GRAND JURY MAY GO INTO ELECTION FRAUD AGAIN

By CLAUDE RAMSEY United Press Staff Correspondent ALICE, Tex., Sept. 9 (UP)—There were indications today that the Jim Wells County grand jury now in session here may revive the 1948 election controversy that centered around Alice's now-famous Precinct 13.

That was the box in which ex-Gov. Coke R. Stevenson, defeated in his race for the U. S. Senate by 87 votes, claimed fraudulent returns benefited his opponent, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, by approximately 200 votes.

There are candidates for the queen's position from all age groups in the school and the identity of the queen will not be revealed until time for the crowning. All those who are nominees from their groups for the queen and king will wear formal clothes and are asked to be at the church at least 15 minutes before 7.

The Rev. David C. Ham, pastor of the church, stated today that the school has been a very successful one and that 223 had been enrolled in the study and discussion groups.

Mrs. Edna Lang of the Baptist State Training Union department has been the director. Mrs. Walter Arterburn is the Training Union director for the First Baptist Church and L. L. Thomas is associate director. The Training Union meets each Sunday evening at 7 o'clock.

They Insisted So He Paid One Cent

JOILET, Ill., Sept. 9 (UP)—Three years ago, when Chris Holl did some hauling for the highway department, it was discovered he was overpaid.

State auditors ordered county officials to get a refund. The county officials were willing to forget the matter but state officials said it had to be collected.

Inquirers Hear Red Head Texan

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9 (UP)—Navy Lt. Samuel P. Ingram, the "red haired lieutenant from Texas," told a Navy court today that Rep. Charles B. Deane, D., N. C., requested the celebrated anonymous document that caused a House investigation of the air force's B-36 bomber program.

Ingram said the document, charging irregularities in B-36 procurement, was prepared for Deane after a conference between the congressman and Cedric R. Worth, special assistant to Navy Undersecretary Dan A. Kimball. Worth, since suspended from his $10,350-a-year job, confessed unauthorized quizzing by House armed services committee that he wrote the document.

(Deane now is in the far east on a "fact-finding" tour with a House expenditures subcommittee which is expected back in Washington about Oct. 15.) The House group exonerated the Air Force after Worth said his charges were groundless. The Navy inquiry court was set up to find out why Worth wrote the paper and who helped him.

Union Leader Scorns Meeting

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Sept. 9 (UP)—A union leader refused today to attend a peace conference called by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey to end violence in the strike at the Bell Aircraft Corp. Plant.

Edward F. Gray, sub-regional director of the United Automobile Workers (CIO) rejected the request to join law enforcement officers of Erie and Niagara Counties at the state capital in Albany today.

Police hoped that the conference with Dewey, along with arrests of some 25 other union leaders, would check violence between strikers and non union workers.

Sheriff Henry E. Becker geared for possible conflict this morning by deputizing 100 volunteers to patrol around the strike-show up plant when non-strikers show up for work.

Dewey called the conference after repeated pleas from Niagara county officials for assistance in quelling union disturbances in which at least 30 persons were injured at or near the Bell plant in the past two days.

The governor made it clear the Albany conference was no attempt to mediate the strike. Instead, the meeting would be confined to efforts to prevent further outbreaks at the local plant, strike bound for 13 weeks.

Gray said he would be "pleased" to attend any meetings called by Dewey but only after the governor instructed Niagara County District Attorney William E. Miller to withdraw "the trumped up arrests of our leaders."

U. S. Imperialism Again Draws Fire Of Delegates

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 9 (UP)—Latin-American delegates to the Continental Peace Congress of liberals and leftists bitterly attacked "Yankee Imperialism" today and warned that they would oppose enslavement of their countries by "warmongering, union-breaking American capitalists."

As one after another of the 780 delegates expressed hatred for the "men of Wall Street" and Washington, the United States embassy protested that a member of its staff had been refused admittance to the Congress.

An embassy spokesman said that Raymond J. Barrett of New Rochelle, N. Y., third secretary, had been barred from the meeting without explanation yesterday. The embassy denied a charge that the U. S. Government had refused permission to would-be delegates to attend the Congress.

The trade against the United States reached a climax last night when Salvador Ocampo, Chilean Communist, charged that American industrialists were backing movements to smash trade unionism in Latin America.

"The governments of Brazil, Cuba and Chile, vassal servants of imperialist forces, are opposed to the trade union movement and are learning to destroy it by strikebreaking, fake unions and servitude to the bosses," Ocampo said.

RFC Loan May Be British Aim

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9 (UP)—Great Britain was reported unofficially here and in London today to desire a $600,000,000 (M) Reconstruction Finance Corporation loan wholly outside the current three-nation dollar conference.

Working groups representing United States, Canadian and British conferees continued today to explore indirect methods of salvaging the British economy. Congress heard with interest, but with any great enthusiasm, the general outline of the British at yesterday's conference session.

The RFC loan would not involve a congressional appropriation nor increased Marshall plan spending. If applied for and granted, it would be fully covered by collateral. RFC officials told the United Press no loan application had been made so far.

Texas Military Districts Due To Be Changed

AUSTIN, Tex., Sept. 8.—The organization of Texas Military Districts will be changed to give the Chief the authority to command and will be placed in effect as quickly as possible, Colonel Oscar E. Abbott, present Executive of the headquarters, announced here today.

The Fourth Army Commander will delegate to the Military District Chief the authority to command. The District "Chief" will command all National Guard instructor personnel, the Organized Reserve Corps and all ROTC units in the State of Texas. The present military District in Texas will contain the following set-up: Military District Headquarters, Organized Reserve Corps Instructor Groups, National Guard Instructor Groups and ROTC Instructor groups.

The Texas Military District is a standard organization to be formed in each State and the District of Columbia to supervise and coordinate the Organized Reserve Corps, the National Guard and the ROTC programs.

Heretofore, the Texas Military District has only been concerned with the administration and training of the Organized Reserve Corps, has performed liaison only with the National Guard and been directed to perform the formal and informal inspections of all ROTC units in the State.

Seek Curbs On Petroleum Imports

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9 (UP)—Oil state senators mustered their forces today behind a proposal to write into a pending tariff-cutting law tight curbs on imports of petroleum.

They said the domestic oil industry must be protected.

But Democratic Leader Scott W. Lucas, Ill., and Sen. Walter F. George, D., Ga., predicted cautiously that the Senate will reject all restricting amendments to a bill extending the reciprocal trade agreements law.

The law, which expired June 30, would be revived and continued to June, 1951. If let the administration make agreements with other nations to lower import duties. The house has approved the extension without restrictions.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9 (UP)— Marshal Tito's Yugoslav government, successful in its bid for a U. S. Export-Import Bank Loan, may now turn to private Wall Street firms for additional dollars, it was reported here today.

While the Yugoslav embassy would not comment on the reports, they were received with credence in informed U. S. circles. It was pointed out that the $20,000,000 (M) Export-Import loan granted yesterday, and a World Bank loan now under consideration, would boost Yugoslavia's long-range production but would have little immediate effect.

The $20,000,000 (M) United States loan was the first granted any Communist country and was expected to widen the breach between Tito and the Kremlin. Russia and her satellites have clamped a tight economic blockade around Yugoslavia since Tito's break with the Cominform.

Diplomats said that Yugoslavia currently suffered from a severe shortage in the entire range of consumer goods. The Export-Import loan and the requested World Bank loan cannot be used for consumer goods, but are limited to use for reconstruction and rehabilitation of basic industries.

If Yugoslavia can get private American dollars to buy consumer goods, Tito will have taken a big step toward improving living standards and bolstering internal morale against the Soviet "war of nerves" campaign.

Even some hard-fisted U. S. officials believe Yugoslavia would be a good risk for private capital — at long as the Kremlin limits its anti-Tito campaign to economic sanctions and political pressure, if the Kremlin should decide on war, they said, the picture would be different. But U. S. experts are confident Stalin will not declare war on Tito.

Quarters familiar with Yugoslavia's internal situation said the country's economy is so primitive and self-sufficient that the Cominform boycott has had little effect. It did upset Tito's five-year plan for improvements, however, by cutting off materials promised Yugoslavia from the Cominform states next year and thereafter.

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, Sept. 9 (UP)—The government and the Belgrade press and radio made no mention today of the $20,000,000 (M) loan granted yesterday by the U. S. Export-Import Bank.

The official silence was somewhat surprising since it had been reported that the loan would be announced in Washington and Belgrade at the same time.

But Yugoslav who learned of it thought foreign broadcasts were heartened by the news, and western diplomatic observers said the loan would be a big morale booster for the Tito government in its battle against the Kremlin and the Cominform.

The Cominform radios lost no time in railing against the new "evidence" of Marshal Tito's alleged sell-out to the "imperialists."

To western observers, the loan was a declaration of aid for Tito in his fight to avoid overthrow by Russia. For Yugoslavia it was concrete proof of a prediction in Borba, the official Yugoslav Communist party organ, that premier Josef Stalin is wrong in thinking he can isolate Yugoslavia from outside help.

The Kremlin's hope for economic collapse here may receive another blow soon. The British are expected to announce conclusion of a $1,000,000,000 (B) five-year trade pact with Tito, and the World Bank has a mission here investigating a possible loan.

The $12,000,000 (M) which Yugoslavia will get immediately from the United States was expected to have a tremendous impact in the country's mines, where workers have engaged in "breaking competition in a hand-and-shovel effort to make up for a lack of machinery.

BULLDOGS READY BUT JITTERY OVER GAME WITH OLNEY TONIGHT

With last season just a memory and all but forgotten, 22 snarling Bulldogs launch their 1949 grid campaign tonight at the Bulldog Stadium.
Coach Stubby Warden knows that his boys are in top physical condition and primed for action, but he still fears those opening game jitters. Only four or five of our boys saw much action last year and that first game is always the hardest and roughest to face.
Coach Warden is about set on his starting lineup. His opening backfield quartet will be Buddy Hamrick at quarterback calling signals. Hamrick handles the T-formation like a wizard and can toss the ball around with precision. Warden has twin offensive threats in the left halfback Jimmy Comancho and the right halfback Kenneth Williams. Comancho has been the top ground gainer in the scrimmages-scrampering for several thrilling long runs. Rounding out the backfield will be Billy Simpson or Billy McKinney at the plunging fullback position.
Flanking the line at the end post are Alton Stiles, the best pass receiver on the squad and Charles Williams on the other end.
Capt. Dean Elder who played guard last season has been shifted to right tackle, will team up with Jackie Hummel or J. L. Barnes at left tackle. E. P. Robinson, only 140 pounds but all fight will hold down the important pivot post.
Jimmy Patterson, a good little man and Dean Sutton, both comparative lightweights for linemen will add speed to the guard posts.
On Hand for reserve duty will be: Weldon Cunningham, Jimmy Cole, Al Tume, James Burnett, H. V. Davenport, Bill Yung, Champ Pearson, Wayne Hargrave, Floyd Woods, Donald Varner, Max Wade, Eddie Polston, Jerry Rushing, Robert Williams, Gerald Bagwell and Jimmy Cantrell.

SOUTHWEST CONFERENCE CASUALTY LIST GROWS

By UNITED PRESS
Most of the news coming out of Southwest Conference football camps today was in the casualty column.
Coach John Barnhill of the Arkansas Razorbacks reported that Leon (Muscles) Campbell, ace fullback who won a place on the all-conference second team in 1948, may be out for the season with a recurring hernia.
Barnhill said Joe Baird, a halfback, or Alvin Duke, now working as a signal caller, would be moved over to fullback of Campbell is sidelined.
Quarterback Bob Ried of Houston bruised his shoulder for their opener with the University of South Carolina gamecocks. Ried may be out for two or three days.
Coach Bob Woodruff worked the Baptist Bears on pass offense during the Thursday morning session and sent them through an hour-long scrimmage in the afternoon.
Southern Methodist's Mustangs, defending conference champions, scrimmaged in the mud yesterday, and only one casualty was reported. Right Guard Jack Atkinson limped off the field on a sprained ankle.
Backfield Coach H. N. (Rusty) Russell said Gil Johnson was sorely missed, but that Frank Payne, Kyle Rote and others, notably Doak Walker, would take over his passing duties.
The Rice Owls, already doped as the darkhorse of the conference in pre-season guessing, wound up a routine drill yesterday with 30 minutes of dummy scrimmage and 30 minutes of rough work.
Coach Jess Neely said his offensive backfield was clicking and his blockers, especially Joe McThail, looked good.
At Austin, the University of Texas Longhorns prepared for a game-condition scrimmage set for 3:30 P. M. Saturday at Memorial Stadium.
Coach Blair Cherry had to shake up his lineup yesterday after several outstanding sophomores dropped out with injuries.
He moved Lew Levine of Harlingen from right half to fullback, a spot Reed Quinn of homa is looking good. Bill Lowe, from Weatherford Jr. College, Weatherford, Texas is hampered with a bad ankle but was going strong before the injury.

Marvin Wilson, a freshman from Ranger, Texas has been making some of those seniors hustle. Not to be overlooked is Bill Cunningham, another freshman from Graham and Rudy Rendell from Cisco.
The Indians have a big job ahead of them, but their spirit and determination show promise of attracting plenty of attention.

(UP)—Mrs. Sydney Rutledge returned to her father's home at Hannibal, Mo., today after making her first prison visit to her husband, Dr. Robert C. Rutledge, who is serving a 70-year sentence for slaying her alleged seducer.

The tall 23-year old blonde was accompanied by her father, Dr. Howard Goodrich, as she visited Rutledge in the morning and again in the afternoon, conversing with him through a wire screen.

Prison rules provide that Rutledge may have one relative visit him every 30 days. Rutledge was sentenced a month ago for killing Byron Hattman at Cedar Rapids, Ia. The Rutledges and Hattman were residents of St. Louis where Hattman allegedly seduced Mrs. Rutledge.

Meet your friends for an afternoon or evening of healthful enjoyment.

Plowing under cotton stalks before frost is the most dependable method for controlling boll weevils. A heavy roller-type stalk cutter with disk harrow attached does a good job of stalk destruction and makes plowing easier. Stalks may be covered by bedding or by using a one-way plow.
