President Truman's historic decision—to commit American armed forces to action in South Korea, send naval protection to Formosa and bolster the defenses of the Philippines and Indo-China—closed the final gap in a "Red-quarantine" line extending around the Soviet-dominated world. The long-range, Cold War strategy to create "situations of strength" and oppose Red aggression wherever it threatened has had many facets, ranging from the Marshall Plan to the show of Allied determination that kept Red youths from "capturing" Berlin. Its major dramatic peak—before Korea—was the victory of the airlift and Russian easing of the Berlin blockade. Informed military observers believe that the Red invasion of Korea was merely the kick-off for stepped-up Communist conquests of Formosa, Southeast Asia and Central Europe. As a major turning point in the Cold War, the 38th parallel in Korea could go down in history as "the place where World War III began," or as one of the great landmarks on the road to world peace.

Safety Authorities Plead For Safe Driving As More Die On Texas Highways Over Weekend

By United Press
A renewed plea for safe driving on Texas highways and streets came from safety authorities today as the long July 4th holiday week end turned into the home stretch—expected to be the most hazardous period of all. At least 19 Texans already have been victims of traffic accidents since 6 p. m. Friday and the non-fatal injury list was enormous. In addition, one person had drowned, another been killed by lightning and another fatally burned by a mysterious phosphorous bomb. Two other deaths were from miscellaneous causes.

The State Department of Public Safety had predicted that traffic accidents would account for at least 34 of an expected 100 violent deaths in the state over the long holiday period.

Latest victims included: Gary Garrett, three-month-old Plainview tot, and William T. Davidson, 18, of Lubbock, killed in a head-on crash eight miles southwest of Plainview yesterday afternoon. Four other persons were critically injured. Otto Edward Perkins, 8, Houston, fatally burned in a Houston collision. James Fred Thomas, 41-year-old Houston hit-run victim. Mrs. Locha Mae Huffmeyer, 48, of Dallas, killed in a head-on crash on the outskirts of Dallas. Eight others persons were hurt, one critically. John William Schriber, 56-year-old Grapevine father of eight, who was crushed between his parked car and one driven by a drunken driver near Dallas. Mrs. Martion Storm, 35-year-old Democratic state committee-woman from Austin, was killed in a three-car collision near Temple.

Mrs. Daisy M. Cooper, 30, of San Antonio, struck down by a car on an Austin street last night. Nolan Hicks, Jr., 22-month-old Rotan tot, killed in a head-on crash near Lubbock in which four other persons were hurt yesterday morning.

Billy Jack McCormack, 27, of Crandall, killed in two-car crash near Kaufman yesterday morning. Ernest Hollander, 30, Cisco, killed late Saturday night when his car collided with a truck near Eastland. Felipe Hernandez, 27-year-old Lockhart laborer who died yesterday from injuries suffered when his car hit a bridge guardrail near Lockhart Saturday. Janice Rae Jones, age 3, Austin, who became the capital city's first traffic fatality of 1950 Saturday night when she was struck by a car.

James Fred Thomas, 41-year-old Houston hit-run victim. Mrs. Locha Mae Huffmeyer, 48, of Dallas, killed in a head-on crash on the outskirts of Dallas. Eight

Arterburn Says Lights On Way For TD Field
Thirty-six flood lights for the football field are now in transit. E. F. Arterburn, president of the Quarterback Club, said that the old lighting fixtures have been removed from the field. He said that work was now in progress on new poles for the lights. He reported that a few more members have paid their dues. But he urged others to do so. "Every citizen in Ranger should pay his dues," Arterburn said.

Those who have paid up since the last report are the following: Jack W. Cole, L. T. Rushing, F. B. Brasher, Jr., Dr. W. T. Watkins, Lloyd L. Bruce. Arterburn asked that checks be mailed to the Quarterback Club, Ranger, Texas.

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, July 3 (UP)—Possibility of a new wave of inflation appeared today to depend largely on whether the Korean war remains localized or turns into a long and more widespread conflict. The national economy already is at a peacetime record. Unlike 1941, there is little room for added military production without cutting into consumer goods production.

Houston Post To Man Video

HOUSTON, July 3 (UP)—The Houston Post will officially man television equipment tonight when KLEE-TV begins KPRC-TV in a transfer approved by the Federal Communications Commission.

The big ceremony, with a dazzling array of "live" talent, will be free and open to the public at the Plantation Club, a night spot near here.

The show, sponsored by the Post and KPRC, will be given for three nights on a specially built television stage. Talent will include Red Ingle and his Natural Seven, Singers Carol Bruce, June Christy, Jean Martin and Lynn Cole, the Mel Arvin Trio and Gypsy Edwards. Master of ceremonies will be John Paul Goodwin. Manager of KPRC and KPRC-TV is Jack Harris.

Government Mediators Fail To Settle AFL Switchmen Strike

CHICAGO, July 3 (UP)—Government mediators failed to settle a strike of AFL switchmen against five Western railroads but reported progress today in efforts to avert a nationwide walkout of trainmen and conductors. The switchmen's union rejected a government appeal to end its eight-day-old strike, but offered to send enough men back to work to move "essential material."

A railroad spokesman termed the union offer "utterly impractical" and said "it is impossible to try to run half a railroad."

John Thad Scott, Jr., new chairman of the National (railway) Mediation board, appealed to the union to call off its strike because of the "critical" Korean situation.

Arthur Glover, president of the union, questioned Scott's suggestion that an emergency exists and reminded him that President Truman said that the U. S. is not at war. "We offer now to send enough men or railroad divisions back to work to move material deemed essential by the government," Glover said. "But the switchmen's union does not believe it can restore complete rail service for nothing, especially when small effort has been made by both the railroads and the board to bring about a settlement of the current dispute."

Four thousand switching walked out June 25 demanding a reduction in their work week to 40 hours without a cut in pay. They said they currently work 48 to 56 hours. The strike shut down the Rock Island, Western Pacific, Chicago Great Western and Denver and Rio Grande Western railroads and crippled the Great Northern, Northern railroads.

US Armored Patrols Assuming Defensive Positions Between Suwon And South Korea Capital

Editor's Note
Robert C. Miller, who covered both the European and Pacific battlefronts for the United Press during World War II, has arrived in Southern Korea to give Americans a close-up look at their forces in the Korean war. The veteran UP staff correspondent landed with the U. S. Marines in Guadalcanal and later was wounded with the U. S. Army in Verdun, France.

Somewhere in Korea, July 3 (UP)—American ground forces are rushing north by every available train and truck to meet the Soviet-backed North Korean Army in battle.

U. S. armored patrols already are fanning out in defensive positions between Suwon, 20 miles south of Seoul, and the South Korean provisional capital of Taejon, 70 miles farther south.

Chiang Calls For Showdown With Russia

Foreign Minister Offers Nationalists
TAIPEI, Formosa, July 3 (UP)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek today branded Russia, not North Korea, as the aggressor in the war and said now was the time and Korga the place to prevent World War III.

The Chinese Nationalist leader, from his island fortress of Formosa, made public the text of an 80-minute speech he delivered to the Kuomintang. His blast against Russia came a short time after the Chinese Nationalists formally had offered to send 33,000 troops to Korea to support the United Nation's sanctions against the Korean Communists.

Chiang called on the United Nations to take formal action branding Russia as the aggressor. "The United Nations should make a solemn declaration, charging Soviet Russia as the instigator of the aggressive war in Korea," he said.

"Only by so doing can the Russians be forced to cease their aggressive activities before it is too late. Only by so doing can we stop the war and restore peace."

George Yeh, Chinese Nationalist Foreign Minister, made the formal offer of 33,000 troops to enforce the UN sanctions. He said the Nationalists also could provide 20 transport planes and a "reasonable amount of air cover" to fly their troops to the front. He offered a "moderate naval escort" in event the troops are transported by sea, and said the troop movements could start in five days.

The new headquarters are being set up by weary, red-eyed officers and men such as signal officer Lt. Frank J. Winslow of Bangor, Me. He has snatched naps on the floor and on table tops, but can't remember when he had a real night's sleep.

Farther north, infantry squads are rolling out blankets and snatching their rest while they can, oblivious of the bare ground, heavy dew and mosquitoes. Nobody has had a hot meal for days. Or for that matter expects to eat anything except out of a can for many more.

This campaign is Burma, the Philippines and nearly every other World War II battlefield in 1941 and early 1942, before American strength began swelling toward victory.

Services Set For County's Latest Victim

HOUSTON, July 3 (UP)—The state convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars got underway today, with an address by Gov. Allan Shivers scheduled for 11 a. m., topping the first day's activities.

Morning business sessions also were on the convention calendar. Texas Attorney General Price Daniel lashed out at the threat of Communism both at home and abroad at a pre-convention gathering of delegates yesterday at Houston music hall. He also presented the VFW award for "outstanding contributions to Americanism" to Houston oilman H. R. Cullen.

Hailing the end of "compromise with Communism" in Korea, Daniel said the threat of Communism in this country would be lessened by a curb on federal control of natural resources.

"There is no excuse for the government to own 24 per cent of all the land and try to get the tide-lands too," Daniel declared in another blast at the recent U. S. Supreme Court decision confirming federal control of the tide-lands.

The Attorney General said "Communism" and "Socialism" are palatable to some Americans if served up under another name—such as "share the wealth," or "cradle-to-the-grave Security."

North Korean Radio Says
TOKYO, July 3 (UP)—The North Korean radio reported that American bombers raided Pyongyang, capital of North Korea, twice today. It said 30 bombers made the first raid soon after dawn and 20 attacked again about midday. The raiders dropped 800 bombs, the broadcast said. It added that North Korean fighters shot down two planes.

WEATHER

By United Press
Tomorrow will be a "typical Fourth of July—hot and maybe a shower or so to steam things up—in Texas, the weatherman predicted today. Forecasts were for partly cloudy skies throughout the state with a few scattered thundershowers. The showers already were reported in the Panhandle this morning where the overnight low minimum of 62 degrees was recorded at Dalhart. Galveston's 80 was the high minimum. Yesterday President's 104 was the only 100-plus reading, but most of the state had readings in the 90's. The lowest maximum occurred at Beaumont, Galveston and Marfa, where 88 was the day's top. Sunday's high 94, Sunday's low 62, at 8 a. m. 80.

Rodeo Heads Say Boxes To Be Optioned

Jaycee Rodeo officials announced today that holders of next year's boxes for the rodeo will have an option on this year's boxes. The official said that all who wish boxes reserved for the rodeo here, July 19 through 22, should contact Nick Crawford at the Oil City Pharmacy.

A new event has been added to the rodeo—a clover leaf race—to help judges decide on the top cowgirl. The race, which consists of racing around four barrels, placed at right angles to each other to form a square calls for more horsemanship than the straight-line barrel race.

... study that he wondered suddenly if he should have listened to Syria. Had it been foolish of him not to explain last night? And yet how difficult it would have been. He had never been able to make Jon believe...

... Knowing what Syria had tried to do to him, he should have realized the possibility of the final blow. However ruthless they are capable of being, and however difficult it may be for the mere surface observer to believe, there is, in men like Piers Amberley, an almost childlike streak of trustfulness, born from their own complete integrity. He told himself now that when all this misery of the child's illness was over, Clemency would listen to him.

... BUT in the next days there could be no thought of personal things, however important. Dr. Rigaud had sent an urgent call to a specialist in Algiers—a man renowned for his brilliant handling of chest and lung complaints, and the consultant, promised to leave immediately for the oasis.

... With his arrival the real fight began. Jon still paced outside in the passage or came into the day-nursery to look through the open-compartments door. The specialist had brought a nurse from his own clinic with him, but Sister Therese, who seemed to need no rest in her off-duty time, was constantly there. But whenever Baba emerged from that terrifying stupor it was Clemency she wanted—Clemency alone who could quieten her, hold her gently down in the bed from which in frightened delirium she tried to struggle.

... Syria had gone out freely to places and in her down to earth, long suffering Joysine had to cope with her.

... The dry dead hour of the crisis drew near. Clemency had slept a little during the night, and doing every thing she could to win a few minutes of rest.

Editor's note: The Ranger Daily Times today is picking up the Eastland Telegram's column because of the interest we believe it will hold for our readers.

We'd like to call particular attention to the safety rules that the Telegram editor outlines.

Ten have been killed on highways in Eastland county this year. Let's don't double that figure over the holidays.

Everything is set for the biggest Fourth of July celebration Eastland has ever had.

The program really starts Sunday with the first rounds of the golf tournament. Semi-finals and finals are Tuesday.

Bright and early Tuesday, things will really begin to pop. A breakfast will be served at the city park from 6:30 until 8 a.m. Swimming and diving will be held at the pool from 10 until 12 noon.

A band concert will lead things off in the afternoon from 2 p.m. until 5 p.m.

The big bathing review will start at 8 p.m., the square dance at 9 p.m., and the fireworks display will be given at 9:30 p.m.

All of which stacks up to make a whopping celebration.

While we are making plans for a big celebration July 4, let's also plan to have the safest July 4 on record.

Safety experts tell us that we can expect at least 100 Texans to die violent death from Sunday to Wednesday of this week.

One hundred persons will die, most of them because someone did not take care.

The Texas Safety Association has issued several rules which will make this July 4 a safe one if everyone will follow them.

Some of them are, "If you plan to go in swimming, know the place you swim. Do not swim immediately after eating. Do not stay in the water after you become tired. If you cannot swim, stay out of deep water.

"If you must use firearms, handle them with care, know your target, and do not shoot in unprotected places. Refrain from horseplay while carrying firearms.

"If you must celebrate with the aid of fireworks, remember that each little firecracker or skyrocket is potentially dangerous. Remember that fireworks are a very great fire hazard, and when using them, always respect the rights of other people around you.

"Each person expects to have a day of pleasure on the Fourth of July. It has grown to have that meaning in the minds of each of us and we fail to remember that our holiday might be spoiled by an accident or tragedy involving either ourselves or one of our loved ones. The best insurance against accidents is to use care and caution in all our daily activities, regardless of how simple they may seem."

Traffic accidents for Sunday, Monday and Tuesday are expected to take 36 lives.

To help you keep from being one of these 36, the Highway Department suggests you observe the following rules:

1. Drive well within the posted or legal speed limits.
2. Do not pass another vehicle unless you have a clear road ahead.
3. Driving is a full time job. Do not let your passengers distract your attention.
4. Be sure to check your tires, brakes, and lights before starting.
5. Stop often for non-intoxicating refreshments.
6. Wear dark glasses during daytime driving. Eye fatigue will result in miscalculating distances.
7. If there is a question of right-of-way, give it to the other fellow. The few seconds you might lose will be a great contribution to safety.
8. "BE CAREFUL—Remember, the life you save may be your own."

Mrs. Mabel Kitchen, 1650 Amsterdam Street, Covington, Ky., says that she didn't realize how wonderful it is to be without those unbearable aches and pains of neuritis and she thinks HADACOL deserves only the highest praise.

Mrs. Kitchen was suffering deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Nicotin and Iron, which HADACOL contains. Unlike most remedies HADACOL doesn't give temporary relief, but instead treats the real cause of the sickness due to such deficiencies.

Mrs. Kitchen's statement: "So far I have taken three bottles of HADACOL and I am just starting on my fourth. Before I started taking HADACOL I had aches and pains of neuritis in my shoulders, my back, my arms; I could hardly move without having those terrible aches and pains. I seemed to have a cold all the time and worst of all I couldn't eat anything, always respect the rights of other people around you.

round in a haze of misery and semi-exhaustion.

Two or three times she was aware that Piers was near—aware, too, of the strange comfort his presence brought, even though they did not exchange a word.

Towards evening she went downstairs to ask whether something the doctor wanted, and when she returned she found Syria crouching in a chair in the day nursery. For once the perfection of her make-up had been neglected, and she looked worn and haggard. As Clemency passed she sobbed.

"I can't bear it," Syria covered her face. "I never knew I could—feel like this. I didn't want her—I hated having her. And—I told you I'm not the maternal type. But she's so pretty—and I can't bear to lose her. I'll be different—I promise I'll be better to her, love her more if—possibly she lives."

SOMEHOW Clemency could not bring herself to make any reply. It was not anything Syria had done for her personally which froze the pity in her heart. There was a hard glint of selfishness on everything about the other which made it more tragic that she should have wrought so much mischief and unhappiness.

As she re-entered the other room the nurse and the two doctors were gathered about the bed. Sister Therese stood a little apart, silent, behind her. Conscious of the nun's serene spirituality, which she translated into such practical scientific help when it was needed, Clemency thought involuntarily: It is that which we need, above everything—faith and work together; and she passed on to join the others, strangely comforted.

The specialist was holding one of Baba's small, inert wrists between his fingers. After a moment he put it gently down.

Clemency looked at them, fear almost choking her. Then: "Oh, no," she whispered.

The doctor passed a hand wearily over his forehead. "I think she should be all right now," he said. "She is sleeping quite naturally."

Eastland Ready For Biggest July Fourth In History Tuesday

All Day Celebration Starts Early With Breakfast Served In Park

Eastland is bracing for its greatest Fourth of July celebration in history.

Everyone from near and far is invited to attend the big event, Bob Gilchrist, general chairman of the celebration has stated.

A full day's program is set, and a little more. The celebration actually gets underway Sunday with the first two rounds in the Eastland golf tournament which is open to citizens from all over the county.

Two matches will be played in the tourney Sunday with finals slated for Tuesday.

Tuesday's festivities will begin bright and early with a breakfast from 6:30 until 8 p. m. under the direction of Judge Milburn Long, at city park.

Bacon, eggs, hot biscuits and coffee, enough for everyone, is promised.

In mid-morning, a swimming and diving program will be given under the direction of Wendel Seibert from 10 a. m. until 12 noon.
After a recess for lunch, the program will be continued at 2 p. m. with a band concert under the direction of T. R. Atwood.

At 3:30 p. m. special stunts under the direction of Jack Chamberlain will be given.

A new feature of the celebration, a bathing review, will be given beginning at 8 p. m. under the direction of Marene Johnson.

The bathing beauties will be divided into three groups for the event. A prize will be given to the winner of each group.

Square dancing is scheduled to start at 9 p. m. under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Holl-field. Some of the top callers in the state have been contacted and will be on hand for the shindig.

A top square-dance band has also been arranged for. The square dancing will continue until everyone gets ready to leave. There has been no time limit set.

Fireworks will be the big event at 9:30 p. m. C. W. Hoffman has arranged what he believes to be the best fireworks exhibition ever to be given here.

The exhibition will be given from the depression on the south side of the city park.

The Little Things We Notice—
... in preparing your abstract often grow into big things as time passes. For example, if the deed is drawn in a careless manner by an inexperienced person it may be full of errors which will show up in your abstract when it comes time to sell, get a loan or lease for oil and gas. The abstractor must copy the instrument just as he finds it on record. The moral is, have your legal documents drawn carefully and only by experienced conveyancers.

Dimaggio Moves To First Base

WASHINGTON, July 3 (UP)—
Joe Dimaggio was at first base for the Yankees—with a solemn promise to give his new job the old college try.

"There are two ways to play first base," Dimaggio said. "the old man's way and the right way."
"I'll try it the right way."

Thus did the 35-year-old Dimaggio turn his back on the outfield, a place where he starred for the Yankees for 12 seasons.
"I'm giving up a pretty good job," he cracked, "but I'll give it everything I have at first base.
Something had to be done so I said I'd try it."

TEXAS NEWS BRIEFS

BROWNWOOD, July 2 (UP)

Luther L. McConnell, shot at the apartment of a woman friend, died yesterday at a hospital. McConnell, 36, was struck twice by shots fired through a screen door at the apartment of Mrs. Elizabeth Harwell last Wednesday night. Mrs. Harwell identified her estranged husband, Yates Harwell, 51, as the gunman. She told authorities that after the first two shots downed McConnell, Harwell came into the apartment and fired two more into his body as he lay on the floor. Harwell, charged with assault to murder, has been held in $10,000 bond.

HARLINGEN, July 3 (UP)

Eddie Baker was playing in the yard at home when he saw a rattlesnake glide through a window into the living room. Eddie grabbed a brick, dashed into the house and killed the two-foot rattler as it slithered toward his baby sister. Eddie is six years old.

HOUSTON, July 3 (UP)

William Alford, 48-year old Negro, died Sunday without being able to tell officers anything about a mysterious phosphorous-type bomb that killed him. Relatives said Alford saw the object Saturday in the yard of his home, picked it up and pulled the pin. The explosion seconds later was heard for several blocks. Alford's hand was mangled and his body was covered with burning oily phosphorous. Investigators could not determine if the bomb was war surplus or home-made.

HOUSTON, July 3 (UP)

The family car was turned into a funeral pyre for Otto Edward (Bubba) Perkins, 8, fatally burned in a fishing trip tragedy. The boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Perkins, suffered third-degree burns over most of his body Saturday when the car, driven by his father, careened into a tree near Humble. The crash broke a jug of gasoline which ignited, burning Bubba and his brother-in-law, Robert E. Brown, 30.

Perkins was badly burned about the hands and arms when he tried to strip flaming clothing from his son and son-in-law. Brown was in serious condition at a hospital. Bubba died Sunday. Funeral services were to be held today. Besides the parents he is survived by three sisters and one brother.

HOUSTON, July 3 (UP)

Memphis Wynne, 58, was charged today with negligent homicide and failure to stop and render aid in the traffic death Sunday of a man identified as James Fred Thomas, 41, address unknown. Thomas died in a hospital of a fractured skull several hours after he was hit. Wynne made a written statement, but said he did not know what his car had hit.

HOUSTON, July 3 (UP)

A 13-foot fall from a scaffold was fatal late Sunday to Ambers J. Baxter, Jr., 45. Baxter apparently lost his balance and slipped to a concrete floor while working on a repair job. Hospital attendants said his death was caused by head injuries.

Mrs. Max Ohr, Mr. and Mrs. Onis Littlefield and Morris Campbell were in Weatherford, Fort Worth and Dallas Friday, on business. While in Weatherford, Mr. Littlefield visited his mother who is ill.

Advice To Drivers

CHICAGO (UP)—Harry Kravets, a truck driver for 28 years and the 100,000th person to receive the National Safety Council's three-year safe driver award, advises motorists not to fight traffic (you can't do anything about it); keep a reasonable distance between your car and the one in front of you; stop driving when you become drowsy and never lose your temper while driving.
