Four men who came here last week to hunt for the buried gold than an empty strong box.

Lee Howk, private investigator and leader of the group, said the treasure hunters would stop in Indiana "to scout around bit" in a tocality where he said James is known to have visited.

Other members of the party were John Trammel, who said he was 109 years old and a former body guard to James; Roscoe James, who claimed to be a nephew of the Missouri train robber; and James Cooper, "who

We get faster handling of larger payloads

"THE ACTUAL operation cost for our fleet of Ford F-7 Big Jobs is the same as the two-ton trucks they replaced, but we get faster handling of larger payloads," reports Mr. H. B. McCuistion of Beaumont, Texas. "We find our new 145-horsepower Ford Model F-7 Big Jobs are more versatile, more capable. They are far superior to the two-ton trucks."

Sensational reports on the new F-7 and F-8 Ford Big Jobs are coming in from everywhere. Men who know trucks claim 6,000 miles per month, for months on end, with no time out . . . gross loads of 50,000 lbs. . . . power that leaves other trucks eating dust . . . passenger-car type of driving ease and comfort . . . gasoline economy that even smaller two-ton trucks cannot excel on comparable runs. Come in and let us give you more facts on the Mr. Big of big-time trucking-the Ford Big Job.

Society-Clubs T U. Journalism Director To Be Honored Mar 31

AUSTIN, Texas, March 16-Texas newspapermen and women will gather here March 31 to pay their respects to Paul J. Thompson, University of Texas Journalism School director.

A dinner on the eve of the annual Round-up celebration will honor the journalism teacher who came to the University 30 years ago as an instructor in advertising. Since then, he has helped guide the journalism department to an enrollment which ranks secand or third in the nation.

Its growth was evidenced last fall when the department became the School of Journalism. A new uilding to house it is included in the University's building program.

The appreciation dinner grew out of a conversation between newspapermen at the press convention. They recalled the good pital with her healthy seven-pound by Thompson and decided to do something in return.

Invitatins have been mailed to about 900 University journalism graduates whose addresses are known. Anyone wishing to attend the dinner may get tickets for $2 each by writing the Paul J. Thompson Appreciation Fund, Room 815, Brown Building, Aus-

This little fellow may be enjoying the protection of a telephone because you are sharing telephone service with his family or some other family on a party line.

Were it not for party lines, thousands of peoplenow being served-would still be waiting for telephones despite all the effort we've been able to put into the manufacture and installation of new telephone equipment.

If you are on a party line, you'll find courtesy and neighborly co-operation pay big dividends in better service. A party-liner who is thoughtful of the other fellow may well find that the other fellow will be thoughtful of him.
