Sparking Bulldogs Mow Bowie Down, 37 to 12; Line Gives Backs Help

The Ranger Bulldogs, underrated after Weatherford, drew Bowie blood Friday night for all the insults, racking up a 37 to 12 victory. The Bulldog backs, this time ably supported by a fighting line, controlled the ball most of the first quarter, making 6 points. The second quarter was Bowie's though Ranger clicked for another 12 points to stay ahead 18 to 12 as the half ended. The last half was all Ranger's with only Bowie Quarterback Monty Robicheaux's passing posing any serious threat. Quarterback Weldon Cunningham, this time with a fighting line in front, handled the ball like a near veteran. Jimmy Comacho appeared to get in on every play and carried the ball like a near all-stater.

MISSION POSTPONED—Part of an anti-mine crew returns from an abandoned mission because of heavy enemy fire. Crouching low, they move back as a tank in the background moves forward on the Taegu-Waegwan road. (NEA Telephoto by Ed Hoffman, Staff Correspondent).

FLOYD WOODS TAKING A hand-off from Cunningham scored Ranger's first touchdown 24 plays after Ranger received the kickoff. Bowie captured the ball from Ranger twice. Ranger holds the visitors the first time, forcing Robicheaux to punt. Cunningham killing the ball on the Bulldogs 25. Woods drives to 40; Comacho picks up five; Cunningham to Woods pass good for 10; Cunningham fumbles, losing six. Weldon passes to Woods, no good. And Comacho punts to Bowie 20.

Freddy Couch fumbles; Ranger recovering on Bowie 20. Cunningham hands off to Woods for seven yards; Jimmy Coles grabs two yards. Cunningham hands off to Comacho for 10 yards. And Woods goes over on next play making it 6 to 0.

RANGER SCORED AGAIN just after the turn into the second quarter. Again it was the story of Ranger's line—sparkplugged by Hummel and Davenport—hitting Bowie hard, making them fumble.

Ranger got ahold of the ball when Robicheaux had to punt. Cunningham returning from Ranger 45 to Bowie 35. Comacho takes pitch out and runs 26 yards—in the clear three times—before Couch over takes him on Bowie's 10. Cole grabs three yards. Cunningham to Comacho hand-off for two yards.

CUNNINGHAM GOES OVER his right end for a TD, two plays in the second quarter—making it 12-0.

Comacho kicks off and Billy Simpson covers it on Bowie's 40. Hands off to Comacho and he goes around his right end for a TD closing a 28 yard twisting, side line run. Makes it 18-0.

Bowie Roars back, making their breaks and using only five plays to score off a Robicheaux to James Robinson pass, good for 35 yards and making it 18 to 6. Ranger receives kick off. Bowie holds. Comacho forced to punt and it's blocked on Ranger 25.

ROBICHEAUX PASSES TO Lindsey, incomplete, Jimmy Cole breaking up the play. Rob passes to Ingram for 15 yards. Davenport and Hummel stop Couch's TD plunge. Robicheaux passes to Ingram—good for 20 yards total and a TD. It makes it 18 to 12. And the Ranger crowd begins to pray for half-time as Bowie continues to control the ball, taking advantage of Ranger's penalties and fumbles. The half's resting on Ranger's 23 in Bowie's control when the half-time horn blows.

Robicheaux returns Comacho 55 yard KO 20 yards. Williams sneared at line of scrimmage. Billy Simpson intercepts Robicheaux attempted pass, returning it 50 yards to Bowie 8.

WOODS DRIVES OVER FOR TD; Comacho kicks extra point, making it 25 to 12, four plays after kick-off.

Again there's Hummel and Davenport smearing the white line of Bowie, forcing Bowie to punt out.

Ranger forced to punt. And Bowie begins march. Bill Young puts quietus on that by intercepting Robicheaux pass, returning it 30 yards to Bowie 32. The soon-to-be famous (Continued on Page Six)

Santa's Coming MERCHANT'S ASSOCIATION TO MEET 7:30 PM MONDAY, HERE

The Retail Merchant's Association is already talking plans for a bigger and better Christmas program in December.

The Association has scheduled a meeting at 7:30 p. m. Monday at the association's offices.

All members and businessmen are being urged to attend by President H. C. Henderson, and Vice President Bruce Maddox.

There is some talk of combining the parade with a trades day celebration. In the past the parade has been composed of bands, fire trucks, Santa Claus and a side dish of free candy.

The association acts both as a promotion agency and as a credit reference bureau. Maddox said, "every merchant—especially those doing credit business—should be a member of the association. It pays."

Truman To Say Whether Man Will Be Killed

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (UP)—President Truman will have the final say on whether or not the Army carries out the death sentence imposed in Korea on Negro 1st Lt. Leon A. Gilbert of York, Pa., for disobeying an order.

Although the White House has yet received official notification of the case, it eventually will find its way to the President's desk. All court martial death sentences must be reviewed by the Chief Executive before they can be carried out.

GILBERT, A 32-YEAR-OLD soldier with the 24th Infantry of the 25th division in Korea, wrote his wife at York, Pa., that he has been sentenced to death by court martial for disobeying an order. If he had carried out the command, he told his wife, it "would have led me and 12 other men to certain death."

Mrs. Gilbert immediately hired a lawyer to investigate the case and the attorney enlisted the aid of Rep. James F. Lind, D., Pa. Lind, who has asked both the Army and the White House to study the Gilbert episode, said he "wants to give the man the benefit of the doubt."

French Troops Move Towards Red Donghke

SAIGON, Indo-China, Sept. 23 (UP)—French troops advanced slowly toward the Communist-held fortress of Donghke today in the face of small ambushes by Communist Viet Minh snipers.

No major engagements have developed as yet in the five-day quest to recapture the fortress, which fell to the Communists in a surprise raid Monday.

Jaycees To Meet 7:30 PM, Monday

The Ranger Jaycees will meet at 7:30 p. m. Monday at the Gholson hotel. C. E. May, Jr., president, said that plans for attendance at the Mineral Wells rodeo and other important business would be discussed.

Carnival To Appear Here Next Week

The Ranger Volunteer Fire Department is sponsoring the Starlight show, here, Tuesday through Saturday.

The carnival will locate at the corner of Houston and South Oak, just one block east of main street intersection with US highway 80. The show, which carries five rides and 20 concessions, does not have any build-ups or grift games. Eddie O'Shea, advance man, said, "Virgil Johnson, volunteer fire chief, backed O'Shea."

Band Misses Five Uniforms; Needed Badly By Students

The Ranger High School Band is still missing about five uniforms.

Director Robert Ganns said that if any students know of the uniforms, he would appreciate it if they would return them.

The uniforms were probably inadvertently carried off by some graduating members of last year's band.

The band gave a beautiful display of marching between halves at Friday's game. But some members can't march because of the missing uniforms.

Eastland Man's Brother Dies

R. G. Crowley, 78, brother of O. B. Crowley of Eastland, died at the home of his son, J. W. Crowley of near Monticella, Utah, Friday afternoon.

Crowley had lived in Colorado for several years, and was a native of Texas.

Survivors include two sons, Jamie and J. W. and four brothers, O. B. of Eastland; J. B. of Cherokee; P. C. of Chromo, Colorado, and A. B. of Temple, Ariz.

Marines Meet Big Opposit'n

By Earnest Hoberecht
United Press Staff Correspondent
TOKYO, Sept. 23 (UP)—Stubborn enemy resistance staled the Marine drive to capture Seoul today but the Americans were enveloping three sides of the city and to the south the jaws of an Allied nutcracker closing on 100,000 Reds were only 85 miles apart.

United Press Correspondent Jack James—in the first dispatch out of the Seoul-Inchon beachhead in more than 24 hours—said the Marines were just about stopped in their tracks Saturday.

"It's like a spring or rubber band," one Marine officer said. "Ever time we add a pound of pressure we have an extra pound of resistance."

The southern prong of Gen. Douglas MacArthur's Korean offensive was surging forward from its Pusan beachhead with a speed which only a week ago would have been unbelievable.

But, with the Allied gains in the south, also came one of the tragedies of war. British Tommies driving on Songju eight miles west of Waegwan were meeting stiff opposition two miles east of the town. They had captured one side of a hill and had called for air support to help them drive the Communists from the other.

Allied planes roared in for the attack. They picked the wrong side of the hill.

They plastered the British troops with rockets, flaming gasoline jelly bombs, fragmentation bombs and 50 caliber bullets.

Politicos Pay Call On AFL 69th Meeting

Two Democrats, One Republican To Talk

The AFL today trotted out three of its favorite political figures, including vice-president Alben W. Barkley, to help whip up enthusiasm for the November fight to elect Labor's friends.

The AFL's political arm—Labor's League for Political Education—had the spotlight at the Federation's 69th annual convention.

League director Joseph D. Keenan was scheduled to kick off the session. Liberal Senators representing the Republican and Democratic parties were scheduled to address the meeting in the morning before Barkley's afternoon address.

OREGON'S WAYNE MORSE was on hand as GOP spokesman, although he clashes frequently with Republican leaders over party policy. Paul Douglas, freshman Senator from Illinois, was slated to speak for the Democrats.

In deference to the Taft-Hartley law's restrictions on union political activity, the convention recessed this morning. But delegates stayed in their seats as members of the political league's national committee.

THEY WERE SCHEDULED to reconvene after Barkley's talk to continue voting on resolutions.

The AFL, which has taken sharp criticism from John L. Lewis since he disaffiliated his United Mine Workers three years ago, readied a return salvo.

The resolutions committee of the AFL's 69th annual convention was reported drafting a report characterizing Lewis' invasion of the building trades as "akin to strikebreaking."

Talking Goes On

Senate Stumbles Towards Recess Today; Congress Promises Return After Election; Sooner Maybe

By John L. Steele
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (UP)—A weary Senate stumbled toward a campaign recess today, its leaders determined to beat an all night filibuster by exhaustion.

A band of determined Senators tied Congressional quiting plans in knots when they pushed a last-ditch talkathon against the bill to enact sweeping curbs on Communists and subversives. They were hold-outs against overriding President Truman's veto of the measure.

Senate leaders moved to sit out the filibuster as long as necessary. Democratic leader Scott W. Lucas, Ill., got permission to reconsider the vote by which the Senate agreed to go home before midnight today.

The Ballyhoo OKLAHOMA DENIES TRUE'S CHARGES OF HIGH PAY FOR FOOTBALL PLAYERS AND 700 MILLIONAIRES BACKING UNIVERSITY

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 23 (UP)—A charge by True Magazine that the University of Oklahoma Sooners have "700 oil millionaires" backing for them, brought denials, laughs, criticism and gasps of amazement from football fans and O.U. officials today.

The October issue contains what it calls an expose of the Oklahoma Touchdown Club, with testimony from Jim Tatum, former Oklahoma coach now heading the Maryland team.

In their official capacity they (the millionaires) cover Oklahoma and the Texas Panhandle like the dew covers Dixie," the article written by Paul Gardner of the magazine's staff, said.

"They even use the university's plane, appropriately a Beech Bonanza, which flies a steady shuttle service between Norman and outlying points, picking up good-looking high school boys who will look even better in Oklahoma uniforms."

University of Oklahoma President George I. Cross labelled the article as "a lot of bunk."

Head Coach Bud Wilkinson said he doubted if he'd even get around to reading it "for some time. I don't have anything to say except anytime you are lucky enough to win you get all kinds of publicity."

Dr. C. B. McDonald, Oklahoma City dentist and member of the Touchdown Club, labelled the article "full of half-truths and non-truths." He laughed at the idea of 700 millionaires. "Shucks, we don't have that many in the state. And at the time the writer was down here, we had only 600 members—and sure not millionaires."

PLUG 'N TRIGGER

By J. Fred Eder
United Press Outdoors Consultant
Reach for your duck calls, men, the ducks are coming to Lake Texoma.

Marcus Nelson, managing director of the famous Hagerman wildlife refuge, offered this bit of news, which is enough to give any nimrod an itching trigger finger. "Small flocks of ducks are beginning to arrive at the refuge."

The central flyway, which runs through Oklahoma and Texas, shows an increase in production in the important breeding areas. For this reason, bag and possession limits have been increased to five and 10 ducks from four and eight.

Central flyway perhaps has shown more improvement in breeding areas than any of the nation's other flight lanes.

We believe amended regulations recently announced by the U. S. fish and wildlife service are justified because of the far-reaching effect they have and will have on migratory waterfowl hunting.

Since this is a day of science, the regulations were made after the service conducted out of the most extensive biological investigations.

Thus the importance of these regulations can be fully realized by reviewing past conditions.

The Atlantic flyway continues to present the most static conditions as far as the distribution of hunters, birds and harvest are concerned.

Because recent breeding ground surveys displayed no significant trend up or down, it seems wise to retain the same regulations in effect last year.

The cuthack season in the Mississippi flyway was influenced by statistics which indicated it had 43 per cent of the hunters and 46 per cent of the kill, but only 20 per cent of the birds.

Production was noticeably reduced in the Mississippi flyway over last year. This, combined with the unimproved conditions in the Canadian far north, make it imperative that this year's season be cut back in harmony with the policy of gearing the harvest to production.

New regulations, bag and possession limits effecting the Pacific flyway are an experiment in an area that can stand it because there, are more birds per hunter along the west coast than elsewhere.

Last season the Pacific flyway states had 31 per cent of the ducks, but only 21 per cent of the hunters and 24 per cent of the kill. Overall production for the Pacific flyway is expected to be about the same as last year.

Eddie Dyer's Not Worrying Much Yet About Losing Job With Cards

By Oscar Fraley
United Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK, Sept. (UP)—They're singing those St. Louis Blues today for the St. Louis Cardinals but manager Eddie Dyer could show only casual concern over reports that he had been "fired"—again—because a vulcanized ball club came apart at the seams.

Eddie, the pudgy-faced Texan, has been "fired" before. Each time he manager to survive when the "skipper" was threatened with dismissal.

In four years, Dyer never has finished worse than second. Until this year, that is. Currently his Cardinals, which for a while had high hopes of struggling through to the top, are in fifth place and getting no better rapidly.

That's what once more started the reports, that Dyer was to be replaced, but, sitting in the warm sun at the Polo Grounds, Texas Eddie made it plain "at be expected to last out this season—and maybe more.

Fred Saigh, owner of the Cardinals, and Dyer have an agreement to finish out the season "and then sit down and talk like businessmen." Eddie seemed confident that Saigh would hold to that agreement.

Dyer wants to come back. Baseball is in his blood to stay.

He was a minor league manager in the Cardinal chain from 1928 through 1944. Then he retired to devote his time to his Houston oil business. Then, out of the dark, came a change to manage the Cardinals. In his freshman season, 1946, he led the Redbirds to the pennant and the world championship. Three straight seasons since then he has finished second. Now, if he has to go out, Dyer would like to go out a winner when the time comes.

There have been times in the past when genial Eddie was threatened with the axe. Like in 1947, when his favorites were limping along in the cellar. The late Sam Breadon owned the club then and Breadon was a man who knew baseball and a club's potential. He even discussed Dyer's dismissal with the players, but Terry Moore and Marty Marion upheld the "skipper." Dyer kept the job and came on to finish second.

But the Cardinals have not been out of the first division since 1948 and it is natural that the current slump should revive whispers of Dyer's removal.

"I said in the spring that if I had available the players and pitchers as long as I wanted them, we'd be in the thick of the race," Dyer explained the tailspin. "Well you have to expect injuries, but with us they happened to key players like Joe Garagiola and Ted Wilks. Take Marty Marion, why he shouldn't even be playing with that bad knee. But we just don't have replacements.

Dyer won't say it, but the real blame for the Cardinal slump could and should be laid where it belongs—with the front office. While the parent club has had a crying need for able replacements, the youngsters who could have turned the trick are kept with farm teams which are in their own pennant races.

Rochester, one farm club, has five players who were on the international league all-star team—including the loop's most valuable player, Columbus, another farm, had three men on the American association all-star team. But there they stay—and so with Dyer it's "wait till next year."

Meanwhile, don't bet that the "skipper" won't be back!

 "Reality" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ Scientist, on Sunday, September 24.
 The Golden Text is: "Lo, I come and I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the Lord," (Zechariah 2:10).
 Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men" (Titus 2:11).
 The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "We should strive to reach the Horeb heights, whose God is revealed; and the cornerstone of all spiritual building is purity" (Page 241).

THIS CHURCH PAGE IS PUBLISHED WEEKLY WITH THE HOPE THAT MORE PEOPLE WILL GO TO CHURCH. IT IS SPONSORED BY LOCAL BUSINESS FIRMS WHO BELIEVE WE SHOULD ATTEND RELIGIOUS SERVICES REGULARLY.

Society has placed in the hands of its honored judges and police officers the power on which we all must lean for protection and for aid in the interest of security and peace and justice. Back of every man who represents law and order is the authority and the social idealism of the group as a whole. You and I and one hundred and forty million people speak in the voice of the Judge on the Bench; we walk with the Guardian of the Peace as he covers his beat along the city streets.

The Strong Hand of the Law is a symbol of justice, assuring every woman and every man that he has rights before the Law and that he will be heard; he cannot be deprived of property or freedom or peace without due process of law.

The Strong Hand of the Law assures society that it will be protected from vicious and lawless men, that our homes shall be our castles and that we may walk at large without fear of being molested. Life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness are our heritage in a free country.

The Strong Hand of the Law comes to our aid when we have failed to live up to our American privileges. When we become a menace to others, the Law saves us from doing the harm for which we should always be sorry. When we have failed to correct and discipline our children and they have gotten out of control, the Law comes to assist us in checking their wrong-doing. Our Courts are increasingly concerned to help us make improvement, rather than to punish us when we go wrong. It was because of this that the Great Apostle insisted that the Powers That Be are ordained of God. The Strong Hand of the Law is assistant to the Divine Ruler in making a good world of men. Shall we not teach our children respect and honor for the Law? Shall we help them to revere rather than to be afraid of these helpers toward the common good?

BOYCE HOUSE SAYS

A veteran says that there are some things he won't understand about the Army if he lives 200 years.

For example: Why an officer of the day has to stay up all night.

Why a 10-minute break lasts only 5 minutes.

Why there are such long periods between paydays.

Why, when the bugle sounds retreat, you come to a halt instead of running like the dickens.

And why the guy who has the less privacy of any human being is called a private.

. . . that Columbus discovered America, or was it luck? He himself said that his journey would be hazardous and he didn't know where he was going. But he had faith that he would discover a great land, and he did. Likewise, the person who buys land without an abstract is embarking on a dangerous course. Like Columbus he must have faith that he won't lose his all and plenty of luck to avoid disaster.

Ranger Rambling

Ranger fans who turned out for the high school game last night got to see some football.

Bowie wasn't a bad team. To this sportswriter, the visitors looked much better than Weatherford.

The difference appeared, to this press box spectator, in the coaching and snapping of plays.

Coaches O. C. Warden and Sam Aills made a miracle in the line play of the Bulldogs. Through the Rambler's hunching that at Weatherford the main trouble was Ranger cockiness after the Hobbs tie.

The Cunningham and Comacho hand-off will be famous before the end of this season if these two continue to get the line support they had last night.

Monty Robicheaux was a mighty pretty little runner and passer for Bowie.

But his greatness only illustrated that the backs are nothing without a line to open the holes.

North Carolina with her Charlie Justice learned that Oklahoma A & M learned that when it had great backs and no line.

Take your pick of the great teams—you'll see great lines.

Herbert Williams on the left end did his share of work through his name was left out of the story. Wayne Hargraves played a nice game. Varner did good as center, doing his blocking nicely—and not getting any headlines because Bowie quit trying to go through center.

Al Tune, starting for the first time, played competently. Enough said about Cunningham, Simpson, Comacho and Floyd Woods.

Jimmy Cantrell, playing right end, may be light. But Bowie didn't find him that way.

Before the season's over Cunningham's to Mendoza's pass play may be as well-known as the hand-off Cunningham to Comacho hand-off.

There'll be more heard from Charles Massegee and Jimmy Cole before this season's over.

P.S. Here's hoping the Bulldogs don't decide they can lick the world without training and without hard line play.

Senate Stumbles

House cannot officially call it quits until the Senate is ready to go home too.

When the legislators do go home it will be with the promise to return after the November elections or earlier if the President deems it necessary. They will then consider new legislation to levy an excess profits tax, new spending for defense, statehood bills for Alaska and Hawaii and other measures.

In the drive to close up shop, both the senate and house rolled into high gear yesterday. These developments came in rapid-fire order:

Taxes — The house and senate approved the emergency war tax bill that will boost personal income levies from 12 to 29 percent on Oct. 1. Corporation income taxes also will be hiked and "loopholes" in the tax laws will be closed. The measure is designed to swell federal revenues between $4,000,000,000 and $4,700,000,000 annually.

Spending — The Senate stamped final approval on the $17,000,000,000 supplemental appropriation bill to combat worldwide Communism. The measure carried more than $11,000,000,000 for arms at home, $4,000,000,000 to help arm our allies abroad, and funds for other essentials.

Foreign policy — The lines were drawn for a political campaign battle on the hot issue of administration foreign policy, particularly in the Far East. Chairman Tom Connally, D. Tex., of the Senate foreign relations committee and the Senate Democratic campaign committee, strongly denounced "unjustified criticism" of administration moves abroad. Connally warned against being "tricked" into a war in China and said there still was hope for peace with Russia.

Contempt — The Senate voted contempt citations for ex-Communist leader Earl Browder, Fred-

Cunningham to Comacho hand-off works for 39 yards. Cole drives over two yards for TD, making it 21 to 12, twenty-one downs after the half.

AT THE START OF THE FINAL quarter, the score's still that way, 21 to 12 with Ranger in control of the ball on own 25.

Cunningham punts 50 yards. Bowie takes over. And Robicheaux takes to the air.

The air attack is good enough to carry Bowie to own 48. But Robicheaux fails to get through center on fourth down—Ranger taking over.

COMACHO GETS FIVE; Comacho gets three. Cunningham punts gets three. Woods gets one. Cunningham passes incomplete to Mendoza, and Bowie takes over. Simpson Ranger remains in control of the game at the end.
