Truman Reveals Soviet Possession Of Atomic Secret

Well...
I Dunno,
But...

Members of the Ranger Lions Club got their first pay-off on their sportsmanship campaign last night when officials of the Ranger-Hardin College game, after the game praised the move and stated that they would do whatever they could to spread the movement.

One of the officials stated that he was a member of a Lions Club in Fort Worth and that the appeal from the Ranger club wouldn't be begging when it reaches his club. The officials were supplied with a bountiful supply of the circulars distributed at last night's game which they took off with the promise that the good word would be spread.

A copy of the circular which was distributed at last night's game appeared in the Thursday issue of this paper.

G. J. Ankle of Fort Worth, one of the officials, is a former Thurber resident and renewed old friendship here last night with Jimmie Latimer and Mrs. M. A. Oyler who knew him in Thurber days.

Rube Leisner and Connally were two other officials who had good words for the campaign on sportsmanship and also for the Rangers.

We've been wondering if there was any plan back of the fact that Elm Street in Ranger and on which our office is situated, is lined for blocks with Elm trees.

Elm Street, in fact, is one of the most treed streets in Ranger.

Won't somebody please tell us the names of the two galloping blackskins, that corral the whole pack of between-halves aspirants. Their antics on the field between halves of Ranger football games, make the Deadend Kids of movie game look like amateurs.

With Only Clubs For Arms Iceland To Talk Defense

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21 (UP)—They Iceland, with some embarrassment, showed up today in the midst of an East-West armaments race without a soldier to its name.

The storm-swept island near the Arctic Circle is one of the 12 members of the Atlantic Pact.

Now the pact nations are getting down to military strategy and have arranged for their defense ministers and chiefs-of-staff to start talking about bombers and infantry divisions and warships.

Iceland doesn't know what to do. It has no defense minister to send to the talks. It has no chief of staff—or any kind of military staff, for it has no army or air force. Just some policemen armed with clubs.

The Atlantic Pact nations have agreed to let Iceland send a civilian to the military talks if it wants to, but any kind of war planning would be strange talk to the Icelanders who have not engaged in a foreign war since 1264.

PUBLIC LIBRARY BACK ON FALL, WINTER HOURS

Attention of the public was called today to the fact that the Community Public Library is back on the fall and winter schedule of hours and until further notice that schedule of hours will be followed.

The library is open every Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock.

Thirty-five new books for the boys and girls section of the library have been received and all of the latest novels in the best seller lists have been added to the shelves.

During the summer a gift of 45 books was received from Mrs. Arthur Allison of Lawrenceville, Ill. formerly of Ranger. The 45 books which were mostly current novels with some very fine reference works also included contributions from two of Mrs. Allison's friends in Lawrenceville.

It was pointed out today that there are still available for students in Hodges Oak Park and Young schools memberships that have been contributed by the Parents-Teachers Associations. Officials of the library also stated today that they have been assured of gift memberships for students in Junior High School.

Popularity of the library as a source of references is becoming more evident, as the list of reference seekers is steadily growing, according to the records of the library.

The library which was opened to the public a year ago in February, with about 1200 volumes now has well over 3,000 volumes. The books include reading for every age and all types of the latest in reference works, including the 1949 edition of Encyclopedia Britannica.

A group of business men from Pampa were in Ranger Thursday to secure information about the Ranger Airport, its operation, history and condition, as part of a survey of ports in West Texas and New Mexico.

The group is making the study in an effort to facilitate the building of an airport at Pampa. Anderson, and Joe Collins, airport manager.

They were taken to the Lions Club luncheon where they were guests and where E. O. Wedgeworth, manager of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce thanked the Lions and others in Ranger for their hospitality.

They took off from Ranger about 1:30 P. M. heading for Sweetwater, other West Texas towns and New Mexico. They tour of inspection was to take two days, the party returning to Pampa Friday.

Others with Wedgeworth were Hugh Burdette, aviation chairman for the Chamber of Commerce, Newspaperman Gordon with the Pampa News and Ralph Prock, pilot for the Cabot Companies who piloted the party's plane.

Two Matched Roping Contests Next Thursday

Members of the Wranglers, Ranger's calf roping club, announced today that a double matched calf roping contest will be staged at the Rodeo Arena in Ranger next Thursday night.

This will be the last of the season's roping events and the matches will be between Joe Fambro of Breckenridge and George Epperson of Cherokee, and between Zelma Herrington and Malcolm Jernaman of Goldthwaite. A pot of $400 will be the prize in the contest.

Wednesday night at Goldthwaite, Fambro out roped Epperson and Herrington who was also matched for the Goldthwaite contest lost to his opponent.

In addition to the matched contests there will be a jackpot roping contest Saturday night and all entries in the contest must be in by 7:30 P. M. Thursday.

Hurricane Threats Are Deminished

MIAMI, Fla., Sept. 23 (UP)—Two hurricane threats were apparently stilled today but weather of servers kept watch on the squalls they left behind, fearful that they may again become dangerous.

One had taken ten lives. Advisories issued from San Juan, Puerto Rico, and New Orleans said last night that a Caribbean hurricane had broken up while crossing the mountains of the Dominican Republic and that a gulf storm was scattered.

The Texas and Louisiana coasts felt strong winds, and tides were higher than normal, but no trouble was expected unless a drastic change is made in storm strategy.

Third In A Row Hollywood Death

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 23 (UP)—Funeral services will be held tomorrow for Movie Director Sam Wood, whose death yesterday fulfilled an old theatrical superstition that deaths run in threes.

He was the third film celebrity to die in five days. Character Actor Frank Morgan died Sunday and rugged leading man Richard Dix died Tuesday.

Airport Program Of Improvements Is Scheduled

Despite the fact that planes practically have to plow through a forest of weeds and over long neglected runways, planes are still calling the Ranger Airport home and at present 12 planes are housed in the hangar.

Joe Collins, airport manager, stated Thursday that he is planning some improvements soon with help of equipment from the city. A system of lights will be installed and the grounds graded and runways improved.

City officials stated that the material for the lighting system which will be installed has been owned by the city for several years but has never been installed. Installation of the lights cannot be carried out until weeds on the airport have been burned off, and the grounds graded.

Collins stated that besides the five planes which he has at the airport, Premier Oil Refining Company keeps two planes stationed there; Bobby Cox, Bob Robinson, Peaches Ridings and Jimmie Higginbotham all have private planes and another plane belonging to the Gleason Flying Service is kept there for pipeline patrol service to the Gulf and Texas lines.

Lions See Films Of Rodeo Parades

Seeing yourself as others see you, might have been called the theme of the Lions Club program Thursday at noon at the Gholson Hotel as members of the Club and guests saw films of the four Jaycee Rodeo parades.

The film showing was arranged by Dr. W. P. Watkins and presented by E. B. Thomas in the absence of Dr. Watkins. Lions spotted familiar figures, including some of those at the luncheon, as the films of the four parades were flashed upon the screen. The first parade was in 1946. The films were furnished by Herbert Rapp and the projector by Delbert Capps.

Preceding the showing of the film, R. B. Thomas, president reported on the sportsmanship campaign launched by the Club and stated that over 600 letters have been mailed to Lions Clubs in Texas and sports editors of various newspapers.

J. E. Meroney, chairman of the finance committee, reported on a project to assist FFA boys in making expenses for delegates to the National Convention in Kansas City, Mo., and on the motion of Meroney, the club voted to assist the boys.

Guests at the luncheon were E. O. Wedgeworth, Hugh Burdette, Ralph Prock and Newspaperman Gordon, all of Pampa, C. J. Lewis and Lee Mitchell of Dallas, Joe Collins and Morris George, both of Ranger.

Borger Mayor Quits

BORGER, Tex., Sept. 23 (UP)—Fred Herbst, mayor of Borger since 1946, has resigned in a surprise move.

He attributed his resignation to the pressure of "other business." Herbst also stepped out as a member of the city commission, to which he submitted his resignation as mayor.

More than a year ago, an attempt was made to oust the commission by recall vote, but it was beaten by a substantial margin at the ballot boxes and the administration won what it called a "substantial vote of confidence."

Threatens Suit Over Charges Against Captain

TORONTO, Sept. 23 (UP)—Attorney for the Canada Steamship Lines said today he will file a $250,000 slander suit against those who charged Capt. William Taylor was intoxicated when fire broke out on the lake steamer Noronic last Saturday.

Attorney Frank Wilkinson threatened the local action after Taylor, who was master of the ship on which at least 136 passengers died, denied the drunkenness charges.

At a coroner's inquest in Cleveland yesterday, C. Ralph Willson, a survivor of the disaster, testified that Taylor was drunk and was "being led" by two police officers on the dock.

Capt. A. J. Galloway of the steamship company supported Taylor's denial.

"Nothing could be further from the truth," Galloway said. "I was at the side of the Noronic captain and aided him off the ship. He was badly burned and in a serious nervous condition."

A memorial service for the fire victims will be held here tomorrow in the Canadian National Exhibition Coliseum by an inter-faith committee of churchmen. At least 9,000 persons were expected to attend.

Daughter Of Helen Hayes Dies

NEW YORK, Sept. 23 (UP)—Broadway grieved today over the death of talented Mary MacArthur, 19, who had planned to appear in a new play in November with her mother, actress Helen Hayes.

Miss MacArthur, who made headlines even before she was born as the "Aet of God" baby of Miss Hayes, died last night in Lenox Hill Hospital after a short illness caused by a virus infection. At her bedside were her father, playwright Charles MacArthur, and her mother in whose footsteps she aspired to follow.

The couple has one other child, an adopted son, Jamie, 10. MacArthur is best known for his hit, "The Front Page," which he co-authored with Nevelist Ben Hecht. In 1929 Miss Hayes was forced to withdraw from the Jed Harris play "Coquette" because of her pregnancy. Legal squabbles developed when Harris closed the show, and Miss Hayes contended that her baby was an "Aet of God."

Miss MacArthur became ill while she and her mother were appearing in the play "Good Housekeeping" on the summer stock circuit.

Gov. Allan Shivers urged citizens "to see that Texas' physically handicapped people have greater employment opportunities." Shivers also designated Oct. 15 as "State Employees' Day."

HUMBLE'S FOOTBALL BROADCAST SATURDAY MOSTLY NIGHT GAMES

One of the most unusual football broadcast timetables ever to confront listeners comes up this week on Humble Oil & Refining Company's weekly broadcasts of Southwest Conference games.

There will be but one day game Texas vs. Temple, in Philadelphia and that game will come to listeners with an early 12:30 p. m. kickoff because of time zone differences.

The remainder of Saturday's heavy, six-game schedule, well-sprinkled with intersectional meetings, is at night. Three strong Southern Conference teams invade Texas with Wake Forest-SMU at Dallas, South Carolina-Baylor at Waco, and Clemson-Rice at Houston. Well, the sideline quarterbacks were at it early this morning. But mostly the word was good. Loudest complainer was the man who lost three bets when the Rangers failed to make those two touchdowns. We don't think it was the loss of the scores nor of the bets that was pinching him so, but rather the fact that he had to pay off to fellows that he's been picking.

The Rangers played a good game and a clean one. It looked that way from where we were sitting but the fact was also confirmed by officials who sidetracked their complaints about the lost touchdowns, to praise the work of the Rangers. That they thought was more significant than the touchdowns they didn't make.

Which brings us to the point of saying, that the offensive on the part of the Rangers is needy. By rights they should have scored three more touchdowns. Good yardage was picked up mid-field, but that goal line yardage couldn't seem to be had.

However, work of the past week made a marked showing last night when noticeable improvements were to be seen over last week's game.

And Tyler handed a 41 to 0 trouncing to Tarleton College at Stephenville, the latter booked for a game with the Rangers at Stephenville next week.

Which brings us to the point of Stephenville which is a little closer than next week, since the Bulldogs go to Stephenville to meet the Yellow Jackets tonight.

Coach Stubby Warden is just luke warm. He says that if the Jackets are a little cocky over their much heralded defeat of Brownwood, the Bulldogs have a better chance to win. Coach Warden expects a pretty good game despite the fact that the odds have been called against Ranger. Davenport is out of the game most likely, but may see a little action and Jimmy Camacho will be in but with a knee injury.

Jimmy Latimer says he has a premonition that Ranger's going to win. It's just a feeling Jimmie says. But brother, we hope you are right.

Rangers Edge Out Hardin 7 to 6

LAST MINUTE THREAT BY HARDIN STOPPED BY FRASIER

Ranger fans suffered near heart failure on the last play of Thursday night's game with the Hardin College Freshman, when Bill Lowe's timely interception of H. Barrett's pass stopped the Ranger's last threat to score. Lowe snared the pass on his own three, eluded two tacklers on his ten and started for the opposite goal with an empty field in front of him. It looked as though Lowe would go all the way, but Rangers lanky right end, Howard Frasier said "no" as his shoe string tackle brought Lowe down on the Ranger 35, saving the ball game and victory for the Rangers.

Ranger won the toss and elected to receive, defending the south goal. Jerry Burney of Hardin got off a long high kick and Jimmy Crawley took it on the one and returned to his 18. After three plays and lacking some seven or eight yards for a first down, Bobby Gene Williams kicked short, sending the ball out of bounds on the 39, and Hardin took over.

Sending Bill White into the line for no gain, the Freshmen then tried a lateral pass which was fumbled and recovered by Hardin on the fifty, losing 11 yards.

After an exchange of kicks the ball was in Hardin's possession on their own 46 with fourth down. Lowe got off a booming punt good for 51 yards, out of bounds on the Ranger 3. The Rangers tried to kick out of danger, but Williams' kick again was short going out on the 21. Hardin took advantage of this break. Quarterback, Bubba Woods, handed off to Lowe who raced around his left end 18 yards to the Ranger 3. Then Wood sent Moore into the line and he was over for the six points. Wood's attempt for the extra point was low and to the left, and Hardin went into the lead 6 to 0, the last of the first quarter.

Woods kicked for the Freshmen and Crawley returned to the 35. A pitch out from Wright to Crawley brought fans to their feet as Crawley raced wide around his right end and got past mid-field to the Hardin 45, ending the first period. McWhorter took a delayed hand off over right tackle and picked up another first down. Wright sent Crawley into the line, no gain, but the Hardin Freshmen drew a 15 yard penalty for unnecessary roughness giving the Rangers another first. McWhorter picked up 5, Crawley got 2, McWhorter went into the line for four more yards and a first down on the Hardin 4. Here the Rangers drew a five yard penalty dropping back to the nine. The Rangers lined up with Wright under center. He took a quick snap back, leaped high and fired a pass over center, where Dale Jones took it and stepped over the double stripe tying the score. Stackstill converted sending the Rangers out in front.

The remainder of the second period showed good defensive play by both teams. Chick Neal and Bud Jones were breaking up most of the Hardin plays giving up very few yards.

Tommy Logan and Rudy Rendell were sparking the Freshmen defensive bottling up the Rangers plays for little yardage. All the Rangers linemen were charging last night like never before, and it paid off early in the third quarter. The Wichita boys, after being set back some 25 or 30 yards on a series of plays, attempted to kick. The kick was blocked and Chick Neal picked it up, ran and stumbled for 15 yards to the Freshmen three and a good scoring position for the Rangers. But the Hardin bunch was not to give up so easily. They put up a stone wall for a line and an invincible backfield against passes. They held the Rangers in their tracks.

Hardin kicked out of danger and the remainder of the third period was back and fourth. The picking up 14 yards and a first down. On a pitch out Crawley skirted his right end and did a touchdown on the sidelines down to the Freshmen 11.

Here is where that thrilling last play of the game, we mentioned before, took place. Barrett's pass was intercepted by Bill Lowe, who raced back up field 50 yards and was stopped by Howard Frasier's beautiful shoe-string tackle. His fumble being recovered by the Rangers leaving the ball in their possession as the gun stopped the game.

Early in the fourth, with the ball deep in Hardin territory and in their possession the Rangers got another break. A bad hand off in the Freshmen backfield resulted in a fumble which was covered by defensive end Sleepy Boyd on the Hardin 10. Again Hardin's Freshmen put up that stone wall and held the Rangers short of a score and took over on their 4 yard line on downs.

Sending Lowe, a fast and elusive runner into the line on a quick opening plays, the Freshmen worked the ball up to the 40 yard line. The Rangers held tight for three downs and on the fourth with time running out, the boys from Hardin tried a fake kick. The Rangers were on their toes and stopped the play short of the needed first down.

The Rangers sent Crawley through a gaping hole over center

LBK's Claim Victory Over Paris Even Though It Is A Little Late

By Jack Winemiller
 United Press Staff Correspondent
 DALLAS, Tex., Sept. 23 (UP)—A bunch of Dallas housewives claimed victory was theirs today in a two-year battle with Paris over hemlines.

The local ladies are the remnants of the "Little Below The Knee Club." Remember 'em? LBK was organized two years ago in Dallas to resist the Paris decree that dress hems should be dropped down to the vicinity of the ankle.

Mrs. Elsa Schiaparelli of Paris has finally, two years after, come around to the LBK viewpoint. In its essence, it is: "Up with the skirts; why hide our best assets?"

Mrs. Schiaparelli "capitulated" with announcement that she was cutting her skirts this year two inches shorter than the going American length.

Mrs. Doris E. King, one of the founding mothers of the LBK, said, "I'm mighty happy to hear that Mme. Schiaparelli has seen eye-to-eye with us, but you know some shops still are selling dresses only 12 inches from the floor. Ma? I'm still sticking for a little below the knee."

Mrs. King admitted that last season she wore her skirts more than a little below the knee, in "sort of a compromise with the Paris and LBK lengths."

Mrs. J. M. Stafford, who was chairman of the LBK's advisory committee when the fashion war was at its peak, admitted surprise only at the tardiness of the "victory."

During the long wait, she, like most of her sisters, conceded some to Parisian dictates "but not as much as they would have liked."

The LBK's founding chapter has long since become more or less a memory, but some women haven't yet curbed their anger at Paris over the dropping of hemlines.

When it was at the height of its glory—staging parades through downtown Dallas and issuing daily fashion manifestoes de'fying Paris—the LBK got mail by the truckload. Now it's still coming—but in mere trickles.

LBK chapters once were active all over the nation, but their effect was not as devastating as the women would have liked. Dallas store officials said they never had any trouble, even in LBK's best days, enticing their customers in to long skirts.

More Oats In The Barn By Fertilizing Is Recommended

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. 23—Hamilton county farmers are finding that they can put more sacks of oats in the barn by using fertilizers under their crops. Hamilton county agent E. R. Lawrence says final reports from demonstrations conducted during the past oat season shows just what can be done.

Elmo Newsum, who farms about five miles southeast of Hamilton, applied 200 pounds of 16-20-0 per acre at seeding time and harvested 99 bushels of oats per acre. On another two-acre block, he used 200 pounds of 0-20-0 at seeding time and harvested 82 bushels per acre. On a third block, he applied 200 pounds 77 bushels per acre. The check plot yielded 55 bushels per acre.

The plots where the fertilizers were applied in the fall made the growth that unfertilized oats made. They were almost shoulder high at harvest time. During the entire growing period, they had better color and developed a much heavier root system, says Lawrence.

E. B. Stiles, who farms in the Fairview community south of Hamilton, broke a block of land in the early spring and applied 200 pounds of 16-20-0 per acre. The application was made with a plow that put the fertilizer aly and psychologically, was indicated by the very fact that it was recorded.

about 6 inches deep. Grain was planted with the Johnson grass that was already growing on the land. The block produced twice as many bales of hay as unfertilized land on the first cutting. After the first cutting, the growth was much better than unfertilized plots and the color was a decidedly darker green. The stand of Johnson grass improved along with much heavier stooling.

the atomic armaments race is on. Whether this country can maintain the lead it obviously has, the future will determine. But U. S. atomic officials even since the war have discounted the fact that Russia one day would have the bomb and have poured their energies and the resources of their $3,500,000,000 (B) atomic project into the task of piling up bombs and making them ever more powerful.

At the conclusion of today's cabinet meeting, as the members emerged from the White House reporters besieged them with questions. They got few answers. But to one question—had the United States ordered a redistribution of its forces around the world?—Defense Secretary Louis Johnson said:

"No."
 The secretary underscored the calm tenor of the President's announcement. He said he had no intention of playing it up. Asked if this is the first time Russia has made the atomic explosion, Johnson replied:
 "No Comment."

The civilization-shaking announcement was made also in London and Ottawa, capitals of the two nations which were this country's partners in conceiving, producing and perfecting the bomb that shattered Hiroshima and

In London, military sources said this country told nations of the Western European union last July that U. S. military authorities had recorded "an atomic explosion" in July.

But the official announcements said the blast took place "within recent weeks."
