Congress Extends Draft That Could Be Tightened Very Fast In Emergency

Defense Secretary Says Army Will Not Resume Draft As Long As Can Meet Strength From Enlistments

WASHINGTON, June 29 (UP)—In an emergency, the present easy-going draft regulations "could be tightened like hell" and still stay within the selective service law which congress has extended for a year.

A selective service spokesman, pointing this out, said however there is no plan now to alter the regulations under which only single men without dependents—and none at all since January, 1949—have been called to service.

Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson said the armed forces will not resume the draft as long as volunteers fill their authorized strength.

Under the law almost any man at least 19 and not over 25 could be drafted for 21 months military service, even if he has a wife and children. Only a presidential order now bars drafting of men with dependents.

President Truman set up the existing draft regulations soon after the peacetime draft law was enacted, in June 1948. Selective service said today that no revisions of these regulations are in sight.

The presidential orders require deferment of all men living with their wives or children and of others who have bonafide dependents. The law, however, does not require this. It leaves dependency deferments entirely up to the president.

The law authorizes, and the regulations require, deferment also of men who are essential to the national interest, safety or health, because of their positions in agriculture, science, industry "or other endeavors." Local boards decide who is and who is not in this category.

With few and small calls to be filled, local boards have interpreted the occupational deferment provisions very broadly, giving the registrant the benefit of the doubt. With a big demand for men, they could be a lot tougher.

The only limit in the law on the number of men to be drafted is that total strength of the Army, Navy and Air Force can't exceed 837,000, 666,000, and 502,000 men respectively.

Practically, there is a much tighter limit, set by the amount of money Congress appropriates. Appropriations for this year allow for the three services maximum strengths of 639,000, 499,000, and 417,000 men respectively.

All three services are somewhat under this strength. However, the Navy and Air Force don't like the draft and aren't likely to use it. The Army, short about 36,000 men, hopes to get them by voluntary recruitment.

Here are the highlights of the draft law, which Congress has voted to extend to July 9, 1951:

Registration: All men, on their 18th birthdays.

Four Fighters Just Make It Home In War

ITAZUKE Airbase, Japan, June 29 (UP)—The pilots of four American P-80 Shooting Star jet fighter planes shot up by the Communist North Koreans rode home safely on a "wing and a prayer" today.

One jet didn't make it. It crashed 20 miles at sea but the pilot was rescued after he bailed out.

Three B-26 medium attack bombers also have been lost in the past two days. But an Air Force spokesman said the casualties were "surprisingly small" considering the dangerous operation the planes carried out and the conditions under which they have operated.

This base now has been alerted against possible retaliatory night bombings.

New anti-aircraft batteries and night fighter patrols have been set up. But no blackout has been ordered yet.

To streamline operations at the base, the lumbering twin-engined Dakota transports were sent to neighboring fields. Their last mission from here was to carry armed and kit-equipped American signal corps troops Southward at dawn to set up a communications system along the Korean war front.

Meanwhile, the jets and bombers continued to shuttle to the mainland on bombing and strafing raids to help save the U. S. Korean headquarters town of Suwon from the Communists.

Softball Teams Play At Cisco 7:30 Tonight

The Ranger junior and senior softball teams will play Cisco tonight. Game time for the juniors is 7:30; for the seniors, 8:15 p. m.

Simpson pitched a one-hitter Tuesday night, allowed only four men to get on base, three via walks and struck out 9 men to beat Gorman, 8 to 1. W. J. Arterburn led the Ranger attack, hitting three for four and getting one of the two home runs of the evening. L. Arterburn got the other.

In Tuesday's duel with Gorman, the local junior team was beaten 10 to 9. Gorman hit only twice, but used walks and errors to pile up their ten runs. The local juniors were much better in the hitting departments, knocking nine for bases.

Mrs. Fisher's Services Set

Gravestone services for Mrs. Florence Anne Fisher, formerly of Ranger, will be held at 2 p. m. Friday at the Pioneer cemetery.

The Morris Funeral Home will have charge of arrangements here; the Lamar Smith Funeral Home will have charge of services at 9 a. m. Friday at Dallas. Mrs. Fisher was a pioneer Ranger resident.

Peanut Prices Holding Firm In Southwest

Peanut markets held firm in the Southwest this week as the new crop ran later than usual, the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration reports.

Growth of new crop peanuts continued to show good progress. However, many farmers felt that new crop movement from South Texas would not begin until August.

Crop conditions also reminded generally favorable in the country's other two major producing sections. Although the crop is not suffering, rains would help in the Southeast area. Excessive moisture in the Virginia - Carolina area is causing heavy top growth and old plants were falling to spread or bunch properly.

Supplies of old crop peanuts were light, but so was demand. As a result, prices for edible peanuts were a shade firmer than last week or a year ago. Shelled No. 1 Spanish peanuts sold at 17 1/4 to 17 1/2 a pound in the Southwest.

Supplies of peanut meal and oil were limited as crushing operations were light.

Occasional sales of peanut meal of 41 per cent protein content were made at $68.50 to $69.50 per ton, f.o.b. mills. Prices were about 50c a ton higher than last week but $13.50 to $14.50 above a year ago.

Extremely light offerings of peanut oil found prices a little higher than the previous week despite some decline in the general market for vegetable oils.

U. S. Steps Up Arms Shipments To Western Europe, Other Nations

By Donald J. Goskales United Press Staff Correspondent WASHINGTON, June 29 (UP)—The United States is stepping up its arms shipments to Western Europe and other free nations in an effort to be ready for any new trouble with Soviet Russia, it was disclosed today.

Although no one knew definitely that the Russians and their satellites are planning any operations outside of Korea, one top official told newsmen:

"We are aware that the event in Korea may be just one of a series of unpleasant things if we let our guard down."

Scattered rains were expected to continue in North Texas today, bringing slightly cooler weather. Most of the state recorded temperatures in the 80's by midmorning.

Nation After Nation Enlists In Fight To Help Stop Red Koreans

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., June 29 (UP)—Nation after nation enlisted today in the United Nations drive to help the United States force the Communist invaders from Southern Korea.

Gen Douglas MacArthur seemed destined to lead an international force of powerful military and naval units assigned by at least eight foreign nations in addition to American forces.

On addition, pledges of aid and assignment of token fighting contingents were anticipated from many smaller countries.

Great Britain, Australia and New Zealand were the first UN members to pitch in with valuable shooting aid and assign strong naval combat units to back up American units already in the field.

Canada, France, China, the Netherlands and the Philippines were expected to follow suit quickly in assembling military might to enforce UN sanctions against

Six Americans Killed So Far In Fighting

By United Press WASHINGTON, June 29 (UP)—John Foster Dulles returned by plane from Korea and Japan today and promptly denied he had said the use of U. S. ground troops in South Korea is very possible.

South Korean armies hurled a counter-offensive at the Communist today and recaptured the great Kimp'o air field Northwest of Seoul.

The fortunes of war shifted suddenly against the Communist who were massed along the Han River line below Seoul. And the United States Navy went into action with an attack against Communist bridge heads on the South Korean coast.

Two things lifted the morale and the will to fight of the Southern Korean forces:

1. General Douglas MacArthur made a flying trip to the battle fields amid persistent reports that American ground troops were about to go into action.

2. More and more American planes were in the skies, covering the Southern Korean ground operations. B-29s softened up the Kimp'o air field before the infantry started the assault.

Military spokesmen in Washington indicated the Communists were far from likely to fight off the Southern Korean forces.

General Douglas MacArthur made a flying trip to the battle fields amid persistent reports that American ground troops were about to go into action.

Thousands of trucks were rolling South Korean infantry up to the Han River line, and it appeared a major battle was shaping up. American fighter planes patrolled the skies, and jet fighters flew 12 sorties without encountering any enemy planes.

Washington announced that six Americans had been killed so far in the Korean war. Their names will be announced after next of kin have been notified.

John Foster Dulles, foreign affairs counselor, who is flying back to Washington from the Far East said he thought "the use of ground troops in Korea is very possible."

He declined to say how soon the ground troops may go into action.

MacArthur, wearing his battered garrison cap, went to within a few hundred yards of the fighting lines south of Seoul. Smoke was curling in the skies and the general ordered some bridges up ahead blown up so the Communists could not roll tanks across them.

During his visit to the front MacArthur conferred with President Syngman Rhee of Korea and U. S. Ambassador John Muccio. Just before Rhee and Muccio took off in a plane after conferring with MacArthur they were strafed by Communist fighters. They rolled into a ditch, stayed there until the enemy planes departed and escaped unhurt.

Phillies Back In First Place By The Hurling Of C. Simmons

By Carl Lundquist
NEW YORK, June 29 (UP)—The youthful and yeasty Phillies were back in first place for the first time since May 29 today with the fine hurling of young Curt Simmons, the incredible collapse of the Dodger pitching staff, and the spurt of the New York Giants all contributing factors.

on the baffling Brooks, who suffered a 10 to 3 setback at the hands of the New York Giants. In the only other National League game, the last place Reds also tightened things up a little by beating the Pirates, 8 to 3, and advancing to within a game and a half of seventh place.

Meanwhile, the Tigers pulled away to a 4 and one half game lead in the American League, winning a 9 to 3 victory over Chicago while the Yankees suffered a 4 to 3 defeat to the Senators in 12 innings, while third place Cleveland dropped a 4 to 3 decision to the St. Louis Browns as Bobby Feller failed in quest of his 200th victory. The Red Sox made it five in a row for their new pilot, Steve O'Neill, by beating the Athletics, 7 to 5 in 11 innings at Philadelphia.

Yesterday's star—Young Curt Simmons of the Phillies, who pitched them back into first place with a 3 to 2 victory over the Braves—his ninth.

Homecoming Jamboree Set At De Leon

Mayor W. B. Nowlin of De Leon has arranged for the staging of the Third Annual De Leon Homecoming Jamboree at Hodges Park, 3 miles east of De Leon, on Tuesday, July 4—and has lined up some of the best artists and most popular radio artists in America for his jamboree.

Heading the program will be Hank Williams, recognized as perhaps the No. 1 recording artist in the nation, and his Drifting Cowboys, stars from NBC's Grand Ole Opry.

Nowlin will promote shows in five Texas cities, including Fort Worth and Dallas.

Wally Fowler and his Oak Ridge Quartet, also NBC stars from radio station WSM in Nashville, Tennessee, will be on hand for the De Leon show; the Rangers Quartet from Raleigh, N. C.; the Blackwood Brothers of Shandora, Iowa; the Happy Goodwin Family of Mayfield, Kentucky, are other out-of-state performers who will be at De Leon to offer continuous musical entertainment from 10 a. m. until 5 p. m.

Texas will also offer its share of stars, including the Stamps Ozark Quartet from radio station KWFT, Wichita Falls; Marion Snider and his Imperial Quartet, Dallas; Frank Stamps and the Original Stamps Quartet of Dallas; and the Friendly Four Quartet, Fort Worth.

Admission Prices Set
 Mr. Nowlin, who estimates that with favorable weather, the crowd should match the 7,000 which came two years ago when he promoted an all-star show headed by Eddie Arnold. Admission prices have been set at $1 for adults, children 25c, with children under 6 free.

"There will be plenty of free ice water, free parking, too," continues Mr. Nowlin, who invites folks

Well, we may stave off war this time—that is if Russia doesn't get to feeling the time is now instead of somewhere within the next five years.

But we're going to be lucky if we don't lose Korea. Unless Russia makes a complete backdown—which she doesn't have to save the world from war—we will have to use United States troops to reconquer the country.

And even if Russia doesn't enter the holocaust, it will be an expensive process as far as men's lives are concerned.

Yet if we fail to win back Korea we will lose face all over the world.

It's going to be a tough decision for administration leaders. A decision they wouldn't have had to make if America's foreign policy had been squared away two years or as late as a month ago.

From rumors about town, which I haven't checked yet, the war in Korea boomed tire and automobile sales. This was true all over the state.

The local Highway 80 Booster Club meets tonight. And at the meeting, they will lay down policy for their delegate to push at the El Paso national convention.

The National Guard is getting ready for summer camp. Bruce Harris, the commander of the local guard, is asking the cooperation of all businessmen in making it possible for their employees to attend the guard camp.

Not being an employer, maybe I got the wrong slant on this.

But I think if I figured up the taxes I saved because the US didn't have to keep a bigger standing army because of the National Guard; if I figured the sacrifice that members of the guard make in time; and if I added up the added security that the guard gives the US—I think maybe that I'd have a pretty liberal policy in the granting of leaves for summer camp.

And I know that as editor I'd kick a reporter in the kaboodle, wherever that is, who wrote as long and erummy a sentence as that last one.

But maybe you get the idea after three readings.

Anyway, to get back to the guard. They are the first gys, after the Marines to get thrown into battle. And in the case of the Philippines—year 1941—they beat the Marines.

If that comes out the way I wrote it, I'll eat our navy linyper's hat—that is if he'll smother it between a couple filets.

The local softball club has a game tomorrow night—and another on July 4. The details to this will be found on the front page.

The lights are down at the football field.

And my informant tells me that Quarterback Club dues are coming in mighty slow.

This being the case, the foot-

Americans Do Okay In Match At Wimbledon

WIMBLEDON, Eng., June 29 (UP)—The awesome American tide rolled onward in the Wimbledon tennis tournament Wednesday with 19 of the original U. S. delegation of 22 players still in competition in singles.

Wednesday's program of action on the famed Wimbledon Courts includes matches in women's singles, men's doubles, and mixed doubles.

Heading the U. S. jassies appearing in singles was Doris Hart of Jacksonville, Fla., the betting favorite, who met Bibbi Sanden of Sweden in a second round match. Dorothy Head of Alameda, Calif., was matched against Mrs. J. Schmier of Holland; and Nancy Morrison of Palm Beach, Fla., faced sixth-seeded Mrs. Betty Harrison, the highest-seeded non-American.

Misses Hart and Head were favored, but Miss Morrison was an underdog.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Maybe This'll Wake Us Up!

Because a couple of thoughtless drivers threw a newspaper out of their car yesterday, Miss Gilbert, our school principal, nearly had a bad accident.

She was following them on the highway and the paper flattened over her windshield, so she couldn't see. In a minute her little coupe was across the line—right in the path of an oncoming trailer-truck. It missed... but only just!

The parties were recognized and soon as I heard about it I ran over to Sheriff Harper—demanded they be brought up on charges. But Harper says: "Hold on, Joe. Let's talk this out, over supper and a glass of beer at Andy's."

He pointed out that those men aren't criminals. Just careless, like a lot of us seem to be getting these days, judging from the trash you see along roadsides. From where I sit, this near accident may be the lesson we need to make us stop littering our roads—and start showing a little tolerant consideration for our neighbors!

ball team may be having to hold matches to see the ball when fall weather rolls around.

Now this may slow down the ball game some. But possibly they could add interest to it by making the opposing ball carrier carry a torch and the Ranger ball carrier run in absolute darkness.

Of course this is all a very dim possibility—and just look the way that word dim fits in—but still it does take money to put up lights. It takes a lot of money, about $3,500, companies having the policy they do of wanting to get paid.

Congress Extends Draft That Could Be Tightened Very Fast In Emergency

Defense Secretary Says Army Will Not Resume Draft As Long As Can Meet Strength From Enlistments

WASHINGTON, June 29 (UP)—In an emergency, the present easy-going draft regulations "could be tightened like hell" and still stay within the selective service law which congress has extended for a year.

A selective service spokesman, pointing this out, said however there is no plan now to alter the regulations under which only single men without dependents—and none at all since January, 1949—have been called to service.

Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson said the armed forces will not resume the draft as long as volunteers fill their authorized strength.

Under the law almost any man at least 19 and not over 25 could be drafted for 21 months military service, even if he has a wife and children. Only a presidential order now bars drafting of men with dependents.

President Truman set up the existing draft regulations soon after the peacetime draft law was enacted, in June 1948. Selective service said today that no revisions of these regulations are in sight.

The presidential orders require deferment of all men living with their wives or children and of others who have bonafide dependents. The law, however, does not require this U. leaves dependency deferments entirely up to the president.

The law authorizes, and the regulations require, deferment also of men who are essential to the national interest, safety or health, because of their positions in agriculture, science, industry "or other endeavors." Local boards decide who is and who is not in this category.

With few and small calls to be filled, local boards have interpreted the occupational deferment provisions very broadly, giving the registrant the benefit of the doubt. With a big demand for men, they could be a lot tougher.

The only limit in the law on the number of men to be drafted is that total strength of the Army, Navy and Air Force can't exceed 837,000, 666,000, and 502,000 men respectively.

Practically, there is a much tighter limit, set by the amount of money Congress appropriates. Appropriations for this year allow for the three services maximum strengths of 639,000, 499,000, and 417,000 men respectively. All three services are somewhat under this strength. However, the Navy and Air Force don't like the draft and aren't likely to use it. The Army, short about 36,000 men, hopes to get them by voluntary recruitment.

Here are the highlights of the draft law, which Congress has voted to extend to July 9, 1951:

Registration: All men, on their 18th birthdays.

Four Fighters Just Make It Home In War

ITAZUKE Airbase, Japan, June 29 (UP)—The pilots of four American F-80 Shooting Star jet fighter planes shot up by the Communist North Koreans rode home safely on a "wing and a prayer" today.

One jet didn't make it. It crashed 20 miles at sea but the pilot was rescued after he bailed out.

Three B-26 medium attack bombers also have been lost in the past two days. But an Air Force spokesman said the casualties were "surprisingly small" considering the dangerous operation the planes carried out and the conditions under which they have operated.

This base now has been alerted against possible retaliatory night bombings.

New anti-aircraft batteries and night fighter patrols have been set up. But no blackout has been ordered yet.

To streamline operations at the base, the lumbering twin-engine Dakota transports were sent to neighboring fields. Their last mission from here was to carry armor and kit-equipped American signal corps troops Southward at dawn to set up a communications system along the Korean war front.

Meanwhile, the jets and bombers continued to shuttle to the mainland on bombing and strafing raids to help save the U. S. Korean headquarters town of Suwon from the Communists.

Softball Teams Play At Cisco 7:30 Tonight

The Ranger junior and senior softball teams will play Cisco tonight. Game time for the juniors is 7:30; for the seniors, 8:15 p. m.

Simpson pitched a one-hitter Tuesday night, allowed only four men to get on base, three via walks; and struck out 9 men to beat Gorman, 8 to 1. W. J. Arterburn led the Ranger attack, hitting three for four and getting one of the two home runs of the evening. L. Arterburn got the other.

In Tuesday's duel with Gorman, the local junior team was beaten 10 to 9. Gorman hit only twice, but used walks and errors to pile up their ten runs. The local juniors were much better in the hitting departments, knocking nine for bases.

Peanut Prices Holding Firm In Southwest

Peanut markets held firm in the Southwest this week as the new crop ran later than usual, the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration reports.

Growth of new crop peanuts continued to show good progress. However, many farmers felt that new crop movement from South Texas would not begin until August.

Crop conditions also remained generally favorable in the country's other two major producing sections. Although the crop is not suffering, rains would help in the Southeast area. Excessive moisture in the Virginia-Carolina area is causing heavy top growth and plants were failing to spread or bunch properly.

Supplies of old crop peanuts were tight, but so was demand. As a result, prices for edible peanuts were a shade firmer than last week or a year ago. Shelled No. 1 Spanish peanuts sold at 17 1/4 to 17 1/2 a pound in the Southwest.

Supplies of peanut meal and oil were limited as crushing operations were light.

Occasional sales of peanut meal of 41 per cent protein content were made at $68.50 to $69.50 per ton, f.o.b. mills. Prices were about 50c a ton higher than last week but $13.50 to $14.50 above a year ago.

Extremely light offerings of peanut oil found prices a little higher than the previous week despite some decline in the general market for vegetable oils.

North Korean Reds drove within 10 miles of U. S. Military Headquarters at Suwon (1) after the apparent capture of Seoul (2), capital of the South Korean Republic. American jet fighters and bombers from Fukuoka, Japan (inset) carried out bombing and strafing attacks on Red invaders, confining their actions to ground support in the Red-held area south of the 38th parallel. President Syngman Rhee's government fled to Taiden (Taejon) 85 miles south of Seoul. (NEA Telephoto).

Nation After Nation Enlists In Fight To Help Stop Red Koreans

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., June 29 (UP)—Nation after nation enlisted today in the United Nations force to help the United States drive the Communist invaders from Southern Korea.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur seemed destined to lead an international force of powerful military and naval units assigned by at least eight foreign nations in addition to American forces.

In addition, pledges of aid and assignment of token fighting contingents were anticipated from many smaller countries.

Great Britain, Australia and New Zealand were the first UN members to pitch in with valuable shooting aid and assign strong naval combat units to back up American units already in the field.

Canada, France, China, the Netherlands and the Philippines were expected to follow suit quickly in assembling military might to enforce UN sanctions against

U. S. Steps Up Arms Shipments To Western Europe, Other Nations

By Donald J. Gonzales

WASHINGTON, June 29 (UP)—The United States is stepping up its arms shipments to Western Europe and other free nations in an effort to be ready for any new trouble with Soviet Russia, it was disclosed today.

Although no one knew definitely that the Russians and their satellites are planning any operations outside of Korea, one key official told newsmen:

"We are aware that the event in Korea may be just one of a series of unpleasant things if we let our guard down."

Disclosure by state and defense department sources that arms shipments have been stepped up since the South Korean invasion underscored intelligence reports that a major "war of nerves" is boiling in Eastern Europe.

According to these reports, Soviet ships and planes in substantial force are maneuvering in the Black Sea, uncomfortably close to friendly Turkey, and the satellite armies and air forces have also expanded their operations.

In an effort to bolster U. S. military strength in Europe, some high ranking military officers were seeking to swing Congress behind new moves to bring Spain and Western Europe into the Western defense orbit.

President Truman and Secretary of State Dean Acheson had another opportunity today to report directly to the American people on the status of the cold war and on the administration's decision to intervene in the Korean war under United Nations authority.

Truman scheduled a news conference (at 4 p. m., EDT.) while Acheson was slated to address the National Convention of the American Newspaper Guild (CIO) (also at 4 p. m.).

Official Washington awaited with some apprehension Russia's response to the State Department's request that Moscow use its power to halt the Korean fighting.

Moscow's answer—one that may chart the course of world events toward peace or war—may be delayed until the Kremlin gets a better idea of the effectiveness of American military intervention.

Acheson made it clear yesterday this government does not expect an all-out war.

The 21 Latin American countries, through the organization of American states endorsed the Security Council's sanctions resolution and pledged a solid front against the Korean Communists.

The North Atlantic Pact nations, through their planning board for ocean shipping, speeded plans for joint deployment of merchant ships. The board includes the United States, Britain, France, Belgium, Netherlands, Luxembourg, Italy, Norway, Denmark, Iceland and Portugal. It controls more than 18,000 vessels representing three-fourths of the world's merchant craft.

Russia branded the UN military sanctions on the Northern Koreans illegal. In a note to UN secretary-general Trygve Lie, Kremlin leaders said the Security Council resolution to help Southern Korea was void because Nationalist China participated in the voting.

Six Americans Killed So Far In Fighting

By United Press
WASHINGTON, June 29 (UP)—John Foster Dulles returned by plane from Korea and Japan today and promptly denied he had said the use of U. S. ground troops in South Korea is very possible.

South Korean armies hurled a counter-offensive at the Communist today and recaptured the great Kimp'o air field Northwest of Seoul.

The fortunes of war shifted suddenly against the Communist who were massed along the Han River line below Seoul. And the United States Navy went into action with an attack against Communist bridge heads on the South Korean coast.

Two things lifted the morale and the will to fight of the Southern Korean forces:

1. General Douglas MacArthur made a flying trip to the battle fields amid persistent reports that American ground troops were about to go into action.

2. More and more American planes were in the skies, covering the Southern Korean ground operations. B-29s softened up the Kimp'o air field before the infantry started the assault.

Military spokesmen in Washington indicated the Communists were far from licked, despite today's successes. They said battle conditions South of Seoul still were "fluid" and the Suwon air field, South of Korea where the United States air force makes its headquarters, probably could be held.

Thousands of trucks were rolling South Korean infantry up to the Han River line, and it appeared a major battle was shaping up. American fighter planes patrolled the skies, and jet fighters flew 12 sorties without encountering any enemy planes.

Washington announced that six Americans had been killed so far in the Korean war. Their names will be announced after next of kin have been notified.

John Foster Dulles, foreign affairs counselor, who is flying back to Washington from the Far East said he thought "the use of ground troops in Korea is very possible."

He declined to say how soon the ground troops may go into action.

MacArthur, wearing his battered garrison cap, went to within a few hundred yards of the fighting lines south of Seoul. Smoke was curling in the skies and the general ordered some bridges up ahead blown up so the Communists could not roll tanks across them.

During his visit to the front MacArthur conferred with President Syngman Rhee of Korea and U. S. Ambassador John Muccio. Just before Rhee and Muccio took off in a plane after conferring with MacArthur they were strayed by Communist fighters. They rolled into a ditch, stayed there until the enemy planes departed and escaped unhurt.

Misses Creager Dorris Attend Youth Assembly

GEORGETOWN, June 27—Lanita Ruth Creager and Ann Dorris of Ranger were among the 210 youths from the Central Texas Conference who congregated in Georgetown last week for the fifteenth annual senior youth assembly held at Southwestern University.

The purpose of the assembly was to induce Christian fellowship and to give Christian training in youth work of the church. The assembly's theme this year was "Jesus Way—Our Way Through Church and Vocation." Platform speaker on this topic was the emcee, recently known Dr. W. McFerrin Stowe, pastor of Hillwater, Okla.

MacArthur Returns From Front

TOKYO, June 29 (UP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur returned to Tokyo tonight after a front line inspection of the Korean war and long conferences with American and South Korean officials there. The Supreme Commander in the Far East conferred near the fighting front with President Syngman Rhee and U. S. Ambassador John J. Muccio on means of saving Korea from Communism. Rhee and Muccio underwent military and air attacks just before the plane which took them to the conferences with MacArthur took off to return them to their base, United Press Correspondent Jack James reported from Taejon, Korea.

The Little Things We Notice—

... in preparing your abstract often grow into big things as time passes. For example, if the deed is drawn in a careless manner by an inexperienced person it may be full of errors which will show up in your abstract when it comes time to sell, get a loan or lease for oil and gas. The abstractor must copy the instrument just as he finds it on record. The moral is, have your legal documents drawn carefully and only by experienced conveyancers.

Phillies Back In First Place By The Hurling Of C. Simmons

By Carl Lundquist
NEW YORK, June 29 (UP)—The youthful and yeasty Phillies were back in first place for the first time since May 29 today with the fine hurling of young Curt Simmons, the incredible collapse of the Dodger pitching staff, and the spurt of the New York Giants all contributing factors.
The Phillies, who topped the Braves, 3 to 2 in a whiz-bang pitching duel at Boston Tuesday, were only three percentage points ahead of the Cardinals, who won a pair from the Cubs, 3 to 2, and 4 to 1, and only a half game up on the baffling Brooks, who suffered a 10 to 3 setback at the hands of the New York Giants. In the only other National League game, the last place Reds also tightened things up a little by beating the Pirates, 3 to 2, and advancing to within a game and a half of seventh place.

Meanwhile, the Tigers pulled away to a 4 and one half game lead in the American League, winning a 9 to 3 victory over Chicago while the Yankees suffered a 4 to 3 defeat to the Senators in 12 innings, while third place Cleveland dropped a 4 to 3 decision to the St. Louis Browns as Bobby Feller failed in quest of his 200th victory. The Red Sox made it five in a row for their new pilot, Steve O'Neill, by beating the Athletics, 7 to 5 in 11 innings at Philadelphia.
Yesterday's star—Young Curt Simmons of the Phillies, who pitched them back into first place with a 3 to 2 victory over the Braves—his ninth.

Ranger Rambling

Well, we may stave off war this time—that is if Russia doesn't get to feeling the time is now instead of somewhere within the next five years.

But we're going to be lucky if we don't lose Korea. Unless Russia makes a complete backdown—which she doesn't have to—save the world from war—we will have to use United States troops to reconquer the country.

And even if Russia doesn't enter the holocaust, it will be an expensive process as far as men's lives are concerned.

Yet if we fail to win back Korea we will lose face all over the world.

It's going to be a tough decision for administration leaders. A decision they wouldn't have had to make if America's foreign policy had been squared away two years or as late as a month ago.

From rumors about town, which I haven't checked yet, the war in Korea boomed tire and automobile sales. This was true all over the state.

The local Highway 80 Booster Club meets tonight. And at the meeting, they will lay down policy for their delegate to push at the El Paso national convention.

The National Guard is getting ready for summer camp. Bruce Harris, the commander of the local guard, is asking the cooperation of all businessmen in making it possible for their employees to attend the guard camp.

Not being an employer, maybe I got the wrong slant on this.

But I think if I figured up the taxes I saved because the US didn't have to keep a bigger standing army because of the National Guard; if I figured the sacrifice that members of the guard make in time; and if I added up the added security that the guard gives the US—I think maybe that I'd have a pretty liberal policy in the granting of leaves for summer camp.

And I know that as editor I'd kick a reporter in the kaboose, wherever that is, who wrote as long and crummy a sentence as that last one.

But maybe you get the idea after three readings.

Anyway, to get back to the guard. They are the first guys after the Marines to get thrown into battle. And in the case of the Philippines—year 1941—they beat the Marines.

If that comes out the way I wrote it, I'll eat our navy line-typewriter's hat—that is if he'll smother it between a couple files.

The local softball club has a game tomorrow night—and another on July 4. The details to this will be found on the front page.

The lights are down at the football field. And my informant tells me that Quarterback Club dues are coming in mighty slow. This being the case, the foot-

Americans Do Okay In Match At Wimbledon

WIMBLEDON, Eng., June 29 (UP)—The awesome American tide rolled onward in the Wimbledon tennis tournament Wednesday with 19 of the original U. S. delegation of 22 players still in competition in singles.

Wednesday's program of action on the famed Wimbledon Courts includes matches in women's singles, men's doubles, and mixed doubles.

Heading the U. S. ladies appearing in singles was Doris Hart of Jacksonville, Fla., the betting favorite, who met Bibbi Sanden of Sweden in a second round match. Dorothy Head of Alameda, Calif., was matched against Mrs. J. Schmier of Holland; and Nancy Morrison of Palm Beach, Fla., faced sixth-seeded Mrs. Betty Harrison, the highest-seeded non-American.

Misses Hart and Head were favored, but Miss Morrison was an underdog.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Maybe This'll Wake Us Up!

Because a couple of thoughtless drivers threw a newspaper out of their car yesterday, Miss Gilbert, our school principal, nearly had a bad accident.

She was following them on the highway and the paper flattened over her windshield, so she couldn't see. In a minute her little coupe was across the line—right in the path of an oncoming trailer-truck. It missed... but only just!

The parties were recognized and soon as I heard about it I ran over to Sheriff Harper—demanded they be brought up on charges. But Harper says: "Hold on, Joe. Let's talk this out, over supper and a glass of beer at Andy's."

He pointed out that those men aren't criminals. Just careless, like a lot of us seem to be getting these days, judging from the trash you see along roadsides. From where I sit, this near accident may be the lesson we need to make us stop littering our roads—and start showing a little tolerant consideration for our neighbors!

Chrysler, Union Edge Toward Pension Contract

DETROIT, May 1. (UP)—The longest non-stop negotiating session in the auto industry's stormy labor history edged Chrysler Corporation and the CIO United Auto Workers closer to a pension contract today.

Bargaining with the announced hope of ending the walkout in its 97th day, teams of negotiators took turns eating, napping, and working on complicated provisions of the $100 monthly pension program and other non-economic demands.

By 9 a. m. they were in the 43rd consecutive hour of the current session, which started at 2 p. m. Saturday. The previous record was the 30-hour meeting which ended the Ford Motor Company strike last May.

Hopes had been high for days that the last obstacles might melt away at any moment. The feeling prevailed again today. Shortly after midnight optimism reached a new high when radio stations set up microphones to record the expected signing.

But the drab routine continued at its regular pace. The negotiating teams working separately on individual provisions of the pact, came and went from meals and brief rest periods.

Observers reported that new provisions were tossed in for discussion during later hours of the present session but for the most part little was said to alter the trend of the contract writing. No details leaked out.

Says Red March On Berlin May Be Nasty Situation

WASHINGTON, May 1. (UP)—Sen. Millard E. Tydings, D., Md., says a planned Communist Youth march on Berlin later this month could provoke a "nasty situation" and perhaps "some shooting."

Tydings is chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee.

His statement was the third warning to Russia in a week that the western allies would use force to keep order in their sectors of Berlin.

Secretary of State Dean Acheson told his news conference last week that when all the "commotion is over, we will still be in Berlin."

A top government official who declined to be identified had said the Allies would use force, if necessary, to stay there.

The Communists plan to send 500,000 East German youths into Western sections of the city late in May.

There have been persistent reports that U. S. troops in Berlin are receiving new weapons and are being trained in street fighting.

BLAND, Va. (UP)—Packs of wild dogs roaming the Bland-Giles mountain range have been termed the state's largest single sheep destroyers. Farmers said the dogs usually attack the strays from a flock at night but in some instances sheep have been killed in daylight.

NO SPY SAYS VANDERBILT FIELD

Testifying before a Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee in Washington, Frederick Vanderbilt Field, says testimony of Louis F. Budenz that he, Field, was Soviet spy, is an utter falsehood. Neither did he, Field, commend the alleged Communist work of Owen Lattimore. However, Field refused, on constitutional grounds to reveal if he himself was a Communist. (NEA Telephoto).
