The Red artillery barrage which preceded the heavy attack took a large toll of civilian lives, but foreign consular staffs including 82 Americans were reported safe so far except for minor injuries caused by flying glass.

The U. S. vice consul was cut by glass from shattered windows and Chinese girl employe was wounded by shell fire.

U. S. Consul General Robert L. Smyth reported that "five or six Communist soldiers are now passing the consular office firing rifles into the air." The consulate is in a modern building in the heart of the business district.

A few minutes earlier Smyth radioed that troops were

Banquet Tuesday Is Not Formal

E. F. Arterburn, president of the Quarterback Club, stated Saturday that the club banquet Tuesday night is not formal, though who wish should feel free to wear formal attire.

He stated that so many inquiries had been made on this angle that he felt the announcement was necessary.

He also said that some who had purchased tickets for the banquet had turned them back for resale, since they would be unable to attend and that there were a few banquet tickets at the Paramount for last-minute purchasers. He said that all tickets will be picked up by 9 o'clock Saturday night and those wishing to get tickets should have them before that time.

The banquet will be held at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday night in the banquet hall of the First Methodist Church. Coach Blair Cherry of the University of Texas will be the principal speaker and will also show a film of the Orange Bowl game between Texas and Georgia.

Slight Injuries In Auto Mishap

Harold S. Adams of Eastland suffered minor injuries last night about a half mile south of Morton Valley in an auto accident.

According to the Highway Patrol, Adams was making a left turn when a car driven by Jesse Weems of Ranger skidded and crashed into the rear of his car.

A. J. Lowrance of Morton Valley, in the car driven by Weems also suffered slight injuries. Driving with Adams but uninjured were Mrs. Adams and daughter Leola.

in front of the consulate, and that the Communists were shouting to Nationalist soldiers who sought refuge in the buildings, demanding that they throw their weapons into the streets.

The U. S. I. S. office was hit earlier in the day by Communist artillery fire, wounding a Chinese girl and inflicting cuts by flying glass on Vice Consul S. L. Yates. The consulate itself was endangered by fire directed at a nearby Shell Oil Company installation, and the walls were padded with rags to cut down the danger of flying glass and shell fragments.

The Nationalist radio addressed its appeal to Communist Gen. Lin Piao, promising a complete Nationalist cease fire if the Reds would halt their shelling. The government offered to send a three-man peace delegation to deal with the conquerors.

The communist radio, which announced the all-out attack also reported that Red chief Mao Tse-Tung, replying to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's new year's peace offer, had listed eight conditions for a negotiated settlement of the civil war.

Smyth said the Communists entered Tientsin from the northwest and dropped across the "old" Chinese city into the former British and French concessions. Approximately 120 British and 50 French nationals had moved into the area recently.

American officials had reported earlier from the industrial city of 3,000,000 that Red forces were meeting little resistance in early morning mop-up operations.

The immediate fate of Tangku was unknown. Heavy firing was heard just east of the Tientsin business center where the American consulate is located.

Peiping, 90 miles to the northwest, appeared to be next on the Communist timetable.

The U. S. consulate and the Chinese Government radio administration said they still had radio contact with their offices in Tientsin (at 9 P. M. EST.) but no commercial messages were moving.

Reports from the city said the Communists broke into the northwest sector of Tientsin and were driving toward the business district against "light resistance."

When it comes to pushing things around, the hardest shove on earth is supplied by a new tractor weighing 93,000 pounds. This four-wheeled chunk of steel, which can be had for around $58,000 is powered by a 750 h.p. engine designed for a P-T-boast.

Decorative ceramic tiles, still bright and colorful 500 years after they were installed, line the interior of the dome of the cepton at Toledo, Spain.

TEXAS GI TO BE BURIED IN ARLINGTON CEMETERY

A Texas soldier of Mexican ancestry, who had lived in Three Rivers, Texas, before the war will be buried in Arlington National Cemetery in Washington, D. C. At left aged Lupe Longoria and his wife Dolores, father and mother of the deceased Felix Longoria, sadly contemplate the picture of their son. They are both slightly bewildered by the turn of events which catapulted them, unlettered and obscure working people, into amblestorm of national publicity. At right Mrs. Beatrice Longoria and her daughter, Adelata, widow and daughter of Felix, look at his picture as they recount the story of his death on Luzon. The funeral director in Three Rivers who had reportedly refused to conduct the services for the reburial of the GI has stated that he did not at any time refuse to bury the soldier. He said, "Neither did I refuse the use of the chapel because the deceased was a Latin-American." (NEA Telephoto.)

PRESIDENT'S HONOR GUARD AT INAUGURAL PARADE TO BE HIS WORLD WAR I BUDDIES

By Charles Nethaway
UNITED PRESS STAFF CORRESPONDENT
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 15 (UP)—President Truman's guard of honor in his inaugural parade in Washington Jan. 20 will include at least 100 men who fought in his command in World War I. They are among the surviving members of Battery D, 129th Field Artillery, 35th Division, who now are scattered across the nation and overseas but who call Kansas City their headquarters.

To them the nation's chief executive remains, "Captain Harry," though each naturally respects his wartime leader as "Mr. President."

The men who, battled through the Vosges Mountain sector, at St. Mihiel, in the Meuse-Argonne drive were confident of their marching abilities, but they cringed when Mr. Truman told them they would have to make a reveille call on Inauguration Day if they expect to attend the breakfast he is giving them at the Mayflower Hotel.

The breakfast is scheduled for 7 A. M., Mr. Truman told the boys, "and not 7:10 or 7:15." He said he would get them out of bed even if it meant sending a bugler to blow them out.

Electric Service Close To Normal

Completed electrical service in the vicinity was expected to be restored by Saturday night announced officials of the Texas Electric Service Co.

According to Buck Pickens, assistant district manager, the chief source of trouble is stemming from the rural areas where several lines are still snarled. Service is toward from De Leon to Graham was reported as normal.

Experienced maintenance crews have been recruited from Lufkin, Nagadoches and Paris to alleviate the manpower shortage. In addition to regular crews in the area 72 men have transferred here to aid in repair work.

The company has maintained communication between Eastland, Breckenridge and other points through a private telephone line. Pickens commented that the present difficulty was the worst in about 20 years. A severe storm in 1930 also crippled electrical lines, but the recent storm wreaked more damage.

WASHINGTON Jan. 15 (UP)—President Truman Friday received a formal invitation to his own inaugural next Thursday and promptly replied: "Weather permitting, I hope to be present—HST."

Mr. Truman received the invitation from Melvin Hildreth, chairman of the inaugural committee. It said "R. S. V. P. so Mr. Truman did."

(That bugler would be Federal Judge Albert J. Ridge of Kansas City who "blew 'em out" in France, except for the time the boys filled his bugle with water and it froze.)

But the President will not march with his buddies. He always has, but this time he says he has no intention of marching in a "rig" which will include a tall silk hat and tails.

Accountant To Keep Office Here

James King, Ranger public accountant, stated today that in making the announcement that he has opened an office in Eastland he wished to let it be known that he is retaining his headquarters office in Ranger and will continue to serve his clients here as in the past.

King and J. Moss Rucker of Eastland have opened accounting offices at 204 West Main Street in Eastland, in the Production Credit Association office.

King a graduate of the University of Chicago has been a public accountant for 10 years, and since he returned from Navy service in 1945, has maintained an office in Ranger, which he will continue to operate.

Rucker, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Rucker of Santa, went to Eastland in 1946 after serving three years in the Navy.

He was associated with the Eastland County Vocational School at that time as an instructor of bookkeeping.

He is a 1943 graduate of the Texas A. & M. College, and has taken work toward a Master's degree.

Buddies of the first soldier-president since Theodore Roosevelt have sent three 15-pound Missouri hams and a case of cranberry cock tail juice to the Mayflower "to help out the President" with his breakfast.

The committee on arrangements for the Inaugural trip has promised that battery members will have themselves in Washington and forget certain functions which caused the outfit to be called the "dizzy D" overseas.

Col. John J. Uncles expected to win the mileage award in connection with the Washington meeting of the battery. He cabbed this week that he was flying to the inaugural from Stuttgart, Germany. Uncles was a private under "Captain Harry." Later he went to West Point and was a brigadier general in Europe in World War II.

Battery D was recruited in Kansas City shortly after war was declared in 1917. Mr. Truman at the time was a first lieutenant in the 129th Field Artillery. Three captains had had battery D before Mr. Truman took it over at the French Artillery School at Coetquion, France July 11, 1918.

The President has kept up personal correspondence with many battery members. He knows their sons and daughters, and refers to many of them as his "grandchildren."

Battery members said the President "always seemed to be at his best when the opposition was toughest."

Mother of H. R. Hicks Dies Fri.

Word was received in Ranger Friday of the death in Orange, Texas of Mrs. C. F. Hicks, mother of H. R. Hicks of Ranger. Mr. and Mrs. Hicks left Thursday for Orange after being notified of the mother's serious illness and were with her at the time of her death.

Mrs. Hicks died Friday night and funeral arrangements Saturday were still pending. Besides H. R. Hicks, she is survived by two other sons, and one daughter, Mrs. Beatrice Webb, formerly of Ranger.

Dutch Warns U N On Firm Stand

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Jan. 15 (UP)—The Netherlands told the United Nations Security Council today that it intends to hold "free and general" Indonesian elections by the end of this year and to transfer sovereignty to a dominion-type United States of Indonesia by the end of 1950.

An authoritative source revealed, meanwhile, that the United States had passed around to council members a tentative proposal containing a time table along the lines proposed by the Dutch.

The American-sponsored plan also was understood to provide for UN supervision of progressive Dutch troop withdrawal from Indonesian territory.

However, Dutch delegate J. H. Van Royen announced in advance to the council that the Netherlands would "not acquiesce" to any UN order to evacuate its troops and that any UN attempt to impose a time table on Holland would be "unacceptable."

The Dutch announced plans to create an "interim" United States of Indonesia within a month. The American proposal the source disclosed, sets March 15 as the deadline for such an interim regime.

Van Royen sharply attacked the United States, Russia and other critics of Dutch policy in Indonesia.

Where the Dutch proposed elections in the last quarter of this year, the United States formula set a deadline of Oct. 1. Where the Dutch plan fixed transfer of sovereignty for "some time" in 1950, the American plan put the deadline at April 1, 1950.

Texas Ranks 3rd In Polio Cases

ARILENE, Jan. 15 (UP)—The 1948 infantile paralysis epidemic in Texas was the worst in the recorded history of the disease in the states, Edward S. Stewart, states March of Dimes chairman, said here today.

Stewart, who made the announcement in connection with the opening of the March of Dimes drive, Jan. 14-31, said that polio cases last year totaled 1,780. Texas ranked third in the nation in number of cases, he said.

The chairman said every recorded polio patient was cared for through March of Dimes funds. The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis advanced about $520,000 to Texas after state chapter funds were exhausted.

Well...
I Dunno,
But...

A progressive community is constantly on the alert for ways and means of promoting the advancement of that community. That is the positive side of the ledger.

On the negative side of the ledger, it's just as important to be on the alert for that which is not to the best interests of that community.

In either case, it requires vision, conviction, courage and unity of purpose and sincere action to meet the situation.

The above qualities are inseparable for accomplishment in either the positive or negative issues of a community. Perhaps the vision of one individual may lead to the conviction of others, with the courage to act, the part that others must contribute. But the thing that counts is the unification for action of those with vision, conviction and courage.

To organize for any fight for the right, the group must put away individual prejudices and fears, accept the will of the whole and then proceed without fear of reprisal, individual or otherwise. We've never known of a community that was soundly built that didn't cost personal sacrifices, and time a bending of the will to group.

Of course results are gained at the end by action alone. Recognizing a need is the beginning. Planning is the next step but it's the action that counts. Asking what we can do about it, is not enough. It's finding the answer and getting it done that counts.

Action takes courage and absence of fear. A parent, as the guardian of the future of a child does not hesitate to act and act firmly and effectively, when the future of that child is at stake. And citizens of a community, the guardians of the future of that community are as duty bound as any parent, to take fearless action when the future of that community is involved.

Any objective that is for the good of a community is bigger than individual relations, personal prejudices or personal aggrandizement. Seekers of personal credit or glory are only weak links in the chain. They are the ones that spurn the advice and opinions of others, seeking guidance from what they believe to be their own self sufficiency, but which is nothing more than fear for the credit or glory that they seek.

As community leaders we can no more divorce ourselves from dependence on others, than we can as individuals divorce our lives from the help of others. Again we say, it's the sincere, concerted effort of the well-meaning GROUP that is required to build a well founded city.

Any community that advances, studies its problems, decides what is right to do and then without fear proceeds to do something about it.

And we can't meet an issue by sticking our heads in the sand.

We are sitting in the Paramount Coffee shop Saturday morning when that long dreamed of downpour came and practically with one accord, everybody in there yelled, "Now, you'll have something to write about."

And sure enough we have. That one little spurt of rain netted Ranger 18 of an inch in the few seconds of fall. Another burst or two like that and we might begin to rest at ease about the water situation.

And then the sun came for the first time this week and you know that blue sky looked right good.

Mrs. P. M. Kuykendall, president of the Child Welfare Club, said today that after a general check of welfare work done by the club at Christmas time, that the tremendous contribution made by Ranger High School, Ranger Junior College and the Willing Workers Class of the First Methodist

Slim Winning Margins Debunk Democrats' 'Peoples' Mandate'

BY PETER EDSON
 NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Big arguing point in the coming session of Congress is whether the Democrats have a "mandate" to carry out all the programs President Truman promised during his campaign. The fact that the President received only 49.5 per cent of the popular vote is cited by his opponents as evidence that there is no basis for assuming he has a mandate. Preliminary study of congressional election returns, district by district, lends some support to this view. In spite of the fact that the Democrats won control of both Houses of Congress, surprising everyone, it was a close race.

In general, the congressional vote ran ahead of the presidential vote. Truman's plurality over Dewey was 2,000,000 votes. The total vote for Democratic candidates for Congress is expected to be better than 3,000,000 above the total Republican congressional vote. But in nearly 100 congressional districts, a switch of less than 5 per cent of the votes would have changed the result.

In all, there were 50 congressional districts which the Democrats won by a plurality of 5 per cent or less. Since membership of the new House will be divided 263 Democrats to 171 Republicans (plus one American Labor) the Democratic majority will be 92 seats. A switch of less than 5 per cent of the votes in these 50 districts would therefore have given the Republicans a slim majority of eight seats—221 to 213.

Included in the list of congressional districts that went Democratic by a margin of 5 per cent or less are eight districts in Pennsylvania, seven in New York, five each in Illinois, Indiana and Ohio, three in California, two in Colorado, Connecticut, New Jersey and West Virginia, one each in Idaho, Massachusetts, Missouri, Nebraska, Nevada, Oklahoma, Virginia and Wisconsin.

Democrat John H. Marsalis of Pueblo, Colo., defeated Republican J. Edgar Chenoweth by only 1802 votes. Democrat Mrs. Chase Going Woodhouse of Baltic, Conn., defeated Republican Horace Seely-Brown by 1471 votes. Democrat John A. McGuire of Wallingford, Conn., defeated Republican Ellisworth B. Foote by 1139 votes.

NECK and neck races did not all result in Democratic victories. Of course, the Republicans sneaked in some 47 of their congressional candidates in 23 states by pluralities of less than 5 per cent. But these returns again illustrate how close this election really was. Among these close districts which the GOP won by less than 5 per cent were eight in Illinois, six in Ohio, three each in Indiana, Iowa, New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

These Republicans won by a nose of less than 1000 votes: Mrs. Cecil M. Harden of Covington, Ind., won by 483 votes; William W. Blakney, Flint, Mich., re-elected by 784 votes; Gordon Canfield, Paterson, N. J., re-elected by 148 votes; Robert J. Corbett, Bellevue, Pa., won by 699 votes.

In a majority of the states where Republican congressional states came out on top, their pluralities were smaller than in the 1946 election. For the past two years, the GOP has had control of the House by a margin of 246 seats to the Democrats' 188. This gave the Republicans a majority of 58.

In this 1948 election the Republicans won 52 seats by pluralities of 5 per cent or less of the votes cast. The Democrats in 1946 carried 37 seats by pluralities of less than 5 per cent. The 1948 election is therefore an approximate reversal of the result in 1946, insofar as the number of close districts is concerned. But in 1946 the Republicans thought that they, too, had a mandate to change everything in sight. They did. Look what happened.

If there is any moral in this, it is that if the Democratic congressmen think they have a mandate for 1949 and 1950, they'd better think again if they care about what may happen in 1952.

Feller Faces Financial Facts As Veeck Cracks Money Whip

BY HARRY GRAYSON
 NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—The party's over, among many others, Robert William Andrew Feller. "I'd like to make as much in 1949 myself as Feller's cut in pay will be," says Bill Veeck, which gives you a rough idea of what the Cleveland fireballer has been collecting with the aid of a bonus arrangement. "I've been working for Feller," adds owner Veeck, "but next season Bob's going to work for me."

Toward the close of the Tanfano meeting, the youngster who was trumpeting the horses to the post requested an audience with President Gene Mori.

He had been approached, he confided, by a gent who wanted him to blow a sour note. "The man said," he testified, "he had heard many people commenting that I had not sounded a flat note during the meeting. He said he had been losing on the races. So he wanted me to blow one sour note, on a signal from him."

"I'll break every go-and-so in the club's use," he said. "That's one way to get even."

Lon Warneke will be back in the National League in the spring as an umpire. When the celebrated right-hander called a third strike on an ex-National Leaguer in the Pacific Coast League last summer, the batter, turned, and growled: "Of Arkansas. There's one of the guys who pitched me right out of the big leagues. And here he is again, looking over my shoulder."

FIGHTERS have organized, seeking to break the old custom of handing over 33 1/2, sometimes 50 per cent, of their purses to managers. Speaking for the Managers' Guild, Willie Gilzenberg warns that warriors depriving handlers of a fair shake would only find themselves easy prey for greedy promoters.

Willie the Beard, you see, doesn't want anyone to get hoisted, including the managers who would have to go to work.

Jack Mitchell says a quarterback has to get his voice in shape just like a singer.

The Oklahoma psychology major, a remarkable hand down under in the T, asserts that he went out in the country to practice hollering the Sooners' charging signal. "What hurts a quarterback's pride most of all?" "Not being able to score in the scoring zone," replies Mitchell. "It's the quarterback's fault if his team can't punch the ball across after getting close to the goal. That's where you win or lose."

Mystery Solved

TOKAWA, Okla. (UP)—The local post office's mystery about what happened to letters that never reached their destination has been solved. Postmaster Paul Walker watched on his route and saw a crow remove a letter from a mailbox. Walker said the bird was trying to detach the stamp which apparently had attracted him to the party.

MARRIED RECENTLY IN JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI

Mrs. James Gordon Vaughn is the former Helen Madreen Gholson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Gholson of Jackson, Miss., formerly of Ranger. The wedding took place Jan. 5, in Jackson. Mrs. Vaughn is the granddaughter of Mrs. John M. Gholson of Ranger and a grand niece of T. O. Rawls of Ranger and Mrs. George Davenport of Eastland. Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn will make their home in Seattle, Washington.

Miss Gholson, Former Ranger Resident, Wed In Jackson, Miss.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Lynn Blakeslee Sr., Old Canton Rd., Jackson, Miss., was the scene of a brilliant wedding on Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 5 at 4 o'clock when Helen Madreen Gholson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Gholson of Jackson, formerly of Ranger, was married to James Gordon Vaughn, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wesley Vaughn of Laurel, Miss. The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs. John M. Gholson of Ranger and grandniece of T. O. Rawls of Ranger and Mrs. Geo. Davenport of Eastland.

Dr. W. S. Setch, pastor of Gal-laway Memorial Church in Jackson, performed the double ring ceremony which was attended by intimate friends and relatives.

The home was decorated in bridal white. White chrysanthemums decorated the reception hall and white foliage and flowers lined the stairway. The ceremony took place before the white marble mantel which was decorated with flowers and ribbon. At each end of the mantel were crystal candelabra holding white candles.

Mr. and Mrs. Buck Baine, pianist, played a program of pre-nuptial music which included "Because" and "To A Wild Rose" and also played the traditional wedding professional and recessional marches. During the services Mr. Baine played "Clair de Lune".

Mrs. J. L. Blakeslee Jr. of Jackson was her sister's matron of honor. Jo Cherry of Dallas, Texas cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and Vera Adams and Genevieve Burdette of Jackson were bride's maids.

The bride's matron of honor carried vanda and purple catty orchids. The bride who was given in marriage by her father wore an exquisite French original Chantilly lace-wedding gown. The molded bodice had a sheer decolletage ap- pliqued with scrolls of bridal satin. Similar scrolls outlined the edge of the full skirt and the cathedral train. A close fitting cap of imported lace held a short court veil of illusion bordered with a panel of lace.

L. J. W. Vaughn attended his brother as best man and ushers were E. R. Lawson of Dallas, J. L. Blakeslee Jr., and Henry Stephenson of Jackson.

The bride's mother wore a gown of taupe chiffon sprinkled with amber stones and matching accessories. Her corsage was of white violets. The groom's mother wore a gown of black crep with accessories and a corsage of roses.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Gholson entertained at a reception honoring the bride party. Mrs. Blakeslee Sr. greeted the guests at the door and Marian Willoughby presided at the bride's book.

In the dining room, Mrs. Julian Noel served punch, assisted by Mrs. Roderich Russ, Natalie Chance, Mrs. H. H. Russell and Sara Dell Wakefield.

The table was covered with an imported Italian cutwork cloth and centered with a three tiered wedding cake topped with a nosegay of tiny white rosebuds. Silver candlesticks holding white candles were at each end of the table.

When the couple left for a trip to New Orleans, the bride wore an original costume suit of navy and cherry milatene. Her hat was of white felt with cherry feathers. Her accessories were navy blue and her corsage was white.

On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Gholson entertained the bride party at a dinner at the Country Club following the rehearsal.

Those attending the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Gholson, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Gholson of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Blakeslee Sr., Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Blakeslee Jr., Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cherry of Dallas, Genevieve Burdette, Jo Cherry, Vera Adams, and Henry Stephenson, Buck Baine, E. R. Lawson, Lt. and Mrs. J. W. Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Vaughn, Mr. John M. Gholson of Ranger, Mrs. Mills A. Tooke of New Orleans, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coughig of New Orleans and Dr. and Mrs. William Selah.

Bulldogs Wallop Gorman In Opener

The Bulldogs looked like potential 8A conference champions last night as they opened the title chase overwhelming the Gorman Panthers, 34-16 at Gorman.

The Bulldogs were in the saddle all the way, jumping off to big first half lead and adding fuel to the rest of the game. The speeded up offense clicked in the best fashion of the young season.

Kenneth Williams led both clubs in point production with seven field goals for 14 points. The rest of the scoring was evenly distributed among the rest of the Bulldog starters, Keith Munnerlyn, E. P. Robinson, Ronald Williams and R. C. Smith.

Although early to venture opinions on the outcome of the race the Bulldogs should be one of the top contenders for the crown along with DeLeon, who whipped Eastland in its opener, Comanche and possibly Dublin.

Los Angeles, one of the long ball-hitting newcomers to top-flight golf, ripped the sand-pocked Cypress Point Course apart Friday as he snipped six strokes off par to take over first day leadership in the $10,000 Bing Crosby National Pro-Amateur Championship.

In firing a 32-34-66, Nary smashed the competitive course record of 67 set in 1947 by Dick Metz. However, the score was three strokes more than the 63 practice round turned in by Bantam Ben Hogan yesterday.

The lanky Nary was teamed with Lefty O'Doul, of baseball fame, and together they posted a 31-30-61, good enough for a mid-afternoon tie for first place in the pro-amateur team division. In with the same mark was the pro-amateur duo of John Barnum of Mt. Prospect, Ill., and Harrison Godwin of Monterey, who had 32-29-61.

Nary had five birdies and four pars on the outgoing nine holes. He slipped over par on the 11th and 16th on the back nine, but still came in with a 34 on three

Try Hudson!..See why
...it's lower...it's better!

Here's the only car you step down into—the lowest on the highway—a stunning beauty with the liveliest, smoothest and safest way of going you've ever known!

The whole world knows that the lower a car is built, the more graceful its lines can be made, the better it rides, handles and performs, and the safer it is.

And now you are invited to see and drive the lowest-built car on the highway—the New Hudson!

The New Hudson—and only Hudson—has recessed floors. Thus, lounge-size seats are lowered to harmonize with the new, lower top.

Because you step down into Hudson, you get more head room and roomier seats than in any mass-produced car built today... and all of this along with ample road clearance!

But you'll soon find that amazing roominess is only one of the wonderful things you get in this unique new kind of car.* We believe you'll want to read about more of them in the column to the right. Then see your nearby Hudson dealer who will gladly arrange for you to drive this sensationally low-built automobile.

*The many advantages of Hudson's "Step-Down" design are fully explained and illustrated in a booklet available at all Hudson dealers.
Optional on all models at extra cost.

BETTER design: Because the "step-down" principle is so basically right, it enables Hudson to achieve pleasing proportions and symmetric, free-flowing lines.

BETTER performance: Hudson's all-new, high-compression Super-Six engine—or the masterful Super-Eight, perform at their best because this car is so thoroughly streamlined.

BETTER roadability: With the lowest center of gravity in any American stock car, Hudson really hugs the road, especially on curves. Hudson's Fluid-Cushioned Clutch, Center-Point Steering and Triple-Safe Brakes contribute mightily to a wonderful feeling of assurance.

BETTER value: One look, one ride will quickly tell you that here is an automobile so far ahead it is a protected investment.

Thank You, Folks, for Your Kind Forbearance During My Recent Troubles

Texas Electric Service Company engineers tell me that the ice storm which hit last Tuesday was the most wide-spread in their memories. Not just a few communities, but a large area of West Texas was covered with a sheet of ice. Ice-laden limbs crushed down my electric wires, ice-sheathed wires either broke from the weight of two or three inches of ice, or pulled down the poles. Many miles of electric lines must be rebuilt, much of it from the ground up, to repair the storm damage.

I appreciate the fine attitude and patience of my friends in our many hours of trouble. When the word first came that icing conditions threatened, men, equipment and materials were mobilized from other cities and towns to help out our local folk. Many of these men worked day and night so that the interruption to your electric service would be as short as possible. Some of them risked their lives traveling ice-covered highways and even flying planes to locate and repair breaks in our lines. I wish I could tell you of the many heroic and self-denying tasks they accomplished in their stride.

Although electric service generally has been restored, many more days of work will have to be done to replace the emergency repairs with permanent construction.

My hat is off to the folks who worked so tirelessly and so long so that I could resume serving you.

East Texas Scouts In Oil Business

LONGVIEW, Tex., Jan. 15 (UP)—Longview oil operators today made thousands of Boy and Girl Scouts independent oil producers.

The deed to a newly drilled well valued at $500,000 was handed to representatives of the East Texas Area Council of Boy and Girl Scouts by John E. Wrather of Longview during dedication ceremonies.

Wrather, a Longview oilman, originated the "scout well idea." Chairman William J. Murray, head of the Texas Railroad Commission, said he "wholeheartedly endorsed" the action of the men making the gift possible.

Murray said he owed his higher education to a Boy Scout scholar ship awarded to him when he completed high school.

Harry Harrington, a Longview attorney, introduced those who had contributed cash or equipment to the idea.

Among top contributors was Humble Pipe Line Co. of Houston.

Phone Company Tries Air Lanes

Those intimate glimpses into private telephone conversations heard by Eastland residents Friday weren't part of a new daily soap opera.

Because of the breakdown of long distance lines the telephone company was forced to rig up some other means of getting through to Cisco and other points. A special radio communication between Eastland and Cisco was hooked up enabling the transmission of long distance calls.

Cisco has an underground cable leading towards Dallas permitting long distance calls. According to telephone company officials Eastland was completely isolated as both the arial wires leading from the east and west were damaged. The radio hook-up used is a mobile unit on a trailer. It originates from an abandoned 10 meter band formerly used by amateurs. According to communication regulations the telephone company must identify the station every 15 minutes similar to regular broadcasting stations.

Officials are hoping that normal service relating to circuits going west will be resumed by noon Saturday. But then KOCA will stay on the air allowing the radio audience to hear some real life programs.

Rita Makes Bow To Prince's Dad

CANNERS, France, Jan. 15 (UP)—Glamorous Rita Hayworth, sniffing from a head cold, was presented to the Aga Khan Friday by his son, and her sweetheart, Prince Aly.

A friend of the Aga Khan's family said Miss Hayworth and the Prince drove to the Aga Khan's luxurious estate, Yakhimour, shortly after 6 P. M.

An informed source said Miss Hayworth's meeting with the Indian potentate was informal and they chatted pleasantly. Only the Aga Khan, his wife, and a friend were at the villa when the red-haired movie star and her Prince arrived.

It was Miss Hayworth's first venture outside Prince Aly's Chateau, some five miles away, since the couple arrived Wednesday from Switzerland.

Details of her talk with the Aga Khan were not immediately available, but Prince Aly said earlier today that he would make a statement to the press between 4 and 5 P. M. Monday. This of course led to instant speculation that he was going to announce his intentions towards Rita.
