

Congressmen impressed

The 15 members of the House Agriculture Committee who toured the county with 30 other federal officials Friday seemed both interested and impressed with what they saw here.

ALTHOUGH the congressmen kept up discreet conversations, they mostly looked and listened, careful not to commit themselves in the field.

The 45-person delegation was met here by 20 or more local representatives of farm organizations and government agencies. The group toured the Castro County Agricultural Housing Project, the Dimmitt Wheat Growers corn mill site and the Dimmitt Produce Co. vegetable processing plant.

The congressmen also stopped at a field of milo before they arrived in Dimmitt, and looked over the irrigation system. Many had never seen milo.

AT THE housing project, Allan Webb, president of the Castro County Agricultural Housing Association, told the group that 153 of the project's 192 apartments are now rented.

"Most of the workers living here now will leave Sept. 1," Webb explained. "We wish they would stay until Dec. 1 because we have a lot of work for them, but they'll want to get back home and get their kids started in school."

About the payback on the housing project, Webb said, "We were able to pay only the interest and no principal the first year. This year we'll pay two-thirds of the year's principal plus interest, and next year we hope to pay all the principal and interest, plus some of the delinquent payments, as we get more permanent renters here."

AT DIMMITT Wheat Growers, the congressmen saw the corn mill's fabrication shop in operation, with workmen bustling throughout the plant.

Aaron Isaacs, president of Dimmitt Management Co., which will operate the corn mill, explained to the group that the mill is unique in two ways — it is the most modern in the world, and is

CURBSIDE CONFLAB — Congressman Bob Price of Pampa stops to chat with four boys at the Castro County Agricultural Housing Project Friday morning during a tour of the area by House Agriculture Committee members and other federal officials. Price was the host congressman on the tour, which he set up to let the 45 Washington visitors "see what the primary problems here are."

Saturday is 're-vote' day

Saturday will be "re-vote" day for Dimmitt's $200,000 sewer bond issue.

VOTERS WILL trek to city hall from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. to cast ballots on the issue — but this time all city residents who are registered voters will be allowed to cast ballots, whether they are listed on the city tax rolls or not.

In the past, only registered voters who had rendered property for taxation were allowed by Texas law to vote in bond elections. Under this law, Dimmitt's sewer bond issue passed by a 2.1 margin May 20.

But the bond issue — along with 40 other recent ones in Texas — was invalidated last month when the US Supreme Court ruled that the "property tax payers only" requirement on bond elections was unconstitutional. The high court said voters should be allowed to cast ballots in bond elections, whether they have rendered property for taxation or not.

THE SUPREME COURT ruling was made on a case originating in Louisiana, but applies to all states.

The ruling halted the progress of the city's sewer bonds at the contracting stage.

Dimmitt's city commission quickly rescheduled the sewer bond election, hoping the interest rate on the revenue-bond issue

CUCUMBER HARVEST started Friday, and before it ends in late September, six million pounds of cucumbers will be gathered from 400 acres in Castro County and processed by Western Vegetables, Inc. Here, a teenage girl gathers early cucumbers on the Jimmy Howell farm in Bethel. Elvon DeVaney, Dimmitt manager for Western Vegetables, said two-thirds of the county's harvest will be shipped fresh to La Junta, Colo., Dallas and Phoenix for pickling, and two million pounds will go into the Dimmitt salting station for processing later in the year.

EARLY CARROTS started coming in from the fields Wednesday of last week, but the harvest hasn't hit full swing and not many have been shipped out yet. Here, Michael Cranford ties out a sack of "Sugar Sweet" brand carrots for LaMantia, Cullum, Collier & Co., Inc., which operates the Dimmitt Produce Co. vegetable plant. Homer West, LMCC manager, said his company has contracted 400 acres of early carrots, and that 700 acres of late carrots are now being planted for harvest after Oct. 15. LMCC expects to process 11,000 tons of carrots this year.

Wrecks average seven per month

Motorists averaged seven wrecks a month on Castro County's highways during the first half of 1969.

THE TEXAS Highway Patrol investigated seven accidents on rural highways in Castro County during June, according to Sgt. Vernon Cawthon, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in an estimated property damage of $3,468.

The rural traffic accident summary for Castro County during the first six months of 1969 shows 43 accidents thus far. These accidents resulted in one person killed, 21 injured, and an estimated property damage of $31,969.

DURING the first six months of 1969 there were 1,470 traffic deaths, or two less than the same period of 1968 in Texas. However, if past trends continue, the last six months will probably far exceed the first six months. In 1968, 2,009 traffic deaths occurred during the last six months.

Sgt. Cawthon stated, "With an all-time record of 49 deaths over the July 4 weekend, we are not only well ahead in comparison to the beginning of the second six months in 1968, but well on our way to establishing a record year in 1969."

Swimming spree costs boys $950

An after-hours swimming and drinking party at the Castro County Country Club Saturday night cost four Dimmitt youths $950 in fines and property damage.

THE youths, who ranged in age from 18 to 20, were arrested Monday morning after an investigation by sheriff's officers and city police.

Officers said the four youths — two of whom were servicemen home on leave — ruined an air conditioner compressor outside the clubhouse by overturning it while it was running, and also overturned a barbecue grill and tossed whisky bottles and beer cans in the club's wading and swimming pool.

County Attorney Robert Buntyn said all four admitted taking part in the spree.

JUSTICE of the Peace Earl Harrison fined each youth $100 for illegal possession of alcohol and ordered them to pay for the $950 compressor. The four were to appear in court Wednesday with their money for fines and damages.

Buntyn said the youths also could have been charged with willful destruction of private property, which carries a sentence of two to 20 years in prison, "but in this case we felt that if the damage was promptly repaid and a stiff fine assessed for the liquor violation, this would be sufficient punishment."

All four youths had been convicted of liquor law violations previously, Buntyn said, and could have been fined a maximum of $200.

BUNTYN WARNED, "If acts of vandalism such as this continue, the punishment will become increasingly more severe, because the people here are entitled to protection of their property and we intend to provide it."

City hushed as astronauts walk on moon

Sunday night in Dimmitt, you could have heard a pin drop on the moon.

THE CITY'S streets were deserted as local residents glued their eyes to their TV sets and watched in awe as Astronauts Neil Armstrong and Edwin Aldrin Jr. became the first earthlings ever to set foot on another planet.

It was one fantastic feat on top of another. Not only was man walking on the moon for the first time, but more than 500 million people were watching every step via interplanetary television, over virtually every TV network in the free world.

It was at 9:56 p.m. our time that Armstrong, 38, of Wapako-na, Ohio, placed his foot on the lunar surface and made the historic statement, "That's one small step for man, a giant leap for mankind," after descending from the lunar landing module, "Eagle."

TWENTY minutes later, his fellow Apollo 11 astronaut, "Buzz" Aldrin Jr., 39, of Montclair, N.J., joined Armstrong on the powdery surface of the Sea of Tranquility and exclaimed, "Beautiful, beautiful, beautiful. A magnificent desolation."

Local residents joined millions of others around the globe in their cheering, exclamations of awe and sighs of relief.

Only the federal offices were officially closed in Dimmitt Monday, the "lunar holiday" proclaimed by President Richard Nixon, but most other offices worked with skeleton staffs as workers wandered from office to home to check on the "Eagle's" successful ascent into moon orbit and its perfect docking with the command module, "Columbia."

THE THREE Astronauts are now speeding home in the command module, piloted by Michael Collins, and are scheduled to splash down in the Pacific, 1,800 miles southwest of Hawaii at 11:51 a.m. today (Thursday) CDT.

Most Castro Countians likely will watch the splashdown that will end the most magnificent voyage in man's history. They will keep their vigil as though the entire Apollo 11 mission were their own — which, of course, it is.

Area's first pro-am tourney to be conducted here Monday

The West Texas Chapter of the Professional Golf Association will hold its first pro-amateur matches at the Castro County Country Club golf course Monday.

UP TO 80 golfers are expected to compete in the one-day event. Bud Posey will be the host pro, and invitations have been mailed to some 25 professionals in the area.

The event is open to all golfers — professional and amateur — who hold a current West Texas Chapter PGA Pro-Amateur Handicap Card.

Those who plan to play but do not have cards should see Posey at the Country Club. He can issue one.

THE PRO-AM will be a low-ball affair with a pro or Class "A" amateur captaining each team. The amateurs will receive one-half of their handicap to a maximum of 18 strokes. Players will be paired in foursomes and tee off after they register.

Registration will begin at 9 a.m., with the deadline for entry at 3 p.m. Entry fee for professionals is $11 and amateurs will pay $6. Professionals will receive cash prizes, and amateur winners will be awarded merchandise certificates.

Ladies are especially invited to participate, Posey said. He urged all golfers in the area to play and make the first "Pro-Am" a big event for the Castro County Country Club and for Dimmitt.

Sheffy's chatter

Has it been so long since the horse-and-buggy days?

By MYRTLE SHEFFY
Dimmitt people are taking advantage of the good weather to go places, and all of us have been watching the moon business.

Don't we live in a historic age? My generation can remember when buggies, horses and surreys with fringed tops were fashionable. At age 10 I rode in my first car, and now we can go across the country in the big jet planes as fast as we once could ride over to the next county.

SPEAKING OF airplanes, I saw Donna Carmichael Saturday. She is home to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Carmichael. Donna is an airline hostess on American Flyers Airlines out of Harrisburg, Pa. This is a charter airline. She has been to Switzerland, Germany, Italy, Greece—all over the place. Chris James also is an airline hostess now.

Saturday, Allan and Peggy Webb and son, Johnny, and Tom and Audrey Miller flew to Houston where Johnny had his eyes checked. He was injured last summer when a baseball hit him in the head. From Houston they were to go to Rockport, near Corpus Christi, where they will board Jack Miller's yacht, the "Ja Lou," for a few days' cruise.

WE MET Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cullum and their son, Paul, Sunday. Mr. Cullum is with La Mantia, Cullum, Collier & Co., which operates the vegetable plant here. Bible Thoughts THE MASTER'S VOICE John 10:4 By Max Zamorano A person's voice is one of his unique characteristics. It identifies him. Yes, we can know and identify a person by his manner of speech, for it is as distinctive as his individual fingerprints. Jesus tells us that "he calleth his own sheep by name," and "the sheep follow him; for they know his voice!" I am reminded of the Apostle John's account of what occurred following the Lord's resurrection. Mary Magdalene stood outside His sepulcher weeping, but in her grief-stricken despondency she did not immediately identify Him when He appeared to her and asked, "Woman, why weepest thou?" However, when He called her BY NAME, that did it! "Jesus saith unto her, MARY. She turned herself, and saith unto him... MASTER" (John 20:16). And thus it is with us and the Good Shepherd. When He called our name in salvation, we responded and came to Him in faith believing. Today when He calls our name for service, we gladly follow after Him. And someday when He calls us at His coming, we shall know His voice, and with gladness be caught away into His blessed presence. Yes, his sheep "know his voice," and "follow him." But "a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him; for they know not the voice of strangers" (John 10:5). FOURTH AND BEDFORD CHURCH OF CHRIST

Telephone lines spread across our nation, giving us immediate contact with loved ones. Vital business is rapidly contracted through this medium.

Our linkage to God is prayer. Through prayer we can express our love, our thanks, and seek God's help.

"Hearken unto the voice of my cry, my King, and my God: for unto thee will I pray."

Attend church, join others in fellowship and prayer to God.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

TALKING IT OVER — Several "junior farmers" enjoy homemade ice cream and cookies at the NFO ice cream social in city park Saturday evening while discussing their common problems — such as mud under the swings, slides and merry-go-rounds, which forced them to play and eat in a different area.

Beta Sigma Phi to fill bags for GI's; more help needed

"The Red Cross Shop-Early project is just one way Americans can show that they care about our young men and women serving in South Vietnam," Buntyn said.

THE LOCAL chapter has been asked by the national organization to provide 25 bags this year. Among the most useful items the servicemen enjoy finding in a Christmas gift bag are ballpoint pens, plastic soap cases, small address books, washcloths, nail clippers, plastic snapshot holder, plastic cigarette cases and toothbrush holders, and small vacuum-packed tins of nuts or candies. Each chapter participating in the Red Cross project selects at least eight items to be included in the bags they fill.

Each bag will also contain a holiday greeting card listing the contributors and the name of the chapter where the bag was made and filled.

The Christmas project must be completed by Sept. 30, the deadline for shipping bags.

Shopping early for Christmas begins this week for the Castro County Red Cross Chapter.

"SANTA'S helpers" here will join with Red Cross volunteers in some 1,600 communities throughout the US in "Shop Early — Vietnam 1969," the Red Cross program which annually provides holiday gift-filled bags for American servicemen and women in South Vietnam during Christmas.

Members of Dimmitt's Beta Sigma Phi sorority will make up the bags for the Red Cross chapter. Other individuals and organizations are being asked to support the project with gifts and cash donations.

"Again this year the Red Cross is asking all community service organizations, religious groups, business firms and individuals to join in helping to collect the items needed to fill the bright colored drawstring bags which our local volunteers will make," said Bob Buntyn, chairman of the Castro County Chapter.

Vows set Aug. 30

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Malone of Olton announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Diana, to Clifford Ray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ray of Hart.

VOWS WILL be exchanged Saturday, Aug. 30, at 8 p.m. in the First Baptist Church of Olton.

The bride-elect is a 1969 graduate of Olton High School and attended Texas Tech this summer. Ray attended Hart schools and is enrolled in Oklahoma State University in Okmulgee.

TO REMOVE dirt and tarnish from old brass hardware, unscrew it from the furniture and brush- scrub it with salt and vinegar mixed in a ceramic dish. Then wash it with soap or detergent suds, rinse and wipe dry. The next step is to oil the screws and re-attach brass to the furniture. This advice is from Linda Jacobsen, Extension home management specialist.

Socially Yours

MRS. RONNIE JOE OWENS
... The former Susan Marie Hopson

Hopson - Owens vows are recited

The First Baptist Church was the setting for a formal candle- light ceremony which united Susan Marie Hopson and Ronnie Joe Owens in marriage Saturday evening.

THE BRIDE is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Hopson of Dimmitt, and Owens is the son of Mr. and Mrs. V. G. Owens of Hereford. Dr. Raymond Perkins, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated.

Serving as maid of honor was Cynthia Kay Hopson, the bride's sister. Mrs. Gary Lee Engman, cousin of the bride, was the bridesmaid.

Eldon Owens, the groom's brother, was best man. Groomsman was Key Crawford of Hereford. Joe Don Noland, Terry Watson, James Davis and Jerry Tisdale seated guests.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of organza over taffeta, caged in Chantilly lace. Her gown featured a scalloped neckline and yoked bodice, accenting a demi-fitted A-line styling. The lace-cage covering formed a full sweeping waltz- chapel train. The butterfly veil was secured by a headpiece of Chantilly lace leaves, edged in pearls and crystal. She carried a bouquet of daisies, yellow roses, baby's breath and English ivy centered around a white orchid. For "something old," she carried her maternal grandmother's wedding band.

The bride's attendants were dressed in gowns of yellow dotted swiss with scalloped necklines, and carried cascades of white daisies.

CONNIE DENNIS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Dennis of Dimmitt, and Carla Weemes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Weemes of Hereford, were the flower girls. Van Hopson, brother of the bride, and Paul Lake Dishman III of Dallas, cousin of the bride, were the candlelighters.

Janice Mooney, organist, played traditional wedding music including "Whither Thou Goest" and "One Hand, One Heart." The church was decorated with white daisies, and an arched candelabra centered by two spiral candelabra.

Out of town wedding guests included Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Hopson of Hobart, Okla., great-grandparents of the bride.

A reception at the Castro County Country Club followed the wedding. The table was decorated with bouquets carried by the bride and her attendants in the wedding, white candles in a silver candelabra, and a three-tiered wedding cake.

Mrs. Tommy Weemes registered the guests, while Mrs. Larry Blakeman, Mrs. Sandy Rhodes, Mrs. Terry Watson and Linda London served punch and cake.

Others assisting with the reception were Mrs. Bob Huckabay, Mrs. Lon Boothe, Mrs. Sandy Parsons III, Mrs. James Wohlgermuth, Mrs. Troy Kirby and Mrs. Edgar Dennis.

The bride is a graduate of Dimmitt High School and attended Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene for three years as a journalism major. She is presently employed by Imperial Beauty Salon in Hereford.

The groom is a graduate of Hereford High School, and has attended West Texas State University, where he was a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

The bride chose a dress of brown and beige crepe with brown patent accessories for traveling to Carlsbad and other points of interest in New Mexico. The couple will be at home five miles southwest of Hereford, after their wedding trip.

Hill-Howell vows exchanged

Double-ring vows united Miss Colleen Hill and John Howell in the First Baptist Church in Texline July 12.

THE BRIDE had been making her home with her sister, brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bryan of Texline. She is the daughter of Joe F. Hill of Phoenix, Ariz., who attended the wedding. Howell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Moss Howell of Dimmitt.

Rev. Ronald G. Mooney, youth director of the South Georgia Baptist Church in Amarillo, officiated.

The church, decorated with a large basket arrangement of gladioli at the altar, was illuminated by tall white tapers in candelabra. White satin bows adorned the pews.

TRADITIONAL wedding music was provided by Mrs. J. D. Hester, pianist, and Risa Howell of Friona, niece of the groom, who sang "Bless This House" and "Whither Thou Goest."

The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, wore a gown of white peau de soie, styled with scalloped lace yoke, long lace sleeves, and a train of Chantilly lace flowing from the back yoke. The veil of silk illusion was bordered in lace, and attached to a headpiece of lace and pearls forming a flower.

The bridal bouquet was of miniature white mums centered around a white cymbidium orchid, carried on a white Bible, a gift from the Young Women's Auxiliary and Women's Missionary Union.

FOR "SOMETHING OLD," the bride wore a gold and pearl pin that had belonged to her paternal grandmother.

Gloria La Neil Bryan, niece of the bride, was maid of honor, and Becky Little, Becky Hester were bridesmaids. They wore matching formal gowns of hot pink satin, fashioned with lace yokes. Their halo headpieces featured attached pink veils, and each carried a long-stem pink rose.

MRS. JOHN HOWELL
... The former Colleen Hill of Texline

Dennis Howell of Friona, nephew of the groom, was best man. Groomsman were Mike Bruegel of Dimmitt and Oren Watson of Tulla. Ronald Bryan, nephew of the bride, and Kevin Howell of Friona, nephew of the groom, seated the guests.

KANDY STIVAL of Tulla was flower girl, and Michael Caldwell, nephew of the bride, carried the rings. Lighting the candles for the ceremony were Gains Howell of Dimmitt, nephew of the groom, and Kerry Wyatt, Bobby Wyatt and Gregg Caldwell, nephews of the bride.

Lynna McBryer of Amarillo registered guests at the reception which followed the wedding in fellowship hall of the church. Sharon Reeves and Mrs. Ronald McKay served punch and cake from the bride's table.

For traveling, the bride chose a two-piece knit suit in hot pink with black patent accessories and a white corsage.

AFTER returning from a Colorado wedding trip, they are at home in Dimmitt for the summer.

Both the bride and groom have attended Clarendon College, and Howell will attend West Texas State University this fall.

On the Go

MRS. SAM MAYNARD'S parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Phillips of Amherst, were weekend guests in her home.

THE SETTING was the Joe Edd Carson home, where 24 guests met the bride-to-be.

Melons, peaches highlight market

Watermelon, cantaloupe and peaches, semi-cling and freestone varieties, steal the hot weather food market scene.

All these, along with nectarines, plums, honeydew melons, oranges, Bing cherries, bananas, grapes and pineapples, are in good supply at the most economical prices.

Although hot weather is affecting most Texas crops, good vegetable buys are found in red and russet potatoes, cooking greens, purple hull and blackeye peas, tomatoes, carrots, dry yellow onions, squash, eggplant and corn. The report comes from Gwendolyn Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist.

Pork cuts continue to be featured in some markets. Examples are fresh picnic shoulders, Boston Butt roasts, smoked ham portions and country style ribs. Prices on most beef cuts remain about the same as the last few weeks with best values found in chuck roasts and steaks, rib and round steaks and ground beef.

MODERN AGRICULTURE

"TO BE involved in the conservation and development of God's gift to natural resources is a duty that helps secure the future. It is an involvement in growth that cannot be shirked..." From "Challenges of Growth," publication of the national Association of Soil and Water Conservation Districts.

"THE REAL wealth of our nation—food, minerals, and fiber—comes from the soil, and conservation practices are prolonging the soil's usefulness for decades, even centuries."—John F. Cunningham, Dean of Agriculture, Ohio State University.

Grain men play important role in state economy

Grains account for almost 23 cents of each dollar from Texas agricultural commodity sales.

IN 1968, cash receipts were second only to those for livestock and livestock products, reported John J. Siebert, Extension grain marketing specialist at Texas A-&M University.

By grains, grain sorghum was the leader and contributed more than $320 million; rice cash receipts were $142 million; wheat $106 million; corn $29 million; soybeans $19 million; flaxseed $2 million and broomcorn production was valued at $1.4 million, Siebert said. Total cash receipts for these grains exceeded $620 million.

The livestock, dairy and poultry industries of the state are heavy users of grain, but Siebert points out that human and industrial consumption also utilize very large quantities of Texas-produced grain. Some grains, he adds, are stored for reserves.

Export markets are also important to grain producers. During fiscal 1968, Siebert said, Texas' share of grain exports exceeded $180.6 million. Feed grains accounted for almost two-thirds of $118.6 million of that total, he said.

Grain production, marketing machinery and facilities require large capital investments. By any measurable standards, emphasized Siebert, the industry contributes a great deal to the general well-being of the state's economy and especially to those involved in its actual operation.

College men urge passage of 6, 8

The Independent Colleges and Universities of Texas organization has endorsed two of the proposed constitutional amendments, Propositions 6 and 8, to be submitted to the voters of Texas Aug. 5.

ABNER V. McCALL of Waco, president of the association of the 40 private colleges and universities in Texas, announced that the executive committee of the group unanimously voted approval of the two proposals at an Austin meeting.

McCall, president of Baylor University, said while the two student-loan proposals are primarily for the benefit of students in state colleges and universities, they are of great benefit to higher education in general in Texas.

Proposed Amendment 6 would remove the interest limitations on all bonds authorized by the state

'Dead litter cover' insures good stand of native grass

By LARRY O. STARNES

Each year a number of farmers return a few acres of marginal and sub-marginal cropland to native grasses. If they are adequately prepared, this is a relatively simple task, but if not they are likely to encounter serious difficulties in establishing grass stands.

IT IS extremely difficult to predict the occurrence of natural elements which affects grass stands. Therefore, it is necessary to take every precaution known to insure a stand.

The most important element affecting grass seed germination is soil moisture. In the High Plains area of Texas, this is often critical for dryland plantings.

At present, a maximum of four percent interest may be paid on state's College Student Loan Bonds, which provide funds under the Hinson-Hazlewood College Student Loan Act.

Amendment 8 authorizes the state's college and university system coordinating board to issue $200 million in college student loan bonds in addition to the previously authorized $85 million in bonds. It has been estimated that unless the additional bonds are voted, the student loan program might end by the summer of 1971. Supporters of the amendment say the additional bonds would keep it going to the summer of 1976.

Taking this moisture problem into consideration, let's look at the most commonly used method to combat moisture loss.

"Dead Litter Cover" is used to conserve soil moisture, improve soil intake rates of rainfall and to provide fertilizer for young grass seedlings.

"DEAD LITTER" cover is some type of high residue crop such as forage sorghums planted on the land and managed to leave all the residue possible on the soil surface. Dead litter should be planted in the springs as soon as soils are warm enough and in time to utilize late spring rains. Good growth and cover are important. Mowing or shredding of the litter crop just before it goes to seed prevents the litter crop from competing with grass seedlings another year.

This cover will increase the intake rate of moisture from snows and rainfall, and at the same time it will reduce evaporation losses. Grass seeded in the early spring will germinate as soon as the soil temperature is warm enough. Seedlings have the advantage of additional moisture as well as degree of protection from other natural hazards such as wind and water erosion.

As the litter is decayed by soil organisms, nitrogen, phosphorus and potash, as well as the trace elements, are returned to the soil as the fertilizer needed by young grass seedlings.

Acreages must be accurate; Aug. 15 deadline to certify

By CHARLEY HILL
Aug. 15 is the final date to certify program acreages under the 1969 Cotton and Feed Grain Programs.

IF YOU have measured and are sure of the correct acreages, you can certify now. The earlier we receive your certification, the sooner we can submit farm data and receive the drafts for final payments.

Remember, your acreage reports must be accurate. If you certify more or less than your actual acreages you will be subject to severe penalties or loss of all program payments.

The drafts for final payments cannot be delivered until the required number of farms have been spot-checked. This year we will spot-check on a random basis and will check about 30 percent of the participating farms. Remember, after you certify, your farm is subject to spot-check and you cannot plow up or change the accreage of any crop to be in compliance with the program acreages.

In other words, if really would help to have your certification now, but unless you know your acreages are correct, don't certify — measure one more time, then report your acreages before Aug. 15.

TAKE CARE OF YOUR DIVERTED ACRES

Failure to control weeds and erosion on your diverted acres could result in loss of your program payments, so please keep such land in good shape. Soybeans planted on diverted acres for cover must be reported, and must be plowed under and this office notified by no later than Sept. 30.

PLAYMATE FOR REDDY—This small monkey-faced owl became the reluctant guest of the Southwestern Public Service Co. office last Thursday after company linemen found him near Dimmitt Wheat Growers, Inc. The owl, approximately three months old, strayed from his mother's nest before learning to fly. He was released after a day of scaring the ladies in the SWPS office and hissing at Billy Scott, who handled the sharp-taloned owl with heavy linemen's gloves.

Bruce Taylor to open office in Amarillo

Bruce Taylor, Dimmitt agent for Mid-Continent Life Insurance Co. for seven years, will move his office to Amarillo this week. "I'LL STILL serve the Dimmitt area," Taylor explained. "I'm just expanding my territory with the company."

He added, "We've lived in Dimmitt 11 years, and the people here have really been good to us in lots of ways. The only reason we're moving is that this is a bigger opportunity. We hate to leave Dimmitt — it's one of the best spots in the Panhandle."

Taylor's territory will include the Amarillo area as well as Castro, Farmer and Lamb Counties.

TAYLOR'S wife, Selma, has been the bookkeeper for C&S Equipment Co. the last two years. The Taylors moved to Dimmitt from Clayton, N.M., in June 1958 and opened the Dairy Mart here. Taylor later served a year as manager of the Castro County Chamber of Commerce. He also is a past president of the Dimmitt Lions Club.

The Taylors have sold their home on Oak Street to Mr. and Mrs. Bob Myers, and will move to Amarillo this weekend. Their new home is at 3700 Harmony St., Amarillo.

Electric co-ops back amendment

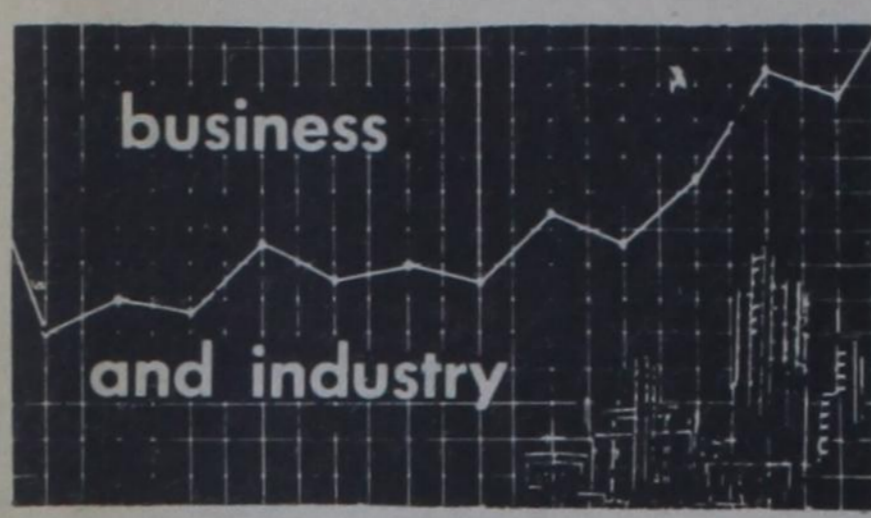

The State Association of Texas Electric Cooperatives has joined several groups in the state in supporting Amendment 4 on the Aug. 5 ballot. "DURING a recent directors' meeting, the group pointed out the continued need for development of rural Texas, and cited water resources as the next basic step in orderly progress."

"On Aug. 5 the public will make the decision that will determine the pace of development in the rural areas," stated Joe Lytle of Greenville, president of Texas Electric Cooperatives.

He continued, "If a favorable vote develops, non-profit rural water systems will enjoy the same tax-free status as the municipal systems have."

Those backing approval of Amendment 4 feel that the rural water systems must have the same tax break as those in the cities to allow paralleled growth, he said.

"If the rural areas are forced to slow development due to an added tax load, the neighboring city will feel the economic strain," Lytle concluded.

9.8 million live in 'import' area

Texas Tech research shows 9.8 million persons live in the areas to be served by the Texas Water System plan to import surplus water from the Mississippi River through Louisiana into Texas and Eastern New Mexico.

DR. VERNON T. CLOVER of the Department of Economics at Tech said the survey shows that many people living in the 174 counties, part or all of which are within 30 miles of the proposed import channels and reservoirs or in areas of present or potential irrigation under the plan.

"The 153 Texas counties involved," he said, "contain 8.8 million persons, while 235,000 live in 10 counties in New Mexico and 686,000 live in 11 counties in southern and western Louisiana."

The department's figures show that the total population in those counties increased one million between 1960 and 1966, a 12 percent gain.

"IN TEXAS," Dr. Clover said, "there are 3.7 million persons in the affected counties along the Sabine River in East Texas plus the northeast counties in Texas and in the northern counties, including Dallas and Tarrant, westward to the edge of the High Plains of West Texas."

"One million live in the counties on the High Plains of West Texas. The coastal counties, including the city of Houston, in the 'man-made valley' created by the import route in that section of the state, have a population of 2.8 million."

More than 800,000 persons live in the two-county area to be served around San Antonio in South Central Texas, the survey showed. The remaining 500,000 population in the counties involved live in the El Paso and middle Rio Grande areas.

MOST OF the water to be taken by the project, Dr. Clover pointed out, is removed from the Mississippi near the mouth and presently flows into the Gulf of Mexico. Enough will remain in the tributaries to serve the marshland near where it will be diverted, he said.

TO PREVENT wood decay in a house, keep decay fungi from entering the lower part of the structure. Use dry wood, protect it against rain, use naturally decay-resistant wood, and use paints and preservatives on the wood, remind Extension housing specialists at Texas A&M University.

WTSU schedules new construction

A multi-million dollar building project for West Texas State University is expected to begin early next year, Dr. James P. Cornette, WTSU president said this week.

THE $3.3 MILLION project, calling for a seven-story dormitory to house 288 men, a six-story residence hall for 203 women and a two-level addition to the east dining hall to accommodate 965, was given the go-ahead last week when the Department of Housing and Urban Development approved a $55,800 per year federal debt service grant to the university.

Cornette said the building plans should be ready by the first of the year with occupancy of the residence halls planned for December 1971. Use of the new dining facility is scheduled for January of that year.

In addition to the high-rise dormitories and the dining hall facility, the university is in the finishing stages of a $3.5 million building program, including $3.25 million for a Physical Activities building located near the site of the proposed dormitories.

Dr. T. Paige Carruth, dean of student life at WTSU, said the university's 1971 enrollment is estimated to be 10,000.

'Duck stamps' on sale at PO

The 1969-70 Federal Migratory Bird Stamp, featuring a pair of white-winged scoters rising from the water, is now on sale in Texas post offices.

THE ART work was done by Maynard Reese of Des Moines, Iowa, and was chosen from 213 entries submitted to the US Department of the Interior.

Duck hunters must purchase one of these $3 stamps as well as a Texas hunting license. All money received over and above the cost of printing and distributing these duck stamps is used to acquire wetlands for waterfowl. Last year nearly two million stamps were sold.

County may have TB program next year, director says

The Top of Texas Tuberculosis Association is "working on a detection and control program for Dimmitt now that we hope to put into action next year." Executive Director Charles McIntosh told the Dimmitt Rotary Club Friday.

CASTRO County now has no organized program to detect and treat tuberculosis, McIntosh said. Other counties in this area report a TB incidence rate 12 times as high as Castro's, he said, because TB here is going practically undetected.

"Dimmitt has a TB danger-problem because many migrant workers carry tuberculosis germs, and we know there's not anything being done about it in Dimmitt," McIntosh told the Rotarians.

Although many equate tuberculosis with its archaic name of "consumption" and believe that to day's more antiseptic society has whipped the disease, McIntosh said, 9,000 deaths occur each year in the US — and many of them aren't diagnosed as TB until after death.

APPROXIMATELY 30 million Americans are now infected with tuberculosis germs, he said, and about 50,000 of those infected become active cases each year. Tuberculosis, he said, remains a leading cause of death, with two million TB deaths reported in the world annually.

Most people with tuberculosis germs in their bodies remain healthy, he explained. But if the germs ever get the upper hand, causing an "active" case, serious bodily damage or death can result.

McIntosh, who has spent five years himself in TB hospitals said he has had the disease since boyhood, but that he didn't know it until he was in his mid-20's. A "patch test" during a college entrance physical didn't detect it, he said, and neither did any physician until he consulted a radiologist and requested a chest X-ray, after having spit up blood.

He said he thinks he unknowingly transmitted the disease to at least two school mates, three nephews and a lady friend.

A simple skin test is now available that can show whether a person has a dormant TB infection, he explained.

RECHARGE PROBLEM—Sediment which collects in the beds of playa lakes in the area is a major deterrent to the recharge of water through the temporary lakes into the Ogallala underground formation. Researching the recharge problem are (from left) Marvin J. Dvoracek, agricultural engineering professor at Texas Tech; graduate research assistant Sam Peterson; and Rolland Z. Wheaton, professor of agricultural engineering. This project is one of more than 20 being carried out by Texas Tech on Ogallala water recharge and pollution problems, using state, federal and university funds. (Texas Tech Photo)

Tech puts $400,000 in grants to work on Ogallala research

What goes into and what comes out of the Ogallala aquifer, which supplies the water for the High Plains of Texas, are major concerns of approximately $400,000 in research recently funded through Texas Tech's Water Resources Center.

WRC Director Dan M. Wells said the score of projects underway are supported by the university, the state and federal governments.

"WE'RE TRYING to concentrate," he said, "on national problems which are of paramount importance to this region." The problem of water quality, threatened by pollution from several sources, is the subject of major research.

Other aspects of water use by both urban and rural segments of the High Plains, the nature of the underlying aquifer, problems relating to water importation and some practical biological studies which could lead to better water use are included in WRC's investigations.

TYPICAL OF research development at the four-year-old center is a $96,000 study of feedlot waste problems, funded by the Federal Water Pollution Control Administration (FWPCA) and Texas Tech.

The research began on a much smaller scale. The Feeders' Division of the Texas and Southwest Cattle Raisers Association put up $6,000 for waste research. This was matched by the coordinating board of the Texas College and University System.

As work progressed, the Texas Water Quality Board (TWQB) provided a grant of $15,000 to expand the research, and the Agricultural Research Service of the US Department of Agriculture added its support to the study.

"UNIVERSITY research funds," explained Prof. Wells, "often are used to initiate research, to outline the scope of a problem. They also can be used to supplement insufficient funding for an important project, or to complete a small but important project."

In a study of the potential pollution of the Ogallala by recharging playa lake water, three agencies provided funds. The FWPCA granted $32,936; the TWQB, $4,764; and the WRC, $5,200. The research is led by Wells as the principal researcher, working with Entomology Prof. Ellis W. Huddleston, Chemistry Prof. Robert G. Rekers and Agronomy Prof. Raymond E. Meyer.

Through the WRC, the university has $28,440 invested in 13 projects underway now. These involve eight departments of the university - civil engineering, biology, entomology, geosciences, agronomy, range and wildlife management, agricultural engineering and agricultural economics.

In other research at the center, the departments of animal science and chemical engineering also are involved. Major research includes: The feedlot waste study being conducted by Wells, who is a professor of civil engineering, Chairman George F. Meenaghan of chemical engineering, Agricultural Engineering Prof. Walter Grub and Animal Science Prof. Robert C. Albin.

The development of mathematical techniques to determine the Ogallala's ability to store and yield water, a $16,791 cooperative project sponsored by the federal Office of Water Resources Research (OWRR), High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1 and the university, with Wells and Water District Chief Engineer Frank Raymer as co-principal investigators;

Development of systems for Ogallala, supported by two grants - one contract for $30,162 from OWRR and the coordinating board for work now completed, and another for $38,878 from the OWRR and the university for additional studies - and investigated by Agricultural Engineering Profs. Marvin J. Dvoracek and Rolland Z. Wheaton;

A study of the mineralogy and chemistry of soils and sediments of High Plains playas, funded for $18,978 jointly by the state and the OWRR, to be completed next summer by Agronomy Prof. B. L. Allen;

A water quality investigation of urban runoff related to the duration and intensity of storms, supported to the extent of $35,640 by the OWRR and the university, providing for Dr. Wells' pollution study using K. N. Clapp Park in Lubbock as a major research site;

And a three-year investigation of the effect of unlined treated sewage storage ponds on the quality of water in the Ogallala, directed by Wells and supported by $40,498 in OWRR and university matching funds.

A $7,948 investigation of alternate methods of mosquito control to reduce the chemical pollution of water for recharge of the Ogallala has recently been completed. It was funded by matching OWRR and state funds and conducted by Entomology Profs. Charles R. Ward and Ellis W. Huddleston.

Recently published WRC research reports include "Ogallala Aquifer, Rich Lake Area," Terry County, Texas," by Geosciences

Prof. C. C. Reeves, who also has a $3,100 WRC grant to study the location, flow and water quality of West Texas playa lake springs; a report on mosquito control research by Ward, Huddleston, Entomology Prof. Donald Ashdown and graduate student John C. Owens; and "The Effect of Feed, Design and Management on the Control of Pollution from Beef Cattle Feedlots," by Profs. Grub, Albin, Wells and Wheaton. These reports are published for distribution to those concerned with the problems involved.

WRC funded research also covers these problems: Investigations of the ecological importance of fatty acids in the reproduction of aquatic ecosystems, $2,250, by Biology Prof. R. W. Gordon;

Interbasin diversions, an annotated bibliography, $2,500, Civil Engineering Prof. George A. Whetstone;

Investigations of the parasites and predators of mosquito larvae in playa lakes, $1,000, Ward;

Herbicide movement in soils as affected by various ions in the leaching water, $1,600, Meyer;

Studies on the subterranean aquatic fauna of Texas, $2,200, Biology Prof. R. W. Mitchell;

Water use efficiency as influenced by deep placement of fertilizer, $1,200, Agronomy Prof. Eugene Coleman;

The influence of water quality on evaporation from a free water surface, $1,000, Dvoracek;

The economic importance of irrigation water to the agricultural sector of the economy of the Texas High Plains, $3,000, by Agricultural Economics Prof. James E. Osborn;

And a structural problem related to pumping plant discharge lines described as "optimum design of ring stiffened cylindrical pumping plant discharge lines," $2,800, by the newly appointed chairman of civil engineering, Dr. E. W. Kiesling.

Methodists will host children

Children from the Methodist Home in Waco will vacation in Dimmitt Aug. 4-11 with families of the First United Methodist Church.

Dale Winders is in charge of arrangements for the annual event. Rev. Dan Bruce, a former summer youth director in the church here, will accompany the children to Dimmitt.

Rotary elects three officers

The Dimmitt Rotary Club elected Charlie Hays vice-president and James Horton and Bill Behrens to the board of directors at its regular noon meeting Friday.

THE THREE new officers will serve with President R. E. Wilson, Secretary-Treasurer Earl Chaney and Past President Ike Moore on the Club's executive committee during the coming year.

Dimmitt's Rotarians are now making plans for an assembly at 7 p.m. next Thursday, and the district governor's official visit Friday, Aug. 1.

JAYCEE LAKE SEZ...

Talk about mixed emotions, the Dimmitt Jaycees have really had 'em during the past week.

WE'RE GLAD to see our secretary, Wade Maynard, move up to a bigger job but we're sorry that his new job will keep him out of town most of the week.

After 15 years as a salesman for Harman's Department Store, Wade has accepted a sales position with Torrell Leather Goods, and his sales territory includes the northwest half of Texas, all of New Mexico and western Oklahoma.

Although he remains on our membership roster, he has had to resign as secretary because he's now on the road most of the week and can't make our regular meetings.

WADE is one of the most dedicated Jaycees Dimmitt has ever had. Nearly every Dimmitt Jaycee knows that, because Wade has made Jaycees of most of them himself. He has personally brought 28 members into the Dimmitt Jaycees - a record that's probably unparalleled anywhere.

To those he signed up, he has served as an example of unselfish work for his community and his chapter.

Take his latest project, for example. It was Wade's idea for the Jaycees to sponsor a flag service project to dress up the city on holidays. He headed the project himself, assigned sales territories, and now more than 100 businesses have signed contracts for the flag service. Wade personally sold the service to 60 businesses.

FOR HIS work on the flag project, Wade was named "Jaycee of the Month" for June. Wade, we'll really miss you at our weekly meetings. But we look forward to having you back with us in your Jaycee vest on weekends and holidays.

mpus of South Plain College, and the Levelland Jaycees have a very good schedule worked out for us.

The convention will include tours of Gristown near Whitface and Boys Ranch near Pettit. Both of these fine institutions receive financial (and muscular) support from all Jaycee chapters in this area.

Also on tap are a big Mexican-food dinner, a steak banquet, work clinics and a couple of dances.

DURING the convention the Dimmitt Jaycees and Jaycee-Ettes will present a $100 check to the Texas Jaycee Hospital Foundation at Gonzales, in the name of Edwin Cartwright of Dimmitt, an "alumnus" of the Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation.

Edwin, who is the son of Sheriff and Mrs. Jack Cartwright, presented a very interesting program for us two weeks ago, telling of the physical therapy, classroom teaching, and customized braces he received at Gonzales following a car wreck which left him paralyzed when he was 16. With his radio set in his bedroom, Edwin serves as the night radio dispatcher for all law enforcement units in the area.

LAST THURSDAY was "wives' day" at our regular meeting. Nearly every member brought his wife, introduced her, and told what her best quality is. I think it got some of the guys into trouble.

At today's meeting, we will elect a new secretary to succeed Wade Maynard, and will see a film on the 1968 national Jaycee convention in Phoenix. It's every bit as big and complex as a national political convention.

WE HOPE to have State Representative Bill Clayton at next Thursday's meeting to present his annual report to us on major state issues and legislative problems.

13 new teachers hired; four more still needed

Dimmitt Schools will have at least 13 new teachers this fall, plus a high school counselor and a director of special services.

SUPT. Charlie White said this week that four teachers are still needed, including a second grade teacher, a high school football coach who can teach math, an assistant band director and a math teacher.

New teachers and reassignments within the school system include Mr. Sydna Lynn of Silverton, first grade, and Mrs. Laverne Bates, who has been working with migrant students, first grade. Mariellen Britten, a recent graduate of West Texas State University, will also teach first grade.

Mrs. Carol DuBose, who has been teaching Head Start, will teach second grade this fall. Mrs.

Ebba Sue Lingle of Marathon has been hired to teach third grade. She has two years' teaching experience.

Mrs. Virginia Crider, formerly of Midland, has seven years' teaching experience, and will teach fourth grade.

Horace Lynn of Silverton will teach sixth grade. He has 10 years of teaching prior to coming here.

Mrs. Pat Kieth of Friona and Mrs. Ruth Ringo of Levelland will be working with the Head Start program this fall. Mrs. Sandra Diaz will be teaching a bilingual section of the second grade.

New high school teachers include Mrs. June Parker, Spanish, and Miss Gwinette Lovett, English I and II. This will be the first year for each of them to teach. Both ladies are graduates of West Texas State University.

New additions to the teaching staff will also include industrial arts and homemaking teachers. Denton Lingle, teaching for the first time, is a graduate of Sul Ross State College. Mrs. Susie Ellis, a Dimmitt resident and graduate of Texas Tech, will teach homemaking classes on a half-day basis.

Kenneth Ringo of Levelland, who has had several years' teaching experience and one year of counseling work, will be the Dimmitt High School counselor this fall. R. L. Stockstill will be the director of special services, after teaching math at Dimmitt High School for the past two years.

First graders will get new system of training

A new educational system will begin for Dimmitt first graders this year.

BASED ON the Beyerler-Engelmann program developed at the University of Illinois, it is premised on the belief that every child can achieve well in the academic arena if he receives adequate instruction.

A teacher and two aides will be assigned to each classroom to provide small-group instruction in language, reading, and arithmetic. Supt. Charles White said that music, art, history and science will continue to be taught by the standard methods.

Teachers will be video-taped as they teach, so their performances can be evaluated by the teachers themselves, and then by the University of Illinois.

THE PROGRAM is financed by a federal follow-through grant of $87,423. The program will require video tape material, a person to operate the video system, a materials coordinator, a parent worker and student tester, as well as teachers and aides.

Mrs. Helen Richardson is attending a week's workshop at the University of Illinois to receive a first-hand knowledge of the work which will be done here this fall. The video operator and parent worker will attend workshops during the summer, also, White added.

White said that if the system is successful, the second grade will be changed to this program in 1970-71 and the third grade will follow suit in 1971-72.

Under the program, children are placed in small groups.

Tasks are presented in rapid succession and although the children work in a group, the teacher strives to individualize instruction. She does this by grouping the children according to ability so that all children in one group are learning skills on the same level.

She intersperses questions that are addressed to the group with questions addressed to individuals. Since children do not know when they will be called on, the must remain alert and ready to respond.

Tested children under this program have, after two years of intensive training, gained an average of 24 IQ points. The smallest gain was 10 points; the largest was 42. Average IQ upon completion of the courses was 121. The lowest was 103 and the highest was 139.

A parent program will focus on training parents in the skills of a good teacher, White said. The mother will learn how to induce desirable behavior and how to teach the skills that are being taught to the children in the classroom.

the nation's first cooperative-owned corn milling plant.

As Isaacs talked, the congressmen studied a scale model of the corn mill now being built. Isaacs fielded questions on contracted acreage and the mill's products.

THE VISITING dignitaries relaxed and had a carrot-eating good time at the noisy Dimmitt Produce Co. plant, where they saw tons of carrots, onions and potatoes being graded, sacked and shipped. All seemed intrigued with the hustle-bustle and the enormous amount of vegetables being processed.

In the new potato section of the plant, Homer West, Dimmitt manager for La Mantia, Cullum, Collier & Co. — which operates the plant for Dimmitt Produce Co. — discussed the potato market.

"Potatoes are being $2.75 per hundred-weight now," West explained.

"How much of that does the farmer get?" asked Congressman W. R. "Bob" Poage of Waco, chairman of the House Agriculture Committee.

"The farmer will come out with about $1 of it after paying his expenses," West answered. "On an average yield, that would be $100 to $150 per acre."

Before finishing their three-day tour of Congressman Bob Price's 18th District, the visitors received an intensive short course on the agriculture and industry of this area, as leaders throughout the Panhandle-Plains outlined the progress and problems of their particular crops and products.

From Dimmitt, the tour bus drove past the Dimmitt Feed Yards six miles west of town, then stopped briefly at a cucumber field in harvest before going to Hereford, where the group had lunch. The whirlwind tour ended Saturday evening and the group returned to Washington Sunday.

Wrecks average seven per month

Motorists averaged seven wrecks a month on Castro County's highways during the first half of 1969.

THE TEXAS Highway Patrol investigated seven accidents on rural highways in Castro County during June, according to Sgt. Vernon Cawthon, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in an estimated property damage of $3,468.

The rural traffic accident summary for Castro County during the first six months of 1969 shows 43 accidents thus far. These accidents resulted in one person killed, 21 injured, and an estimated property damage of $31,969.

DURING the first six months of 1969 there were 1,470 traffic deaths, or two less than the same period of 1968 in Texas. However, if past trends continue, the last six months will probably far exceed the first six months. In 1968, 2,009 traffic deaths occurred during the last six months.

Sgt. Cawthon stated, "With an all-time record of 49 deaths over the July 4 weekend, we are not only well ahead in comparison to the beginning of the second six months in 1968, but well on our way to establishing a record year in 1969."

Smithson earns top FFA degree

Teddy Smithson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rayphard Smithson of Dimmitt, received the Lone Star Farmer Degree at the State Future Farmers of America convention last week in Fort Worth.

THE DEGREE is the highest honor awarded by the state association of FFA. It is awarded annually to two percent of the membership in the state. Leadership, citizenship, cooperation and supervised farming programs are areas in which a member must excel to receive the degree.

Smithson has been active in the Dimmitt FFA for the past three years. He has exhibited livestock at several major shows as well as local and area stock shows.

His supervised farming program has consisted of breeding swine, steers, lambs and barrows, and raising several crops. He has served on several committees within the chapter and has been delegate to district and area FFA meetings.

Smithson will be vice-president of the Dimmitt Chapter of the FFA in 1969-70.

wouldn't go up before the second election.

SO WHILE the original election was conducted under the provisions of the Texas Constitution, Saturday's re-run will be conducted under the terms of the new Supreme Court ruling.

"Our bonding attorneys think we may have to use the results of both elections to get the bond issue qualified legally," City Manager E. B. Noble said.

If voters again approved the $200,000 bond issue Saturday, the city would replace the present sewage treatment plant with a new "racetrack" type of system designed to accommodate a population of 7,500, would extend sewage service to the Parkway Addition of US 385 south, and would enlarge the sewer mains serving the huge Castro County Agricultural Housing Project in East Dimmitt.

Noble said the proposed new treatment plant should pay for itself without an increase in the city's sewage service fees.

Three more join pageant parade

Three more beauties from the Panhandle-Plains area entered the Miss Grain Sorghum of the Nation competition during the past week.

THEY ARE Treena Don Bryant of Muleshoe, Rickie Gilbert of Shamrock and Pat Roberts of Friona.

Their entries in the popular beauty-talent event increased the pageant field to six, with the Aug. 1 entry deadline just eight days away.

Miss Bryant is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Jean Bryant of Muleshoe and is the reigning Miss Muleshoe.

THE 17-YEAROLD beauty is a cousin of Diane Bryant, who won the Miss Grain Sorghum crown two years ago. Sponsored by the Muleshoe Jaycees, she will perform a saxophone solo in the talent competition.

Used homes gain in buyer appeal

Used or older homes in well-maintained neighborhoods are gaining in buyer appeal because of limited supply for sale and restricted competition of new houses, which are generally priced higher.

THE combination of increasing demand and diminishing supply makes the climate highly favorable for the family selling a home, says Jane Berry, Extension housing and home furnishings specialist. Environment always has been an important factor, but it currently occupies a particularly prominent place in housing demand.

The average buyer of an existing home is often a previous owner, more sophisticated than his counterpart of the past, she says. Although scientific developments have increased comfort and reduced manual labor in the modern home, location continues to hold priority in home selection to most families.

According to a recent report by the Department of Research of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, demand for older homes had risen substantially in 44 percent of the communities included in the survey. Less than 10 percent of the communities reported a decline in the demand for the existing single-family home.

The volume of used homes available for re-sale was down in over 80 percent of the communities, adds Mrs. Berry.
