Leveille-Watkins Vows Exchanged At 9 O'Clock Mass At St. Rita's

At a nuptial Mass in St. Rita's Church Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, Dora Marie Leveille and Billy Jack Watkins exchanged vows in a double ring service. Rev. A. Merkel, pastor, celebrated the Mass.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. Morris Leveille of Ranger and the late Mrs. Leveille. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Watkins of Eastland.

Beautiful fan arrangements of white gladiolas and huckleberry graced the main altar, and the two side altars. A similar arrangement of the gladiolas in tall white wicker baskets were placed beside the side altars. Tall white tapers in gold candelabra added to the solemnity of the scene.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory satin gown, fashioned with fitted bodice, and long fitted sleeves which tapered to a point over the wrists. The high round neck closed with tiny self buttons in the back, topped a square yoke of net embroidered with raised embroidered flowers. Accordion pleated ruching accented the square yoke and flared over the edge of the shoulders. Similar ruching formed a tiny peplum at the waist, and came to a point in the back over a cathedral length train. The skirt of the gown was gently flared, and fell in soft folds from a deep pleat into the train.

A fingertip veil of misty French illusion floated from a regal tiara, encrusted with tiny seed pearls. For something old, the bride wore matching diamond ring, and earrings, belonging to her mother. Her only other ornament was a dainty single strand of pearls.

For something borrowed, she wore a sixpence in her shoe, loaned by one of the bridesmaids, Miss Inez Harrell. Blue garters completed the traditional rhyme. The bride's bouquet consisted of an arrangement of white stephanotis, centered by a single white orchid, and tied with a white satin bow, from which showers of ribbon fell.

The traditional wedding marches were played by Miss Anita Carlin of Cisco, organist, who also accompanied Mrs. Allan Full of Ranger who sang, "Pansy Anacelis," by George Franck, and "Ave Maria" by Gounod. Mrs. Bill Juneau of Breckenridge sang, "Jesus, Thou Art Coming," at the Communion.

The bride was attended by Miss Ruth Trahan of Austin, a former classmate at the University of Texas. Morris Campbell of Ranger, cousin of the bride was best man. Bridesmaids were Misses Inez Harrell of Breckenridge, Katherine Adams of Cleburne, and Kathryn Ann Watkins, sister of the groom, of Eastland.

Groomsmen were Preston Gris-son of Abilene Jerome Ready of Ranger and Billy Martin of Eastland.

The maid of honor wore a marquisette over tulle gown of ash-rose, fashioned with portrait neckline, tiny sleeves with flip-up cuffs laced with self buttons. A wide waistband, accented the tiny waist and flared skirt, and was set off by lacing with self buttons.

Miss Trahan wore a matching picture halo hat with wide bow in back. A tiny spray of blue tinted daisies matching her bouquet added color to the inside brim of the hat. She wore matching elbow mitts in ashes of roses, set off by tiny ruffling, and carried a dainty colonial bouquet of blue fleur d'amour tied with bronze satin ribbons.

The bridesmaids were attired in ashes of roses gowns similar to that worn by the maid of honor. A tiny spray of daisies accenting the brims of their picture hats, was tinted cream matching the cream rosebuds they carried in old-fashioned nosegays, tied with wine satin ribbons.

Dwayne Juneau, 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Juneau of Breckenridge, served as ring bearer, carrying the two rings on a tiny satin pillow. He wore a white shirt and tie.

Karen Breenaham, small daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Breenaham of Breckenridge, was flower girl. She wore a lovely colonial gown of ice blue satin with hooded skirt, matching bonnet, and elbow-length gloves. She carried a basket made in the form of a flower, with white satin petals edged in silver. The handle was covered with pink satin, and the basket was lined with matching pink lining. The bottom of the basket was also covered in pink satin. A big pink satin bow extended into a cascade of ribbons. She threw pink rose petals in the path of the bride.

Altar boys, Bobby Downtain and LeWayne Shafer, lit the candles, and assisted at the Mass.

Ushers were Bill Bourdeau and Glenn Hart, both of Ranger.

Following the ceremony the reception was held at the home of Mr. Morris Leveille, father of the bride.

Guests were greeted at the door by a receiving line composed of Mrs. Charles A. Campbell, aunt of the bride, Morris Leveille, father of the bride, and Mrs. Henry Watkins, mother of the groom. They were then introduced to the bride and groom and their attendants.

The house was beautifully decorated throughout with floral arrangements of orchids, roses and gerberas. The bride's table was laid with a lace cloth, and centered by a floral arrangement of white tube roses in a silver epergne, surrounded by silver leaves, and flanked by tall pink tapers in silver candle holders. The three-tiered wedding cake dominated the table, and was iced in white and festooned with flowers. Placed on a round reflector, the cake was surrounded by delicate sprays of white tube roses. Coffee was served from a silver coffee service by Miss Louise Weir of Breckenridge and Mrs. Leland Whittington of Haskell. Cake was cut by Miss W. L. Downtain and A. E. Ernst. Tiny green mints and salted nuts completed the refreshments.

Gifts were presented over by Misses A. C. Bart and A. C. Gallagher of Breckenridge, and Mrs. Lula McLaughlin of Ranger, and Mrs. W. A. Little of Dallas. Guests were registered in the bride's book by Misses Cecilia Martha Monney of Ranger and Anita Carlin of Cisco.

Others assisting in the houseparty were Misses Mae Whittington of Breckenridge, Mergis Campbell, W. N. Bourdeau and members of the bridal party.

For going away, the bride chose an imported linen suit of luggage tan, white hat set off by matching luggage tan brim and veil, spectator shoes and bag. She wore a white orchid corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Ranger High School, Junior College, and the University of Texas, where she was a member of Theta Sigma Phi, honorary journalism fraternity, and a member of M. domino's College Board. She was employed, before her marriage, as assistant editor of the Breckenridge American, and is a member of Theta Tau chapter of Beta Sigma Phi in Breckenridge.

The groom graduated from Eastland High School, and is employed by Lone Star Producing Co. Following a trip to Colorado the couple will make their home in Eastland.

Rehearsal Dinner Honors Couple

Miss Dora Marie Leveille and Billy Jack Watkins, bride and groom elect, were honored at a rehearsal dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Adams and Miss Katherine Adams on July 21 at the Adams' residence in Ranger.

The bride's table was decorated with pink carnations in a cut glass bowl flanked by tall, pink candles in silver candelabra. The table was laid with an imported embroidered cloth. Individual tables were laid with linen cloths and centered with arrangements of pink carnations in antique vases. Places were marked with tiny bride favors.

The hostesses' gift to the bride was a cold meat fork in her chosen pattern. Attendants were presented with gifts from the prospective bride and groom: single strands of pearls to the bridesmaids and flower girl, pearl earrings to the two vocalists and the organist, pearl tie clasps to the groomsmen and ushers, and a sport shirt to the ring bearer.

The blessing was said by the Rev. A. Merkel, pastor of St. Rita's Church, Ranger. Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Billy Martin and Mike, Eastland; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Breenaham and Karen, Breckenridge; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Juneau and Dwayne, Breckenridge; and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Campbell, Ranger.

Also Mesdames W. A. Little, Jr., Dallas; Owen Bray, Ranger; Henry Watkins, Eastland; and Allen Full, Ranger.

Those present were Mesdames O. R. Ervin, Dick Jones, Lottie Davenport, Bob Allen, Henry Martin, Susie Crider, Lowe Wallace, Ina Mae Heeks, B. S. Dudley, J. E. Knowles, Hazel Rubles, and the hostesses, Mesdames R. C. McCord, R. G. Pirkle and E. T. Matthews.

Julia Alexander Grove To Have Luncheon Wednesday

Mrs. T. J. Melton will entertain members of the Julia Alexander Grove No. 1954 of the Woodmen Circle, Wednesday, July 26, with a covered dish luncheon and social at her home, 313 First Street.

Secret pal gifts will be exchanged and new names drawn. All members are invited to attend.

Secret pal names were revealed and gifts were exchanged. Mrs. Allan Smith offered the closing prayer.

Those attending were Mesdames L. L. Bruce, Russell Webb, F. R. King, T. J. Boyd, Allan Smith, J. W. White, J. T. Belknap, L. G. Russell, Assie Carver, J. D. Johnson, John Winder, A. G. Koeng and the hostess.

Mrs. Ann Poling, 609 Delaware St., Indianapolis, Indiana, who was suffering from deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Iron, and Niacin, smiles as she pours herself another cup of coffee. Mrs. Poling says life lately is like it used to be years ago. "That is, of course, since I've been taking HADACOL." She can't get over what a difference HADACOL has made in her outlook on life.

Mrs. Poling says: "Three months ago a good friend of mine told me about HADACOL—she knew how much stomach distress I have had. Any type of food that was fried or that had acid in it I just couldn't eat. It affected my sleep, too. In fact, I couldn't have been in a worse condition. When I ate what I wanted to I felt miserable and when I didn't eat those things—I didn't have a proper diet and still felt bad. Then, when I started taking HADACOL, I felt better immediately. I've got a bottle in the house now—and will continue to keep HADACOL from now on. I have told many folks about HADACOL—and they all thank me for telling them about HADACOL. They all have gotten wonderful results from HADACOL like I have. Now I eat anything I want and get a good night's sleep. I can't praise HADACOL ENOUGH!"

HADACOL Can Help You, Too! . . . as it has helped thousands of others whose systems lacked Vitamins B1, B2, Iron and Niacin. Yes, even hundreds of doctors have recommended HADACOL to their patients. The HADACOL formula is so effective for stomach distress, nervousness, insomnia, constipation, aches and pains of neuritis, and a general run-down condition caused by such deficiencies.

Make Up Your Mind . . . to give HADACOL a chance to help you, as it has helped countless thousands of others. Remember, there are no substitutes for HADACOL. Always insist on the genuine HADACOL. No risk involved. Buy a bottle of HADACOL, either the trial size, $1.25 or the large family or hospital size, $3.50, and if HADACOL does not help you your money will be refunded.

Happy Hour Club Has Luncheon

Members of the Happy Hour Club met Wednesday, in the home of Mrs. Bertie Shipman, for a covered dish luncheon and business meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Page and Janice have returned from Kilgore where they attended funeral services for Rebecca Thomas. She was a niece of Mrs. Page and Bob Lester and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lester. The child's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Thomas accompanied them home for a short visit.

Ranger Rambling

Friday, I saw the best news papering I've ever seen and I've been around enough to work on four newspapers.

And everyone of those newspapers were prize winners.

Two of them were tops in their field—the Clinton Daily News in Oklahoma won the sweepstakes competition among newspapers while I was there; the Oklahoma Daily won competitions with papers of its class all over the United States.

But Friday's newspapering in the backshop of the Ranger Daily Times was the greatest yet.

There's lots more to newspapering than just setting the type, digging up stories, making up the pages or selling the ads.

You tell a newspaper printer when he digs in, does the impossible and still turns out high quality work.

We started purposely behind the eight ball at 8 a. m. Friday. There was a little inside copy set as I wanted to crowd just as much war news into the inside as I could, devoting the front page to the election and the local rodeo.

I jammed the copy back there from 8 until 11 a. m. and not a single gripe did I get. Linotypers Dwayne Dennis, Paul Bullock and L. M. Crowley took the copy and beat it out. And when you beat out copy the way they had to do Friday, it starts counting.

Keeping right up with them were Pete Cogburn and Rex Earnest, the make-up men.

These two boys Friday had to put 12 pages together. That includes advertisements, and the news matter. And they did it while working under the additional handicap of almost having to make up those inside pages like they were front pages.

I think you'll see that if you check through your copy of the Times—take a gander at that hand set 72 point head, that 2 column eight point box on taxes, those three-column 30 point heads.

Doing all of this is routine—they're trained to do it—and wouldn't call for any compliments except that they did it against one of the shortest deadlines I've ever run up against.

But they worked smoothly, kept

"BRIDE'S FATHER" AT ARCADIA TODAY

in mind that they were working on a newspaper and took the kind of pride in their work that men should.

Thirty minutes past our regular news deadline, a story came in on mobilization much better than anything we had in the paper on that. The story equalled a galley of type.

I asked them if they thought they could do it—and again they said yes. And now they were reaching for the impossible.

But they did it. They had that front page clamped up and made ready for the press at 1:30 p. m., our regular press deadline.

And that's why I've devoted a column to them—not for doing their job. No one rates praise for that. But for doing a little more than their job; making a deadline when against an impossible amount of copy and make-up.

There was another fine job visible in Friday's paper, too.

And that was the two election stories, which were prepared by Everett Taylor at Eastland.

They did it like it was routine business, like what they were expected to do—and I guess they were—because that's what has made great newspapers and great newspapermen since Kings shot the first printers for printing what they saw.

Another two boys that are doing every day a little extra than what they are paid to do is H. C. Berry and Gerald Renfro.

Berry and Renfro are the pressman and assistant pressman in that order.

It's their jobs to cast mats that make the news pictures, get the press ready and print the paper. It's not an easy job. It takes skill and hard work. But a pressman doesn't become a good printer or a good newspaperman until he begins to take pride in his work—until he worries about the tiniest fraction of too much ink, a high slug, the smallest smudge.

Hack and Renfro are two boys that take that kind of pride in their work—and that's why they can take a Ranger Times to any press convention, shove it into another printer's face—and tell him to take a look. I'll stack these guys and Charles Blackwell—printer, devil boy and apprentice up—up against any in the business of newspapering for the pride they take in their product, their speed and congeniality.

For plain, blasted newspaper reporting, those stories will stack up with the best in Texas that were written as pre-stories to the election. He didn't waste words, he boiled his copy until only the meat was left—yet he covered every facet of the story, giving the readers what they would want to know.

There was a little drama in those two stories, the kind of drama that once in awhile creeps into reporting and makes it a little more fun. But those stories had all the evidence that another newspaperman would need to recognize Everett as a top-notch professional.

There were 1,660,000 businesses in the United States fifty years ago; today there are approximately 4,000,000 an average increase of more than 40,000 per year.

ALLEY OOP

NO MAN EVER BORN COULD SWIM THAT SEA FROM BRITAIN TO GAUL.
 I'M HERE, AIN'T I?
 AN' I DON'T THINK I WAS HATCHED OUT OF A COCONUT!
 IS HE DAFT?
 NO CAESAR, HE'S QUITE AN ABLE CHAFF!
 COULD THIS ABLE CHAFF BE CAESAR FROM HIS DILEMMA?
 WELL NOW, HERE I COULD!

THIS CHURCH PAGE IS PUBLISHED WEEKLY WITH THE HOPE THAT MORE PEOPLE WILL GO TO CHURCH. IT IS SPONSORED BY LOCAL BUSINESS FIRMS WHO BELIEVE WE SHOULD ATTEND RELIGIOUS SERVICES REGULARLY.

From the twelfth century children have been learning to repeat this prayer of faith. Back of that are the other centuries when families quoted the 121st Psalm from which it was doubtless taken...

*"Your Guardian will not slumber,
He will neither slumber nor sleep."*

Precious lad with the dimpled cheeks, knowing so little what the world holds of joy and of sorrow, of foes and of friends, of sickness and of health, of defeat and of triumph. Perhaps he has mother and father now and every care for his happiness. Who knows what tomorrow holds for him? You and I may not be near to counsel and to encourage. What then?

Wise and thoughtful for all the years ahead were the parents who early introduced the lad to his eternal Friend and helped him to be at home in the Father's universe. Some day every boy and girl will have to stand alone; will there be strength from hidden springs, a sense of sustaining Power? Some day every woman and every man must make a choice between the high way and the low; will there be light that shines on the good path the soul should take?

Every child born into God's world has a right to know that God is Creator and Sovereign, that His will finally must prevail. Every girl and every boy has a right to be sure that the universe is friendly and that its basic principle is Love. Every living person has a right to trust and to faith and to hope. Every human being has a right to know that he is made in the image of God and eligible to a place in the divine Family. We are both animal and divine spirit; God breathed His own Spirit into man and he became a living Spirit, like unto God. Every child has a right to live reverently as in the continuing and blessed fellowship with the Highest; he has a right to the adult helpfulness that puts his feet in the Way of Life. Teach him to say, "Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray the Lord my soul to keep. If I should die before I wake, I pray the Lord my soul to take."
