Nearly 100,000 Chrysler Workers Go On Strike

Well...
I Dunno,
But...

In the mail yesterday was a letter from Marie Flahie of Natchez, Mississippi, formerly of Ranger and enclosed were the most haunting folders on Natchez, picturing the most beautiful old southern homes that are included on the famous Natchez Pilgrimage each March. It sure set our feet to itching.

Southern colonial architecture has always been our weakness and we could sure lap up a visit to those homes.

We had to take some ribbin' about another paper scoopin' us on a "horse" story but on checking up this morning we found that the other paper was slightly late in gettin' the story since it actually happened last October and furthermore, the other paper didn't get it right.

Last October Myra Sue and Ronald Praet decided that Ronald's white horse would make a nice addition to the famed "Six White Horses" at Hardin-Simmons University of which university Myra Sue is a graduate. So they gave the horse to the school and "Prince", as the horse is named, is now under studying for one of the famous six. The school now has nine white horses in its stables.

And that by way of thumbin' our nose at the ribbers.

This much looked for neither is moving as if it had creeping paralysis and predictions are that it'll be almost another 24 hours in arriving. By that time it'll probably be a weak sister.

The current weather is all right except for the wind. And that we don't like.

Mexican Officers To Question Men In Smuggling

NUEVO LAREDO, Mexico, Jan. 25 (UP)—Mexican Federal Prosecutor Jose Paul Peniche Martin said today he would question two men arrested here for smuggling in and passing counterfeit money.

Across the Rio Grande at Laredo, Tex., U. S. Federal Authorities want the men, both of Michigan, on counterfeiting charges.

Their car, a late model Buick that was found parked in Laredo, contained several hundred dollars worth of bogus bills.

Martin said no bond will be allowed the prisoners if they are charged in Mexico, where they may be penalized, if guilty, a fine of 1,000 to 10,000 pesos and five to 12 years in jail.

One of the men, of Jackson, Mich., reportedly has confessed counterfeiting to police and secret service agent Louis Benavides of San Antonio, Tex.

If he confesses to Martin, a third charge will be added.

Russians Stop Truck Traffic Into Berlin

A line of trucks, halted by guards at Russian checkpoint near Marienborn, Germany, awaits clearance to proceed from Berlin to West Germany after the Soviets cut truck traffic in new transportation restrictions. Russian gestures toward a new Berlin blockade began after U. S. authorities in Berlin invoked a law permitting idle space to be requisitioned and occupied by the vacant 600-room headquarters of the Soviet-controlled railway administration in western Berlin. SCOUT EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING HELD SUNDAY

The first Executive Board Meeting of 1950 of the Comanche Trail Council, Boy Scouts of America was held at Hotel Brownwood, Sunday afternoon January 22. Thirteen members of the Board were in attendance. There were several important visitors present as well as the Professional staff of the Council.

The primary business of this first Board Meeting of 1950 was to hold the Annual Council Charter Review. Each year the progress of the Council is analyzed under six different categories and then application is made to the National Council if the Boy Scouts for a charter to continue operation during the coming year.

President E. J. Howell, Stephenville, called the meeting to order and Yantis Robnett, member from Brownwood, asked the invocation. President Howell then presented a calendar of dates which had been set up for the coming year. Acting upon a motion by Dr. T. G. Graves, Goldthwaite, the Board approved the dates as set up.

President Howell then called upon C. L. Pouncey, Brownwood to give the treasurer's report. The Board heard the report and approved it. Marshall Ammerman, the Deputy Regional Executive from Dallas, then gave a most interesting and complete review of the progress of the Comanche Trail Council for the year 1949. Ammerman analyzed the work of the Council under the headings—"Cub Scout Membership," "Boy Scout Membership," "Explorer Scout Membership," "Training and Advancement," "Camping Dollars - Executives," and "Miscellaneous." The Board was very pleased that Mr. Ammerman indicated that Scouting had showed a marked improvement in many phases during 1949.

Tree Pruning Service Offered

B. S. Dudley Jr., vocational agriculture teacher at Ranger High School, announced today that the first year vocational agriculture boys are ready to start their annual tree pruning and anyone wishing this service should contact Dudley or one of the boys.

Dudley stated that while the boys are a little later getting started this year, there is plenty of time left for this work and anyone wishing the service may have it for a minimum fee. The fees earned in this manner are turned into the FFA chapter and used for chapter activities including the Father and Son banquet which is an annual affair.

This service has been offered by the chapter for several years and has become much in demand, it was pointed out.

Hiss Sentenced To Five Years

BY JOHN M. ROACH
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, Jan. 25 (UP)—Alger Hiss, the bright young State Department expert who advised President Roosevelt at Yalta, was sentenced to five years in prison today for lying about his 1938 cooperation with a Communist spy ring.

The 45-year-old former president of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, stood white and tense as Judge Henry W. Goddard sentenced him to five years on each of two perjury counts, the sentence to be served concurrently.

Even as the sentence was pronounced, Hiss repeated that he was innocent.

Just before Judge Goddard pronounced the sentence, Hiss requested the opportunity to make "a brief statement."

"I would like to thank your honor for the opportunity to deny the charge against me," he said. "I am confident in the future the full facts as to how Whittaker Chambers was able to carry out forgery by typewriter will be disclosed."

The lanky defendant then stood, arms at side, facing the judge to hear the sentence. He did not flinch as the judge pronounced sentence.

His attorney Slyde B. Cross filed appeal papers immediately.

Hiss received the maximum five year sentence on each of the counts. He also could have been fined $2,000 on each count.

Judge Goddard ruled that Hiss remains under $10,000 bail, twice the amount he had been at liberty under since his indictment.

Cross made two motions immediately after the court opened at 10:30 A. M.—one for a new trial, and the second for arrest of judgment. Both were denied.

Five In Family Burn To Death

HATBORO, Pa., Jan. 25 (UP)—Five members of a family were burned to death in their sleep today when flames destroyed their home in the Lacey Park housing project.

Hatboro firemen identified the dead as Horace Morrow, his wife and three children, ranging from two to 14 years of age. The names were not available immediately. Another son left the Morrow home two days ago to rejoin the Navy.

Morrow is a sailor attached to the Johnsonville Naval Air Modification Center about one mile away.

The charred bodies of the victims were found in their beds by firemen.

The dwelling occupied by the Morrow was one in a four-unit residence at the government project. The three families in the other units escaped. Their quarters suffered water and smoke damage.

Cold Front Moves Across Texas

By United Press
A cold front moved slowly across North Texas today, leaving behind swirling winds that kicked up dust in the west.

Freezing rain or snow was predicted for the Panhandle and Upper South Plains today and tonight and in the top half of East Texas tonight.

The U. S. Weather Bureau at Dallas said a few showers would fall in the north and eastern sections of the state earlier in the day.

Colder weather was expected Thursday.

During the early morning hours today, Dalhart, at the entrance to the Panhandle, reported the lowest temperature in the state, 18 degrees. Lufkin was warmest with 72 degrees.

Amarillo reported a reading of 26 degrees at 4:50 A. M. and Clarendon had a 29.

Other 4:30 readings were Lubbock 56, Childress 54, Wichita Falls 67, El Paso 57, Midland 51, Abilene 63, Fort Worth 68, Dallas 68, Aulimni 69, Laredo 67, San Antonio 68, Victoria 72, and Brownsville 71.

Winds which buffeted the western and northern sections yesterday lost their strength after midnight. Wichita Falls was still recording 20 mile per hour winds just before dawn, and Lubbock was feeling 22 mile per hour gusts. The wind was coming from the south, however, and was not stirring up much dust, the Weather Bureau said.

Police Stop Mass Suicide Attempt

AMARILLO, Tex., Jan. 25 (UP)—Police last night thwarted what they called a mass attempt at suicide.

Three prisoners in City Jail were rushed to hospital after they had slashed their arms and began forcing a free flow of blood by flexing their arms.

None of the three was in serious condition, but all were treated for loss of blood. They were returned to their cells and put under constant guard.

Police identified them as Paul Mann, Richard Alexander and George Zeller. All were being held for investigation. Police Captain C. C. Sadler said it was Mann's second attempt at suicide.

"All of them would have been goners if officers hadn't found them when they did," said Sadler.

BY PAUL E. SVOBODA
UNITED PRESS STAFF CORRESPONDENT
DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 25 (UP)—Eighty-nine thousand CIO United Auto Workers began a nationwide strike today against Chrysler Corporation. They demanded "pensions or pay increases."

The strike halted assembly of 6,000 cars and trucks a day by the world's third largest car maker.

Picket lines formed quickly around Chrysler plants in six states when the deadline came. Sound trucks roared strike orders in the motor city. Oil can stoves were set out to warm strikers, but they weren't needed. The thermometer hovered around 60 degrees.

Negotiators had met continuously for 24 hours to forestall a mid-winter walk out. But neither side would budge on its chosen method of paying $100 monthly pensions to aged workers, or compromise on hospitalization and insurance benefits.

State and federal efforts failed. Four-thousand workers at the Dodge Division plant began picketing an hour before the deadline.

More than 80,000 workers were called out immediately in Michigan, Delaware, and Georgia.

Plants in Indiana, California, and Kansas closed as the 10 A. M. deadline came in their time zones.

An additional 16,000 non-strikers at Chrysler will be idled within a short time and 55,000 employes supplier firms will be thrown out of work in two weeks.

Negotiators at a mid-city hotel appeared hopelessly deadlocked as the strike hour passed. The cigarette strewn tables and unshaven faces were mute evidence of round-the-clock efforts to avoid the first major automobile walkout since the Ford Motor Company strike last spring.

Walter P. Reuther, UAW president, held doggedly to his "rock-bottom" proposal for a 10-cent an hour "welfare package." It would provide $100 pensions and health and hospitalization insurance.

Tis alternative was a flat 10-cent wage hike.

Hoping to avoid a strike, he said the walkout would be called off if Chrysler agreed to the 10-cent formula. Technical details could be ironed out later, he said.

But the company, although hit hard by the steel strike last fall which closed most Chrysler plants from two to six weeks, held to its first and only offer. Chrysler said its plan was "even better" than the UAW proposal.

Chrysler offered $100 monthly pensions, including social security, and increased disability and death insurance. But the UAW claimed the plan amounted to only three cents an hour.

Negotiations began last July 6. They swayed awaiting a Ford settlement which came in September and totaled 10-cents an hour for pensions and other welfare benefits.

Reuther and Norman R. Matthews, UAW National Chrysler Director, objected principally to Chrysler's proposal of a five-year contract freeze.

But they also denounced the firm's refusal to (1) set up a joint Union-Company board to administer the pensions, and (2) establish a definite pension fund.

Chrysler insisted its reputation was a guarantee that it would pay pensions. It said that such a board and fund were not necessary.

Then the UAW, in an unexpected change of policy, scrapped its goal for pensions and offered to accept a 10-cent package as either a pension-insurance program or a flat across-the-board wage increase.

 MEMPHIS, Tenn., Jan. 25 (UP) — The National Cotton Council went on record today as violently opposing President Truman's Fair Deal Program and government deficit spending.

More than 1,000 delegates to the Council's 12th annual meeting voted the twin condemnations into resolutions and also advocated a $1,500,000,000 (B) revolving fund for cotton exports at the end of the Marshall Plan.

The Council also condemned in the President's program the Brannan Plan for agriculture, compulsory government health insurance, the FEPC and other legislative proposals "which invade the rights of individuals and the states."

"The Council equally condemns the proposal to repeal the Taft-Hartley Act," a statement of policy said, "... and likewise opposes the practice of operating the Federal Government at a deficit under conditions of national prosperity."

Attempt To Ambush District Attorney Fails

Bell County Sheriff Buck Ray points to .45 caliber bullet holes in wall and a crease on the auto of District Attorney James K. Evetts of Belton, Texas. Evetts, who is the prosecutor against Sam Smithwick (now on trial at Belton for the slaying of W. H. Mason of Alice, Texas) was fired on just after he drove into his garage, following the first day in court against Smithwick. (NEA Telephoto.)

Charles E. Wilson, president of General Motors, earlier demanded flatly that government get out of business.

Allan B. Kline, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, asked only for "regulated free enterprise with limited protection."

The Council voted to ask the United States to send money to Europe for the purpose of American cotton after a plea by Red P. Dunn, Jr., the Council's foreign trade director.

Dunn said many European countries want to use ECA money for cotton buying but are prevented by unbalanced trade. Dollar credits are the only way to improve the situation after ECA funds end, Dunn said.

The fund, which would be administered by the World Export-Import Bank, would provide loans to exporters, importers or approved governments to finance foreign buying of U. S. exports.

48 lb. HEAVIER CALVES TO SELL... than on cake

The big difference was proved by Purina in a ranch feeding test. 50 cows wintered on Purina Range Breeder Checkers weaned 48-lb. heavier calves than 50 cows fed on cake. Both groups were fed exactly the same amount. The 48 lb. difference in weight per calf meant about $9.60 extra income per head.

Here's why Purina Checkers do the job—correct protein percent (not too high)... more carbohydrates... more calcium and other minerals... more vitamin A. See us now for your winter feeding needs.

Moad Trial —

Ninth Streets occupying a car driven by Joe Lee Moore of Cleco. She further testified that early Sunday afternoon Emory E. Moad drove his car at the side of the house where she and Roy Moad reside. She stated he was suffering from two wounds—one in the back below the left shoulder and the other in an arm. "My husband and I took him to the Graham Sanitarium. Enroute he said 'Irene, I'm dying. She shot me three or four times. The witness said she stayed at the hospital, except for a few minutes, until Emory E. Moad's death at 11 A. M. Tuesday.

Prosecutor Sparks asked the witness by Defense Attorney Condemant say anything about hating Emory E. Moad. The witness replied "Yes" but couldn't recall right now when and where.

The cross-examination of the witness by Defense Attorney Conner revealed at one time during the night in question, Emory E. Moad had stepped on the porch of the residence of the couple, and called out "she had been caught and that he had witnesses to prove it." The witness further testified that Emory E. Moad said "when I find Joe Lee Moore I'm going to beat the hell out of him."

Asked if she slain man made reference to a beating given the defendant several days before and that if wasn't half what he was going to give her, the witness said "no."

At another time during the night, the witness stated they were driving along and met the defendant standing out in the street at Ninth Street and Avenue L. She said the defendant threw a rock at us. The witness said they went to the Police Station and reported the rock throwing incident.

While Mrs. Irene Moad was being examined by the prosecution, defense attorneys sought numerous times to have her testimony struck from the record as being irrelevant. Each time Judge Jones overruled the objections. Before proceeding to cross-examine the witness, the defense tried once more to have the entire testimony stricken. This motion was also overruled.

AROUND 1,500,000 WORKERS GET PAY RAISE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25 (UP)—Some 1,500,000 workers got a raise today—by order of the government.

No one stood to get much richer from the boosts, which average between 5 and 15 cents an hour. In all, the raises will cost employers an extra $300,000,000 a year.

The wage increases stemmed from a recently-enacted law revising the wage-hour act which fixed the legal minimum wage from 40 to 75 cents an hour. In terms of the 40-hour week, that's an increase from $16 to $30.

The law, signed last October by president Truman, goes into effect today.

The changes it made in the old wage-hour act directly affects some 22,000,000 workers engaged in-or producing goods for-interstate commerce. About 1,500,000 of them have been earning less than the new 75-cent minimum, the labor department said.

In addition to raising the wage floor, the revisions:

1. Strengthen the child labor laws by directly banning work by children under 16 and, in some occupations, under 18.
2. Tighten up restrictions on industrial homework.
3. Help employes recover unpaid back wages by authorizing law suits in their behalf by the wage-hour administrator.
4. Make it easier for workers and employers to determine overtime wages by tightening up the definition of "regular rate of pay."
5. Bring airline employes and fish and seafood cannery workers under the law, although continuing their overtime exemptions.

President Truman said in a special statement yesterday that, under the revised law, "the lot of a defendant following the shooting.

Testimony was halted at one point; following an outbreak of laughter by the courtroom throng, by Judge Jones who threatened to clear the courtroom. "You people in the back seem to be getting a lot of fun out of this.

This is not a funny matter. It's a serious matter. If you are here for fun, go elsewhere. Next time there is an outbreak like this, I will ask the Sheriff (J. B. Williams) to put you out of the courtroom. Stay here if you please, but we don't need your help."

All of the approximate 200 seats were taken and spectators were standing three deep in the aisles with all entrances being jammed.

Awaited in the case, is the call of Rev. James W. McClain, rector of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church here and originator of the Dr. I. Q. program, who has been subpoenaed as a state witness. Rev. McClain has stated he is ready to go to jail, if need be, rather than reveal the nature of a confidential conversation with the defendant following the shooting.

great many American workers will be substantially improved." He said the statute is "an important addition to the laws we live by."

Secretary of labor Maurice J. Tobin said he will crack down on any employer who tries to "chisel" on the new minimum. He said he will hire 500 new investigators to police the 630,000 employers affected by the change in the wage.
