U. S. Officials Hold Hopes Cold War Near An End

Well...
I Dunno,
But...

Women all over town are getting the nicest letters from women who were here last week for the convention of the Sixth District of The Texas Federation of Women's Clubs. All of 'em have the most complimentary things to say about the way Ranger handled the convention and the unusual hospitality of the town.

Well, the rest of the women have nothing on us. This morning in the mail was a letter from Mrs. J. D. Sandefer of Abilene. Mrs. Sandefer, veteran clubwoman and wife of the late Dr. Sandefer, for many years president of Hardin-Simmons University, was the hit of the convention.

Though well on in her years, she had a keen interest in everything that went on and rose to her feet when the impulse struck her to say what she thought on whatever subject was being discussed.

And here's what she wrote about the mention made of her in this newspaper, and about the convention.

"I want to thank you for publishing the nice things the women said about me at the T.W.C. meeting.

I think it was the best and most constructive meeting I have attended.

Ranger certainly did extend to us a most cordial welcome for which we are most grateful."

Sincerely yours,
Lucile Gilbert Sandefer.

Heard recently that Stewart Doas who used to be associated with the Eastland Telegram and who was in this office every day was making good as a reporter for the Dallas Morning News.

In an AP story appearing over the wires Tuesday, Stewart was quoted in a story about a negro that saved a now grown man from a fall into a well 36 years ago. Stewart had interviewed the negro.

That's just like Stewart. He had a nose for news if he ever saw one and besides that he had the ability to tell readers about it in an interesting biding manner.

Stewart, incidentally, is the son-in-law of G. O. Kimbrough of Ranger.

Ranger people will be faced with another election Monday and this time the voters will decide whether or not they will take into the Ranger School District the district of Tudor and Cross Roads.

Members of the Ranger school board explained today that the district will be an addition to the Ranger school district and will bring into it additional revenue, all of which should make the addition an asset to Ranger. Cross Roads students are already coming to school in Ranger but by contract and not by annexation.

Other rural schools will have districts added to their territory but the two mentioned above are the ones that should mostly concern Ranger. It was explained that after a rural school district reaches a certain size, the addition of territory becomes a matter for the people to vote upon and not to be decided upon by the county school board.

Your vote favoring the addition of the two districts to the Ranger District should be cast.

HOUSE APPROVES FUNDS FOR EUROPEAN RECOVERY

By John L. Steel
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, April 14 (UP)—The House approved without objection today the final version of a compromise bill authorizing a $5,430,000,000 (B) outlay in the next 15 months for recovery in Western Europe.

The Senate expected to add its endorsement promptly. The bill, a compromise between House and Senate versions of the Administration's Foreign Aid Program, then goes to the White House.

Foreign aid committee chairman John Kee, D., W. Va., told the House "it is a stronger, better bill than either the House or the Senate measure."

House approval of the compromise was by voice vote. There was no audible vote against it.

The final version was completed last night by a joint conference committee which adjusted differences between the bill approved by the two chambers.

It would authorize Marshall Plan spending of $5,430,000,000 (B) between now and June 30, 1950. However, the actual money must be appropriated in separate legislation and the total may be reduced.

The compromise also provides that the government would furnish up to $150,000,000 (M) in additional funds to guarantee the convertibility into dollars of the investments and earnings of private individuals who put money into approved projects.

The conferees dropped a Senate feature requiring that 15 percent of the corn shipped be in processed form. But they agreed on another provision to require that 12 1/2 percent of the wheat shipment be processed.

To help small businesses share in the program, the conference committee agreed that a deputy administrator should be appointed with responsibility for making information available. The House had approved a stronger clause, requiring that small businessmen share a "fair and substantial" share of overseas trade.

NORTHWEST TOLD MORE TREMORS MAY BE FELT

SEATTLE, April 14 (UP)—Experts warned today that more tremors could follow the earthquake which rocked the Pacific Northwest with property damage estimated at $20,000,000 and a loss of seven lives.

Prof. Saunee N. Dicken, head of the University of Oregon's geology department, said at Eugene, Ore., that further shocks are possible if the earth's crust continues to "act up."

The quake yesterday was the worst in the region's history, spreading damage through a dozen western Washington cities and scores of smaller communities.

At least 61 persons were hospitalized, some in serious condition, and hundreds of others suffered minor injuries either from falling debris or from accidents in their frantic attempts to escape.

The earthquake struck at 11:55:40 A. M. (PST) and rocked the entire coastline from Vancouver and Victoria, B. C., to Salem, Ore., for more than 60 seconds, shattering buildings, starting fires, breaking water and gas mains, and sending hundreds of downtown shoppers and holy week churchgoers into a brief period of panic.

Spokane, Walla Walla, Wenatchee, Yakima and other Washington cities as far as 300 miles east across the cascade range felt the tremor. But death and destruction were centered along a 125-mile strip from Seattle south to Longview on the Columbia river.

Damage to schools, churches, office buildings, bridges and industrial plants was so widespread that officials offered only conservative estimates on the damage. Still, estimates from throughout the damage area indicated that the total would pass the $20,000,000 mark.

Hardest hit were Seattle, Tacoma, Olympia, Chehalis, Centralia, Longview, Kelso and Castle Rock. Workers at the Hanford Atomic Works on the flat lands in eastern Washington reported feeling a slight tremor. The Bonneville Dam on the Oregon border was unscathed, although earth slides were reported to have occurred nearby.

Washington, April 14 (UP)—President Truman indicated today that the administration expects to close the fiscal year June 30 with a deficit of around $1,200,000,000 (B).

He said at a news conference that a bill passed by the House yesterday to give the Veterans Administration an extra $59,000,000 (B) would hike the expected deficit by that sum.

In his budget message last January, Mr. Truman estimated that the 1949 fiscal year would end with a deficit of $599,706,231.

The extra appropriation for the Veterans Administration, needed to meet unexpectedly heavy unemployment and other GI benefits, would just about double the January deficit estimate.

Mr. Truman also told newsmen:

1. He has no intention of withdrawing the nomination of Mon C. Waldren to be chairman of the National Security Resources Board which has been tabled in the Senate.
2. He still wants government power to control installment buying and credit extended beyond June 30.
3. Secretary of Army Kenneth C. Royall and Secretary of Navy John L. Sullivan submitted their resignations along with all other top federal officials after the election. But Mr. Truman said he knew of no development since then involving Royall or Sullivan.
4. He is considering reappointment of Rear Adm. W. W. Smith as chairman of the Maritime Commission. Smith's term of office expires shortly.

BELIEVE FOREIGN POLICY DEFEATS MAY SWAY REDS

BY EDWARD V. ROBERTS
UNITED PRESS STAFF CORRESPONDENT
WASHINGTON, April 14 (UP)—U. S. officials today expressed the belief that Soviet Russia may be getting ready to ease off the cold war.

They said the Soviet Union has suffered a series of defeats in the field of foreign policy during the past year, and that in the face of these setbacks a shift in Russian tactics appears likely.

Secretary of State Dean Acheson made it clear yesterday that the door is open to any genuine Soviet peace moves. A week ago, Acheson said that the Atlantic Pact, and other moves toward strengthening the west, had increased the possibilities of peace with Russia.

U. S. officials who specialize in Russian problems said that, so far, there has been no direct indication of a softer Soviet attitude. However, they said there have been numerous "indirect" evidences.

Chief among these, they said, is the relatively restrained nature of Soviet attacks on the west at the current session of the United Nations General Assembly. These sources said that despite Andrei Gromyko's speech yesterday, the onslaught against the Atlantic Pact has not reached the expected violent pitch.

Also, they said denunciations of the west by Soviet and Communist spokesmen at the recent New York "World Peace" conference were milder in tone than those at previous similar conferences.

These officials box-scored the past year like this: Western Advances:

Success of the Marshall Plan, and closer economic collaboration of the Benelux Nations and France and Italy.

Integration of the defenses of Britain, France, and the Benelux Countries.

The Atlantic Pact, and its "psychological impact."

The Big Three agreements on Germany, clearing the way for a peaceful German state that will aid European recovery.

Soviet Defeats:
Communist political setbacks in Italy, France, Sweden, Norway, and even in Finland where Russia has a stranglehold on the nation's economy.

The defection and successful defiance of Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia.

The failure of the Soviet blockade of Berlin to make the west come to terms.

Evidence that the west's counter blockade is hurting Poland and Czechoslovakia, and that Russia herself is suffering production difficulties.

These U. S. officials said that while the door is open to Russian peace moves, the U. S. will not abandon any of its commitments to strengthen Europe. Specifically, they said, this country will not bargain away the civil rights offered the New German State.

Ben Langford Sr. Accepts Sentence

WICHITA FALLS, April 14 (UP)—Ben Langford, Sr., accepted a 99 year prison sentence from District Judge Floyd Jones here yesterday.

The wealthy Wichita Falls oil man was found guilty of the fatal shooting of his divorced wife, Laffon, 34, on Jan. 3.

No notice of appeal was given by Langford's attorneys.

A district court jury returned a verdict of murder with malice Tuesday night after two hours and 45 minutes deliberation.

WAR CRIMES TRIALS END AS 19 NAZIS SENTENCED

By United Press
The 19th and final Nuernberg war crimes trial ended today when 19 of Adolf Hitler's top advisers were sentenced to prison terms ranging up to 25 years.

Baron Ernst Von Weizaecker, former Nazi Ambassador to the Vatican and best-known of the 21 defendants in the wind-up trial, received a seven-year sentence for plotting aggressive war against Czechoslovakia and aiding in atrocities against Jews.

The 25-year sentence was imposed on Lt. Gen. Gottlob Berger, 52, one of the highest officers in Hitler's dreaded SS (Elite Guard) for sending thousands of Jews to gas chambers, mistreating war prisoners and using slave labor.

One of the two 20-year sentences went to Hans Heinrich Lammers, 69, former chief of Hitler's Reichschancellery, who

Texas Weather Mostly Fair, Mild

By UNITED PRESS
Fair, Mild weather prevailed over all Texas today, except along the Gulf Coast where scattered morning fog was reported.

A weak cool front pushed into the northern half of the state last night and dropped temperatures a bit early today.

Readings in the 30's occurred in the northern Panhandle, with Dalhart's early degrees the state's low. In contrast, the overnight low at Brownsville was 68.

The cooling northerly winds were expected to keep most of today's afternoon temperatures slightly below yesterday's highs.

The weatherman, however, saw no relief in sight for Presidio, locked in the Rio Grande Valley, which had the state's high of 94 yesterday.

Other high readings included 92 at Wichita Falls, 91 at Mineral Wells, San Angelo and Del Rio, and 90 at Big Spring and Childress.

The warm weather was not relieved by rain at any point in the state during the 24-hour period ending at 6:30 A. M. today, the U. S. Weather Bureau in Dallas said.

Commercial airliners now are flying the North Atlantic 246 times a week, the latest industry figures reveal.

was found guilty of approving the slaying of Allied Airmen, plundering Russia and crimes against Jews and slave laborers.

Although they court imposed 195 years, 10 months and three days in sentences. It cleared two defendants.

During the four years since Reichsmarschall Hermann Goering and other members of Hitler's Inner Sanctum were first arraigned, International and American Tribunals have judged 220 accused war criminals at Nuernberg.

They have ordered 24 defendants hanged, 17 imprisoned for life and 82 others sent to jail for terms totalling 975 years. In addition, they have helped write new International Law that holds individuals responsible for international crimes committed during war.

Rumor Claims Chinese, Reds Near Settlement

NANKING, April 14 (UP)—Political observers said today that Nationalist and Communist peace delegates in Peiping apparently had reached a preliminary settlement on the Communists' eight peace terms in informal talks.

They pointed out that the negotiation schedule approved by both sides called for formal talks only after a preliminary settlement had been arrived at in informal discussions. The formal talks now are underway.

But informed sources said that even if the preliminary agreement had been reached there still would be extended negotiation to thresh out technical details elaborating on the settlement.

These sources also warned against "undue optimism" at the present time, "because past experience showed details usually were harder to settle than principles in negotiations."

A report from peace headquarters in Peiping was slated for delivery to Nanking today for top-level consideration and possible approval. Peace delegate Huang Shao-Hsiung and delegation adviser Chu-Wu were scheduled to bring it here by plane.

Vet Loan Bill To Committee

AUSTIN, Tex., April 14 (UP)—A $300,000,000 (M) veterans loan proposal was handed over to a committee regarded as favorable today by the House.

The measure, sponsored by Rep. Miller Walker of Beaumont, was lifted from the constitutional amendments committee and sent to the committee on military and veterans affairs.

Walker said his proposed constitutional amendment, which would provide loans to veterans for small businesses or homes, would "satisfy a need for veterans" not now provided.

He said the plan rested in a "friendly" sub-committee in the constitutional amendments committee but expressed the fear that "it will die in friendly hands."

The House agreed, by a vote of 63 to 53, to transfer his bill.

THE STORY
Time, 1938 Place, New Orleans

Louis Durand, 37, a well-to-do bachelor, has been corresponding with Miss Julia Russell, whom he has never seen. He has proposed marriage and she has accepted. According to her picture, Miss Russell is dark-haired, strong-featured and has long wavy hair. Durand goes down to the dock to meet the boat that is to bring her from St. Louis. He is disappointed when an exquisite young blond creature, instead of Miss Julia, steps out of the boat. He is so taken with her that he follows her to her sister's apartment. He is shocked to find her sister, but he is attracted to her. He goes to her room and they are married. Certain things puzzle him, however, during their first days together. Among them is the fact that Julia has never appeared from her trunk. She says she lost the key. Durand happens to open a letter to her from her sister. The letter catches her with not waiting.

HE waited until after they were through their supper to speak of it, and then only in the midst, least reproachful way.

He took it out and gave it to her, after they had entered the sitting room from the dining room, and settled themselves there, she across the lamp table from him. "This came for you today. I opened it by mistake not noticing, I hope you'll forgive me."

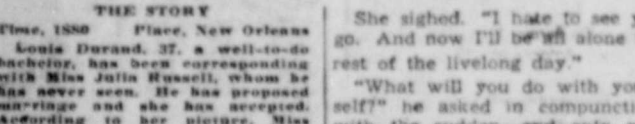

She took the whole envelope first, and studied it a second, then she said, "Who's it from?"

"Can't you tell?"

Just as he was about to wonder why the script in itself did not tell her that she had already withdrawn its contents and opened them, she murmured "Oh," so the question never had a chance to form itself in his mind.

She read it rather quickly, even hurriedly, her head moving with such line, then back again in continuous, serious little twitches. Then reached the bottom and had done.

He thought he saw remorse on

HE next morning, he thought she never had looked lover, and never had been more loving.

She was in lilac watered silk, which had a rippling sheen running down it from whichever side you looked at it. It signified as she walked, as if itself overcome by her loveliness. She did not stay at table as on other days, she accompanied him to the front door to see him off, her arm linked to his waist, his arm to hers. And as the slanting morning sunlight caught her in its gleam, then revealed her, then caught her again a step further on, playing its spotted game with her all along the hall, he thought he had never seen such a vision of angelic beauty.

They stopped. She raised her face from the side of his arm, she took up his hat, she stroked it of dust, she handed it to him.

They kissed.

She prepared his coat, held it spread, helped him on with it.

They kissed.

AT length he heard her give a short sigh, but one more of short-patience aversion, continuing even after a task had been completed than of relief at its conclusion, and the scratching of the pen had stopped for good. She flung it down, as if annoyed.

"I've done. Do you want to read it?"

"No," he said, "it's between sister and sister, not for a husband to read."

"Very well," she said negligently. She gazed her pink tongue around the gummed edge of the envelope, sealed it in. She stood upright against the inside of the desk, prepared to close the slab over it. "I'll have Aunt Sarah post it for me in the morning."

He had reached for it and picked it up before her hands could fergo-ger from the rack, and put it in place for her.

HE took her by both hands and had to draw her to her feet. And though she made no active sign of resistance, he could feel the weight of her body against the direction of his pull.

He had to go to the desk and lower the writing-slab. He had to draw out a sheet of fresh notepaper from the rack, and put it in place for her.

HE face brightened a moment. He thought he had read her heart. "Yes!" Then it dimmed again. "No," she said, frowning. Instantly his attention was held fast. "Why not? What's the matter?"

"Oh, nothing—" She turned her head away, she didn't want to tell him.

He took hold of the point of her chin and turned it back again. "Julia, I want to know. Tell me. What is it?" He touched her shoulder.

She tried to smile, wistly. Her eyes looked out the door.

He guessed right.

Says U. S. Making Atom Bomb a Day

(UP)—An article in the Armed Forces Chemical Journal estimates "conservatively" that the United States is turning out atomic bombs at the rate of one a week.

It said the bombs cost about $1,000,000 (M) each, and that the present stockpile is between 100 and 200.

The article, appearing in the April issue, was written by J. A. Campbell of the Oberlin (O.) College Chemistry department. The journal is published by the Armed Forces Chemical Association, but neither the association nor the journal has any official connection with the armed services. The association does not assume responsibility for the accuracy of articles published in the journal.

Campbell said he based his estimates of atomic bomb production on "many sources." He criticized the administration for keeping secret the number of A-bombs it has stored away.

"Since the store is undoubtedly large there seems little point in attempting to conceal the actual number of bombs on hand," the article said.

Campbell said he deduced "from data in the Smyth report and elsewhere" that the explosive in an atomic bomb is about the size of a softball and weighs 30 pounds.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

There'll Always Be a "Gawker"

"Harry the Hermit," as he's called, came into town last week and, as usual, caused quite a stir. He looks like a cross between Santa Claus and Daniel Boone.

We had a friendly glass of beer together and I asked him, "Don't you ever get annoyed at the way some people laugh and stare as you go by?" "Shucks no," Harry says. "Only while they're laughin' at me, I'm feelin' a mite sorry for them. Imagine—folks so ungrateful they can't see I'm really just the same as they are underneath."

From where I sit, Harry's a lot more "civilized" than the people who make fun of him. He's contented, lives the way he believes is right without harming anyone—and what's more, he's tolerant of others whose tastes in living are different from his.

Maybe we all don't look the same, or act the same, or eat or drink the same, but in a free country, why should we?

Raps Churchill

Sen. William Langer, above, North Dakota Republican, called Winston Churchill "a cunning foreign propagandist" who is here to persuade the U. S. to underwrite the British Empire. He also renewed his charge that the former British prime minister fought against the U. S. in the Spanish-American War in Cuba. Churchill stated Langer's charge was "devoid of truth."

One Killed 23 Injured In Two Train Collision

NEW ALBANY, Miss., April 14 (UP)—A southbound passenger train crashed head-on into a 110-car northbound freight near here late last night, killing a mail clerk and injuring at least 23 other persons.

Both were Gulf, Mobile and Ohio Railroad trains. The passenger train, the Rebel, was southbound from St. Louis to New Orleans. The freight, Number Three, was northbound on the same route.

W. H. Moore, GM&O Superintendent here, said that "overlooked orders" on the part of the crew of the Rebel caused the wreck.

He identified the dead man as J. O. Cannon of Jackson, Miss., mail clerk on the passenger train. Cannon apparently died from concussion or internal injuries when the passenger engine telescoped into the freight engine, Moore said.

Eight persons were hospitalized here, and attendants at the Mayes Hospital said they had treated 15 others for minor injuries and released them.

None of the eight hospitalized persons appeared seriously injured, they said.

HINTON, W. Va. (UP)—The Summers County court has begun charging the city $1.50 a day for every prisoner put in the county jail. It's the prisoner who pays, however. Two days in the jail means $3 cost added to his fine.

Daniel Baker Defeats RJC In Tennis Matches

The Daniel Baker team proved to be too much for the Ranger Junior College team Wednesday afternoon on the Ranger courts. The Brownwood team defeated the Ranger team 4-2 in some very good tennis matches. The face of Bill Anderson, Daniel Baker's No. 1 singles man, was not a new one to Junior Arterburn, Ranger's No. 1 singles player. Arterburn and Anderson met two times last year over a tennis net and each won one match. Anderson is a very small man but what he lacks in size makes up for in tennis know-how. He defeated Arterburn 6-4 and 6-3.

Bob Williams and Joe Grantham had the closest match of the afternoon when they had to go 3 sets before Grantham downed Williams in the number two singles.

DALLAS HOLDS SLIGHT EDGE IN TEXAS LEAGUE

Statistically speaking, four teams shared the leadership of the Texas League Thursday, but the Dallas Eagles were waxing most triumphant.

The Eagles jumped on three Oklahoma City pitchers at Oklahoma City last night for 26 hits to massacre the Indians 23 to 2.

Grantham defeated Williams 6-4, 6-8 and 6-3. Bo Deaton won the only singles match for Ranger when he topped Buddy Walker of Dallas 6-2, 6-2. R. C. Smith senior at Ranger High School played Bruce Spencer of Daniel Baker in the fourth match and was defeated 6-2, and 6-4.

In the doubles matches Junior Arterburn and Bobby Williams defeated Bill Anderson and Joe Grantham to regain some of the prestige they lost in the first two matches. Arterburn and Williams won 9-7 and 6-2 in the second doubles match of the day.

Spencer teamed up and turned back Deaton and Smith 6-1 and 6-3 in the second doubles match of the day.

Coach Willys stated that the Ranger team would play the Daniel Baker team in a return engagement at Brownwood next Thursday afternoon. He also stated that the Ranger Junior College golf team would make the trip and play the Daniel Baker golfers.

Humble Plans 832 Wells In 1949

HOUSTON, Tex., April 14 (UP)—The Humble Oil and Refining Co. hopes its $155,000,000 (M) investment program for 1949 will allow completion of 832 new oil wells, Humble president Hines H. Baker said today. The program, announced yesterday by Baker, amounts to spending approximately $420,000 per day. It tops by $15,000,000 (M) the 1948 investment of $140,000,000 (M).

Drilling and exploration will take a sizeable portion of the funds, Baker said, along with improvement of production facilities and the building of new gas conservation plants.

Mass Exodus Leaves Avery Sole Ward Head

CHICAGO, April 14 (UP)—Aging Sewell Avery, who once was carried bodily from his office by the Army, took over the rule of Montgomery Ward & Co. Almost single-handedly today after the last of his top officers quit in a huff.

UP TO 20% BIGGER POULTS

OVER MASH FEEDING AT 6 WEEKS ON NEW PURINA TURKEY STARTENA CHECKER-ETTS

Purina Research tests proved it—then last year, local turkey raisers found that Checker-Etts help keep more poult alive—made them grow faster.

THE FORM—is part of the reason. Poults take to Checker-Etts quicker and like them better. Fewer poults "starve to death" before they learn to eat. And the whole batch grows faster because they eat more feed.

THE FORMULA—does the rest. The Purina Turkey Startena Checker-Ett formula is balanced and blended scientifically for life and growth. This year, start your poults the Purina way. See us about the Checker-Etts—just 4 lbs. per poult does the job.
